The auxiliary from Lindsay, two engines and a gang of men were employed from early morn till late in the evening, when their efforts were rewarded by seeing the big machine safely placed on the cars. The cost of the operation is said to be nearly $300.

The mixer is a huge steel cylinder, weighing in the neighborhood of one hundred tons. It is ninety feet long and occupies the length of three cars. While rounding the curve at Smith street on Wednesday evening, the machine rolled, carrying the three cars with it into the ditch. A fence was demolished, but the cylinder was stopped by three trees, thus saving part of the garden behind it from destruction.

Fortunately the machine sustained no damage through the accident and it will be all in order to set up when it reaches its destination.

PRESENTATION TO CHOIR MEMBER

Miss Eva E. Stevens Honored by the Charlotte Street Choir.

Miss Eva E. Stevens, who, for a number of years, has been one of the most valued members of the Charlotte street choir, was recently presented by the members of the choir and the congregation with a purse, in recognition of her services in connection with the choir, in which she has been very faithful.

A CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS

Two Girls Were Injured on Saturday Evening.

Boy Hurt on Bolivar Street Yesterday —None of the Accidents Serious.

A girl about thirteen years of age, whose parents do not wish her name mentioned, was injured on Saturday evening at the Post Office corner. The girl was crossing Hunter street from the Post Office to the Bank of Commerce corner, and did not notice a buggy which was passing, going west. She walked right against the horse, and was knocked to the pavement. The wheels, which fortunately were fitted with rubber tires, struck her in the cheek, which was bruised and cut. The injured girl was taken to Dr. Carmichael's office, where she was attended to. Beyond the cuts and bruises she was not seriously injured, and was nearly all right yesterday.

Yesterday about 2 o'clock, while playing in a new house, which is being erected on Bolivar street, Roy Buyers, aged 7 years, had the misfortune to fall from the ground floor into the cellar.

In falling he knocked his head against one of the beams, and received a severe bump, and was rendered unconscious for half an hour.

The little fellow was picked up by a neighbour, and was carried to his home at 356 Sherbrooke street, where he was attended to by Dr. McCullough.

The youngster is playing about to-day and is about as well as ever.

Accident to Mary McMahon.

What might have easily proved to be a very serious accident occurred at the new Cereal Company's dam on Saturday evening between 5 and 6 o'clock. Mary McMahon, aged 15 and her mother, were just about to cross the river when their dog ran between the girl's legs, knocking her off the wall. In falling the girl struck her side against the wall, receiving a severe bruise on the side of her head. Her mother, who was the only person near, carried the unconscious girl into the residence of Mr. Matt. Young, which is the building formerly occupied by the Dickson Company as their office.

Dr. McGrath was summoned and after considerable difficulty succeeded in restoring consciousness. On the doctor's advice she was kept at Mr. Young's house until the morning, when she was removed to her home at 217 Euclid avenue, fifth ward.

The girl was resting easy to-day and will be around again in a few days.

Paris, Ont., town council is endeavouring to arrange with the Dominion Natural Gas Company to supply the town with natural gas.

Pretty Good Pay.

The salaries of the Russian peace plenipotentiaries have been fixed at $200 per day each, besides an allowance of $7,500 for travelling and other expenses.

Died from Burns.

Little Marie Louise Derouin, aged eight years, died from burns at Rat Portage. She started to carry the coal oil stove outside, where it set fire to her clothes.

Lighted Matches and is Dead.

Sadie Ford, aged 3, was playing with matches yesterday afternoon at Indian Head, when her clothes took fire and she was cruelly burned before her father, who run to her assistance, could extinguish the flames. The little girl died from her injuries this morning.

Shot the Servants.

Two sons of Henry Phipps, the Pittsburg millionaire, who has rented Lord Lovat's place in the highlands of Scotland, recently shot three of the servants, not one, as previously stated, under the alleged impression the men were preachers. They have been committed for trial in $2,500 bail each.

The New Camp.

The new camping ground for the military district of Western Ontario has been definitely chosen. Niagara Commons and Carling's Heights will be abandoned as camping grounds, and next year will see 10,000 Canadian soldiers under canvas and manoeuvring on 30,000 acres of various kinds of country which is now known as Simcoe Pine Plains, north of Alliston.

Heat in New York.

After a brief respite from the extreme heat and humidity which have caused so much suffering in New York, yesterday was the most oppressive day since the hot wave set in. Whilst the temperature was only 77 early in the morning, there was 87 per cent. humidity, the combination producing an effect on the human system equivalent in unalloyed suffering to about 120 degrees of dry heat.

Barks Like a Dog.

The case of Alice Pierce, who barks like a dog, and several times tried to bite her mother, is puzzling physicians of Wilmington, Del. The girl is 13 years old, and is the daughter of J. Bayard Pierce, 1919 West Eighth street. Last Wednesday she was overcome by the heat and was sent to a hospital, where she apparently recovered. On being returned to her home, she suddenly began to bark.

Want High Wages.

Farmers from the country around Toronto who are trying to hire immigrants for farm work find the new comers expect very high wages. One of the English farm labourers said he had been told before leaving home that some men got $75 clear for two months last year. They were expected to work harder and faster in this climate than in the old country and a labourer well earned all he was paid.

POST CARD CORRESPONDENCE.

In this column will be published communications upon post cards only. It will remain open for the use of readers, who are invited to contribute suggestions, inquiries or replies. Anything of a scurrilous personal nature will be prohibited.

Dear Sir,—I have read the letter written by D. W. Dumble in regard to the building of the Institute, and think if there were a few more in Peterborough of the same opinion as Mr. Dumble it would be much better for a great many people in this city.

It seems to me there are some who go ahead and never stop for a moment to think to what a rate the taxes are raised and how some people are going to be able to pay them.

ONE INTERESTED.

The above communication is somewhat out of the province of the post card column, and is in reference to a matter which has not been discussed in this column. The writer attacks the policy of the Examiner on the question of the Collegiate Institute, and the arguments he advances have already been answered editorially in this paper.

LAST RESPECTS TO THE DEPARTED

The funeral of the late Mrs. Charles Fitzgerald, whose death occurred in Cranbrook, B. C., took place at Douro on Saturday last. A despatch to the Examiner from Indian River, says: "The young lady resided here during the greater part of her life. Her school education was received at School Section 1, Douro, and her Christian education in St. Joseph's church, Douro. She had greatly assisted in making a very pleasant home for her father after her mother's death, and on the twentieth of August last, she felt that her parental duties were accomplished and accepted the hand of Mr. Charles Fitzgerald, who also resided in this neighbourhood, within a mile of the bride's home.

The wedding took place on the 17th of August, and everything seemed to foretell a prosperous future, but the hand of God destined otherwise. The young couple left here about the middle of October and soon were enjoying the pleasures of a comfortable home, when Almighty God saw fit to separate them.

An occurrence of this kind, severe under any circumstances, but when it occurs amongst strangers and where friends are not found to offer consolation; when their home so recently made must be deserted, and especially after such a brief illness of only five days, with one who never before knew what it was to be sick a day. The cause of death was abcess of the brain.

Her death occurred far away from home, amongst those whom she knew for only nine months, nevertheless she must have been highly respected as was evidenced by the manner in which her coffin was decorated.

Upon the coffin were numerous flowers in the form of wreaths and bouquets. Two very large wreaths were remarkably noticeable, one of which was given by the Altar Society and the other by the Children of Mary. Besides these there were many private ones.

The corpse left Cranbrooke Monday noon and arrived at Indian River on Friday, accompanied by the bereaved husband. At Indian River a large number had assembled to await the arrival and accompany the corpse to her father's home, Mr. Daniel O'Leary's, where she was waked Friday night.

On Saturday morning the corpse, accompanied by about seventy rigs, was conveyed to Saint Joseph's Church, Douro, where mass was sung by Father Kelly, and a short and appropriate sermon was delivered.

The pall bearers were Messrs. T. J. Fitzgerald, D. Gawey, Asphodel; D. Gawey, Douro; W. O'Leary, Otonabee; B. Leahy and M. J. Leahy.

The deceased leaves behind her to mourn her loss, a father with whom she spent many happy years, a husband who can be regarded as her dearest and kindest friend and five sisters and two brothers.

SPECIAL SERMON TO ZION FORESTERS

Annual Church Parade of Court Zion Canadian Order of Foresters.

Yesterday (Sunday) Court Zion, Canadian Order of Foresters, No. 827, attended divine service at Zion Methodist church. The members of the order to the number of about fifty, mustered at their hall and went in procession to the church, which was crowded with other worshippers than themselves. The special sermon was preached by Rev. W. D. P. Wilson, Methodist minister at Keene. His remarks, admirably appropriate to the occasion, were based on the last clause of the 24th verse of the seventeenth chapter of the gospel according to St. Mark, "But He could not be hid."

The musical part of the service was special. Miss Hanson, of Keene, sang a solo in capital style, "Flee as a bird," and Mr. J. Harry Scriver, a very promising oratorio tenor, also of Keene, sang in excellent manner, two solos, "Oh Happy Day" and "Face to Face." The entire service was most interesting. At the conclusion of the service the Foresters at the hall passed a vote of thanks to the minister, trustees and the singers for their several contributions to the service, which was the semi-annual, the other parade during the year being to St. Mark's Anglican Church.

Facial Paralysis.

Mrs. W. J. Brannan, Western Hill, St. Catharines, Ont., "My face was all twisted out of shape with facial paralysis, and five doctors failed to cure or even relieve. By the persistent use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I have been entirely cured, and have returned to work strong and well. have gained in weight and feel that I have a new lease of life."

A VICTORY FOR THE JAPANESE

Drive Russians Back and Occupy South Sakhalin—Russians Are Out of Corea—South of Tumen River They Occupy Only Two Positions, But Are Concentrating at Nokiefsk, North of the Tumen, and Will Make Absolute Stand There Against the Japanese Army.

Tokio, July 16.—(2 p.m.)—It is officially announced that the Russian centre holding Darline and vicinity was attacked July 11, and offered stubborn resistance. The attack was renewed at dawn of July 13, when the Japanese dislodged the Russians, driving them in the direction of Mauka. This victory ensures complete occupation of South Sakhalin by the Japanese.

Eighty prisoners were taken by the Japanese, included among whom was Lieut. Maximta. Four field pieces, one machine gun and the ammunition were captured. The Japanese loss was about 70 men killed or wounded. The Russians lost some 160 men.

Reliable information has been received here that the Russian forces in Northern Korea have gradually been driven northward since last month, and now held only two positions south of the Tumen River.

The latest information from the front, however, reports the advance south of a large force from Vladivostock, but it is believed the Russians will halt at Nokiefsk, north of the Tumen and concentrate their forces to make a resolute stand there against the Japanese advance.

The rainy season has set in in Manchuria, and prevents movements on a large scale.

Isumrud a Goner.

Admiral Yamada, commanding a squadron sent north on a reconnaissance, reports that the Russian cruiser Isumrud is a complete wreck, and that there is no hope of refloating her. The vessel lies beached heading west southwest on the northern point of the southern entrance to Vladimir Bay, about 100 miles northeast of Vladivostock.

Premier Katsura, on the authority of Emperor Mutsuhito, has signed a pardon for Captain A. E. Bougouin and Maki, his Japanese clerk. The amnesty includes freedom from police surveillance.

Captain Bougouin, a prominent French resident of Tokio, and formerly attached to the French legation here, was sentenced in July to ten years at hard labor, on the general charges of being a spy.

Taking Soundings.

Nikolskoie, Asiatic Russia, July 16.—Four Japanese torpedo boat destroyers reconnoitered Olga and Vladimir Bays, northeast of Vladivostock July 14 and July 15. They made soundings and examined the shores, and were evidently investigating the possibilities of landing troops.

Warships to the North.

St. Petersburg, July 16.—Japanese warships have appeared to the northward of the Island of Sakhalin and are presumably meditating a descent on the island.

Quiet at Ghastly Pass.

Gunsiffi Pass, July 16.—Reports that the Russian army is in a precarious situation appear to be without foundation. Investigations made by correspondents of the Associated Press show that neither flank has been turned, and that in fact the Russian wings are more advanced than the centre. The Japanese centre is strongly fortified. Many siege guns have been emplaced along the Changtufu-Nanchenso line, and there is a triple ring of forts commanding the Mandarin-road. The Japanese are using novel elephant-trap style of entrenchments, consisting of ditches covered with platforms, which are balanced in the middle, and which tilt into vertical positions under the feet of the attackers.

China's Role.

St. Petersburg, July 16.—China's possible role in the Russo-Japanese peace negotiations is attracting more attention. The foreign office intimates that China's notification that she would decline, unless assent was previously given to her to send a representative to the peace conference, to consider the Washington treaty binding if its provisions affecting Chinese territory were regarded as prejudicial, was sent to all the powers in the form of a circular note. Russia, according to the foreign office, sent no reply to Pekin, but it may be significant that some papers which occasionally have official inspirations, like Prince Ouktomsky's Vedemosti, look with complaisance, if not satisfaction, upon the prospect that China may try to have a voice in the terms of peace.

The Shanghai correspondent of a news agency reports that China has already selected Wu Ling Fang, former minister to Washington, to go to the United States to watch the proceedings.

Instructions in Detail.

M. Witte spent an hour with Mr. Meyer, the American ambassador, today, discussing the forthcoming peace conference. Before leaving for Paris Wednesday, M. Witte will have still another audience with the emperor. He is expected to be the bearer of a personal message from the emperor to President Roosevelt. The Associated Press is authorized by M. Hartwig, director of the first department of the foreign office, to state that the instructions to the Russian plenipotentiaries cover 30 pages. They are very detailed, being especially specific as to the leveling of the fortifications of Vladivostok.

Story Was Untrue.

Admiral Wirenius, chief of the general staff of the navy, says that the report of a mutiny on board and the sinking of the battleship Catherine II., circulated in Vienna and printed in the United States, is without foundations.

An examination of the battleship Knias Potemkine, which is at Sebastopol, shows that her boilers are in a bad condition owing to neglect, but that there is no damage to her machinery aside from that done by water in the engine compartment.

Slaughter Goes On.

Lodz, July 15.—Three persons were killed and six wounded by a volley fired by Cossacks during an anti-government demonstration in Kamienna-street this afternoon.

Boss in Poland Again.

Warsaw, July 16.—General Maximovich, the governor-general, has issued an order forbidding illegal assemblies, processions and gatherings in the streets thruout Poland. The government now feels strong enough to enforce the fullest order and to take stern measures against all manifestants.

Linevitch Gets Busy.

Tokio, July 16.—It is officially reported that Gen. Linevitch's force numbers 400,000, and it is reported that he is extensively using water transportation to bring forward men, supplies and ammunition.

An official who recently returned from Manchuria expresses the opinion that Linevitch plans a great demonstration to synchronize with the meeting of the plenipotentiaries, but that he does not intend real aggression.

Two Bombs Thrown.

Kutais, Transcaucasia, July 16.—During the rendition of a musical program in a public garden here to-day, two bombs were thrown. No one was killed.

From New York to the Pole.

New York, July 17.—The Roosevelt, in which Capt. Robert E. Peary hopes to reach the north pole, started on her long voyage at 3.10 p. m. Saturday. Capt. Peary and a party of guests were on board at the start, and remained with the ship on her trip down the bay, but they left her at the Narrows, returning to the city on a navy tug. Capt. Peary started last night by rail for Sydney, C. B., where he will join the ship.

HAPPENINGS IN MILLBROOK

Rev. Dr. Armstrong, Ottawa, Preached There Yesterday.

Many Summer Visitors in Town—Several New Doctors Locating—Excursions.

Millbrook, July 17.—Rev. Dr. Armstrong, Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, accompanied by his wife and family, is spending the summer in town. Millbrook is proud, indeed, to claim Rev. Dr. Armstrong as one of its sons, and it has been his custom for many years to spend his vacation amongst his relatives in and around the village. The people of Millbrook and Cavan had an opportunity of hearing the Moderator of the General Assembly preach on Sunday evening in the Presbyterian church, when the Rev. doctor delivered a most interesting and instructive discourse, taking his text from the 53rd verse of the 8th chapter St. John, "Whom Makest Thou Thyself?"

Miss Corbut, of Port Hope, is spending a few days, the guest of the Misses Fair.

Miss Jessie Cross, of Toronto, has been the guest of Miss Gertrude Wood for the past few weeks.

Dr. Needler, of the Faculty of Toronto University, his wife and family are spending the summer holidays in town.

Dr. A. L. Russell has announced his intention of commencing the practice of his profession in Millbrook. Dr. Russell is a Millbrook boy who has just recently received his degree, and his many friends will be pleased to learn that he intends locating in his native village.

Dr. Snellgrove, a young Toronto M. D., has opened his office in Millbrook, succeeding Dr. N. C. McKinnon, who recently moved to Peterborough.

Mrs. Robt. Ruddy and babe are spending a few weeks at Muskoka.

Dr. Fred. Coombe and Mrs. Coombe, of Denver, Col., are spending a few weeks in town, the guests of the former's brother, Mr. W. H. Coombe. They are accompanied by Mrs. Coombe's sister, Miss Martin, of Newark, N. J.

Miss Helvie Martin, of Seattle, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. John Allan, for the summer. Miss Martin has been attending school in Boston.

Mr. Basil Fitzgerald, of the Trader's Bank, Orono, has returned to his post of duty, after spending his holidays at the home of his parents here.

The wedding is announced to take place on August 3rd, of Dr. S. W. Clarke and Miss Hettie Reid, both of town.

The annual excursion under the auspices of the Presbyterian Sunday School will take place on July 20th to Sturgeon Point and Fenelon Falls.

The 6th of August has been chosen as the date for the annual excursion of the Methodist Sunday School. The objective point will be Pegion Lake.

Considerable new concrete sidewalk has been laid in the village this summer, which is a decided improvement over the old dilapidated board walks, which were forever out of repair.

Millbrook has been without a station house for the past six months, since the former one was destroyed by fire. Preparations are now being made, however, for the erection of a handsome new building. A second-class coach which has been sidetracked, has been serving the purpose of a station house in the meantime.

There is a rumour in the village to the effect that the Canadian Bank of Commerce will shortly open a branch here.

Miss Margaret Denne, of Peterborough, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. St. A. Smith.

SERVICE UNDER DIFFICULTIES

How Two Religious Organizations Conduct Their Worship.

The City Mission, an Offspring of the Salvation Army.

The Salvation Army, and kindred organizations, are to be commended, for the enterprise they display in trying to persuade people to "be good," and the fact that sometimes two agencies engaged in the same work, should sometimes clash in their methods, as they did last night in Peterborough, is not an indication that they are not both right, or that they are both not worthy the support of those who, while they are willing to be persuaded, are not always as ready to act on the advice given.

The Salvation Army Band, thirty-five or so strong, gave a sacred concert at the corner of George and Hunter streets, last night, and attracted a good sized crowd, and, doubtless, did some good. At the corner of George and Simcoe streets, another crowd had gathered, and there they listened to the representatives of another organization, which, while it is young, is probably doing a good work. It is in reality an offshoot from the Salvation Army and the existence of this society is doubtless a result of the controversy in reference to the accounts of the local corps of the Army.

This second body of earnest people is composed of members of the City Mission, whose rooms are on Water street, where meetings are held on Sunday and through the week. They have not yet attained to the dignity of the parent body, in respect to the possession of a band, but they do the best they can, and last night a dozen or so men and women gathered at the corner mentioned, and, to the accompaniment of a cornet, played by an ex-member of the Salvation Army Band, sang hymns of invitation to salvation, and, the fact that the band of the Army passed down George street, while were there singing, the sound of their voices, and the music from the one lone cornet being completely drowned by that of the band, apparently made no difference to them for they kept right on, totally indifferent to the interruption to their worship.

Died in Police Station.

Two minutes after Basil Kenney was brought to No. 1 Police Station, Toronto, yesterday afternoon on the charge of being drunk he was dead. Kenney is the man who was found over on the Island Tuesday night and brought to the Emergency Hospital in an unconscious condition from alcoholic poisoning.

Are You Strong?

Do You Eat and Sleep Well? —Or Are You Pale, Weak and Miserable?

Has your nerve given out? Have you lost confidence in yourself? Has work become such an awful burden that you look upon it with horror?

It's quite impossible for anyone to be weak or nervous that uses Ferrozone. It contains so many strength-giving properties benefit is bound to result from its use.

Ferrozone possesses the power to kindle new vitality and vigor where almost a dying condition of weakness exists.

It is an extraordinary and magical tonic, containing more actual nourishment and strengthening elements than you can get at in any other way. As a blood purifier, nerve strengthener and appetising tonic there is simply no equal to Ferrozone. Of this we are positively sure.

It is crowned with the success of splendid cures; will restore anyone to health who uses it. The following letters from people who have actually experienced what Ferrozone can do will clearly show you just how beneficially it acts:—

No Medicine Ever Did So Much Lasting Good As Ferrozone.

"It would be difficult to express my thanks for the benefit I have received from Ferrozone," says Miss Eva Wigle, of Fierceville. "I was so weak and miserable that I could scarcely go around the house. My head ached, there was a dragging weakness in my limbs, and I felt as if every spark of life had left me. Ferrozone improved my appetite, toned up my blood, and soon made me well. Nothing I ever used did me half the good I got from Ferrozone."

The Great Tonic, Ferrozone, Brought Back Life.

"I feel patriotic to speak a good word for such a magnificent tonic as Ferrozone," says E. P. Gerow, of Yorktown. "I was wretchedly weak out. I was apprehensive, and lacked confidence. It was simply due to my very weak state. The only remedy that really did me lasting good was Ferrozone. It rebuilt my strength, has made me as vigorous and happy, as a man could be. In the whole range of medicines I never used anything with half the merit I found in Ferrozone."

Though you spend a thousand dollars on doctors you can't get a more vitalising, strengthening tonic than Ferrozone. It is the best that money, combined with scientific research, can produce. If anything in this world will make you strong it must be Ferrozone. Others have proved its worth. You can easily do so for yourself. It will send new vital energy and renewed youth singing through your veins. It's nature's own remedy—a true food tonic.

Fishermen report that the lunge fishing during the past week has been a record breaker and many excellent samples of that finny tribe have been secured by the more patient. The almost unanimous reply appears to be, "I got a very nice one, but say you should have seen the one that got away."

The Cottagers' Association have arranged for three kinds of programmes for the season, to take place in the evenings at the dancing Island pavilion. They consist of dancing, concerts and bonfires and the large crowds who already assemble there, gives evidence of the popularity of the work being done by the Committee in charge.

THE EIGHTH CAMP AT CLEAR LAKE

The Annual Outing of the Y. M. C. A. Boys.

Incidents of the First Two Days in Camp—The "Scribe is Heard From.

Y.M.C.A. Camp, Clear Lake, July 14th.—For the eighth successive time the Y.M.C.A. boys of Peterborough, have taken possession of this pleasant camping ground, where during that time over 250 have enjoyed the annual outing under the auspices of the Association.

The advance party left the city on Tuesday at noon via the G. T. R. to Lakefield. Those composing it were Mr. G. H. Williamson, secretary; Arthur Emmerson, Frank Emmerson, Peter Wallace and Richard Baker, the latter coming with the boys to give them a much needed hand in the erection of the tents.

Upon arrival at the camp no time was lost in unloading. An accident befell the stove, which the deck hands allowed to drop out of the boat, with such force that it was rendered good only for the scrap heap. The old style dugout had again to be brought into use, and its utility is the joy of the cook.

The tents were speedily erected, and everything was under cover before the heavy down pour of rain came on, which continued well into the night, and after a few hours' respite began again, causing delay in the building of the spacious and convenient cook house, which graces the dips between the camp line and the edge of the lake. Mr. Baker proved very popular with the boys and sandwiched in a good deal of fun with the genuine hard work that belongs to the pioneer corps.

The main body, 33 strong, left the city on Wednesday, after a great deal of delay, on account of the Smith street accident, which blocked the track. The boys showed good patient after their two hours' wait at the station. Great merriment marked the journey all along the way, and several of the boys swam from the boat as it neared the longlooked for destination.

As is usual, it was hard for the fellows to get settled down the first night, and as soon as evening came the feathers began to fly as the line up for the pillow battle appeared. It was after two o'clock on Thursday morning before the camp got settled down, and all were at it again as early as 4.30 a.m.

We forgot to mention the powwow on the preceding evening when the officers were appointed, and the baseball league organized. Ed. Eyres was appointed chief. Short speeches were made by Messrs. Holmer, Williamson and Might, and the rules of the camp ready which the boys very heartily endorsed.

All the boys are well and promise to give a good account of themselves—physically and ... every other way, when they come back to the city. You'll hear from me again.

The Scribe.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST.
HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-west Provinces, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him.

Homestead Duties.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence with the said father or mother.

(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector.

Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

PICAYUNE AMERICAN BANKS.

If there is one thing in which Canada is ahead of the United States in, it is in her banking system, the superior of which is not to be found in existence.

This superiority is emphasized in an article in the Finance Chronicle, of Montreal, which says:

Of the 5,200 or more of national bans in the United Stkates, a large number of them are small concerns of $25,000 capital. Each one is independent of all others. An officer of the Treasury is quoted by the New York Commercial Bulletin, as saying, "There has been a banking boom, almost to inflation." How is it possible for these 5,200 banks to be systematically inspected, as the law requires? The system is glaringly absurd, and only serves to create confidence where it is wholly unwarranted.

These picayune American national banks, as a rule, hold only 15 per cent. of reserve against deposits, the average in Canada being nearly fifty per cent., and in many instances much higher. Except in a small number of reserve cities it is only fifteen per cent. of deposits, and three-fifths of this may be in the form of balances due from banks in the reserve cities. In the reserve cities the requirement is twenty-five per cent., but half of it may be kept as cash deposits in a central reserve city, which for nine-tenths of all the reserve practically means New York banks that are designated reserve agents, where it counts as part of their own reserve. The result is that country banks need hold but six per cent. of cash reserve against deposits, the rest being credit balances in reserve city banks, where they count against their own twenty-five per cent. reserve, half of which is on deposit in central reserve cities, chiefly New York, and is included in the bank reserves there. The system is compared to a balloon, which is safe, when all conditions are favourable, but will give way under pressure of a storm. Our contemporary raises a warning against credit becoming inflated through the operations of these small, unsubstantial American banks, which are freely spoken of as a danger to the financial interests of the country. What a contrast to the branch banks of Canada, each of which has the strength of the whole institution.

RETURN TO SANER IDEAS.

Municipal socialism is not making the rapid headway in Chicago its advocates hoped for when they carried their ticket and policy at the polls, says the Hamilton Times. Mayor Dunne, who was swept into office of the trial wave, had but a very crude idea of what was meant, in practice, by the cause of which he was the figure-head, and he planned a master-stroke to obtain a working basis. He sent to Glasgow for an expert to advise him. This was a good move, from whatever point it might be viewed. Mr. James Dalrymple, Superintendent of Glasgow's tramways, was the man secured. Mr. Dalrymple came, saw Chicago, looked over the situation and discovered "where he was at." Mr. Dalrymples official report has not yet been published, but ere he left he is said to have expressed his surprise at the conditions that he found to prevail, and to have intimated that they were not of a character to make him expect municipal ownership and operation of the street railways by Chicago to be easily made a success. Now it is learned that President Fornes, of the New York Board of Alderman, was travelling while Mr. Dalrymple was visiting Chicago, and that he made it his business to visit Glasgow, and carefully study the municipal operation of utilities. He is reported as saying:—

"The conditions in Glasgow are so different from those in any city in the United States that I believe there can be no comparison in regard to results. My advice is to go slow on municipal ownership. I do not say I am opposed to it, but I do not support it as enthusiastically as heretofore. The time has not come for the country to adopt it."

The evidences accumulate to prove that the differences in men and methods, customs and requirements are so great that Old Country experience cannot be made a safe guide for New World peoples, and that even were the record of municipalization in the old land an unqualified success, it is far from being clear that it could be made successful here. Perhaps, in some respects, this is not flattering to us; but we may as well face the facts. The wise man does not take drugs undiscriminatingly, but only when they are indicated.

Mayor Dunne, of Chicago, has already abandoned his original scheme for immediate ownership. He advances a scheme for the acquirement and operation of the street railway, "through the instrumentality of a private company composed of five men who command the confidence of the people," who shall be "bound by contracts ensuring the performance of their undertaking wholly in the public interest." This company is to acquire and operate the roads, the capital stock to be the only incumbrance on the property, and the dividends to be limited to 6 per cent. He proposes a 20-year franchise, a stock subscription cost limit of 2 1-2 per cent., the holding of the stock by a trustee, and five cent fares till such time as 6 per cent. dividends are earned.

This plan is not public ownership and operation of the roads. It is simply company ownership and operation, that it provides for only five "ground floor" men. Instead of as many as a company might find useful. It has, however, two good features; it repudiates municipal socialism, and it asserts the right of the people to control the monopoly. It comes in some degree nearer the Times' idea of popular ownership and control of the franchise and conditions of its operation, so as to secure the greatest benefit for the people. The right to the streets is a common one, and if the people give up to any company under franchise a certain part of that right they should in return exercise control and share in the benefits accruing. Let the company own the rails, ties and cars, and manage the road; let the public control and re-regulate and collect its rental in such form as may be just and mutually beneficial.

SPORT NOTES.

Strange things happened on Saturday. After having allowed Cobourg to defeat them on their own grounds, Peterborough went to the lake town and trimmed the Cobourg bunch to the tune of 7-3, but stranger still is the tale which is told from Sotogoville. The Post, for the last week has been coaxing the citizens of that town to "go up to the baseball diamond on Saturday, and see the Red Skins whitewash the Port Hope team," but the wires on Saturday night communicated the information that instead of the Lindsay team administering a coat of white to the Port Hopers, the latter actually defeated them on their own diamond. That's rubbing it in with a vengeance, and the question now is, will the Post account for it? With one solitary win to their credit this year, the "champions" do not seem to be in much danger of again running off with the pennant.

By winning from Cobourg on Saturday the local team demonstrated the fact that they are distinctly in the race for the championship. That unfortunate game which Cobourg won from them here is about the only bad break they have made this year. They should have won that game, while their defeat in Bowmanille was almost a foregone conclusion. That Bowmanville bunch, by the way, will take a lot of beating. They are not saying much, but they play ball, which is more to the point, and with a perfect average this season look pretty good for the honours, and about the only real opponents they have now in the Peterborough team. It is pretty safe betting that these two teams will fight it out for the pennant, and, if the locals play the game the way they are capable of playing it, it should not be hard to figure where the flag will fly next season.

Those who go to the Riverside Park on Wednesday next will see a lacrosse game which will be well worth watching. The Oshawa and Peterborough teams, with one win and one loss each to their credit, will play a game which will undoubtedly decide the championship of this district, and who knows, but some other championship as well. Reports from Oshawa go to show that the team will come here on Wednesday confident of winning. The comparative ease with which they defeated the Peterborough team early in the season has given them confidence, and it is stated that the visitors have strengthened up considerably since their first game. If this is the case, there will be one of the greatest games on Wednesday at the old Riverdale Park that has been seen here since the days when Orillia and the local team fought it out.

While the Oshawas may be stronger, and doubtless they are, the local team will also be some stronger than it was in the game in Oshawa. Morgan and Derocher will, in all probability figure on the defence, while McGrath, McCabe and Glover will be added to the home. These, with the other members of the team, should be able to give a good account of themselves. What the lacrosse club wants now is the support of the public. A day in the middle of the week may not be just the best time to take a half holiday to attend a lacrosse game, but all who can possibly do so should go to this game, if for nothing else than to show the team that they are in sympathy. The players themselves, by their action in combining to make a team which should bring credit to the town, have shown a most commendable spirit, and, if they are supported by the public as they deserve, will this year do credit not only to themselves, but also to the town which has had in the past one of the best reputations for a lacrosse town in the province.

The feat performed to-day by Messrs. Carson and Strickland is perhaps the greatest of its kind ever attempted in this Country, and that the feat was performed in Peterborough is a fact of which all its citizens should be proud, but that one of the men who made the swim is a native of the city is a fact of which we should be even more proud. Mr. Strickland has won many distinctions by reason of his achievements in the swimming art, but that of to-day is the greatest of all. What these two men have accomplished will also serve the purpose of interesting the public in an art which, according to their view is very much neglected, and also much misunderstood. It would seem that it was almost the duty of parents to teach, or have their children taught to swim, as much as it is their duty to have them taught to read, for, while their inability to do the latter will never cost them their lives, inability to swim may, and frequently does.

Mr. Carson states, and, coming from a man of his knowledge in the subject on which he speaks, his words should have some weight that he only knew one good swimmer to drown, and that was an exceptional case. Speaking generally, he said that a good swimmer can never drown, and Mr. Strickland supported this view. If this is a fact, it would seem that it would be incumbent upon everone to acquire the art, because one can never tell when ones inability to swim may cost him his life. It is to be hoped that the result of the visit to Peterborough of these gentlemen, and their performance may be that a greater interest in swimming may be aroused, and that there will be some systematic effort made to teach the youth, what they should know, how to save themselves if they should be upset into the water.

MANY VISITORS AT YOUNG'S POINT

Summer Hotels are Already Accomodating Many—Other News.

From our own Correspondent)

Young's Point, July 17. — The season here is at its height, and quite a number of summer tourists are registered at the Lakeview, and South Beach. The steamboats are also busy carrying passengers back and forth from Lakefield to this place and points on Stony Lake.

RECORD-BREAKING SWIM IN THE TRENT CANAL

Mr. H. T. Strickland This Morning Swam From Lakefield to Lift Lock, Establishing New Canadian Record---Finished Strong After Remarkable Feat---Mr. G. H. Corsan Stopped One Mile Above Lock---Journey Was Completed in Five Hours and Five Minutes.

A feat which will live for many years in the annals of Canadian sport was performed this morning when Mr. H. T. Strickland, of Toronto, swam from Lakefield to the lift lock, a distance of over 9 miles, establishing a Canadian record for long distance swimming.

Mr. Strickland was, as was previously announced, accompanied by Mr. G. H. Corsan also of Toronto, who while he did not swim to the lock landed only about one mile above successfully negotiating the eight miles and finishing strong. Mr. Strickland emerged from the water at the lock in a fresh condition and did not complain of fatigue in the slightest.

The swimmers commenced their record-breaking journey at 8.10 o'clock this morning entering the water at the Lakefield Lock. They were accompanied by Messrs. F. M. Delafosse and T. B. Marling, in a canoe, and R. M. Roy's yacht, the Rob Roy, with the following party on board: Messrs. R. M. Roy, J. D. Craig and Captain Bennett, of Peterborough; C. S. Tanner, W. Stewart and Dr. Gibson, of Lakefield, and an Examiner representative.

The swimmers before entering the water were both in first-class form. In preparation for their task they covered their bodies with olive oil. The swim down to the No. 6 Dam, a distance of about 1 1-2 miles, was completed in 30 minutes. The swimmers were looked through with the accompanying crafts at the various locks along the route, floating in midstream as the gates were swung. No rests were taken. The time between the various locks was as follows:—

Dam No. 5 to Nassau — 1-2 mile, 30 minutes.

Nassau to Lift Lock — 3 1-2 miles, 2 hours and 15 minutes.

The total time consumed upon the journey was five hours and five minutes, having left Lakefield at 8.10 a.m., and arrived at the Lift Lock at 1.15 p.m., of which time 25 minutes was consumed in the locks.

Neither of the swimmers exhibited the slightest sign of fatigue at any stage of the journey, and Mr. Strickland when he emerged from the water expressed the opinion that he could continue the journey for five miles. The only difficulty which he experienced was with his eyes, which became somewhat inflamed and swollen with the bright glare of the sun. He also exhibited a slight soreness under one arm caused by the friction with the bathing suit. Mr. Corsan was swimming apparently quite strong when he left the water. He complained of a feeling of nausea, caused by having eaten while in the water some malted nuts, of which both swimmers partook upon various occasions during the swim. In the first part of the journey the greatest speed, as was expected, was made, the current being much stronger than in the lower part of the canal below Nassau. Mr. Strickland swam the entire distance with one stroke known as the overhand. He maintained a position upon his right side. His long, graceful stroke was very effective. The greatest speed was made between Dams No. 3 and 4, the current flowing more rapidly at this point, and the long stretch of two miles was made in remarkably quick time.

A large crowd had assembled at the Lift Lock to witness the finish, which occurred at 1.15 o'clock. Mr. Strickland received a most enthusiastic reception upon emerging from the water. An interesting exhibition of life saving was given by Mr. Carson, as well as a practical demonstration of the various strokes in the art of swimming.

The swimmers were photographed several times by Mr. R. M. Roy.

Mr. Strickland was born in Peterborough in the year 1876, where he was also married some years ago to Miss Hall. He is a son of Mr. H. T. Strickland. His weight before entered the water was 178 lbs., and he is a man of powerfully developed physique. Beside the record which he to-day made, Mr. Strickland is also the holder of the record from the Lift Lock to Hanlan's Point, Toronto, a distance of 11-2 miles, his time being 50 minutes.

LECTURE ON THE MARCONI SYSTEM

Of Wireless Telegraph to be Given To-morrow.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir,—It will interest you and the citizens of Peterborough to know that the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company has made arrangements for a series of lectures to be given in your city in the Lecture Hall, Y. M. C. A. Building, the first of which will be given to-morrow (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock.

A complete set of apparatus such as is in daily use in trans-Atlantic work will be exhibited together with other interesting items. Wireless telegraphy promises to become so important a factor in the world's commerce that everybody should take advantage of this opportunity of familiarising themselves with the same.

Mr. H. W. Beauclerk, of London, England, representing the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company, will be in attendance to explain this wonderful system.

Ladies are most cordially invited to attend. No charge will be made for this lecture.

Mr. Beauclerk has honoured the Board of Trade by consulting me with reference to the lecture. I need scarcely say that the members of the Board of Trade are earnestly requested to be present as this is the first, and in all probability will be the last time for several months at least, that this interesting lecture will be given here. I feel sure that the general public will not permit this opportunity to pass without taking advantage of same.

Yours truly,
D. Hughes Charles,
Pres. Peterborough Board of Trade.

THE LOCALS WON FROM COBOURG

The Peterborough baseball team scored a splendid victory on Saturday, when in Cobourg they defeated the Cobourg team by 7—3 in a Midland League Championship game. It will be remembered that the first time these two teams met, in Peterborough, the local team was defeated by one run, but they turned the tables on them in good shape on Saturday. Only four hits were secured off Douglas, while the locals gathered a baker's dozen off Downs, who was easy for the heavy-hitting Peterboroughs.

The visiting team played snappy ball all the way through, and richly deserved the win. The players state that the umpire, Weeks of Bowmanville, was not as impartial as he should have been, and the visitors should have scored a shut out.

Graham played a great game at first base, having 12 put outs and 3 assists. He figured in a fast double play, and out of four times at bat got three nice hits. In fact all the players hit the ball well, and Downs proved to be no puzzle to them. Stayne played second base and covered all kinds of ground. Sheridan, in centre field was there with the goods, and got everything that came his way.

"MULL" DOUGLAS,

Douglas proved a complete mystery to the Cobourg batters, and only four scratchy hits were made off his delivery. Only three of the local team struck out, the whole nine showing a revival in their batting.

The batteries were, Peterborough, Douglas and Rattray; Cobourg, Downs and Floyd. Score by innings:

Cobourg	3	4	6

To-morrow night the local team will play the Night Owls and on Thursday, the Charlotte street team. These two games should pull them in good shape, for their game with Bowmanville here on Saturday, which will probably decide the League Championship.

Why Smith's Triple Cure Cures Dyspepsia and Catarrh.

No treatment in the world cures dyspepsia and catarrh so thoroughly and completely as Smith's Triple Cure. The reason for such wonderful results is simple and obvious—because this grand triple cure system fully removes the causal cause of dyspepsia—the catarrh of the stomach. Smith's Triple Cure by its combined action on the blood, nerves and mucous membranes cures catarrh wherever located. It drives the poison out of the system and cleans the mucous membranes so completely that catarrh cannot exist or find lodgment.

Dyspepsia may start with a neglected cold in the head or a sore throat extending down into the stomach and setting up catarrh of the stomach. The catarrhal process may result from too rapid eating, overloading the stomach, eating badly cooked food, and indulging too freely in tea drinks and stimulants. Smith's Triple Cure cures any case of this kind because it is a foe to catarrh. When you once recognize the fact that dyspepsia is usually caused by catarrh of the stomach, you can understand why Smith's Triple Cure is invariably successful in curing dyspepsia.

People who eat too fast, too much, and too often, who suffer with dyspepsia, heartburn, indigestion, palpitation and nervous weakness, should use Smith's Triple Cure which gives such sufferers quick and positive help—its use always leads to cures that are lasting. This grand treatment gives new vigor to the overworked and dyspeptic stomach. Begin its use at once. Ask your dealer for Smith's Triple Cure for Catarrh, Dyspepsia and the blood. A grand new system of four separate remedies, a full two weeks' treatment, curing catarrh in any part of the system, price only 50 cents, the greatest value for the money ever offered. If your druggist won't supply you send 25 two-cent stamps and we will send it post paid and guarantee safe delivery. Address W. P. Smith Co., 125 St. James St., Montreal.

RESULTS OF THE WINNIPEG STORM

Caused Death of Four Persons and Others Injured.

MUD BANK DERAILS TRAIN

Engineer and Fireman, Both of Rainy River, Were Slightly Scalded, But No Passengers Were Hurt — Lightning Kills Young Man at Sanford, Man., and Plays Havoc With Crops in Ontario.

Winnipeg, July 17.—Reports from the Province generally show that the damage done by the storm Friday night was not nearly so serious as was indicated by the destruction wrought in Winnipeg and the immediate vicinity. Its full force being practically confined to eastern parts, where there is little wheat, though some of this was knocked down. So far as is known at present there were only two victims to the fury of the tornado outside Winnipeg.

Cost Four Lives.

The collapse of the Hoover building cost four lives. Wm. Steinhoff, Bert White and two sisters, named Riley, were killed in the wreckage and the injured were F. Bennett of Acton, Ont., legs crushed; John Steinhoff, badly crushed; Dugald Ferguson, William Daly, Bert Gledhill, A. McCoomb and Kate Dow.

One of the most marvelous escapes was that of five men belonging to 13th Field Battery camp on exhibition grounds. A new plaster portico erected last year was blown down. The men were only found to be missing at roll call in the morning, but nevertheless they were rescued from the debris almost unscratched.

Mud Bank Derails Train.

Friday night's storm also caused an accident in the Rainy River district that might have been far more disastrous. At 2.35 o'clock Saturday morning the westbound steamship limited on the C.N.R. from Port Arthur to Winnipeg ran into a mud bank at a point between Nickle Lake and Rocky Inlet, near Fort Frances, Ont. The engine and baggage car were derailed, and Engineer Macey and Fireman Gorham, both of Rainy River, slightly scalded. None of the passengers were injured.

The accident was due to a mud slide which blocked the track. Both Macey and Gorham stuck to the engine, but their injuries are not serious. The injured men were taken to Fort Frances Hospital.

Crops Pounded by Hail.

Windsor, July 17.—The violent storm of last week created widespread damage throughout Essex County. Near Essex and within a radius of two miles the growing crops were slashed by a terrific hail storm. The storm was of the cyclone variety and came in a streak of about 100 yards wide and swept on for about two miles. It lasted but twenty minutes, but did damage to the corn and tobacco crops conservatively estimated at $25,000. In places the plants were literally pounded into the earth. In and around Leamington and Kingsville the wind tore large trees up by the roots, blew down barns, etc.

Devastation by Lightning.

Tilbury, July 17.—A severe thunder storm passed over Tilbury and vicinity Friday afternoon, accompanied by hail, which has wrought considerable damage to the corn crop in some sections, completely cutting it down.

The following losses from lightning are reported: Hugh Latimer, lot 19, con. 9, Tilbury North, barn struck and totally destroyed with contents; N. McHerney, lot 18, con. 8, Tilbury East, barn struck, damage small; Charles Shivas, North Back Line, Tilbury East, barn stuck, damage small; Thos. Hornick, lot 18, con. 8; Tilbury East, barn struck, damage small; Robert Mills, South Middle-road, Tilbury East, stable struck, damage to building small, but a valuable horse killed inside of the building.

Killed by Bolt.

Sanford, Man., July 17.—A young farmer named Robert Burns was found on the roadside by a neighbor Saturday morning. He had been struck by lightning and instantly killed.

KINGSVILLE'S TWO DROWNINGS.

One a Boy in Bathing and the Other a Sailor Named McFadden.

Kingston, July 17.—A drowning accident occurred at Camp Essex, Cedar Beach, about three miles west of here, Friday afternoon, when Orley Hyatt, 15 years of age, was bathing. He got beyond his depth, and, not being able to swim, was drowned before help could reach him. He was with the Baptist Church picnic when the accident occurred.

A sailor named McFadden, one of the crew of the Canadian fishery protection cruiser Vigilant, was hoisting a boat from the water when the tackling gave way and he fell into the lake and was drowned. He was a respected member of the crew, and his home was at Comber, Ont.

Six Drownings at New York.

New York, July 17.—Six persons lost their lives while bathing in the waters about New York yesterday. John Smith, a line guard at the Washington Heights baths, perished in a brave but vain attempt to rescue Norman Flaminer, a boy who was unable to swim.

BOOZE OR MEDICINE?

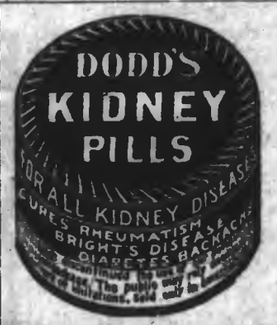
Which will you have? If a woman suffering from one of the delicate ailments peculiar to your sex it will be well for you to know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only remedy advertised for such maladies which is absolutely free from intoxicating liquors and all other harmful agents. The good you real from its use is not the delusive exhilaration from a tippling beverage, from which the system reacts into a worse condition than before. It may be a little slower in manifesting its bracing and invigorating action, but its benefits are none the less positive and, best of all, they are lasting. It's an honest medicine—not a beverage.

"I have been taking your medicine for the last three weeks and can say I am gaining in weight. I write first to tell you of my health," writes Mrs. Thomas Hiland, Mount Pleasant, Iowa. "I have been having very poor health all winter. I consulted with our family doctor but got no relief only while taking the medicine. I took Dr. Pierce's medicine several years ago and knew it was good for any one suffering with female trouble. Have taken only three bottles and am feeling nicely. Very much pain and distress nearly every month, could not sleep nights when I began taking the 'Favorite Prescription.' Heart trembled me and I had cold and numb spells till my heart would almost stop beating. Now I am glad I commenced taking your medicine. If I continue with your treatment am positive I will be cured."

Every suffering woman in this land should write to Dr. Pierce and learn how certainly he can help her to health and strength. It costs nothing to write and receive entirely free the advice of one of the most experienced physicians in this country. His great thousand-page book the Common Sense Medical Adviser, in cloth binding, sent for 21 one-cent stamps to cover the mere cost of mailing only, or, sent in paper covers, entirely free. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Those ORIGINAL Little Liver Pellets of Dr. R. V. Pierce over 30 years ago have been sugar coated, but never varnished. They're made of purest vegetable, common sense and reliable medicinal principles, extracted from native American roots and herbs. Easy to take as candy. Regulate, purify, clean, invigorate and strengthen. One little "Pellet" for a laxative, three for a cathartic.

Don't allow the dealer to insult your intelligence by offering his own remedy to you instead of this well-known prescription of Dr. Pierce.



DEATH BY SCALDING.

Boiler Explosion at Hawkesbury Has Fatal Results.

Montreal, July 17.—Eugene Renaud and Joseph Severin are dead at the Royal Victoria Hospital as the result of injuries received from an explosion at Hawkesbury, Ont., Friday afternoon, in Riordon Paper mills.

Severin, who was 30 years of age, expired shortly after his admission to the institution, and Renaud, who was 21 years of age, survived his companion by several hours.

An inquest will be held.

Struck by Stray Bullet.

Peterboro, July 17.—Mrs. J. Andley Pierce, of McKeesport, Pa., while in a boat with her husband above Burleigh Falls, Stoney Lake, Saturday afternoon, was struck, though not dangerously wounded, by a stray bullet from a rifle in the hands of some person as yet unknown. With all possible speed Mrs. Pierce was brought to Peterboro and placed in Nicholl's Hospital.

Stepped on Rusty Nail.

Chatham, July 17.—Hubert, the 16 year-old son of A. T. McArthur of Harwich Township, died Saturday morning in the hospital here, as the result of blood poisoning, caused by stepping on a rusty nail some three weeks ago.

Stone Falls On a Man.

Port Arthur, July 17.—H. Huston of London, Ont., is in a hospital here in a critical condition. He was working on a Methodist church when a large piece of stone fell from the top of the building, lighting on his head. It is not expected he will live.

Her Neck Broken.

Buffalo, July 17.—Mrs. J. A. Bachuer of Bridgeburg, Ont., jumped from a rapidly moving trolley car here Saturday night and was instantly killed, her neck being broken.

Error Costs Lives of Four.

Mount Vernon, Ind., July 17.—In a head-on collision between two freight trains on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad near Upton, Ind., Saturday four persons were killed and eight injured. One of the injured will die. A train despatcher mistook the number of the trains.

YANKEES HAVE AN EARTHQUAKE

Portland, Maine, July 17.—A slight earthquake shock was felt at 5.10 p. m. Saturday, followed in a few seconds by a heavier one. No damage was reported.

The shocks are said to be heavier than those experienced March 31, 1904. They were reported very severe at Augusta, Bangor, Lewiston, Rockland and Brunswick. Reports from Thomaston say that one shock was felt there shortly after 5 o'clock, of about 15 seconds duration.

At Bangor there was one long rumble which rattled dishes and shook windows.

At Biddeford, Saco, and Old Orchard, the earth trembled, and there was a roar that sounded like distant thunder.

Diamond Thief Arrested.

Christiania, July 17.—At the request of the New York police, Edward Park, an American, charged with being a diamond thief, was arrested on landing at Christiansand, yesterday from the Scandinavian-American line steamer United States. He may be wanted for the theft of $90,000 in diamonds from Tiffany's.

OUR SHOTS AT BISLEY.

Conditions Were Good Saturday For Graphic and Telegraph Matches.

Bisley Camp, July 17.—Shooting conditions were good Saturday. In both The Graphic and Daily Graphic competitions forty possibles have been made.

Lieut. G. A. Boult of Vancouver, with forty-seven others, will shoot for first place in The Daily Graphic match. The first prize is a cup valued at £53 10s.

In the "Wimbledon" Cup," ten shots at 900 yard, Capt. Elliott made 48, and Pte. Eastcott the same.

Sergt. Pugh made 48 in the "Alexander Martin" and 48 in "Armourer's Company," ten shots at 900 yards.

There are three scores of 47 in the "Wimbledon" Cup match. Capt. Elliott and Pte. Eastcott are the only Canadians who will figure in the prize list.

Has Foreign Syndicate Bought.

London, July 17.—Rumors have been in circulation during the last few days that a foreign syndicate has bought a large part of the Welsh coal fields on which the British navy practically is dependent for its steam coal. German engineers recently have been examining the property carefully. It is understood the development of the coal seams will entail an expenditure of £500,000.

Burglars Chloroform Woman.

Mr. Gordon Smith, of Paris, is spending a holiday at "Shetta."

Mr. W. C. Ackerman spent Sunday at the Victoria House.

Mr. Alf. Haskill, Mr. Thos. Emmerson and party are at Mr. Graham Weir's cottage, Stony Lake, for a few weeks.

Mr. Wm. Burton spent Sunday, the guest of Mr. Alexander.

Mr. Edwards and Mr. Horace Walkey, of the Ontario Bank, spent Sunday at Boschink.

Mr. W. H. Moldrum spent Sunday at his cottage, Stony Lake.

Miss Minnie Cook and Mr. Richard Hall went up to Mr. Hall's cottage, Stony Lake, on Saturday evening.

Dr. Morrison spent Sunday at his cottage, "Elfin Nook."

Mrs. D. Breeze returned to Glenwood on Saturday evening after a trip down town.

The "No-Kix-Go" Club, of Pittsburgh, Pa., a jolly party of ten young men, are holidaying at Mr. Gordon's cottage, Clear Lake.

Mr. Emmett Doherty has been spending a holiday at "Glenwood," Stony Lake.

Mr. E. A. DePotie, of Toronto, who has been a guest at the Victoria House, left on Saturday for home.

Mr. Ed. Johnston, who is holidaying at the Victoria House, was in town on Saturday.

Mr. Milne, of Toronto, went up to the Lakes on Saturday. He is a guest at the Victoria House.

The following are the arrivals during the month of July: At Viamede, E. Dale, A. Rathbone, Ottawa; F. Call, Picton; Misses Anna, Julia and Sophia Kleiman, Avalon, Pa.; Thomas Pierrepont and wife, Rochester; Wm. Kennedy McIlwraith, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Bowsee and Miss Downes, Toronto; Rev. E. C. Saunders, Rhimbeck; Mrs. C. E. Henderson, Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brady, Mr. Louis Cunningham, Wampum, Pa.; Mr. John Remier, Rochester; C. H. Downes, Pittsburgh; B. Y. Harrison, Toots Harrison, Leonard Harrison, Toronto; Margorie Lyon, Wilkesburg, Pa.; Mrs. Henderson, Hamilton; Mrs. W. W. Miller, Paul Miller, Miss Sue Downes, Pittsburgh; Mrs. J. W. McKinney, Miss Mary A. McKinney, Berwickley, Pa.; Miss Phyllis Henderson and Master Stewart Cook, Hamilton; J. Rosenbloom, Rochester; Miss M. G. Eastwood, Rockferry, Eng.; Mr. Ives H. Armstrong and the Misses Armstrong, Montreal; J. Audley Pierce and wife, McKeesport, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Laner and children, Thos. Griffen, W. W. Miller, J. W. McKinney, Pittsburgh; H. A. McKinney, Newcastle, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. J. and Earl Walker, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mr. B. Shortly went up to his cottage on Saturday night.

The guests at Viamede are reported to be doing some good things along the pisctorial line. On Saturday 19 bass were captured, many weighing as high as 3 1-2 and 4 lbs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Craig and Mr. R. M. Roy went up to Mr. Craig's cottage, Stony Lake, upon the Bob Roy on Saturday.

The services at the Juniper pavilion yesterday were attended by large congregations. The morning service was taken by Rev. W. M. MacKay, of town.

The service at Viamede yesterday afternoon was largely attended. It was conducted by Rev. Mr. Battersby.

A very enjoyable dance was held at the Juniper pavilion on Saturday. About 75 or 80 young people were in attendance. Dances here are of nightly occurrence during the week. A feature which will greatly enhance the pleasure of the pavilion dance is the recent purchase of a pianola which will be installed in the course of a few days. Some difficulty has been occasioned by the lack of players, and the task imposed upon the young ladies who have, in the past, so generously lent their services, has been by no means a light one. The excellence of the music has been much appreciated and the installation of the new instrument will, it is felt, relieve them to a large extent of their self-sacrificing task.

Among the Saturday night arrivals at the Victoria House were,—Messrs. R. Northcote, R. S. Northcote and D. M. Morgan, of Toronto, who have taken up a handsome gasoline launch, which is doing excellent service for cruising.

Mr. G. E. Kennedy, of Peterborough, is at the Victoria House.

Mr. E. Hamilton Milne, of Toronto, went up the Lakes on Saturday night and is spending a holiday at the Victoria House.

The prospects are that the present week will see most of the available space in the hotels and boarding houses upon the lake filled to their full capacity. American tourists are going up in large numbers and many large parties have signified their intention of going during the next several days.

Miss Effie Munro spent Sunday at Lakefield.

Prof. Bean, of Toronto, is occupying Mr. Dumble's new cottage "Ballyragit." Miss Bean has a fine new sailing yacht.

Mr. and Mrs. Moss of Toronto, have opened their cottage, "Belle Isle."

Mr. and Miss Fields and Miss Kittone, of Toronto, are at Kilkenny.

Dr. Jessie Birney is visiting at Crowe's Landing.

Miss Davidson, Peterborough, was a guest at Mrs. Croley's cottage, from Lindsay.

Recent arrivals at Glenwood are, Mrs. Riggs and daughter, Mr. McQuillan, Miss Batiste, Miss Yule, the Misses Wood, Miss Ferguson, Toronto; Misses Coryle, St. Catharines; Rev. Mr. Foley and Mrs. Foley, Bayside; Mr. Stewart McLeach, Mr. George, Toronto; Mr. Doherty, Peterborough.

Mr. Ed. Manning and party went up to Boschink this morning for a couple of weeks.

AN ADDITION TO SUICIDE LIST

Special to the Examiner

Picton, Ont., July 17.—Ira Chadsey, a well-to-do Prince Edward County farmer, seventy years of age, living near Wellington, committed suicide on Saturday evening while in a temporary fit of insanity, by burning himself and barn.

DOCTOR DEFENDS THE PROFESSION

Says Schedule Will Not be Strictly Adhered to—Discontinuing Contracts Not Yet Accomplished.

Dear Sir,—I wish to refer to a meeting of the medical profession which took place on Thursday evening last and to some remarks in an article of the 15th inst. The discontinuing of contract practice is, as yet, not an accomplished fact, and therefore, the publishing of the schedule of fees was rather premature and has been somewhat misleading to your readers and made "One Interested" very funny.

In an article on the 15th, you state "It appears in the past a great many of the local doctors have not charged the price they are supposed to charge, and it is stated that the younger doctors especially, and those who are anxious to build up a practice will accept almost anything for their services." This I think is unjust to the older members of the profession, certainly so far as the Medical Association is concerned, for no such insinuation has been charged against any member of the profession at any of the meetings; it is perhaps more unjust to the younger men, who, so far as I know, have not been trying to build up a practice by any such methods, and not one of whom advocated contract practice at any of the meetings of the Association. A "Wage Earner" writing in the Review says, "After looking over the advanced scale of prices," he has drawn certain conclusions. The views of those depending on their daily wages are entitled to respect and every consideration. Whether, as some think, societies can make some arrangement as mills factory, or even more so, than the lodge doctor, I must leave an open question. I may say the fees for ordinary medical attendance have not been raised for the city, but remain practically the same as before. I would also explain that the "committee" is not so unyielding as "Wage Earner" has suggested. To illustrate:—"Wage Earner" has some operation to be performed upon himself or on some other member of his family, for which the usual fee is $100. He informs Dr. A. that he cannot pay $100. If Dr. A. thinks differently, he refuses to take less. "Wage Earner" must then try Dr. B., who may do the operation for as low as $60, if he is satisfied that the circumstances of "Wage Earner" are as represented, and Dr. A. nor any member of the profession has any right to object. All of course know that the services of the profession are free to those who are unable to pay anything. I would hope that "Wage Earner," if he had known the facts, would not have spoken of a galvanized iron organization, nor even have made the mistake of calling the Association a "Union." In the case of the poor man, the Doctor's judgment of the case in hand, fixes the fee, and not the tariff which has been placed before the public, for which it was not intended at least for the present.

W. CALDWELL.

Cured Kidney Disease.

Mrs. Fred Hills, Walton Street, Port Hope, Ont., states:—"I was troubled for some time with kidney disease and though I tried a great many different medicines, never succeeded in obtaining relief until I tried Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. By the regular use of this preparation for a time I was completely cured of kidney disease.

AFFAIRS AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Local Contractors May Not Get Job of Building It.

Their Tenders Were Too High—Foundation Completed This Week.

The contracts for the erection of the Peterborough Opera House have not yet been let, and there is a possibility that the work will not go to a local contractor. It is learned from a source, which is considered reliable, though the information does not come officially, that the tenders received from the local builders for the erection of the superstructure were considered much too high by the firm which has undertaken to erect the building, and a meeting was held in Elmira, N. Y., within a few hours ago to discuss the question as to whether they would accept any of the tenders received, call for new tenders or proceed with the work themselves, using local labour but not letting the contract. They make no secret of the fact that the prices asked by the contractors who figured on the work were much too high, and it is said that unless they come down in the price the work will not be done by them.

Those at the head of the enterprise here are making no statement on the matter, but the Examiner is informed from a source, which leaves no room to doubt the authenticity of the information, that the facts stated above are correct.

In the meantime, work on the foundation is proceeding rapidly. Mr. Rehill hopes to have it completed by the end of this week, when the brick work will be taken up at once. The promoters do not intend to brook any delays, and whatever course they pursue will be one which will ensure the construction of the building in the quickest time possible, having regard to the quality of the work. A big effort will be made to have the house ready for the opening of the theatrical season in October, and there is little room to doubt that they will succeed.

The foundation is now in such shape that it is possible to get an idea of the size the building will be when it is completed, and it gives promise of bearing out the statement made before work was started on it, that it would be a structure which would do credit to the city of Peterborough.

PETERBORO' SAW MILLS IN ORIENT

Wm. Hamilton Mfg. Company Has Shipped One to China To-day.

First Order Ever Received in Canada From that Country.

Another instance of the fact that the industries of Peterborough are becoming widely known and bringing distinction to the new city is furnished by the information that to-day the Wm. Hamilton Mfg. Company is shipping five car loads of machinery to Canton, China. This shipment comprises the machinery for the equipment of a sawmill operated by the Wang Yip Timber Company, with mills at Canton and the head office at Hong Kong.

This is the first shipment of sawmill machinery, as far as is known, that has ever been made from Canada to China, and that a local firm should have secured the order is a fact of which every citizen of Peterborough will be proud.

The order was booked by the Vancouver office of the company, and was received on April 3rd last, a little over three months thus being required to complete the work.

The Chinaman who placed the order for the mill, it is supposed, has worked in a sawmill in British Columbia and had seen the work of the Hamilton mills. The capacity of the mill, which is being shipped to-day, is 20,000 feet per day, and the engine to operate it was also furnished by the local company. The mill is not one of the most modern, in that all the latest labor-saving devices have not been ordered, the purchasers prefering to use the cheap Chinese labour to do work, which, in most modern Canadian mills, is done by machinery.

The shipment, which left here to-day, is billed via. C. P. R. rail and ocean steamers, and should reach Hong Kong inside of four or five weeks.

This is the first inquiry that the local company has had for machinery from China, but there is reason to believe that this order will be followed by others from that country.

On every piece of machinery the name plate of the manufacturer in Chinese characters will be placed, so that if the mill proves satisfactory, as of course it will, there is good reason to believe that this order will be followed by others.

The success of the Hamilton Company in securing this order, and filling it so quickly, will likely lead to other business from the same source.

LARGE DOCKET AT POLICE COURT

H. Rush, J.P., Had a Busy Morning.

Two Drunks and Disorderlies Receive Sentence—Police Court News.

John Rice first faced the music, on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, at the police court this morning. He pleaded not guilty, but the evidence of two of his daughters who came down from Toronto Saturday night, went to show that the charge was correct. They said that on Saturday night their father had come home in a drunken condition and had turned the family out at midnight. They said that he worked sometimes but gave very little to support the house; got drunk on the rest and came home and fought for what he had given his wife. He was also absent from home most of the time.

H. Rush, J.P., who was in the chair, thought the case a serious one, and imposed a fine of $10, to be paid forthwith, or 20 days in gaol. Rice evidently did not have the necessary, and he will cool off on the hill for three weeks.

Fred Hill, an Indian from Deseronto, pleaded guilty of having been found drunk in a public place. He was fined $10 or one month in jail.

Hill was asked as to where he got the liquor, but he steadily refused to tell although he was given a picture of six months in Central. As no other alternative was open he was fined $5 or 10 days in gaol.

Hill did not have the money with him, but if given time he thought he could get some; but the Chief said he would see about it later, and he was taken off.

Two boys, Joe O'Donnel and Ben Livingstone, were assessed $1 each for throwing apples into the crowd which was watching the loading of the mixer at Smith street yesterday.

THISTLES AND DANDRUFF

An Interesting Parallel and a Valuable Deduction Therefrom.

Cutting down thistles no more relieves the land of thistles than does scouring the scalp cure dandruff. In each case permanent relief can only come from eradicating permanently the cause. A germ that plows up the scalp in searching for the hair root where it saps the vitality, causes dandruff, falling hair and baldness. If you kill that germ, you'll have no dandruff but a luxuriant suit of hair. Newbro's Herpicide is the only hair preparation in the world that cures dandruff and falling hair by killing the germ. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

William Wilkinson Took His Life by Hanging Himself in Barn of Mr. Fred. Eason, of Otonabee—Body Found Last Night—Had Been Missing Since Sunday Night at Milking Time—Deceased Had Always Been a Quiet Young Man—Illness of His Mother Said to Have Been Cause of His Rash Deed—No Inquest Will be Held.

Special to the Examiner.

Keene, July 17th. — This evening about five thirty o'clock, a gruesome discovery was made in the barn of Mr. Fred Eason, just across the river from the village. A young English farm hand had been missing since Sunday evening at seven o'clock, and this evening as Henry Reid, and another, were putting in a load of hay, the former noticed what proved to be the poor lad's cap on top of the granary. Investigation revealed the dead body of the boy, who had committed suicide in a most deliberate and determined manner. From the top of the granary the rope connected with a rack lifter, hung down. This did not serve the boy's purpose. He had procured a small rope, something like a clothes line, and used it lengthen out the other line. Forming a noose he placed it about his neck, and leaping to the floor was probably killed at once by the slack of the rope tightening suddenly about his neck, the flesh of which was horribly cut through by the slender cord. The body was found with the feet from which the boots had been removed, resting upon the granary floor, and the body resting against the wall.

Dr. McWilliams, coroner, was at once summoned, but decided that there was no need of an inquest, the evidence of suicide being so plain.

Last night young Wilkinson, and Henry Reid, who lives in the village, were milking the cows in the farm yard, and the former put the cows away, and that was the last seen of him alive.

At this morning, Mr. Fred Eason, his employer, diligently searched the shores of the river, thinking the young man might have been bathing and got drowned.

Young Wilkinson was a young Englishman, who had been with Mr. Eason since last Autumn. He has been a good worker, and a sober, steady lad, staying closely at home, and, especially for the last few months, seldom going to the village, which is only a short distance from his home. Henry Reid says that the lad, who is about 20 years of age, had made no reference to any trouble that would account for a desire and determination to end his life; only he had said that his mother, who lives at South Shields, England, was ill, and if he did not hear of her improvement, he would go "home." Young Wilkinson had drawn very little of his wages since coming to Keene. He must have had a little money when he came here from Toronto, for, among his possessions, were found a letter from his mother, one from a friend in England, and a post-office savings bank book with a small credit balance, more, however, than he had drawn of his wages.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT TO JOHN CHARLTON

Sustained a Severe Cut Through a Fall Last Evening.

Last evening about 8 o'clock, as John Charlton, of Lundy's Lane, a press hand in the C. G. E. Works, was fixing a light above his machine, he overbalanced and fell on a pile of sheet iron, sustaining a severe cut across his forearm. He was quickly removed in an ambulance to Nicholl's Hospital, where it was found that the flesh was cut to the bone.

The injured man was put under chloroform, and his wound, which required twenty stitches to close it, was attended to. If blood poisoning does not set in the wound will be healed in a short time, but serious results may follow if poisoning sets in.

McAULIFFE MAY PROCURE BAIL

Mr. Justice Magee Fixes the Amount at $7,000.

Toronto, July 17.—Bail for Patrick McAuliffe, now lying in Peterborough jail on a charge of murder, was granted by Mr. Justice Magee this morning. The amount fixed is $7,000.

The crime with which McAuliffe is charged is the murder of a Peterborough hotelkeeper last month. He was in a drunken brawl and struck the deceased who did not die until ten days later. An autopsy disclosed the fact that the hotelman's liver was in a very bad state, and on this fact the defence rests. The theory of the Crown is that the blow was the direct cause of the death.

Young McAuliffe is very well thought of and neighbouring farmers have come forward with offers to go bail. He will probably be released this afternoon.

It was learned at the jail to-day that in all probability it would be two or three days yet before McAuliffe is released, though his liberty is only a matter of a short time. Steps are being taken to attend to the matter of the bail, and, this completed, he will be given his liberty until the day of the trial at the fall assizes.

VANDALS WORK MISCHIEF AT LOCKS

Attractive Property was Mutilated by Roughs.

Much indignation is expressed regarding the vandalism of a set of roughs in the vicinity of the locks. Much care and expense has been bestowed upon the Government property there to add to its attractiveness. The grounds have been put in neat and trim condition, new fences erected and painted, and many similar improvements made in the hope of keeping the property in a condition which will be a credit to the town. It seems a shame therefore that its beauty should be marred and destroyed in such a manner. The grass was yesterday badly torn up and other depredations committed by a set of hoodlums. Prompt action will, it is understood be taken to secure the conviction and punishment of the offenders in case any future depredations of the nature spoken of are discovered.

WAS DROWNED WHILE BATHING

A sad drowning accident occurred last night in the Otonabee River about 200 yards below the locks, in which Joseph Richea, the 14-year-old son of Mr. Michael Richea, Park street lost his life.

The unfortunate boy was bathing at a point about midway between the locks and Rye's boat-house. It is a popular spot for swimming, among the boys. He was accompanied by six companions, Walter and Vincent O'Connor, Thos. Donovan, Freddie and Willie Green and George Henry. He had been in the water for about 15 minutes, when he got beyond his depth and sank, in the sight of his companions. A man named John Foley, who was passing, hastily ran to the spot and plunged in, but was too late to save the lad, who did not rise after he first sank beneath the surface.

A large searching party who engaged throughout the night in an effort to locate and recover the body, but so far this has not been accomplished.

The sympathy of a large circle of friends is extended to the bereaved family, which consists of, besides his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Richea, one brother, Frederick, and five sisters, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Deno, Mrs. Collins and Misses Leda and Mulvena.

UNTIMELY END OF ANOTHER BRIGHT LIFE

Last night at 10 o'clock the death occurred of Mary Margaret, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Crough, Communication road. The deceased, who was 11 months old, was a very bright child, and her death has cast a shadow of gloom over the family.

The funeral took place this afternoon at 4 o'clock, and proceeded to Ennismore Cemetery.

Editor Examiner:

Sir,—Can you, or any of your readers explain the law relative to lunch rooms and restaurants keeping open Sunday. I understand that local licenses have to be taken out by owners of lunch rooms, but does that permit the whole retail establishment—say, confectionary, fruit counters, soda fountain and ice cream parlours—being allowed to do business on Sunday, with the store doors wide open all day, or does it only apply to the lunch room? A little leaven, you know, soon leavens the whole lump.

CHURCH-GOER.

MEMBERS KIND TO THEMSELVES

Increases go Through Without a Word of Opposition—What About the Speaker?—Pensions for Ex-Ministers—The Opposition Leader's Salary—Judges also Share in the General Increase---Bills Dealt With---Mr. Foster Proposes to Strike Out the Salaries of Some Officials.

Ottawa, July 18.—There was a general air of good feeling about the House yesterday, for the members saw that the end of the session was almost at hand and learned that they would go home $1,000 richer than they expected. The increase in salaries for members, leaders and judges, and pensions for ex-Ministers, all came up for consideration and were approved as resolutions. The increase for the Premier and the allowance for the leader of the Opposition were received with enthusiasm by both sides. Judges and ex-Ministers' votes were commended, but as to the members' own increases.

"There was silence deep as death."

In the hour's discussion of the subject in general the members' share was not even mentioned, though the assembling of those in the House on the front benches showed how great a personal interest was at stake. There are a few who oppose the increase, but whether they will yet speak upon it is doubtful. The House cleared the order paper and adjourned shortly after 9, to await the morning's talk on expenditures and the action of the Senate, who yet to some extent hold the date of prorogation in their hands, though some hour on Wednesday is fully expected to see the end. Many members left last night, not to return this session.

The Increases in General.

The resolutions provided for an increase in the Prime Minister's salary from $8,000 to $12,000; an increase in members' sessional indemnity from $1,500 to $2,500, and an annuity to every member of the Privy Council who has served consecutively for five years as a Cabinet Minister and head of a Department, equal to one-half of the salary he received at the time of his retirement. A salary of $7,000 is also given to the leader of the Opposition. No increases are given to Cabinet Ministers.

Under the new scale of pay Sir Wilfrid Laurier will receive $14,500 per annum; Cabinet Ministers, $8,500; members and Senators, $2,500; ex-Cabinet Ministers, $3,500. The ex-Cabinet Ministers who will benefit by this are: Sir Charles Tupper, Sir C. H. Tupper, Sir Mackenzie Bowell, Sir H. Langevin, Sir Adolphe Caron, Sir John Carling, Messrs. Tarte, Blair, Sifton, Costigan, Foster, and Haggart.

The Absence of Members.

Members are now permitted to draw $7 a day as the session progresses up to a maximum of $1,500. Fifteen days are allowed for absences from the House, and for any period of time over that $8 per working day is deducted. In future members will be allowed to draw $30 a day up to the maximum of $2,500. In case the session lasts less than 31 days there is to be no sessional indemnity. If a person is a member for only part of a session for any cause whatsoever, he is to be entitled to the sessional allowance, provided he has been a member for upwards of thirty days. For a less period he will receive $30 a day. The deduction for non-attendance after the time allowed for absences is raised from $8 to $15.

The mileage allowance of 20 cents a mile is discontinued, and in lieu there of each member or Senator is allowed his actual moving or transportation expenses between his place of residence and Ottawa, going and coming once each way, but no such allowance is to be made for traveling outside of Canada, except from one point in Canada to another by any direct route.

Salaries of judges of the Supreme Court, the Exchequer Court and the Superior Courts throughout Canada have been increased by $2,000, and County Court Judges are given varying increases. Following is the new scale of salaries for Ontario judges, compared with the old:—

The Chief Justice of Ontario—New rate per annum, $8,000; old, $6,000. Four justices of appeal—New rate, $7,000; old, $5,000. The Chancellor, the Chief Justice of King's Bench, the Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, the Chief Justice of the Exchequer Division, each—New rate, $8,000; old, $6,000. The Puisne judges of each division of the High Court of Justice, the Chancery, King's Bench, Common Pleas and Exchequer Divisions, each—New rate, $7,000; old, $5,000.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court will get $10,000; the old rate, $8,000. Each of the Puisne Judges $9,000; old rate, $7,000.

The Exchequer Court judges by the new rate, get $8,000; old rate $6,000.

County Court Judges.

Ontario—The senior judge of the County Court of the County of York, $3,000 per annum during the first three years of service, and after three years of service, each $2,900 per annum. Sixty-seven other judges and junior judges of other county courts and district courts, each $2,500 per annum during the first three years of service, and after three years of service, each $2,000 per annum.

Nova Scotia—The judge of the County Court of the County of Halifax, $3,000 per annum. The judge of the County Court of district No. 7, $3,000. Five other County Court judges, each $2,500 per annum during the first three years of service, and after three years of service, each $2,000 per annum.

New Brunswick—The judges of St. John, $3,000 per annum. Five other County Court judges, each $2,500 per annum during the first three years of service, and after three years of service, each, $2,000 per annum.

Prince Edward Island—The judge of the County Court of Queen's County, $2,500 per annum. Two other County Court judges, each, $2,500 per annum during the first three years of service, and after three years of service, each $2,000 per annum.

Manitoba—Six County Court judges, each $2,500 per annum, during the first three years of service, and after three years of service, each $2,000 per annum.

British Columbia—The judges of the County Courts of Cariboo, Westminster, Yale, Nanaimo, Vancouver, Victoria and Atlin, and the judge and junior judge of the County Court of Kootenay, each, $2,000 per annum.

The total increase in salaries to the Judiciary is $212,977. Adding $360,300 for legislation, it makes a total addition to the annual charge of 573,277.

		Increase.
Ontario	$294,400	$59,400
Quebec	255,000	60,356
Nova Scotia	66,500	20,178
New Brunswick	52,000	13,311
Prince Edward Island	25,900	6,700
British Columbia	58,000	21,155
Manitoba	40,000	9,183
Territories	31,000	10,694
Supreme Court and Exchequer Courts.	63,000	28,000
Total		$212,977

No Telephone Legislation.

The Prime Minister laid on the table correspondence containing Mr. Rider Haggard's report on the colonization scheme in Canada.

Mr. Maclean asked whether it was the intention of the Government to deal with the report of the Telephone Committee this session.

Sir Wilfrid replied in the negative.

Bills Passed.

Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick's bill respecting the Superintendent of Insurance and the Director-General of Public Health, was put through its various stages and passed.

The Senate amendments to the act to incorporate the International Bridge and Terminal Co. are agreed to. They prevent the company from giving stock in payment for services.

The House then went through notices of motion, and carried all those that were not contentious.

Mr. Porter's bill to amend the criminal code passed, and Mr. Bureau's clause in amendment thereto was struck out. This clause was to make it clear that betting on an incorporated race course should not be unlawful. Mr. Bureau withdrew this clause.

Mr. Logan's bill respecting false representations to induce or deter immigration was passed.

Gave Details of Figures.

Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick made a statement regarding the expropriation of the rifle range property at Kentville, N.S. The statement gave the details of the figures in the transaction.

Sir Frederick Borden took advantage of opportunity to deny the charge that Mr. Dodge, when purchasing the property previous to the expropriation, had had any inside knowledge of the Government's intentions. The inference that Col. Irving had given information to Mr. Dodge was also absolutely without foundation.

Mr Foster said the Minister should not feel sore if the peculiarities of the case gave rise to suspicions.

Officials in Elections.

Mr. R. S. Lake (Qu'Appelle) moved a resolution deprecating interference by Interior Department officials in the elections in Manitoba and the Northwest to assist candidates in Local and Dominion elections. A spirited reply from Mr. Oliver occupied the House till 1 o'clock.

On the House resuming at 3 o'clock Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that interference in elections by an official minimized to that extent his usefulness and detracted from the services which he was expected to give, and if he was wise he would simply record his vote without interfering with anybody. It was difficult to draw the line. He did not think an official should act as a scrutineer or agent in an election. An officer of the Government had no right to go and do things which were supposed to be the proper functions of those who are partisans. To that extent he would go, but he would not prejudge the case. He was therefore ready to accept the resolution.

Mr. Foster said the Premier's statement was perfectly satisfactory to the Opposition. When any case arose it would be decided on its merits. The resolution was then adopted as follows:

Summer Complaints.

Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Stomach Cramps, Colic, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Seasickness, and all Looseness of the Bowels

It has been a household remedy for 60 years.
It is Rapid, Reliable, and Effectual in its action.
It is Pleasant and Harmless to take.
It does not leave the bowels in a constipated condition.
It is for sale by all dealers.
It has many substitutes. Do not accept them. They may be dangerous.

MRS. FRED. J. BROOKS, Shetland, Ont., writes: "I have a large family and have been using Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for years for Diarrhoea and Cramps, and I always intend to use it, for I know of nothing else so good for both children and adults. It gives almost instant relief in all cases of bowel complaint.

LIVING TOO HASTILY

CANADIAN WOMEN BREAK DOWN

Owing to our mode and manner of living, and the nervous haste of every woman to accomplish just so much each day, it is said that there is not one woman in twenty-five but what suffers with some derangement of the female organism, and this is the secret of so many unhappy homes.

No woman can be amiable, light-hearted and happy, a joy to her husband and children, and perform the duties incumbent upon her, when she is suffering with backache, headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, bearing-down pains, displacement of the womb, spinal weakness or ovarian troubles.

Irritability and snappy retorts take the place of pleasantness, and all sunshine is driven out of the home, and lives are wrecked by woman's great enemy—womb trouble.

Read this letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I suffered for four years with what the doctors called inflammation of the fallopian tubes, which is a most distressing female disease, undermining the constitution and sapping the life forces. If you had seen me a year ago when I had begun taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and had noticed the sunken eyes, sallow complexion and general emaciated condition, and compared that person with me as I am to-day, robust, hearty and well, you would not wonder that I feel thankful to you and your wonderful medicine which restored me to new life and health in five months. My friends all marvel at the change it has made in me, but none can appreciate it better than I can myself."—Miss Irene Hapgood, 1023 Sandwich St., Windsor, Ont.

At the first indication of ill health, such as painful or irregular menstruation, secure at once a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begin its use.

"That whilst it is desirable that every official in the employ of the Government of Canada should enjoy perfect freedom of political opinion and the untrammelled exercise of his franchise in accord therewith, no official should engage or be permitted to engage in partisan work of any description in the election of a representative to the Provincial or Dominion Legislature."

The formal bill to amend the Customs Act in conformity with the tariff changes announced in the budget speech was introduced and amended to allow importations of dry white lead until September 1, under the old tariff.

Objects to the Salaries.

When the House resumed the work of concurrence in the report of the Committee of Supply, Mr. Foster moved to strike out the salary of $900 for Robert Nixon, an official in the land office at MacLeod, who was charged with embezzlement and malfeasance of office.

The House rejected the amendment by 30 yeas to 66 nays.

Mr. Foster also moved to strike out $1,000, the salary of J. B. Doble, Postmaster of Thessalon, who, the amendment said, had been reported guilty of misappropriation of public funds and falsifying returns. It was declared lost on the same division.

Mr. Prefontaine promised to give Mr. Foster a definite reply to-day as to whether or not the meteorological bureau is to be removed from Toronto to Ottawa.

Mr. Borden was informed that the Government had not yet decided upon a successor to Mr. Macdougall as Auditor-General.

The House adjourned at 9.30 a. m.

Dead Ashes Cost Money to Heat.

Most hot water heaters have a Center draft only—also most center draft hot water heaters have a wall of dead ashes next to the water jacket, because thorough combustion with center draft only is not possible—coal burns principally in the center.

Ashes are hard to heat—they are expensive to heat, they absorb the heat which should go into your coils.

The "Bison" hot water heater has side drafts, draws the heat and fire to the sides, up the sides, —against the water jacket. It heats the water quickly, economically.

A Talk About Headache.

Husband—What will cure my wife's headaches?

Doctor—There are several drugs that will stop headache, but they affect the heart, nerves, and stomach.

Husband—Is there no safe remedy?

Doctor—Yes; there is the vegetable remedy, Zutoo Tablets. Most women are discarding the drug cures and using this. It is the only safe remedy I know of.

Husband—Is it used for anything but headaches?

Doctor—Yes, many women are using it to stop monthly pains; some use it to break up colds.

Husband—This must be the vegetable remedy my neighbor's wife takes and praises so highly. I'll buy some.

Doctor—You can get it at medicine dealers or by mail postpaid from B. N. Robinson & Co., Cobalt, Ont., for 25c large size, 10c for small.

RETURNED AFTER THIRTY YEARS

Mr. David Stewart Again Visits Norwood, His Native Town.

Enjoyable Moonlight Excursion—Many Families Going to Stony Lake.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Norwood, July 17.—Mr. David Stewart, after an absence of thirty-three years, arrived in town on Friday on a visit to his sister, Miss J. Stewart, Peterborough street. Mr. Stewart has spent the last ten years at the Klondike.

Miss Vara, who has been visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Butterfield, Queen street, returned to her home in Buffalo on Saturday.

Mrs. Healy, of Toronto, formerly of Norwood, is staying at the home of Mr. J. Shea.

Miss Waters and Miss Leighton returned on Friday evening having enjoyed a very pleasant trip down the St. Lawrence.

Miss Beatrice Foster, who has been employed as head trimmer with Mrs. Doxes, Napanee, is spending her holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Foster.

Mrs. Vandervoort accompanied by her sister Miss Pearce, left on Saturday evening for Marmora, where they will spend a few weeks with their brother, Mr. J. W. Pearce.

Miss Tackaberry, of Essex Centre, is a guest of her aunt, Mrs. E. C. Squire. At the service in the Methodist church on Sunday evening Miss Tackaberry sang a very pretty solo.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fraser and family left on Saturday morning for Calgary, Alta., where they will in future reside.

A number of young people of town drove over to Hastings on Thursday evening to take in a moonlight excursion up the river to Idyl Wild.

Mrs. Bellegham, of Havelock, accompanied by Mrs. Bellegham, of Peterborough, were visiting for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Greenbanks, Peterborough street.

Mr. E. J. Lynch shipped four cars of lumber to Oshawa on Friday.

Mr. Harry Stephenson, of Toronto, was in town on Sunday.

Messrs. Vida and Gladys Wilkens who have been attending college in Hamilton, came home on Thursday evening for their holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson and children, Misses Emma and Becca Innis, Mr. Saulter and Mr. Gordon Innis, of Campbellford, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Innis on Sunday.

Mr. J. L. Squire shipped a car load of cheese to Montreal last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Pratt, of Cobourg, were guests of the latter's brother, Mr. Osborne Bull, on Sunday.

Mr. B. Saunders, of Toronto Junction, with his two sons, Vernon and Bert, arrived in Norwood on Saturday evening to visit friends. They will also spend a short time at Stony Lake with Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Buck.

Among those who are leaving town this week to spend the summer at Stony Lake are Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Buck and family, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Reynolds and Miss Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Leighton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Duffield and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cumming and family.

Buck and Walsh shipped a carload of hogs last week to the George Matthews Co., Peterborough. The price paid was $6.

Miss M. Williams of Campbellford, is visiting her friend, Miss M. Andrews.

Miss Nellie Cox of Belleville, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tucker for a short time.

Mrs. Nelson and daughter, Mrs. Hinds of North Bay, spent last Friday with Mrs. W. Eaton.

Confirmation service will be held in the Roman Catholic church here next Sunday. A number of children from this neighbouring and Havelock are preparing for it.

T. Clark shipped a carload of lumber to Parkdale last week.

Miss Ina Watson of Hastings was in Norwood last week, the guest of Miss M. Morrison. Miss Watson favoured the congregation of the Presbyterian church on Sunday with a very pretty solo.

HORSE CLIMBS UP AND WRECKS FLAT

Children Injured and Man's Skull Fractured.

Extreme Heat in New York Responsible for Peculiar Action of Team of Horses.

New York, July 17th. — Maddened by the heat, and frightened by strange surroundings, a black mustang, just arrived from a ranch in Colorado, ran wild in York street, Brooklyn, trampled upon two children, knocked a man insensible, battered its way into a building, ran up the stairs and wrecked the furniture of a flat on the second floor.

Gagged, tethered, and hauled head foremost, down the stairs by a pair of horses hitched to a rope around its neck, the mustang fought desperately in the street, and it was only with great difficulty that the animal was tied fast to the hind end of a truck, and dragged away.

The horse was one of a pair purchased by an agent of a milk company. They were stabled at No. 39 Bridge street, and Robert Fornier was sent to take them to the company's stables.

They Run Away.

Mounting the gentlest horse, Fornier tied the halter strap to his mate above his wrist, and started for Long Island City. He had scarcely gone a block from the stable when the horse he was leading, became fractious. The animal reared, struck at Fornier with its front feet, and, plunging forward, pulled him from the saddle to the ground.

Mrs. Izza's two year old boy, Merritt Izza, was in a carriage in a hallway where a dozen children were playing. The horses dashed into the crowd of children, prancing, kicking, snorting, and trampling everything under their feet. The baby carriage was kicked to pieces, and one of the horses stepped on the baby's head. Josephine Longera, 8 years old, who lives in the rear house back of the bakery was also trampled upon, and her right leg broken.

Half a dozen men rushed into the hallway and pulled the children from under the feet of the terrified horses. While helping to rescue the children, Charles Hedge, 19 years old, of No. 93 Bridge street, was kicked in the forehead, and his skull fractured. He was taken in an unconscious condition to the Brooklyn Hospital.

Both horses drove their heels through the walls in twenty places. They kicked down the doors, front and rear, ran into the bakery, kicked down the balusters of the stairs, and pawed down the gas brackets.

Up the Stairs.

One of the animals went through the hallway to the yard in the rear. The other ascended the stairs to Mrs. Izza's flat on the second floor. It entered the kitchen through a door that was open, kicked down the range, smashed the stationary washtubs, demolished the furniture, kicked the doors and one window to pieces, and then tore the plaster off the ceiling, and ripped down the chandelier. Passing through a narrow hallway to the parlour the horse smashed everything in the front room, including a mandolin and the ornaments on the wall.

After the horse had quieted down Policeman Gallagher and some other men placed ropes with open slip knots about the room occupied by the horse. After half an hour's patient work, they succeeded in fastening a rope to two of the animal's legs and throwing it. All its legs were then bound together and the horse was dragged to the street.

A Problem Solved

Ozone is ozone and in buying it the problem is to get the purest form. "Solution of Ozone (the coupon kind)" is the purest form in which Ozone is put up. In addition each bottle contains a coupon entitling you to a package of "Celery King" free, and it is well known that you should take "Celery King" along with Ozone.

We put "Celery King" coupons in our Ozone bottles because no other firm can give "Celery King" with Ozone. By buying "Solution of Ozone (the coupon kind)" you get the purest and most concentrated form of Ozone, and in addition, you save the expense of buying "Celery King" to use with it.

No other kind of Ozone offers this advantage. Ask your druggist for it, and if he hasn't it, write to the Public Drug Company, Bridgeburg, Ont. Sold by W. B. WARNE. 4

WHERE DO ALL THE EGGS COME FROM?

Dazzling Statements of Immense Shipments to England.

It is said that one dealer in Toronto has in cold storage for export to England no less than 72,000,000 eggs, and that there are other dealers who have as many more. The high price of eggs to the local consumer is thus accounted for, and the high prices of many things can be traced to the cold storage system of keeping and conveying perishable foods. A hen lays an egg in the Township of Vaughan or Euphrasia, and six months later an English lord eats it for breakfast. He supposes it to be fresh from the nest, and does not know that it has travelled half way around the world. The market for fresh produce and fruits has been extended from the locality in which they are grown to the Continent and the world. Grapes no longer go to waste where they are grown in abundance, for nothing can very well be described as "perishable." But it is the local demand that most benefits the producer, for, with an amazing perfectness, the railways and refrigerator car companies have contrived to seize almost wholly for themselves the enlarged market that the cold storage system has given to food products. A hundred million eggs may be sold to consumers in England for thirty or forty cents a dozen that were formerly sold to Canadian consumers at ten cents a dozen, but the owner of the hens does not get an increase in proportion. In the new eagerness of the market he probably gets a greater increase now than he will get when the trade has well established itself, and when a run of better prices has induced everybody in the country to keep hens.—Star.

AN ACCIDENT AT LASSWADE

Mr. and Miss Wilson Met With an Exciting Experience.

(Special to the Examiner.)

Lasswade, July 14th. — We are having rain in abundance at present, and crops are looking well.

Quite a number from this place took in the walk at Apsley on the 12th, and report having had a very enjoyable time despite the rain.

Mrs. Washburn, an old resident of Methuen, has taken her departure for the West to live with her son, Lewis, who left here about two years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. John McFadden made a flying visit to Burleigh on Sunday last.

Mr. Thomas Steen has returned home from Selwyn, where he has been engaged in the cheese making business. We suppose Tommy will be able to put up his shingle now.

What might have proved to be a serious accident occurred on Sunday evening last, while Mr. Albert and Miss Bertha Wilson were driving home from church. While descending a hill the pole of the buggy ran through the neckyoke, allowing the buggy to run against the horses, frightening them and causing them to run away. In the runaway the buggy was overturned, and the occupants were thrown out. They escaped with some bruises, and we hope to see them out again soon.

When Women Use
DIAMOND DYES.

Each year thousands of letters come in from all parts of this vast Dominion telling of victories and successes with Diamond Dyes in the home.

The marvellous and immense sales of Diamond Dyes in Canada have induced venturers and speculators (who know nothing about the chemistry of colours) to go into the putting up of package dyes. Such dyes are adulterated and crude; the colours are muddy and blotchy, bringing ruin to the materials you try to dye.

Diamond Dyes, the choice of wise women, are the kind used when bright, full, fast and brilliant colours are wanted. No disappointment possible when you use Diamond Dyes.

Diamond Dyes are sold by all leading druggists and dealers. Refuse to accept substitutes when you ask for Diamond Dyes.

BLOOD POISON
On account of its terrible effects, blood disease is called the King of all diseases. It may be either hereditary or contracted; so while it may not be a crime to have the disease, it is a crime to permit it to remain in the system. It may manifest itself in the form of Scrofula, Eczema, rheumatic pains, stiff or swollen joints, sickness of the skin, eruptions or blotches, sores in the mouth or on the tongue, sore throat, falling out of hair, disordered stomach, and a general depression of the system. If you have any of these symptoms don't neglect yourself. You have no time to lose. Beware of "old form" treatments—beware of mineral poisons—beware of Quacks and Fakirs. OUR NEW IMPROVED TREATMENT is guaranteed to cure this disease, never to return. Bank Bonds will protect you. Our treatment is not injurious in any way, but reaches the very root of the disease and all taints all poison from the system. The symptoms of disease gradually disappear. The blood becomes pure and enriched, the whole system is cleansed and purified, and the patient feels prepared anew for the duties and the pleasures of life. CURES GUARANTEED OR NO PAY. 25 Years in Detroit. 250,000 Cured.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.
Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-west Provinces, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.
Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him.
Homestead Duties.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:
(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.
(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father (or mother).
(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.
Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector.
Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

KEEP COOL

Keep cool.

Very good advice, of course, but not easily to be followed at this season of the year, when the mercury threatens to lift the thermometer off the hook. And yet each can do much toward moderating his or her personal discomfort. Not only is such course possible; it is one's duty to do so.

Overwork, overplay and worry, all tax your already hard worked heart, and if it fails you what shall profit all your pecuniary gains or athletic triumphs? What will you have to worry about?

The rate of work performed by the heart varies according to age, but the healthy heart may be said to perform 70 complete beats a minute from the time you are till the time you cease to be. Figure it out. Seventy beats a minute, 4,200 an hour, 100,800 a day, 36,792,000 a year, or in life of sixty years 2,207,520,000 beats. It passes your blood supply through the oxygenators, the lungs, and through your system every half minute of your existence, exerting to do so a force above atmospheric pressure equal to that exerted by a column of mercury, from 5.30 to 7.50 inches in height. And it does this work without cessation; and if it does not do it well you suffer; if it stops to rest, you die.

Severe exercise, physical or mental shocks, intense emotion, fretting, anxiety, all tell on the heart. The hot weather does not make its work easier, and you can help it.

Don't fuss. Of course you don't fuss, but please don't try to do two days' work in one day. Work is not the end of life. Don't make work of you play. Don't wear wrinkles into your brow, and sourness into your temper because there's a fly in the room, or a chair out of place. Your husband would rather have you a healthy, lovable wife than to know that you are reputed to be "unutterably orderly and terribly clean." Don't sacrifice too much comfort to style. Don't wear yourself out by keeping the children from enjoying life that they may always look as if they had just come out of a glass case.

And spare your cooking. Most of us overeat, especially in the hot season. Quit everlastingly stewing over the stove, and try simple ways of living. Don't digest a lot of heat producing foods. They are worse than wasted. They spoil your digestion and cause you discomfort. Keep them till winter. Eat sparingly of flesh foods; avoid stimulants; and don't eat too much of anything. Don't even gulp down great quantities of water; and if you drink iced water at all let it be when you are not over heated, and sip it very slowly. Ice water has filled many graves.

If you will cease worrying how you are going to get work done, how you are going to have fun, what you are going to eat and drink, how you are going to sleep, what the weather is to be to-morrow, and how you are going to stand it, and bear in mind that things went along pretty well in this old world before you entered it, and will get along, very likely, after you are out of it, you may find that a degree more or less of temperature doesn't matter so much. Why fuss, and fret and stew?

Oh, yes! It's hot enough, but worry makes it hotter. Don't whip up your heart and spoil your temper, and make yourself and others more uncomfortable than might be. Keep cool. There's always the comforting thought that Christmas is only a few months distant.—Hamilton Times.

Shipping Resumed.

The fog that in its worst form for the past week shrouded the Atlantic coast from Labrador to the Capes of Virginia, has at last been burned off by the heat of the sun's rays and shipping is once more moving along the coast between Canadian and United States ports.

GROOM WAS A PETERBORO' MAN

An Interesting Wedding Ceremony at Blackpool, Eng.

Mr. F. H. Brittain Married to Miss Ellen Dutton.

The Blackpool Herald and Clyde Advertiser, Lancashire, of recent date has the following account of a wedding of considerable local interest. It says:

A quiet, but none the less pretty wedding was solemnized at Holy Trinity Church, South Shore, Blackpool, early yesterday morning, when Mr. F. H. Brittain, son of Mr. Alfred Brittain, of Douglas, Isle of Man, and late of Sheffield, was married to Mrs. Ellen (Nellie) Dutton, of 11 St. Bedes avenue, and late of Clare street, South Shore, Blackpool, and Egerton, near Bolton. The interesting ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. W. Fennell, curate, in the presence of a few friends and well wishers of the happy couple. The bride was given away by Mr. Joseph Longworth, her brother-in-law, who also performed the duties of best man, and her maids were Miss Hilda Grace Longworth, her neice, and Miss Edith Longworth. The bride was attired in a travelling gown of Royal Blue cloth adorned with silver trimming. Her hat was of the picture variety, being of pale blue in colour and trimmed with forget-me-nots. Her adornments also included a beautiful gold and sapphire brooch with pendant, the gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Hilda Grace Longworth was dressed in a fawn voile with pale blue trimmings, with picture hat to match, and a gold bangle, the gift of the bridegroom. Miss Edith Longworth's dress was of Royal Blue cloth with silver trimmings. She had a picture hat to match.

The bride's gifts to the bridesmaids were gold and sapphire brooches, and to the bridegroom a gold watch.

In about a couple of months Mr and Mrs. Brittain propose going to Canada, where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Brittain have been the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents.

Mr. Brittain will be welcomed back to Peterborough with his bride upon his return. He has been connected with the Canadian General Electric Company for four years, where he was very popular.

His friends in Peterborough extend warmest congratulations upon his marriage and wish him all manner of prosperity.

LECTURE ON THE MARCONI SYSTEM

Of Wireless Telegraph to be Given To-night.

Dear Sir,—It will interest you and the citizens of Peterborough to know that the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company has made arrangements for a series of lectures to be given in your city in the Lecture Hall, Y. M. C. A. Building, the first of which will be given this evening at 8 o'clock.

A complete set of apparatus such as is in daily use in trans-Atlantic work will be exhibited together with other interesting items. Wireless telegraphy promises to become so important a factor in the world's commerce that everybody should take advantage of this opportunity of familiarizing themselves with the same.

Mr. H. W. Beauclerk, of London, England, representing the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company, will be in attendance to explain this wonderful system.

Ladies are most cordially invited to attend. No charge will be made for this lecture.

Mr. Beauclerk has honoured the Board of Trade by consulting me with reference to the lecture. I need scarcely say that the members of the Board of Trade are earnestly requested to be present as this is the first, and in all probability will be the last time for several months at least, that this interesting lecture will be given here. I feel sure that the general public will not permit this opportunity to pass without taking advantage of same.

Yours truly,

D. Hughes Charles,

Pres. Peterborough Board of Trade.

IN THE GOOD OLD FASHIONED DAYS

It is safe to say that the majority of the bald men of to-day would gladly revive the old, dignified custom, if they could. But they can do the next best thing to it; that is, to hold on to what hair they have got.

In cases where the hair root or hair bulb has not been completely destroyed by parasites that infest it, Newbro's Herpicide will do wonders in the way of encouraging a new growth of hair. Destroy the cause and you remove the effect. That is the successful mission of Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10 cents in stamps for a sample to The Herpicide Company, Detroit, Mich. Ormond and Walsh, special agents.

SPORT NOTES.

Oshawa to-morrow.

The local team had a good workout last night.

To-morrow at the Riverside Park the greatest game of the season so far will take place.

Referee Burt will face off the ball at three o'clock sharp to-morrow afternoon, when the locals go up against Oshawa, in the swiftest game of the series.

Reports from Oshawa go to show that the team from that town will come here to-morrow prepared to do their utmost to defeat the Peterboroughs, who are their real rivals for the district championship—and what may follow.

Everyone who possibly can should turn out and help the boys to-morrow. Go over to the Park and do a little cheering. It will do you no harm to give your vocal organs a little exercise again.

Remember the team absolutely has to win the game to-morrow, or they are practically out of it for the season, but then won't they win? Of course they will, but at any rate go over and see the kind of a fight they can put up.

With the covered grand stand, and the sun to the west, the spectators will be able to see the game in comfort to-morrow. The ball will be faced at three o'clock sharp as the visiting team will want to catch the 5.12 train for the west.

Last night was the last practice for the team before the great game to-morrow, and there was a good turn out of the players. After the practice they indulged in a swim in the Otonabee. Manager Lynch had taken a half day off to see the finish of the swimming trip of Messrs. Strickland and Corsan, and had learned the how of that overhand stroke which Strickland used, and put it into practical use last night. Before his final dive he addressed the players in the following terms:—"Well, boys, Strickland swam from Lakefield this afternoon, but here goes for Jubilee!"

Eugene Hurtubise was at the Riverside Park last night, and had a workout with the lacrosse team. "Gene" had better look out though. After emerging from a scrimmage in which Judd, he of the diminutive stature, was mixed up with the giant wrestler, the fast little home player was heard to say to his bigger opponent, "You had better look out Hurtubise, or I'll pitch you into the river."

This team should be able to give a good account of themselves on the field to-morrow, and Oshawa will have to go some to defeat them. There are some backers for the visiting team, however, who are willing to risk a chance that the Oshawa team will give the local team all they can do right on their home grounds. At any rate the game will be a good one, and will be well worth watching. Both teams are out to win, and neither team will have any cinch.

The team that will represent Peterborough to-morrow with Oshawa was chosen last night, and will line up on the field as follows:—

Boyle, goal.
Morgan, point.
Deroche, cover point.
Meagher, 1st defence.
Mein, 2nd defence.
Crowley, 3rd defence.
Ford, centre
Judd, 3rd home.
Cavanah, 2nd home.
McCabe, 1st home.
Glover, outside home.
Best, inside home.

SUGGESTION TO BOARD OF TRADE

They Might Secure Delivery of the Toronto Papers Early.

Methods by Which This Could be Effected—Via Port Hope.

For years the people of Peterborough have been anxious to have a change effected by which the Toronto morning papers could reach here earlier in the morning than they reach here at present, viz., 11.25 a. m.

It is learned that a fast freight runs on the G.T.R. from Toronto to Port Hope on the main line, and that this train reaches the latter town about 6.30 or 7.00 in the morning, each day, and that it runs on regular scheduled time.

This fact has led to the suggestion that the Toronto papers might be sent out on this fast freight, and, reaching Port Hope, before the morning train leaves for Peterborough, could be put on that train, which is due to leave Port Hope at 7.30, and reaches here at 8.20 a.m. instead of at 11.35.

This would be a convenience which would be highly appreciated by the public, and it is a matter which might well engage the attention of the Board of Trade. The Board is a useful organization, and Mr. Hughes Charles is an energetic President. It is suggested that the local booksellers, and the Board of Trade could join forces to secure what would undoubtedly be considered a great boon to the general public, the delivery of the Toronto papers at the time mentioned above. By the business men especially this would be highly appreciated.

THE RANGERS MAY GO TO TORONTO

To Assist in Demonstration for Lord Roberts.

Nothing Definite Arranged Yet—Lord Roberts' Wishes Being Ascertained.

The 57th Regiment may take a trip to Toronto this fall. On the occasion of the visit of Lord Roberts, Commander-in-Chief of the British Army to Toronto the military authorities are planing to give a demonstration in his honour, provided it is the wish of the distinguished visitor.

And if this demonstration it given the strong probability is that the Peterborough Rangers will participate in it, along with the other city regiments in Ontario.

In the meantime nothing has been arranged, pending the reply to the enquiry as to whether it was the wish of Lord Roberts that a military reception should be accorded him.

If he expresses his desire to have the demonstration, it is probable that the regiments participating in it will include the Toronto city corps, the Queen's Own Rifles, Royal Grenadiers, 48th Highlanders and Governor-General's Body Guards, the 13th of Hamilton, 57th, of Peterborough, the Belleville regiment and possibly the Ottawa corps.

Needless to say it is the hope of the members of the local regiment that the proposed demonstration is proceeded with. They recall with pleasure the trip to Toronto on the occasion of the visit of the DUKE of York, and this trip, if it is taken will doubtless be much enjoyed.

The new uniforms recently received from the headquarters stores will come in useful should this trip be taken, and the regiment will look smart.

Nothing definite will be arranged, of course, until Lord Roberts wishes are learned, but in the course of a few days more, the local officers should be notified of his decision, and receive instruction as to their course of action.

Use "MAPLE LEAF" Canned Salmon. The Best Packed.

THE ALDERMEN HAVE YIELDED

And Ice Was Placed in the City Fountains To-day.

After Half the Summer Has Passed—Fountains Temporarily Out of Commission.

The man who said that Peterborough Aldermen do not change their minds, has another think coming. Early in the summer the Property Committee invited tenders for the supply of ice for the city fountains, and two tenders were received, strangely enough, both were the same, $60, an increase of $25, on the price paid last year. The fact that both tenders were the same, and that there should be such a large increase in the price over that of last year made the members of that Committee suspicious that they were being "held up" by the ice-men, and just to get even they recommended that the fountains go without ice this year, which was agreed upon.

Several times since that decision was reached, the amicable chairman of the Property Committee has been questioned by his fellow Aldermen as to when the ice was to be put in the fountains, but to all of these questionings he replied, that there was to be no ice this year.

It appears that a change has been wrought, however, and Old Sol has conquered. To-day, for the first time this year, July 18th, with the summer half gone, ice was placed in the fountain at the City Hall, and now it appears that something has gone wrong with the fountain, and the plumbers have been secured to to remedy it. The situation to-day is that there is ice in the fountain but its presence does no good since it is out of commission.

AN EXCURSION FROM UXBRIDGE

The Methodist Sunday School Conducted Successful Trip To-day.

Went Over the Lift Lock This Morning Had Dinner at No. 5 Dam.

To-day an excursion from Uxbridge, conducted under the auspices of the Methodist Sunday school, came to Peterborough, and, judging by the enthusiasm with which they speak of their visit, the trip has been an enjoyable one.

The excursionists came to town about ten o'clock this morning, and there were ten C. T. R. coaches filled with 400 passengers.

Upon arrival at Peterborough the greater portion of the visitors went to the Wolfe street wharf, where they boarded the waiting City of Peterborough, and took a trip over the Lift Lock to Dam No. 5. The ascent by the Lift Lock was one which had a special interest for the visitors, and the sail up the canal to their destination was much enjoyed.

Dinner was taken in the grove, and after dinner the return trip was made, Peterborough being reached at three o'clock. The remaining four hours will be spent in seeing the sights of the new city, and at 7 o'clock the excursionists will start on their return journey by the special train.

They speak very highly of the advantages of Peterborough as an objective point for an excursion, and were highly pleased with their trip.

—At the close of the evening service at the Park street Baptist church on Sunday, a very interesting reception service was held. With a very full representation of the church present, six new members were received into fellowship, comprising three distinct families.

—A very large number of people from the city and country intend taking in the excursion to Quebec and St. Ann de Beaupre. The excursion takes place on Tuesday, July 25th inst. This year, as in former years, Father Keilty will be present and take an active interest in the excursion.

—On Saturday morning Mr. Arthur Carmen, wine clerk at the Grand Union, Lindsay, met with a somewhat painful accident. With a handkerchief and lead pencil he was cleaning an old revolver, which was supposed to be empty, when it was accidentally discharged, the ball piercing Mr. Carmen's hand and narrowly missing a couple of bystanders. The bullet caused a very painful wound.

HOTTEST DAY OF THE SUMMER

Seems Likely That the Thermometer May Reach High Point To-day.

Some Interesting Weather Comparisons—Hottest Day Last Summer was 89 Degrees.

Apparently the hottest weather of the season is now with us, and the the thermometer is making an earnest endeavour to reach some of the high registrations of former years. Last summer the highest mark reached by the instruments of the local weather observer was 89 degrees in the shade, and that figure has not been reached as yet this summer, (although, in parenthesis it looks likely that to'day's highest may reach, or surpass, that figure.)

In Toronto yesterday the temperture as given out at the observatory was 91 degrees. This is a higher figure than was reached in any other place in Canada. Ottawa's temperature yesterday was 84, Montreal 80, Winnipeg, 82, Edmonton, 80, Victoria, 66; Calgary, 78; Port Arthur, 80; St. John, 58; Halifax, 70; while here in Peterborough we had it 87 degrees.

Excessive as the heat was in some places in Canada, it was not to be compared with the oven-like temperature experienced in many of the large American cities. In Philadelphia the weather bureau gave the temperature at 96 degrees; in New York, 94 degrees; while in Boston and Detroit the figures were given as 90 degrees.

At noon to-day the thermometer was at 86 degrees in the shade, and slowly climbing upwards.

The weather wise say that there is no immediate prospect of any cooler weather, and that, although it is warm, it might be worse.

MRS. J. A. PIERCE'S CONDITION TO-DAY

Lady Who was Shot Passed Good Night —No Serious Results Anticipated.

Mrs. Pierce, who was shot on Saturday at Burleigh, passed a fairly good night last night, and is getting along very well. Her physician states that while it is impossible to forecast results definitely, he does not anticipate any serious consequences from the accident.

To-morrow (Wednesday) Night, the 57th Band Will Play at Jackson Park.

ST. ANDREW'S WIN DISTRICT ONE

Defeated St. Paul's Last Night by 13-10 —An Exciting Game.

Last night the game to decide the championship of No. 1 district in the Guild Baseball League, was played on the McDonel street grounds, and resulted in a win for St. Andrew's, the score for the five innings played last night being 7—6, in their favour, and for the whole seven innings, 13—10.

Last night's game was the most exciting of the whole series so far, and was witnessed by a large crowd. The play was not remarkable for its brilliancy, in fact both teams at times displayed some rank baseball, such as running men off bases, and allowing an infield fly to drop between two men. St. Paul's had plenty of chances to win out, and tie the other team for the district leadership. They hit Swanston quite freely, and Simpson and Gillespie pitched for St. Paul's was also touched up for a number of hits. The game went to St. Andrew's, who will now go up against Charlotte street for the championship.

The batteries in last night's game were:—St. Paul's, Simpson and Gillespie; St. Andrew's, Swanston and McDonald.

A series of interesting games will be played now between Charlotte street and St. Andrew's for the Examiner Cup, representing the League Championship.

LINDSAY SORE ON BALL TEAM

Post Says Citizens Will Not Stand for Cinnamon's Tactics.

A Loose Game on Saturday with Port Hope—Characterized by Wrangling.

The Lindsay baseball team will go to the bad now that they have lost the good-will of the Post, the sporting editor of which, referring to the game on Saturday, says:

The unexpected happened in Lindsay on Saturday, when the Senior Red Birds let Port Hope—the easiest team, in the opinion of many, to be found in the Midland League—trim them by the score of 5 to 4.

1. Specks below the eyes.
2. Bringing up the batting average.
3. Helps to steal bases.
4. With two doses you can hit a balloon.
5. When fielding you don't think you are catching hold of a red hot stove.
6. Mix a dose with a pinch of "cinnamon" and it will learn you to chew gum, not the rag.
7. Two pills before supper will guarantee a good practice every other night, instead of every other summer.

The game, from a spectator's point of view, was away below par, and the spleen shown by two or three players on each side, which caused continual wrangling and "chewing," disgusted the crowd, who repeatedly called out from the stand "play ball." Lindsay citizens will support good ball, but before we can have a "decent" winning team a couple of players on the nine must get the "g. t." and the sooner the better. Before the game commenced, a couple of players—one from each side—got into a wordy scrap. Fines should have been imposed upon Henderson, of Port Hope, and Cinnamon and Workman, of Lindsay, for kicking too much. The first in particular got into the bad graces of the spectators, and his style of playing will not be tolerated in Lindsay again.

As for the game, it was good in spots, but earned runs were scarce. For Port Hope, Andrus, Pethik, Edmonds and Surphlis played good ball. For Lindsay, Miller, Mark and Burnham were fairly good, but there was a slump in the batting of the team, which is due to lack of practice. Two or three years ago McGill, Workman and Cinnamon could hit out home runs and three-baggers, but now things have changed. Both pitchers twirled good ball, but the honours seated with Surphlis, who pitched a fine game.

LAWN TENNIS.

Last night in the Mixed Doubles of the Nicholls' Oval Tennis Club Tournament, second round, Miss Faint and Mr. Eakon defeated Miss Wareham and Mr. Boomer, 6-2, 6-2.

RODDY PITCHED WINNING BALL GAME

Last night a good exhibition of ball was put up on the T. A. S. grounds when Charlotte street and George street Guild League teams met in a friendly exhibition game.

George street went to bat first, but there was nothing doing. In Charlotte street's half Roddy's slashing two bagger sent in two runs, he, himself, scoring on a single.

In the second, Lang let McMillan's third strike get by him and the runner brought up at third, and scored via another pass ball. Pedlar hit one to centre, which bounded out of Ryan's reach, and the batter was on third cushion, when the ball came in. Pedlar scored on a pass ball, and the fun was over.

The third was fruitful of more runs for George street. Kendry was safe on H. Roddy's fumble of the grounder, and scored on W. Parnell's three bagger. Parnell was out at home on a double play owing to poor coaching.

Crowe's three-bagger in the fourth scored Roddy, but Crowe was out on a double play, W. Parnell to Wilson. Charlotte street ended the scoring when Lang came in on a pass. The next man was an easy out, retiring the side.

The teams took the field as follows:—

GOLF.

A QUIET DAY AT THE CAMP

Sunday was Spent Appropriately in Clear Lake.

Y. M. C. A. Camp, Clear Lake, July 17, 1905.—Yesterday was a very quiet day in camp and the boys acquitted themselves in a manner that did credit to the organization, under whose auspices they are here encamped.

There was neither swimming nor boating during the day, and the time was spent in reading and walks in the woods.

The morning service was conducted by Mr. P. G. Might, Mr. Holmes giving a very helpful address on "The Self-Control of Jesus."

The evening service was one such as was never held before in the history of the camp, and was of the nature of a memorial service for the late Walter Sager, who was present at last year's camp.

Mr. Williamson presided and conducted the song service, which included such appropriate selections as "There's a land that is fairer than day," "Oh, think of the home over there." Stanley Smith, one of Sager's comrades, read the scripture lesson, which was the description in Revelations of the City of the New Jerusalem.

Mr. Holmes and Herb Johnston spoke of the late Walter Sager as they knew him.

Mr. Williamson spoke at some length, referring to his Christian life and example, and gave to the boys Whittier's last message to them given on the night that he passed away.

Mr. Williamson said triumphantly that Walter's life and death must have impressed all of the reality of the Christian life, and he appealed to all the boys to live the Christian life here, and then it mattered not whether death came sooner or later. They would be able to meet dear boy a young Christian soldier as their comrade had done.

The service, which was a decidedly impressive one, was brought to a close with prayer by R. McClennan.

HAS CAPITAL OF A MILLION

New Guarantee and Accident Company Started.

Imperial Guarantee & Accident Insurance Company of Canada.

The Toronto Globe to-day has an article referring to the new Guarantee and Accident Company, of which Mr. A. L. Davis, of Peterborough, is President. It says:

The Imperial Guarantee & Accident Insurance Company of Canada comes before the public under the most favourable conditions. With a subscribed capital of $1,000,000, on which has been paid $200,000 at a premium of 25 per cent., the company is enabled to start business with a surplus of $50,000, a fact which should place it in the forefront of similar institutions in the Dominion. The amount deposited with the Dominion Government for the security of policyholders is $100,000, and a license has been issued to enable the company to carry on all lines of personal accident, sickness and guarantee insurance business. The company will be under the very best of management. The President and Manager is Mr. A. L. Davis, who has had a long and successful experience in insurance business in Eastern Ontario, and the Assistant General Manager and Secretary is Mr. E. Wilkins, who has been associated with the Dominion of Canada Guarantee & Accident Insurance Company as Secretary for many years, and has a wide knowledge of insurance business in all its branches. The directors, too, are gentlemen well known in the insurance world. The policies of the company are thoroughly up to date, and a successful and useful career seems to be in front of it. The number of accident companies, both English and United States, which have recently come into the Dominion, together with the enormous development of casualty and guarantee insurance, both tend to show that there is ample room for a first-class Canadian company of this kind, and the new company should at once take its place in the front rank of the leading insurance companies.

BUSY DAY AT POLICE COURT

Other Minor Cases Disposed of—Police Court Notes.

The hot weather this week seems to have set the demon loose and in consequence there was another busy morning at the Police Court.

A. Valois first made his bow and heard a charge of being the owner and harbourer of a dog for which the license had not been paid. The defendant claimed that he had bought the dog for his brother two weeks ago, but it had not been called for until yesterday. The Chief said the dog had been there for a month, and a fine of $2 and costs, amounting to $3.85, was imposed.

In the next case, a charge of an indecent act against H. Revby and A. Valois, the evidence went to show that the thing was not a nuisance, and the men were discharged.

The court was cleared for a juvenile case in which two small boys, a junk dealer, a copper boiler and the market value of copper were the chief factors.

Wm. Logan laid a charge of the theft of his copper boiler against Roy Scriver and Ed. Le Gros. He found his boiler later in Goldsmith's junk shop at Aylmer street.

Both boys elected to be tried by the Magistrate, and pleaded not guilty.

H. Carr, who is employed in the junk yards, was first called. He said the two boys came to the yards with a boiler, and young Le Gros said he had no note from his mother giving him permission to sell. He paid the boys 35c and took the boiler.

Young Scriver said he found the boiler in the creek and hid it under the tannery, and later got a bag and put the boiler into it, and he and young Le Gros carried it down the G. T. R. tracks to the junk shop. Young Le Gros' evidence was along the same lines, but he did not explain why he told Carp that his mother hadn't time to give him a note. The Magistrate let young Le Gros go with a warning, and Scriver was let off on suspended sentence.

A charge was laid against Goldman for purchasing the goods from a minor without written permission from his parents. The junk dealer must have known that a written consent was necessary, or else he would not have asked the boys for a note.

Goldman said he would never, never buy anything without a written consent from the parents, and he was discharged with a warning.

Following a suggestion, the Magistrate ordered the two boys to carry the boiler up George street and set it at Mr. Logan's door, Mr. Logan to lead the procession.

MISCELLANEOUS.

At the Brock street rink on Thursday night a good programme of athletic events will be run off, and in addition to the heats between Grauthier and Capt. Ross and Cook, a number of local wrestlers will engage in contests.

MR. R. H. ELLIOTT'S FATHER DEAD

Was Suddenly Attacked With Heart Failure.

Death Occurred Saturday Last in Paris, Ontario—Was Highly Respected Citizen.

The many friends in this city of Mr. R. H. Elliott, who left on Saturday last to take a position in London, will learn with deep regret of the very sudden death of his father, which occurred in Paris, on Saturday. A despatch from that town to the Brantford Courier says:

Mr. Jas. Elliott, a very highly respected resident of Paris, dropped dead on Saturday. He came down town and secured his morning's mail and daily paper, and was on his way home when he was suddenly attacked by heart failure. Doctors were immediately summoned but the spark of life had fled. He had resided in Paris for twenty years. The funeral will take place on Tuesday at 2.30 p.m., for the Paris cemetery.

WHAT TO DO FOR AN UNHEALTHY COMPLEXION.

There is Only One Way to Get a Good, Healthy Complexion. You Can Have Red Cheeks, Rosy Lips and Bright Eyes All Your Life Without Using Poisonous Lotions, Washes or Powders.

It has come to be a habit with many women to make use of powders, cosmetics and other beautifiers, to cover up defects and to conceal the fact that their skin is rough, mottled or pimply. It is foolishness, however, to attempt to correct a bad complexion by the use of beautifiers. There is only one way to secure a lasting result and that is to remove the cause. If you have an unhealthy complexion you may depend upon it that your blood is also unhealthy. It must be purified and enriched and this can only be accomplished by keeping the liver active and establishing regularity of the bowels. Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills act directly on the liver, regulate the bowels, cleanse and enrich the blood, and in this way purify the complexion. Never use cosmetics, many of which are poisonous, containing lead, arsenic and other mineral poisons, and all of which eventually are sure to make a bad complexion even worse, but use a remedy which is known to cure all stomach and bowel troubles, cleanse the blood of all impurities and regulate and strengthen the functions of digestion and assimilation. If you would have red cheeks, rosy lips and bright clear eyes, keep your bowels regular by the use of Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills. Their daily use will establish conditions of perfect health. Remember these little pills are purely vegetable, and not only quickly restore the complexion, but are a positive cure for sick headache, constipation and billousness in one night. All dealers, 25 cents.

All genuine signed W. F. Smith.

RUSSIANS ARE UNCRUSHED

Idea That She Wants Peace At Any Price An Error.

WITTE TALKS ON SITUATION

Russian Chief Plenipotentiary Fears Japanese Terms Will Prevent Acceptance—Emperor Must Ultimately Give Decision Which Will Determine the Destinies of Russia —Japs on Sakhalin.

St. Petersburg, July 18.—M. Witte, the senior Russian peace plenipotentiary, yesterday received the correspondent of the Associated Press at his villa at Yalagin Island. M. Witte spoke in French. After greetings, the conversation gravitated quickly to the high mission with which the Russian statesman is charged, and the disposition of the foreign press to interpret his appointment as an indication that Russia had decided to make peace at any price.

"No, no," said His Excellency, straightening up in his chair and speaking slowly and distinctly, as if weighing the value of each word. "I am the first place I have been designated by the Emperor as his Ambassador extraordinary for pour parlors with the Japanese plenipotentiaries to ascertain whether it is possible to conclude a treaty of peace. My personal views are of secondary importance, but my ideas are in eqtire accord with these of my friend, Count Lamsdorff, Foreign Minister. In serving my Emperor, I have received precise instructions from His Majesty and shall follow them.

"The ultimate decision remains in the hands of the Emperor, and it is for him to decide the destinies of Russia. The Emperor is the friend of peace, but I very much fear that the Japanese terms will be such that he will be unable to reach an accord.

"Secondly, the world should disabuse its mind that Russia wants peace at any price.

"Thirdly, Russia is not crushed, as the foreign press had led the world to believe. That the interior situation is serious I do not deny; but in Europe and America the true significance of what is happening is not understood.

"Russia is not on the verge of dissolution as a great power and is not obliged to accept any conditions offered in spite of the military reverses she has sustained.

"We are passing through an internal crisis, which has been marked by many grave events, and which may have others still in store, but the crisis will pass and in a few years Russia will again take her place as a preponderant power in the European concert."

Sakhalin is Invested.

London, July 18.—The correspondent of The Daily Mail at Hokodate says that the Japanese have practically completed the occupation of the Island of Sakhalin and are organising a Government.

The Shanghai correspondent of The Standard says that the Japanese have landed on Sakhalin 135 miles of light railway and 3,000 coolies.

Killed By the Heat.

Toronto, July 18.—The weather man places the extreme heat at 91 in the shade yesterday. The excessive heat killed Edward Tyrell, an elderly gentleman, at his home, 23 Homewood avenue. Mr. Tyrell was an agent, and went down town in the morning to attend to his business. At about 2 o'clock he returned and was passing through the kitchen when he was seized with illness and fell to the floor. He was 68 years of age.

Bail For Alleged Murderer.

Toronto, July 18.—Justice Magee yesterday fixed the bail of Patrick McAuliffe, charged with murder at Peterboro at $7,000. McAuliffe will answer for the death of a hotelkeeper of Peterboro, who he is accused of striking in a drunken brawl. The autopsy showed that the man had suffered from a diseased liver.

Almost Lynched Him.

Quebec, July 18.—Dominico Monghavit, an Italian from Montreal, stabbed William Perkins, a Q. R. L. & P. Co. motorman, yesterday, and only the prompt action of a couple of municipal policemen saved Monghavit from being lynched. Perkins is not dangerously injured.

BAD! BAD!! BAD!!!

Bad blood comes from bad digestion—bad stomach, bad liver, bad kidneys—attended with bad, foul breath, coated tongue, bad taste, bad headaches, bad appetite and kindred symptoms. Bad as these all are, and serious as are the diseases to which they lead, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery comes to the relief and cure of all these by regulating and invigorating STOMACH, LIVER, BOWELS and KIDNEYS, and putting all these organs in good order.

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, opium or other harmful drugs; neither does it contain sugar or syrup, which are injurious to some stomachs. Without any of these it retains its pleasant taste and marvelous healing qualities in the most trying climate. Don't let a selfish medicine seller cheat you out of your health by giving you a substitute. He's only looking out for a larger profit, not for your good. Shun him. Honest, unselfish dealers recommend the "Golden Medical Discovery."

"That your remedies are not for the few, but for the many is evident for I personally know of many scores of persons in this city who have been restored to health and strength by your medicines," three writes Henry Lambert, Jr., Alderman in the 23rd Ward, Buffalo, N. Y., of 1094 Jefferson Street. "I know that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is most valuable in cases of derangement of the liver, having taken the medicine some two years ago when I had a bad attack of liver trouble, and I never used a medicine before that did me any more good. I have known Dr. Pierce for twenty-six years and do not wonder at his success, for he is a physician and man of sterling qualities, is possessed of extraordinary skill, and he has in his Sanitarium a corps of physicians who are chosen because of their unusual knowledge and professional skill."

If suffering from any obstinate, lingering ailment, write to Dr. Pierce and get, free of charge, sound medical advice. He has the counsel and assistance of a large staff of expert specialists.

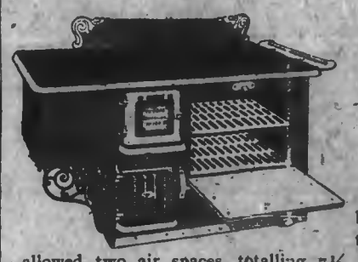
Every detail about the Oxford Chancellor Range has been built with the object of strength and long service. Each part is constructed of the very best material and mounted by the most skilled workmen.

The ash-pit is deep and wide and fitted with a large pressed-steel ash pan. An outside ash guard is provided.



Oxford Chancellor Range

Between the main bottom and bottom of the range, we have allowed two air spaces, totalling 7¼ inches, which protects the floor from over-heating. This is a point that will be most appreciated by those who have had their floors burnt by poorly insulated ranges.

We would like to tell you more about the Oxford Chancellor Range. Won't you write for some of our free booklets?

CONTRACT WAS LET FOR DRAINAGE WORK

An Important Contract Let by Otonabee Council Yesterday Mr. A. McNamara to do the Work—A Large Beaver Meadow Will be Drained by the Proposed Ditch on the Outskirts of the City---Plans for the Work Were Prepared by Mr. A. J. Cameron.

Keene, July 17.—A regular meeting of the Township Council was held here to-day, and in addition to routine business, a contract was agreed to with Mr. M. A. McNamara, Water street, Peterborough, for a somewhat important drainage work in Otonabee, near the southeast boundary of the city.

This work is represented by a drain which will bring into cultivatable condition a large tract of land, now beaver meadow and practically useless, except some portions of it for pasture during a part of the season. The proposed drain will principally affect lots 28 and 29 in the 11th concession and lots 27 and 28 in the 12th concession. The drain will begin at the point where the Canadian Pacific Railway crosses the creek on lot 29, be carried easterly for 525 feet, and then follow the bed of the creek to the concession line at Downer's Corners. From there the outlet will run into the river. For the entire length, the drain will be fifteen feet wide at the top, six feet wide at the bottom, and of the necessary depth to insure drainage. The contract price for excavation is 30 cents per cubic yard, and as there are about 4,000 cubic yards to be removed, the cost will be about $1,200. It is expected that work will be begun at once, and completed some time during the coming month.

The plans of this work were prepared by Mr. A. J. Cameron, surveyor of this city, and the work will be of special interest here, in view of the fact that the land to be drained is practically on the border of Peterborough.

DR. T. JOHNSTON FINED $25.00

Claims That an Injustice Has Been Done Him.

Tuberculosis Patients Make Statements Regarding Cures Effected by His Remedy.

Dr. Thomas Johnston, the well-known Veterinary Surgeon, Chambers street, yesterday pleaded guilty to a charge of practicing medicine without a diploma, and paid a fine of $25 and costs in settlement of the action.

The evidence in the case against Dr. Johnston, was secured by Detective Rose of Toronto, who has been looking after several local infractions of the act.

In connection with the case has arisen some interesting facts. Dr. Johnston, although he pleaded guilty to the offense, states that he did so entirely on behalf of his patients in order that they should be spared the trouble and anxiety which a trial would entail, several of them being in a condition which will not allow of their attendance without serious consequences. He is, however, most emphatic in his statements regarding the numerous cases which he has had under treatment, and feels that an injustice has been done him by the principle involved in the statutes.

Dr. Johnston states that the cases which he has had under treatment were those of tuberculosis patients, whose condition was abandoned as hopeless by many of the local medical profession, in many of which he has brought about an entire restoration to health by means of a specific, which he has retailed at $2 per bottle to his patients.

In substantiation of his statements he brings a most formidable array of testimony from many local patients, who state that they have partially or wholly recovered their health under his treatment, after having been abandonned by a number of local doctors. Dr. Johnston yesterday mentioned a large number of these cases and requested that their statements might be secured by the Examiner in justification of his position in the matter. The doctor states that his efforts have been for years devoted to the relief of tuberculosis patients, and feels that as his patients, after being abandoned by the physicians, have requested his treatment, and have in consequence recovered, that an injustice is done him in imposing a fine upon him. The Examiner has in its possession a long list of patients who have been under treatment by the doctor, and of these several were seen to-day.

Mr. H. A. Mulhern, of the Central Milling Company, states that he has taken the treatment of Dr. Johnston. His was given up as an entirely hopeless case by a Brock street physician, who diagnosed the case as one arising from an affection of the lungs. The physician stated his positive conviction that recovery was impossible, and that he could not survive more than a few weeks. Mr. Mulhern speaks in strong terms of condemnation with regard to the "wise-acres" who have created trouble and anxiety by their erroneous judgment. He commenced taking Dr. Johnston's preparation about a year ago and found that it benefitted him to a considerable extent. He was away for about six months of last summer and upon his return weighed 114. During the winter this was increased by 30 lbs, and a short time ago he visited two Toronto physicians, who stated that his lungs have not been affected in the slightest, his illness arising entirely from nervous disorder. Mr. Mulhern states that Dr. Johnston's remedy has helped him and that in his opinion it is a good remedy.

Mrs. Harry Star, of 25 Elm street, was also called upon and states that she had received treatment from two local physicians for consumption, and that one of these had told her that it could not be cured, while the other stated that in his opinion the only restorative would be a life for an extended time in the open air. She was at the Gravenhurst Sanitorium for a term of six months, and returned from that place in a worse condition than when she entered it.

She commenced Dr. Johnston's treatment in April last and has since then increased in strength and feels confident that it saved her life. "If doctors could cure consumption, why don't they?" she asked. She would recommend the medicine strongly.

These are two of a long list given to the Examiner by Dr. Johnston. Another is that of a young lady residing on Perry street, whose case, the doctor states, was abandoned as hopeless by three local physicians, and who is now completely restored. He has altogether treated 35 cases in different stages of consumption.

The doctor believes that he has secured a cure for the dread disease and that if the physicians regard a case as hopeless he should not be punished for effecting a cure, when this is the desire of the patient.

Corn Acreage Large.

United States reports for July show an increase of 2,000,000 in corn acreage, bringing the total acreage at this date up to 94,011,000. This, with the exception of 1901, is the largest acreage on record. Under usual conditions, it would mean a yield of 2,500,000,000 bushels, and a value to the farmers of $1,000,000,000.

Large Party at Warsaw Said to Favour This.

Infant Son of the Emperor May be Placed on the Throne.

(Special to the Examiner)

St. Petersburg, July 18.—A sensational rumour is current here to-day that a large party of the Zematvoists and Doumanists at Moscow are in favour of the proposition for the deposition of Emperor Nicholas and the establishment of a regency for the Grand Duke Alexisietevitch, the infant son of the Emperor and Heir to the throne under four grand Dukes. It is alleged that for this reason the meeting of the all Russian Zematvoist and Doumanist Congress which was to take place at Moscow has been postponed.

SMOKING CAUSES MUCH ANNOYANCE

In common with our citizens generally, I was pleased with the success of the late races, and hope for a continuance of successful events. The management, however, showed a lamentable lack of wisdom in allowing smoking in the grand stand to the great annoyance of non-smokers and ladies. If their rules permit such a nuisance or they are indifferent to the comfort of their patrons, than such an association is not deserving of public support. Unless they announce beforehand next time that they will strictly prohibit smoking in the grand stand, I know of many who will cease to attend the races. It is now up to the management to declare their intentions for the future in their behalf.

"BILLY" BUNTON'S GENUINE STORY

Produces Proof That He Caught an Eleven Pounder.

Stories are being told of the fish that are being caught at the Lakes, but with nothing to prove their truth, but Mr. W. Bunton, the genial city agent of the G. T. R., produces proof posive of a catch which he made a few days ago. He spent a day at Alexander's cottage, and went out in the morning, returning with an eleven pounder. Standing on the landing with the fish in his hand, a photograph was taken, and this Mr. Bunton produces when he tells of his catch. The smile of incredulity which begins to play upon the face of the audience when the story is being told, vanishes when the photo is shown.

TRAGIC DEATH BY POISON IN DOURO

Mrs. D. G. Moloney, Wife of County Councillor Moloney, of Douro Township, Committed Suicide Yesterday by Swallowing Large Dose of Paris Green—Deceased Was a Sufferer From Melancholia Arising From Recent Misfortunes—Death Came as a Great Shock to the Community.

Mrs. Dennis G. Maloney, wife of County Councillor Moloney, of Douro Township, ended her life in a tragic manner yesterday at her home near Warsaw, by deliberately taking a large dose of poison.

The fatal dose, which was about a dessert-spoonful of Paris green, was taken at an early hour in the morning. The first discovery of her action was made about noon, when alarming symptoms developed. Dr. Meacham, of Warsaw, had been hurriedly summoned, and though the utmost efforts were made to save the life, they proved unavailing, and the end came last evening about six o'clock. The deceased lady, when questioned, admitted having taken the poison.

The only motive which can be given to explain the rash action is the fact that the deceased has for some months been in a state of melancholia, arising probably from death of her son, which occurred under tragic circumstances some months ago in the fire which destroyed the home of the family. Since that time she has been unwell.

The late Mrs. Maloney was born near Norwood, Ont., and was a daughter of the late Michael Murphy, of that place. She was 47, and is survived by three sisters and one brother, Mrs. H. Day, of Belleville; Mrs. A. O'Connor, of Toronto; Mary Emily, of Loretto Convent, Toronto, and Mr. J. Murphy, of Toronto. The late Dr. Murphy, of Brockville, was a brother.

The news of the tragic death of Mrs. Maloney came as a painful shock to the whole community, she having been one of its most highly esteemed residents for many years. Widespread sympathy is being extended to the bereaved husband, County Councillor Maloney, by his large circle of friends. The present calamity, following closely upon his recent heavy affliction in the death of his only son in a fire which consumed his home, have created a feeling of gloom which is felt over the entire Township, of which he was one of the most highly respected residents.

The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock, to St. Joseph's Cemetery, Douro.

DROWNED BOY RELATED HERE

Dr. McNulty's Brother Was Drowned in Welland Canal.

Doctor Left To-day to go Home—Body Not Recovered Last Night.

Dr. McNulty left this morning for his home in St. Catharines, where yesterday his brother Stanley was drowned in the canal. A despatch from St. Catharines says: Stanley McNulty, fifteen years old, son of John McNulty, was drowned in the old canal this afternoon. The boy was in swimming with some companions at lock 14 at Merritton, and suddenly sank. He did not appear again, though the other boys and men who were summoned made every effort to find him. The body was not been recovered up to 7 o'clock this evening, and the canal at the point is being dragged. The water in the lock is very deep and the current strong.

Smothered in Well.

Octave Dupuis, a prosperous farmer of Montcerf, eight miles from Maniwaki, up the Gatineau, was smothered to death in a well the other day. He had dug a hole nearly twenty-five feet deep, and was at bottom, while his whole family and a few friends stood about the mouth of the well. The soil was not very firm, and it is supposed that the united weight of the ten persons caused a cave-in.

Destroyer Flotilla Shelled Enemy Off Yukiwan.

Land Forces Shelled Boats but Were Soon Quieted.

Special to The Examiner.

Tokio, July 19.—Vice-Admiral Kamimura reports engagements between the Japanese vessels under his command and the Russian land forces. The report says: "Our destroyer flotilla was shelled by the enemy off Yukiwan. The flotilla replied, silencing the enemy and forcing their cavalry to retire. Later, our flotilla discovered a mounted patrol, the sun shining on their arms having revealed the enemy, and shelled them. Our cruiser Chiluya shelled the enemy's guard north of Gehapoint, in northeastern Korea."

THE LOCAL BAND APPRECIATED

Other News From That Village—Harvest is Progressing Well.

Omemee, July 18th.—The village is quiet since the 12th of July.

The hay crop is well saved.

The turn-out of Orangemen from Peterborough and vicinity was exceedingly creditable. Never in the history of this place were there such fine orderly crowds.

The 57th Band gave several excellent selections and the citizens were sorry that they did not hear more.

Mr. McCarthy, the Removing Building King, is here now, changing buildings for Chas. McCaffrey.

The Peterborough binder twine is being hustled out lively by the agent, J. D. Thornton, and is giving fine satisfaction.

Child Had Eczema

"My daughter, 13 years old, suffered from eczema for three years. She was treated by our family physician and used other ointments without benefit. By using Dr. Chase's Ointment she has been completely cured. This is the only ointment I feel like recommending."—Mr. James H. Patriquin, 176 Rockdale Avenue, Sydney, C. B.

Killed Because She Deceived.

John Schidlofsta, of La Junta, Col., who slew his bride of five months, and threw her body beside the links of the golf club in Arlington, Mass., is under arrest here. To Sheriff Barr, who captured him, on the Santa Fe track, he has made a complete confession. His crime, he says, was the outcome of an act of deception, which his wife practiced upon him. When he courted her, she represented she was twenty-eight years of age and had $600 in the bank, whereas, after the wedding he learned that she possessed only $220 cash and that her age was forty.

JAPANESE WILL CONTINUE WAR

Unless They Get What They Want From Russia—Baron Hayashi Speaks Out—"The Public Evidently Mistake the Japanese for Angels," Says Japan's Minister to Britain—Menace for Vladivostock—Witte Talks Plainly to Heads of Factions and the Czar Himself.

London, July 19.—Baron Hayashi, the Japanese Minister here, said to the representative of the Associated Press yesterday that Russia had appointed good men as peace plenipotentiaries. Nevertheless M. Witte and Baron Rosen had not inspired Japan with confidence in a favorable outcome of the negotiations.

"We do not know," the Minister added, "what powers have been delegated to them, and after the events of the past eighteen months Japan puts faith only in accomplished facts. The terms will be communicated only at the conference. Then we will discover what powers the Russian plenipotentiaries possess."

The Associated Press correspondent suggested that the general opinion prevailed that the Japanese terms will be moderate.

"I cannot see where people get such an idea," replied the Minister, "the public evidently mistake the Japanese for angels."

Minister Hayashi intimated that Japan was ready to continue the war unless she secures suitable terms. He called attention to the fact that practically the entire sum realised by the last two loans was unexpected, and said the capture of the Island of Sakhalin was not precipitated by the approach of the conference, but was a natural sequence of the Japanese campaign, the plans for which had not been altered since Russia acceded to a conference.

Vladivostock's Doom in Sight.

London, July 19.—The Tokio correspondent of The Daily Telegraph says that a Japanese army has been landed north of Vladivostock, and that a complete envelopment of the fortress is imminent.

Witte is Incensed.

St. Petersburg, July 19.—Evidence of the Government's consternation over internal conditions is found yesterday in its abrupt recession from the position it assumed in respect of the All-Russian zemstvo congress. It practically was decided yesterday morning to let the zemstvoists meet in Moscow without serious molestation.

Attempts were made Monday to trammel M. Witte, chief peace plenipotentiary, with limitations devised by the grand ducal party, which would prevent the statesman from obtaining a cessation of hostilities in the Far East save on terms impossibly advantageous to Russia.

M. Witte lent himself to the project—apparently. That is, he chimed in with the position that no peace proposal injurious to Russian national pride would be considered for a moment by the representatives of Emperor Nicholas.

Shortly after giving utterance to his statement, M. Witte, it is reported on credible authority, criticised bitterly in private the heads of the factions who had sought to place him in a false position. He saw they hoped to make it impossible for him to concede a peace treaty. He forced interviews with several of the opposing chieftains and told them in plain words they must keep their hands off his policy.

It is asserted confidently M. Witte gave that warning to men in high places, and even that he did not stop short of the Emperor himself. In his public interview, M. Witte said blandly he was the servant of the Czar, and would obey orders; privately, he virtually told Emperor Nicholas there must be no imperial interference with his purpose, since he was to be held chiefly responsible for the outcome of the Washington conference.

King of Troy Won Derby.

Fort Erie, July 19.—The midsummer meeting of the Fort Erie Jockey Club opened yesterday. The weather conditions were fine, though rather hot; the track was good, but not fast. The feature was the Canadian Derby, for a purse of $3,000. It proved to be a three-horse race, the fourth entry having been withdrawn at the last moment. The record: King of Troy, 125 (D. Austin), 6 to 5, won by two lengths; McIlvain, 122 (Wishard), 6 to 1, 2; Tongerder, 127 (Spencer), 3 to 5, 3. Time, 2.10. Only three starters.

JOHN FALLON WAS DISCHARGED

And He Will Support His Wife and Family.

Satisfactory Settlement Between Merchants—Yard was Cleaned Up.

There was little of interest at the Chambre de Justice ce matin. The only case of any importance was a charge of non-support against a young man named John Fallon.

Fallon's wife testified that he did not work steadily, and gave her barely enough of his earnings to keep her and her boy alive; and that he went and got drunk on the rest. She said further that she did not get enough to keep her in clothes, but had to buy or make her clothes with what little she earned by taking in sewing.

Fallon denied the charge of non-support, but said he had been drunk. He received a healthy lecture from the magistrate, and was discharged on his promise to work faithfully, and support his family.

The merchants who contributed to the pile of rubbish in "Hogan's Ally" had reached a satisfactory agreement out of court, and had the yard cleaned up. This was all that was necessary and consequently they did not have to appear in the court.

Catharine McCarthy has found out that riding a wheel on the sidewalk is rather expensive. She paid the usual fine of $2 out of court.

There are a couple of young men whose actions in Jackson Park are suspicious. If they do not cease their tactics there will be trouble ahead.

I. O. F. ORGANIZER VISITS THE CITY

Mr. A. W. Brown Gives Interesting Facts About the Order.

Startling Increase in Membership of the Foresters—The Orphans' Home.

Mr. A. W. Brown, Organizer of the I. O. F., is at the National Hotel. Mr. Brown, who is making a short visit to the courts in this section of the Province, states that nothing of immediate local importance attaches to his present visit to Peterborough. In discussing the work at present being accomplished by the Order, Mr. Brown was most enthusiastic regarding the present outlook. The new Orphan's Home at Deseronto will be opened on August 6th. The membership is growing at an unprecedently rapid rate. The increase in membership during the past three months has been 5,238, and that in surplus $122,342.50 during the month of June alone, the total surplus now amounting to $8,971,894.90.

Three delegates from Peterborough will attend the High Court meeting, which will be held in Belleville on August 30-31. The meeting of the Supreme Court will be held at Atlantic City on July 31. Among the 10 representatives who will attend from Eastern Ontario is Mr. John Garrett, of Havelock.

Mr. Brown wears a watch which he prizes very highly, and with good reason, it having been presented to him by Dr. Oronyateka, Supreme Chief of the Order, for his services. It has a gold case of handsome design, and upon the inside cover bears a photograph of the donor upon the gold, accompanied by a suitable inscription.

Mr. Brown left this afternoon for Lakefield.

AN EXCURSION FROM HASTINGS

The Methodist Sunday School Conducted Successful Trip To-day.

Went Over the Lift Lock This Morning --Had Dinner at Young's Point.

This morning an excursion from Hastings, conducted under the auspices of the Methodist Sunday school of that village, came to Peterborough; and judging from the enthusiasm displayed, they are certain of having a most enjoyable day.

Upon their arrival here the crowd went to the Wolfe street wharf, where the steamer City of Peterborough was in waiting. About 250 of the crowd boarded the boat, taxing it to its utmost capacity, but there were 150 left, who were taken on the Rainbow, which arrived a short time afterwards. The agent of the Lift Lock was of special interest to the visitors, and was much enjoyed by all.

The excursionists went to Lakefield and then on to Young's Point, where they had dinner. Altogether a most pleasant outing was enjoyed.

BOSTON'S BARBER REGULATIONS

Board of Health Orders Sterilization of all That Barbers Use on Customers.

A special despatch from Boston, May 5, 1900, to the New York Sun gives new regulations of the Boston Board of Health as to barber shops:—"Mugs, shaving brushes and razors shall be sterilized after each separate use thereof. A separate, clean towel shall be used for each person. Material to stop the flow of blood shall be used only in powdered form, and applied on a towel. Powder puffs are prohibited." Wherever Newbro's "Herpicide" is used for face or scalp after shaving or hair cutting, there is no danger of infection, as it is antiseptic, and kills the dandruff germ. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to the Herpicide Company, Detroit, Mich. Ormsbld & Walsh, special agents.

Popular with Women.

It has since been impassable for horses, and despite repeated demands that it be placed in condition for traffic, the railway company has done nothing.

A Gold Strike.

Nelson, B.C., News gives reports of a phenomenal gold strike in the Swede group of mines. Mr. E. E. Morgan, one of the directors, said he had been working for several weeks on the find, and knew it was richer than anything yet seen in British Columbia. He was afraid to mention the value shown by the several assays made. The lowest was over $5,000 to the ton and the best runs over $100,000. It was easily the richest ore he had ever seen in his life.

Chamberlain's COLIC, CHOLERA AND Diarrhoea Remedy

It has been used in nine epidemics of dysentery with perfect success.

It can always be depended upon, even in the more severe attacks of cramp colic and cholera morbus.

It is equally successful for summer diarrhoea and cholera infantum in children, and is the means of saving the lives of many children each year.

When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take.

Every man of a family should keep this remedy in his home. Buy it now. It may save life.

A Husband's Opinion of Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets For WOMEN

Husbands know this. But in nine cases out of ten, women are cross and irritable because they are not well.

Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets transform cross and irritable wives into bright, pleasant women.

They Make Healthy Women

Husbands appreciate the change and the remedy that causes it.

The letter of one appreciative husband is given below.

I wish to congratulate you upon the efficacy of Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women. Mrs. Baldwin has tested them, and certifies to their worth. Her experience together with testimony of the others in this vicinity who have been by them "made healthy women," leads me to request you to send three boxes to a relative, Mrs. ———, who is a sufferer from ills peculiar to women, whom physicians and their remedies have thus far failed to cure.

THE CITY'S NEW FIRE ENGINE

Shall a Motor Engine be Purchased.

Interesting Description of Fire Fighting Apparatus of Merryweather Co., London, England.

At the recent meeting of the Fire-Water and Light Committee, called to discuss the question of the purchase of a new fire engine, the advisability of replacing the present engine with a motor fire-fighting apparatus was considered and discussed at some length. The utility of the various engines manufactured by Merryweather & Sons, of London, England, was considered, and as they are probably the leading manufacturers of motor fire apparatus in the world, it is quite probable that in case it is decided to purchase one of this variety that the selection will be made from those of this firm.

Merryweather & Sons have recently issued a booklet which contains much interesting information regarding the different engines manufactured by them, from which an account of a journey from London to Portsmouth by road of one of their engines, may be read with interest at this juncture. The account is taken from "The Log of the Motor Fire King."

Wednesday, May 19th. — Started for Portsmouth by road with the Fire King, just built for that progressive town by the Merryweathers. This particular monarch of the flames has a pumping capacity of 400 gallons per minute with 40 i.h.p., carries forty gallons of liquid fuel, and one hundred ditto of feed water, and runs on solid rubber tyres 4-in. wide. The other details of the machine are similar to those in use in. wide.

Leaving Greenwich Road, at 2 p. m., with Superintendent Mitchell, of the Croydon Fire Brigade, as a passenger, we quickly ran through Lewisham and Catford, to Southend, our four inch rubbers being highly appreciated on the exceedingly bumpy road. Turning sharp off to the right, we run up to Beckenham, through Elmer's End, and past the old racecourse to Croydon, well within the hour; here we were kindly accommodated with water at the fire station for replenishing our feed tanks.

Mr. Mitchell was so enamoured of the running of the machine that he decided to finish up the day with us, and so, piloted by a friendly motor cyclist, we steered a devious course down through the narrow Croydon streets, out to the level main road to Sutton, where we again halted for water and took in a few gallons of petroleum for the fuel tanks. Just outside Sutton we were nearly run into by an unruly horse and trap with a nervous woman at the ribbons. As the horse apparently wanted all the road to waltz in, we obligingly reversed our engines and backed down a bit, allowing the lady to regain command, and lead the fiery un-tamed 'un down the next turning, while the King proceeded on his harmless, and well-controlled way. It is a grave scandal that such ungovernable things as horses should be allowed on the public roads in these enlightened automobile days. We had an uneventful run through Epsom, its main thoroughfare quiet and drowsy in the afternoon sunlight, and pulled up at Leatherhead for a cup of tea and more water. Another hour brought us to Guildford, where we ran to the fire station, a crowd of willing hands from the fire brigade helping us to remove our travel stains preparatory to an inspection of our machine by the District Council. The members turned up in full force with the Mayor and Captain Kenneth Christopherson of the Fire Brigade, and were taken on a flying run up the steep Guildford High street, and back to the fire station, where the pumps were coupled up in a few seconds and got to work from a street hydrant. Everyone present was loud in his praises of our performance, as a motor engine would be just the right appliance for Guildford, owing to the long distances that have to be travelled frequently to country fires and the severe hills to be tackled. The crew, together with Secretary Hall, the Superintendent, and Captain Sherlock, of Woking, afterwards partook of Captain Christopherson's hospitality at the White Lion, and slept the sleep of the righteous motor man, with the hum of the gear in their ears, and a taste of petroleum mingled with that of more palatable liquors in their throats.

Thursday, May 20.—Up betimes, and got oil tanks full and plenty of water. We were joined at the Fire Station by Inspector Ogburn and Fireman White, of the Portsmouth Fire Brigade, who had come up by train to ride down home with us. Got under way at 10.30 a.m. and ran leisurely down Guildford High Street, pulling up sharply with the reversing gear on the steepest part just to give the inspector an idea of our capabilities in emergency. Over the bridge and on to the main Portsmouth Road we thoroughly appreciated the brightness of the morning, and found the surface of this well-known thoroughfare absolute perfection. We pulled up for a few minutes at the Angel at Godalming, the proprietor of which is the captain of the local Fire Brigade. He was much interested in our "motor," and the more so as his town council had just purchased a side stroking engine for horse draught. We took him and another member of his Fire Brigade up for a spin, and when we parted their knowledge of the wisdom of rear steering was increased, not unmixed with a degree of sadness at having acquired a comparatively obsolete machine, when by a little more enterprise their fellow townsmen might have been the proud possessors of a "Fire King." Anyhow, that's their trouble. We took in a few buckets of water at Milford preparatory to the long ascent of Hindhead, which is a steady rise of about 7 miles. The "King" took this in his usual happy style and never turned a hair or heated a big-end although he routed up his feed pretty considerable and was glad of refreshment at the Huts Hotel on the summit. We snap-shotted him just here and sent a wire home as to our whereabouts. We made the descent on the other side with our steam low and running from 15 to 20 miles an hour until we reached Petersfield, where we halted at the Dolphin, filling the "King" with oil and water. Just out of Petersfield we encountered Buster, the most formidable hill on the Portsmouth Road. "How did he manage Buster?" was the first question of every enquirer at our journey's end. "O.K.," was the answer, "at about 10 miles an hour." After Buster Hill all was plain sailing, we ran quickly into Havant, and taking up another fill of water, soon got in sight of Portsmouth Town Hall. As we ran into the town all the "dockers" were leaving work and forming an admiring audience for our entrance into the great naval port. Here we had a rattling good trial, of which I need say nothing more than this, that everyone concerned seemed to be highly pleased, both with the locomotive and pumping powers of the "Fire King."

With automobile fire apparatus are several problems to be faced. Proper distribution of weight to prevent skidding is more important than with horse-drawn vehicles, efficient and economical means of transmitting power have to be provided, efficient and able steering gear is necessary, storage for fuel, etc., has to be considered, and there are many other requirements which only the experienced builder is likely to know of and provide for.

The Merryweather Company manufacture motor fire apparatus to be driven by steam, petrol and electricity. These powers are the most suitable for the purpose and admit of numerous variations.

The principal advantages claimed for the Merryweather Motor Steam Fire Engine, as compared with horse draught machines, and with other makers' machines are:

1. Quickness, both in "running out" (inside one minute) and in travelling to a fire (20 to 30 miles per hour).
2. Steam always ready for driving the pumps on arrival at a fire, be the run long or short.
3. Greater speed on the level and up hill, and also greater speed and safety in descending declines.
4. Compact, combined machinery—propelling the engine along the road and doing the pumping work on arriving at a fire—avoiding duplication of working parts.
5. Low cost of maintenance (5s. per week for gas to keep steam in boiler), saving expense of coachman, horses, stabling, harness and upkeep of same.
6. Promptness in responding to alarm, there being no waiting for horses, as often occurs where brigades do not keep their own.
7. Carries water and fuel for several hours' working, as well as men, hose and appliances.

BACKACHE AND DIZZINESS.

Most of the Ailments Peculiar to the Female Sex are Due to Catarrh of Uterus Organs.

MRS. M. BRICKNER.

99 Eleventh Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

"A short time ago I found my condition very serious, I had headaches, pains in the back, and frequent dizzy spells which grew worse every month. I tried two remedies before Peruna, and was discouraged when I took the first dose, but my courage soon returned. In less than two months my health was restored."—Mrs. M. Brickner.

The reason of so many failures to cure cases similar to the above is the fact that diseases peculiar to the female sex are not commonly recognized as being caused by catarrh.

FEMALE TROUBLE NOT RECOGNIZED AS CATARRH.

Catarrh of one organ is exactly the same as catarrh of any other organ. What will cure catarrh of the head will also cure catarrh of the pelvic organs. Peruna cures these cases simply because it cures the catarrh.

If you have catarrh write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Ozone is a germ killer and a valuable remedy, but to get the best results from it you must have a tonic laxative to take with it. "Solution of Ozone (the coupon kind)" is the purest and best form in which Ozone is sold. Every bottle of this remedy contains a coupon which entitles you to a package of "Celery King" the well known remedy, free.

In buying this solution, you get about twice as much Ozone for your money as by buying other brands, in addition to getting a package of "Celery King" for nothing. You thus save money in two ways besides getting Ozone in its purest and most concentrated form.

Ask your druggist for "Solution of Ozone (the coupon kind)" and if he does not keep it you can get it from the Public Drug Co., Bridgeburg, Ont., by writing for it. Sold by W.B. WARNE. 5

Y. M. C. A. CAMP IS NOW ORGANIZED

Boys Have Settled Down Into the Camp Life.

Five Sections with the Members Composing Them—Some of the Incidents.

Y. M. C. A. Camp, Saturday, July 15, 1905.—This morning broke fair and decidedly cool upon our camp and found the camp thoroughly organized and everybody well. Even after a sojourn of but three days the boys are taking on the hue of the early occupants (the Indians) of this beautiful camping ground. Not a few have found the sun's affection even stronger than a tan, and many have to resort to witch hazel and other soothing external applications.

The appetites of the boys have materially improved since the arrival on Thursday of our professional cook, Mr. Arnott, who is naturally a great favourite with the boys.

He brought with him a first-class phonograph, and each day after having spent his energies in catering to the inner boy, he gets out his machine and supplies music and other entertainment. Many of the selections he is compelled to repeat as often as three times in an evening.

One of the very excellent features of the camp is the large dining tent which is the property of the camp, having been purchased by the boys of the Association from Mr. A. Kingscote, who manufactured the same.

It is large and roomy, and on each side of it are the two long tables where the boys eat. The tent also serves as a centre for meetings, bible classes, meets, and is all to the camp that a Y. M. C. A. building is to the Association when at home.

The camp stove is a dig out and is covered with a "patent" roof—any one who wishes to get patent rights to sell will apply to Mr. Baker, the janitor.

The whole camp is divided into sections, and it will be of interest to your readers to give the names in the five groups, adding the boys' names as far as we can remember them.

Section 3—P. G. Might (Captain—Pop), W. Stratton (J. R.), Ward Boll (Frisky), Geo. Hambley, W. Fortye (Fifty), P. Hooper (Cookie), F. Hatcher (Hatchett), Geo. Minorgan (Minnow).

Section 4—G. H. Williamson, leader, (Jim Flynn), A. Dawe (Duncpty), A. Harper, J. H. Wallis, T. Hugh Wallace, Max MacClennan (Judge), H. Johnston (Baxoo), M. Nichol (Dime.)

Section 5—A. Emmerson (Sunny Jim) Leader, F. Emmerson, W. English, J. English, F. Dunnett (Peanuts) F. Patterson (Pat), E. Madill (Pills), R. Dutton (Fish).

Here they are, and a jollier crowd never got together, all bent on a good time and with a oneness of spirit to conform to the rules. The leader-in-chief said the other night that he had never come into a camp before with a crowd that he had held more perfect confidence in at the start. They are proving that that he has made no mistake in his judgment.

The baseball league has made a great start. There are four teams, captained by:

No. 1—Max Dobbin.
No. 2—Ed. Wood.
No. 3—Art Dawe.
No. 4—Ed. Eyres.

The games are of four innings each and Mr. P. K. Holmes is umpire for all the games, assisted at times by Mr. Percy Might. Both have won the highest praise of the players for their fair decisions. Jeddy Hall does great work in the pitcher's box and his "coolness" is certainly remarkable.

To-day's boat brought Alf. Hodgson and Rupert McClennand, who were given a warm welcome.

Another feature of the evening was the telling of the story of the Empty House, by Mr. Williamson.

Next week's programme is a full one and many new features will be introduced.

None of the boys have shown the first symptoms of homesickness as yet—nor are they likely to when things are so lively.

Stricken with Paralysis.

Mrs. W. R. Sutherland, St. Andrew's, Man., writes:—"I was stricken with paralysis and lost power of the tongue and left leg. For six months I obtained no relief either by doctors' prescriptions or other medicines. My husband got me Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which has revitalised my nerves and given me full power of the paralysed parts. I am strong and well now, thanks to this great medicine."

Ottawa's Population.

The new Ottawa city directory is out to-day and gives the population of Ottawa as 81,839. This is 21,000 more than the decennial census and is got at by multiplying the names in the directory by three.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-west Provinces, excepting 5 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him.

Homestead Duties.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector.

Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

UNION LABEL

WEDNESDAY, JULY 19, 1905.

AFTER TRADING STAMPS

The trading stamp has had its day, says the Kingston Whig. The Federal Government at least has decided that the people must be protected from its fascination, and the criminal code, it is proposed, shall forbid the use of it.

And yet the law will not prevent the issue and redemption of labels by soap manufacturers and coupons by other persons. The single exception is in the case of men who trade in stamps only, selling them for general circulation, and with the understanding that they will be redeemed by others than those who sell the goods.

The Minister of Justice had charge of the Bill in the Commons, on behalf of the Government; but he intimated that he did not favour it very much or any form of paternalism. He had not much concern for those who were so credulous that they did not know how to control their funds, and who committed the foolishness of buying things they did not want in order to acquire the stamps and through them win the promised rewards.

Though the measure is through the second reading it may be attacked on the third reading, and it may not pass the Senate. The feeling of many legislators is expressed by the leader of the Opposition who said: "If Parliament is to control every species of trade abuse, it may some day have to forbid departmental stores and their bargain days."

TEACHERS SALARIES.

It appears that in the United States the question of the salaries of public school teachers is one which is engaging the attention of the authorities. The Sault Ste. Marie, (Mich.) News says:—

One of the topics most earnestly discussed by delegates to the National Educational Association's convention at Ashbury Park during the past week was that of teachers' salaries. All over the country the cry is rising from the subordinate educators that the pay scale is too small, that it has not increased sufficiently in recent years to enable the teachers to support themselves decently and to lay by a sufficiency to provide for their old age.

The teachers are the poorest paid of all public servants, and yet they are among the hardest worked, and they bear virtually the heaviest responsibilities. Upon them depends the character of the new generation. They are placed in charge of the mental and a large extent the moral training of the children of the country. Yet they are paid on the average less than street sweepers, less than the policemen and firemen, less than the messengers. Taken as a class they work harder and get less than any other single class of workers to-day.

One result is sure to follow from this condition, coupled with the fact that the world of business offers more opportunities to women than ever before. The teachers will abandon their chosen work for more remunerative fields, becoming stenographers, bookkeepers, cashiers, clerks, writers, solicitors and collectors. Their places in the schools will be filled with less competent women, girls without ambition to succeed save to the point of earning enough money to pay for clothes until they are married, or actually the comparative incompetents. The standards of teaching ability must inevitably fall. The efficiency of the schools must correspondingly diminish.

Died of Grief.

Mrs. Patrick Woods, of Dublin, Perth County, Ont., recently received a telegram that her son, Joseph of London, was dead. Mr. and Mrs. Woods had already buried six children. When the body of the seventh was carried into the house, the poor mother's heart seemed to break, for she fell back fainting in the arms of her husband, never regaining consciousness, and died before medical assistance could reach her. One daughter and three sons survive her. The funeral of the mother and son took place Monday morning and was the largest ever seen in the vicinity.

A PEN PICTURE OF CHARMING KEENE

Keene, the valley village, is too charming to receive descriptive justice at the hands of a prosaic pen. Its attraction, its deep peacefulness, its beauty of situation, nestling snugly and serenely in the valley fo the Indian river, whose steep eastern scarp, wooded to the water's edge, smiles greenly across the placid stream upon the placid village, with its neat cottage homes fringing the streets, and set in the trim green of lawns neatly shorn and splashed with the bright hues of flower plots; its outlook to the south, with sparkling glimpses of the height-crowned lake and twisting river slipping past its sedgy shores, the haunt of the bittern, the diver, the longlegged cranes and the water hen, all combine to make an appealing picture. When we add to the picture the rural simplicity of population, blent charmingly with urban culture, and over all homely but whole hearted hospitality, we have conditions which make Keene an ideal summer home for the worn, jaded seeker after rest.

The Village Spirit.

The people of Keene have a large public spirit. For a community of less than 300 souls to have streets provided with the most modern expensive pavement is what is not usually found in a hamlet, without a corporate existence, and consequently without power to enforce a levy to provide the sinews of war. The people co-operate and form themselves into a committee of the whole, for the purpose of carrying on the work of village improvement. In practice, if not by enrolment, every citizen is a member of the local improvement society, and the proceeds of gatherings and concerts in the winter, provide means for beautifying the streets; while the heads of households by common consent, practice a very effective rivalry in maintaining beautifully kept grounds and lawns. It has been mentioned in these columns before that the concrete pavements of the public streets have been largely extended by the general co-operation. This year, in the matter of pavements, the co-operation has narrowed its sphere, and is confined to two of the local churches. The Presbyterian church stands at the south-eastern corner of a square and diagonally opposite to the Methodist church with its adjacent parsonage. By voluntary contributions of material and labour, the Presbyterians have carried an excellent concrete pavement across their side and part of the Methodist side of the square and at present the Methodists are completing the work, which will include a broad concrete platform and steps in front of the church.

The streets are well kept and clean, except—well, it is regretted by many that the township does not pass a by law restraining the present unrestrained vagaries of the vagrant cow, which however, as excellent as she is from a utilitarian point of view, cannot in respect of the ultimate alimentary analysis be regarded as conducive to tidiness of the streets and walks.

Keene's Convenience and Solidity.

Keene, in addition to its scenic beauty and delightful boating and canoeing facilities, has many substantial and other advantages, sufficient shops and industrial conveniences to meet the modest demands of the surrounding district and the local inhabitants. Keene gives a profitable business to a local branch of the Bank of Toronto and, with good reason. It is estimated that the village has more wealth to the head of its population than any place in the country. With three practising physicians providing against undue growth and longevity of population and with no lawyers making inroads upon the village wealth, it is natural that the large ratio of wealth to the number of people should not be diminished.

Keene is becoming quite a little Mecca for rest seekers. At present there are temporarily domiciled here many visitors drawn from distant points, as widely divergent as Montreal on the one side and Winnipeg on the other.

Good Roads.

Speaking of good roadways it is interesting to note that the township can boast of as good highways as any township in Canada, not only the leading roads, but the roads generally. Not only is the wheel surface excellent, but the diversified and beautiful scenic environment of the country roads is delightful—winding through valleys embowered with splendid trees, climbing hills that give a wide outlook of magnificent scenery, rolling fields dotted with trees and charming glimpses of water, all backed by distant undulations of blue hills. Perhaps there is no township in Canada with more fertile soil, more prosperous farmers and more beautifully varied and delightful drives to the square mile than Otonabee. There is good reason for the good roads of the township—the intelligent application of systematic and scientific methods. The township has a road-making and road-improvement brigade consisting of a road-grader and a working gang of six or seven, thoroughly well equipped for the special work of which it makes a business in the season. This brigade in charge of Mr. Duncan McFarlane, has its headquarters at Keene, and in the spring, as soon as weather conditions permit, it enters upon its campaign, which lasts till frost comes. The gang is provided with a sleeping tent, and a cook specially caters to the food wants of the company. With the grader, the highways are smoothed, straightened and rounded up, while farmers in the vicinity where the grader and its crew are operating, are employed to treat the prepared surface with gravel, which makes a capital road metal. It is therefore no wonder that Otonabee has such excellent highways, since it has an excellent system of making and maintaining them.

Keene's Charming Waterways.

While one can absorb pure airs, rich with ozone and laden with the indefinable scents gathered in passing and mingled, from the hillside meadows and the "fields of waving corn," Keene can with good reason boast of its charming waterways. Indian river is a passing pretty stream. Above the village bridge that spans the river, the tangled labaryrnth of streams that spread out from "the dam"—about a mile above—and sown with boulders, creeps under the cool green of the overhanging trees and between the quivering sedges, with here and there the scarlet glow of the cardinal flower or the gold and snow of the water lily, to be gathered into one stream which winds its way through about two miles of distance to Rice Lake. Below the bridge, the river affords capital boating water and is navigable for fairly large steamers, and this season the Dominion Government dredge, Trent, is greatly improving the navigation of the stream, while it has so far straightened and deepened the channel on the west side of the river near the village. Its most important work has been in amputating the "Devil's Elbow," a point where the stream almost doubles upon itself and makes a tortuous channel almost impracticable to a craft of considerable length and draught The "short cut" is about a thousand feet in length and connects the two ends of the "elbow," making an almost straight channel. The cut is about sixty feet in width and of an average depth of eight feet, and the distance saved is about a mile. The whole distance dredged goes down to the rock. The operation of dredging is a very interesting one. The immense bucket at the end of a beam, is controlled by a system of levers and seems endowed with almost human intelligence as it comes down at any desired point and begins to dig. Holding a cubic yard and a half, it scoops up a ton or more weight of mud and water at one filling, with as much ease as a man would raise a spoon of porridge to his mouth, and it will cut through the soil and uproot large trees as if they were potato vines. The soil thus taken from the bottom of the river is a conglomerate mass of vegetable alluvium, disintegrated shells, marl and peat—of apparently great manurial value, for the banks first thrown out about six weeks ago are covered with a long growth of grass and ferns. It was feared by some that the disturbance of this submerged mud and bringing it to the surface would produce malarial conditions and cause ague, which was prevalent among the early settlers in the vicinity fifty or seventy-five years ago. But no evil results of this kind have followed and the dredging operations do not disturb the clearness of the water for more than a few minutes at a time. In all respects the dredging improves the navigation of the river greatly without destroying to any noticeable extent the scenic beauty. The new channels made give an average depth of eight feet at the present level of the water which is now about a foot lower than at the first of June.

"See Sevilla and die," is a Spanish saying. "See Keene and live" is a true saying, as a period of rest and recreation at this pretty, little restful and recreative village will put new life into fortunate visitors who make this their choice.

REQUEST FOR OWN FUNERAL

Late Edward Tyrrell Was Former Resident of This Town.

Rev. J. J. Wright Was Asked by Deceased to Perform Funeral Services and He was First to Require It.

There are a great many persons in Peterborough to whom the news of the death in Toronto on Monday afternoon of Mr. Edward Tyrrell will come with a severe shock. The deceased gentleman was at one time a resident of this town, or at least what is now a part of the city, then known as Ashburnham. He left here a number of years ago, and has since resided in Toronto.

The news of his death came to at least one person in town with a peculiar severity, and that person is Rev. J. J. Wright. This gentleman is supplying the pulpit at Old St. St. Andrew's, Toronto, of which church the late Mr. Tyrrell was an elder, and one of the most prominent members, and and last Sunday the deceased spoke to Mr. Wright regretting the fact that in the absence of the regular pastor, Rev. Dr. Milligan, there was no one to attend to the funerals of members of the church, and Mr. Wright assured Mr. Tyrrell that if they would advise him he would be willing to go to Toronto to render this service for any members of the church or congregation who might be called away.

It is a strange, as well as pathetic fact that Mr. Tyrrell himself should be the first one for whom such services should have to be performed.

The Globe of Tuesday in referring to the death of Mr. Tyrrell says:—

Overcome by the heat, Mr. Edward Tyrrell, a well known citizen of Toronto, died suddenly at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his residence, 33 Homewood avenue. An hour previously Mr. Tyrrell had been in perfect health. He had taken lunch and had been in his garden looking at his flowers, and when he came into the house he died almost immediately.

The late Mr. Tyrrell, who was 68 years of age, was at one time President of the Horticultural Society. He was a great lover of flowers and had always taken great interest in horticultural exhibitions. He came from Norfolk, Eng., where his father was an Anglican clergyman, and settled in Canada in 1869. For some years he resided in St. Catharines, but he took up his residence in Toronto, in 1881, where he conducted the business of an accountant.

Mr. Tyrrell was one of the oldest members of old St. Andrew's Church. He was an elder of the church and was for fifteen years Clerk of the Session. He leaves a widow, three sons and a daughter. The sons are Edward M. Tyrrell, William and E. C. Tyrrell. The daughter is Mrs. (Dr.) Shiel, of Toronto. The funeral, which will be private will take place tomorrow afternoon.

THE SEASON AT IDYL WYLD

Guests Received with Smiles—Business Picking Up for the Season.

The old time summer weather and an old time pursuit of cool and comfort, is making the Rice Lake pleasure-seekers hie to their favourite breezy island, the haunt of pleasure parties, excursions and sunburned youth.

The bright countenance of "Hutch," the obliging boniface lights up with expansive grins as the steamers arrive. This genuine summer weather is a respite from the cold, drizzley summers of the past few years.

Idyl Wyld is as cool and captivating as ever, and being charmingly restful spot with abundance of shady nooks, and the centre of good fishing grounds, visitors find ample amusement and rest.

Quite a number of outings, excursions, etc., are coming this way, no better place being found for picnickers of employees of companies, Sunday Schools and churches, than breezy Idyl Wyld.

HOTTEST DAY IN TWO SUMMERS

Yesterday the Thermometer Registered 92 Degrees.

No Day Last Year as Warm—Some Relief To-day.

As was anticipated, the thermometer yesterday afternoon registered a higher mark than it did any day last summer. Ninety-two degrees in the shade are given as the official figures for Peterborough. Temperatures of 90 degrees and over were general throughout Ontario. In many of the large American cities still higher figures were reached, Philadelphia having it 98 degrees.

Last night was excessively warm and close, but a refreshing breeze, with every appearance of a thunder storm, about daylight, cooled the atmosphere considerably.

THE SUGAR MEN STILL TRIUMPH

Motion to Wind Up the Cold Storage Co. Defeated.

Failed to Secure the Necessary Three Fourths Majority.

A meeting of the Peterborough Cold Storage and Provision Company, Limited, was held at the Foresters' Hall, yesterday to consider a resolution to wind up the Company under the Winding-up Act. At the previous meeting in May last, there was almost the three-fourths majority necessary to carry the resolution, and a second meeting was accordingly held to endeavour to decide the question.

The vote yesterday was 334 for the resolution to wind up and 173 against it. As this was short of the three-fourths majority required by the Winding-up Act, the motion was declared lost.

The large majority of the shareholders are in favour of winding up the Company but the minority, who wish to turn it into a sugar company have, up to the present time, been able to prevent those wishing to wound up from securing a sufficient majority to effect their purpose. It is understood that at the meeting yesterday the matter was very warmly discussed.

JOS. RICHEA'S BODY FOUND LAST NIGHT

After a Long Search—Body Found Where He Sank.

After a long search, the body of Joseph Richea was finally recovered at eight o'clock last evening by Jos. Ranger and Ed. Vinette.

It will be remembered that the boy was in bathing on Monday evening, when he went beyond his depth and was drowned. He had evidently taken cramps as his arms were all drawn up when he was found. Strange to say the body was found in the same spot where he sank, while it was expected that the strong current at this point would carry the body to a lot of weeds a hundred yards farther down.

The funeral took place this afternoon at three o'clock, and proceeded to St. Peter's cemetery.

FELL EIGHTEEN FEET FROM A SCAFFOLD

Mr. John M. Lumsden Suffers Painful Accident in Douro Township.

A painful accident occurred yesterday in Douro township, when Mr. John M. Lumsden, of Peterborough, who was engaged in building a barn on the farm of Mr. David Forsythe, fell from a scaffold upon which he was working, to the ground, a distance of about 18 feet below.

Mr. Lumsden fortunately alighted on his feet, thus narrowly escaping what might have meant instant death. The only serious result of the unfortunate accident, it is thought, is a severely wrenched ankle. Mr. Lumsden was removed to his home on London street, this morning, where it is hoped that a complete recovery may ensue at an early date.

Civic Holiday Excursion,

That's easy—if you want the greatest amount of travel and pleasure for the least money. Come Littlejohn's 18th annual rail and steamboat excursion to Toronto, Niagara Falls and Buffalo will be the ever-popular trip of the day. The Peterborough train is slated to leave the G. T. R. station at 6.30 o'clock on the morning of the excursion. Arriving at Toronto, the Niagara Falls and Buffalo excursionists cross Lake Ontario on the magnificent steamers of the N. N. Co., thence via. N. F. P. & R. electric line over the wonderful "Whirlpool" route to the Falls, and on to Buffalo. The tickets have been specially reduced for this picturesque trip as follows: $2.05 to Toronto, and $2.20 to Niagara Falls, good for three days. Monday, 14th August is the Civic Holiday date.

Any Troubles in Your BATHROOM?

If you are having any trouble with your CLOSET or BATHROOM CONVENIENCES, come round and have a talk with us.

A gentleman, attracted by the range of Sanitary Closets and excellent values we are offering, invested in a new one, although he already had one that was working not badly.

The way he looked over the Closets we arranged before him for inspection showed he had been sifting the matter, and knew how to prove and disprove the claims of dealers.

The saving of health and expensive plumbing repairs, warranted the investment, he said.

How is yours working? Bring your Bathroom Troubles to us. Our Toronto Stock is what we sell in our Peterborough Branch.

BANKERS AND THEIR TRIALS

Men Will Persist in Overdrawing Their Accounts.

Women Are Increasing in Number as Depositors and They Learn the Intricate Art Quickly.

"Increase in Peterborough's industries and prosperity has led to a wonderful increase in the number of depositors in banks," said a Peterborough banker to-day. "I dare say there are hundreds of depositors to-day where there were not ten even fifteen years ago. People like to put their money where it will be safe, and they like to be able to pay their bills by check. That gives an air of prosperity which is a great aid in obtaining credit, and cancelled bank checks make the best receipts."

"With the great influx of new depositors do not many mistakes occur?" asked the reporter of a bank official to-day.

Few Mistakes.

"Not so many as you would think. The person who opens a bank account for the first time, as a rule, is frank to admit amateurishness in the art of banking and permits us to steer him. The result is that that sort cause us fewer mistakes than the man or firm who has kept a bank account for years. They grow more careless than the first depositors.

"Overdrafts cause us the most trouble," went on the banker. "It is peculiar that a man who has funds deposited in a bank resents from his own particular standpoint. He does not stop to think that if 200 persons deposit $50 each in a bank, that that money belongs not to the bank but to the 200 men, and is subject to their call. If the man I refer to tries to draw out $10 without first giving its equivalent, either in cash, note, or collateral security, he is asking for $10 which belongs to the other 199 depositors, and they would be called upon to share the pro rata loss if the bank were to liquidate while that overdraft was on their books. If a right minded man were to stop and think he would not make an over-draft on his bank account.

Cause of Over-Drafts.

"The great cause of over drafts," the banker went on to say, "is where a man or firm, gives a check to meet a particular obligation on the date set, so as to avoid interest charges or other troubles, and trusts to luck to have sufficient funds in bank to meet it when the check is presented for payment. He argues that it will take a day or two for the check to reach its destination, as long to have it deposited in out of town bank, and the same length of time for it to reach the home bank. Of course he has not notified the home bank so that it will know what to do if the unexpected happens. That is just what is likely to occur. It may be that the payee's suspicions are aroused, and he telegraphs the home bank to ask if the check is good. If we have not been taken into the confidence of the man who drew the check, we would be obliged to reply in the negative, and then embarrassment results all round. I may add that the overdraft trouble is more general among the small depositors than the business men or firms. The latter realize too well what an impairment of credit means and they rarely let a check go to protest.

Women Depositors.

"Are women depositors on the increase?" asked the reporter.

"Indeed, yes."

"How do they get along?"

"Very well now. It was somewhat difficult at first to initiate them into the intricacies of banking, but they do very well now, barring a slight carelessness in the matter of overdrafts."

"Just as an instance that all is not roses and sunshine behind the counter of the bank," said the banker in conclusion, "let me cite something that came to my notice the other day. A well known man in the city overdrew his account a few dollars. We supposed it to be due to the carelessness of a clerk or secretary, and, as he was perfectly good, we paid it without a question, and then notified him, supposing he would take it as an accommmodation and be pleased at our thoughtfulness. Just the reverse happened. He was at the bank a few hours later berating everybody. "I did not ask you to pay my overdraft for me!" was his parting shot. "If my account is not good, refuse the checks in the future." What do you think of that? I tell you a bank is a fairly good place to get a line on the kinkiness of human nature."

MOORE AT HEAD FOR KING'S PRIZE

Local Marksman Doing Good Shooting—Yesterday's Results.

Colour Sergeant Moore, of the 57th Regiment, is shooting remarkably well at Bisley, and the fact that yesterday he was tied with Sergt. Pugh of Quebec, for first place in the first stage of the King's prize, which last year was won by Pte. Perry, of Vancouver, B. C., is is evidence of the superior marksmanship which he is displaying.

The despatch from Bisley, telling of the first day's shooting for this prize, is as follows:—

"The first stage of the King's Prize match was reached to-day. The match is the most important at the Bisley meet, the first prize being $1200 presented by the King, besides the N.R.A. gold medal and gold badge. There are three stages to the match, seven shots being allowed at 200, 500 and 600 yards. The match will be concluded to-morrow.

Lt. Boult, Vancouver ... ...5544455—32
Corp. Brayshaw, Vancouver5555555—35
Sgt. Crowe, Guelph ... ...4455555—33
Capt. Forest, Vancouver .5554545—33
Sgt. Kerr, Toronto... ... ...4554555—33
Sgt. Kelly, Toronto ... ...5454553—31
Sgt. Moore, Peterborough.5455555—34
Pte. Morrice, Montreal.4555545—33
Sgt. Phillips, Toronto... ...4545534—32
Sgt. Pugh, Quebec ... ...4555555—34
Sgt. Richardson, Victoria.5554455—32
Sgt. Bussell, Ottawa ... ...4454545—32
Capt. Stuart, Vancouver .45553344—30
Pte. Wilson, Ottawa... ... ...4554554—32

In the Knock Match Sergt. Moore won twenty shillings, and in the Armouries Company he also won the same amount.

The local marksman made a score of 45 in the Secretary of State for War competition, (ten shots at 800 yards.)

THE BOWLERS LOST AT PORT HOPE

Two Local Rinks Beaten by a Majority of Two Shots.

Two rinks of bowlers went to Port Hope yesterday and met defeat at the hands of two rinks in that place by the narrow margin of two shots. The local rinks were composed as follows:—D. Patterson, D. Kernaghan, W. Johnston, W. McIlvry (skip); H. McBain, A. R. Kidd, E. W. Cox, W. Talbot (skip). Skip McIlvry, who met Skip Rawlinson, succeeded in winning, finishing 16 up, while Skip Talbot was 18 down, the Port Hopers thus getting a two point lead in the totals.

LOCAL BOXERS AND WRESTLERS

Will Give Exhibition at Brock Street Rink To-morrow.

To-morrow night's programme at the Brock street Rink promises to be a decidedly interesting one, and should be witnessed by a good crowd. In addition to the programme as announced by the posters, the following events will take place:—

Boxing, 7 rounds,—Edward F. Henry, Roanoke, Va., vs. Dave Belland, Quebec City, Que. And four local men.

GAME IN PROSPECT WITH GALT TEAM

BASEBALL.

St. Andrew's players are requested to turn out to-night as early as possible to get into a practice game which has been arranged.

The Peterboroughs will play the Night Owls to-night at 6.45, at the Riverside Park. The team will be composed as follows:

Saturday's game with Bowmanville promises to be the best played so far this season. The locals will probably play the same team as that which defeated Cobourg on Saturday.

The Examiner is in receipt of a letter from the manager of the Lakefield baseball team stating that instead of there being two games with the St. Andrew's team there was but one, and that a tie, 6—6, at end of fifth innings.

The Night Owls did not put in an appearance at the Riverside Park last night, consequently the ball game with the seniors did not come off. But the team had a good practice and promise to make a strong argument for Saturday's game with Bowmanville.

The following players will be in uniform: Sheridan, Shea, Stayne, Douglas, Rattray, Callahan, Quinlan and Rattray.

The Lindsay Post says:

Saturday was a day off for all the home teams in the Midland League, as they all lost. Oshawa defeated Bowmanville, the picked champions for 1905, at Bowmanville, with the Royal Strathcona battery—Cadman and Phelan, of Toronto—in the points. Bowmanville will likely protest, but as they play their catcher, Wallace, the same way, they are in a fix. Peterborough porridge team played and defeated Cobourg on their own diamond. These two wins were entirely unexpected, but nevertheless they make Midland League matters more interesting. The defeat of the local Red Birds did not surprise many, and lack of practice is given as the cause. Bowmanville still lead the league, and Peterborough and Cobourg are tied for second place, while poor little Dan (Lindsay) comes last.

THE COMMONS CLOSES SESSION

The Salaries Bills Are Passed Without Opposition.

JUDGES OF THE NORTHWEST

Bill Amended to Give An Increase — Supply Bill Passed — Sydney Route For British Mails to Have Another Trial — Transcontinental Railway Contracts — Senate May Kill Trading Stamps Bill.

Ottawa, July 19.—The Commons finished their labors at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon after a short day occupied in small odds and ends. The session commenced on January 11, and thus occupied more than six months. Members worked on 127 days. Prorogation is expected to-day. Already Ottawa is almost deserted by the politicians, for as soon as the adjournment came there was a clearance of members to get ready for the home journey.

Yesterday's sitting was much shorter than had been expected owing to the failure of Mr. Foster to move a resolution censuring the Government for high expenditure, as had been expected. His failure in this respect is the occasion of considerable amused comment.

British Mails Via Sydney.

The new North Sydney mail route was discussed. D. A. McKenzie, of North Cape Breton and Victoria, asserting that the recent test with the Virginian's mails was a satisfactory one. On Mr. McKenzie's showing the Maritime Provinces get their mails two days ahead of the usual time.

Hon. W. S. Fielding suggested that as there was a benefit at least to the lower Provinces, the mails might be landed at North Sydney when the steamers took the route south of Cape Race. During the time when the route was through Belle Isle the mails could hardly be carried back to North Sydney. The cost, however, would have to be taken into consideration.

The Minister of Railways told the House that a final statement was being prepared of the result of the test.

Mr. Emmerson also announced that the Transcontinental Railway Commission expected to let contracts before the end of this year.

Salary Bills Passed.

The bills respecting the salary of the First Minister and respecting the Senate and House of Commons were passed through the final stages.

The only comments on the latter were by Mr. J. J. Hughes (King's, P.E.I.,) and Mr. Bergeron. Mr. Hughes said a longer period for absence than fifteen days should be allowed members from the far east and far west, as they had to take nearly a week to come to Ottawa and a week to go home.

Mr. Bergeron asked that the widows or relatives of members who died this session should be given an increased amount of indemnity, as if the members had been here they would have got $2,500.

"We will have to consider that in consultation with the leader of the Opposition," replied Mr. Fitzpatrick. "And if we decide to do it, it will be dealt with in another way."

Judges' Salaries Increased.

The judges' salary increase bill was amended yesterday afternoon to make the expense allowance to judges $6 a day, and in the case of District and County Court judges the amount shall not exceed $200 a year.

The bill to increase the Supreme and Exchequer judges' salaries was given third reading.

The bill giving an allowance of half salary to a Minister who has served five years continuously at the head of a Department was amended so that a man is qualified for a retiring allowance who has put in the time partly at the head of one Department and partly in another.

It was found that some judges had been overlooked in the general increase to the Bench of Canada. Therefore a resolution was introduced declaring the Chief Justice of the Northwest Territories shall receive $7,000, and that seven puisne judges receive $6,000. There are now six judges in the Territories.

Mr. Fitzpatrick said there would be one Chief Justice for the two new Provinces.

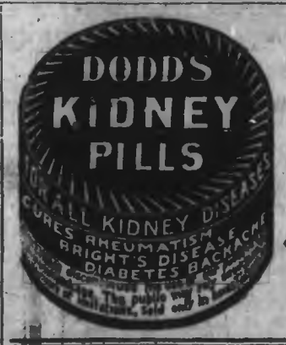
The salary of the County Court judges of York, Ont., Halifax, Sydney, St. John, East Kootenay, and Queen's, P. E. I. was increased to $3,500.

The resolution was adopted, the bill amended to conform to it, and read a third time.

Ways and Means.

In Committee of Ways and Means a supply resolution of $160,430 for services in 1905, and another for services in 1906 of $25,794,000, were adopted without discussion. The supply bill was given third reading.

Sir Wilfrid hoped the Governor-General would come down and prorogue Parliament to-day. However, the Senate were engaged in considering some important bills, and might not be through work then. The House had no more business before it, and he moved that it adjourn, which it did at 4 o'clock.



BARELY IN TIME.

Within One Inch of Death Down 1,000 Feet In a Mine.

Denver, Col., July 19.—To face death by drowning in the icy waters of a cavern 1,000 feet under ground, to feel a narrow strip of ground affording temporary safety crumbling away inch by inch into the black waters lapping at their feet, to see their only hope of rescue just an inch above their outstretched hands and, finally, to be saved after hope was gone, was the experience of Howard Wyndham and his companion, Sir George Berkeley, of London, in the Mohegan mine in Victor last Friday.

The visitors went to Victor to inspect the Mohegan mine and were being lowered in the shaft when they saw water below them. The jerked the bell rope to signal the engineer, and broke it. The cage continued downward and when the water was up to their chins they jumped for a ledge and reached it.

The engineer, puzzled by the one bell he had heard before the rope broke, began hoisting slowly, and the cage left them. Then they discovered that the clay ledge they were standing upon was breaking down. Barely in time to save them, the cage was lowered again and stopped where they could reach it, any they were hoisted to safety.

The shaft had filled to a depth of thirty feet or more from seepage.

Boy Falls From Raft.

Owen Sound, July 19.—Harry Christie, aged 15, son of Robert Christie, barrister, of Owen Sound, was accidentally drowned at Balmy Beach, where the family are summering. The young fellow was playing on a raft some distance from the shore, and presumably fell off. The body was recovered shortly afterwards.

DAVID McGEE WAS KILLED

To Protect the Happiness of a Home at Ingersoll—Mrs. Kyle Fired Three Shots—Two of Them Took Deadly Effect and Man Died Almost Instantaneously—Husband Borrowed Revolver to Enable Her to Protect Herself—Jury Says Killing Was Not Wilful—She Was Arrested.

Ingersoll, July 19.—Because he persisted in coming to her home and attempting to interrupt the happiness of her life, Mrs. Emiline Kyle, wife of Robert Kyle, an employe of the Ingersoll Condensing factory, shot and killed David McGee just outside her house at 7.30 this morning. Three shots were fired from her revolver. The first missed, the others took effect. McGee dropped on the sidewalk after running ten yards and died a moment later.

"I've Shot a Man."

Mrs. Kyle immediately walked to police headquarters, half a mile from her home, and gave herself up. "I've shot a man," was her exclamation, as she rushed into Chief Wright's office. "He is now lying dead on the road near my house. I'm sorry, but I had, to do it. He would not stay away from my home and to protect myself I was forced to do it."

The chief promptly placed her under arrest, and, accompanied by Dr. Neff, coroner, set out for the scene of the tragedy. Arriving there they viewed the remains of McGee lying on the sidewalk. He had a bullet in his head and another in the shoulder. Death was practically instantaneous. The body was taken to Barlett's undertaking rooms and prepared for burial. A jury later viewed them and adjourned to meet last evening.

Victim a Toronto Man.

The murdered man is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John McGee, of Toronto, who lived in Ingersoll up to ten years ago. His family are highly respected but his life was largely a failure. Eight years ago he was sent to Woodstock Jail for assaulting Policeman McConnell here. Later he was sent to the Central Prison, Toronto, and a couple of years ago was arrested for abducting a Miss McIntyre in Toronto. He was captured with her at Detroit, and sentenced to a term in prison. One month ago he returned to Ingersoll and has been here ever since. He was not working, and was frequently to be seen around the Kyle home.

Robert Kyle, husband of the woman who now stands accused of murder, when interviewed, yesterday, said:—"Three weeks ago McGee came to my home. I didn't want him around, but, seeing he was out of work, I gave him food for two weeks. Then he began drinking and I ordered him away. He used to return while I was at work in the factory. My wife was afraid of him, as he would threaten to smash our windows if she did not let him in the house.

Kept Doors Locked.

"For the last three days she had kept the doors locked, to keep him out. This morning she opened the doors to wash, and in less than 15 minutes after I left for work McGee appeared. My wife tells me she told him to leave. He didn't go. She got a revolver off the dresser and fired at him as he entered the door. The bullet missed him and he ran out on the walk. My wife went to the door and told him to go off. He began to return. She fired twice again and he dropped. I borrowed the revolver last Wednesday from Superintendent Knight, of our factory, that my wife might defend herself. I feared the fellow, as he had been drinking."

Both Kyle and his wife are well thought of here. They have no family. The scene of the tragedy is a neatly kept frame house on the western outskirts of the town. At noon Mrs. Kyle was remanded on the charge of murder. Both the accused and the murdered man were about 35 years of age.

Did Not Wilfully Kill.

The coroner's jury was out one hour and five minutes, and returned a verdict "that David Magee came to his death from a wound in his head, caused by a bullet fired from a revolver in the hands of Mrs. E. Kyle, and that the said Mrs. E. Kyle did not wilfully kill the said David Magee, but fired the revolver in order to frighten him away."

Subsequently Mrs. Kyle was taken before Police Magistrate Merrison, when the charge of murder was read, but on advice of her counsel, Mr. J. H. Hegler, she did not plead, but was remanded to Woodstock Jail until Monday, the 24th inst., at 2 o'clock, when she will appear for preliminary hearing.

BROTHER BRAINS BROTHER.

Stratford, July 19.—During a quarrel between two brothers, Richard and John Stewart, who reside in Logan, about two miles from Mitchell, the former, it is alleged, struck the latter on the forehead over the right eye with a spade, inflicting an ugly wound about three inches long, and fracturing the skull.

The wounded man was able to walk to town, but is now in a precarious condition in the Stratford Hospital.

Richard Stewart was arrested and arraigned on the charge of committing the assault, and remanded to Stratford Jail pending the result of the injuries. These two brothers and another brother, all bachelors, lived together on a small farm.

The accused is 46 years of age, and is said to be somewhat weak-minded.

May Have Been Murdered.

Portage la Prairie, July 19.—The body of an old resident, Andrew Henry, aged 75, was found on Saturday in a condition which would indicate a violent death. He was in town on Saturday, and bought a new buggy, and in the evening left town with a man named Taylor, formerly a policeman, but who had been dismissed on charges of a criminal nature. Sunday morning Taylor called on G. Sinclair, and stated he had found the body of an old man in bad shape. Sinclair investigated and found Henry's body, horribly battered.

Six Months in Jail.

Stratford, July 19.—William Sweitzer, a Stratford man, aged 25, was found guilty yesterday of attempted assault upon a girl, aged 17, while driving in Ellice a month ago, and was sentenced to six months' imprisonment in the County Jail at hard labor.

Prince Seeks Divorce.

Gotha, Duchy of Saxe-Cobourg and Gotha, July 19.—Prince Philip of Saxe-Cobourg and Gotha yesterday filed with the Provincial Court a petition for a divorce from his wife, the Princess Louise of Saxe-Cobourg and Gotha.

DON'T BE HYPNOTISED,

Hoodwinked, hoodooed, or over-persuaded into accepting a substitute for Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription with its record of nearly 40 years, embracing hundreds of thousands of cures of woman's peculiar ailments. It's the only remedy for woman's ills sold by druggists, that is not full of "booze"—poor whisky, or bad alcohol.

A guarantee of $1000 is offered that "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, opium or other harmful drug. Adapted to any climate.

"Favorite Prescription" is a powerful invigorating tonic, and imparts strength to the whole system and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For over-worked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

It's an insult to your intelligence for a dealer to attempt to palm off upon you an alcoholic substitute for this well-known medicine. You know what you want. It's his business to supply that want. When he urges some substitute he's thinking of the larger profit he'll make—not of your welfare.

CUTICURA

Soap, Ointment and Pills the World's Greatest Skin Cures.

COMPLETE TREATMENT

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalled head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants and the anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter, and salt rheum, all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy, have made them the standard skin cures and humor remedies of the civilized world.

YEARS OF TORTURE

"For fifteen years my scalp and forehead was one mass of scabs, and my body was covered with sores. Words cannot express how I suffered from the itching and pain. I had given up hope when a friend told me to get Cuticura. After bathing with Cuticura Soap and applying Cuticura Ointment for three days, my head was as clear as ever, and to my surprise and joy one cake of soap and one box of ointment made a complete cure in one week. SPORT NOTES.

The achievements of Col. Sergt. Moore, of the 57th Regiment, at Bisley, where he is holding his own with the best shots in the Empire are being watched with interest here by the many friends of the popular marksman, and as each succeeding cable tells of increasing success in his shooting, the impression grows that in Mr. Moore the local regiment has a worthy representative, and should he return without having won any higher honours than those to which he has already attained, his trip with the Bisley team would be one upon which he could look back with pride and pleasure. But the evidences are that he will be heard from further still before the meet at Bisley closes, and there is little reason to doubt that when he returns to Peterborough, it will be only after he has won for himself, his regiment and his city even greater honours than those which have already come his way.

The splendid work of Sergt. Moore in the first stage of the shoot for the King's Prize, the most coveted prize at the Bisley meet, in which he was tied for first place, having scored 64 out of a possible 35, has encouraged still farther those who have faith that the representative of Peterborough will yet be heard from. This prize last year was won by a Canadian for the second time in the history of the Bisley matches, and, with all the best shots in the Empire competing (or it, it is hardly probable that this year will see a Canadian carry off this prize again. At present, however, the men from this country are well up in the match, and those who defeat them will have to do some pretty good shooting.

When one comes to think of it Peterborough has had a record for producing winning sports that few if any towns in the Dominion can equal. This is true of individuals as well as organizations, and a complete record of the sporting events and championships which have been won by Peterborough residents or those who were at one time residents of this town would make very interesting reading. Hockey championships, rugby championships, football championships, baseball championships, and what not, have been coming our way in the past, and, scattered throughout this and other countries are men, some of them still young, and in the game, others for whom the period of play, except in memories, has passed, who, in days gone by were found on teams which represented this town, and which helped to bring honour to it on the athletic field.

There is a fact which in its way is rather remarkable in this connection, too, and it is none the less pleasing, that the great majority of those men referred to generally above, have in the particular line of business in which they have entered, invariably won success. Numerous specific instances in support of this statement, might be cited, but every one who knows anything of the history of the Peterborough boys can themselves call to mind examples to prove that the assertion made is true. It is pretty safe to say that the influence of sport in this town has, on the whole been good, and in this respect Peterborough can make a boast which but very few towns or cities in this or any other province can make. The native born Peterborough athlete has invariably turned out to be a man who was honoured for his other manly qualities, and that this condition shall always prevail is the wish every true lover of sport harbours.

On Saturday, what will undoubtedly prove to be the deciding game in the Midland League will be played here. The local team is now tied for second place, their win over Cobourg on Saturday having placed them in that position. On Saturday, the Bowmanville team, the present League leaders will play here, and if the locals succeed in adding their scalps to those which Manager MacEwan already has in his possession, they will tie that team for the League leadership. It is true that in Bowmanville the locals were rather badly trimmed, receiving in fact the worst beating of the season, but conditions that day were such that the team was not in a position to do its best. In the game here things will be different, and although they have a hard proposition, they have a good chance to win, and those who are "in the know" claim that there is every prospect of the home team turning the tables on Bowmanville, just as they did to Cobourg on Saturday.

The defeat which the League leaders suffered on Saturday at the hands of the Oshawa team, with Phelan and Cadman doing the battery work was a lucky circumstance for the other aspirants for the championship and Bowmanville does not now look so formidable. There is every prospect of a great game on Saturday, and it is to be sincerely hoped that the public will turn out in good numbers to give the local team a lift financially, something which they sorely need.

To Make Pure

While the Royal Baking Powder is reported absolutely pure and healthful, the official reports show most other baking powders, as well as the cream of tartar of the market depended upon by many housekeepers for raising biscuit and cake, to contain either alum, ammonia or sulphuric acid.

The Government Analyst of Ontario says:

"As a result of my investigation, I find the Royal Baking Powder far superior to the others. It is pure, contains none but wholesome ingredients, and is of greatest strength."

TELEGRAPHING WITHOUT WIRES

Marconi's Triumph Told of by Mr. H. W. Beauclerk, of New York—Interesting Demonstration.

Mr. H. W. Beauclerk, London, England, delivered a most interesting lecture last night in the Y. M. C. A. lecture hall on wireless telegraphy, and demonstrated the usage of the same by means of a set of instruments such as are in daily use on trans-Atlantic steamers. Mr. Beauclerk, commencing his lecture, said that to understand wireless telegraphy we must study the action of the sun. We might compare it to a large electric dynamo sending out pulsations, which start the atoms of ether,—which, by the way, is the finest substance recognized by science—vibrating one against the other continuously until they reach the earth in the form we recognize as light. These vibrations go out in waves or circles in every direction, just as the voice sends out waves through the air. Light travels at the rate of 186,000 miles per sec at the rate of 126,000 miles per second, and wireless telegraphy, being an imitation of the sun's, work, travels at the same rate. Ether being so much finer than any known existing substance, is in everything, and through everything. That is the reason wireless telegraphy will go through any substance. We must remember, this machine is not solid in the accepted usage of the word. A steel bar, for example, is nothing but millions of atoms held closely together, and if we were to examine it under a strong microscope we would find it to be porous like a sponge. Mr. Beauclerk, in concise and simple language, explained the development of wireless telegraphy from the time, some 20 years ago, when Professor Hertz, a German discovered that vibration of atoms through the air could be used to transmit messages, until 1896, when Mr. Marconi was enabled to send messages a short distance, about a mile or so. He next succeeded in sending messages across the British Channel, but people laughed at him and said he would never succeed. He continued to work, however, until he covered distances of 50 or 60 miles. After that it was a triumphal march for him. The British Government was the first to help him, and now all the British warships are equipped with the system, thus making the British Government independent of all cables. The lecturer then explained the working of the instruments and how communication was carried on between different points, up to a distance of 3,000 miles across the Atlantic ocean. He then showed how small the cost was in establishing wireless telegraphy in comparison with telephones and Atlantic cables. The English people had spent $50,000,000 in cables, and in case of war these might be cut at any time, but with the Marconi system communication could be kept up at all times. The cable companies were compelled to charge high rates for messages as the cost of equipment and maintenance of their lines was so heavy. If they could reduce their rates their business would be more than proportionately increased, a fact which had been proven in other businesses. The Canadian Marconi system was backed by the Canadian Government and its success was assured. Already thirteen stations have been established in Canada, and work would continue until there was a complete chain of stations from ocean to ocean. In a short time all ships would find it necessary to adopt the system as a means of self-protection in the case of accident, and to secure better terms from underwriters, etc. It was a system that could not be confined to one country, as English American and Canadian must all work together. In the Marconi Company there would be no bonds or preferred stock, all shareholders being on the same footing, and the lecturer felt certain that in five years time the Marconi stock would show equally as good results as the telephone, which Mr. Gould thought twenty years ago was a nice toy and nothing more.

JACKSON PARK A POPULAR RESORT

Jackson Park has increased immensely in popular favour this year as a pleasant spot to resort to during the excessive heat of these hot days.

Every afternoon and evening a large number of people spend a few hours in the park to forget the cares and worry of their work, and enjoy the fresh breezes blowing in from the country.

The park is also a popular place for private parties to picnic. Often a family or a party will spend the afternoon there, having luncheon and return home in the evening.

Last Friday evening Charlotte Street Guild spent an enjoyable evening, and last night the All Saints' choir had an outing there.

It is expected that when the Street Railway Company have arranged to show moving pictures, still greater numbers will be attracted to the park to spend an evening.

Mysterious Disappearance of Young Son of Joseph Murphy at the G. T. R. Station, on July 11th—No Trace of His Whereabouts—Has Been at the Children's Aid Shelter—Escaped in the Crowd.

William Joseph Johnston Hamilton Murphy, the young son of Mr. Joseph Murphy, is a youth of somewhat diminutive proportions, but he has, nevertheless, been the cause of endless troubles. "Willie," as he is popularly known, it will be remembered, spent the winter under the paternal shingles, in a coal shed, corner of Bethune and Charlotte streets. It was decided later in the Police Court that "Willie" was not receiving such nourishments and other creature comforts as would be conducive to the building up of the physique of a Sandow, or of the formation of a brilliant mental condition, and he was accordingly placed in the Children's Aid Shelter, being removed from there shortly afterwards to the home of Mr. Fair, near Millbrook, where he resided for some time. But at this juncture, the father, Joseph Murphy, stepped in once more upon the scene with a sensational midnight attempt to recover the boy which, however, proved unsuccessful.

It was then deemed advisable by the authorities to once more remove the boy to the Shelter.

The latest development in the diversified career of "Willie" occurred on the afternoon of July 11th, when he disappeared mysteriously from public view, and he no longer treads the boards in the drama in which he has been such an important figure. It appears that on the evening mentioned he expressed a wish to Mr. Wm. Henry, officer in charge of the Shelter, that he might be allowed to go to the G. T. R. station to say farewell to a cousin who was to depart upon the Lindsay train. "Willie" was allowed to go to the train, Mr. Henry following him. The boy, when he had reached the station, glanced around, and when he saw Mr. Henry, made a rapid flight through the crowd, disappearing from sight, and has not been heard from since. The train and the station were carefully searched, the conductor assisting, but the boy had disappeared as completely as if he had dissolved in thin air. It was thought possible that his purpose was to visit the Orange demonstration in Omemee upon the following day, and the authorities, both in that place and in Lindsay were notified as to the facts and requested to take possession of the boy should he appear. Nothing, however, was seen of him in either place and his location remains a mystery. His father, Joseph Murphy, states that he has no knowledge of the whereabouts of the lad.

MAGGIE COUGHLAN'S SERIOUS ACCIDENT

Yesterday afternoon Maggie Coughlan, the nine-year-old daughter of Mr. Jas. Coughlan, of the fifth Ward, met with a very painful and serious accident.

It appears that the little girl, who lives with her mother's relatives in Douro, was in the fields on the farm of Mr. Leahy, her grandfather, and stepped on the blade of a cradle scythe, cutting her foot severely, near the ankle. The tendons and cords of the foot were severed, and the cut bled profusely. The injured girl was brought to St. Joseph's Hospital, where she was attended by a physician and the nurses, and is to-day doing very well. It will be some time before she will be able to use her foot, but it is not anticipated that any very serious results will follow the accident.

Drummond at Cobalt.

Dr. Drummond, of Habitant fame, is in camp at Cobalt, staying at the Canada Iron Furnace Company's Mine. This property is known as The Drummond, or The Wright, and is located about three miles east of Cobalt station, and their prospectors Friday made a rich find, which is the talk of the town. The vein is from four to six inches wide of what looks like pure silver.

LATEST MOVE OF SOCIETIES

Statement That They Will Bring Two Doctors Here.

Attitude of the Association in Respect to the Matter.

A rumour has been circulated rather persistently recently that a number of the societies in town, the members of which have in the past been receiving free medical attendance from that person, so prominently brought into public view recently, the "Lodge Doctor," in view of the fact that the Medical Association has decided to abolish contract work, have taken steps to bring to town two doctors, from Toronto who would do the work of the societies which will be cared for the services of the members of the Medical Association after January 1st, 1906. It appears that the societies have decided that if the doctors at present here will not do their work they will have to get someone else to do it.

It is extremely difficult to get a statement from any of the heads of the societies in town on the question, but the Examiner has learned that the proposition mentioned above is being considered.

It is pointed out that with the work of all the societies in town two doctors with what work they could secure outside of that would have pretty fair practices, and would fare very well.

The doctors here, however, take a different view of the matter, and a prominent local member of the profession to-day stated to the Examiner that in case the societies took the action contemplated the doctors would defy them to carry it out, and although this doctor was one who does not take lodge work, he believed that to attempt to bring in new doctors to do the work of the lodges, would result disastrously to the latter, for the physicians at present here would boycott the new comers, and they would soon have to leave the city.

At any rate in case the doctors decide to abolish the acceptance of contract work which a great many persons doubt will be the case, the societies may adopt the measures indicated as a means of coping with the difficulty in which they would find themselves placed.

Snake and Baby.

A snake three feet long crawled into a baby carriage in which was an infant of Mrs. Edward Baum, at Bloomfield, N. J., yesterday. The mother fainted, but a woman neighbour threw the snake in the street and killed it with a stone.

MISSING MAN IS HEARD FROM

Apprehension was Felt Until Word Was Recieved This Afternoon.

A case which has created considerable interest in the south end is the reported disappearance of Mr. Richard Holland, who resides on Sherbrooke street. Yesterday he left his home and up to this afternoon had not returned, nor had there been any word received as to his whereabouts. There is also some difference of opinion among those interested as to where he is.

This morning a reporter of the Ex-Examiner, hearing that Mr. Holland had disappeared from home, visited his residence and learned there that he had gone away, but it was stated that he had gone to "the country," and further said, "but we expect to hear from him this afternoon." Later it was stated that he had gone to visit his brother, and again the statement was made that he had gone to Toronto. The fact that he had left town was thought to be rather strange, as he was not considered a man who was much given to travelling, and the neighbours all speak of him in the highest terms.

Later.—It is learned late this afternoon that word has been received from Mr. Holland to the effect that he is on his way to visit his son, but the place to which he is bound would not be divulged by the Examiner's informant.

MR. JOHN HULL ELECTED D. D. G. M.

For Otonabee Division by Grand Lodge of A. F. and A. M.

Mr. Walter Stocker, who is at present in Hamilton, attending the semi-annual meeting of the A. F. and A. M., wires to the Examiner to-day to the effect that Mr. John Hull, of Clementi Lodge, Lakefield, has been elected D. D. G. M., for the Otonabee District, in succession to Mr. A. St. A. Smith, of Keene.

Mr. Hull's many friends in this district will hear with pleasure of the honour which his fellow fraternalists have shown him.

A Strange Suicide.

Richard Mormongue committed suicide by leaping from a fourth story window into the Rue Popincount, Paris, because his housekeeper had broken his favourite pipe.

Fell on a Saw.

Mr. Xavier Gagnon, a sawmill owner at Spaulding, in Beauce County, while running a circular saw, made a misstep and fell on to the moving table. His head was severed from his body.

Prehistoric Man.

The skeleton of a prehistoric man, who must have been buried at least 3,000 years ago, has been found in a sand pit at Middleton-on-the-Wolds. An urn and some flints were near the bones.

Athlete's Funeral.

With the baseball which he last pitched on the college diamond in his right hand, Edward Heim, the Princeton athlete, who was drowned at Coney Island was buried yesterday at Pottsville, Pa.

Hurricane Destroys Crops.

A hurricane has almost entirely destroyed the harvest in the provinces of Saragossa and Caceres, thus adding immensely to the general distress. It has been decided to entirely suspend all work to-morrow as a protest against the dearness of provisions here.

Icebergs a Mile Long.

Str. Harona, with coal from Newcastle, Eng., for Montreal, just in, encountered huge icebergs 50 degrees west of Belle Isle, and was for a time completely surrounded by them. Some of the icebergs were at least one mile in length and 300 to 400 feet high.

To Study School Boards.

Hon. Dr. Pyne, Minister of Education, left to-day for England, where he will make a study of the board school system, and of the various educational institutions. Dr. Pyne will be absent for about six weeks and will probably return in company with his cousin, Lord Roberts.

Unfortunate Von Ende.

Baron Von Ende, brother of Baron Krupp's widow, has been found dead on his estate in the Province of Cordova, says the Herald despatch from Buenos Ayres, Argentina. The baron had been killed by two shots, according to the authorities, inflicted by himself. However, there is a suspicion of foul play.

Appropriated the Note.

The Countess of Warwick sent a five pound note to a pauper in Paddington workhouse. The note was appropriated by the guardians, who refused to return it to the sender when applied to. The countess has appealed to the local government board.

Stricken with Paralysis.

Mrs. W. R. Sutherland, St. Andrew's, Man., writes:—"I was stricken with paralysis and lost power of the tongue and left leg. For six months I obtained no relief either by doctors' prescriptions or other medicines. My husband got me Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which has revitalized my nerves and given me full power of the paralyzed parts. I am strong and well now, thanks to this great medicine."

RECORD OF ONE DAY'S DROWNING

Dozen People Go to Their Death in Many Waters---Five Men in Lake Aylmer---Father Cusack and Four Others Upset From Yacht---Two Go Down Near Deseronto---Fred. Hagar Loses His Life in Hamilton Bay---List of Water Fatalities.

Montreal, July 20.—An exceedingly sad fatality occurred yesterday at Lake Aylmer, some thirty miles from Sherbrooke.

Rev. Father Cusack, administrator of the diocese of St. Hyacinthe, and two brothers named Murphy and two named Codiers went out boating and, their boat upsetting, all five were drowned.

The bodies have not yet been recovered.

Sailing Canoe Capsized.

Ridgetown, July 20.—O. H. Kindler, 23 years old and manager of a Cleveland orchestra, who has been camping at Rondeau Provincial Park for the past two weeks was drowned yesterday afternoon. He and another young fellow went out on the bay in a canoe and Kindler was in the act of putting up a small sail when the canoe capsized. The boy managed to hold on to the canoe until rescued.

Two Drowned at Glen Island.

Deseronto, July 20.—At Glen Island, a summer resort a few miles southeast of here, Miss Flossie Rogers and J. MacDelroy were drowned yesterday. They were out boating in company with Miss Bowen and Joseph Pilgrim of Deseronto. The party ventured too far out from shore, and the boat was swamped, sinking almost immediately.

Pilgrim was the only one of the party who could swim, and despite his utmost endeavors, Miss Bowen was the only one whom he could save.

They managed to reach the skiff, which had now come to the surface, and clung to it until a yacht came and picked them up.

The bodies of the two unfortunate young people have not been found.

Fell Off Wharf.

London, July 20.—Maurice, the 9-year-old son of Chauncey Smith, wholesale fruiter, was drowned at Port Stanley Harbor yesterday. It is supposed that he fell off the wharf. His hat was found floating in the water.

Could Neither Row Nor Swim.

Hamilton, July 20.—Fred Hager, 157 Princess street, and David Harrovan, 545 East Main street, started out yesterday morning to row to the Beach to find refuge from the heat. Hager did not know how to handle the oars and he upset the boat about 100 yards from the foot of Macnab street. His companion was rescued and revived with difficulty. The dead man had boarded at 157 Princess street, but had been ordered away on account of his drinking habits. He has a wife and family in either New York or Chicago.

Drowned in Digby Gut.

Halifax, July 20.—A drowning accident occurred in Digby Gut about 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. A small fishing boat, containing two brothers, Thomas and Richard Hardwick of Parker's Cove, was coming into the gut. A stiff breeze was blowing at the time, and the boat was seen to suddenly capsize, hurling its occupants into the water. Thomes was drowned, but Richard was rescued by boatmen from Victoria Beach.

Pittsburg Man Drowned.

Washago, July 20.—Mr. Grover Hall of Pittsburg was drowned in Lake Couchiching about 5 p.m. The body is not yet found. The accident was caused by his canoe upsetting. Roger Crane, who was with Mr. Hall was rescued.

Joseph Crawford Suicides.

Toronto, July 20—Whether it was the hot weather or for some other reason Joseph Crawford, No. 1 Whiteside place, hanged himself yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Crawford and her two children went to the St. Bartholomew picnic in the morning. When they returned at 8 o'clock they did not find the husband and father waiting for them as they expected. They found him in the basement, hanging from a beam. Deceased had used a towel to end his life. Crawford had been employed as head stableman by the Rheinhardt Brewery Co. He was 36 years of age and came to Toronto from Pickering, Ont. There will not be an inquest.

FIRST STAGE KING'S PRIZE.

Shooting Was Good at 200 Yards, But There Was Falling Off at 500 and 600 Yard Ranges.

Bisley Camp, July 20.—(C. A. P.)—Shooting at 200 yards in the first stage of the King's Prize was good. Forty-seven competitors made possible, and 125 made thirty-fours. The 500 and 600-yards ranges of the first stage were shot off yesterday. The first three hundred in the first stage are entitled to fire at the 600-yards range in the second stage. The first hundred in the second stage proceed to the stage of 800, 900 and 1,000 yards.

In the first stage of the King's Prize there are 16 scores of 100, four of 102. The top score is 102, out of a possible 105.

King's Prize.

In the King's Prize at 500 yards the scoring yesterday morning was:

Lieut. Boult, Victoria	4453331—26
Corp. Brayshaw, Victoria	4464445—30
Staff-Sergt. Crowe, Guelph	5555536—33
Capt. Elliott, Toronto	4556455—33
Pte. Eastcott, Victoria	3445445—29
Capt. Forrest, Victoria	5334544—27
Major Flowers, Halifax	5455455—31
Capt. Jones, P. E. I.	5445455—32
Staff-Sergt. Kerr, Toronto	4535545—29
Sergt. Kelly, Toronto	3455555—32
Pte. McConnell, Ottawa	—25
Col.-Sergt. Moore, Peterboro	5535545—33
Pte. Morrice, Montreal	5455555—34
Or.-Sergt. Phillips, Toronto	4544543—29
Sergt. Pugh, Quebec	4555451—32
Sergt. Richardson, Victoria	5553555—33
Sergt. Russell, Ottawa	5455555—34
Sergt. Simpson, Toronto	3355553—29
Capt. Stuart, Vancouver	4253544—27
Pte. Wilson, Ottawa	5555435—33

Not only among the Canadians, but all along the line, all kinds of excuses are being made for poor scoring. One blames the wind, another the light. These are too much for some and too little for others.

King's Prize 600 Yards.

Boult	—22
Brayshaw	—28
Crowe	5344554—30
Elliott	4554555—33
Eastcott	—27
Forrest	—25
Flowers	—25
Jones	5555545—34
Kerr	—29
Kelly	—30
McConnell	—25
Moore	—30
Morrice	—31
Phillips	—18
Pugh	—24
Richardson	4554555—33
Russell	—29
Simpson	—29
Stuart	—30
Wilson	5355555—33

Canadian Winnings.

Another Suicide.

Aminar. Emmanuel Beaumont, has committed suicide by throwing himself down a pit 300 feet deep, at Leas, in the Pas de Cala. He had received his fortnight's pay, and was returning home when he discovered that he had lost his purse. He, assisted by comrades, searched for his purse. Chagrined at not finding his money, Beaumont, without a word, approached the pit and threw himself into the abyss. His body was frightfully mutilated.

73 DIE IN NEW YORK.

One-Half of Those Prostrated by Heat Wednesday Succumb — Relief by Death-Dealing Storm.

New York, July 20.—Yesterday's death roll from heat reached 75, being nearly half of those prostrated. This was almost entirely due to the collapse of young children and aged persons. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon came the long-prayed-for relief, when a terrific thunderstorm and a deluge of rain burst over Brooklyn and the lower part of Manhattan and sections of New Jersey, in Brooklyn two men were struck by lightning and seriously hurt, and in Jersey City one man was killed.

Struck By Lightning in Bed.

Ottawa, July 20.—Joshua Goodwin, a market gardener, who lived at Seventh avenue, Hintonburg, was killed by lightning in his bed at 1.30 yesterday morning. His son was lying alongside of him and was injured. The lightning came through the roof. The old man called for a drink of water as soon as he was struck, and his son was able to bring it to him. He lived for about 15 minutes, but died before a doctor arrived.

Man Killed and Barn Burned.

Kingston, July 20.—Lightning killed John Dafoe of Trenton while in a barn near Tamworth yesterday morning. The barn was burned. Dafoe was visiting the farmer's home. The hailstorm was very severe throughout the country.

Worst in 30 Years.

Cornwall, July 20.—The worst thunderstorm of 30 years visited this section Tuesday night. The electric light plant was obliged to close down about 2 a. m. Three houses in town were struck by lightning and in one Mrs. John Hollister was stunned by the lightning and suffered a severe shock.

Hail Destroys Green House.

Kingston, July 20.—The severe hailstorm yesterday morning broke 400 feet of glass in Johnson's greenhouses. This is the worst break through hail he has had in 21 years.

Season's Hay Crop Burned.

Delhi, July 20.—During a severe thunderstorm yesterday afternoon the barn of John Boughners on the 11th concession, North Walsingham, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. All this season's hay crop was consumed, along with farm implements. The loss is heavy, partly covered by insurance.

Barns Burned.

Brockville, July 20.—Following Tuesday's storm, which struck from the northeast, another violent disturbance took place yesterday morning about seven o'clock, extending over a wide area of this section. Very little damage was done in Brockville beyond the blowing down of shade trees, but throughout the country district barns were struck by lightning and burned in a wholesale manner. Several horses and cattle are also reported killed on the river Tuesday night. The gale caught scores of pleasure skiffs, many of which upset, but the occupants were all rescued, in some cases with difficulty.

Four Barns Burned.

Chester, July 20.—One of the fiercest electrical storms visited this town and surrounding country Tuesday evening that the oldest inhabitant ever witnessed. Four barns were burned to the ground.

Hurricane Destroys Harvest.

Madrid, July 20.—A hurricane has almost entirely destroyed the harvest in the Provinces of Saragossa and Caceres, thus adding immensely to the general distress.

PROFITS BIG IN COBALT MINING, SAYS DR. BELL

Former Resident of Peterborough Tells of the New Mining Industry in New Ontario—How His Position as Custodian of the Public Health Takes Him to the Newer Parts of the Province—Temiskaming District Has Bright Future—Land Admirably Adapted to Agriculture—Many Mining Properties of Value—Fort Francis and its Plans for the Future—A Flour Mill May Be Established.

Some interesting facts were learned yesterday about the famous Cobalt Mines in New Ontario from Dr. R. W. Bell, the Provincial Public Health Inspector, who was passing through Peterborough on his way from Stirling where he had been on an official visit. Dr. Bell will be remembered well by the great majority of Peterborough persons since, for a number of years he lived here, before leaving for London, where he occupied the position of Superintendent of the Asylum for the Insane prior to his appointment to the position he now holds, that of the custodian of the public health of the province.

In New Ontario.

During his short stay in Peterborough, advantage was taken by the Examiner, of his presence here to interview him in reference to the newer parts of the province, in which his work very largely is performed. During the last few months the genial doctor has travelled more than once from the extreme east to the extreme west of the province, and has had a good opportunity of ascertaining the conditions of the province in respect to its industrial development, since it is to work where this development is seen in its practical working that his work calls him. In railway construction work, timbering, public works, etc., there is always danger of contagious diseases breaking out, and it is the duty of Dr. Bell to watch these works and if an outbreak of smallpox or other dangerous disease appears he is generally on the spot within a few hours, and takes prompt measures to prevent the spread of the disease, and to care for those who have been stricken with the disease.

Work of the Inspector.

His work, however, is not by any means confined to the stamping out of a disease, after it has appeared, but to prevent their outbreak. He drops into camps when he is least expected, and if he finds conditions existing there which are not conductive to a good state of health of the occupants of the camp, he issues instructions to remedy the evil, and unless his instructions are not obeyed, there is trouble.

Richness of the North.

The doctor, a few weeks ago returned from a trip along the line of the new Temiskaming Railway, running north from North Bay, and speaks very highly of the land through which that railway runs and that which it has already opened for settlement. For about seventy-five miles or so north of the southern terminus of the railway the land through which it runs is not suitable for agriculture. It is rough, and rocky, and its chief value is in the mineral wealth, which lies as yet hidden in the earth. There are suppositions that this section is fairly rich in minerals, but there is no assurance that such is the case to any great extent. Farther north, however, the land is valuable, and already in the vicinity of New Liskard there are large tracts of the country settled, and it has all been surveyed, and the greater portion has already been taken up, some of it, unfortunately by land speculators. It is excellent farming land, and a remarkable fact was noticed, that the climate there is even better than it is more to the south. In the winter when he was there, Dr. Bell found that it was milder than it was at North Bay, while the spring and summer weather is described as being delightful.

The Cobalt Mines.

Railway Extension.

The railway at present ends at Blanch River, over which a large bridge will have to be erected, and until this is completed, no rails can be laid beyond that point, although the road has been graded for a number of miles to the north of that river. The intention of the commissioners who are constructing the road for the Province, is to continue it north to connect with the Grand Trunk Pacific, the definite location of which has not yet been established. The Ontario railway has, however, been surveyed to the Abittibi Lake, but it has not yet been announced whether the G. T. P. line will pass north or south of that lake.

Dr. Bell is enthusiastic in speaking of the possibilities of that part of the Province. The land is admirably suited for agriculture, and the climate is also quite favorable to a prosecution of that business.

Fort Francis' Hopes.

Another part of the Province which recently has claimed some attention from the doctor is the Rainy River District, and within the last few months he visited Fort Francis. In fact, he was there only a few days before the fire occurred which practically wiped the business portion of the town out of existence. For a considerable distance around this town the land is good, and it has all been taken. It is almost impossible to find any vacant land suitable for farming. The development of the power at that point is just now forming the principal topic of conversation, and the citizens are hoping for great things when the dam has been completed and the power house erected, but the question at present is, how is the power to be utilized when it is developed? At present no definite plans have been formed, and there is a fear among some that the experience of the Michigan Sault will be repeated. There an immense power house, costing well on to a million dollars, has been erected, and the power development effected, but up to the present time only a very small proportion of the power has been utilized.

A Flour Proposition.

There is a suggestion, however, that if it is profitable to grind grain in transit, as is being done, apparently profitably at Keewatin, the Canadian Northern Railway may erect flour mills at Fort Francis, where the power can be procured quite cheaply. This is only speculation, however, and no announcement has been made on it as yet.

Dr. Bell talks most interestingly about his trips through the wilds of this great Province, and speaks with enthusiasm of the rosy future before Ontario, when her resources shall be more fully developed. The doctor, after having spent a day in the city renewing his old acquaintances, returned to Toronto last night.

YOU NEED THE OTHER

Ozone is a germ killer and a valuable remedy, but to get the best results from it you must have a tonic laxative to take with it. "Solution of Ozone (the coupon kind)" is the purest and best form in which Ozone is sold. Every bottle of this remedy contains a coupon which entitles you to a package of "Celery King" the well known remedy, free.

In buying this solution, you get about twice as much Ozone for your money as by buying other brands, in addition to getting a package of "Celery King" for nothing. You thus save money in two ways besides getting Ozone in its purest and most concentrated form.

Ask your druggist for "Solution of Ozone (the coupon kind)" and if he does not keep it you can get it from the Public Drug Co., Bridgeburg, Ont., by writing for it. Sold by W.B. WARNE. 3

The old idea that dandruff is scales of skin thrown off, through a feverish condition of the scalp is exploded. Prof. Una, Hamburg, Germany, European authority on skin diseases, says dandruff is a germ disease. The germ burrows under the scalp, throwing up little scales of cuticle, and sapping the vitality of the hair at the root. The only hair preparation that kills dandruff germs is Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Not only cures dandruff, but stops falling hair and permits a luxuriant growth. Delightful hair dressing. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Company, Detroit, Mich. Ormond & Walsh, special agents.

F. J. R. McPHERSON SECURES CONTRACT

Of Lighting and Heating of New Belleville Church.

Mr. F. J. R. McPherson has secured the contract for the lighting and heating fixtures of the new Roman Catholic Church now being erected in Belleville.

The lighting will be a three-wire system and in all 1,200 lights will be installed, which will be so arranged that each alternate light may be lighted when it is desired. On the altar there will be 1,000 two candle power lights.

The heating will be a steam system.

A Fortunate Accident.

Johann Simon, a tanner, of Ulm, Germany fell into his new tan pit and was there half an hour before being rescued. Prior to falling in he was a victim of rheumatism, but on getting out was surprised to find every trace of his rheumatism gone. The tanning is done by a combination of tannic acid and electricity and the doctors say this combination drove out the uric acid from the man's body. Numbers of rheumatic sufferers are trying the tan pit cure, paying from a dollar to ten dollars each fees, with what result has yet to be ascertained.

Death of Resident of Young's Point—Other News.

From our Own Correspondent.

Young's Point, July 19th.—The weather is pretty warm at present, and the farmers have commenced haying.

A lawn party was held at St. Agrian's Church here on Tuesday evening the 18th inst, and proved quite a success. Refreshments were served on the grounds and a sale of work, also a short programme was rendered.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Robt. Quinlan took place here on Friday, the 14th inst. The deceased, who was 43 years of age, leaves a husband, two daughters, Miss Ellen and Miss Paulie, and four sons, Frederick, John, Robert and Willie.

Mrs. Quinlan had resided in Lakefield for the past three years, but previous to that, had always lived here at the Point, so her many friends here were very much grieved to attend her funeral on Friday. We all extend our sympathy to Mrs. Quinlan and family in their sad loss.

The following guests have registered here the past week:—Messrs. Wilbert Smith, Walter C. Smith, Harold W. Smith, all of Pittsburg; James Arthur, West Elizabeth; Mr. Percy Rubridge, Chicago; Joseph Aston, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Park, Honeoye Falls, Pa.; J. H. Edgar, Wm. French, Mrs G. C. Haworth, Mr. Clifford Haworth, and Master Brooks Haworth, Butler, Pa.; F. L. Linton, Campbellford; Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Mills and Masters G. T. and J. G. Mills, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McDowell, Miss Clara McDowell, Miss Rose Ame, of Baltimore; John Sullivan, Jas. Doris, Miss Maggie O'Connel, Peterborough; Miss Bella Garfeth, Port Hope; R. Hank, F. Mesher, Buffalo; I. Affelder, H. F. Affelder, Pittsburg, Pa.; J. F. Hamilton, Cobourg; A. Dunn, Peterborough; Harry A. Grush, Pittsburg; Miss Josephine Kelly, Miss Mabel Heckedek, Miss Belle Williams, Campbellford; Mr. Abbey Doxsee, John Wilson, Hastings; Horace Wilson, Toronto.

Severe Cold in the Chest.

"My fourteen-year-old boy had a very severe cold in the chest last winter and I really thought he was going to die. He coughed nearly all the time and sometimes would spit up blood. I can positively say that he was completely cured by two bottles of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, and he has not been troubled since."—Mrs. J. Provost, Renfrew, Ont.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.
Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba, or the North-west Provinces, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.
Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him.
Homestead Duties.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:
(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.
(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.
(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.
Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector.
Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

A COMMON PRACTICE.

People who are in the habit of drinking ice water to excess during the warm weather should remember that the practice is one attended by many dangers, says the St. Thomas Journal. A death occurred in that city a few weeks ago which it is claimed was attributable to the drinking of too much ice water. A prominent physician writing to the New York Globe, warns people against this common practic. He has had over thirty years experience as a practicing physician and is authority for the statement that there are ten deaths from ice water drinking to one from partaking of alcoholic liquors. He claims that those who are victims of the ice water habit usually end their careers afflicted by Bright's disease or rheumatism. Here are the arguments he has to offer in support of his contentions:—

"They wash their food into the stomach by liquids instead of properly masticating and mixing the foods they eat with saliva, the ferment our Creator intended to digest all cereals or starchy substances. Not content with this, they fill the stomach with a great quantity of liquids or still further dilute what little saliva happens to reach the stomach accidently, and keep up the habit at frequent intervals, during the whole digestive period. They do this in spite of the fact that the temperature of the stomach during digestion is 101 degrees, and that cold water stops digestion instantly, and it does not recommence till the temperature gets back again to 101 degrees a gain of 69 from 32, the temperature of ice water.

EMERGENCY ADVICE

The extreme heat of the last few days has been very trying, and in the great cities the increased mortality record, speaks eloquently of the deadly effects of the high temperature and humidity. The deaths caused directly by the heat are numerous, and they are but a small fraction of the whole to be charged to it. Every sick person's case is rendered more serious by the oppressive heat, specially in the crowded cities, where the sun heat is stored up in the stone and brick and asphalt, and poured forth in the night, when suffering humanity pines for a draught of fresh oxygen and a whiff from the pole.

Collapse from heat, sunstroke, or whatever name is given to it, is a matter that should always be treated seriously. The preliminary signs, says the New York Herald, are easily recognized. The victim complains of pain in the head, often very intense in character; dizziness, a feeling of oppression and faintness, and sometimes nausea and vomiting. Visual disturbances are also common: the patient may see double, objects may dance before his eyes or appear in strange colours. He is then apt to lapse into unconsciousness, which may be more or less profound, and may deepen into coma, from which recovery is rarely possible. The bodily temperature frequently takes a high range, and the functions of the vital organs become either arrested or markedly impaired.

As such attacks usually occur during exposure to the direct rays of the sun, the first thing to do is to remove the stricken one to a shady place, to loosen any constricting clothing, to place him in a comfortable reclining position, and to administer stimulants, and apply ice to the head and chest, and when possible, to the entire body. These are the ready remedies that may be employed by bystanders until more efficient help can be obtained. Often by the prompt use of such means, many of the after efects of the seizure may be averted, and life may be saved.

The safest place, of course, is the hospital, to which the patient should be sent as soon as possible. There the ice packs to the entire body can be scientifically applied and all incidental and urgent symptoms be properly treated. There is no other accident in which prompt scientific help is more urgently needed. The great aim is to reduce bodily temperature rapidly and to maintain control of excessive and debilitating heart action. A most favourable indication of effective treatment is the return of consciousness. When convulsions appear the administration of chloroform becomes necessary. The shorter the period of attack the better chance there is of escaping future complications. Following long and severe seizures, the patient may be invalided for life. He may be unable thereafter not only to endure the sun's rays even in comparatively mild weather, but his intellect may be clouded and his power of mental concentration may be lost. The heart also may be functionally impaired so that the least excitement may cause distressing palpitation. Fortunately, recovery is complete in a goodly majority of cases, but in no particular instance can such a result be prognosticated.

The best of all indications is to be on guard against a possible attack during the sunstroke season. The one who would avoid an attack must in the first place be sure that he is in good health and that all his bodily functions are in good working order. Plain food, abstinence from drink and avoidance of all excessive exertions are prime necessities. The sun's rays produce their most deadly effects when they are directed on the head and back of the neck. These parts then should be especially well protected. Above all, the first signs of dizziness, nausea and exhaustion should be the most imperative reasons for stopping work, seeking the shade and cooling off as rapidly as possible. In fact, for days after, the man who has thus proved his susceptibility to heat should be most careful how he exposes himself to any possible repetition of any such experience.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Interesting comparisons of the share of the world's trade done by various nations are afforded by the returns issued on the 1st of May by the British Board of Trade. These returns show that the trade of the United Kingdom for the year 1904 reached the great total of £781,958,000, as against £573,174,000 for Germany, and £512,845,000 for the United States, her nearest competitors. United Kingdom imports show an increase in 1904 of £8,013,000 over 1903, while in exports the improvement is only £1,018,000. In Germany, on the other hand, the improvement in imports during the year reached £14,415,000, and in exports £7,893,000, a total increase of £22,308,000. The United States had a bad year in this respect. While her imports increased £8,419,000, exports declined by £6,614,000, her total increase of trade being only £1,773,000.

D. BURRITT'S UNCLE IS NEW GRAND MASTER

Mr. J. H. Burritt Elected to That Office by the Grand Lodge of Canadian Free Masons.

The Semi-Centennial Meeting of the Order Opened Yesterday in Hamilton.

Mr. J. Ross Robertson, Historian, Gives Review of the Order for Last 50 Years.

Yesterday the semi-centennial meeting of the Grand Lodge of the A. F. and A. M., of Canada, in the Province of Ontario, opened in Hamilton. There was a very large attendance of delegates, among them being those from Peterborough mentioned in yesterday's Examiner.

A feature of the meeting, which will be of special interest to Peterborough, is the fact that Mr. J. H. Burritt, of Pembroke, an uncle of Mr. D. Burritt, of town, has been elected to the office of Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Canada.

Benjamin Allen, the retiring Grand Master, gave his annual address, in which he referred to the great growth of the Order in Canada.

History of Canadian Masonry.

M. W. Bro. J. Ross Robertson yesterday afternoon, in his capacity of Historian of Grand Lodge, reviewed the history of Masonry in Canada from the day when M. W. Bro. Mercer Wilson raised his gavel fifty years ago and declared that there was another Grand Lodge added to those on this continent. He spoke of the installation by Bro. Backus, Past Grand Master of Michigan, in Hamilton, in 1855. He said that of all those present on that occasion, only one brother is in life to-day — R. W. Bro. John Osborne, of Rat Portage, (Kenora.) The Grand Lodge of England, practically the mother Grand Lodge of the world, introduced Masonry in Massachusetts, as early as 1733, and it was the Grand Master of North America, Henry Price, who gave Erasmus James Phillips, the power to open a lodge in Annapolis Royal, Nova Scotia, and this was the first lodge warranted in Canada in 1739.

Then twenty years later, in 1759, the Provincial Grand Lodge of Quebec, was formed, and in 1792, the Grand Lodge of Lower Canada, with a succession of Provincial Grand Lodges in Canada, down to the formation of the Grand Lodge of Canada in 1855, and the Grand Lodge of Quebec in 1870.

The first Masonry in Upper Canada was when ten lodges were instituted prior to 1792, in different parts of the country. These were warranted by the original Grand Lodge of Quebec, and by the Grand Lodge of New York.

Bro. Robertson stated that Wm. Jarvis, who was the first Provincial Grand Master, opened his Grand Lodge at Niagara in 1792, that there was trouble in the craft about 1800. Bro. Jarvis came to York in 1796. In 1800 the brethren at Niagara selected R. W. Bro. Dr. Kerr as Grand Master, for Jarvis had declined to call the Grand Lodge in York — now Toronto. Jarvis died in 1817. The craft was then without a head. St. John's Lodge at Kingston, a well known lodge, along with a number of lodges in the Midland District, formed a Grand Masonic convention, and governed the craft of the Midland District from 1817 to 1822. The craft of the western part of the province was looked after by Bro. Kerr.

In 1822 Simon McGillivray, by instruction of the Duke of Sussex, came to Canada, and at York, in September, 182, reorganized the Provincial Grand Lodge. This Grand Lodge continued its work until 1830. It became dormant until 1845, when it was re-organized as the third Provincial at Hamilton, when its work continued until 1859, but in 1855 a number of members of the Provincial Grand Lodge were dissatisfied and formed a Grand Lodge of Canada at Hamilton, Canada West.

Finally the Third Provincial changed its name and called itself the Ancient Grand Lodge, and declared itself a supreme and sovereign body and in 1858 united with the original Grand Lodge of Canada in the present Grand Lodge of Canada. This is practically the history of the Craft.

JOSEPH KOTLOR GOT CLEARANCE ORDERS

To Leave City as Quickly as Possible—Cyclist Fined.

There was little of interest at this morning's Police Court.

Yesterday special policeman Wilson found Joseph Kotlor, a Hungarian, sleeping off a spree in Jackson Park. He was taken in charge, and when searched, several cigars, a railway ticket to Winnipeg and about $12 in cash were found on him. He appeared in the prisoner's box this morning.

"You are charged with being drunk and disorderly in a public place," said the Magistrate.

"No stand," was the Hun's reply.

Oh, yes you do."

"Not Mush!"

Mr. Wilson said the fellow was sleeping in the park, but was not disturbing anybody.

His Worship told the prisoner to make use of his ticket and get out of the city as fast as he could.

BASEBALL HOLDS FORT AT CAMP

Y. M. C. A. Camp, Clear Lake, Wednesday, July 19.—This is Wednesday morning and brings us to the beginning of our last week in camp. we find the time flies in a surprising manner, as the many events transpire which fill these camping days to their fullest extent.

A boys' camp is a busy place and the leaders know how to keep things moving to keep us out of mischief, and to make every day of camp life better than the preceding one.

The exciting feature of Monday was the naval battle between the Russians and Japs in which the Russians won their first victory in the sea. The ammunition was small quarter-pound bags filled with water. Several of the boys got out of the boats and got a few mouthfuls of the briny and had to be towed in. A number of tea cups found their way to the bottom of the lake and the divers will have some work to recover them out of the sand.

The baseball league goes along at a great pace and No. 3 team, captained by Dawe has the lead, having won every game yet played. Two games a day are played. It was an unique sight to see young "Daisy" play in his night shirt, and it is a fact that he did not get dressed until he went to bed.

The youngest boys in camp are Frank Patterson and Wilfred Stratton, and it is divided honors as to which were the most popular "Pat" or "R. J." They created lots of fun, anyway. They were photographed yesterday, one each on the knees of Jim Flynnegan.

Last night a large bonfire was built on the shore, and Rev. Wm. Mackay and party came over to spend the evening with us.

Mr. Mackay gave an excellent talk on "Ralph Connor," and spoke of some of the leading characters of his books. Geo. E. Williams, of Montreal, the first Y. M. C. A. secretary of Peterborough, also spoke a few words.

Mr. Armstrong, of camp, "Tom-drop-in," gave a number of selections on the mouth organ, and several members of the Peterborough Wanderers, led by Geoff Pratley, helped with the programme. An interesting informal talk on the Yukon country was given by W. G. Edmison, who has just returned from there and who is with the Wanderers. All the visitors were given hearty cheers at the close of the "confab."

Friday is visitor's day, and a good-sized delegation of parents is expected. There will be big doings that day, and camp dinner is promised to all.

WERE MARRIED AT ST. LUKE'S

A Quiet Wedding Took Place There Yesterday.

A quiet wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in St. Luke's Church, by the Rector, Rev. E. A. Lanefoldt, the contracting parties being Mr. Leo Kraft, of New York, and Miss Emma Louisa Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Scott, Maria street, East Ward. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mabel Scott, as bridesmaid, while Mr. Fred. Holland acted as best man. Only the immediate relatives were present at the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Kraut intend to live in New York.

CHILDREN WERE ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Dr. King Treated Children of the Shelter to Pleasant Outing.

The children of the Children's Aid Shelter were treated on Tuesday evening to an enjoyable outing upon the street cars by Mrs. Dr. King, whose kindness was much appreciated by the little ones.

The children also had a picnic at Jackson Park yesterday afternoon which was much enjoyed.

The excursion involves being away over Sunday, the return trip being made on Monday, and the fare from Peterborough is $2.15 return, the special train leaving at 7.20 a.m.

—Mr. R.W. Thompson, of the 13th line of East Zorra, was a heavy loser last week from the thunderstorm that passed over that section of the district. On Friday when searching for some cattle that had been missing for a few days, he found them in in a hay field dead. Fourteen in all, they were piled up in a heap and made a ghastly sight. Although it is not known just when their death took p lace, they undoubtedly were killed in one of the heavy thunderstorms of last week.

—We always understood that Port Hope whiskey was very bad, but Bowmanville whiskey takes the cake for causing romantic ideas. Last week an innocent man from Pontypool, drove into that town, and, after sampling the liquid fire, tried to drive his horse and rig up a shade tree! What was worse, the poor fellow had to pay $12.50 as fine and costs. We think it is mean enough to sell such liquids, but it is the concentration of meanness to charge him such a fee for drinking it.—Cobourg Star.

During hot weather, horses are liable to suffer from severe diarrhoea, which, if not checked, causes the animal's death. A number of animals in this district have died from this complaint. Dr. Poole, V. S., 420 Water street, Peterborough, has discovered a cure for the above, which, to prove his assertion, unless the animal recovers, he will charge nothing for his services. Owners of horses should take advantage of this offer. Telephone 459, or the above address, night or day. 12d16-2w

HIS HARD EARNED CASH WAS TAKEN

A Scotchman is the Poorer by Some $50.

Man Suspected of the Theft Lives Near Here—Case Being Investigated.

This morning a Scotchman complained to the Magistrate that a sum of money, amounting to $50.00, belonging to him, had been stolen, and he suspected a man with whom he had been boarding, as the thief.

It seems that this fellow boarder was to leave the boarding house early one morning, but the last moment before leaving he went to his trun to get a small sum of money which he owed the complainant, and discovered that his money was gone. The Scotchman then thought of his own hard cash, and made haste to see if it still reposed in his trunk, but, upon investigation, he found that his trunk had been unlocked, the dollars extracted, and the trunk locked again.

His fellow boarder made an efort to recover the money, but threw suspicion on another man, and left the city, and is supposed to be living in a village near here.

Through some inconsistency, suspicion was diverted from this other man to the fellow boarder, and the Scotchman asked the Magistrate this morning to take measures for the purpose of recovering his cash.

Any Troubles In Your BATHROOM ?

If you are having any trouble with your CLOSET or BATHROOM CONVENIENCES, come round and have a talk with us.

A gentleman, attracted by the range of Sanitary Closets and excellent values we are offering, invested in a new one, although he already had one that was working not badly.

The way he looked over the Closets we arranged before him for inspection showed he had been sifting the matter, and knew how to prove and disprove the claims of dealers.

The saving of health and expansive plumbing repairs, warranted the investment, he said.

How is yours working ? Bring your Bathroom Troubles to us. Our Toronto Stock is what we sell in our Peterborough Branch.

LOCALS WON EASY VICTORY FROM OSHAWA

One-Sided Exhibition at Riverside Park Yesterday—Score Was 10-1—Peterborough's Are in Winning Form—The Attendance Was Not Large—Grounds Are in Much Improved Condition.

In a game that was rather too one-sided to be exciting the Peterborough Lacrosse team yesterday added another victory to their list by defeating the Oshawa's by a score of 10—1. Almost from the face-off it was the local's game and they were never in trouble. The Oshawas got away with the first goal, but after that they were completely shut out. The visitors at times evidenced a disposition to put up a good argument, but they were up against a aggregation superior in all departments of the game, and one that will require something pretty fast to put it out of the running.

The game was, on the whole, a most gentlemanly exhibition and little rough work was indulged in. Any disposition to "rough it" was promptly caught by the referee and a few players penalized.

The locals played good lacrosse, but were not forced to extend themselves at any stage of the game. The home worked smoothly and effectively and the scoring was mostly accomplished by speedy combination work. The defence was almost impregnable and their checking and intercepting was much the best they have exhibited this season.

Boyle had very little to do in goal but the few that came his way were nicely handled. A few brilliant stops were made. Morgan did especially good work in intercepting dangerous ones and played his position well. Derocher checked and passed well and was instrumental in starting several nice combinations which ended at the Oshawa nets. Meagher's checking was always a prominent prominent feature and he was a constant source of annoyance to the visitors. "Shickey" Mein played with all his old-time brilliancy and did some very pretty individual work. Crowley appeared in good form and was as steady as of yore. It takes the fastest of them to get within checking distance when he gets away on one of his long sprints. Ford played a steady game at centre and was very effective both offensively and defensively. One of the most prominent players was undoubtedly Judd, whose work was of a stellar variety. He received a nasty cut on the mouth during the game. Cavanah shot well yesterday, and his steady style of play was a great factor throughout. McCabe also kept a close watch on the visitors' nets, and generally managed to locate them when any opening afforded itself. Best and Glover did excellent work on the home end were about as elusive a pair for the visitors to connect with as were in the game. Their work was always effective.

For the visitors, Pennington in goal stopped a number of hard ones. Minor was quite conspicuous at all stages of the game. Curtin was also often a dangerous proposition, and his fast work brought frequent manifestations of applause.

The Riverside grounds are steadily improving as the sod becomes firmer. The grass is growing rapidly. An improvement, the necessity for which has been felt all season, is now being made in the erection of a new building for the use of the players as a dressing room. The attendance at yesterday's game was unfortunately not what might have been expected. It is rather surprising that the games are not more largely attended, in view of the excellence of the game which this year's team is putting up. The team now looks good to stay to the finish, and will undoubtedly be close to the grand stand when the honours are distributed. As increasing interest will, it is felt, be manifested later in the season. The teams lined up as follows:

Peterborough.	Oshawa.

The Play.

The play during the first few minutes afforded the visitors their only chance to hope for a successful finish. By an effort, which can scarcely be accounted for, they worked the sphere into Peterborough's territory, where Hall placed one in the nets after a pass from Esara. Time 3 minutes. Score 1-0.

Crowley got away on a nice run, carrying the ball close to the Oshawa nets. After passing behind the flags in a round trip, Judd secured it and made a nice try. Glover took the ball into his possession on a pass from McCabe, and notched the first for the locals in a pretty shot. Time 2 minutes. Score 1-1.

The homesters now steadied down to good team play and had their opponents always in hand. The third was scored in one minute by Cavanah. Score 2-1.

The ball left the face-off, the visitors again attempting some offensive tactics, but a well-intended rush was nicely broken up by Derocher, who set in motion a nice combination which ended by Judd placing the fourth goal, making three straights for the locals in as many minutes. Score 3-1.

The ball travelled from the face-off to Glover, who shot. Cavanah, Esara and Mein went off for two minutes each. The visitors worked the ball some distance up the field, but Morgan dislocated their aspirations by intercepting a dangerous pass, and sending the sphere back in the direction whence it came, and Jack McCabe did the trick again. Score, 4—1.

This ended the scoring for the first quarter. The ball after the face-off, travelled to Oshawa territory, and from a scrimmage there Jack McCabe made two well intended efforts to score, but did not secure a sufficient opening. Cavanah was given three minutes in the shade of the grand stand. Meagher ruined a dangerous looking effort on the part of the visitors. After some fast and-to-end work, the sphere was secured by Ford, who passed to Best, to Glover, who again did the requisite. Time 7 minutes. Score, 5—1.

Curtin received a slight injury in a scrimmage before the Peterborough nets. Crowley was penalized for three minutes for tripping. Mein intercepted a pass and got away on a nice run, passing to Judd, who with Glover did some nice combination work, which won much favour with the audience. The ball travelled back and Boyle was forced to stop one. Meagher and Judd both took trys at the Oshawa nets, failing in their purpose by a narrow margin. The next was scored by Best. Time 9 minutes. Score, 6—1.

This ended the first half, and the second can only be termed a "killing." Ford got a three minute breathing spell, Gibson following him for the same period. Best secured the next for the locals after five minutes play. Score, 7—1.

The succeeding one came quickly, Cavanah doing the trick after the prettiest combination play of the game, the sphere having travelled the whole length of the field in a series of lightning like passes. Time 1 minute. Score, 8—1.

F. Derocher was assigned a two minute sojourn upon the boards. McCabe shot a nice one which Layden intercepted. The play was upon the Oshawa nets. McCabe made a good shot which was stopped by Pennington. Crowley went off for two minutes. Soon after the commencement of the concluding quarter, Ford was assigned two minutes upon the boards. Two scores were made in this quarter, the first by Judd after about 12 1-2 minutes play. Score, 9—1.

The concluding goal was scored by Glover in the last few seconds. Score, 10—1.

Itching, Burning, Stinging Eczema

Itching skin diseases such as eczema, salt rheum and tetter are the despair of doctors. They prescribe some relief for the itching or an internal medicine to act through the blood, but usually tell their patient candidly that they cannot cure such ailments.

We do not recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment as an experiment, for it has long since passed the experimental stage as a cure for itching skin diseases. It has positively proven its power to relieve and cure in thousands of severe cases, and if you could read the sincere letters of recommendation which come to these offices you could not help but consider this the most successful treatment for diseases of the skin that was ever discovered.

It exercises to a remarkable degree that soothing, healing, antiseptic influence which alone is successful in making a thorough cure of eczema and other itching skin diseases.

NIGHT OWLS SURPRISE LOCAL SENIORS

Midland League Nine Defeated Last Night—Score 4-3.

Last night the Night Owls with Quinlan and Graham as their battery, defeated the Midland League team on Riverside Park.

In the first, with one down, Graham let Sheridan's third strike get by him and the runner made half the circuit, stole third and came home on a poor throw to the plate.

There was nothing more doing until the fourth, when the Night Owls got busy and chalked up four runs. Price made a two bagger, Campbell was safe at first on an error, Price scoring. Graham threw wide to first and O'Brien was safe, Campbell scoring, Treanor kept up the good work and O'Brien crossed the pan. Treanor made the circuit on a hit and steals. Chances for more runs were ripe but Parnell was nipped at third and Dusty was caught trying to purloin second.

In the seniors' half, Sheridan made a three bagger, scoring Rattray; he himself coming in on a passed ball. The next two men were easy outs, leaving the final score 4-3.

TO-NIGHT AT THE BROCK STREET RINK

A Good Programme of Sports Will be Given.

The wrestling and boxing contests which are to take place to-night in the Brock street rink promise to prove very popular attractions, and the prospect is that there will be a good crowd to witness the events.

The principal bout will be the contest between Capt. Duncan Ross and Gauthier for the purse of $200. In addition to this event there will be a number of other contests, all of which should be decidedly interesting. A number of local men will be matched to come together in some interesting bouts.

BASEBALL.

The George Street Guild team journeyed to Lakefield last night to play a game with a team of that village. The Lakefield team did not show up however, so the team, augmented by a few villagers, broke up and indulged in a game which came out a tie, 7-7.

* * *

A full turn-out of the Charlotte street team is called for this evening and the following players are requested to be on hand at 7 o'clock sharp:—

Lang, H. Roddy, Heasip, Thornton, Squires, N. McWilliams, Williams, A. McWilliams, Crowe, Ryan, F. Roddy.

To-night the Peterborough team will play a practice game with the Charlotte Street team in preparation for their game on Saturday with Bowmanville.

Chamberlain's COLIC, CHOLERA AND Diarrhoea Remedy

It has been used in nine epidemics of dysentery with perfect success.

It can always be depended upon, even in the more severe attacks of cramp colic and cholera morbus.

It is equally successful for summer diarrhoea and cholera infantum in children, and is the means of saving the lives of many children each year.

When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take.

Every dose of a genuine should keep this remedy in his home. Buy it now. It may save life.

Price, 25 Cents.

THE LAKEFIELD TEAM DID NOT SHOW UP

And the George Street Team Did Not Play Last Night.

The George street ball team went to Lakefield last evening to play a game with a team in that village. The team drove straight to the ball grounds expecting the Lakefield bunch would be there awaiting them, but there wasn't a soul on the diamond.

One of the Lakefield players claimed that Manager Moffat did not know there was to be a game played until the afternoon before and then he was not certain whether George street meant to play or not.

The visitors made the best of the evening by dividing up and with the help of a few village fellows had a practice game on the grounds.

The George street men naturally feel sore over Manager Moffat's actions, and assert that if he had a little more courage he would have brought up his team and played the game.

GOLF.

HOW MANY PEOPLE ARE ALWAYS TIRED

You Get Up in the Morning All Played Out and Unfit for Labor. An Easy Way to Become Bright and Vigorous. You Can Eat Well and Sleep Well and Forget You Were Ever Tired.

Do you ever stop to think why you feel more tired in the morning than when you retire the night before? Did it ever occur to you after your noon-day meal why you are unequal to further exertion for an hour or two? You are quite played out, feel almost unhappy, unfit for labor and for exertion of any kind. You have acquired the habit of overloading your stomach, your liver is congested and your bowels loaded with foul refuse. You have piled agony upon agony until your very vitals cry out for assistance. "What shall I do?" You say. Use Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills for just a week. Take two each night when you retire. They will make you feel better, not only in the morning but all day long, and in a week's time they will care so that you will again feel bright and active, and your tired, despondent, blue condition will have vanished. As an after-dinner pill nothing can take the place of Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills, for they possess not only the antiseptic and resolvent properties of pineapple, but also the laxative and tonic properties of butternut. They improve digestion, assimilation and nutrition, and in every respect can be relied upon to accomplish good results in cases of a torpid liver or of a sluggish condition of the bowels. At all dealers, 25 cents. They always cure sick headache, constipation and biliousness in one night.

A NIGHTMARE

Gives point to the fact that excessive or irregular eating disturbs the digestion. Nightmare or night hag has its day time correspondence in the undue fullness after eating, with the belchings and sour or bitter rising so often experienced after too hasty or too hearty eating.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures dyspepsia or bad stomach. When the weak stomach is strengthened and invigorated the whole body shares in the increased strength derived from food properly digested and perfectly assimilated.

"I was a victim of sleeplessness and extreme nervousness induced by chronic indigestion and I felt heavy, tired and worn out continually," writes Miss Mary Smith, of 3629 Mt. Washington Street, Colorado Springs, Colo. "Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was the only medicine which relieved me. Within a week after I began using it that heavy oppressed feeling after meals had left me, and I found that I was able to digest more than for months previously. My appetite was gradually restored, general system was toned up, nervousness became a thing of the past and I have now been in splendid health for over nine months."

Sometimes a selfish dealer tempted by the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines will offer the customer a substitute as being "just as good" as the "Discovery." It may be better for him because it pays better, but it is not as good for you, if you want the medicine that has cured others, and which you believe will cure you.

1000-page Doctor Book sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover postage only. In stamps for cloth-bound copy. Formerly sold for $1.50 to extent of over 680,000 copies. Every family should possess a copy for ready reference in case of sudden illness or accident. It is illustrated with hundreds of wood-cuts and several colored plates. Address Dr. R. V. CANADA HAS HER BANDITS

Italian Highwaymen Hold Up Montrealer With $17,000—Foiled by Lytle's Nerve—Although Their Shooting Was Bad, the Railway Superintendent of the Orford Mountain Railway Was Peppered With Buckshot—Managed to Save the Money for Men's Pay.

Montreal, July 20.—By a superb exhibition of pluck Mr. A. C. Lytle of this city managed to defeat two Italian highwaymen near Sherbrooke and get away with $17,000 they tried to rob him of. He returned to Montreal yesterday morning with a number of buckshot in various parts of his body, but no serious wounds.

Mr. Lytle is superintendent of the Orford Mountain Railway, Tuesday afternoon he started out in a rig with a foreman to pay the men, having $17,000 with them.

Stopped by Italian Bandits.

On a quiet stretch of road between Kingsbury and Windsor Mills he was suddenly stopped by Italians with shot guns who demanded his money. One of the Italians shot the horse. Mr. Lytle figured that he had only one gun to face them and seizing the satchel of money made for the bush. The robbers fired and riddled the satchel with shot, slightly wounding Mr. Lytle, who fell, but jumped up and ran on. Three times more the highwaymen fired after Mr. Lytle, each time planting a few buckshot in his body, but failed to disable him.

Navvies Heard Shots.

By this time Italian laborers heard the shooting, and the two miscreants made off, having failed in their object. Mr. Lytle was taken to Sherbrooke and his wounds dressed, and he then came on to Montreal to have the shot extracted. It was only by good luck and bad shooting that he escaped with his life. One Italian has already been arrested, and it is expected that the other two will soon be caught.

An Italian foreman, who accompanied Lytle, was also shot in the leg, arm and side.

What They Overlooked.

They carried $17,000 in all, but $10,000 was in the bottom of the wagon, which the robbers overlooked, when the officials made off with the grip which contained $7,030 notes.

Mr. Lytle was brought into Montreal at noon yesterday and taken to the hospital. His wounds are serious, but it is not thought they will prove fatal. He was too weak on arriving to give any account of the affair.

BOMB'S GREAT FORCE WAS FELT

M. POBIEDONOSTSEFF ALSO

Man Tried to Shoot Procurator-General of Holy Synod With a Revolver, But Was Prevented in Time—Zemstvo Defy Police Who Try to Break Up Their Meeting.

Helsingfors, Finland, July 20.—Late yesterday afternoon an attempt was made to assassinate Vice-Governor Deutrich as he was leaving the Senate. The Vice-Governor had walked across the square, when suddenly, as he neared the police master's office, a man on the curb threw a bomb from a distance of 50 paces. The bomb fell short, but the Vice-Governor was blown off his feet by the terrific force of the explosion, which shattered the windows in the neighborhood for a distance of hundreds of yards. Vice-Govenor Deutrich was hastily assisted to the police station. He was burned and otherwise injured about the legs and bled profusely, but his wounds are declared to be not fatal. The bomb-thrower was pursued by naval cadets, but escaped.

Attempt on Procurator General.

St. Petersburg, July 20.—A circumstantial report of an attempt on the life of Constantine Petrovich Pobiedonostseff, chief procurator of the Holy Synod, was current in St. Petersburg last night, but the Associated Press is unable to obtain confirmation of it. The authorities and even the police at the Tsarskoe-Selo Railway Station here, where the attempt is reported to have been made, disclaim al knowledge of apy such happening. According to the report, as M. Pobiedonostseff stepped from one of the coaches on the train from Tsarskoe-Selo, a man about 28 years old, rushed up with a revolver in his hand, but he was seized before he could shoot.

Zemstvo Defies Police.

M. Folovine, president of the organizing committee, had barely started a statement dealing with the obstacles placed in the way of the congress, announcing that Governor-General Kosloff had promised that there would be no recourse to extreme measures, when the chief of police with numerous commissaries and officials entered the room. The chief announced that the prefect had prohibited the meeting of the congress and ordered the seizure of the documents. Count Heyden protested against the proceedings, but the chief of police began taking the names of the delegates. Then cries were raised of: "Write down the whole of Russia." Many persons present who were not delegates to the congress requested that their names also be taken. The police then departed in order to draw up summonses and the sitting was resumed.

Bouligin Scheme Inadequate.

The sitting was resumed, and the scheme of a national assembly on the basis outlined by the commission presided over by M. Bouligin, Minister of the Interior, was minutely and critically discussed and denounced as totally anadequate to remove Russian internal grievances.

Numerous resolutions embodying the foregoing criticisms were adopted unanimously, as were also resolutions complaining of excessive administrative and police control of elections, and insisting that publicity be given to the proceedings of the proposed assembly, which should be in direct relations with the Emperor, without interference from the council of empire.

Vladivostock is Besieged.

Tokio, July 20.—Sensational news is expected generally in consequence of a report that started Tuesday night as a rumor and gained weight steadily to the point of semi-official confirmation, the report being that the fall of Vladivostock was in sight and that a siege of that city had been begun by a new Japanese army. The war office this morning was non-committal as to the rumor, but it was commented on widely that the authorities did not deem it proper to utter a denial.

M. Witte's Departure.

St. Petersburg, July 20.—M. Witte's departure for Paris on the Northern Express yesterday, while a very democratic affair, nevertheless was the occasion for a remarkable demonstration in his honor. The compartment occupied by Russia's chief plenipotentiary was filled with flowers and the platform of the station was crowded with friends who bade him farewell and good luck in the great mission before him. The whole affair was a testimonial of the strength of M. Witte's personal following. Mme. Witte accompanied her husband.

SHELL TORPEDO DESTROYERS.

Russians Attack Japs, But Were Forced to Retire Under Fire.

Tokio, July 20.—Vice-Admiral Kamimura reports that his flotilla of torpedo destroyers was shelled by the Russians at Yukiwan, the attacking force numbering about 200. The flotilla replied and silenced the Russians, after which cavalry was discovered retiring and was shelled.

The flotilla also discovered a Russian cavalry patrol at Sunshin and turned its fire upon them. The cruiser Chihaya shelled the Russian guard and signal men posted on a hill north of Geka, in the western extremity of Lashinpao, in north-eastern Corea.

Typhoons in Japan.

New York, July 20.—Typhoons in Japan have caused serious damage to telegraph and cable lines, according to a despatch received by the Commercial Cable Co.

Baron Komura in America.

Seattle, Wash., July 20.—The steamer Minnesota, with Baron Komura on board, passed Tatoosh Island at 5 p. m. She will arrive at Port Townsend about 11 o'clock, and probably remained there last night.

Hon. Sydney Fisher Writes.

London, July 20.—(C.A.P.)—Hon. Sydney Fisher has written Patrick L. Gray, secretary of the Edinburgh branch association for the removal of the cattle restrictions, expressing the hope that the Liberal party may see its way to remove the embargo which the Conservatives officially refuse to do.

THE air in an ordinary oven is stagnant. It becomes saturated with the odors of the different dishes cooking—the strongest odor impregnates all. That is why you sometimes get pie with a flavor of onions and roast beef with a taste of fish.

is constantly changing. Fresh air is drawn in from outside the range by our patent oven flue, superheated and forced into the top of the oven. It circulates throughout the oven, keeping every corner at a steady, even temperature. The air is then drawn off through the oven ventilators carrying with it the fumes of the cooking dishes.

The Imperial Oxford Range cooks your food with pure, fresh, dry heat. Would you like to see this range? Call at your dealers. If he can't show you the Imperial Oxford, write to us and we'll send you full particulars and tell you where you can see it. 17

No furnace drudgery in the House

The most exasperating mystery a man can have is a cranky furnace. The dirt and soot, the ash sifting and draft worry of many heaters, make life a burden. With the new "Bison" hot water heater, there are no worries. Its drafts are so simple a child can understand them, the shaking down apparatus is operated with the slightest effort, shaking down and sifting in one operation. It is a clean, simple, economical heater, perfectly safe, as it burns its own gas no matter how the drafts are set. Write to H. R. SPORT NOTES.

Oshawa proved to be an easier proposition for the local team yesterday than the latter had anticipated. A score of 12—1 for a lacrosse game is not usual, and it indicates either one of two things—the good playing of the winners, or the very poor playing of the losers. In this case, and without being unduly self-laudatory, it is perhaps [illegible] going beyond the limits of t[illegible] to say that the result was [illegible] more to the former of the two alternatives, than to the latter. The team which represents Oshawa this year on the lacrosse field is not a weak team by any means. There are in that town some men who know a lacrosse player when they see him, and it is not to be supposed that such men as Fred Ellis, than whom perhaps there is not a better informed lacrosse man in the Dominion, and those associated with him, would go to the trouble of getting a team together which had not some considerable degree of efficiency. There are men on the field who have caught, and held, places on senior C.L.A. teams before now, and know the game, and associated with them are others who are counted pretty good men by their supporters.

The result of the game yesterday therefore was not due to the fact that the team opposing the locals were incompetents, but, it must be admitted, that it was due, rather, to the excellent playing of the home team. It is, perhaps, not saying more than those who have had the management of the team in charge, believe, to say that the team which is wearing the Peterborough colours this year on the lacrosse field, is by far the best that the town has had in a number of years. This has been accomplished by a union of the lacrosse players of the town, a most creditable action, and one which will perhaps do more than anything which has been done in a long time, to build up the game in Peterborough. That they have practically won the district is now a foregone conclusion, but their achievements will not, it is hoped, stop at that. With this district won they will now have to go on, and win greater honours.

Lawn bowling has taken a hold upon the sport loving element of the city, which perhaps has not been equalled by any other game, with the possible exception of curling, which game it very much resembles, and the Brookside Lawn every evening is sought by a great many of the city's business men, where they find a pleasing relaxation from the business worries of the day, and enjoy a quiet—and sometimes not so quiet, either—game of bowling. The lawn this year is more popular than it has ever been before, due doubtless to its central location, and the fact that anyone who goes there is sure to enjoy the time they spend.

It's up to the baseball team now to do to Bowmanville what the lacrosse team did yesterday to Oshawa, only, for goodness sake, don't beat them quite so badly. There is not much danger, however, that the contest on Saturday will be of the one sided character that the game yesterday was. The team that defeats the Bowmanville baseball nine will have to play good ball, as four of the teams which have been up against them, to their sorrow, this season know. It can be done, however, and that the Peterborough team is capable of the act, is a fact that few will deny. With the local team playing their best, the game on Saturday should be one of the greatest contests of the year.

Next Monday night the first of the home and home games to decide the championship of the Guild League, will be played, between St. Andrew's and Charlotte street teams, and this series promises to be very interesting, as it will decide whether the Examiner trophy trophy, emblematic of the League leadership, will remain with Charlotte street another year, or travel to the Guild room of St. Andrew's. Both teams have had a good record in their respective district series, Charlotte street having had a perfect average and winning all their games, while St. Andrew's have only suffered one defeat, and that at the hands of the George street team. It is a little early to forecast the results of the series of final games, but it is generally conceded that the Charlotte street team has a slightly better chance, but the Presbyterians may surprise those who hold that opinion, and in any event the team that wins will have no easy victory. Both aggregations are determined to fight it out to the last, and the games will be well worth watching.

GREAT TRIUMPH FOR MARCONI

A Few of the Many Uses to Which Wireless May Be Put.

Practically Unlimited Scope of the Discovery of Marconi.

New York, July 20, 1905.—The Marconi Company is just in receipt of a fund of data gathered from experiments and the daily operation of the Marconi system during the Russo-Japanese War. With this material in hand, the scope of the Marconi system is found to be increased a hundred fold.

It has been found practicable to fire cannon and submarine torpedoes by wireless and to give all manner of signals by day as well as at night.

Automatic machine guns can be placed in exposed positions covering the enemy's advance and can be fired by operators at a sheltered point a mile or two away. Working on the same principle, all the guns of a fleet can be under the control of the commanding Admiral. The guns are loaded and aimed by the gun crew and then the attuning wireless apparatus is set and the gun discharged at the will of the captain on board the vessel or the higher officer on the flag ship. On the same principle, torpedoes can be fired at any time after being launched so that their effectiveness is vastly increased.

The signalling possibilities are adaptable to railroads and can supply a far more perfect and safe system than anything now in use. An accident to a train supplied with wireless equipment can be announced to all approaching trains in both directions, and to distances upwards of one hundred miles with the smallest instrument. Complete details can be instantly forwarded to the proper officials and all unnecessary delay eliminated in connection with providing the proper wrecking apparatus and the disposition of trains held up by the wreck.

The greatest importance to the Marconi system is the fact that all these new fields of usefulness are open to the Marconi apparatus as it is now constructed. In the Russian and Japanese operations alone, the output of the Marconi manufacturing plants could be consumed and then the demand would not be supplied.

These new applications of wireless are convincing evidence that its founders and early supporters were fully justified in claiming that "it could do anything which the telephone or telegraph could do and lots besides."

The very interesting lectures which are now being given nightly at Y. M.C.A. Hall are well worth attending. They give an insight into the remarkable apparatus and its workings and convince the close thinker that the wonderful record of scientific and commercial success attained by the telegraph, telephone and cable are to be distanced by this latest product of an inventor's brain.

NEAT APPEARANCE OF THE SHELTER

Many Improvements During the Past Several Years.

Much favourable comment has been occasioned by the trim, neat appearance of the Children's Aid Shelter, corner of Charlotte and Stewart streets. This reflects great credit upon the officer in charge, Mr. William Henry, who, since he assumed control, five years ago, has worked a wonderful improvement, both in the interests of the building and in the surrounding grounds.

The latter are in a particularly neat condition, and in place of the unkempt masses of weeds which formerly existed, is now a garden in a splendid state of cultivation. The lawn has also been greatly improved by levelling and sodding.

Many improvements have been made to the interior, and many former defects have been removed.

IN MEMORIAM.

Lines written on the death of Frederick Dalton, of Dummer, who died of pneumonia in an hospital in Minnesota, February, 1905.

In memory of our friend we mourn,
Though o'er his grave we shed no tear,
For in a distant land he died,
And strangers gathered round his bier.

His mother waited his return
With anxious ears and heavy heart,
For she had coaxed him not to go,
It was so hard with him to part.

He was her comfort and her stay,
His the bright face that lit up home,
His pleasant smile that told within
A genial heart and noble soul.

Though letters often home he wrote,
To cheer the ones he loved so well,
Yet he was anxious to pursue

Not long to stay, for dire disease
His strong, stout form could not withstand;
Pneumonia marked him for her own,
And laid on him a dull, cold hand.

His sisters scanned each passing sleigh
In hopes to see, at last,
His manly form as was his wont
Come bounding up the garden path.

But no, thy forms will never meet
His clasped embrace again;
You'll never hear him speak on earth
In either joy or pain.

Word came, that he the loved of all,
His father's hope, his mother's pride,
Attended there by comrade true,
In an hospital had died.

Though he has left this world of care,
And sought a fairer land;
Shall we not know him when we meet
Upon that distant strand?

We think of him at morning time,
At noontide's sunny hour,
We think of him when twilight falls
With its soft and soothing power.

Though now in Paradise he roams,
'Mid pastures green and faces fair,
Yet on the altar of our hearts
His name is written there.

DEATH OCCURRED IN MANVERS TOWNSHIP

Mrs. John E. McGill Passes Away at Age of 36.

After an illness of about one years duration the death occurred on Sunday, July 16th, of one of the most highly esteemed residents of Manvers township, in the person of Sarah Shea, wife of John E. McGill, 14th concession. Though the late Mrs. McGill had been throughout the past year a patient sufferer from a pulmonary affection, she appeared, during the past few weeks, to be in improved health, and the end came somewhat unexpectedly, in consequence of a hemorrhage of the lungs.

The deceased, who was 36 years of age, was born in the Township of Manvers, where she was married years ago to Mr. McGill. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shea, both of whom survive her.

The late Mrs. McGill leaves behind to mourn her loss, besides her husband, three children, Greta, Harvey and Harold, aged eight, five and two years respectively. Surviving her are also three brothers and three sisters.

The funeral took place on Tuesday, July 18th, to St. Mary's Cemetery, Manvers, services being conducted at her late residence by Rev. Dr. Marvin, of Bethany. A large number of sorrowing friends and sympathizers with the family accompanied the remains to the graveside.

GOOD CROPS IN VICTORIA

Increased Yield of Wheat Looked For—May Crop Good.

Mr. J. A. Aiken, the special correspondent of the Toronto Globe, who has been making a trip through Ontario, reporting on the condition of the crops, writing from Lindsay, says:

Victoria county crops are the best all round for years. That is the word from all parts of the county, and is specially true of the Lindsay district. This is, however, a county of good land and steady crops. There has not been anything like a failure in many years. A larger acreage is given this year to fall wheat than usual. It wintered safely and is likely to yield heavily according to appearances now. There is some talk of rust but no sufficient proof. In 1903 only about 150,000 bushels of fall wheat were harvested. But there were 289,000 bushels of spring wheat. This year it is believed that ten acres in the hundred are in fall wheat, and a greatly increased yield is looked for.

Barley never looked better. It is splendid and there is lots of it. The county productions regularly run over the half million line. There are those who say that the weight of grain will be light this year. The evidence of that is not yet conclusive. Oats in Victoria are not up to the standard of other grains. They are short and uneven, and late. With favourable weather they may turn out a good crop, but nothing great is hoped for.

Getting in the Hay.

The farmers are cutting the hay and getting it in this week. The weather since Friday has been entirely favourable. The sample of hay is not good, having been badly discoloured by the rain when it was cut. But little hay is shipped from here for town or city consumption and as feed for cattle its value has been in no way impaired. Clover is an abundant growth and the second crop is not coming on well. The roots of all kinds are likely to do well, according to present indications. That is true also of corn and peas in the limited extent to which they are planted. Apples are not grown in large quantities in Victoria. The crop is likely to be under the average.

Fatal Collision.

A collision between construction trains occurred near Frank, Alta., seven miles west of Cowley. Engineer Brown was killed, being buried under his engine. An inquest will be held at Cowley.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT TO MRS. (MAJOR) BIRDSALL

The Result of a Runaway Accident—Vehicle Overturned and the Lady Thrown Violently to the Hard Highway—Concussion of the Brain Produced.

Special to the Examiner

Keene, July 18th: — Last evening Mrs. R. E. (Major) Birdsall, of Birdsall's, Asphodal, met with a sad, and possibly, very serious accident. Accompanied by her guest, Miss Hurst, of Chicago, she had been to the post office at Birdsall's. On leaving the post office, the Shetland pony she was driving, in going down the hill broke into a run, and too sharply turning the corner leading homeward, the cart was overturned and with such violence that Mrs. Birdsall was thrown out, quite over the head of her companion, and alighted, or rather was thrown, upon the hard surface of the highway. The lady was taken up unconscious, and conveyed to the residence of the postmaster, Mr. Davidson, where it was found that she had sustained injuries to the left side of the face and head, the left shoulder and elbow, and the left ankle. The injury of the head, was, however, most serious, as Mrs. Birdsall was quite unconscious for hours. During the night she was removed home, and at this writing (Wednesday night, twenty-four hours after the accident), she is only partially conscious. In the absence of Dr. Harrison of Keene — the family physician — Dr. Redmond of Westwood, gave the professional attention the case demanded. Dr. Harrison is now in charge of the case, assisted by Miss Walsh, trained nurse. The nature of Mrs. Birdsall's injuries, is largely analagous to, though, at first sight, less serious, than those sustained a year ago, by Mr. William Graham, of Otonabee, who, however, made a perfect recovery under the same care that Mrs. Birdsall is now receiving.

STORM PREVENTED PARTY'S RETURN

Party of Two Ladies and one Gentleman Could not Return Because of Storm on the Lake.

Great excitement was occasioned last night at Stony Lake, when three of the guests at "Glenwood," Mrs. Breeze's boarding house, who left the island in the afternoon, failed to return, causing great fears to be entertained as to their safety.

The party, which consisted of Mr. Levy, manager of the Sohe Gas Co., of Toronto, and two ladies, left "Glenwood," early in the afternoon, with the intention of visiting Mount Julian and McCracken's. Both points were called at, and after supper at the latter place, the party started back, but were forced to return by reason of the high wind and waves, and stayed at the hotel all night.

The remainder of the party, which included a sister of one of the ladies, and the guests at "Glenwood," were in the meantime in a state of great anxiety, which continued throughout the night as, owing to the high sea which was rolling, communication was cut off.

A boat was despatched this morning to search for the missing party, and much relief was occasioned when they were met upon their journey back from McCracken's.

PLACING 1000 BASS IN LAKE

Mr. Cochrane Superintending Destribution of the Fish.

To-day 1,000 Lake Erie bass are being placed in Stony Lake by the Fisheries Department of the Ontario Government. These fish were shipped to Lakefield after having been caught in Lake Erie in Seine nets, and the steamer Empire with scow has been placed at the disposal of those in charge of the shipment, for the distribution of the fish through the different parts of the Lake.

Mr. Geo. Cochrane, who is one of the best informed men on the lake on the habits of fish, is directing the placing of the fish in the waters, and it is expected that with this addition to the supply of bass, the fishing in the future will be considerably improved.

EVELAND DORMER FRACTURES HIS LEG

Last evening while a ball game was in progress between St. Andrew's Guild team, and a south end team, Mr. Eveland Dormer, the popular second baseman of St. Andrew's, had the misfortune to break his right leg.

Mr. Dormer was running into 3rd, and threw himself forward to beat out a throw, but his spikes held him and the jerk snapped the bone sideways between the knee and the ankle. So sharp was the snap that it could be heard all over the diamond.

Mr. Dormer when seen to-day says the break is not troubling him much and he expects to be soon around again.

Apples are likely to be a comparatively short crop in the Belleville District, so buyers are already making contracts at $1.50 per barrel and also contracting for orchards.

Died from Burns.

The death occurred yesterday, of the three year old daughter of Mr. Affleck, of Dutton, as a result of burns received on Friday of last week, when in some way she secured possession of some matches, which she ignited, setting fire to her clothing.

Twelve Years for Throwing Vitrol.

For throwing vitrol over Louisa Pottle, who lost an eye and was much disfigured, at Portsmouth in April, 1903, Archibald James Robert Hardy was sentenced at Hants, Eng., assizes to twelve years' penal servitude. Six months' imprisonment without hard labour was passed upon a woman who threw vitrol over a sergeant at Aldershot.

Hard on Toronto.

Ald. John Edmondson, of Chatham, has returned home from a visit to Toronto. Speaking of Toronto's ground beauties he remarked: "I tell you they are not in it with the Chatham girls. You can take a walk down King street at five o'clock in the afternoon and see more pretty girls than you would see in Toronto in a week."

Alfred Hall Acquitted.

Alfred Hall, the Toronto solicitor, who was recently before the magistrate on a charge of appropriating the proceeds of a draft for 150 pounds, belonging to a young Englishman named Briggs, has been acquitted. Hall was re-arrested on a charge of defrauding Sylvester Faulkner, of Vancouver, of $75, by means of a worthless cheque.

Earthquakes in New England.

Recent earth tremors in Northern New England prove to have been the most widespread and noticeable for many years, especially at Old Orchard and Saco, where the rumbling sounded like distant thunder. It is suggested the shocks may have been caused by the slipping of rock masses on the side of a fissure which had been subjected to long-continued strain. These dislocation quakes are sometimes the most destructive of all seismic convulsions.

ENJOYABLE DAY AT RICE LAKE

Miss Mercier's Annual Excursion a Success.

A Large Party Enjoy Miss Mercier's Hospitality—A Pleasant Day Was Spent.

Yesterday the weather was all that could be wished to have a pleasant day's outing, and a party of about sixty young men and women enjoyed Miss Mercier's annual excursion.

Here dinner was served and a pleasant afternoon spent in dancing, sailing and swinging.

At 5 o'clock the boat set sail across the lake, staying at Jubilee long enough to allow her passengers to have tea and enjoy a walk around the island.

On the return trip the boat touched at all the stopping places along the route, and reached the wharf at 9.30.

The party had spent an enjoyable day and were profuse in their thanks to their kind hostess, who had provided for the outing.

LIBERALS SPRANG A SNAP VOTE

Government Goes Down Before John Redmond's Motion---Premier is Undisturbed ---Motion May be Re-Introduced by the Government to Obtain a Clear View of the Standing of the Ministry in the House ---Aliens Bill Passed---England is Still Refuge for Political Offenders.

London, July 21.—(C. A. P.)—At 12.15 this morning the Government was defeated by 119 votes to 96 on a snap division taken on a proposal made by John Redmond, Nationalist leader, to reduce the Irish land commission vote by one hundred pounds.

A remarkable scene of excitement occurred when it was known that the Government had been defeated. Nationalists and Liberals rose to their feet and waved hats and handkerchiefs, semaphored with arms and cheered until the glass and ceiling of the House rang again and again. It was some minutes before Sir Thomas Esmonds could announce the numbers, when the cheers were repeated again and again with the utmost enthusiasm.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman rose immediately to his feet and asked Premier Balfour whether he had any statement to make, who, coolly, with a smile, replied he had not at present.

This brought up Mr. Redmond, who, in a fiery speech, amid vociferous opposition applause, pointed out that the defeat followed immediately on the meeting of the Unionist party.

Mr. Balfour, rising again, declared that unless it was possible for the Government to carry on the business of the country and the House with dignity, it would not attempt to carry it on at all. He suggested it might be the duty, in the matter of the vote, to ask the House for a reversal of the decision just come to, but he could not say definitely, and would consult his colleagues, and give an answer on Monday.

Mr. Redmond, backed by Right Hon. H. Asquith and Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, unsuccessfully endeavored to get the Government to agree to an adjournment till Monday. The Unionist members attribute the defeat to the laxity of the Government supporters, and say there was no cross voting.

The general opinion is the Government will not resign, but reintroduce the motion.

Aliens Bill Passed.

London, July 21.—In the House of Commons the aliens bill passed its third reading by a majority of 90. Premier Balfour, in winding up the debate on the bill, contended that the proposed restrictions were less severe than those proposed by any other nation.

The aliens bill is much on the lines of a measure introduced in the House of Commons last year, which was dropped by the Government owing to obstruction. It prohibits immigrants from landing except at ports where an immigration officer is stationed, and only with his consent and after a medical examination. Permission to land may be refused if immigrants are unable to show that they are in a position to obtain means to keep themselves decently, if insane, if on account of disease or other causes they are likely to to become a charge on the taxpayers, if they have been sentenced abroad for an extraditable crime not of a political nature, or if they have been previously expelled from Great Britain.

The Home Secretary may order the expulsion of an alien on a certificate from a court of law. The bill, however, provides that permission to land shall not be refused on account of want of means if the immigrant is able to prove that he or she is seeking admission to Great Britain solely to avoid persecution for political offences.

BRITAIN AND CANADA.

Premier Balfour Says Immigration Policy Belongs to the Dominion.

London, July 21.—(C. A. P.)—In the House of Commons yesterday Leif Jones, M. P for Durham, put another question to the Government as to the alleged arrangements between the Canadian Government and the North Atlantic Trading Co. about alien immigration to Canada.

Immediately after the question, and before Mr. Balfour could reply, C. R. Devlin said: "I would like to ask if the subject matter of this question is not one of Canadian domestic policy and interest exclusively.

"What right have we to interfere with the Canadian Government in their methods of importing alien immigrants into Canada? This very subject has been one of dispute and contention between the two political parties in Canada. The course pursued in relation to this matter by the Canadian Government has already been approved by an overwhelming majority in the Canadian House of Commons."

Mr. Balfour thanked Devlin for his interjection, and said it explained exactly the views of the Government. He thought the House of Commons had quite enough of business to attend to without taking part in Canadian politics. Mr. Balfour's remarks were received with great cheering.

SHARPER WORKS IN PORT HOPE

Passed Bogus Cheque Yesterday on a Merchant.

Toronto Youth Who Tried to Work Off Forged Cheque.

(Port Hope Guide.)

There was a slick gentleman in town this morning working that old fake, and notwithstanding its age and the different warnings from the press, some person is always ready to bite.

The artist this morning set to work early. He called at Budge's shortly after the store was opened and asked for a white vest. He soon selected one and offered in payment a check for $12, on the Tradrs' Bank, but the suggestion of Mr. Budge to leave the vest and the check in the store until the bank opened, did not meet with his approval, and he made a hasty departure. He then called upon Mr. John Steen, and after a short conversation asked to be shown some cameras. An eight dollar one seemed to be his fancy and he told Mr. Steen to wrap it up. He apologized for having nothing but a check, but if Mr. Steen would accept it he would do him a great favour. He handed it over and it was made payable to "Cash or Bearer," and endorsed by Fred E. Scott. Mr. Steen accepted the check and gave him the camera and $4 in change.

The purchaser had scarcely reached Cavan street before Mr. Steen became suspicious of the check, but the banks not being open, he could do nothing. Luckily he got Mr. A. Linton, Accountant of The Traders Bank by 'phone, and it was discovered that Fred E. Scott had no account in The Traders' Bank.

Business was at once suspended and Mr. Steen was in search of the defrauder. Chief Bond happened along at the opportune time and after learning the facts of the case, started on the warpath. It was rumoured that the gent. was last seen about the station and the Chief turned his attention in this direction. He could see a figure in the distance travelling westward from the station. The chief hurried through the Golf Links thinking to head him off, but he had too much of a start and when the chief struck the track again he was about half a mile in the rear. On reaching the Lake shore crossing the offender disappeared through a field to the south, but the chief was close after him. After going over a couple of fences, he came across his man seated in a field with his camera.

He was taken in charge and lodged in jail, where he was afterwards identified by Mr. Steen.

He is about 22 years of age, 5 feet 7 ins. in height and fairly well dressed. He states that he resides on Spadina avenue Toronto, but refuses to give the number of the residence.

TWO OPEN LETTERS

IMPORTANT TO MARRIED WOMEN

Mrs. Mary Dimmick of Washington tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well.

It is with great pleasure we publish the following letters, as they convincingly prove the claim we have so many times made in our columns that Mrs.

Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., is fully qualified to give helpful advice to sick women. Read Mrs. Dimmick's letters.

Her first letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I have been a sufferer for the past eight years with a trouble which first originated from painful menstruation—the pains were excruciating, with inflammation and ulceration of the womb. The doctor says I must have an operation or I cannot live. I do not want to submit to an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please help me."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, Washington, D. C.

Her second letter;

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"You will remember my condition when I last wrote you, and that the doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I received your kind letter and followed your advice very carefully and am now entirely well. As my case was so serious it seems a miracle that I am cured. I know that I owe not only my health but my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to your advice. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I wish every suffering woman would read this letter and realize what you can do for them."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 59th and East Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.

How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little it cost her—a two-cent stamp. Yet how valuable was the reply! As Mrs. Dimmick says—it saved her life.

Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of just such letters as the above, and offers ailing women helpful advice.

THE Oxford Hot Water Boiler takes advantage of every known scientific point which will increase the generation and distribution of heat.

We have increased its power enormously by making the walls of the fire pot slant inwards above the fire. This gives a greater surface for the direct action of the rays of heat.

Oxford Hot Water Boiler

The first water section over the fire is double depth, with bell-shaped flues, which also increases the surface directly displayed to the action of the heat.

These are but two of the exclusive points which make the Oxford Hot Water Boiler the most economical and most efficient home-warming apparatus on the market. If you will drop us a postcard, we will send you our catalogue, which explains the whole system.

DAYS OF MILKING MAID ARE PAST

At Least They Will be When Milking Machines Are Adopted.

Mr. G. A. Gillespie Tells of the New Machine and its Operation.

Mr. Geo. A. Gillespie, of the firm of White and Gillespie, has for years taken a deep industry in the dairy industry, and it should not be surprising, therefore, to learn that the question of a milking machine should be one in which he should be interested. At the present time there are two of these machines in Ontario. Mr. Reuben Davis, of Spring Valley, Ont., a well-known dairy farmer of the Brockville district, has been using a milking machine for over a year. Another machine has been in use for some time on the dairy farm of Mr. F. W. Hodson, Canadian live stock commissioner, at Myrtle, Ont., and has given excellent satisfaction. It is stated that they have proved so satisfactory that it is believed it will only be a short time until they will be in general use.

Mr. Gillespie recently visited the farm of Mr. Hodson, at Myrtle, and there saw the machine in operation, and he was greatly pleased with it. Speaking to the Examiner in reference to it, he said:

"This herd had been milked by these machines regularly every day since May, 1904. One thing I noticed particularly was that the cows apparently enjoyed the operation. They stood chewing their cuds, and not one of them made an excited motion while being milked. To see how the the teat cups worked, I placed one of them over my thumnb. The suction was the nearest imitation of the sensation of a calf sucking my fingers I have ever experienced. The pulsation of the machine was exactly similar. As far as I could see, there is no danger of this machine injuring the cows' teats, even should the teat cups remain on for some time after the cow has been milked. I asked the manager if any of the cows had been injured by the use of the machine and he said that no trouble from this source has been experienced.

"The machines were run by a gasoline engine. This engine could, if necessary, operate many more milkers. In the case of a large herd, by using more of the milkers, It would be possible to milk a large number of cows at the same time. As near as I could figure it, the use of these two machines saved the labour of two men in milking, both morning and night. One man practically milked four cows at the same time.

"Near the end of each of the rubber tubes, running from the cows' teats to the pail, there is a piece of glass. As soon as the milk stops running over this glass, the man in charge sees that the cow is milked and simply detaches the teat cup.

Milk Kept Clean.

"The point that struck me the most forcibly was the condition in which the milk was delivered in the pail. Before starting to milk, the man, who was in charge of the machine, carefully wiped the udders and teats of the cows. The teat cups were then attached. The milk ran through the rubber tubes to a covered pail placed between the cows, and therefore reached the pail perfectly clean, being free from dirt of any kind. The milk pail has to be perfectly air tight or the machine could not be operated. This insures the milk being perfectly free from dirt. Dairymen will recognize what a great advantage this is.

"Is there not danger," asked the Examiner, "that these machines will become dirty and thus injure the milk?" "Yes," replied Mr. Gillespie, "there is, but this danger is no greater than that we now experience keeping the cans and milk pails properly clean. It will, of course, be absolutely necessary to see that the rubber tubes are kept perfectly clean. I asked the man in charge of the machines, if it would not be necessary to see that the rubber tubes were cleaned with very hot water. He replied that they had invented a rubber which would stand boiling. It is possible to pump this boiling water through the tubes, thus cleansing them thoroughly. I believe it will be necessary to clean these tubes after each milking, if the milk is to be kept perfectly clean.

"As far as I could see the machine was working perfectly. They told me that there was no more trouble getting the cows accustomed to the machine than is found in accustoming a young animal to milking. After I had left the stables with the manager, I slipped back that I might ask the hired man, who had been operating the machines, how he liked them and if he would prefer to use them to milking by hand. He said that if he had the money he would rather pay $500 than go back to the old system of milking by hand.

"I understand the only reason the machines have not been placed on the market before this is because the company is waiting to perfect one or two of its features with which they are not quite satisfied. The fact that it has been in operation for a year indicates that it is a perfectly practical invention and that before long many of our farmers will milk their herds with machines of this or of some similar make."

AN OUTLET PROVIDED FOR BRITAIN'S POPULATION

Rider Haggard Recommends That the Plan Adopted by the Salvation Army, With Some Modifications, be Carried Out—His Report Published by Government in Blue Book—Ten Townships Will be Given by the Canadian Government.

The British Government has published as a blue book the official report made by Mr. Rider Haggard on the Salvation Army colonies in the United States and at Hadleigh in England, and on the possibility of the successful working of a general scheme of national land settlement.

The Examiner's readers will remember that this paper referred to the visit of Mr. Haggard to this country last spring; and an interest was then awakened in his ideas of land settlement which the fuller information conveyed in his report cannot fail to strengthen. It will be remembered that it was at the request of the Colonial Secretary, the Right Hon. Mr. Lyttleton, that Mr. Haggard undertook to enquire into the settlement work done by the Salvation Army. If that work had been successful it might point the way to a solution of a question of the very first magnitude and importance, namely, the right disposal of the surplus population of the towns and cities of the United Kingdom. The statement which Mr. Haggard, after very careful investigation, feels justified in making is that, while from a financial point of view, one or two mistakes may have been made in connection with the settlements at Fort Romie, California; Fort Amity, Colorado, and Fort Herrick, Ohio, these experiments have on the whole been eminently successful, and prove that indigent persons, not only of the agricultural class, but also inhabitants of towns of no previous agricultural experience, can be placed on land and there do well provided the necessary assistance and guidance are for a time afforded. He is strongly convinced that, if settlement is hereafter to be attempted on a large scale, it should take the form of a strictly business proposition; that is to say that the basis of operations should be a loan to be repaid in course of time by the beneficiaries. He refers to the New Zealand "Advances to Settlers' Act," under which, between 1895, when it went into effect, and the 31st March, 1904, advances amounting to £4,009,250 had been made, these being covered at the latter date by securities valued at £8,704,840—nearly $44,000,000.

The scheme which Mr. Haggard outlines is a vast one, but every well-wisher of the British Empire must hope that it will prove realizable. He looks to interest in it, the British Government, and great philanthropic agencies, colonial governments, and philanthropic agencies, of which the Salvation Army is the most conspicuous type. His suggestions, briefly stated, are:

That the interest of a loan or loans, the amount to be determined hereafter, should be guaranteed by the Imperial Government, or by the Imperial and certain Colonial Governments jointly, if that could be arranged.

That the Poor Law authorities in the large cities of Great Britain should be asked to consider the question of making a contribution for every family taken off the local rates.

That a permanent officer should be appointed by the Imperial Government to supervise the work of settlement on its behalf.

That the Salvation Army, or any other well-established and approved social, charitable or religious organization, should be deputed to carry out the work of selecting, distributing and organizing the settlers on land colonies anywhere within the bounds of the British Empire, and should remain in charge of such organization until all liabilities are paid.

That a title to land should only be given on payment of these liabilities, the interest, (including one per cent. for sinking fund,) being six per cent. of which three per cent. would be for payment of current interest on loan and two per cent. for expenses of management, etc.

That if these suggestions are approved, an act should be passed by the British Government to put them into effect, and to be designated, the "National Lands Settlement Act."

Mr. Haggard refers in terms of great satisfaction to the generous offer of the Canadian Government to set aside ten townships, or 240,000 acres of good land, to be given absolutely free for the purpose of such settlements. He speaks most appreciatively of the keen and intelligent interest taken by the recent Minister of the Interior, the Hon. Mr. Sifton, in the whole subject. The question was raised as to whether the Canadian Government would be disposed to join the Imperial in guaranteeing a loan for settlement purposes; but on this point the reply was not favourable, the Government apparently thinking it was doing enough in providing the land. Considering, however, the added value which would be given to Canadian lands by the intelligently directed efforts of the settlers under the proposed scheme, our Government might perhaps safely have gone a little further in the matter. It is well to remember that the New Zealand advances are more than doubly secured by the present value of the improved properties. However, this question may ultimately be decided, it is much to be hoped that the proposed Imperial Act will be passed, and that Canada will throw herself into the movement with sympathy and zeal. The Government does not propose to limit its grant of land to ten townships, if these are satisfactorily taken up, and more is wanted, more will be provided. Too much praise cannot be awarded to the Salvation Army for having shown the way in this matter. A working alliance between that great organization and the Government of Great Britain and Canada cannot fail to produce results of vast and far-reaching beneficence.

WILLIAM LAWSON IS INNOCENT

And He Was Honorably Discharged This Morning.

A Druuk and Disorderly Discharged—Peter Johnston Again in Trouble.

This morning William Lawson, who was suspected of making use of a sum of money, the property of his fellow boarder, Allan Maston, was honourably acquitted and freed from all suspicion of theft.

It will be remembered that yesterday Maston complained to the Magistrate that he was minus $50 which had been taken from his trunk in his boarding house in Toronto, and that through some inconsistency he suspected Lawson of the theft.

P. C. Stewart went to Lang, where Lawson is employed as a blacksmith, armed with a search warrant. Upon investigation of Lawson's property and books, the constable was convinced that the young man was innocent, but as he had orders to arrest him he was obliged to bring him to the city last evening.

The Magistrate heard the case this morning, and as the evidence was that the young man was innocent of theft and has a good character, he was honourably discharged and freed of all suspicion.

Peter Johnston, who used to punch the bag on the market square, next made his bow, and heard a charge of being disorderly in Jackson Park during the band consert on Wednesday evening. Peter saw a dance on the band stand, and as it was part of the programme, he thought he would help, and indulged in a few capers. A crowd soon gathered around and Peter was jostled, and the consert was partly interrupted.

The Magistrates said there was a time and place for everything; he liked to see the slippers fly as well as anybody, but thought that a band concert was no place for the performance.

Peter was discharged with a warning.

A SAN FRANCISCO PHYSICIAN

Uses Herpicide Successfully in Treating Sycosis of the Beard.

He says: "I recently treated a case of sycosis (similar to barber's itch) of the lower lip, with Newbro's Herpicide. There was an extensive loss of beard with inflammation extending well down on the chin. The result of the application of Herpicide was most gratifying. The loss of beard ceased and a new growth of hair is now taking place over the once inflamed area.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-west Provinces, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him.

Homestead Duties.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector.

Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

That the Baptists are making excellent progress in church work is evident from the figures as furnished by the Baptist Handbook. Not only has there been a decided increase in membership, but the number of new churches which have been established is remarkable. The Canadian Baptist has the following comment on the steady development of that congregation:—

"Once in three years only is it possible for us to have a glimpse of the growth of the Baptist church throughout the world, and this year, according to the Canadian Handbook for 1905, we are given the privilege of contemplating figures that speak of progress: — "During the last three years Baptist churches the world over increased from 58,-059 in 1901 to 71,488 in 1904, or more than 373 every month of the three years. In the same time the number of ministers increased 4,731, and the membership of the churches from 5,454,699 to 6,976,788, or a gain of over 1,522,000 in three years. This gain, however, does not show the actual increase by converts as, for the time, the Disciples of Christ are included in these figures. They number at present 1,235,798, which would leave the actual gain in Baptist membership for the three years about 95,000 per year. The Sunday School pupils in Baptist churches the world over increased from 2,586,692 in 1901 to 2,779,568 in 1904, or a gain of 192,876. It is estimated that if the adherents of Baptist churches were counted and estimated in proportion to membership we should have about 20,000,-000 people of Baptist preference throughout the world. Of this number about 18,000,000 are to be found in the United States and Canada.

ACCIDENT LEADS TO GENEROSITY

Ennismore Stage Wrecked Yesterday at Chemong.

Guests of the Hotel Quickly Made Up the Loss to Mr. Sullivan.

Yesterday, an accident, which might have been serious if not fatal, occurred at Chemong. The Ennismore stage, driven by Mr. Pat. Sullivan, was standing at the Chemong Park Hotel on its way to Peterborough. The horses were loosely tied, and upon finding that they could get away, the team made a bolt and tore down the road. One passenger, a young lady, was in the stage at the time, and it looked as if she could hardly escape uninjured. Before the team had gone far, however, the young lady jumped from the wagon and was not hurt. The team continued on its made rush down the road, when they collided with a telephone pole, breaking it off, and one horse tore itself free from the wagon, and its mate, the other, continuing with what was left of the outfit a mile further, when the wagon, with a broken axle, dropped into the ditch, and the horse stopped.

Both horses were subsequently caught, and after the harness had been gotten together, a wagon was borrowed and the trip continued to Peterborough.

The loss sustained by Mr. Sullivan will not be heavy, thanks to the generosity of the guests of the Chemong Park Hotel. A gentleman from Buffalo, who is staying at the hotel, after enquiring of the proprietor as as to the character of Mr. Sullivan and how he was getting along, pulled out a $20 bill and asked Mr. Brown to give it to the unfortunate stage driver to help him repair the damage.

Other guests added their contributions, and in a few minutes Mr. Brown had a goodly sum in hand, and it is expected that with this amount the accident will not be a serious one to Mr. Sullivan.

Meeting of Board of Works Last Night.

Agreement with Hydraulic Power Co. Completed—Bridge Will be Repaired for Foot Passengers.

A meeting of the Board of Works was held last night at the City Clerk's Office, the following members being in attendance,—Ald. Adams, chairman; Batten, Tovey, Hicks, Johnston and Mayor Best.

A communication was received from Willis Chipman with reference to the sewer in Ward Five. It was moved by Ald. Hicks, seconded by Ald. Johnston, that Willis Chipman be paid $200 on account for preparing plans for outfall sewer in Ward Five.

Moved by Ald. Johnston, seconded by Ald. Hicks, that the agreement, with additional undertaking, to purchase the 8 per cent. debentures at par for the work on lanes so far as laid out and also for similar sewer work intended, when the remainder of the Burnham Estate lots are laid out in streets or lanes to the boundary, be approved, provided the City Solicitor be satisfied with it, and provided the Solicitor reports that laying the sewers on the lanes will not make the municipality responsible for accidents on the lanes.—Carried.

The chairman reported that the agreement with Peterborough Hydraulic Power Company was completed and it was ordered that the street Commissioner repair the bridge over the old Dickson dam for foot passengers.

Moved by Ald. Batten, seconded by Ald. Hicks, that the Engineer be authorized to purchase sufficient green elm plank to repair the deck of the Brock street bridge and also enough to repair the deck of the Hunter street bridge.—Carried.

Park street, east side, Humber to Brock.

McDonel street, south side, Downie to Donegal.

Downie street, east side, McDonel to London.

Downie street, east side, Hunter to Simcoe.

Moved by Ald. Johnston, seconded by Ald. Hicks that the engineer be instructed to proceed with having stone in the yard broken, and that the Solicitor prepare contract with John Gibson, and by-law authorizing it.

Moved by Ald. Hicks, seconded by Ald. Johnston that the matter of purchasing sand necessary for granolithic sidewalk work be left with the Chairman, and paid for on certificate of Chairman.

Moved by Ald. Hicks, seconded by Ald. Batten, that if there is material on hand, that a plank sidewalk of old material be laid on the east side of Park street, from Wolfe street to Knox Church. Carried.

Moved by Ald. Batten, seconded by Ald. Johnston, that F. Bartlett be appointed inspector on construction of sewer in Ward 5 at $3 per day for each day when work is actually being done and inspector's services required, his duties to commence when notified by Engineer and Chairman of the Board of Works, and that he be paid on the certificate of the Engineer. Carried.

Moved by Ald. Hicks, seconded by Ald. Johnston, that the City Engineer be requested to have the street watering contractors and town drivers meet at his office and consider means of improving the service.

It was reported that Perry street, in front of the Cordage Co. Works, is in a dangerous condition, owing to boards being up in the sidewalk.

The Benevolent Fund.

"Prosperity of the highest kind seems to be universal, and the financial status of the lodges is a matter for congratulation," observed R. W. Bro. Aubrey White of Toronto, in his report on the condition of Masonry Wednesday. Out of a membership of 35,000 only three were suspended for un-Masonic conduct. Regret was expressed at the response to the appeal for the semi-centennial benevolent fund, satisfactory in some respects, but not more universal and large in amount. Within the last fifty years $730,111 was received and $638,000 had been expended in benevolence. There is a balance of $100,000 on hand. In addition, private lodges have contributed $25,000 to charities of various kinds, and a sum of about $200,000 to the Hospital for Sick Children. The total benevolent grants made during the year was $71,585. Of this amount $7,110 represents grants made to recipients to mark the semi-centennial of Grand Lodge.

Compressed Air Did It.

Choman Kochinski is dying at Buffalo Hospital. He was employed at the American Radiator Works, and complained of the heat, when two workmen turned the compressed air on him. It pierced his clothing, and entered his body. He toppled over helpless. The doctors found his abdomen filled with compressed air and his intestines shattered, and general peritonitis had set in. The men put him outside the plant and started him walking to his boarding house a mile distant. He was six hours walking the journey. His wife and one child are in Europe.

CONTRACT DOCTORS GET THEIR CALLS

"Fair Play" Believes in Fair Pay for all Work Done.

Sir,—The interview with a local doctor, which you have in your issue of last evening, expresses the general feeling respecting contract-doctors. The contract-doctor is merely a hack made use of by, people who themselves demand fair wages. A few "scabs," to give them their non-union name, rival each other in getting medical work at any old price, with the result that the noblest and most unselfish calling in the world is made carriers and garbagemen for people who deny to others what they claim for themselves. It is true contract-doctors soon become outcasts in the eyes of respectable men in all shades and walks of life, but in the meantime they try to make up in free advertising and boasting what they lose by contract work. Let a doctor charge what he ought to in fair open competition, and not try to save his face by begging for underpriced work. Some say that the disease works its own cure, for only the less skilful have to do it. A fair wage to all, I say, and let us show we are the equal of our friends—the Japs—who don't do such things. It must be remembered that it is through no special merit of their own that the doctors now doing such work (railway work included) have their undesirable situations, for it was refused by others before they were "offered" it.

FAIR PLAY.

At Oke's.

We are receiving fine raspberries, blue berries, and cherries. Would advise early buying, especially of cherries, as they will soon be done. S. A. OKE, 376 George street. Telephone, 18.

McAULIFFE NOW OUT ON BAIL

Many Extenuating Circumstances in Connetion With the Case.

An order for bail for Patrick McAuliffe, charged with the murder of Frederick Hudson, has been granted by Hon. Mr. Justice McGee, with the consent of the Attorney-General. The amount of bail has been fixed at the sum of $7000, in the following sureties of $1750 each: Peter McAuliffe, father of the prisoner, Leonard McAuliffe, uncle of the prisoner, Philip Crough and Eugene Maloney.

It is rather unusual that bail should be granted in a capital case, but there were so many extenuating circumstances, such as the fact that the trouble arose in a bar-room, and there was evidently no premeditation about the committal of the offence; that the deceased, Frederick Hudson, did not die until ten days after he received the wound, thus opening up a defence upon the medical treatment of the deceased; and, lastly, that the autopsy showed that the deceased was suffering from cyrosis of the liver, from Bright's Disease of the kidneys, and from a valular affection of the heart, —all of which may be relied upon by the prisoner to negative the theory of the Crown that death was caused by the wound in the head.

There was also the question of whether the blow was struck in self-defence by the prisoner, as well as the further defence that the blow was not struck at all by him, but by some person outside the hotel, to be considered.

In view of all these circumstances Mr. Justice Magee considered it a good case for bail. A large number of the friends of the prisoner volunteered to go his bail.

—A number of Belleville old boys will go to the bay city to-morrow to attend the reunion.

—The posters advertising the Peterborough Industrial Fair are now adorning the bill boards.

—Divine service will be conducted on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in the Chemong Park pavilion.

—There was a good attendance at the first meeting in the series of special services held in the Gospel Hall last night.

—The regular meeting of Court Peterborough, No. 29, C.O.F. will be held this evening in their hall, Simcoe street, at 8 o'clock.

—There is a decided decrease in the death rate lately, and the doctors are increasing their rates. Putting one and one together, what does that make?

—The Lakefield House, Lakefield, has been purchased by Messrs. J. A. Lawless and F. Spellman from Mr. Jas. Allen, formerly proprietor of the C. P. R. Hotel here.

—We clean, press and do minor repairs to your wardrobe for a trifling fee. Telephone 575, and we will send for and deliver your parcels. "My Valet," George street.

—The Examiner was in error in stating yesterday that Mr. J. H. Burkett, who was elected Grand Master of the A.F. and A.M., was an uncle of Mr. D. Burrett, of town. It should have said that they were brothers.

—All save holiday money and take —Queen street Methodist church excursion from Lindsay, July 29. Return Monday, Aug. 3rd. By train from Peterborough and boat from Belleville, only $2.15 round trip. Read bills. 4d16

—Ven. Archdeacon Casey, of St. Mary's, gave the members of the choir an outing to Sturgeon Point this morning per steamer Kathleen. A number of the friends and parents also enjoyed the trip, there being about sixty in all.—Lindsay Post.

—A story comes from Pleasant Point that some parties camping in that vicinity do most of their fishing with dynamite cartridges. A number of dead bass and maskinnong have been seen floating of late, and there is a feeling that the inspector should investigate.

—A joint meeting of the executives of the Peterborough and Victoria Counties' Old Boys' Associations was held last evening in Williams' Restaurant, near the corner of Yonge and Queen streets, Toronto, to make final arrangements for their joint excursion to Lindsay and Peterborough on Civic Holiday, Aug. 7th.

—A party of young people from Aylmer took a trip to Port Bruce and from there to Port Stanley on the Enterprise, returning by moonlight. The lake was a trifle rough, and it is said that a few of the party took part in a pathetic illustrated song entitled "Upwards the Swallows Fly," while a few who like rag time better sang "When it's all going out and there's nothing coming in."—St. Thomas Times.

—The death took place on Monday, at the home of her father, Mr. Sandy, Menvers, of Mrs. Robert Armstrong, after a lingering illness. They had been living in Peterborough, and a few weeks ago the deceased went out to Menvers with the hope of improving her health, but sank very fast out there. The funeral took place on Thursday to Gardiner's cemetery. — Millbrook Reporter.

—The briefest marriage ceremony on record took place, it is stated, at an obscure town in the far West. The pastor was editor of a newspaper, a lawyer and clerk of the town council. The pastor was writing a leading article for his paper, "Time is money," said he, without looking up from his paper. "Do you want her?" "Yes," said the man. "And do you want him?" She stammered an affirmative. "Man and wife," said the editor. One dollar bring me a load of wood for it; one third pine, balance oak. Details settled later. Good morning."

—On Sunday last Rev. Father Conway of Norwood, celebrated the golden jubilee of his priesthood, it being exactly fifty years since he first served mass. He was the recipient of many congralatory messages from distant friends, and he was also remembered by his parishioners in both Norwood and Havelock in the offertory. The Examiner extends sincere felicitations to the reverend Father on such a distinguished occasion, and voices the hope of his people that he may be permitted to still further serve his Master.

During hot weather, horses are liable to suffer from severe diarrhoea, which, if not checked, causes the animal's death. A number of animals in this district have died from this complaint. Dr. Poole, V. S., 420 Water street, Peterborough, has discovered a cure for the above, which, to prove his assertion, unless the animal recovers, he will charge nothing for his services. Owners of horses should take advantage of this offer. Telephone 459, or the above address, night or day. 12d16-2w

—The Belleville Ontario, referring to the decoration for the Old Boys' Reunion, says: The J. J. Turner & Son company, of Peterborough, started a force of men at work to-day decorating the court house grounds. The County Council made a substantial grant for this purpose. A Peterborough firm, A. Kingscote, has also secured the contract for decorating Front street. The different stores report large quantities of flags, bunting and lanterns being purchased for the purpose of decorating.

ANGLICANS AT JUBILEE POINT

All Saints Sunday School Spend Enjoyable Time.

A Good Programme of Sports was Run Off—Prize Winners in the Events —The Committees.

Yesterday was an ideal day for a picnic, and about 250 of the members and friends of All Saint's Sunday School availed themselves of the opportunity, and made the trip to Jubilee Point per steamer City of Peterborough.

The boat left the Wolfe street wharf at 8.15 and returned in good time in the evening. The trip was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

During the afternoon a good programme of sports was run off on the grounds. In an exciting baseball match between two teams captained by Fred Dickson and Ernie Poole, Dickson's team shut out their opponents by a score of 9—0.

OLD BOYS WILL BRING A BAND

The Governor-General's Body Guards to Come Along.

A Joint Meeting Held in Toronto Last Night—A Baseball Team too.

At the meeting of the Victoria and Peterborough Old Boys' Association held in the William's Cafe, Toronto, last night, preparations were made to hold a joint excursion to Peterborough and Lindsay on Civic Holiday, Aug. 7th. They will take with them a baseball team and the band of the Governor-General's Body Guards. President Wyly Grier occupied the chair.

ANOTHER GEORGE ST. BUSINESS CHANGE

New Proprietor in Charge of Hawley's Establishment.

Another business change has taken place among the George street merchants. This time it is Mr. Hawley, who conducts a confectionary store at George street. He has sold the business to Mr. Love, of Greenbank, Ont., but intends to continue to work under the new proprietor.

Mr. Love has conducted a general store in Greenbank, but this is the first time he has been in the confectionary business. Mr. Love has not yet decided to make any changes or improvements, but will continue the business as it has been by his predecessor.

BRIDGES WILL BE CONSTRUCTED

Across the Creek on George, Simcoe and Hunter Streets.

The report of the Town Engineer upon the estimated cost of the iron girders for the bridges across the creek, on George, Simcoe and Hunter streets, was presented last evening at the meeting of the Board of Works. The cost estimated which would be required to build permanent tops of concrete was $550.

Mayor Best stated that the Engineer had last year prepared plans upon which tenders had been received from the Expanded Metal Co. for the sum of $1700.

As no documents in connection with the tenders could be found on file, the matter was referred to the Engineer to look up the plans. The work will be completed upon the original appropriation, which was $3000.

Any Troubles in Your BATHROOM?

If you are having any trouble with your CLOSET or BATHROOM CONVENIENCES, come round and have a talk with us.

A gentleman, attracted by the range of Sanitary Closets and excellent values we are offering, invested in a new one, although he already had one that was working not badly.

The way he looked over the Closets we arranged before him for inspection showed he had been sifting the matter, and knew how to prove and disprove the claims of dealers.

The saving of health and expensive plumbing repairs, warranted the investment, he said.

NO WRESTLING MATCH LAST NIGHT

Geo. Gauthier Did Not Put in an Appearance.

Several Kid Bouts Were Put on—Capt. Ross' Clever Work.

The crowd which attended the wrestling and boxing tournament was very small, but was all that the exhibition given deserved. Geo. Gauthier did not show up, and consequently there was no wrestling match between him and Capt. Ross. There was a boxing bout between Dave Belland and Joe Brooks, which went three rounds, Belland queering Brooks in the third and getting the decision.

There were then two boxing and one wrestling bout between kids of about 12 or 13 years of age.

The first was a four-round bout between Ben O'Hearn and Bill Conroy, which resulted in a draw. The kids put up a game fight, but those present wanted something more than kids.

Steve Holland and his brother next went through the mill, but no harm was done, Leo being given the decision.

Capt. Ross now varied the programme by ticing a potato up in a handkerchief and cutting the tuber without injuring the line. He also placed a potato on Joe Brooks' bare neck, and cut it in two without injuring Joe's epidermis.

The next feat was an exhibition of cavalry sword exercise, which was finely executed.

The Captain now got back to his favourite sport, wrestling. He showed a few jiu-jitsu holts on a subject, which, if he had used a little coercion, would have necessitated placing that individual under the doctor's care.

The programme was wound up be a wrestling bout between "Bobby" Davidson and Ben O'Hearn. Davidson got the fall.

The Captain said he was sorry that his wrestling bout with Gauthier did not come off, but that was Gauthier's fault, and not his; but he was here to wrestle all comers.

TO-MORROW'S GAME WITH BOWMANVILLE

There Will be Something Doing all the Time.

A great game is announced for to-morrow afternoon, when the Bowmanville Greys stack up against Manager MacEwan's "Pirates."

The game will be the most important yet played in the League, and the result will go a long way towards deciding who will carry off the pennant at the end of the season.

The locals have improved some since their defeat in Bowmanville, and with "Mull" Douglass on the job, the visitors ought to look like 30 cents, with the 3 taken off.

Everyone should turn out and cheer the boys. They need your moral and financial support.

A CHALLENGE FOR STRICKLAND

Tom Seachment Offers to Swim for 10 or 15 Miles.

The sporting editor of the Mail and Empire has received the following letter:—

Sir,—I see by The Mail and Empire that on the 17th Mr. R. T. Strickland, of Toronto, established a Canadian record at Peterborough for long-distance swimming, and, as I take an active part in that game, I wish you would give me the oppirtunity through your valuable paper to challenge Mr. Strickland to swim me a ten or fifteen mile race sometime in August, at a place to be agreed on later; the distance not to be less than ten miles, and the contest to take place in fresh water. If Mr. Strickland fails to take any notice of this the same offer is open to any man in the country.

Yours, etc.,
TOM SEACHMONT,
Gananoque, Ont., July 20th, 1905.

POST CARD CORRESPONDENCE.

In this column will be published communications upon post cards only. It will remain open for the use of readers, who are invited to contribute suggestions, inquiries or replies. Anything of a scurrilous personal nature will be prohibited.

To the Editor,—

Dear Sir, — I would suggest that the band stand at Jackson Park be moved about fifty yards to the west so as to leave the driveway clear for rigs to get through. As at present situated the people naturally congregate near the band, which brings the thickest of the crowd right across the path of vehicles, causing more or less friction between drivers and pedestrians.

"Harmony."

To the Editor,—

Sir, — Will you give your many readers an explanation, if you can, why the police prohibit the taking away of a pitcher of ice cold water from the drinking fountain at the corporation building? Surely there is plenty of water to spare for thirsty people in their offices.

Enquirer.

The Pagan Indians.

Rev. W. G. White, of Lesser Slave Lake mission, has come east to arouse the people to the necessity of doing something towards lifting the pagan Indians out of their superstitious condition. They are firm believers in evil spirits dwelling in all inanimate objects. A Cree Indian known to Mr. White was believed to have been possessed of an evil spirit, and was done to death by his companions. This occurred only eighty miles from where Mr. White was stationed. When the old woman became too weak to travel with their tribe they are given a little food and left in the bush to perish. Idolatery is general.

Chamberlain's COLIC, CHOLERA AND Diarrhoea Remedy

It has been used in nine epidemics of dysentery with perfect success.

It can always be depended upon, even in the more severe attacks of cramp colic and cholera morbus.

It is equally successful for summer diarrhoea and cholera infantum in children, and is the means of saving the lives of many children each year.

When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take.

Every man of a family should keep this remedy in his home. Buy it now. It may save life.

TO DEVELOP HALIBURTON

Some of the Obstacles in the Way of Connecting Trent Canal With Gull River.

Some additional information in connection with the proposal to extend the Trent Canal to connect with the Gull River waters, of Haliburton, is furnished by the special travelling correspondent to the Globe, who recently visited Lindsay, and who says:—

It is now proposed to connect the waters of the Trent Valley Canal system, which serves the counties of Victoria and Peterborough, with the Gull River waters of North Victoria and Haliburton. The waters between Lindsay and Minden township, in Haliburton, are now navigable as far as Cobconk. The men from the north say that no great expenditure would be needed to make the connection. The erection of three or perhaps four locks and dams would make it possible for light-draught vessels to navigate right up into the heart of Haliburton. The forests of that county are considered of great value. There are large areas of such hardwood as maple, birch and elm, and much hemlock and cedar.

Lindsay Supports Plan.

The Lindsay Board of Trade are moving in the matter in conjunction with the people of Haliburton, and memorialize the Dominion Government to enlarge the sphere of the Trent Valley System in the way indicated. It seems that some minor difficulties of jurisdiction will have to be overcome. The Ontario Government has control of some, if not all, of the streams over which the connection will have to be made, and while it is not expected any serious obstacles will have to be surmounted, time will be needed to effect an arrangement all around. Less than ten per cent. of the land in Haliburton has been cleared. That is to say, in a county of 552,737 acres, there are only about 41,000 acres of cleared land, and 325,000 acres of bush. The field crops in 1903 were valued at about $250,000. Much of the land would be profitable for raising grain, but would be more suitable as pasture land.

LAKEFIELD MEN WERE INITIATED

Interesting Meeting of Peterborough Lodge I. O. O. F.

The regular meeting last night of Peterborough Lodge, I.O.O.F. was one to which more than ordinary interest attached. About twenty members of the newly organized Lakefield lodge drove down to visit their Peterborough brethren, and in addition eight candidates for the first, second and third degrees, accompanied them. These with one from town were given their degrees, and a number of candidates for the Oriental degree were initiated into the mysteries of that degree.

Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was spent, after the business had been dispatched.

The attendance of members was unusually large.

PETERBOROUGH BOY TO TAKE CRUISE

Mr. Jas. E. Noble to be One of a Yachting Party.

A party of gentlemen will start from Toronto on Saturday, July 22, on their sailing yacht, Oak Leaf, for a two weeks' cruise. Among the party will be Mr. James E. Noble, an old Peterborough boy, now Chief Engineer at Toronto Asylum; and Alderman W. L. Stewart, owner of the Oak Leaf. The Examiner is sorry to learn that three Mrs. are to accompany them. There would be some hope for our old townsman's safe return if there was only one, but with three doctors on board his safe return is doubtful. The sporting editor will expect a nice crate of the smallest fish he catches, say 10 and 15 pounders. Be sure and send fresh water ones, and above all see that they are prepaid, as the sporting editor is never at liberty until after banking hours.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DESTRUCTION

Fire Occurred Yesterday at Warsaw Blacksmith Shop.

A fire, which was fortunately checked before it got beyond control, though not soon enough to prevent considerable damage, occurred yesterday afternoon at Heep's blacksmith shop, Warsaw.

The blaze originated in the chimney of the shop, and was caused by a large quantity of burning shavings being blown upon the roof by the draught from the bellows below.

The fire was noticed at once and extinguished after a large section of the roof had been burned. Prompt action undoubtedly saved much adjoining property.

British Fleet's Work.

The Red and Blue British fleets which have been engaging in important manoeuvers on the south coast of England, consisted of not fewer than 166 ships of war, the largest and most powerful assemblage of the kind ever witnessed in British waters.

SERG. MOORE COMES FOURTH

Qualified for Place in Second Stage of King's Prize.

Seven Canadians Who Have Won a Place—The Day at Bisley.

Bisley Camp, July 21.—The garden party yesterday afternoon was a great success. Lord Strathcona presented his own prize to Commandant Hessein, asking him to present it to the winner. He also presented the Canada Company's prize in the same way.

There are very few bull's-eyes to be seen registered on the hundred scoreboards along the 600 yards range. In the best there are many inners, magpies, outers, and quite a number of misses. The conditions are the same this afternoon as in the morning. Tricky wind is mostly blamed.

King's Prize Scores.

	200 Yds.	500 Yds.	600 Yds.	Tl.
Richardson, Victoria	33	33	33	99
Morrice, Montreal	33	34	31	98
Wilson, Ottawa	32	32	33	97
Moore, Peterboro	34	32	30	96
Crowe, Guelph	33	33	30	96
Elliott, Toronto	33	33	29	95
Kelly				93
Russell				93
Brayshaw				92
Boult				91
Pugh				90

The "St. George's" challenge vase match, first stage, was fired yesterday morning. The first stage is an aggregate at 500 and 600 yards, seven shots at each range.

Prize Winners.

In the Range Prizes, King's Prize, at 600 yards, Capt. Jones was 20th £1. Sergt. Richardson was 32nd, winning 12 shillings. Lieut. Boult was 33rd, winning 12 shillings.

In the first stage of the King's Prize, Pte. Elmes, 13th, Hamilton, was 151st, winning £2. Sergt. Kelly was 165th, winning £2. Sergt. Russell won £2 and Pte. Brayshaw £1.

SPELLS SICK ALL OVER

Costiveness, if allowed to go unremedied, will lead to habitual constipation, and that means bad blood, poor digestion, unhealthy complexion, headaches and nervousness. It is the business of the liver to secrete and remove the bile from the blood, which acts as a cathartic and keeps the bowels regular. Let the liver become sluggish, torpid or inactive, and you are as sure to become costive as the sun is to shine. Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills cure costiveness in Nature's way. They restore the liver to normal activity; they remove foul secretions and establish regularity. No matter what you have tried, get Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills, and you will obtain health and establish the liver and bowels in healthy action. They cure constipation, biliousness, headache in one night. Price 25 cents at all dealers.

NEW YORK DAIRY MARKET.

New York, July 20.—Butter, steady; receipts, 10,739; state dairy common to extra, 15½c to 20c; western imitation creamery, 17c to 19c.

Cheese, firm, unchanged; receipts, 6917.

CATTLE MARKETS.

Cables Steady—U.S. Markets Continue Dull and Easy.

London, July 20.—Cattle are quoted at 10½c to 11¾c per lb.; refrigerator beef, 9½c per lb.; sheep, 13c to 14½c per lb.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

Receipts of live stock at the city market as reported by the two railways since Tuesday, were 65 car loads, composed of 681 cattle, 1158 hogs, 1776 sheep and lambs, and about 200 calves.

Exporters.

Prices ranged all the way from $4.25 to $4.60, one lot of 15, the best on the market, being sold by Wilson, Maybee & Hall at that figure, the bulk going at $4.40 to $4.60. Bulls are worth from $3 to $3.50 per cwt. As will be seen by the sales reported, the supply was limited, but plenty for the demand.

Butchers.

Choice picked lots sold around $4.20 to $4.25, and one lot of 11 cattle by McDonald & Maybee, at $4.35. Loads of good at $3.90 to $4; medium, $3.50 to $3.75; common at $3 to $3.25; canners, $2.25 to $2.75 per cwt.

Feeders and Stockers.

There were a few lots of feeders and stockers, principally the latter, sold on the markets yesterday. One lot of short-keeps, 1,260 lbs. each, sold at $4.40.

Light feeders, 900 to 1000 lbs. each, were reported at $3.50 to $3.75.

Stockers, 500 to 700 lbs. each, at $2.75 to $3.40 per cwt.

Milch Cows.

About 15 milch cows and springers sold all the way from $25 to $55 each, with only two reported at the latter price.

Veal Calves.

Prices remained about steady at $3.50 to $5.50 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs.

Receipts were fair, but quality of lambs was not nor hasvit been good for several weeks, as would be expected. Prices were a little easier. But had drovers left the poor kind at home the good ones would have sold as high as ever. Farmers should keep their thin skinny lambs on the farm and get a better price.

Export ewes, $3.75 to $4 per cwt.; bucks, $3 to $3.25; lambs, $6 to $6.50 per cwt. The market was inclined to be dull.

Hogs.

Deliveries light, with prices unchanged at $6.35 for selects, and $6.10 for lights and fats.

A NIGHTMARE

Gives point to the fact that excessive or irregular eating disturbs the digestion. Nightmare or night hag has its day time correspondence in the undue fullness after eating, with the belchings and sour or bitter rising so often experienced after too hasty or too hearty eating.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures dyspepsia or bad stomach. When the weak stomach is strengthened and invigorated the whole body shares in the increased strength derived from food properly digested and perfectly assimilated.

"I was a victim of sleeplessness and extreme nervousness induced by chronic indigestion and a full bowels, and was run down continually," writes Miss Mary Smith, of 1111 So. Wahsatch Street, Colorado Springs, Colo. "Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was the only medicine which relieved me. Within a week after I began using it that heavy oppressed feeling after meals had left me, and I found that I was able to sleep better than for months previously. My appetite was gradually restored, general system was toned up, nervousness became a thing of the past and I have now been in splendid health for over nine months."

Sometimes a selfish dealer tempted by the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines will offer the customer a substitute as being "just as good" as the "Discovery." It may be better for him because it pays better, but it is not as good for you, if you want the medicine that has cured others, and which you believe will cure you.

1000-page Doctor Book sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover postage only. 21 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Formerly sold for $1.50 to defray cost of over 680,000 copies. Every family should possess a copy for ready reference in case of sudden illness or accident. It is illustrated with hundreds of wood-cuts and several colored plates. Address Dr. R. V. FARMER DUCKED AND BEATEN

Thomas Dulmage Severely Treated by Neighbors—Disguised as White Caps—Eleven Men Take Dulmage From His Bed and So Terribly Maltreat Him That He May Die—Alleged That He Beat and Otherwise Ill-Treated His Wife—Dipped in Well and Then Horsewhipped.

Chatham, July 21.—Eleven masked men forced an entrance into the home of Thomas Dulmage, a farmer living near Wheatley, early yesterday morning, dragged him from his bed, caused him for half an hour in a well, lashed him to a post and thrashed him with a horsewhip because, it is alleged, he was in the habit of drinking heavily and abusing his wife.

Rumors of Dulmage's alleged ill-treatment of his wife have been current for some time. Threats have been made, privately, that something would happen if the Dulmage domestic affairs did not run more smoothly.

Recently, it is said, Dulmage became most brutal, and sentiment in the neighborhood correspondingly became more intense. People began to talk openly and sympathy for the woman was crystalized, so it is declared, in a plan to visit Dulmage and treat him with a little of his own medicine.

All arrangements were made, and the eleven men, believed to be near neighbors of Dulmage, met near the Dulmage home last Wednesday night, donned black slouch hats and black masks and waited until there was a quiet.

Then they approached the house and forced an entrance quietly, going straight to Dulmage's room.

He awakened as the first two men entered, and believing burglars were about to loot the place, showed fight. The other nine entered, one by one, and he stared at each in amazement, and, then with increasing fear, seeing in the mysterious silent proceedings premeditated and concerted action.

He was seised and dragged from the bed.

Then he began to plead, and when he was not answered, protested and pleaded again, and then struggled desperately.

His captors forced him to a well. A rope was tied around his waist, and he was lowered into the icy water, raised and lowered again and again for half an hour, being immersed for half a minute at a time.

Finally he was pulled to the surface and carried to a post, for he was benumbed and exhausted.

The lash of a horsewhip, was wielded by brawny arms and cut across his back until his shirt was torn to shreds and the flesh raw. Then, and only then, was he released.

A physician was summoned, who declared Dulmage was in a critical condition from agony and exposure.

County Crown Attorney Smith has taken up the case, which, he declares, will be investigated thoroughly and the eleven men, if caught, dealt with severely.

HOUSE CLOSED AFTER 6 MONTHS

Parliament is Prorogued By His Excellency Earl Grey.

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE

A Brief and Congratulatory Address Commends Autonomy Legislation and Brings to a Close a Very Long and a Very Laborious Session—Members at Last Say Good-Bye—Commons Final.

Ottawa, July 21.—Parliament was prorogued at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Lord Grey. There was a good attendance, notwithstanding the uncertainty as to the time it was to take place an account of the opposition to the trading stamp bill in the Senate. There was the usual closing ceremonial. The Governor-General's Foot Guards furnished a guard of honor, and the Princess Louise Dragoon Guards supplied the escort to His Excellency the Governor-General to and from Rideau Hall. The Ottawa Field Battery fired a salute from Nepean Point. In the Senate Lord Grey delivered the following speech from the Throne:

Speech From the Throne.

Hon. Gentlemen of the Senate:
Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

In relieving you from this laborious and long-protracted session, I desire to express my hearty congratulations on the passage of the two important measures providing for the entry into the Confederacy of the Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan. The unparalleled increase in the population during the last three years of the areas the new Provinces embrace affords the strongest evidence that at no distant date they will be the homes of many millions of prosperous and contented people.

The fair prospects of an unusually abundant harvest, not alone in the three prairie Provinces, but also in other parts of this wide Dominion, will, I trust, under a kind Providence, be fully realised, justifying the hope that the stream of immigration now flowing into the Dominion will continue for many years to come, adding wealth to this highly-favored land.

The addition to the number of the permanent force which you have authorized will enable my relieving the taxpayers of the United Kingdom from the burden of keeping up the garrisons at Esquimalt and at Halifax.

It is very gratifying to note that the revenue of the Dominion continues to maintain the high level it had reached two years ago, thus enabling my Government to meet the increased expenditure chargeable against consolidated revenue, leaving a surplus to apply on capital account.

The numerous private bills for industrial objects to which I have assented point to the existence of many new enterprises.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

I thank you in His Majesty's name for the supplies you have so liberally voted.

Hon. Gentlemen of the Senate:
Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

In returning to your several homes, allow me to express the hope that you will find abundant evidences of the growing prosperity, and that before we meet again at another session some progress may have been made in the work of constructing the national transcontinental railway, soon to become a necessity for the transportation of the annually increasing products of the west.

In the House.

The Commons met yesterday at 11 o'clock. Mr. W. F. Maclean read a letter from a commercial gentleman in Toronto complaining of the tax upon commercial travelers in Quebec.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that he had no complaints about it. He had not even seen the statute.

Mr. B. L. Borden asked the Government to consider the election law during recess with a view of making certain amendments. He said that in the United States there was a provision in the law that did not permit lawyers who were members of Parliament practising that profession in the Departments.

Sir Wilfrid said he would consider the matter. He could see that abuses might arise from members of Parliament practising in the direction just mentioned.

Hon. Raymond Prefontaine, replying to a question put by Hon. Geo. Foster a few days ago, said that it was not finally decided yet whether or not to remove the meteorological observatory from Toronto to Ottawa. The University of Toronto had offered a site on Bloor street, but the Government had not yet decided what was to be done.

Mr. Lamont (Saskatchewan) asked the Minister of Railways if it were correct that the Grand Trunk Pacific had located its line west of Winnipeg to connect with the Regina & Prince Albert road and had commenced work at Portage la Prairie.

Mr. Emerson said that so far the map showing the location had not been presented to his Department for approval.

The order paper was cleaned up and the Commons adjourned, waiting prorogation.

Bennett Sent For Trial.

Brantford, July 21.—Joseph Bennett will have to stand trial at the Brantford fall assizes for the murder of Betsy Jacobs. Such was the decision handed out by Squire Leitch at the preliminary trial held in the court house yesterday morning. The prisoner received the finding without the least perturbation.

THE MARVELS OF MARCONI

An Achievement Which is Unsurpassed in History.

Practical Utility of the Wireless System Fully Demonstrated.

New York, July 21. — The wonderful record of the Marconi system was further enhanced this week by one of the most clever bits of message transmission ever known. The vice-president of one of New York's leading manufacturing companies, sailed for Liverpool on Wednesday, a week ago, and a prominent director of the same company, was on the ocean en route for America at the same time.

When the two steamers were in mid-ocean these two gentlemen got into wireless communication over a distance of some two hundred miles. A suggestion of importance was made by the vice-president, and received the endorsement of the director. The director then undertook to forward instructions to the New York office to carry out the plan agreed upon. It was necessary to relay the message through three vessels, but it was perfectly transmitted and received by the Marconi land station at Southwellfleet, Massachusetts. Upon the director's arrival in New York he was met by the information that his instructions were being fulfilled, and that a cable to that effect would be delivered to the company's vice-president upon the latter's arrival at Liverpool. Surely enough the cable was delivered — the vice-president was assured that the wireless order would be carried out, and he was enabled as a result to make such a bid on a large contract as to assure his obtaining the business.

These two gentlemen cannot express with sufficient enthusiasm their indebtedness to the Marconi service or their belief in the remarkable things which it will do in the immediate future. They fully agree with Thomas A. Edison, that the future is possessed of more limitless possibilities than any previous scientific invention, and that it will be but a short time before it will make itself felt as one of the most potent factors in the world's commercial life.

The aforementioned incident is figured to have netted the company upwards of $50,000. It is interesting to contrast this item with an earlier occurrance in connection with the Marconi system. A passenger on one steamer transmitted $150 to a passenger on another by means of wireless, and the event was heralded throughout the world as a great accomplishment, although that happened only about three years ago. The remarkable progress made by the Marconi Company since that date has resulted in less interest being shown in this last accomplishment, whereby $50,000 was involved, than in a transaction involving only $150. It might almost be said that the Marconi system of to-day bears the same relation to the system of three years ago that $50,000 bears to $150. Not only the advance made in message transmission, but in countless new fields of effort have so enhanced the value of Marconi's invention that it stands to-day on the threshold of a success unparalleled by any other company ever launched. All the companies working under the Marconi system are so broadening their territory of efforts that it will not be long before they will have to search for new worlds to conquer. It will be, at the present rate of extension, but a few years before all ocean-going vessels will be equipped, and every city of a few thousand or more inhabitants will have a more complete Marconi service than it has wire system to-day. This will be but a natural result of the fact that the Marconi system can be installed and maintained for but a fraction of the cost of a wire system. The lower charges necessary for transmission of messages will almost immediately give it a practically monopoly of the profitable business and will make possible the expenditure of tremendous sums for the extension of its service, and this it will do without losing sight of the interests of its stockholders.

BACK BROKEN IN THE HARVEST FIELD

Edward McIlroy Dies From Terrible Injuries Received While Working on Farm of Mr. James Heard, of Smith Township—Fell From Binder, Which Ran Over Him, Paralyzing His Body and Breaking His Back—Death Occurred This Morning—Deceased Was a Native of Port Hope.

Special to the Examiner.

Lakefield, July 21.—This morning, Mr. Edward McIlroy, an unmarried man, 36 years of age, who for the last 5 or 6 years has made his home in this village, died, as the result of injuries which he received on Wednesday evening while working on the farm of Mr. James Heard, who lives on the 7th concession of Smith.

Up to Wednesday morning the deceased had worked in Lakefield at his trade, that of a baker, having been employed with Mr. E. Z. Webster. On that day, however, he decided to make a change for a few weeks and engaged with Mr. Heard to help him with the harvest.

He went out to his farm in the morning, and during the afternoon and evening the two men were engaged in cutting grain, with a binder. Mr. McIlroy was unaccustomed to farm work and was, consequently not familiar with the operation of the machinary, he was driving. He drove the horses, and Mr. Heard was with him, attending to the operating of the binder.

It appears that something went wrong with the machine and on trying to repair the damage Mr. Heard and Mr. McIlroy both got on top of it. It is supposed that a sudden starting of the horses threw Mr. Heard backwards off the binder, while Mr. McIlroy fell forward and the machine passed over his body, which was badly mangled, and paralyzed.

Dr. Baker was sent for and did his best towards the recovery of the unfortunate man, but his back was broken, and it was found that it would be impossible to save his life.

He was still at the home of Mr. Heard, and was awaiting the ambulances to take him to a hospital in Peterborough when his death occurred this morning at 6 o'clock.

The deceased was well known in Lakefield, having lived here on and off for the last 5 or 6 years and his untimely end is deeply regretted.

His mother and brothers are residents of Port Hope, where the body was taken to-day, and the funeral will take place on Sunday.

Mr. Heard, who was also thrown off the machine was not seriously injured, but was made unconscious by the fall, consequently it is difficult to get a very clear account of the details of the accident.

EXCURSIONS ON SUNDAY STOPPED

In Future No Locks or Bridges Are to be Operated on Sunday.

Hereafter there will be no Sunday excursions on the Trent Canal. Mr. J. H. McClellan, Superintendent of the Canal, has sent out notices to all bridge swingers and lock masters on the system, instructing them to enforce rigorously the law in respect to the swinging of bridges and the operating of locks on Sunday, and in future no bridge swingers will swing or shall allow to be swung any bridge under his control, between the hours of 6, 12 p.m. Saturday and 12 p.m. Sunday, and the same rule applies to locks on the system.

The object of this order is to prevent the Sunday excursions. It appears that hitherto, while it was known that the Government employees were not supposed to open the locks or bridges the persons operating the boats frequently did the work if necessary, to permit of the navigation of their craft.

In future this will not be allowed.

Stricken with Paralysis.

Mrs. W. R. Sutherland, St. Andrew's, Man., writes:—"I was stricken with paralysis and lost power of the tongue and left leg. For six months I obtained no relief either by doctors' prescriptions or other medicines. My husband got me Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which has revitalized my nerves and given me full power of the paralyzed parts. I am strong and well now, thanks to this great medicine."

A MASTERPIECE BY NATIVE ARTIST

Messrs. Boivin Wilson & Co., wine merchants and importers, of Montreal, are now distributing to their customers, a lithograph that is a masterpiece. It is the reproduction of a water colour scenery by one of our best Canadian artists. The title of the picture is "Parlez Bonheur," and the name is well deserved, as we see an old fisherman, after having caught several bass and perch lighting his pipe before starting for home.

Where Peterborough Citizens Spend Their Summer Holidays

CHEMONG PARK AND ITS SUMMER DOINGS

This Popular Resort is This Season More Popular Than Ever—All the Cottages Occupied and Many Are Living in Tents—A Regatta Arranged for August 19th—Those Who Are Spending the Summer at the Park—Good Programme of Social Events for the Season.

Combining the advantage of being so situated as to be far enough removed from the city to give one the feeling that one is really having a holiday, and still near enough to business to enable the business men to spend the evenings with their families at the lake, and attend to business during the day, Chemong possesses a strong attraction for a great many of the residents of Peterborough who spend the hot months of the summer enjoying its invigourating breezes, and other equally appreciated advantages as a summer resort.

Chemong Park Hotel

But it is not to the residents of this city alone that Chemong presents itself in an attractive light, for there are among its many summer visitors scores of Americans, who have learned by past experience that to spend a few weeks or months, as the case may be, as a guest of the Chemong Park Hotel, and enjoy the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Brown, or to occupy one of the many pretty cottages there, is about the ideal way to pass a holiday.

Many Guests This Summer.

For the past few years, doubtless by reason of the fact that the weather was not particularly inviting for one to spend much time out of doors, and when life in the crowded city even was not especially unpleasant the beauties of Chemong were not enjoyed by as many persons as would otherwise have been the case. But this summer the conditions which have made it desirable to get as far away frim city life as possible, have had the effect of inducing more people to go to Chemong than has been the case for some years past. At the present time practically all the cottages are occupied, while a number of persons are camping on the shores of the historic and beautiful lake, after which the park has been named.

The Hotel Popular.

As in to be supposed, the hotel is as popular as ever, and the guests find there the same courteous treatment, and homelike influences which have made this summer home so much sought after in the past.

The fact that the park is so close to the city has been taken advantage of by a number of young men who have established camps there, and, after their work for the day wheel or drive to Chemong, and spend the evening and night there, coming to town again for business in the morning.

There has been in recent years a revival in that enjoyable sport, yachting, and this year promises to see even greater activity at Chemong. Mr. Milne Hamilton has this year placed a new dinghy on the lake, and the prospects are that in the regatta which has been arranged for there will in all probability be some exciting races.

Regatta on August 19th.

A meeting of the Chemong Park Association was held recently, when it was decided to hold the annual regatta on August 19th. Those present were most enthusiastic, and the prospects for a highly successful regatta are excellent. All the cottagers are entering the project with a determination which bespeaks success. Strong committees were appointed to carry out the details of the arrangements, and this committee has already gotten down to work and are preparting a splendid programme.

Sailing Races.

Every Saturday afternoon, commencing to-day, until the close of the season there will be some exciting sailing races at Chemong for the flag donated by Mr. R. M. Dennistoun, one of the most enthusiastic yachtsmen on the Kawartha Lakes. Some good races are in prospect, and this feature will tend to increase the popularity of this sport at the lake.

A Moonlight.

On Thursday night a moonlight excursion from Bucknorn came to Chemong, and the steamer carried a good crowd. The passengers alighted at the park and spent an hour very pleasantly before starting on the return trip.

The Summer Residents.

Among those who have taken cottages at Chemong, and are spending the summer there are:—

The Liar was on board, of course. He is growing old now, and if the sunburnt cuticle, rubbed off with with much profanity from his nose and arms were gathered together, with what nonchalance might be give bond to a Shylock. (No reflection is intended on the vendors of milk and eggs.) But he always claimed that Stony Lake made a new man of him annually! Whether this was intended to refer to his mental as well as his physical person, it would be difficult to say. Probably not. He still tells the old, old stories. In justice, however, it must be said that these ever increase in interesting detail, with each new narration.

The Liar heaved a sigh as he kneaked from his corn-cob the dying embers of some "T. and B." plug. His auditors prepared for the worst. "Ah! things are not"—he ruminated aloud, as the boat's whistle ceased blowing for Julian's Landing—"things are not as they were in the days when I first pitched a tent on Juniper. That was"—he musingly watched a pretty young gentleman seat himself upon a box of Long's chocolates—"that was before the days of white duck trousers, didn't care whether we had any—but as I was going to say, in my opinion trades unionism is going too far." The crowd shifted uneasily upon the steamer chairs, and a familiar light of innocence crept into the eyes of the Liar, as he gazed thoughtfully towards Bobcaygeon. It was some moments before a reply was vouchsafed, then a guttural grunt was heard, from the direction of the gentleman who sat with feet upon the rail, and with chin buried in the neck of a brown sweater. "What's the matter with 'em?" was the interrogation conveyed. "Oh! they're all right in their place, I suppose," continued the Liar, thus encouraged, "but I think when it comes to forming unions among the guides, it's getting past the limit — they'd soon be as bad as the Peterborough doctors, I have no doubt, if their professional dignity would allow them. I tell you," he continued, leaning forward earnestly — "it's getting past the limit when guides refuse to catch any bass except those bearing the union label. I saw them pull one out the other day with the label on—don't go, boys, it's all facts — and Billy Ackerman saw it too—just ask him". The Liar looked sorrowfully at the vacant upper deck, and remarked softly to himself—"facts are always too tame for a bunch like that."

As the young man stepped on board at Lakefield, his countenance, so far as its normal vacuity would allow, bore a troubled aspect. He led upon a chain, with manifold dig-

STONY LAKE SUMMER SEASON IN FULL SWING

Hotels and Cottages are Filled---Most Enjoyable Season in History of the Lake---Constant Round of Social Festivities---Dances are Largely Attended---Personal Happenings of Interest---Accident to Steam Launch---Charming Euchre Party at Victoria House---Pavilion Dances Largely Attended.

Never in the history of Stony Lake, has there been such an influx of campers, cottagers, and hotel guests, as has taken place during the present season. This popular resort appears to steadily increase in popularity, and the coming week will undoubtedly see all available accommodation taxed to the limit. Every cottage on the lake is now open, and it is safe to say that if these were three times their present number, they would not supply the present demand.

This season's social events have been particularly pleasing — dances, shore parties, musicales and progressive euchres having been held in great profusion at all points of the lake. The various hotels and boarding houses lent their assistance most generously in adding to the social enjoyment of their guests, and this feature, it is needless to say, has added materially to the attractions of the lake.

Inquiry of the officials of the railways discloses somewhat surprising information regarding the large increase in the volume of traffic to the lakes. Although there is no means of ascertaining exactly the increase in passenger traffic, a prominent G. T. R. official yesterday informed the Examiner that the business was considerably more than double that of last year. The steamboat owners have also a tale of satisfaction to relate. In the early part of the season it was evident that the present would eclipse all past seasons' business, the boats having had more traffic in June of this year than in the month of July last year. The improved accommodation which the steamers have provided for their patrons, is also greatly appreciated. The splendid dining room service is a feature which has added greatly to the comfort and convenience of travellers. The excursion traffic was unusually heavy during the months of June and July, and for some weeks the average exceeded one per day.

Many new cottages were erected during the early part of the season, most of which are at present occupied. A large number of transfers in island property have also taken place, and Stony Lake real estate has proved its worth as a profitable investment.

The Sunday services at different points upon the lake have been largely attended and a constantly increasing interest is being manifested in them. Services are now held regularly at the Juniper and Viamede pavilions and at St. George's Church, near McCracken's Landing.

The dances at Juniper Pavilion have been most enjoyable and have been attended by large numbers nightly. The piccolo which was recently purchased has not yet arrived, but will be installed in the course of a few days.

Mrs. Jackson, of Peterborough, is has gone to Toronto on a short business trip.

Recent arrivals at "Glenwood" are Miss Florence Batiste, Miss Jennie Yule, Miss Margaret McLarge, Miss Jessie Minnicfield and Mr. E. A. George.

Mr. and Mrs. Koch and family, Scrvickley, Pa., are occupying Carter's cottage for the summer.

The dance at the Juniper Pavilion on Thursday night was well attended, there being about 50 present, and a very enjoyable evening was spent. Among those present were Miss K. Roberts, Toronto; Miss Given Hall, Miss Acton, Miss Bates, Miss E. Dewitt, Auburn, N.Y.; Miss E. Bell, Miss A. Downs and Messrs. F. and D. Collins, F. Bates, F. Acton, Harold Armstrong, H. Robinson, H. Anderson and E. Doherty. The young ladies who assisted with the music were Miss G. Hall, Miss J. Choate and Miss K. Roberts.

At the Victoria House on Thursday evening a delightful time was arranged by the following committee: Mrs. Sterling, Miss Mollish, Miss Millar and Mrs. F. L. Fast. The guests,

Victoria House, McCracken's Landing

who numbered about 36, first sat down to a game of progressive euchre after which an enjoyable hour was passed in dancing. Such was the success of the affair that the committee in charge contemplate holding similar events semi-weekly.

Mrs. T. H. Knox, Orillia, has moved up to Mr. Harry Sherin's new cottage at Henderson's Point.

Among those who took advantage of the beautiful weather yesterday in taking in the round trip on the steamer Stony Lake were Mrs. and Miss Montgomery, Lakefield; Miss Montgomery, Hawkesbury; Mr. and Mrs. Sherin, Miss Allie and Nina Sherin, Lakefield; Mr. Bert Sherin, Baltimore, Md.; Mr. McDonald, Winnipeg; Mrs. H. G. Fitzgerald, Lakefield; Mrs. R. E. Wood and party, and Mr. E. Brundette and party, Port Hope.

Mr. Chaisty and party, of Pittsburgh, Pa., are camping on Juniper Island.

Among yesterday's arrivals at Victoria House were Miss Margaret Woods, Miss Belle Ferguson and Miss Mamie McIlroy, of Toronto.

Mr. B. Shortly returned to the city yesterday from Stony Lake.

Mr. J. S. McCarthy and family, of Toronto, went up to their island yesterday and will remain for the rest of the season.

Mr. John Nugent returned this morning from his cottage, Stony Lake, which he opened yesterday for the season.

On Monday evening about 9.30 o'clock as Mr. Gouinlock was coming up Clear Lake in his handsome yacht, occupying her cottage at Eel's Creek. Mr. J. J. Lundy and Mr. Peak are taking a holiday at Mrs. R. B. Lundy's cottage.

Jubilee Point Hotel

Miss Mackett came up to "Belle Chasse" yesterday.

Mrs. Hudson and party of ten are occupying Butcher's cottage.

Canon Dixon and the Rev. Mr. Lord, Apsley, went down to Young's Point yesterday.

Mr. Sutherland, of "Inglestone," an accident occurred which happily was not attended with serious consequences. As the yacht on which were Mr. and the Misses Gouinlock, was passing near Mr. Gordon's island, it ran upon a rock. The members of the "Wo-Kix-Go" Club of Pittsburg, who are sojourning upon Mr. Gordon's island, noticing the occurrence, quickly came to the yacht's assistance, notwithstanding the rough state of the weather. After considerable effort they succeeded

Autos Still Popular.

A Coventry, England, motor car firm, which contemplates making a thousand cars next year, says that the demand shows no sign of abating, and that there is a growing appreciation of the high-power vehicle.

Walked Off Pier.

Maurice Smith, the eight-year-old son of Chauncey Smith, fruit dealer, of London, was drowned at Port Stanley Thursday. He was walking backwards watching the dredging operations, and walked off the pier into the water.

A Young Suicide.

Broken-hearted because her mother had taken her child, Mary Richardson, wife of William Richardson, employee at the Winnipeg gas works, committed suicide by hanging. Mrs. Richardson was eighteen years of age, and was married in April.

A Strike of Two.

A Peculiar Test.

Mr. Henry Turner of Guernsey, lately discharged the last of his resources of the post office. He wished to go to the neighbouring island of Sark and presented himself at the Guernsey post office as a parcel. He was accepted after paying the fee of 5s. 10d., and a messenger was despatched with him. He was duly "delivered" with punctuality, at his destination.

A Hat Pin Wound.

Fred Montgomery, a waiter of Sandwich, Ont., who was taken to St. Mary's Hospital, July 6, with a wound in his breast, made by a hat pin, died to-day. It is thought that the wound was received during a row at his home in Sandwich. Canadian officials say that Montgomery's wife has been missing since the night of the row, and is supposed to have gone to Indian Territory.

Took Acid for Pain,

Mrs. Carrie Kloss, wife of Rev. M. Kloss, of Marshfield, who is conducting a series of revival meetings in Oshkosh, Wis., died to-day after hours of agony from carbolic acid poisoning. She had been ill for seven weeks, and on the advice of a friend used the acid as an application to relieve pain. She evidently was ignorant of the strength of the liquid, for she used it nearly pure.

A GOOD COMPLEXION.

What the Famous "Beauty Doctors" Say To Do.

What woman does not crave a good complexion? And what woman, whose clear, soft, delicately hued skin is the envy of all her friends, does not regard it as her dearest possession? It is very easy to have faultless skin—but it takes time and some patience. Out-door exercise, regular bathing, washing only in tepid water, regular hours for sleep and meals, will assist materially. Blood poisoning from constipation is the great cause of a bad complexion. There is only one thing which will effectually cure constipation, and that is fruit. Ripe fruit purifies the blood by acting on the skin, kidneys and liver. It causes the bowels to move, cures constipation and beautifies the complexion. An Ottawa physician has discovered a method of combining and concentrating the juices of oranges, apples, prunes and figs, and forcing in an additional atom of bitter from the orange peels—which thus makes a stronger fruit. It makes a new fruit with the fruit action intensified. The laxative fruit extract is combined with tonics and then condensed into tablets and sold under the name of "Fruit-a-tives" or "Fruit Liver Tablets." These little tablets are pleasant to take, have the mild fruit action, and will cure Constipation, Headaches, Liver and Kidney Diseases and all blood impurities. Get the genuine "Fruit-a-tives." Nothing else is "just as good," because "Fruit-a-tives" are the only tablets made of pure, fruit juices. For sale at all Druggists, 50c. a box, 6 boxes for $2.50 or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

HEARD ON THE STEAMER'S DECK

ficulties, a bull pup. As he entered the prow of the steamer he was the unconscious object of much interest on the part of two diminutive vendors of worms. "Gee, Billy, ain't he the goods!" adding a sotto-voce observation as he stubbed his toe. "Bet he's from Toronto," replied the second cherub, "has a lot of boxes of pre-digested food. Heard him tell a fellow over at the station that he could eat them on Sunday 'thout causin' his internal organs to break the Lord's Day by workin'. Looks like an early bird! Bring along the worms, 'Jimmy'." "Jimmy" proclaimed the nature of his wares to the stranger, his companion meantime becoming deeply interested in the boy, upon which the novelty of the steamer appeared to already have had an effect. It evidently had a strong desire to escape from its leash and was causing its owner much annoyance. A deal was soon concluded between "Jimmy" and the stranger, and by the time the cigar box full of worms had been transferred, sufficient intimacy had been established to enable "Jimmy to inquire, "Say, mister, what're yeh goin' to do with the purp up the fores'l" nodding at the dog. "Well, I am bound to catch some fish this year. Last year when I was up I fished for two weeks without catching any and I did not discover the cause till the night before I left." "Well, but what's that got to do with the dog?" inquired "Jimmy," as prepared to depart. "I came prepared this year. A man named McCracken, whom I at once recognized as an old fisherman, told me there was no use trying to catch fish without a 'growler.'

"Oh, yes I didn't doubt your word in the slightest—just turned 'round to cough—hay fever y'see. I've seen them just as large myself; but that that reminds me," the stout gentleman with the striped trousers, who was speaking, gazed at his coterie of listeners with an expression of simplicity which would have done credit to a Celestial,—"that reminds me," he continued, "of a little incident which happened on the trip that Jim and I took last spring. The first morning after we arrived at the Lakes, we were up bright and early. Jim's sporting instincts are always uppermost, and I think he could be induced to bet, with little persuasion, that he had caught fish in the bogs of Ireland. He at once insisted on a wager that he could defeat me in the day's catch. After the coin of the realm had been duly deposited, I started out, and had just rounded a point a short distance down the shore when I was greeted by an interrogation in gutteral tones, "Want'a buy a longe?" and found an Indian guide named Murphy (slight cough by ministerial-looking young man seated a few feet behind) holding a beautiful 19 pounder up for my inspection. The bargain was quickly concluded, and when the fish had passed into my possession, I took from my pocket a business card which I folded and placed well down in the monster's mouth. "Now," I said, "see that fellow out on the lake?" The Indian nodded, "well take it out and sell it to him at any price." He departed and I continued on my way towards Bonshnk. Got back late in the afternoon—total catch five bass. Jim soon arrived, and as he pulled up to the little floating dock, and gazed contemptuously at my string. "Don't mean to say that represents a day's fishing. Bass ain't worth bothering with in my opinion. Too small—'longe for mine every time. Now there's a fish worth expending some energy over," he added, as he held up a longe of huge proportions. "Oh, yes, it's the only one" he replied to an interrogation, "but even if I was completely exhausted and had to rest two hours after landing it, I call it a catch worth having. Never saw a fish struggle so. Yes, caught it on that new copper bait—see how it twisted the spoon! Guess I was half an hour getting it out of its mouth. Hooked it right beside the weed-bed, around that point. That was at 10.30 o'clock, and I was just an hour and a half landing him. Pulled me down about half way to Clear Lake, and nearly upset me several times by running under the boat. Line cut my hand fearfully—just look here"—he extended his right hand bandaged with a handkerchief, as he turned the fish over admiringly with his toe. I stooped down remarking as I did so, "Seems to me, Jim, I've met this gentleman before." Several summer maidens who had gathered to listen to Jim's amazing narrative, withdrew their admiring gaze for a moment. "No! Impossible!" he replied—"there were in all four old spoons in its mouth when I caught it, but none of them were yours." I picked the fish up saying as I did so—"Why, yes, this is the same gentleman I met this morning"—extracting my card from it's mouth—"see, I gave him my card at the time." A painful scene ensued which was only odded by James remarking, softly, after gazing meditatively at a thin blue wreath of smoke curling above the tree tops on the point—"What'll you have in yourn?"

POTATOES SCARCE ON THE MARKET

Attendance and Demand Were Good --Prices Unchanged.

There was a good attendance on the market this morning, considering the fact that the farmers are all taking advantage of this week's fine weather to get in their hay crop. The crop has been a good one, and the fine weather now being experienced makes "the smile that won't come off."

The attendance on the market was equal to last week. There were very few potatoes brought in: a few bags of old potatoes sold at $1 to $1.15 per bag, while new ones were 30 and 35 cents per peck. There was also a good variety of garden vegetables which were sold at last week's prices. Cherries have been a good crop this year and a considerable quantity was sold at 10 to 15 cents per quart.

On the inside market the attendance was considerably less than last week. Butter remained at 20 cents and eggs at 16 and 17 cents.

Women

Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets Hit the Right Spot.

When a woman gets all run down, feels tired and out of sorts it is pretty hard to tell what part of her peculiar organism is causing the trouble.

It is useless, for example, taking a stimulant to heal inflammation or correct an irregularity.

Whit the exception of Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women, no compound remedy for the female sex exists to-day. By compound remedy we mean one containing the alterative and tonic medical ingredients necessary to regulate and strengthen every organ of the female system.

And that is just what these tablets do.

In taking the ordinary remedies you may miss the very ingredients your system requires. These tablets contain every ingredient. They go to the weak spot wherever it may be.

It is not necessary to guess at the cause of the trouble and perhaps take the wrong medicine half a dozen times. It is not necessary to even know exactly the cause of the trouble.

Dr. Hugo's remedy contains something for every organ of the female system; something for the stomach to help indigestion—for the bowels to cure constipation—for the nervous system to tone up the nerves—for the liver and kidneys to make them active in carrying off impurities—something for the uterine system to stop all drains, allay inflammation and make women regular.

The tablets are sure to go to the right spot and get there the first time.

The remedy is now recognized beyond doubt or question as the best adapted to the special needs of sick and run-down women, no matter what the cause.

Miss White and Miss Vivian of Cobourg, came down to Otonabee yesterday.

RICE LAKE RESORTS HAVE A BUSY SEASON

This Summer the Popular Watering Places on the Lake Are Much Sought After by Tourists—All the Resorts at Gore's Landing Are Filled—Many Record Catches Are Reported—Jubilee Point Still a Popular Objective Point for Pic-nic Parties—A Delightful Place to Spend a Summer Vacation—Idyl Wyld and Its Charms Attract Many.

Wedlocks'.

(Wedlock's, one of the nearby resorts, situated on the west shore of the Otonabee, a short distance from Rice Lake, is an ideal summer home for tourists. It is substantially built, well furnished and has an artistic, well kept lawn with ornamental terraces. Guests enjoy very restful surroundings here; the rooms are light and airy and the view beautiful. There is good boating, excellent fishing and plenty of amusement. It is a select summer resort and is kept on strictly temperance principles. Mr. Wedlock has a smart sailing steam launch, the Mermaid, which is kept for the use of his guests.

The house has been full this week with boarders principally from Toronto, the names of the guests not being obtainable for this issue.

Highland Park.

Highland Park, the lovely picnic grove on the east side of the Otonabee, has not been occupied by campers this season so far, but is soon to be visited by a jolly party from Millbrook — the Waish-McCartney car hop party, who take possession on the 2nd of August.

Hiawatha Lodge.

Hiawatha Lodge, formerly owned by Mr. Willis, situated opposite Wedlock's, is occupied by Mr. Ryerson Fitchie, an American, but who has numerous friends in Peterborough, where he passed most of his boyhood days.

This cosy, well shaded, quiet retreat is strictly a private summering cottage. The hospitality of the lessee is however well known. The picturesque feature of the landscape and the shady grounds about the lodge, render its environments a veritable grove of restfulness. Mr. Ritchie has recently made some effective improvements to the river front, the view being very much improved and the access made more convenient.

Jubilee Point.

Situated right at the mouth of the Otonabee river and the southeast of Rice Lake, Jubilee summer resort commands an attractive view. The distance The hotel is reached by a steep climb up the face of the cliff, where it is surrounded by a beautiful park of maples and other shade trees. It affords ample space for outdoor sports and games with a commodious pavilion for dancing, etc. The fishing grounds in the vicinity of the river and lake are excellent, both muskinonge and bass being in abundance; good boating, excluded walks and other pleasure giving attractions abound. Many Americans come here every year to enjoy the fishing by rod and trawl, as well as Peterborough citizens, who become summer boarders, especially during July and August.

Quite a number of summer vacationists, seeking a rest, have already been here since the fishing season opened.

The guests this week at Jubilee are: J. A. Merrill, Kingston; Ald. Torrey, of Peterborough, wife and three sons; Mr. and Miss Darley, Australia; Mr. Frank Pritchard and Mr. T. McKeown, of Rochester; Mr. Jos. Brightman, Mrs. T. Bellhouse and party. Additional boarders are expected from Rochester and a party of eight or ten will arrive next week. Mr. Girvan states the season is much better than last year.

Flat Rock Point.

Flat Rock Point is occupied by a Cobourg camping party, consisting of gentlemen who came out on a fishing expedition.

Gore's Landing.

This hillside, picturesque spot has come quickly to make Rice Lake popular as a summer resort, especially for Americans. Overlooking the lake the landscape views, the numerous islands and camping sites, are very interesting to tourists. Perfect boating, fishing and cool breezes are features, although complaints prevail at present of poor luck in fishing, scarcely enough being caught to serve the hotel tables.

Harris' Bay Lake House.

Harris' Bay Lake House is situated upon rising ground, close to the landing and lake shore. The panorama view of fine scenery from the hotel piazza is delightful, the views being unrivalled for their varied beauty. The dining room is cool and airy and the sleeping rooms, parlours, halls and piazzas are spacious and healthy. The cuisine and service are highly spoken of. Guests have been coming and going in considerable numbers during the season.

The guests at the Rice Lake House are:—E. H. Hogg, Walter Hogg, J. Welch and J. H. Faraby, Port Hope; Mrs. A. R. Dundas and Mrs. E. A. Dundas, Cobourg; Miss May McKennedy, Toronto; Mrs. M. Simmons and Miss Marchant Simmons, Cobourg; Miss E. Porter, Toronto; Miss Ethel Brown-Cobourg; J. R. Thompson and C. R. Crocker, Galveston; Geo. S. Hogan and J. Benjamin, Rochester; A. W. Kuhns, Beaver Falls; Mrs. (Gen.) Hamilton, Peterborough; Harold H. Gallinee, Lansdowne, N. Y.; L. G. Bove, J. H. Barrett and W. W. Barnett, Toronto; E. Tracey and party, Cobourg; Sam W. Neil, Kingston; Frank D. Hog and Frank J. Hibbert, Rochester; H. D. Springer, of Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Rossiter and Miss Roseveare, Lindsay; Mr. and Mrs. Masterman Wilson and Mrs. W. G. Irwin.

Next week Mr. H. Wesmon and party, Cleveland, and Mr. A. D. Higgins of Cleveland, numbering eight people, have taken rooms. Mr. Wm. Millet, of Rochester, with a party of five, Jack Wilson and wife of Toronto and many other engagements.

Mr. Donnelly, a wealthy American, who spends most of the summer months at Gore's Landing, is said to be building an $80,000 mansion in Cobourg. Mr. Donnelly owns a gasoline launch and other smaller fishing craft. One of these was recently fitted up by Messrs. J. J. Turner & Sons, with sails, revolving chairs, cut-riggers, awning hangings and other comforts and conveniences for fishing trips.

Lilac Lodge.

Lilac Lodge has every room occupied at present, and Mr. C. McBride, proprietor, expects to have a full house the whole season. So many people visit after year to Lilac Lodge that the house is always supplied a certain number of regular guests. It is a very quiet and homelike resort, with plenty of lawns, verandahs and shade, as well as a delightful location facing the lake.

The guests this week at Lilac Lodge are:—W. S. Fyenton, Miss S. Fyenton, Miss Evelyn Townsend and Miss Dorothy Thomas, of Baltimore, Md.; Miss May Sunday, Baltimore; Mrs. Hurlington and Miss Lee, of Columbus; Mrs. J. Clergue, Mr. J. Clergue, W. G. Davies, Algoma Mills; Mr. E. H. Hill, Mrs. Hill and Miss Hill, Cobourg; Mrs. J. E. Schurtz, Mrs. Neilson Clark, Miss Minette Clark, Miss Julia Clark, Pittsburg; Miss M. and Miss A. W. Fraziers, Philadelphia; Miss Jessie Benson, Port Hope; Miss Trust, Baltimore; Dr. C. C. Benson, Toronto; Mr. J. E. Schurtz and Lewis N. Clark, Pittsburg; Stuart Ross, Montreal; Mr. J. Ross Robertson, Toronto Telegram; Edith Louise Gentes, Cobourg; Miss A. Taylor and Miss G. Taylor, St. Louis; Miss Mary Prendeville and Miss Mabel Prendeville, Chicago; Miss Johnston and Miss Adams, Louisville, Ky.; Miss Chamber, Baltimore; Miss Osborne and Miss Johnston, Lowisville; Mrs. Dunsford, Peterborough, Mr. Bingham, Philadelphia; Mr. J. Boyd and family, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Latimer, Washington, D. C.; Mr. Deane, Philadelphia.

Fishing is reported poor.

The White House.

The White House has become very popular under Mrs. R. D. Meredith's charitable management. It is situated so high upon the hillside that a magnificent view of the surrounding scenery can be seen for miles around. It is comfortably furnished and possesses bath rooms and lavatories in addition to other modern conveniences. The green lawns and spacious grounds add to the pleasure of guests, many of whom come long distances to obtain a perfect change of air and climate.

The guests for this week at the White House are:—E. W. Willis, N. Y.; Mrs. and Mr. Depew, New York; Mr. W. J. Johnston and wife, of Rochester; Mr. J. D. Hayden, wife and family, of Cobourg; Mr. Arthur Boswell, K. C., and wife, of Toronto; Mrs. Rosewood, of British Columbia; Miss Hooey, Cobourg Doctor and Mrs. Greer, of Peterborough, and Miss Thompson, Chicago, Dr. Greer, of Peterborough, and his party arrived on Friday by his handsome new launch, Dr. Greer is at the wheel and distinguished himself as an expert "craftsman."

Brook Island.

Brook Island, so romantically situated about the centre of Rice Lake, has been open for some time. Mrs. Shoebotham, of Toronto, has a happy party with her, who will enjoy their outing until late in the season.

Harwood.

The Lakeview House, at Harwood, is very busy with its regular boarders and transients. Quite a number of Americans camp here every year and the house is well furnished and equipped. It is noted for its high, dry and healthy location and its care for those who seek rest and recreation.

Idyl Wyld.

Idyl Wyld has been quiet this week although the excellent fishing is expected to revive the island. Big catches of muskinonge and bass are attracting to the American tourist, so many of whom have found Idyl Wyld to be their "bright and happy waters." Several Americans have come and gone since the fishing season opened, and Mr. Hutchinson is preparing for more arrivals. An idea of the happiness of a Peterborough visitor on this island is expressed in the following lines:

"Lots of trouble I see in life,
And I guess where 'twill land me,
But I've found a place 'neath a shady tree,
A fine old island where rest grows free,

ALL IT NEEDED

There is more real oxygen in a liquified form in the "solution of Ozone (the coupon kind)" than in any other preparation of a similar nature. As a prompt cure in the killing of all inside germs of thirst, lungs, stomach or bowels, it has no equal when coupled with "Celery King" the famous laxative. That the stringent Ozone needed a tonic of this nature to procure the best results was so apparent that the Public Drug Co., of Bridgeburg, Ont., offer through your druggist a free package of "Celery King" with every fifty cent or one dollar bottle of "solution of Ozone (the coupon kind)." PRESENT NOT AN OPPORTUNE TIME

Mr. Wm. Pringle Replies to Mr. D. W. Dumble—Points Out That Fifth Form Cannot be Added to Public School at the Present Time—Instead, Believes That First Form of Collegiate Should be Made Free—Fee for First Year in Collegiate Institute is $5.00, Not $10.00, as Stated.

To the Editor of the Examiner—

Dear Sir,—In last Saturday's issue of the Examiner, a letter appeared from Mr. D. W. Dumble, in which he makes statements which are very misleading. I refer especially to his suggestion that a fifth class be added to the public schools, where, as he says, a student may, without entering the Collegiate Institute, get a thorough Commercial education.

At the outset I wish to state that this is no new question, as the Supervision Committee has had the matter under consideration for some time, and have reached the conclusion that the present is not opportune for the establishment of such a class, but, instead, have recommended to the Board, that so soon as it can be found expedient to do so, the First Form of the Collegiate Institute be made free.

Mr. Dumble says in answer to "Trustee," who tells him that the First Form in the Public School would overlap, "that, is!, the entrance examinations keep many out of the First Form in the Collegiate: 2nd, that the Public School is free, whereas a fee of $10 is charged in the Collegiate: 3rd, that commercial students in the Institute must take all the subjects of that form.

Taking these in their order:—

1st. The regulations require pupils entering the Fifth Class to have passed the Entrance examination, or to be specially recommended by the Principal and Inspector, practically the same as is required to enter the Collegiate. (See Reg. 17, sub-sec. 3.)

2nd. The fee for the first year in the Collegiate is only $5, instead of $10 as stated by Mr. Dumble. The fee for the second year is $10.

3rd. Commercial students in the Collegiate Institute are only required to take those subjects which bear directly on their work, the Principal having authority to make such modifications of the course as may be deemed expedient. (See Reg. 39, sub-sec. 8.)

If Mr. Dumble consults the regulations he will also find that there are more obligatory subjects required in the Fifth Form, and less latitude given the principal, than in the First Form of the Collegiate Institute.

Mr. Dumble makes the statement that there is no law that makes Collegiate Institute education compulsory, but provision is made for a fifth form in the public schools; is it not equally true that there is no law that makes a fifth form in our public schools compulsory, but provision is made for Collegiate Institute education?

From Mr. Dumble's letter I understand he is in favour of a Collegiate Institute, and if we are to retain this school it must make provision for commercial work, (see Reg. 11, sub-sec. 1,) which of necessity must overlap with such course established in the public schools, and the attendance at present would not justify the expense in connection with a second class.

In regard to Mr. Dumble's statement that the people are demanding a fifth form, so far as I am aware no intimation of such demand has ever been received by the Board.

In submitting the above facts for the attention of the public, I do not wish to be understood as unduly advocating the claims of the Collegiate Institute over those of our public schools, but, as the contrary, am, and always have been, of the opinion that sufficient attention is not given to our public schools, that these are of first importance, and that too much cannot be done to raise the standard of their efficiency. I believe it would be a decided advantage to these schools if the recent recommendation of the Supervision Committee could be carried out, viz., to centralize the fourth book classes, and remove the fees from the first form of the Collegiate Institute. Not only would all pupils sufficiently advanced then have the opportunity to take up Commercial work without extra cost, but a much larger number would reach the standard of efficiency than under present arrangements. I remain, Sir,

Yours truly,
WM. PRINGLE.

CHINESE AS SOLDIERS.

The demand of certain native Canadian Chinamen to be enrolled in the militia opens an interesting question, says the Montreal Witness. These men are by right as much Canadians as any of us. The ordinary reason given for treating Chinamen differently from other strangers seeking our shores for betterment is that Chinamen do not marry and settle down and become Canadians. They simply make all the money they can and take it to China. This does not seem to apply to these men, as they are in the second generation. We do not know how far they have in their life adopted the language and dress of the country. As to speech, it is not unlikely that they speak English better than they do Chinese. And as to dress, their present demand certainly implies a wish to wear the garb of the west, and to do without their people's distinctive headgear. They will have to swear allegiance to the King, and count Canada and not China their country. Indeed, being brought up in Canada, they are no doubt as strongly Canadian in sentiment as the rest of us. This little group of Canadian patriots may seem insignificant as affecting the Chinese question, but they may be the beginning of conditions which will force us to treat yellow men as fellow citizens.

THE TEMISKAMING SOIL

In view of the statements made by Dr. Bell, and reported in Thursday's Examiner, in reference to the weather of the Temiskaming country, the following article in the Toronto Globe will be of interest:

There is no better authority in America on agricultural soils than Mr. C. A. Zavitz, who has charge of the experimental work on the farm attached to the Ontario Agricultural College. On his recent return from a prolonged visit to the settlement at the head of Lake Temiskaming he expressed opinions about what he had seen that are of the deepest interest to the people of this Province. He found the locality peculiarly adapted to the production of clover and peas, which flourish there better than they do anywhere else in Ontario. Potatoes thrive well, and barley, oats, and wheat take rank in the order given. In the opinion of Professor Zavitz, an extensive and profitable industry will probably be developed through the production of clover and peas for seed to be used elsewhere.

The area covered by this visit lies in the contiguous valleys of the White and Wahbi Rivers, which empty into Lake Temiskaming at its northwest corner. The soil of these valleys is a deep alluvial and calcareous clay, quite friable when exposed to the air, and easily worked by farm implements. Its fertility seems to be as inexhaustible as that of the famous soil of the Red River valley in Manitoba. The land is not hard or costly to clear when the work is done in the right way. The climate is superb, the length of the day in summer compensating for the high northern latitude, as it does in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, and even in the Yukon Territory. Though the Temiskaming settlement is three hundred miles north of Toronto, it is not so far north on the average as Manitoba. The head of Lake Temiskaming is nearly two degrees farther south than the southern boundary of the northwestern Provinces.

The chief interest in the testimony of Prof. Zavitz, however, is its bearing on the pressing question of the value of the great clay belt to be traversed for hundreds of miles by the National Transcontinental Railway. This immense region of sixteen millions of acres lies still farther north, it is true, but it is a curious though well ascertained fact that beyond the height of land the climate is more moderate than it is on this side of it. Even as an agricultural country there are possibilities there to which it would be rash to set limits, while the timber and mineral are of untold importance as the bases of a great industrial system yet to be developed.

SUPPRESS THE "MASHER."

A Des Moines judge has laid down a code for flirtation beyond which it would be dangerous to go in that city, says the Hamilton Times. Two young men were on trial for tapping two respectable young women on the shoulders and saying to them, "Hello, girls!" without having gone through the formality of an introduction. The judge said:—

The young folks can have a good time, for all I care, but I am opposed to fellows trying to make up to girls they never saw before. It is not right and I will not stand it. The girl who has no desire to flirt must and shall be protected. When two young people wish to go out for a sociable time I do not know that it is positively necessary that there be an introduction in a city as large as Des Moines, though that would be more in keeping with the propriety I was accustomed to when a boy. But young men must learn they have no right to approach a lady in Des Moines who has given no cause for suspicion that she desires male society.

In other words, a young man must wait until the young lady signifies by some mysterious telepathic process that his attention would not be unfavourably looked upon before he makes advances, if he would not reckon with the court. There are girls who take up with "unknowns" on the streets—more's the pity. Such acquaintances are not likely to result well for the girls.

Galt is alarmed over a proposal similar to the one made in Peterborough, viz., that the consumptive sanitarium may be located there. It is claimed that such an institution might be detrimental to the health of the community. If the contention is justifiable it should apply to other centres as well as Galt. There should be an official pronouncement from authoritative sources on the matter in order that the public may know the correct facts.

QUARTER OF A CENTURY AGO

Interesting Extracts From The Examiner of 25 Years Ago.

RUNAWAY TEAM IN AN ALSIKE FIELD

Mr. Robert Robertson Had an Exciting Experience.

Horses Ran Away With Mower, Smashing it Into Scrap Iron.

Yesterday Mr. Robert Robertson, who lives about a half a mile west of Springville, was in a field on his farm cutting alsike with a spirited team of horses, when he had an experience which was rather exciting while it lasted.

He got off the mower to roll back a bundle of alsike, when one of the horses, a colt, rubbed his head against the neckyoke, pulling the bridle off. Finding itself free from the resistance of the bit and reins, the animal started off with its mate, which soon entered into the spirit of the affair, and the rattle of the machine frightened the horses still more.

They tore around the field at a 2.40 clip, and after they had been captured it was found that the mower, which was a brand new machine, was fit only for scrap iron. The horses were practically uninjured, a few cuts being the extent, and Mr. Robertson, who was off the machine at the time, was not hurt in the least.

PASSENGERS TOOK THE WRONG TRAIN

Several "mix-ups" which caused no end of annoyance occurred this morning at the G.T.R. station, at the time of the departure of the trains for Toronto, Belleville and Lakefield, which follow each other in quick succession, and passengers, by reason of the lack of any means of securing information, frequently take the wrong train.

This morning a number of such misfortunes were reported, and a large number who had Lakefield in view as their objective point, found themselves travelling towards the petrified town to the south-east, before becoming cognizant of their mistake. A number of similar mistakes were made with regard to the Belleville train.

As was previously pointed out in these columns, some means of identifying the trains should be provided, this should be an easy matter to arrange, as a card might be attached as is the case in other places.

THE REAL CAUSE

The Ancient Scalp-Fever Theory Exploded.

At one time dandruff was attributed to the result of a feverish condition of the scalp, which threw off the dried cuticles in scales.

Professor Unna, Hamburg, Germany, a noted authority on skin diseases, explodes this theory, and says that dandruff is a germ disease.

This germ is really responsible for the dandruff, and for so many bald heads. It can be cured if it is gone about in the right way. The right way of course and the only way, is to kill the germ.

Newbro's Herpicide does this, and permits the hair to grow luxuriantly, just as nature intended it should.

CRUSHED HAND IN COUPLING CARS

Mr. Wm. Buchanan Met With Painful Accident.

Feared That an Amputation May be Necessary—A Havelock Man.

This morning William Buchanan, of Havelock, had the misfortune to have his right hand crushed. Mr. Buchanan is employed as a yard man in the C. P. R. yards here, and while coupling two cars on the Dickson siding a little after seven o'clock this morning he got his right hand jammed between the bumpers, which almost severed the thumb and inside finger. Comsteck's ambulance quickly responded to an emergency call, and the injured man was removed to Nicholls' Hospital. It is feared that it will be impossible to save both members, and it may be necessary to amputate the thumb at least.

Mr. Buchanan's many friends will be sorry to hear of his misfortune, which will keep him from his work for some time.

THE BOYS WERE GIVEN LIBERTY

Sentenced to One Month for Stealing Strawberries.

Minister of Justice Directed Yesterday That They be Liberated.

Yesterday afternoon the two boys, Merdie McGill and Ed. Foley, who were sentenced to the county jail for a month after having been convicted on a charge of stealing strawberries, were liberated.

It will be remembered that after the boys were sentenced there was a movement started to secure their liberation, as it was considered by some that the punishment was rather severe. A petition was circulated, and signed by about 150 persons, and sent to the Minister of Justice, asking for their release.

Yesterday Mr. D. O'Connell, who has acted for the boys' parents received a letter from the Department of State to the effect that the Minister of Justice had decided, upon the representations made, to grant the request of the petition, consequently the boys were released and went to their homes.

It is quite safe to say that in future these boys will be more careful of their conduct.

—The Omemee Mirror, referring to the 12th of July celebration in that village, says: It was a money-maker for the Presbyterian and English churches, the former clearing about $300 and the latter $230. The Presbyterians had a J. J. Turner tent, 60 x 100 feet, while Major Evans kindly loaned rooms in his large foundry to the Anglicans.

During hot weather, horses are liable to suffer from severe diarrhoea, which, if not checked, causes the animal's death. A number of animals in this district have died from this complaint. Dr. Poole, V. S., 420 Water street, Peterborough, has discovered a cure for the above, which, to prove his assertion, unless the animal recovers, he will charge nothing for his services. Owners of horses should take advantage of this offer. Telephone 459, or the above address, night or day. 12d16-3w

—This tale comes from New Caledonia, where a ship was loading up with natives to work in Australia: "There was a man and a girl — a young couple they seemed. She had a youngster, who began yelling at sight of the boat. 'Can't take that youngster!' the boss shouted. The woman said she wanted to come, too. 'No, we can't ship that squalling little beast. Leave him with his auntie.' There was no auntie in sight. So the Kanaka man, after taking a look around, caught the kiddy by the heels, swung her round like a rabbit and dashed her head against a tree. 'She was only a girl, anyway,' he said, and slung her body into the scrub. Then they both hopped into the boat and were shipped aboard."

Mr. G. Pritchard, President Canadian Fire Engine Co., was heard.

Moved by Ald. Adams, seconded by Ald. Tovey that the chairman interview a local expert and see if he will give the committee the benefit of his knowledge in connection with the purchasing of an engine and on what terms. Carried.

Moved by Ald. Crowe, seconded by Ald. Adams that the chairman ascertain at what price he can obtain incandescent lights from the Otonabee Power Co. for street lighting. Carried.

Moved by Ald. Adams and seconded by Ald. McIntyre that the City Solicitor be instructed to prepare a by-law to amend the building by-law so as to permit of the erection of sheds of one storey in the fire limits of 9-inch brick walls. Carried.

PETERBORO' WON IN CLOSE GAME

Bowmanville Beaten by Score of 6-2.

At the last half of the eighth innings in the game between Peterborough and Bowmanville, the score was 5—2, in favour of the home team. The Peterborough team were to bat in the last half of this innings with this score and the visitors only had one more innings to make up the runs needed.

Douglas was pitching good ball and was getting good support. The largest crowd of the season saw the game. If the locals win the game which they are looked upon to do, they will be tied for the League leadership.

LATER.

The final score is 6—2. The locals scored one more, and shut Bowmanville out in the ninth.

SERG. MOORE IS STILL WINNING

Local Marksman is Doing Good Work at Bisley.

Colour Sergeant Moore, the 57th representative on the Bisley team, is still winning honours. Yesterday it was reported that he had caught a place on the team to represent Canada in the shoot for the King's Cup. He was the fourth man on this team, and yesterday afternoon in the shooting for the second stage took place, Sergt. Moore was tied for second place, having score 88, the highest being 89. He has also now qualified for a place for the third stage, and is one of the four to have that honour. His aggregate score was 176, and there was only one man, Richardson, who scored higher, his record being 188.

Shooting in the Handsworth competition (ten shots at 900 yards) Sgt. Moore made 47 out of 50, and Sergt. Kelly of Toronto, 45. For the Stickedown, Moore scored 47.

HIGH PRAISE FOR MR. J. H. BURNHAM

An Interesting and Well Written Story of Canadian Life.

The Mail and Empire to-day publishes a review of Mr. J. H. Burnham's new book, "Marcelle," and says:—

We find some difficulty in giving due commendation to this excellent historical novel by Mr. Hampden Burnham. The writer does not now appear for the first time, although the present writer had not met with his previous writings. But in any case he gives us here an exceedingly interesting and well written story, belonging to a most important era in Canadian history, the period of the government of the great Frontenac, who occupies a prominent place in the narrative. The heroine, who gave her name to the book, was the daughter of a coureur de bois (woodranger) and a Huron woman. She lived with her father and was beloved by a Huron, whom she also loved, almost without knowing it. Tempted away from her home by a French nobleman, attached to the viceregal court, who meant her no good, she came to Quebec, and threw herself upon the protection of the Superior of the Convent of the Ursulines, and was soon afterwards adopted by Frontenac. Her great beauty rendered her attractive to many, and, partly for her protection, she became betrothed to the heir of the Count de Beauharnais, and just as we are expecting a somewhat obvious ending to the story, the Huron appears again on the scene. We ought to have mentioned that the story is thoroughly interesting from beginning to end, as well as admirably written, but it reaches its highest point in the last struggle which is depicted with great power, until we reach the conclusion, which proves quite satisfactory. It is a long time since we read so good a story.

SAVED FROM A WATERY GRAVE

Mr. C. and Captain Fessenden Rescue Drowning Couple.

Were Cruising in Gasoline Launch Within Quarter of a Mile of the Spot Where Accident Occurred

Mr. W. H. Moore and Mr. Robert Fair, who returned this morning from Camp Le Nid, Bay of Quinte, were witnesses of the double fatality by drowning which occurred at Glen Island on Thursday.

Two of a party of four, it will be remembered, were drowned by the upsetting of a dinghy in which they were rowing, while two were saved. The accounts of the affair as furnished to the press were extremely meagre in detail, and it now appears that the deeds of the survivors of the accident was accomplished by Principal Fessenden, of the Peterborough Collegiate Institute, and his son, who, with two others from Camp Le Nid, happened to be only about a quarter of a mile distant at the time of the occurrence. They were, it appears, on their way to Glen Island in their gasoline launch when the upset was noticed, and promptly went to the rescue. They succeeded in reaching two of the party, Miss Bowen and Mr. Joseph Pilgrim, before they sank, but the remaining two, Miss Flossie Rogers and Mr. J. Macelroy, sank before assistance could be rendered.

The four occupants of the dinghy all resided in Napanee, and had come to Glen Island upon an excursion. They embarked in the dinghy, which was the property of a yacht owner, and which was entirely unsafe for so large a party. A high sea was running at the time.

CONTRACT HAS BEEN AWARDED

Contract Awarded to Mr. J. J. MacPherson—Work to be Completed in Six Weeks.

At last a contract has been awarded for the construction of the new Opera House. Mr. James MacPherson, contractor and builder, signed an agreement last night and will commence work on the walls as soon as possible.

Mr. MacPherson says that there were no competitors, and he will begin to build as soon as the concrete foundation is hard enough. The bricks have all been contracted for and he is advertising in to-day's Examiner for fifteen bricklayers to commence work at the end of next week, or the beginning of the week after. He expects to have the work done in six weeks.

It is probable that the carpentry work will be done by day work.

COMMISSIONERS ON INSPECTION

Transportation Commission May Go Over Trent Canal.

Mr. R. B. Rogers was Giving Evidence Yesterday in Toronto.

There is a probability that the Royal Transportation Commission will again visit Peterborough, and this time if they come they will take a trip over the route of the Trent Canal. It will be remembered that on the occasion of the sitting of the Commission here in March, 1904, an effort was made to have the Commissioners come to Peterborough later and go over the route of the canal, but this was not possible, and in the meantime the chairman of the Commission, Mr. John Bertram died, and the other members were thus deprived of the superior knowledge which he possessed.

Yesterday the Commission held a session in Toronto, and Mr. R. B. Rogers, superintending engineer of the Trent Canal, gave evidence by request in reference to the canal.

It is possible that in the not distant future the Commissioners will personally inspect the canal. They have left now for the Maritime Provinces.

LATEST SPORT

MR. STRICKLAND IS PREPARED

To Meet Tom Beachmont, of Gananoque, in Swimming Contest.

To Take Place in Trent Canal Between Nassau and Peterborough —Distance 31-2 Miles.

Mr. H. T. Strickland, of Toronto, who on Monday last broke the Canadian swimming record by covering nine miles between Lakefield and the lift lock, passed through town this morning on his way to Stony Lake, for the purpose, as he expresses it, of "having a good swim." The waters of Stony Lake are much superior in his opinion to those of Toronto Bay, which are frightfully cold in comparison.

Mr. Strickland, when asked by an Examiner representative regarding the challenge recently issued to him by Tom Beachmont, of Gananoque, stated that he was prepared to meet Beachmont in a speed trial over the 31-2 miles between Nassau and Peterborough. "Why did he not," Mr. Strickland enquired, "come along with us in Monday to swim?"

Mr. Strickland expresses his views upon the matter in a letter, which appears in this morning's issue of the Toronto Mail and Empire. If the match is arranged upon the terms suggested, it will undoubtedly create great local interest. The letter is, as follows:—

Sporting Editor Mail and Empire.

Sir,—My attention has been drawn to a letter from one Tom Beachmont, challenging my swim on the 17th, when I successfully made the 19 miles from Lake Iield to Peterborough. Why did not friend Beachmont beat in with us at the time, as the event was well advertised in all the papers. There is nothing to challenge. My record was made under auspices of the leading papers in Peterborough and Lake Iield, and we were accompanied by representatives from all those places, besides many other interested parties, and our time is indisputable. I should have been delighted to have had anyone else swim with us, but am not particularly desirous of going through it again to please Mr. Beachmont, or everyone who has an idea that they can do better. Let him or anyone else who is hankering for the job get out some day and do it under fair judgment, and have their time taken like I did, and I shall be very pleased to hear of Mr. Beachmont's success.

In conclusion I might add that I did not swim with a view to time altogether although I practically swam overhand strokes without a break the entire distance, but the swim was undertaken more with a view to ascertain whether I could cover the distance. If Mr. Beachmont will first of all beat my record (the exact distance to an inch will be verified), I will swim him a 31-2 miles, from Nassau to Peterborough, in August.

Yours truly,
E. F. STRICKLAND

AUBURN WOOLEN MILLS EXCURSION

A Good Crowd Went up the Lakes—A Successful Picnic.

This morning nearly all the employees of the Auburn Woollen Mills and many others bent on having a day's pleasure, were on hand at the Wolfe street wharf to take in the annual excursion of the employees of that factory.

The City of Peterborough left the wharf at 7.30 with the jolly crowd, and proceeded over the Lift Lock and up the canal to Lakefield.

The objective point of the excursion is Burleigh, where a good programme of sports will be run off.

The picnic is an annual affair and this year promises to be more successful than ever.

FORTY KILLED AND 100 INJURED

Terrible Explosion on United States Gunboat ---Others Will Surely Die---Boiler Explosion in San Diego Harbor Results in Harrowing Scenes---Wounded Conveyed in Open Wagons to Hospitals---Awful Sights on Board the Beached Vessel---Boilers Were Not the Best.

San Diego, Cal., July 22.—One of the most frightful disasters in the peace history of the American navy, excepting the sinking of the Maine in Havana harbor, occurred in San Diego Bay shortly after 10.30 a. m. yesterday, on board the United States gunboat Bennington.

At a moment when the warship, lying at anchor, was the object of interest to hundreds of observing people on the piers and pleasure boat, a cloud of steam suddenly burst from a point just forward of the smokestack, out of which the spectators were horrified to see bodies and human fragments hurled high in the air and scattered over the surrounding water.

Rose As of Thunder.

The outburst was accompanied by a roar as of thunder and a shock that rocked vessels nearby. The air was filled with shrieks of pain from the wounded, which could be heard ashore, and with flying fragments of human beings and pieces of the ship's superstructure. The next moment bleeding sailors were fighting, crippled, in the water against death in a less sudden form than that from which they had escaped, while rowboats, sailboats, launches and tugs were flying to the rescue. A ferryboat hastened to render assistance, her own deck crowded with frightened men and women.

Frightful Scenes.

In the water men with blackened faces were struggling, handicapped by injuries. Others on deck were covered with blood, some dead, some wounded frightfully, others working to rescue comrades who were yet below. The small boats turned their attention to those in the water, taking them to the wharves. Ambulances were telephoned for, every express wagon and driver who could be reached by telephone was summoned, physicians were notified and hospitals informed. Within half an hour carriages, hurries, automobiles and street cars were bearing burdens of victims toward the hospitals.

Dozens Wounded in Wagons.

The sight which met the eyes of hundreds along the street was one never to be forgotten. Wagons with a dozen wounded men were not rare. One had eight sitting or reeling against the sides, holding in their laps the heads of comrades near to death, all of them with faces black with grime, and many clothed in nothing but trousers. Some of those whose bodies were bare, not injured in vital parts, suffered the agonies of torn flesh, sat up with lacerated bodies exposed to the wind.

In the meantime a more awful sight awaited those who had hastened to the ill-fated ship, from which steam continued to pour in great clouds. Everywhere was blood, and in all directions were bodies. The after cabin was smeared with blood and the walls, ceiling and floor splashed with red. In the depths below, from which heat and steam rolled in volumes, too great to face, came the groans and wails of dying and the shrieks of the wounded. Tugs and launches soon were headed for the shore, bearing those whose injuries permitted removal, and bodies of the dead.

All the time the work of rescue was going on the ship was settling to starboard, and clouds of white steam poured from her interior.

Commander Young was ashore getting final orders preparatory to sailing and was soon on deck. He at once ordered the airlight compartments closed and signalled a tug to tow the ship into shallow water. Then he took charge of the sickening work at hand.

Bodies Blown 200 Feet.

The force of the explosion was terrific beyond conception. Human bodies were hurled into the air to a height probably not less than 200 feet. Sections of the upper deck were carried away from stem to stern, and after a hole was blown in the side of the warship, into which the water rushed, causing the rapid listing of the vessel.

Most of the men on board were assembled between decks, above the boilers, when the explosion occurred. Here is where the most frightful slaughter occurred. No one living has been able to describe what happened there, but vivid witnesses exist in the bloodsmeared walls.

Boilers Were Not the Best.

Washington, July 22.—The Bennington was a three-masted schooner. Her engines were twin screw horizontal triple expansion and had four cylindrical straightaway boilers, commonly called locomotive gunboat boilers. Each boiler was 17 feet and 9 inches long and 9 feet 9 inches in diameter. They were originally designed to carry 160 pounds of steam, but the last log received at the department shows that the safety valves were set for 145 pounds and that she carried 135 to 140 pounds of steam in cruising. The boilers were fifteen years old. The admiral of the Pacific fleet in 1904 reported to the Navy Department that the boilers were in need of repairs, but that the repairs were not urgent. A report from the ship's engineer officers, received about the same time, was that the boilers generally were in poor condition, but that the internal conditions of the boilers were good. In May last the Bennington was sent to the Maresland navy-yard, where temporary repairs were made on her boilers to put her in cruising condition.

40 Dead; 100 Hurt.

One officer and thirty-nine members of the crew were killed and nearly one hundred sailors injured, some fatally. Fifteen sailors are missing.

There were more than 250 men aboard when the accident occurred, and many were hurled or forced to jump into the sea by the terrific explosion, which lifted part of the deck and compelled the beaching of the ship.

Wanted Electric Fans.

Twenty-five or thirty hands employed in the cloak department of the Greene-Swift clothing factory, London, Ont., were affected by the heat on Wednesday, and quit work, until electric fans could be put in, which was done before the day was out.

HOUR AND A HALF ON UPTURNED CANOE

Unpleasant Experience of Two Young Men at Rice Lake —During a Squall Their Canoe Upset and They Clung to the Upturned Boat for an Hour and a Half Before They Were Rescued by Mr. Madden Howard—A Gallant Act by This Young Man—A Narrow Escape From Drowning.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Keene, July 22. — Two summer visitors at Rice Lake had a very narrow escape from drowning this week. Two young men have been camping near Hidwatha, on the shores of the lake, and on Wednesday afternoon went out in a sailing canoe.

A squall sprang up, and before the sailors could reach shore they were thrown into the water by the capsizing of the canoe. This accident occurred about three o'clock, and was noticed by those on shore, but on account of the high sea rolling it was impossible for anyone to go to their rescue.

After they had been in the water clinging to the upturned canoe, for an hour and a half, Mr. Madden Howard of the Hiawatha Indian Reserve, succeeded in reaching them, and brought them ashore, but it was a risky exploit, and when he reached land with the two young men, his canoe was almost filled with water.

The men who had thus been rescued from a watery grave by the heroism of Mr. Howard, were profuse in their expressions of gratitude to him for his services in thus risking his life to save them.

King's Prize Final.

To-day sees the third and last stage of the King's Prize competition, when ten shots will be fired at each of the 800, 900 and 1,000 yards ranges. The competitors number one hundred, and their places are decided by their aggregate scores in the first, second and third stages.

Three Canadians still remain—Staff-Sergt. C. R. Crowe, 30th Regiment, Guelph; Pte. C. E. Morrice, 1st Regiment, P. W. F., Montreal, and Sergt. F. Richardson, 5th Regiment of Artillery, Victoria. Their respective aggregates at the first and second stages are 185, 184 and 185—the highest aggregate scored being 193.

Won the "Gregory."

Staff-Sergt. Kerr of the 48th Highlanders has won the "Gregory," with his splendid score of 19 successive bulls at the 200-yards range. His twentieth shot was an inner. He wins a Lee-Enfield rifle, a Gregory binocular field glass in aluminum, a Gregory telescope, and a solid leather shooting case, fitted with a complete set of shooting accessories, valued at £21.

Capt. Forrest was 6th, winning £2; Sergt. W. Kelly was 9th, winning £2; Lt. Boult, 20th, £1; Staff-Sergt. Bayles, 47th, 14 shillings; Sergt. Moore, 44th, 14 shillings; Sergt. Russell, 46th, 14 shillings.

St. George's Vase.

There was some splendid shooting at the two ranges in the first stage of the St. George's Challenge Vase competition yesterday.

In the first stages of the St. George's Challenge Vase, Sergt. Kelly was 184th, winning £2; Sergt. Simpson, 196th, £2; Pte. Brayshaw, 196th, £2; Capt. Jones, 215th, £1.

Other Scores.

In the Stickletown, 1,000 yards, Moore scored 47.

Wins Gold Watch.

Pte. C. L. Morrice of the Prince of Wales Fusiliers, Montreal, wins the Canada Company's gold watch.

In the J. H. Steward Challenge Cup, 500 yards, Kelly, 38th, wins 17 shillings.

In the Imperial Tobacco Co.'s match, Elliott, 6th, wins £5; Boult, 39th, £2.

SALE OF A MODEL FARM.

Quebec, July 22.—The Quebec Government have disposed of their Model Farm at Compton for the sum of $12,000 to Mr. Dominique Ebidus, a practical farmer of the same vicinity, who closed the deal through his lawyer.

This farm was acquired by the Provincial Government for the purpose of encouraging agriculture in the Province of Quebec, and as a sort of college for the sons of farmers or other young men anxious to learn practical farming. It originally cost $11,000 for the land alone, and was not only stocked and suitable houses erected on the property, but a creamery that cost $3,000 built and prime stock imported from England and France to breed from.

The farm, however, did not bring the results expected. The running expenses cost from five to seven thousand dollars per annum, and finally the Government, tiring of the increased expense, came to the conclusion to dispose of it.

RUSSIANS SUFFER DEFEAT AT DALINE

Two Hundred Russians Offer Desperate Resistance to Japs---The Japs Took 51 Hours to Win---Russian Positions Were Hidden in a Thick Forest and Enemies of Japan Made Most of Their Topographical Advantage---Captured Five Guns---481 Russians Were Taken on Sakhalin Island.

Tokio, July 22.—A special telegram from Otaru says that the Russians defeated at Daline were about 200 with six field and three machine guns, and, taking the fullest advantage of the topographical character of the district, offered the most desperate resistance.

The Russian positions were hidden among a thick forest, and it was impossible for the Japanese gunners to make a correct observation. The cannonade, however, was opened by the Japanese, at 6 o'clock on the morning of July 7, and was kept up until dusk. The Japanese gradually gained ground, closing in on the enemy's line of defence, awaiting an opportunity for an infantry charge. It was nearly two hours past midnight when the enemy's first line of defence, strengthened by barricades and trenches, was taken.

Two Days Fight For Victory.

This success was vigorously followed up, but it was not until 9 o'clock on the morning of July 9 that the enemy was driven from the second line of his defence, and a victory secured, with trophies secured of four field guns and one machine gun.

The nature of the ground exposed the Japanese assailants to a great disadvantage and risk.

It is believed that, owing to the short supplies of ammunition and provisions, the Russians at Sakhalin cannot hold out much longer.

It is officially announced that the Russians that have thus far surrendered at various points of Sakhalin Island number 461, including one colonel and 14 other officers.

Witte in Paris.

Paris, July 22.—M. Witte, accompanied by his wife, several members of his family and a number of officials, making up the party which is on the way to the United States, arrived at the Northern Railroad station at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Impossible Peace Terms.

St. Petersburg, July 22.—The News Vremya yesterday devotes a leading article to the alleged peace conditions, as published by The Berlin Tageblatt, and Frankfort Zeitung, dwelling especially on the specification against double-tracking the Siberian Railroad, which, the paper declares is utterly unacceptable in every way, being equivalent to the political and economic suicide of Russia.

Jap Warships Sighted.

Copenhagen, July 22.—A despatch from St. Petersburg to Godstadam says that private advices received at the Russian capital say that Japanese warships have been sighted near Nikolaievsk, at the mouth of the Amur River. Many of the inhabitants of Nikolaievsk and Vladivostock, it is added, have fled to Khabarevsk.

Police Chief Shot.

Helsingfors, Finland, July 22.—Col. Kremarenko, chief of police, was shot yesterday, by a man named Procopje, and is in a critical condition. Procopje was arrested and has been identified as an accomplice of the man who recently attempted to assassinate former Governor Mirsejadoff.

The Return of Sherlock Holmes

The Adventure of Charles Augustus Milverton

No. 7 of the Series

(Copyright, 1905, by McClure, Phillips & Co.)

IT is years since the incidents of which I speak took place, and yet it is with diffidence that I allude to them. For a long time, even with the utmost discretion and reticence, it would have been impossible to make the facts public, but now the principal person concerned is beyond the reach of human law, and with due suppression the story may be told in such fashion as to injure no one. It records an absolutely unique experience in the career both of Mr. Sherlock Holmes and of myself. The reader will excuse me if I conceal the date or any other fact by which he might trace the actual occurrence.

We had been out for one of our evening rambles, Holmes and I, and had returned about 6 o'clock on a cold, frosty winter's evening. As Holmes turned up the lamp the light fell upon a card on the table. He glanced at it and then, with an ejaculation of disgust, threw it on the floor. I picked it up and read:

CHARLES AUGUSTUS MILVERTON,
Appledore Towers,
Agent. Hampstead.

"Who is he?" I asked.

"The worst man in London," Holmes answered as he sat down and stretched his legs before the fire. "Is anything on the back of the card?"

I turned it over.

"Will call at 6:30—C. A. M.," I read.

"Hum! He's about due. Do you feel a creeping, shrinking sensation, Watson, when you stand before the serpents in the zoo and see the slithery, gliding, venomous creatures, with their deadly eyes and wicked, flattened faces? Well, that's how Milverton impresses me. I've had to do with fifty murderers in my career, but the worst of them never gave me the repulsion which I have for this fellow. And yet I can't get out of doing business with him—indeed, he is here at my invitation."

"But who is he?"

"I'll tell you, Watson. He is the king of all the blackmailers. Heaven help the man, and still more the woman, whose secret and reputation come into the power of Milverton! With a smiling face and a heart of marble, he will squeeze and squeeze until he has drained them dry. The fellow is a genius in his way and would have made his mark in some more savory trade. His method is as follows: He allows it to be known that he is prepared to pay very high sums for letters which compromise people of wealth and position. He receives these wares not only from treacherous valets or maids, but frequently from genteel ruffians who have gained the confidence and affection of trusting women. He deals with no niggard hand. I happen to know that he paid £700 to a footman for a note two lines in length and that the ruin of a noble family was the result. Everything which is in the market goes to Milverton, and there are hundreds in this great city who turn white at his name. No one knows where his grip may fall, for he is far too rich and far too cunning to work from hand to mouth. He will hold a card back for years in order to play it at the moment when the stake is best worth winning. I have said that he is the worst man in London, and I would ask you how could one compare the ruffian who in hot blood bludgeons his mate with this man who methodically and at his leisure tortures the soul and wrings the nerves in order to add to his already swollen money bags?"

I had seldom heard my friend speak with such intensity of feeling.

"But surely," said I, "the fellow must be within the grasp of the law?"

"Technically, no doubt, but practically not. What would it profit a woman, for example, to get him a few months' imprisonment if her own ruin must immediately follow? His victims dare not hit back. If ever he blackmailed an innocent person, then indeed we should have him, but he is as cunning as the evil one. No, no; we must find other ways to fight him."

"And why is he here?"

"Because an illustrious client has placed her piteous case in my hands. It is the Lady Eva Blackwell, the most beautiful debutante of last season. She is to be married in a fortnight to the Earl of Dovercourt. This fiend has several imprudent letters—imprudent, Watson; nothing worse—which were written to an impecunious young squire in the country. They would suffice to break off the match. Milverton will send the letters to the earl unless a large sum of money is paid him. I have been commissioned to meet him and to make the best terms I can."

At that instant there was a clatter and a rattle in the street below. Looking down, I saw a stately carriage and pair, the brilliant lamps gleaming on the glossy haunches of the noble chestnuts. A footman opened the door, and a small, stout man in a shaggy astrakhan overcoat descended. A minute later he was in the room.

Charles Augustus Milverton was a man of fifty, with a large, intellectual head, a round, plump, hairless face, a perpetual frozen smile and two keen gray eyes which gleamed brightly from behind broad gold rimmed glasses. There was something of Mr. Pickwick's benevolence in his appearance, marred only by the insincerity of the fixed smile and by the hard glitter of those restless and penetrating eyes. His voice was as smooth and suave as his countenance as he advanced with a plump little hand extended, murmuring his regret for having missed us at his first visit. Holmes disregarded the outstretched hand and looked at him with a face of granite. Milverton's smile broadened; he shrugged his shoulders, removed his overcoat, folded it with great deliberation over the back of a chair and then took a seat.

"This gentleman?" said he, with a wave in my direction. "Is it discreet? Is it right?"

"Dr. Watson is my friend and partner."

"Very good, Mr. Holmes. It is only in your client's interests that I protested. The matter is so very delicate"—

"Dr. Watson has already heard of it."

"Then we can proceed to business. You say that you are acting for Lady Eva. Has she empowered you to accept my terms?"

"What are your terms?"

"Seven thousand pounds."

"And the alternative?"

"My dear sir, it is painful for me to discuss it, but if the money is not paid on the 14th there certainly will be no marriage on the 18th." His insufferable smile was more complacent than ever.

Holmes thought for a little.

"You appear to me," he said at last, "to be taking matters too much for granted. I am, of course, familiar with the contents of these letters. My client will certainly do what I may advise. I shall counsel her to tell her future husband the whole story and to trust to his generosity."

Milverton chuckled.

"You evidently do not know the earl," said he.

From the baffled look upon Holmes' face I could see clearly that he did.

"What harm is there in the letters?" he asked.

"They are sprightly—very sprightly," Milverton answered. "The lady was a charming correspondent. But I can assure you that the Earl of Dovercourt would fail to appreciate them. However, since you think otherwise, we will let it rest at that. It is purely a matter of business. If you think that it is in the best interests of your client that these letters should be placed in the hands of the earl, then you would indeed be foolish to pay so large a sum of money to regain them." He rose and seized his astrakhan coat.

Holmes was gray with anger and mortification.

"Wait a little," he said. "You go too fast. We should certainly make every effort to avoid scandal in so delicate a matter."

Milverton relapsed into his chair.

"I was sure that you would see it in that light," he purred.

"At the same time," Holmes continued, "Lady Eva is not a wealthy woman. I assure you that £2,000 would be a drain upon her resources and that the sum you name is utterly beyond her power. I beg, therefore, that you will moderate your demands and that you will return the letters at the price I indicate, which is, I assure you, the highest that you can get."

"I am aware that what you say is true about the lady's resources," said he. "At the same time you must admit that the occasion of a lady's marriage is a very suitable time for her friends and relatives to make some little effort upon her behalf. They may hesitate as to an acceptable wedding present. Let me assure them that this little bundle of letters would give more joy than all the candelabra and butter dishes in London."

"It is impossible," said Holmes.

"Dear me, dear me, how unfortunate!" cried Milverton, taking out a bulky pocketbook. "I cannot help thinking that ladies are ill advised in not making an effort. Look at this!" He held up a little note with a coat of arms upon the envelope. "That belongs to—well, perhaps it is hardly fair to tell the name until tomorrow morning. But at that time it will be in the hands of the lady's husband. And all because she will not find a beggarly sum which she could get by turning her diamonds into paste. It is such a pity! Now, you remember the sudden end of the engagement between the Honorable Miss Miles and Colonel Dorking? Only two days before the wedding there was a paragraph in the Morning Post to say that it was all off. And why? It is almost incredible.

There was something of Mr. Pickwick's benevolence in his appearance.

but the absurd sum of £1,200 would have settled the whole question. Is it not pitiful? And here I find you, a man of sense, boggling about terms when your client's future and honor are at stake. You surprise me, Mr. Holmes."

"What I say is true," Holmes answered. "The money cannot be found. Surely it is better for you to take the substantial sum which I offer than to ruin this woman's career, which can profit you in no way."

"There you make a mistake, Mr. Holmes. An exposure would profit me indirectly to a considerable extent. I have eight or ten similar cases maturing. If it was circulated among them that I had made a severe example of the Lady Eva, I should find all of them much more open to reason. You see my point?"

"Get behind him, Watson! Don't let him out! Now, sir, let us see the contents of that notebook."

Milverton had glided as quick as a rat to the side of the room and stood with his back against the wall.

"Mr. Holmes, Mr. Holmes," he said, turning the front of his coat and exhibiting the butt of a large revolver, which projected from the inside pocket, "I have been expecting you to do something original. This has been done so often, and what good has ever come from it? I assure you that I am armed to the teeth, and I am perfectly prepared to use my weapons, knowing that the law will support me. Besides, your supposition that I would bring the letters here in a notebook is entirely mistaken. I would do nothing so foolish. And now, gentlemen, I have one or two little interviews this evening, and it is a long drive to Hampstead." He stepped forward, took up his coat, laid his hand on his revolver and turned to the door. I picked up a chair, but Holmes shook his head, and I laid it down again. With a bow, a smile and a twinkle Milverton was out of the room, and a few moments after we heard the slam of the carriage door and the rattle of the wheels as he drove away.

Holmes sat motionless by the fire, his hands buried deep in his trousers pockets, his chin sunk upon his breast, his eyes fixed upon the glowing embers. For half an hour he was silent and still. Then, with the gesture of a man who has taken his decision, he sprang to his feet and passed into his bedroom. A little later a rakish young workman, with a goatee beard and a swagger, lit his clay pipe at the lamp before descending into the street. "I'll be back some time, Watson," said he, and vanished into the night. I understood that he had opened his campaign against Charles August Milverton, but I little dreamed the strange shape which that campaign was destined to take.

For some days Holmes came and went at all hours in this attire, but beyond a remark that his time was spent at Hampstead and that it was not wasted I knew nothing of what he was doing. At last, however, on a wild, tempestuous evening, when the wind screamed and rattled against the windows, he returned from his last expedition, and, having removed his disguise, he sat before the fire and laughed heartily in his silent inward fashion.

"You would not call me a marrying man, Watson?"

"No, indeed!"

"You'll be interested to hear that I'm engaged."

"My dear fellow! I congrat"—

"To Milverton's housemaid."

"Good heavens, Holmes!"

"I wanted information, Watson."

"Surely you have gone too far."

"It was a most necessary step. I am a plumber, with a rising business, Escott by name. I have walked out with her each evening, and I have talked with her. Good heavens, those talks! However, I have got all I wanted. I know Milverton's house as I know the palm of my hand."

"But the girl, Holmes?"

He shrugged his shoulders.

"You can't help it, my dear Watson. You must play your cards as best you can when such a stake is on the table. However, I rejoice to say that I have a hated rival, who will certainly cut me out the instant that my back is turned. What a splendid night it is!"

"You like this weather?"

"It suits my purpose. Watson, I mean to burgle Milverton's house tonight."

I had a catching of the breath and my skin went cold at the words, which were slowly uttered in a tone of concentrated resolution. As a flash of lightning in the night shows up in an instant every detail of a wild landscape, so at one glance I seemed to see every possible result of such an action—the detection, the capture, the honored career ending in irreparable failure and disgrace, my friend himself lying at the mercy of the odious Milverton.

"For heaven's sake, Holmes, think what you are doing!" I cried.

"My dear fellow, I have given it every consideration. I am never precipitate in my actions, nor would I adopt so energetic and, indeed, so dangerous a course if any other were possible. Let us look at the matter clearly and fairly. I suppose that you will admit that the action is morally justifiable, though technically criminal. To burgle his house is no more than to forcibly take his pocketbook, an action in which you were prepared to aid me."

I turned it over in my mind.

"Yes," I said, "it is morally justifiable so long as our object is to take no articles save those which are used for an illegal purpose."

"Exactly. Since it is morally justifiable I have only to consider the question of personal risk. Surely a gentleman should not lay much stress upon this when a lady is in most desperate need of his help?"

"You will be in such a false position."

"Well, that is part of the risk. There is no other possible way of regaining these letters. The unfortunate lady has not the money, and there are none of her people in whom she could confide. Tomorrow is the last day of grace, and unless we can get the letters tonight this villain will be as good as his word and will bring about her ruin. I must therefore abandon my client to her fate or I must play this last card. Between ourselves, Watson, it's a sporting duel between this fellow Milverton and me. He had, as you saw, the best of the first exchanges, but my self respect and my reputation are concerned to fight it to a finish."

"Well, I don't like it, but I suppose it must be," said I. "When do we start?"

"You are not coming."

"Then you are not going," said I. "I give you my word of honor—and I never broke it in my life—that I will take a cab straight to the police station and give you away unless you let me share this adventure with you."

"You can't help me."

"How do you know that? You can't tell what may happen. Anyway my resolution is taken. Other people beside you have self respect and even reputations."

Holmes had looked annoyed, but his brow cleared, and he clapped me on the shoulder.

"Well, well, my dear fellow, be it so. We have shared this same room for some years, and it would be amusing if we ended by sharing the same cell. You know, Watson, I don't mind confessing to you that I have always had an idea that I would have made a highly efficient criminal. This is the chance of my lifetime in that direction. See here!" He took a neat little leather case out of a drawer and, opening it, he exhibited a number of shining instruments. "This is a first class up to date burgling kit, with nickel plated jimmy, diamond tipped glass cutter, adaptable keys and every modern improvement which the march of civilization demands. Here, too, is my dark lantern. Everything is in order. Have you a pair of silent shoes?"

"I have rubber soled tennis shoes."

"Excellent! And a mask?"

"I can make a couple out of black silk."

"I can see that you have a strong natural turn for this sort of thing. Very good, you make the masks. We shall have some cold supper before we start. It is now 9:30. At 11 we shall drive as far as Church row. It is a quarter of an hour's walk from there to Appledore Towers. We shall be at work before midnight. Milverton is a heavy sleeper and retires punctually at 10:30. With any luck we should be back here by 2 with the Lady Eva's letters in my pocket."

Holmes and I put on our dress clothes so that we might appear to be two theater goers homeward bound. In Oxford street we picked up a hansom and drove to an address in Hampstead. Here we paid off our cab, and with our greatcoats buttoned up, for it was bitterly cold and the wind seemed to blow through us, we walked along the edge of the heath.

"It's a business that needs delicate treatment," said Holmes. "These documents are contained in a safe in the fellow's study, and the study is the anteroom of his bed chamber. On the other hand, like all these stout little men who do themselves well, he is a plethoric sleeper. Agatha—that's my fiancee—says it is a joke in the servants' hall that it's impossible to wake the master. He has a secretary who is devoted to his interests and never budges from the study all day. That's why we are going at night. Then he has a beast of a dog, which roams the garden. I met Agatha late the last two evenings, and she locks the brute up so as to give me a clear run. This is the house, this big one in its own grounds. Through the gate—now to the right among the laurels. We might put on our masks here, I think. You see, there is not a glimmer of light in any of the windows, and everything is working splendidly."

With our black silk face coverings, which turned us into two of the most truculent figures in London, we stole up to the silent, gloomy house. A sort of tiled veranda extended along one side of it, lined by several windows and two doors.

"That's his bedroom," Holmes whispered. "This door opens straight into the study. It would suit us best, but it is bolted as well as locked, and we should make too much noise getting in. Come round here. There's a greenhouse which opens into the drawing room."

The place was locked, but Holmes removed a circle of glass and turned the key from the inside. An instant afterward he had closed the door behind us, and we had become felons in the eyes of the law. The thick, warm air of the conservatory and the rich, choking fragrance of exotic plants took us by the throat. He seized my hand in the darkness and led me swiftly past banks of shrubs which brushed against our faces. Holmes had remarkable powers, carefully cultivated, of seeing in the dark. Still holding my hand in one of his, he opened a door, and I was vaguely conscious that we had entered a large room in which a cigar had been smoked not long before. He felt his way among the furniture, opened another door and closed it behind us. Putting out my hand, I felt several coats hanging from the wall, and I understood that I was in a passage. We passed along it, and Holmes very gently opened a door upon the right hand side. Something rushed out at us, and my heart sprang into my mouth, but I could have laughed when I realised that it was the cat. A fire was burning in this new room, and again the air was heavy with tobacco smoke. Holmes entered on tiptoe, waited for me to follow, and then very gently closed the door. We were in Milverton's study, and a portiere at the farther side showed the entrance to his bedroom.

It was a good fire, and the room was illuminated by it. Near the door I saw the gleam of an electric switch, but it was unnecessary, even if it had been safe, to turn it on. At one side of the fireplace was a heavy curtain which covered the bay window we had seen from outside. On the other side was the door which communicated with the veranda. A desk stood in the center, with a turning chair of shining red leather. Opposite was a large bookcase with a marble bust of Athene on the top. In the corner, between the bookcase and the wall, there stood a tall, green safe, the firelight flashing back from the polished brass knobs upon its face. Holmes drew across and looked at it. Then he crept to the door of the bedroom and stood with slanting head, listening intently. No sound came from within. Meanwhile it had struck me that it would be wise to secure our retreat through the outer door, so I examined it. To my amazement it was neither locked nor bolted. I touched Holmes on the arm, and he turned his masked face in that direction. I saw him start, and he was evidently as surprised as I.

"I don't like it," he whispered, putting his lips to my very ear. "I can't quite make it out. Anyhow we have no time to lose."

"Can I do anything?"

"Yes; stand by the door. If you hear any one come, bolt it on the inside, and we can get away as we came. If they come the other way, we can get through the door if our job is done or hide behind these window curtains if it is not. Do you understand?"

I nodded and stood by the door. My first feeling of fear had passed away, and I thrilled now with a keener zest than I had ever enjoyed when we were the defenders of the law instead of its defiers. The high object of our mission, the consciousness that it was unselfish and chivalrous, the villainous character of our opponent, all added to the sporting interest of the adventure. Far from feeling guilty, I rejoiced and exulted in our dangers. With a glow of admiration I watched Holmes unreeling his case of instruments and choosing his tool with the calm, scientific accuracy of a surgeon who performs a delicate operation. I knew that the opening of safes was a particular hobby with him, and I understood the joy which it gave him to be confronted with this green and gold monster, the dragon which held in its maw the reputations of many fair ladies. Turning up the cuffs of his dress coat—he had placed his overcoat on a chair—Holmes laid out two drills, a jimmy and several skeleton keys. For about half an hour Holmes worked with concentrated energy, laying down one tool, picking up another, handling each with the strength and delicacy of the trained mechanic. Finally I heard a click, the broad green door swung open, and inside I had a glimpse of a number of paper packets, each tied, sealed and inscribed. Holmes picked one out, but it was hard to read by the flickering fire, and he drew out his little dark lantern, for it was too dangerous with Milverton in the next room to switch on the electric light. Suddenly I saw him halt, listen intently, and then in an instant he had swung the door of the safe to, picked up his coat, stuffed his tools into the pockets and darted behind the window curtain, motioning me to do the same.

It was only when I had joined him there that I heard what had alarmed his quicker senses. There was a noise somewhere within the house. A door slammed in the distance. Then a confused, dull murmur broke itself into the measured thud of heavy footsteps rapidly approaching. They were in the passage outside the room. They paused at the door. The door opened. There was a sharp snick as the electric light was turned on. The door closed once more, and the pungent reek of a strong cigar was borne to our nostrils. Then the footsteps continued backward and forward, backward and forward, within a few yards of us. Finally there was a creak from a chair, and the footsteps ceased. Then a key clicked in a lock, and I heard the rustle of papers.

So far I had not dared to look out, but now I gently parted the division of the curtains in front of me and peeped through. From the pressure of Holmes' shoulder against mine I knew that he was sharing my observations. Right in front of us and almost within our reach was the broad, rounded back of Milverton. It was evident that we had entirely miscalculated his movements; that he had never been to his bedroom, but that he had been sitting up in some smoking or billiard room in the farther wing of the house, the windows of which we had not seen. His broad, grizzled head, with its shining patch of baldness, was in the immediate foreground of our vision. He was leaning far back in the red leather chair, his legs outstretched, a long, black cigar projecting at an angle from his mouth. He wore a semimilitary smoking jacket, claret colored, with a black velvet collar. In his hand he held a long legal document, which he was reading in an indolent fashion, blowing rings of tobacco smoke from his lips as he did so.

I felt Holmes' hand steal into mine and give me a reassuring shake, as if to say that the situation was within his powers and that he was easy in his mind. I was not sure whether he had seen what was only too obvious from my position, that the door of the safe was imperfectly closed and that Milverton might at any moment observe it. In my own mind I had determined that if I were sure from the rigidity of his gaze that it had caught his eye I would at once spring out, throw my greatcoat over his head, pinion him and leave the rest to Holmes. But Milverton never looked up. He was languidly interested by the papers in his hand, and page after page was turned as he followed the argument of the lawyer. At least, I thought, when he had finished the document and the cigar he will go to his room, but before he had reached the end of either there came a remarkable development which turned our thoughts into quite another channel.

Several times I had observed that Milverton looked at his watch, and once he had risen and sat down again, with a gesture of impatience. The idea, however, that he might have an appointment at so strange an hour never occurred to me until a faint sound reached my ears from the veranda outside. Milverton dropped his papers and sat rigid in his chair. The sound was repeated, and then there came a gentle tap at the door. Milverton rose and opened it.

"Well," said he curtly, "you are nearly half an hour late."

So this was the explanation of the unlocked door and of the nocturnal vigil of Milverton. There was the gentle rustle of a woman's dress. I had closed the slit between the curtains as Milverton's face had turned in our direction, but now I ventured very carefully to open it once more. He had resumed his seat, the cigar still projecting at an insolent angle from the corner of his mouth. In front of him, in the full glare of the electric light, there stood a tall, slim, dark woman, a veil over her face, a mantle drawn round her chin. Her breath came quick and fast, and every inch of the lithe figure was quivering with strong emotion.

"Well," said Milverton, "you've made me lose a good night's rest, my dear. I hope you'll prove worth it. You couldn't come any other time—eh?"

The woman shook her head.

"Well, if you couldn't you couldn't. If the countess is a hard mistress you have your chance to get level with her now. Bless the girl, what are you shivering about? That's right. Pull yourself together. Now let us get down to business." He took a notebook from the drawer of his desk. "You say that you have five letters which compromise the Countess d'Albert. You want to sell them. I want to buy them. So far so good. It only remains to fix a price. I should want to inspect the letters, of course. If they are really good specimens— Great heavens! Is it you?"

The woman, without a word, had raised her veil and dropped the mantle from her chin. It was a dark, handsome, clear cut face which confronted Milverton—a face with a curved nose, strong, dark eyebrows shading hard, glittering eyes, and a straight, thin lipped mouth set in a dangerous smile.

"It is I," she said—"the woman whose life you have ruined."

Milverton laughed, but fear vibrated in his voice. "You were so very obstinate," said he. "Why did you drive me to such extremities? I put the price well within your means. You would not pay."

"So you sent the letters to my husband, and he—the noblest gentleman that ever lived, a man whose boots I was never worthy to lace—he broke his gallant heart and died. You remember that last night, when I came through that door, I begged and prayed you for mercy, and you laughed in my face as you are trying to laugh now, only your coward heart cannot keep your lips from twitching? Yes, you never thought to see me here again, but it was that night which taught me how I could meet you face to face and alone. Well, Charles Milverton, what have you to say?"

"Don't imagine that you can bully me," said he, rising to his feet. "I have only to raise my voice and I could call my servants and have you arrested. But I will make allowance for your natural anger. Leave the room at once as you came, and I will say no more."

The woman stood with her hand buried in her bosom and the same deadly smile on her thin lips.

"You will ruin no more lives as you have ruined mine. You will wring no more hearts as you wrung mine. I will free the world of a poisonous thing. Take that, you hound—and that—and that—and that—and that!"

She had drawn a little gleaming revolver and emptied barrel after barrel into Milverton's body, the muzzle within two feet of his shirt front. He shrank away and then fell forward upon the table, coughing furiously and clawing among the papers. Then he staggered to his feet, received another shot and rolled upon the floor. "You've done me!" he cried and lay still. The woman looked at him intently and ground her heel into his upturned face. She looked again, but there was no sound or movement. I heard a sharp rustle, the night air blew into the heated room and the avenger was gone.

No interference upon our part could have saved the man from his fate, but as the woman poured bullet after bullet into Milverton's shrinking body I was about to spring out when I felt Holmes' cold, strong grasp upon my wrist. I understood the whole argument of that firm, restraining grip—that it was no affair of ours; that justice had overtaken a villain; that we had our own duties and our own objects, which were not to be lost sight of. But hardly had the woman rushed from the room when Holmes with swift, silent steps was over at the other door. He turned the key in the lock. At the same instant we heard voices in the house and the sound of hurrying feet. The revolver shots had roused the household. With perfect coolness Holmes slipped across to the safe, filled his two arms with bundles of letters, and poured them all into the fire. Again and again he did it, until the safe was empty.

Some one turned the handle and beat upon the outside of the door. Holmes looked swiftly round. The letter which had been the messenger of death for Milverton lay, all mottled with his blood, upon the table. Holmes tossed it in among the blazing papers. Then he drew the key from the outer door, passed through after me and locked it on the outside. "This way, Watson," said he, "we can scale the garden wall in this direction."

"YOU COULDN'T COME ANY OTHER TIME—EH?"

I could not have believed that an alarm could have spread so swiftly. Looking back, the huge house was one blaze of light. The front door was open, and figures were rushing down the drive. The whole garden was alive with people, and one fellow raised a view halloo as we emerged from the veranda and followed hard at our heels. Holmes seemed to know the grounds perfectly, and he threaded his way swiftly among a plantation of small trees, I close at his heels, and our foremost pursuer panting behind us. It was a six foot wall which barred our path, but he sprang to the top and over. As I did the same I felt the hand of the man behind me grab at my ankle, but I kicked myself free and scrambled over a grass strewn coping. I fell upon my face among some bushes, but Holmes had me on my feet in an instant, and together we dashed away across the huge expanse of Hampstead heath. We had run two miles, I suppose, before Holmes at last halted and listened intently. All was absolute silence behind us. We had shaken off our pursuers and were safe.

* * * * * * *

We had breakfasted and were smoking our morning pipe on the day after the remarkable experience which I have recorded when Mr. Lestrade of Scotland Yard, very solemn and impressive, was ushered into our modest sitting room.

"Good morning, Mr. Holmes," said he; "good morning. May I ask if you are very busy just now?"

"Not too busy to listen to you."

"I thought that perhaps if you had nothing particular on hand you might care to assist us in a most remarkable case which occurred only last night at Hampstead."

"Dear me!" said Holmes. "What was that?"

"A murder—a most dramatic and remarkable murder. I know how keen you are upon these things, and I would take it as a great favor if you would step down to Appledore Towers and give us the benefit of your advice. It is no ordinary crime. We have had our eyes upon this Mr. Milverton for some time, and, between ourselves, he was a bit of a villain. He is known to have held papers which he used for blackmailing purposes. These papers have all been burned by the murderer. No article of value was taken, so it is quite plain that the criminals were men of good position whose sole object was to prevent social exposure."

"Criminals?" said Holmes. "Plural?"

"Yes, there were two of them. They were as nearly as possible captured red handed. We have their footmarks, we have their description. It's ten to one that we trace them. The first fellow was a bit too active, but the second was caught by the under gardener and only got away after a struggle. He was a middle sized, strongly built man—square jaw, thick neck, mustache, a mask over his eyes."

"That's rather vague," said Sherlock Holmes. "Why, it might be a description of Watson!"

"It's true," said the inspector, with amusement. "It might be a description of Watson."

"Well, I'm afraid I can't help you, Lestrade," said Holmes. "The fact is that I know this fellow Milverton, that I considered him one of the most dangerous men in London, and that I think there are certain crimes which the law cannot touch and which therefore to some extent justify private revenge. No, I'll have no use arguing. I will not handle this case."

* * * * * * *

Holmes had not said one word to me about the tragedy which we had witnessed, but I observed all the morning that he was in his most thoughtful mood, and he gave me the impression, from his vacant eyes and his abstracted manner, of a man who is striving to recall something to his memory. We were in the middle of our lunch when he suddenly sprang to his feet. "By Jove, Watson, I've got it!" he cried. "Take your hat! Come with me!" He hurried at his top speed down Baker street and along Oxford street until we had almost reached Regent circus. Here, on the left hand, there stands a shop window filled with photographs of the celebrities and beauties of the day. Holmes' eyes fixed themselves upon one of them, and following his gaze I saw the picture of a regal and stately lady in court dress, with a high diamond tiara upon her noble head. I looked at that delicately curved nose, at the marked eyebrows, at the straight mouth and the strong little chin beneath it. Then I caught my breath as I read the time honored title of the great nobleman and statesman whose wife she had been. My eyes met those of Holmes, and he put his finger to his lips as we turned away from the window.

Good tea must be grown under proper conditions

Low, damp or swampy lands in a warm, humid climate produce tea of rank, rapid growth, coarse in texture, woody fibred, rudely flavored—makes a cup heavy, murky in color, rough-tasting—it is poor tea.

But the Indian and Ceylon teas used to make the Red Rose brand are grown on the high lands of India and the mountain sides of Ceylon.

These teas are grown in clear dry sunshine, they mature slowly, the leaves of the Ceylon teas, are tender, delicate, finely flavored, but not strong.

Such Indian and Ceylon teas combined in Red Rose Tea produce a cup of a rich rosy brown, strong and smooth—all the richness and strength of Indian, all the delicacy and fragrance of Ceylon teas—that "rich, fruity flavor" which belongs alone to Red Rose Tea—more qualities of tea excellence than any Indian or brand of Ceylon alone can possess.

Red Rose Tea is good Tea

NABBED AT LETHBRIDGE.

Son of Former Mormon Leader Is Charged With Forgery.

Salt Lake, Utah, July 21.—John Quayle Cannon, son of George Q. Cannon, and a man who has been prominent in public life in Utah for many years, is in custody at Lethbridge, North-west Territory, where he was arrested on request of Chief of Police Lynch of Salt Lake City.

Cannon is charged with forgery and uttering fraudulent checks while acting as secretary of Utah's Louisiana Purchase Exposition commission last year.

The affairs of the commission were subjected to an investigation by the Utah Legislature last February. It became apparent that there was something wrong with the accounts, but a shortage of almost $2,100 was made good and the matter was closed so far as the Legislature was concerned.

Mormons and Gentiles are working in the interest of John Q. Cannon, and it is intimated that Gov. Cutler of Utah, as a result of the great pressure that has been brought on him from various sources, will refuse to issue a requisition for Cannon.

BABY'S OWN TABLETS

THE FARFADET.

French Submarine Is at Last Raised —How the Crew Perished.

Bizerta, Tunis, July 17.—The submarine boat Farfadet, which sank at the entrance of the Port of Sidi Abdallah July 6, was towed into drydock Saturday after ten days' incessant efforts to raise her.

When the door of the Farfadet was opened there was a rush of nauseous gases from the decomposing bodies of the fourteen men who had perished in her, and great emotion prevailed among the naval officers and the men who had assisted in raising the vessel.

An inspection of the Farfadet shows that her crew employed every imaginable device in their attempts to escape. The authorities have decided to allow complete disinfection of the marine before taking out the bodies.

Irish Will Fight Redistribution.

London, July 17.—The Government's proposal in regard to the redistribution of Parliamentary seats, while naturally received with the greatest bitterness by the Irish party and the Opposition is coming in for considerable criticism from its own party. The scheme keeps the membership of the House of Commons. The standard unit of population in relation to each representative is now about 54,000, with a proviso that no constituency under 15,000 shall return a member. The new scheme raises the minimum to 18,300 and the standard unit to 55,000. As a result England will gain 17 seats, Wales 1 and Scotland 4, while Ireland will lose 22. The Irish hostility to the new proporal does not need explanation.

Ex-Mayor Blain of Galt Dead.

Galt, July 17.—The death occurred Saturday morning of Richard Blain, ex-Mayor of Galt, a resident here for 42 years. He was a native of Bowness-on-Solway, Cumberland, England, and came to this country in 1850. For many years he was associated with the milling industry, his large flour mills, now occupied as power house by the Galt Electric Light Co., serving a district from lake to lake. He retired from active business over 20 years ago. His death at the age of 84 was not due to organic disease. Preserving his faculties up to the last, he simply fell into the sleep that knows no waking. Mrs. Blain died in 1899.

Two Young Men Drown.

St. John, N. B., July 21.—Two brothers, Roy and Howard Wayne, of Fairville, near here, were drowned in the Bay of Fundy, yesterday while fishing. The boat was run down by the Eastern Steamship Co.'s steamer Penobscot and cut in two in the fog.

MRS. RICHARDSON.

Found Dead by Her Husband—A Winnipeg Coincidence

Winnipeg, July 21.—An extraordinary coincidence occurred here yesterday when William Richardson, an employe of the city quarry, was found dead in his bed, and Mary Richardson, wife of another William Richardson, was found dead, suspended by the neck. The former apparently died under natural circumstances, heart disease being attributed, but the latter was a clear case of suicide. An additional odd circumstance is her husband is also a civic employe.

She was broken-hearted, according to her husband's story, because her mother had taken her child from her care. Richardson discovered the body of his wife when he came home to dinner at 12.15 o'clock noon. She had attached a rope to the knob of the door at the top of the stairs leading to the first floor of the house and swung the rope around to the other side of the door and over the top of it, thus making the rope short enough to suspend her body six inches from the floor.

Mrs. Richardson was 18 years of age.

$29,000 WANTED FROM C. P. R.

Montreal, July 21.—Antonio Cordasco, known as king of the Italian colony, and who has figured in court at various times, has taken an action for $29,000 against the Canadian Pacific.

He alleges that the C. P. R. failed to carry out its contract with him, in as much as the railway employed him to furnish them in the spring of 1904 4,000 laborers and that afterward the C. P. R. failed to take the men.

He further alleges that the men loafed about Montreal to their own and his detriment, and that he got in trouble with the Government in consequence of the men not being employed and further that his own reputation suffered.

MANITOULIN CAN DO HER PART

Mrs. Thomas Rumley one of the many who Found Health in the Great Canadian Kidney Remedy.

Silver Water, Manitoulin Island, July 21st. — (Special). — Every part of Canada seems to be testifying to the good work of Dodd's Kidney Pills are doing and there is no reason why Manitoulin Island should not do her part. Many a man and woman there blesses them for aches relieved and health restored. Take, for instance the case of Mrs. Thomas Rumley. She says:

"I doctored for years and did not seem to get any better. It seemed to be my kidneys that was the trouble so I thought that I would try Dodd's Kidney Pills, and they helped me very much.

"I cannot say how many I have taken for my house is never without them, and whenever I don't feel right I take a few. My husband, also takes them once in a while. I find them a splendid medicine to have handy."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are the greatest family medicine of the age. They can be taken by young or old with perfect safety. They cure all kidney ailments and nine-tenths of the sickness of the present day springs from bad kidneys.

Indian Education.

Ottawa, July 21.—Representatives of the Methodist, Anglican and Presbyterian Churches discussed the question of Indian education with Hon. Frank Oliver, yesterday. Rev. Dr. Sutherland represented the Methodists, S. H. Blake, K. C., the Anglicans, and Dr. McKay, Rev. Mr. Martin and Mr. R. Cassels, K. C., of Toronto, the Presbyterians.

THE ZEMSTVO CONGRESS.

Pass First Reading of a Scheme For a Constitution — Japs On to Vladivostock—That Witte Interview.

Moscow, July 21.—The zemstvo congress assembled yesterday without interference on the part of the authorities and commenced a discussion of the proposed legislation.

The congress passed the first reading of the scheme for a constitution by a vote of 220 to 7.

M. Petrunkevitch, president of the Moscow Agricultural Society, declared that all hope regarding the Government's scheme, which had hitherto been nourished, had proved vain. It was obvious, he said, that the bar separating the Emperor and the people was too strong, that they could not count on reforms from above. They had appealed to the Emperor and they should now appeal to the people.

Prince Rostkovski said that the speech of M. Petrunkevitch was a direct incitement to revolution and left the hall.

Prince Dolgorukoff repudiated Prince Rostkovski's construction of M. Petrunkevitch's speech, which, he said, only echoed what had been set forth in the memorandum presented by the marshals of the nobility to the Emperor.

A resolution was passed protesting against the constant violation of the private and social rights of Russian citizens by administrative officialdom and calling upon all loyal officers to protect the sufferers from the present state of affairs and to assist in preserving the troops from illegal and arbitrary acts carried out by the authorities.

On To Vladivostock.

Russian Headquarters at the Front, (Location not given.) July 21.—The Japanese advance from Corea is taking on a more energetic character, and is being pushed toward Mousan, Nengan and Hasegawa. The Japanese seem to have received reinforcements from Field Marshal Oyama's main army in front of Gen. Linevitch. A landing of Japanese near Vladivostock would not be surprising, and the operations appear to be concentrating in that direction. The Japanese advance in the Island of Sakhalin has reached Vladimirovska. The Japanese artillery includes forty machine guns.

That Witte Interview.

St. Petersburg, July 21.—The interview of the Associated Press with M. Witte on Monday last was telegraphed back to St. Petersburg from New York, and was printed throughout the empire this morning, receiving high commendation from the press, with the exception of the extremely reactionary Sviet and The Moscow Gazette.

Komura's Busy Day.

Seattle, Wash., July 21.—Baron J. Komura, Foreign Minister of Japan, and one of the peace commissioners, is struggling with a mass of diplomatic correspondence at the residence of S. Hisamidzi, Japanese Consul at Seattle. Baron Komura worked until 5 o'clock yesterday morning with cable messages and letters, which reached him when the steamship Minnesota arrived at Port Townsend.

China's Official Notification.

Washington, July 21.—China's official notification to the powers that she will not recognize any arrangement regarding Manchuria concerning which she has not been consulted beforehand, has reached Washington and will be forthwith forwarded to President Roosevelt at Oyster Bay.

Masonic Officers Elected.

Hamilton, July 21.—Before the Grand Lodge A. F. & A. M., closed yesterday these officers were elected: R. W. Bro. James H. Burritt, K. C., Pembroke, Grand Master; R. W. Bro. A. T. Freed, Hamilton, Deputy Grand Master; R. W. Bro. F. J. Howell, Hamilton, Grand Senior Warden; W. Bro. H. T. White, Toronto, Grand Junior Warden; M. W. Bro. E. T. Malone, Toronto, Grand Treasurer; M. W. Bro. Hugh Murray, Hamilton, Grand Secretary; W. Bro. John Lawson, London, Grand Registrar; W. Bro. F. E. Howitt, Hamilton, Grand Chaplain. These five members of the board of general purposes were elected: R. W. Bro. A. F. Webster, Toronto; R. W. Bro. J. C. Morgan, Barrie; R. W. Bro. G. S. May, Ottawa; R. W. Bro. L. Gunn, Hamilton; R. W. Bro. J. A. McFadden, Stratford. The next Grand Lodge meeting will be held in Toronto.

Penitentiary and Lash.

Montreal, July 21.—Goldsberry, the employe of Lemon Bros.' circus, held at Roberval in connection with the disgusting outrage recently perpetrated by a number of the circus men on a fourteen-year-old girl of that place, was Wednesday sentenced to a year in penitentiary at Quebec with ten stripes of the cat-o'-nine tails fifteen days after his entry to the penitentiary, and ten more fifteen days before his freedom.

Foley Bros. Get Contract.

Montreal, July 21.—At the C. P. R. headquarters yesterday, William Whyte, vice-president, being present, it was decided to give the contract for the double tracking of the road from Fort William to Winnipeg, 428 miles, to Foley Bros. Three years are allowed for completion. Rapid work will be started at once east and west of Rat Portage.

Sectionman Killed.

St. Catharines, July 21.—William Wiley, a sectionman on the G. T. R., was at work yesterday afternoon on the track just west of the city, when a fast freight train came along. Wiley stepped off the track to let it pass. He stood too close, however, and was killed. He was 44 years of age. He leaves a widow, five daughters and two sons.

Soldiers as Immigrants.

London, July 21.—(C. A. P.)—In two weeks' time some 3,000 time-expired men of good character, all under 35, will be discharge from Horsham Barracks, Sussex. The emigration commissioner is in communication with the authorities for permission to distribute literature, and also to deliver an address on the advantages of Canadian emigration. The request will probably be accepted. It is hoped many will be induced to make homes in Canada. Everyone will have between thirty and forty pounds.

Hat Pin Wound Results in Death.

Detroit, July 21.—Fred Montgomery, a waiter, of Sandwich, Ont., who was taken to St. Mary's Hospital July 6 with a wound in his breast, made by a hat pin, died yesterday.

Sunshine Furnace

Don't Sift Ashes;

—ruin your clothes, injure your hands, raise a dust, the meanest, dirtiest job a man can do—and no work for a woman. What then? Waste good coal? Increase expense?

No, use a furnace that burns all the coal, that does not shake down some ashes and a lot of coal.

Use a furnace with a grate that drops ashes, but holds the coal — a furnace with such perfect combustion that all the coal is burnt and gives off all the heat that's in it.

That is the Sunshine Furnace made by McClary's —the only furnace that's built to burn all the coal and shake down nothing but ashes.

The most modern furnace built, the best burner and best heater—the easiest furnace to manage—the very best.

Write for our furnace booklet, it is worth reading.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-west Provinces, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him.

Homestead Duties.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector.

Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

MR. BALFOUR IN THE CRISIS

Government Claims Defeat Will Be Reversed Monday.

UNIONISTS WERE MISLED

Ministry Will Face the Motion of Want of Confidence to Show Its Real Condition Monday—What the Liberals, Who Claim It Was Not a Snap Verdict, Will Do.

London, July 22.—It has not yet been determined what course the Government will pursue with reference to the defeat it suffered on Thursday night in the House of Commons. A gentleman who is in close touch with Prime Minister Balfour, says that it is almost certain that Mr. Balfour will ask the House on Monday to revise the vote of Thursday night, and that if the vote is revised the Government will retain its office.

It is quite clear that the Government was the victim on Thursday night of very able strategy. The vote in no sense indicated lack of confidence in the Government on the part of the House. If the Government asks a reversal of this vote on Monday and fails to secure a handsome majority, say from fifty to seventy, the country will be astonished. A similar majority undoubtedly would have been given the Government on Thursday night if the Unionists had not been fooled into a sense of security by the sharp work of John Redmond.

It is no secret, however, that Mr. Balfour and the other members of the Cabinet are somewhat disgusted with the lack of vigilance in the Ministerial party, and it is said that their disgust is the real cause of their delay in marking out a course for Monday.

Report has it that they wish to feel absolutely sure that they will not be left in the lurch again by their party. Without that feeling of security they would be inclined to resign. The probability is that they will get the assurance they desire and go on with their administration. A rumor circulated last evening was to the effect that in case the House should sustain him on Monday Mr. Balfour would announce that there would be a dissolution in the autumn. It has been impossible to find a confirmation of this rumor, and it may be said of it, as of a host of other rumors current regarding Monday, "It is important, if true."

Prorogued in October.

It is understood that Premier Balfour, who spent half an hour with the King last night, has decided to remain in office until the end of the session, and to dissolve Parliament in October. No authoritative statement, however, will be made until Monday, and in the interval this decision may be modified.

The Liberal leaders held an informal conference yesterday afternoon. If the Government decide to continue in office Greig's motion of censure on the fiscal question will be proceeded with. If not it will probably be abandoned. C. A. Vince, Chamberlain's right hand man, says his party is prepared for the fray.

Sat For Half an Hour.

The House of Commons sat barely half an hour yesterday and then adjourned until Monday to await the Government's decision regarding its future course of action in view of the defeat of the Ministry Thursday night on John Redmond's motion to reduce the vote of the Irish Land Commission.

Immediately after the House had assembled, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Liberal leader, moved its adjournment, declaring that it would be unseemly under the circumstances, to proceed with business while the Government was considering its position.

Premier Balfour, however, declined to adjourn the House until the bill dealing with the differences of the Scottish United Free Church and the Free Church had been passed. This was quickly accomplished, and the House rose.

Don't Think It's a Snap.

London, July 22.—(C. A. P.)—Parliamentary papers show the majority against the Government was four, not three. The Liberals refuse to regard it as a snap division, since the Government whip issued a special warning to Government supporters that such a division was expected.

Minto and Inter-Imperial Trade.

London, July 22.—(C. A. P.)—Lord Minto had a hearty reception at the dinner in his honor given by the Liberal Union Club. He said he had spent six years in Canada during a very eventful period in the history of the Empire. He might fairly say, the universal feeling of those entitled to form an opinion was that closer intercourse between the King's possessions beyond the seas would be found in some arrangement for the encouragement of an inter-Imperial trade. He could not understand the statements made in Great Britain that no offer in the direction of a preference had been made by Canada, and he much regretted that this question had been made a party question.

WILL IT CURE ME?

That's the personal question a woman asks herself when she reads of the cures of womanly diseases by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

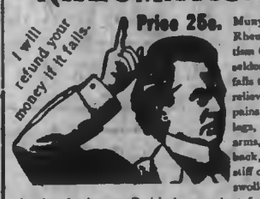
Why shouldn't it cure her?

Is it a complicated case? Thousands of such cases have been cured by "Favorite Prescription." Is it a condition which local doctors have declared incurable? Among the hundreds of thousands of sick women cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription there are a great many who were pronounced incurable by local doctors. Wonders have been worked by "Favorite Prescription" in the cure of irregularity, weakening drains, inflammation, ulceration and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures.

"I commenced taking your medicine, 'Favorite Prescription,' nearly a year ago for chronic inflammation of womb, and can truly say it is the only thing that ever did me any good," writes Mrs. L. C. Wagner, of 128 Edwin Street, Toronto, Ontario, Canada. "I could not walk any distance before using it. After taking six bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' I find I can walk without difficulty and am greatly benefited in general health. Would advise all suffering women to use Dr. Pierce's medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the Original Little Liver Pills, first put up over 40 years ago by old Dr. R. V. Pierce. They're tiny, sugar-coated, anti-bilious granules. A compound of refined and concentrated vegetable extracts. Without disturbance or trouble, constipation, indigestion, bilious attacks, sick and bilious headaches, and all derangements of the liver, stomach, and bowels are prevented, relieved and cured. Purgative in small doses. By their mild and natural action, these little Pellets gently lead the system into natural ways again. Their influence lasts.

RHEUMATISM



Price 25c. Munyon's Rheumatism Cure seldom fails to relieve pains in legs, arms, back, stiff or swollen joints in a few hours. Positively cures in a few days. It does not put the disease to sleep, but drives it from the system. —MUNYON.

Deckhand's Fate.

Napanee, July 22.—About 7.30 last evening a deckhand named Harris on the Schooner Mary tripped and fell into the river, and although a rope was thrown him, he failed to grasp it and sank immediately. His body was recovered in 4 or 5 minutes, but he could not be brought to life. It is supposed he was somewhat under the influence of liquor.

Woman Charged With Bigamy.

London, July 22.—In the Police Court yesterday Mrs. John Rossell, aged 40 years, was charged with bigamy. Her alleged second husband, Samuel John Rossell, is 17 years old, and it is relatives of the youthful husband who are prosecuting the woman.

THREW BOMB AT SULTAN.

His Turkish Majesty Escaped, But Several of His Suite Were Killed —Several Arrests Made.

Constantinople, July 22.—An ineffective attempt on the life of the Sultan was made yesterday. As the Sultan was proceeding to the midday prayers, a bomb was thrown at His Majesty, but he escaped uninjured.

Several Arrests Made.

London, July 22.—The Turkish embassy has issued a statement confirming the report from Constantinople that, during the selamlik there yesterday, a bomb was exploded close to the Sultan in the courtyard of the mosque, and that His Majesty escaped uninjured, while several members of his suite were killed or injured. Several arrests have been made.

Suppressing the News.

London, July 22.—The Turkish censorship is evidently suppressing the news regarding the attempt on the life of the Sultan, for no further press despatches from Constantinople have reached London.

Perpetrator is Dead.

Berlin, July 22.—An account of the attempt on the life of the Sultan of Turkey, received here, says that 40 persons were killed, all native Turks and soldiers, and that it is believed the perpetrator of the outrage is among the killed.

Villagers All Murdered.

Salonica, July 22.—A report received here says that a large Bulgarian band attacked the patriarchist villages of Balfina and Gradeshultza, in the Morinovo district, Thursday night, murdering the entire population indiscriminately, and the carnage did not end until yesterday morning. The number of victims is not known.

FREIGHT BOILER BLOWS UP.

G. T. R. Brakeman Killed Near Princeton—Fireman Badly Injured.

Woodstock, July 22.—Locomotive No. 796, attached to the fast freight No. 86 on the Grand Trunk, exploded at Princeton Thursday night, killing Robert Hutchisen, brakeman, whose home is at Sarnia, and probably fatally injuring Duncon Martin, fireman, of Onandago.

David Strickland, engineer, was slightly scalded. The engine is a wreck, both ends of the boiler being demolished, together with much of the iron work.

The explosion occurred while the train was running 45 miles an hour. No warning was received by the train crew. The cause was either lack of sufficient water in the boiler or weak crown sheets on the boiler. An expert will examine the wreck to determine this point. After the accident the momentum of the train carried it 200 yards. A fire was averted and there was little damage to the cars.

May Take Cup Won in 1884.

Montreal, July 22.—The American challenger, Manchester of the Manchester, Mass., Yacht Club, yesterday afternoon defeated the Canadian defender, Alexandra, in the second race for the Seawanhaka Cup. The race was over a triangular course of five miles on Lake St. Louis, sailed three times. There was a fine breeze blowing. The start was made at 2.36, and from the start the American boat outrated the Canadian boat, making most of her gains in the windward buoys. The Manchester won easily. The Manchester has thus won two races, and if the Americans win to-day's race they will get the cup.

Stepped In Front of a Train.

Killed In His Auto.

Los Angeles, Calif., July 22.—M. T. Hancock, a well-known millionaire plow inventor and manufacturer, is dead as the result of an automobile accident in this city late Thursday night, in which his wife, son and daughter were seriously injured. Hancock himself sustained two fractures of the skull and concussion of the brain. His son was running the machine at the rate of 40 miles an hour.

His Back Broken.

Peterboro, July 22.—Edward McIlroy, aged 56, unmarried, died yesterday morning as the result of injuries received by being run over by a binder on the farm of James Heard, in Smith Township. The deceased belonged to Port Hope. It appears McIlroy was thrown from a binder by a sudden start of the horses. A doctor was called, and found that McIlroy's back had been broken.

BLOOD DISEASE CURED.

If you ever contracted any Blood or Private Disease, you are never safe until the virus or poison has been eradicated from the system. Don't be satisfied with a "patch up" by some family doctor. Our New Method is Guaranteed to Cure or No Pay. 60—No Mercury Used without Written consent.

Cured When all Else Failed

"Could I live my early life over, this testimonial would not be necessary, though I was no more sinful than thousands of other young men. Early indiscretions, later excesses, exposure to contagious diseases all helped to break down my system. When I commenced to realize my condition I was almost frantic. Doctor after doctor treated me but only gave me relief—not a cure. Hot Springs helped me, but did not cure me. The symptoms always returned. Mercury and Potash drove the poison into my system instead of driving it out. I bless the day your New Method Treatment was recommended to me. I investigated who you were first, and finding you had over 25 years' experience and responsible financially. I gave you my case under a guarantee. You cured me permanently, and in six years there has not been a sore, pain, ulcer or any other symptom of the Blood disease."

GIANT STEAMERS OF GREAT LAKES

Huge Carriers Which Have Capacity of 11,000 Tons.

Cleveland, O., July 19th.—Steamers long as a city block, each with a cargo capacity equal to that of a half a dozen freight trains, have been added to the fleet of the great lakes this season.

They are built of steel and owned by the steel trust. Their mammoth proportions have almost dazed marine men, who are wondering again when the breaking of records is to end. It would be a bold prophet who would undertake to set the limit. Conditions are just about as they were 20 years ago, when a councilman in one of the lake cities indignantly opposed an appropriation for the purpose of deepening the channel in the harbour.

"What's the use?" he shouted, as a hue of apoplexy tinged his countenance. "However deep we dig the harbour they build their boats deeper. I remember when they wanted ten feet, then 12, then 14. We gave it to them and yet they made boats that dragged on the bottom. Now, they want 16 feet. If we are weak enough to give it they will build 18-foot boats.

Well, that is what they've done. In fact they have floated steamers that could very profitably made use of a 21-foot stage of water. Traffic up the lakes, however, is governed by the depth of water at the Lime Kiln crossing, a ledge of rocks extending across the channel near the junction of the Detroit river and Lake Erie. The steamers must be high enough to clear that ledge. Improvements made in recent years assure a stage of more than 20 feet at the crossing.

At this depth each of the four new steamers of the steel trust can carry more than 10,000 tons of freight. Few steamers in the world are capable of carrying as great a load. None other can do it on 19 feet draft.

Each of these steamers is 569 feet over all. No more than 25 vessels in the world have a greater length. They are the largest vessels in the world devoted exclusively to the carrying of freight.

The great vessels get their names from officials prominent in the steel trust: William E. Corey, H. C. Frick, E. H. Gary and G. W. Perkins. Each is 560 feet keel, 56 feet wide and 31 feet deep.

In 1890 the Manola was the largest steamer on the lakes and in a full season would carry 63,000 tons. In an equivalent season one of the new steamers would carry 220,000 tons. The Manola is 282 feet over all, 40 feet beam and 21 feet deep. In 1890 vessels could load only to 20 feet.

Before 1870 there were mostly sailing vessels on the lakes. An ore cargo averaged probably 400 or 500 tons. A vessel carrying 1,000 tons was a whopper.

The first vessel built especially for the ore trade was the Forest City, launched in 1870. She was 213 feet long and would carry on the stage of water then available probably 1,500 tons.

In 1874 the V. H. Ketchum, then the largest vessel on the lakes, was produced. Excursions were run to Mining City to see the "monster" launched. The Ketchum was 233 feet long and carried about 1,20 tons.

"Too long," said many of the sages. Yet the Ketchum earned several fortunes. Last year she was converted into a schooner.

After the Ketchum the next great development was in vessels of the type of the J. H. Devereaux, launched in 1885. The Devereaux is 346 feet long and at the depth of water available 20 years ago had a capacity of probably 2,300 tons.

Then came the Manola, in 1890, 2,800 tons. In 1895 there was an advance to 4,000 ton boats. The next great stride was made in 1899, when the four great Hill boats went into commission. These were the Hill, Elwood, Gates and Edenborn, each 498 feet over all and about 7,000 tons capacity.

A year ago the A. B. Wolvin set a new record. The Wolvin is 560 feet over all and has a cargo capacity of 10,300 tons.

The new monsters of the steel trust can carry between 10,500 and 11,000 tons. They cost from $400,000 upward, to build.

UPS AND DOWNS OF WALL STREET

How Millions Have Been Made and Lost on the "Street".

The Case of Addison G. Jerome and Henry Keep.

An interesting account is given in the July Chamber's Journal of some ups and downs of Wall street. Among the speculators mentioned is Addison G. Jerome, who entered Wall Street as an operator in 1863, after being a merchant in the dry goods trade. He was successful in everything he undertook until he bulled Michigan Souther, and with a clique that he formed, bought control of it. He put it to high figures, and was sure of his position. But Henry Keep, the treasurer of the company, and a keen operator in stocks, stepped in and turned Jerome's success into utter and disastrous failure.

Henry Keep knew something that Jerome was unaware of — namely, that a clause in the Michigan Southern's charter permitted its directors to increase its capital stock. So Keep called a secret meeting of the board, and an increase of fourteen thousand shares was voted. Then with this increase for future delivery he sold the stock against it and borrowed to make his deliveries, which made Jerome think Keep was largely short of Michigan Southern. He and his clique therefore kept on buying and advancing the price, while Keep kept on selling more and more. The final result was that Jerome called in all his loans of the stock so as to force the shorts to cover, and to that Keep responded by delivering the fourteen thousand shares of new stock, which caused a fall of twenty per cent. in Michigan Southern in one day. This involved the loss of nearly three millions of money Jerome had so quickly made. He took the loss of fortune much to heart, and died the following year a virtually ruined man.

Skunks in a School.

Forty little skunks, says an Ithaca, N.Y., dispatch, ran amuck among 200 Cornell summer school students at Sheldon Court last night. The street was lined with students and women seeking a breath of cool air, when the "kitties" appeared, and all was confusion. Women shrieked and hold their dresses high for shelter, doors and windows were closed to shut out the awful stench, and consternation ran high until a number of students sought shovels and stones and proceeded in a systematic manner to fight off the pests. The skunks beat a retreat to the cellar of a vacant building after six had been killed.

GOT ONE YEAR FOR FORGERY

Did a Port Hope Merchant out of $12 —Says He was Intoxicated.

Port Hope, July 21.—The trial of Edward Lang, who was arrested here yesterday morning for forging a check on Mr. John Steen, merchant, came up before Police Magistrate Holland this morning at ten o'clock and he was sentenced to one year in the Central Prison, Toronto. Lang, whose name he gives, says he resides with his parents on Spadina avenue, Toronto, but would not give the number. He is a young man about twenty-two years of age and dark complexion. He says he came down from Toronto, and landed at Port Hope on Wednesday night in an intoxicated condition, and slept out all night.

Yesterday morning, still under the influence of liquor, he obtained a Trader's Bank check here and succeeded in passing it on Mr. Steen, having previously tried the same on several other merchants. Before his trial Chief Bond telephoned to three places in Toronto where Lang said he could get references, but two of these places would not answer the telephone, and the third place said they did not know him. Lang pleaded for leniency, stating he would no have committed the crime if he had not been under the influence of liquor. Although he was given a light sentence, Lang took it pretty hard.

YOU CAN'T FIND ONE DYSPEPTIC

Who Has Used Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets—No Case of Stomach Trouble to Far Gone for Them to Cure.

'Yes, Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cured my Dyspepsia. I was a sufferer for seven years. I could not eat without suffering intense agony. I doctored some but to no avail, and I was given up to die. Five boxes of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cured me completely. Now I am well and strong.'

This story of a terrible disease easily and completely cured, is told by Mrs. John F. Gellatly, of Western Bay, Nfld. It teaches several lessons, the most important of which are that no case of Dyspepsia is too far gone to be beyond the reach of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, and that if Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cure the most extreme cases of Dyspepsia, they will easily disperse of your indigestion.

The fact remains that you can't find a Dyspeptic who has used Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, but you can find thousands of healthy, happy people in Canada who were once Dyspeptics but who have used Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Miss Beavis, of Norwood, is the guest of Miss Hendren.

Among those who were successful in the recent Toronto College of Music examinations were noticed the names of Miss Ethel Girvin, first year, first class honours; and Miss Julia Chote, second year, second class honours.

The Empire Comedy Company, which was billed to show here on Saturday last failed to put in an appearance. Perhaps the disappointed public of this place are just as well off, as shows of this kind are not always of the highest standing.

In Trance for a Week.

Waterbury, Conn., physicians are puzzled over the case of Miss Ethel Peabody, aged 16, who has been in a trance for over a week, unable to speak or recognise her family. They will not give her medicine because they expect that she will come out of this peculiar sleep. She is a daughter of Fred O. Peabody, investment broker, and a pupil of St. Margaret's fashionable diocesan school for young women.

Chamberlain's COLIC, CHOLERA AND Diarrhoea Remedy

It has been used in nine epidemics of dysentery with perfect success.

It can always be depended upon, even in the more severe attacks of cramp colic and cholera morbus.

It is equally successful for summer diarrhoea and cholera infantum in children, and is the means of saving the lives of many children each year.

When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take.

Every man of a family should keep this remedy in his home. Buy it now. It may save life.

BAND CONCERT IN VICTORIA PARK

A Splendid Programme Was Rendered Last Night.

A Large Number of Citizens Enjoyed a Good Programme.

The crowd which thronged Victoria Park last night, to hear the regular weekly concert given by the 57th Band, exceeded any that have attended any previous concert given this season.

The band looked neat in their white coats, and under the capable direction of Bandmaster Rupert Gliddon, rendered a very pleasing and varied programme.

The concert was opened by a selected number, which was well taken. Another selection, "Ermine," was also well taken and well received.

"The Voyage of a Troopship," a familiar piece to all concert goers, was as popular as ever, and was received with applause.

There were also several pieces which might be considered lighter music. A medley on minstrel songs, which was new to the audience, was favourably received and is destined to be popular. Another idyl, with which many are familiar, is "Tambuc-too, to which the band did justice.

By request, the selection, "A Hunting Scene," which was so well received in Jackson Park, was repeated, and received still greater applause.

The programme closed with a plantation song, but the crowd always begins to leave while the last selection is being played, and cannot appreciate the music.

BUYERS EAGER FOR THE STOCK

Rush of People to Buy the Stock—Rules of Etiquette Forgotten in Rush for Certificates.

Scenes such as are usually associated with the name of Wall street and other stock exchanges have been enacted in the Soo during the last few days. They have been in connection with the sale of stock in the Marconi Wireless Telegraph company.

H. G. Robinson, selling agent, and J. J. Kelly, engineer, have been in the Soo since last week and gave a series of four lectures at O'Brien's Hall. On each occasion stock was offered for sale and was taken up with such rapidity that last evening after the final lecture had been given it was but a few minutes before all the stock allotted for the Soo had been taken up.

The hall was filled with people during the lecture which fully explained the system of wireless telegraphy, illustrated with instruments and told of the company's intention regarding work in Canada. As soon as the lecture was over the people, eager to become possessed of stock, made a rush for the platform. The rules of etiquette were forgotten, while men and women crowded each other in their anxiety to procure a position from which they could thrust their money into the hands of the men who returned receipts to be later exchanged for the stock certificates. The excitement was intense and the crush of people anxious to get stock was such as to be almost beyond the belief of those who were not witnesses of it.

The amount of stock allotted for the Soo was 1,500 shares. They sold at par value, $5 each, and as all were taken up Soo people now own $7,500 stock in the company. Blocks of from 1 to 50 shares were taken by different people, but the majority of buyers took from 1 to 4 shares. The company's representatives told the buyers not to expect any large profits before about five years though small dividends might begin to come in at any time. It was also announced that a station would be erected at the Soo and be in operation by the first of December.—Sault Ste. Marie News.

Severe Cold in the Chest.

"My fourteen-year-old boy had a very severe cold in the chest last winter and I really thought he was going to die. He coughed nearly all the time and sometimes would spit up blood. I can positively say that he was completely cured by two bottles of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, and he has not been troubled since."—Mrs. J. Provost, Renfrew, Ont.

MARCONI AND THE Y. M. C. A. HALL

Col. E. B. Edwards Replies to Letter in The Examiner.

Says it was Let as Result of Letter of Mr. D. Hughes-Charles.

The Editor of the Examiner.

Dear Sir:

My attention has been called today to a letter in your issue of yesterday, in which, perhaps, half in joke and half in earnest, the directors are taken to task for the fact that the lecturer on wireless telegraphy at the close of a lecture full of scientific interest "proceeded to business" by soliciting subscriptions of stock in the Marconi company.

In the absence of the secretary, who usually attends to such matters, Mr. J. J. Bowden, one of the directors, spoke to me about the letting of dent of the Board of Trade, and as I the hall. I had no further information than that contained in the letter of Mr. D. Hughes Charles, Proshave the greatest respect for his good judgment, I did not think of questioning the propriety of the hall being used for the purpose of a series of scientific lectures endorsed by him. Therefore, if your "postal" correspondent feels grieved, may I pass him on to the President of the Board of Trade?

I may also be allowed to add that although there is a small financial consideration for the letting of the hall of the Y. M. C. A. for lectures, etc.—and this case was no exception—the directors cannot be held responsible for all that may be said by the lecturer. They can only judge in a general way by the announced title or subject of the lecture.

Yours truly,
E. B. Edwards,
President Y.M.C.A.

July 21st, 1905.

Sun Spots Photographed.

Photographs of the great sun spots taken at Hamilton yesterday by Dr. Marsh, president of the Hamilton Astronomical society, have turned out well. They are said to be the best, if not the only, sunspot photos ever taken in Canada. As Dr. Marsh is to have charge of this particular sort of work at Labrador next month, with the eclipse expedition, the result of yesterday's work is almost gratifying.

BABY COVERED WITH HUMOUR

Ears Looked as if They Would Drop Off—Body Entirely Covered with Sores—Three Doctors Could Not Cure—Child Grew Worse.

CURED BY CUTICURA IN TWO WEEKS

Mrs. George J. Steese, of 701 Coburn St., Akron, Ohio, tells in the following letter of another of those remarkable cures of torturing, disfiguring skin humours daily made by Cuticura, after physicians and all else had failed: "I feel it my duty to parents of other poor suffering babies to tell you what Cuticura has done for my little daughter. A humour broke out all over her body, and we used everything recommended, but without results. Three doctors all claimed they could help her, but she continued to grow worse. Her body was a mass of sores, her little face was being eaten away, and her ears looked as if they would drop off. Neighbours advised me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and before I had used half of the cake of Cuticura Soap and the box of Cuticura Ointment, the sores had all healed, and my little one's face and body were as clear as a new-born babe's. I would not be without it again if it cost a fortune instead of the small sum it did cost us to cure our baby, after spending much money on doctors and medicines without any benefit whatever."

SLEEP FOR BABIES

Rest for Tired, Fretted Mothers in Cuticura.

Instant relief and refreshing sleep for skin-tortured babies, and rest for tired, fretted mothers, in warm baths with Cuticura Soap and gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment, the great skin cure, and purest of emollients. A single set of Cuticura Soap and Ointment is often sufficient to cure the most distressing cases.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are sold throughout the world. Depots: London, 27 Charterhouse Sq.; Paris, 5 Rue de la Paix; Australia, R. Towns & Co., Sydney. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Boston. Sole Props.

Any Troubles in Your BATHROOM?

If you are having any trouble with your CLOSET or BATHROOM CONVENIENCES, come round and have a talk with us.

A gentleman, attracted by the range of Sanitary Closets and excellent values we are offering, invested in a new one, although he already had one that was working not badly.

The way he looked over the Closets we arranged before him for inspection showed he had been sifting the matter, and knew how to prove and disprove the claims of dealers.

The saving of health and expensive plumbing repairs, warranted the investment, he said.

How is yours working? Bring your Bathroom Troubles to us. Our Toronto Stock is what we sell in our Peterborough Branch.

OLD BOYS WILL OWN THE CITY

Will Come Home on 7th of Aug. in Full Force.

Two weeks from to-day the old boys of Peterborough in Toronto will return to pay their native town a visit. The present prospects are that this day, which is Toronto's Civic Holiday, will be an interesting one, both to the visitors and those who live here. Messrs. R. A. Cardwell and Fred Roberts, the "advance agents," were in town to-day making arrangements. The old boys will come down in full force on Monday, August 7th, and they will make the town lively while they remain here.

A programme of sports in the afternoon is being arranged, and it might it is possible that a band concert will be given in the Brock street rink.

More complete arrangements will be made later.

A Vexed Question.

Attorney General Young, of Minneapolis, is to test the validity of the present state mining lease law under which many million dollars' worth of iron ore have been marketed by the mine owners at a royalty of only 25 cents a ton. The mining concerns claim they are the "rightful owners" of the mineral lands they have taken up. The Attorney General contends that the only rightful owner is the state; and state officers are viewing the state mineral lands under instructions from the Legislature with the view of framing a new and effective lease law more fair to the state and the present practice.

A Camp Necessity.

Clark's Pork and Beans are a necessity in every camp. Satisfying, tasty and wholesome: 5c. and 10c. per tin. Plain or with Chili or Tomato Sauce.

Fun Ahead.

(From the Philadelphia Press.)

"Beware!" cried the fortune teller, your bitterest enemy will shortly cross your path."

BROKE RIBS IN HAY FIELD

Mr. James Bailey Met With a Serious Accident.

Is Being Treated by Christian Scientist Demonstrator.

Casualties in the hayfield, from one circumstance or another, are quite frequent this season. The most recent in this section occurred on Friday last, to Mr. James Bailey, market gardener, Smith, whose farm is about two miles from the city, a short distance north from Jackson Park.

It appears that Mr. Bailey was hauling in his hay, and while on top of the load, handing it from the pitcher, the horses made an unexpected start forward, with the result that Mr. Bailey was thrown violently on the ground, turning a complete somersault, and falling on the back of his head and side.

When assistance reached him he was unconscious, and remained in that condition until he was carried into the house. Mr. Bailey and his family are Christian Scientists, and, of course, the services of a doctor were not called in, but recourse was had to their own special treatment in cases of this kind, and a Christian Science demonstrator sent for, who has since had charge of the injured man. It is learned that Mr. Bailey claims to have sustained a fracture of a rib, a severe wrenching to the chin and neck, and a stunning to the whole body. So far, no other internal trouble has developed. Last night Mr. Bailey was reported to be getting on well. The sense of pain and shock to the system were being destroyed, and he was able to sit up and enjoy his meals with his family.

Mr. Bailey has the sympathy of many friends who regret that such a misfortune should occur to him at the present time.

PASSED AWAY AT AN EARLY AGE

The death occurred in Burleigh on Thursday last of Margaret Windsor, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Windsor, after a protracted illness from tuberculosis. Deceased was 17 years of age.

The funeral took place on Saturday from the family residence, South Burleigh, to the Hillside Cemetery at Lakefield.

EXCITING YACHT RACE AT CHEMONG

Mr. Milne Hamilton Captures the Flag Presented by Mr. Dennistoun.

Saturday's Race Awakened Great Interest and Was a Most Exciting Event.

The first of a series of yacht races for the flag recently offered for competition by Mr. R. M. Dennistoun, was sailed at Chemong on Saturday afternoon.

The race, which was witnessed by a large crowd, was of an intensely exciting nature, the finish being particularly thrilling.

Three boats were entered in the race, which was won by Mr. Milne Hamilton, Mr. W. J. Hopwood finishing second and Mr. R. M. Dennistoun third. It took place over a triangular three mile course, this being rounded twice. The course was laid out with the start directly in front of Pope's boat house, the second buoy being stationed at the bridge and the third upon the Enismore shore.

The shore was lined with spectators at the commencement of the race, who watched it from start to finish with intense interest. The wind was somewhat light and variable. Mr. Hamilton and Miss Allison Hamilton occupied the winning boat, while in Mr. Hopwood's were Messrs. W. J. and Howard Hopwood. Mr. Dennistoun having on board Prof. Bull, the designer of his boat.

The three boats got away in a good start at about 5.20 o'clock, Mr. Hopwood leading.

The race was closely contested until the last leg of the course when Mr. Hamilton forged ahead in a magnificent finish, coming about with a two-minute lead. Mr. Hopwood and Mr. Dennistoun finished in the order named, the former leading by about one length. The time was 1 1-2 hours.

The coming races in the series will be looked forward to with great interest.

Lunatic Murdered.

Mrs. Mary Larkins, a patient at the state insane asylum at Traverse City, was murdered by Mrs. Ernestine Berge, another patient, while the attendant was absent from the room.

Kingston's Street Railway.

Kingston's street railway service has been knocked out again by an accident to the generator, a big record at Lake Ontario park having to be brought back to town in vans, wagons and omnibusses. A new generator and engine are to be installed.

A Brave Woman.

Mrs. M. E. Rickert, of Lapeer, Mich., while rowing on Long Lake, struck her oar on a blue object, and quickly discovered to her alarm that it was a large snake of the species known as the blue racer. The snake attacked the boat and wriggled part way into it, when Mrs. Rickert shot adn killed it with a small rifle. The snake measured fifteen feet in length and sixteen and one-half inches in circumference.

Trouble With Chinese.

Si Ching, who manages several Chinese laundries at Windsor, Ont., broke the scale of prices agreed upon by the Chinese laundries and was well pummelled by Lee Pong and Lee Sing, who were fined by Magistrate Bartlett for the assault. Now Frank Lee acting for the other Chinese laundrymen, will bring suit against Si Ching for $50, the amount agreed upon as a penalty for cutting prices when the agreement was agreed upon.

Jealousy Led to Suicide.

News has just reached Vancouver, B. C., from Dog Creek, forty miles north, of a sensational suicide. Frank Gaspard, a young rancher, 25 years of age, of that place, had a party at his home. All were enjoying themselves in dancing, when suddenly, toward the close of the party, he left the house, and, procuring a rifle, shot himself through the brain on the door step, death being instantaneous. The cause of the act, it is understood, was rivalry between Gaspard and another young man over a young lady. On being refused, Gaspard [illegible] the scene while the final dance was in progress.

Lightning Bolt Killed.

The lightning bolt by which 19-year-old Mattie Broad was killed at Florence, Kent, County, struck her fairly in the middle of the head, her sunbonnet being cleft exactly in twain, and passed down the right side of her face and body, stripping her clothes from her on that side. Her right arm was charred and right hand split up the centre, and the right shoe was torn off. A pail on her right arm was melted, and a smaller one hanging from her girdle had the bottom burned out as cleanly as though cut out by a tinsmith. Her watch which was hanging at her waist was burned on the right side and the stem was melted.

LADY SWIMMER MAKES A RECORD

Swam Over Thirteen Miles in 3 Hrs., 54 Min., 16 Sec.

In view of the recent achievement of Mr. H. T. Strickland in swamming from Lakefield to Peterborough, the following article from the Reynold's Newspaper, London, Eng., will be of interest:—

Miss Annette Kellerman, Australia's lady champion swimmer, now in London, essayed on Friday on the Thames to beat the record she made of the Yarra, New South Wales—ten and a quarter miles in four hours, fifty-two seconds.

She is eighteen years of age, 5 ft. 7in. in height, and a model of grace and proportion. She is a very handsome brunette.

The lady entered the river at Putney Bridge at 2.30 1-2. The tide was ebbing strongly, rain was falling, and the experts did not view the conditions favourably.

Miss Kellerman's stroke is a double overarm trudgen. Her hands take the water in front, throw behind, and come over with easy regularity and grace. She commenced with twenty-five to the minute, and finished with twenty-four.

The experts began to look surprised. They were tired and the swimmer was not. Rollers and broken waters in the pool did not distress her. It was said she could not reach Limehouse. But she reached Blackwall Pier—thirteen miles two and a half furlongs—in three hours 54 min., 16 sec.—a magnificent performance.

For New Breakwater.

A contract for the construction of two breakwaters at Rondeau Harbour has been given to the Pacific Construction Company. The price is in the vicinity of $110,000.

WHAT DOES THIS MOVE INDICATE?

Czar Hastens to Confer With Emperor of Germany---A Portentious Meeting---Arrangement Was Made Very Suddenly and the Conference of the Monarchs Will Occur on Board the Imperial Yacht---Will the Kaiser Seek to Estrange Russia From France?

St. Petersburg, July 24.—On the eve of the peace conference and with a suddenness already disconcerting to diplomatic and court circles, the Emperor left Peterhof yesterday on board the imperial yacht Polar Star for a conference with Emperor William, who is cruising on the Hohenzollern in Finnish waters. The first interview of the Sovereigns was expected to take place last evening off the Finnish port of Borgo, at the mouth of the Gulf of Finland, near Helsingfors, 45 miles from St. Petersburg.

This will be followed by another interview to-day, after which Emperor Nicholas will return to St. Petersburg and Emperor William will continue his cruise. The Emperor is accompanied by his brother, Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch, and a considerable suite, including Count Benkendorff, marshal of the court; Gen. Baron W. Frederiks, Minister of the Imperial house; Count Heyden, Chief of the Imperial chancellerie; Admiral Birileff, Minister of Marine; Capt. Von Essen, who commanded the battleship Sevastopol during the siege of Port Arthur; Capt. Chagin, who commanded the Almaz, the only cruiser of Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet to reach Vladivostock after the battle of the Sea of Japan; Capt. Hinize, naval attache of the German embassy; also a party of courtiers and the Emperor's escort of sailors and marines, with a guard commanded by Admiral Necloff.

Caused a Surprise.

The idea, the report says, met with the Emperor's favor, but the final arrangements were only completed Saturday, and some members of the Imperial family were hastily commanded Saturday night to accompany His Majesty.

Many diplomats were taken completely by surprise by the news of yesterday; the rumors that a meeting was contemplated, which were current since Friday, having met with the flattest denials in official quarters, and the German Ambassador having stated that he knew nothing of any such plan being on foot.

Emperor William's action was instantly connected with the Moroccan question, and admiration for his political astuteness in realising his opportunities was expressed on all sides. The action of Emperor William in seeking a conference at this moment is generally interpreted as an assurance of his moral support of Russia in the coming pour parlers at Washington and Portsmouth, and to show that German participation in the recent Japanese loan was not a mark of the alienation of German sympathies from Russia.

What Paris Fears.

Paris, July 24.—Emperor Nicholas' cruise in the Gulf of Finland to meet Emperor William is the subject of much comment in the press.

Certain newspapers express the fear that the German Emperor will influence the Russian Emperor over Far Eastern matters and will hinder the carrying out of the peace program while others are of the opinion that Emperor William will seek to estrange Russia from France.

The Journal des Debats says that the first acts of Emperor Nicholas on his return to Russia will be looked forward to with particular interest.

Witte Has Met Rouvier.

Paris, July 24.—As a sequel to the conference between Premier Rouvier and M. Witte, Saturday the Russian peace plenipotentiary held an extended conversation with M. Nelidoff the Russian Ambassador after which a special courier left for St. Petersburg having despatches for the Emperor. There is reason to believe that the French Premier is now fully acquainted with the Russian standpoint and with the line of action which M. Witte will adopt at the peace conference.

M. Witte appears to be satisfied with M. Rouvier's assurances that France will adopt every possible means to assist her ally to reach a satisfactory arrangement. The friendly relations of the French Government with that of Great Britain will undoubtedly play a prominent part when the period for a direct exchange of views begins. It is believed that this was the chief point discussed during the conversation at the Quai d'Orsay.

Until now both parties have succeeded in keeping their respective programs from publicity and therefore assertions emanating from various quarters purporting to specify the claims of either side are purely speculative.

It is the universal desire here that the result of the conference will be a cessation of the hostilities while the hope is expressed that Russia will be able to find an issue from her awkward situation without sacrificing her national self respect.

PRIZE GIVEN BY THE KING.

Does Not Come to Canada This Year—East Surrey Man Won It With a Score of 315.

Bisley, July 24.—The King's Prize at the annual meeting of the National Rifle Association was won Saturday by Armorer-Sergeant Comber, of the Second East Surrey Regiment, with a score of 315.

King Edward himself was present on the range to see the final stage of the contest for his gold medal, which he personally presented to the winner.

Canadians' Places.

The King visited the camp Saturday morning. After inspecting the Canadians and other Colonials, he shook hands with Commandant Hesslein and Adjutant Davidson.

"I take a great interest in the Canadians," he said, "and am glad to hear that they have done well."

In the Brookward, seven shots at 600 yards, Capt. Stuart was first, winning £6 5s.

In the Loder Challenge Cup, Major Howard, the agent-general for Nova Scotia in London, was first, winning the cup and £5. This is open only to the mounted branches of His Majesty's forces, and is seven shots at 600 yards.

In the Stickledown match Lt. Boult was first, winning £10; Sergt. Moore, 3rd, £4; Sergt. Kerr, 6th, £2; Sergt. Richardson, 14th, £1; Sergt. Simpson, 19th, £1; Capt. Elliott, 26th, £1; Major Flowers, 27th, £1.

In the Wingrove, Sergt. Phillips was 3rd, winning £5 10s; Sergt. Simpson, 4th, £5 10s; Sergt. Russell, 16th, £1; Pte. Brayshaw, 17th, £1; Sergt. Moore, 24th, £1; Capt. Mitchell, 30th, £1.

Canadian Prize Winners.

In the Handsworth competition the following Canadians were among the prize winners: Sergt. Russell, Ottawa, 3rd, £4; Capt. Elliott, Toronto, 8th, £2; Lt. Boult, Victoria, 17th £1; Col-Sergt. Moore Peterboro, 20th, £1; Pte. Morrice, Montreal, 27th, £1; Sergt. Pugh, Quebec, 31st, £1; Capt. Stuart, Vancouver, 34th, £1; Pte. Wilson, Ottawa, 35th, £1; Sergt. Kelly, Toronto, 37th £1.

Among the winners in the "Henry" competition were: Capt. Mitchell, York Rangers, 3rd, £3; Staff-Sergt. Crowe, Guelph, 4th, £2; Pte. Morrice, 10th, £1; Capt. Jones, P. E. I., 13th, £1.

The following were successful in the "Association" cup series, ten shots at 900 yards. By the regulations each lady member may nominate a gentleman member of the National Rifle Association to shoot for her, which does not interfere with the gentleman's right to shoot for himself. A gentleman may represent more than one lady. Sergt. Crowe, 6th, £5; Capt. Mitchell, 16th, £3; Sergt. Simpson, Toronto, 14th, £3, and 27th, £3; Capt. Mitchell, 29th, £3, and 34th, £3; Sergt. Crowe, 41st £3; Sergt. Russell, Ottawa, 44th, £3; Sergt. Crowe, 46th, £3; Orderly-Sergt. Phillips, Toronto, 47th, £3; Staff-Sergt. Bayles, Toronto, 50th, £3; Pte. Eastcott Ottawa, 54th, £3; Sergt. Crowe, 57th, £3; Col.-Sergt. Moore, 74th, £3, and Sergt. Pugh, 81st, £3.

Bricklayer Is Missing.

Toronto, July 24.—Alex. Hamill, a bricklayer, who lived at 49 East Richmond street, has been missing since Saturday morning. He left his home at 7 o'clock to go to work somewhere in the northwest part of the city. He quit work at 11 o'clock, saying he was ill. That is the last his wife has heard of him. Hamill is 28 years of age.

ARMY FORMS A GREAT SICKLE

Top in Corean Coast and Handle South of Liaoyang—Oyama's Army of 550,000—Landing of Japanese Troops Near Vladivostock—Jap Torpedo Boats Circling Close to the Remaining Fortress—No Collisions Worth Mentioning on Memorial Day---The People's Congress.

Uridiapupdse, July 24.—The Japanese armies at present occupy the position of an immense sickle, with the handle reaching from a few miles south of Liaoyang and passing through Chantafu, the blade circling northward toward Kirin, with the tip on the Corean coast south of Possiet Bay.

It is estimated that Gen. Nogi has 80 battalions, Gen. Uku 60, Gen. Nodzu 36, Gen. Kuroki 160, Gen. Kawamura 90, and Gen. Hasegawa 120, the battalions averaging a thousand men, which makes the numerical strength of the Japanese 550,000 bayonets, with 2,000 field and mountain guns and about 100 siege guns.

The Japanese extreme left is guarded by Gen. Tamura's cavalry division. The Chinese in the Japanese service are in the centre, screened by cavalry under the command of Gen. Okihara.

Troops Land Near Vladivostock.

St. Petersburg, July 24.—The correspondent of The Novoe Vreyma, with the Russian 11th army corps, says that Japanese torpedo boats, during a thick mist and rain, approached several bays near Vladivostock, and that they sent a landing party ashore in the Gulf of Gashkevitch, near Possiet Bay.

Memorial Day Uneventful.

St. Petersburg, July 24.—Though it was predicted that there would be some disorders in St. Petersburg yesterday, the day was equally as uneventful as Saturday, which was observed as a memorial day for those killed on January 22 last.

Agitators in Nizshni Novgorod, Kazan, Vitebsk, Ourmr and several other towns arranged demonstrations and tried to precipitate collisions with the police and troops, but there was no loss of life and no serious affrays so far as reported.

Agitators in the Baltic Provinces resorted to interference with church services, to insults toward the clergy and even to the use of firearms against attempts to preserve order. The congregations were thoroughly intimidated and fled in panic wherever there was a demonstration.

Zemstvo Congress Concludes.

Moscow, July 23.—The final meeting of the zemstvo congress yesteday adopted a motion of Prince Dolgouroki, that the bureau be granted power to call to the next congress representatives from the outskirts of the empire and from places where zemstvos are not held, and also from various agricultural and financial societies. The bureau is further authorized to enter into an agreement with various organizations. After arranging for financial support of the congress by taxing delegations, a proposal to invite peasants to the congress was adopted.

The congress unfavorably received the suggestion that workmen's organizations be invited, and referred the matter to the bureau.

On motion of Prince Shakoffskoy, it was decided to organize assemblies throughout the country and submit to them the conclusions of the congress respecting the scheme of Minister of Interior Bouligin.

Japan Buys Thoroughbred Horses.

Buffalo, July 24.—Representatives of the Japanese Government have just bought $110,000 worth of horses at a stock farm at East Aurora. There are 34 horses in the deal, and all will be shipped to Japan for breeding purposes. The average price is about $3,000 for each horse.

Any Troubles in Your BATHROOM?

If you are having any trouble with your CLOSET or BATHROOM CONVENIENCES, come round and have a talk with us.

A gentleman, attracted by the range of Sanitary Closets and excellent values we are offering, invested in a new one, although he already had one that was working not badly.

The way he looked over the Closets we arranged before him for inspection showed he had been sifting the matter, and knew how to prove and disprove the claims of dealers.

The saving of health and expensive plumbing repairs, warranted the investment, he said.

MANY VISITORS AT Y. M. C. A. CAMP

Friday Was Visitors Day at Clear Lake.

Guests Treated to Camp Fare—The Water Chute Popular.

Y. M. C. A. Camp, Friday, July 21. —This is visitors' day at the Y. M. C. A. camp and the greatest day that has been. The camp leaders are delighted at the large number who came by the morning boat. These included Mr. A. H. Stratton, Reg. Stratton, Mesdames Dutton, Fortye, Minorgan, Dawe, Dobbin, Moyse, Isaacs, Hatcher and Dobbin, little Misses and Master Fortye.

Mr. and Mrs. Madill drove up and were met by a deputation at Ayother Landing.

The camp was inspected and dinner served to all. The visitors expressed their great satisfaction with everything about the camp, and cook Arnott came in for much deserved praise.

He is giving the visitors a concert on the shore before the water sports come off, which will form the principal feature of the afternoon.

The baseball league is nearing an end and only five more games yet remain to be played. It will be concluded on Monday. Davies' men have won six straight games and it looks as if they will land the watermelon O.K. They are a hungry crowd, and easily fix up half-a-dozen of them.

The party left by the afternoon boat amid the cheers of the boys. They left behind them loads of good things which will gladden the hearts (and stomachs) of the fellows in camp.

The camp is all too soon drawing to a close. Monday will be field day, and on Tuesday the whole party will take in the round trip of the lakes. There is heaps of fun still in store for the few days of the outing that yet remain.

I forgot in my earlier letters to tell you of the water chute which was built and ready early in the week. It is grand sport for all and is well worth the patient hours of work put upon it by the Royal Engineers after party. It is about 50 feet long.

The "do-drop-in" camp broke up yesterday, and Messrs. Armstrong and Milne were given a hearty send-off as they paddled off for Young's Point. They are from Toronto.

the daily Bible studies on "Jesus, the

The folding organ is a very helpful feature and boon to the song service.

Yesterday camp photographer Dormer got some good shots at the camp—they did not bear any relationship to Buxoo, shooting gallery referred to in the "Camp Jollier."

Last night was the "taffy pull" and it was one of the best nights in camp. The cook made liberal provision for molasses and sugar, and every fellow got his plate filled with good old-fashioned nigger black molasses taffy. Besides every boy having all he could eat, there was in some way enough to daub over the table and everything else in sight. The cook had a great time cleaning up this morning.

The "Camp Jollier" was read by the editor, Arthur Emmerson, last night, and had some very clever productions.

Well, I'll have to close now. Some more later.

POST CARD CORRESPONDENCE.

In this column will be published communications upon post cards only. It will remain open for the use of readers, who are invited to contribute suggestions, inquiries or replies. Anything of a scurrilous personal nature will be prohibited.

To the Editor, —

Sir, — I see that some complaints have been made about the way in which the streets are watered. I was up at the north end of Water street, today and think it is not, surprising that it is not watered. It is almost impossible to drive a buggy over the street, let alone a heavy watering cart.

North-Ender.

Mr. Editor:

We, the Fifth Ward girls, are as fond of music as any girls, and we regret that we have so little opportunity to enjoy the excellent programmes furnished by the 57th Band in Victoria and Jackson Parks. Could you not persuade the Aldermen to make some arrangement with the band to give us the pleasure of a concert in East Nicholls Park? Or at least let us have a bus service to Jackson Park so that we may go and share the treat?

EAST WARD GIRL.

To the Editor, —

Dear Sir, — When we bought bricks in the Y.W.C.A. building, we somehow or other became possessed with the idea that the institution was for the advantage of the working girls, i.e., that girls from the Cereal, Cordage, Electric works, etc., could have a comfortable home there for a sum within the limit of their income of say, $4 or $5 a week. Now, as far as we can make out, such girls could not think of boarding there, unless they are adepts at clothing themselves at $1 a week.

Working Girl.

Peterborough, July 22, 1905.

Editor of the Examiner,—

Sir,—Can you inform me if the hay in the little enclosure at corner of Park and Charlotte streets, is for sale, or do the city fathers intend to feed it to the horses of the Fire Department or ship it to Manchuria?

Yours truly,
HAYSEED.

To the Editor,—

Sir, — Since we are now a city, is it right for people to water our streets by slops from their houses, as I have seen done in the East Ward? Where is the Health Inspector?

A Passer By.

Editor of the Examiner,—

Dear Sir,—I have attended several of the open air concerts given by the 57th Band, and have always been pleased with the programmes rendered, but as a variation would suggest that the band have Irish and Scotch nights—that is, on some nights to give Irish selections only and on another night render Scotch pieces only. Such a programme is sure to be a success and if the band has not enough of that class of music, a few more pieces could be practised and a couple of programmes given before the end of the season. Hoping that this suggestion will receive consideration, I remain,

Yours expectantly,
CONCERT GOER.

Editor of the Examiner,—

Dear Sir,—I would like to know why there is no place for bathing at present in Jackson Park. In former years the bathing pond was kept well filled with water and it was a pleasant, safe place for to learn to swim. This year, however, the water has been allowed to escape and consequently the former bathing place is now an unsightly hole. If the reason for this is that boys using this place do not know how to conduct themselves, surely with a special policeman in the park they could be made to have a little decency in their conduct. Hoping to see that this matter is fixed so that a person can go and have a wash occasionally, I remain yours respectfully,

LATEST DOINGS AT SPRINGVILLE

Summer Visitors at That Pretty Village.

Mr. George Robertson Returns From the West to Spend the Summer.

(Special to the Examiner.)

Springville, July 22nd. — Mr. W. Elliott, of Ida, has just completed his contract for the construction of a granolithic sidewalk at the Presbyterian church here. This is an improvement which was very much needed and the work has been carried out in a thoroughly satisfactory manner.

Mr. Robert Gryce of the Hamilton Herald staff, is visiting his uncle, Mr. Robert Rynd. He is spending a very pleasant vacation, not the least pleasant feature of it being his quest in search of the finny tribe, for Mr. Gryce is an enthusiastic disciple of Izaak Walton. He reports that the prospects for the peach crop in the Niagara district are good.

Mr. George Robertson of Hartney, Manitoba, a former resident of Springville, is home on a visit. Mr. Robertson went to the West to teach school, but has since branched out in other lines, and is in the farming business as well. On his return home Mr. Robertson will take a life partner with him.

Miss McRoberts of Wentworth is visiting at the home of Mr. Arnold Ball.

Two young men who were camping on Rice Lake near Hiawatha had a narrow escape from drowning Wednesday afternoon. They were upset from a canoe about three o'clock and were in the water for an hour and a half before being rescued by Mr. Madden Howard, of Hiawatha Indian Reserve. Mr. Howard saw them upset, but on account of the heavy sea running at the time was unable to effect a rescue until the wind had partly subsided. As it was, his canoe was nearly filled with water when he reached shore with the two rescued men.

LAST WORD FROM HUBBARD'S WIDOW

Has Written From French Post, Labrador.

Practices Shooting Ere She Plunges Into the Wilds of Labrador.

Many persons in Peterborough and vicinity will be interested in the following from the New York World:—

Friends in Brooklyn have received another letter from Mrs. Mina D. Hubbard, widow of the explorer, who lost his life in the wilds of Labrador. Mrs. Hubbard has undertaken an expedition to obtain more facts concerning her husband's death from starvation.

The last letter printed was one received by a Pittsfield friend of Mrs. Hubbard. It stated that she had made her start and was four hours ahead of the Dillon Wallace party, despite the fact that the Wallace expedition has determined to keep in advance. Wallace was one of Hubbard's companions on the expedition that cost his life.

Mrs. Hubbard's letter says:

"French Post, Northwest River, Labrador, June 27, 1905.

"We are almost ready to start, and am sending you a last line. Arrived here at 8 a.m. Sunday, and were received with warmest welcome. Mr. Cottar, of the Hudson Bay Post, says, 'You are all right, Mrs. Hubbard, with those men. I think you will do what you are planning without any difficulty.'

"Did some shooting last night, the first in nearly two years. Surprised everybody, including myself, for I was afraid, after so long a time I should make a poor showing. Could do very nearly as well as any hunter. George (Elson, the half-breed) said he had never seen any one who was not used to shooting all their lives do so well. If there is enough wind Mr. Buckle, agent of the French Post, will send us up Grand Lake in his yacht to-day to the Nascaupee River.

"If we get down to Ungava and are too late for the steamer, we will immediately start back over the same route. Winter will probably catch us somewhere near Michikamau, but even if it should, I think I shall be all right with the men I have.

"We will return to Northwest River and probably snowshoe across to St. Augustine. If the Pelican and French Company's steamer both return without us, you will know that we are on our way back over the same trail to Northwest River. Until fall; good-bye.

"MINA D. HUBBARD."

MR. JOE. MURPHY'S CUTLERY DISAPPEARS

And He is Without the Means of Indulging in a Shave.

Mr. Joe Murphy put in an appearance at the Police Station this morning and in a pitiful tone laid his woes before Acting Chief of Police Stewart. He complained that all his cutlery had been cleaned up, and he was the loser of four razors, four jack knives and other things too numerous to mention. He suspected a Dago boy and wanted him brought up at once, but the case will keep until to-morrow.

Wife May Rifle Pockets.

William H. Harding, of Kansas City, asked a divorce from Ina M. Harding, one reason being because she had a habit of "frisking" his pockets after he fell asleep. When the evidence was all in Judge Glover granted the divorce, but said: "I want it distinctly understood that I am not granting this divorce because the wife went into her husband's pockets. I shall do nothing to interfere with that ancient privilege of the fair sex. A wife has the right to do that. I grant the divorce for other reasons," which he thereupon proceeded to enumerate.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-west Provinces, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him.

Homestead Duties.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector.

Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

THE REALITIES OF WAR

One by one the things that made up the pride and panoply of glorious war are being discarded, says the Montreal Witness. Brilliant uniforms, glittering appointments, plumes, feathers and gold lace may still be permitted for show occasions at home, but for the grim realities of war they are all abolished. British regiments no longer carry their colours into the field of actual war. And now the announcement is made that the French war ministry has decided to abolish the use of drums in the army. Like Othello, the soldier of France will have to say farewell to the ear-piercing fife and spirit-stirring drum. Though Russian regiments at the battle of Mukden marched into battle to the music of brass bands, the lesson of modern warfare is that the regiment as well as the individual soldier must be as inconspicuous and make as little noise as possible. The soldier must not be a mark in the landscape for long-range arms of precision, but in imitation of the wild creatures of forest and field, dress in the hues of nature the better to escape detection as he moves or lies in wait for the enemy. Of course old army men in France are indignant and declare that an army without drums would be anything but martial. They point out the important part played by drums in many a memorable engagement, and say that to do away with them would be to attack one of the most venerated of army traditions. Nevertheless, utility and necessity demand that the drums must follow the flags, because they drew fire where they are heard, and that means certain death for some and possible defeat for all. Thus fades the romance of war as its grim realities of exposure, dirt, suffering, disease and death come more plainly into view.

THE CANADIAN PACIFIC.

For the next two or three years the chief dependence of the Northwest must be on the Canadian Pacific Railway as an outlet for its grain crop. The Canadian Northern is proving itself a good second, but time is required to enable it to complete its main line and provide more branches. The work of constructing the Grand Trunk Pacific has not yet commenced, and months may elapse before the preliminaries are concluded. Under these circumstances it is satisfactory to learn that, besides building an immense number of additional box cars at the rate of fifteen a day, the Canadian Pacific Railway has decided to lay a second track from Winnipeg to Lake Superior. The contract for the work has been let and it will be completed within three years. Long before that interval has elapsed, however, freight traffic will be greatly facilitated by the new line. By the fall of 1906, a great many miles of the new track should be laid in the middle of the section, so that trains may be able to pass each other without side tracking for that purpose. There is good reason to believe that from this time forward the development of transportation facilities will be quite as rapid as the expansion of grain production. — Globe.

EDITORIAL NOTES

It is announced, says the Finance Chronicle, that a combination has been arranged by which the leading producers of iron and steel on this continent and in Europe will work together as a practical combine. They will not compete with each other in certain defined markets, but maintain standard prices. The enormous increase in production in the United States, Germany, Great Britain in recent years has brought about conditions which are creating anxiety, the consuming capacity being regarded as much below the production. The States can put out two millions of tons of pig iron monthly which is largely in excess of any year's consumption. There is a prospect, therefore, of American iron being forced into export when Europe is not needing to import iron from this side.

LOCAL AUTHOR'S WORK IS PRAISED

The Montreal Star's Literary Critic Likes "Marcelle."

A Refreshing Change After the American Novels on the War of Independence.

The Montreal Star, in a lengthy review, on Saturday, deals with the new Canadian historical novel, "Marcelle," by the gifted local author, and refers in very complimentary terms to his work. The article follows:—

A well-known publisher in England said the other day that the reviews were becoming increasingly important factors in the success of works, because they are read by the public to a far greater extent than they were some years ago. That the fate of a novel lies "on the knees" of the critics is, we think, a sound dictum, but with certain modifications. Few novels, of course, are proof against a furious "slating;" many owe their success in a great measure to inspired reviews. Yet even an adverse critique, if sufficiently trenchant, can cut both ways, and will at any rate by exciting the interest of the reader, constitute a useful advertisement. Only it must be downright; anything decisive, however unfavourable, is more effective than the negative or faint blame or lukewarm praise.

We have of late years been deluged with so many American novels about the War of Independence and the Civil War, that we are glad to have a Canadian romance from a Canadian; and though we have seen "Marcelle" mentioned only twice in the press, we regret that it has in these two notices met with what we consider to be unfair treatment. One writer denounces it as "another attempt to use the romantic stuff so plentifully found about the old City of Quebec," and adds that the "author consumes 409 duodecimo pages of print in saying what he has to say, though it is not likely that any reader will be found to read them all." This is not encouraging language, but as it comes from a new York critic, we have perhaps no right to regard it too seriously. The present writer is one of those unexpected readers who has twice read all the pages of "Marcelle," and has found matters of much interest in them. Moreover, he has no acquaintance whatever with the Canadian author, and therefore is quite unprejudiced. Mr. Burnham, probably as the result of some recent studies, deliberately chose in Count Frontenac a distinguished figure for his historical picture. Like other Governors, before him, and after him, the Count came out from the very centre of civilization — the court of France; from serving in the finest army in the world at that period, he came to rule a barbarous borderland, and to command troops, the majority of whom were backswoodmen, or native Indians, or, at best, a half disciplined militia. He did not come young to the work, for on his arrival he was 52. In 1639, when he was appointed Governor for the second time, he was in his 70th year. In the opinion of the best historians, he had great merits and great defects. He was for instance, according to undoubted records, pretentious, arrogant and over-bearing — insubordinate to his employers, somewhat unscrupulous in his policy and not always clean handed in repairing his broken fortunes. Some of these qualities have been softened by Mr. Burnham in his portrait of the Governor. But, on the other hand, he was resourceful, fearless and determined; he stood by his friends; had, in many respects, broad views; above all, believed thoroughly in Canada, its fortunes and its inhabitants: and at the time of his death left her on the lines of prosperity and probable greatness. All this is clearly brought out in Mr. Burnham's narrative of an episode in a girl's life. Black John was a "coureur-de-bois" who had lived for more than twenty years in a cabin in the Huron country, and had married a woman of the Huron tribe of Indians. She had died soon after her marriage and had bequeathed him an only child, Marcelle, recently grown to womanhood, when the tale begins. From her mother she had inherited exquisite grace, which had gained for her from the Indians the name of "The Fawn." Naturally she was much admired as "the beauty of the wilderness," but as yet was wholeheart and fancy free ,unless her attachment to a young Huron chief who had been an early playmate, could be called love. We are not much prepossessed in favour of "Black John," who makes money (contrary to law) out of the Indians by selling them brandy in return for their valuable and varied pelts. One night, during fierce winter storm, Black John and the faithful Huron rescue a Frenchman, who calls himself Captain Francois Latour, from freezing near the cabin, and Marcelle assists in restoring him to life and strength. He is in reality a "mauvais sujet," and succeeds in inducing Black John to become his partner in illicit trading with the Indians. Soon after Latour had, for the time, bidden farewell to his host and Marcelle, Black John also departs on his travels, and the girl remains sole tenant of the cabin. Aware of this, of course, the scamp Latour returns, and by his artful compliments and vivid description of the pleasures at the Quebec Court, persuades the innocent "Fawn" to accompany him and his escort to the Capital. When at last they reach it, Latour tries to induce her to accompany him to his home, but a "coureur-de-bois," named Jean Dilbot, whose life her father, Black John, had once saved, rescues her from the villain, and takes her for safety to the Ursuline Convent. As, though a pious Catholic, Marcelle has no wish to become a nun, she soon quits the convent, at the desire of Frontenac, who has heard of her strange case, and goes to live at the Chateau St. Louis under the protection of His Excelleney and his wife. Here we feel bound to remark that we can find no excuse for Marcelle's craving for adventure, and consequent desertion of her father and lover. Mr. Burnham in vain explains to us that she intended to return home before the winter came again, and at p. 49 thus apologizes for what we consider her indefensible conduct: "She had long chafed under the solitariness of her life in the wilderness, where she seldom met with one of her own sex, and she felt that it was due to her, although her father thought otherwise, that she should have an outing in the fashionable world, and learn something of the ways of city life..... It was a chance not to be had twice; hence her resolve to seize it." Her instant and signal success at Frontenac's Court is also a matter of surprise to us. How an uneducated half-breed, who could hardly read, at once by her manners and conversation captivated the hearts of highly educated and refined people of both sexes, seems almost a miracle. At the end of chapter XIV. this marvellous heroine tells in an excellent and faultless style a pleasing legend that occupies nearly five pages. At p. 325, when, in the presence of Frontenac, she is crowned Queen of the "Coureurs-de-Bois," she makes a most graceful speech to them in returning thanks and is followed by the Governor and Viceroy, who uses the following language to the assembled "Coureurs": "It is fitting that you should have chosen for your Queen one so worthy of your choosing, both by right of birth and right of beauty, for in all the land of old or new France there is none more more beautiful than Marcelle." To this we may add that the gallant Major Phillippe Noel Susplme Beauharnais (son and heir of the Earl of Beauharnais) and the wealthy young Duke de Vautreuil were both suitors for her hand, and fought a savage duel on her account, in which the latter aristocrat was nearly killed. Chapter XXXV. contains an account of the marriage of Marcelle to Phillippe Beauharnais. The bride was given away by Frontenac; but her heart was not with her husband, but with her Indian playmate, the Huron Chief. It is in connection with him and Marcelle that we must find a final fault with Mr. Burnham's romance. When she is acting in a play before a refined audience, after her wedding, and is supposed to have been carried away by the Iroquois, from whom she escapes, suddenly a tall form emerges from the darkness of a forest background on the stage, and Marcelle, with a shriek of agony, cried, "The Huron!" and fell fainting to the ground. In reality it was her lover, the Huron Chief; and, amid the confusion that ensued, he managed to escape with her in his arms. On the last page but one of the book, the two successful fugities make their appearance in Black John's cabin, and Marcelle says:— "Father! I am home again, but I belong to the Huron, too, now. He has taken me for his wife, and I have taken him, as the Hurons marry, for my husband. We shall live with you always." The last words of the book are: "Marcelle is happy." The question with us is, did she deserve to be happy? She, a devoted daughter of the Catholic Church, was united to Philippe Beauharnais by the sacrament of matrimony. How did she dare then to violate her vows and commit sacrilege, if she ever hoped to be happy in this world or the next?

We have unhesitatingly indicated the reasons for our disagreeing with parts of the author's plot, but we sincerely wish him a successful literary future, and congratulate him in the meantime on his present "historical novel." As we hope that it will soon attain a second edition, we take the liberty of pointing out that a few corretcions are absolutely necessary. Certain words must be altered. At page 181 we read that "the Duke, being a most desirable party, had attracted the attention of many ladies." For "party" substitute the French term "parti," which means in common English "a good match." Again we find the author writing "a l'outrance." This is not correct French; but "guerre a outrance" means "war to the knife." At page 276, "La Silence" should be "Le Silence." At page 239 we read: "It must not be supposed that they were indistinguishable except by this insignium." This last word is here intended to represent the singular of "insignia," but "insignium" does not exist. "Read "insigne." At page 33 we find mention of "Black John, whom he knew would come to trade." Read "who" for "whom." So also at page 253, we are told of "the Count de Beauharnois, whom he intended should remain at the Chateau." This blunder of "whom," the objective, for "who," the nominative, occurs even in our Authorized Version of the New Testament. "Whom do men say that I am?" (see Mark viii, 27; Matthew xvi, 13, and Luke ix, 18.) At page 193 Mr. Burnham used "whom" correctly, when he wrote: "Whom do you wish for your second?" These "errata," after all, have nothing to do with the adventurous life of Marcelle Courtebois, the daughter of Black John and a Huron woman, which is well worth reading.

LAMENTED DEATH OF MISS L. REID

Occurred Yesterday After an Illness of Six Months.

After an illness of about six months the death occurred yesterday, at the family residence, 76 Lansdowne street, of Miss Lucinda Maria Reid, the eldest daughter of the late James Reid. The deceased had been suffering from a nervous trouble for the last half year, and has been gradually sinking until the end came. She has been a resident of Peterborough all her lifetime, and her many friends here will regret to learn of her demise. She leaves to mourn her loss, her mother and one brother, and two sisters, all residing in Peterborough. They are, Arthur Reid, and Helen and Harriett Reid.

The funeral will take place on Tuesday at 2.30 from the family residence, 76 Lansdowne street to the Little Lake Cemetery.

DEATH OF THE LATE JOS. RICHARDSON

Died Under Particularly Distressing Circumstances.

On Saturday the sad death occurred of Joseph E. Richardson, son of the late Thomas and Margaret Richardson, of Cavan.

The late Mr. Richardson was 58 years old, and has been a resident of this city for 15 years. His wife and two sisters, Mrs. (Rev.) Jelwell, of Prince Albert and Mrs. McBurney, of Toronto, are left to mourn his death.

The loss is particularly distressing to Mrs. McBurney as her husband died a few weeks ago and was buried here.

The funeral took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, Hunter street, and proceeded to the Little Lake Cemetery.

MADE FAST RUN FROM CHEMONG

Toronto Touring Car, Which Called Here Yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Reid, Mr. and Mrs. J. Downer of Toronto, and Mr. Bolka, of Rochester, arrived here on Saturday about midnight, in Mr. Reid's gasolene touring car. They were the guests of Mr. T. Duncan McGregor of No. 297 Rubidge street. The party enjoyed a run out to Chemong Park, on Sunday, on their fleet car, and took the hills and hollows like a golf ball. Miss Allan and Mr. and Mrs. McGregor, of Peterborough, accompanied the tourists to Chemong. The distance from Chemong to Peterborough was covered in twenty minutes. This car is said to be one of the fastest cars in Canada, and is making trial trips around the country to demonstrate its speed with various styles of engines. The Toronto party returned home this morning.

AUBURN WOOLEN MILLS EXCURSION

Delightful Trip to Stony Lake on Saturday.

Dined at Sandy Point, Clear Lake—Party Numbered About 350.

The annual excursion of the employees of the Auburn Woollen Mills which took place to Stony Lake on Saturday was largely attended and proved one of the most delightful outings of the season.

The party, which numbered about 350, left the Wolfe street Wharf at about 8 o'clock and after a pleasant trip over the Lift Lock and through the canal to Lakefield, the journey was continued as far as the Y.M.C.A. Camp, Sandy Point, Clear Lake. A short stay was made at this point, during which the party dined.

Mr. James Kendry, ex-M.P., who was on board assisted greatly in adding to the pleasures of the outing. A hearty vote of thanks was unanimously tendered him for his painstaking interest.

Delightful music was rendered by the 57th Band, which was much appreciated.

A feature of the trip which furnished much amusement was an Irish jig contest between Mr. Ed. Kennedy and Mr. Frank Mallory, which was won by the former, after an interesting exhibition in which both displayed much grace and flexibility of motion.

The return trip was commenced after dinner, the pleasure-seekers reaching the city at about 7 o'clock, after a delightful sail.

Peterborough, Ont., July 24, '05.

To Mr. James Kendry,
Managing Director,
Auburn Woollen Co.

Sir,—We, the employees, extend our thanks to the company for the very pleasant outing afforded us on Saturday last, July 22nd.

And we also thank you for your presence on the trip and for the kind interest you took in seeing that each and everyone enjoyed themselves.

And we trust that this outing may become an annual affair, and trust that you may be spared to enjoy many such with us.

On behalf of the employees of the Auburn Woollen Company.

Robert Mann,
Chairman of Committee.

PRESENTATION TO MR. F. BRADBURN

Made Receptient of Pipe on Leaving C. G. E. Company.

Mr. Frank L. Bradburn was the recipient of a handsome meerschaum pipe and an address which was presented to him on Saturday by his fellow employees at the Canadian General Electric Works, it being the occasion of Mr. Bradburn's leave-taking from that company.

Mr. Bradburn has been employed for a number of years as draughtsman for the Canadian General Electric Company, and in losing him the company is losing an industrious and capable man, and much regret is expressed at his having severed his connection with the firm.

Mr. Bradburn's friends will join heartily in wishing him all success and prosperity in his new venture.

GIRLS' AUXILIARY AT JUBILEE POINT

Annual Outing of St. Luke's Auxiliary on Saturday.

The members of the Girls Auxiliary of St. Luke's church on Saturday afternoon enjoyed their annual outing. Taking the steamer Water Lily, on her regular Saturday afternoon trip, they went down the river to Jubilee Point. Where they alighted, and spent the remainder of the afternoon at that delightful resort, enjoying themselves in right royal fashion. They returned to the city in the evening, on the regular trip of the "Lily", well pleased with their outing, which proved to be one of the most pleasant in the history of the organization.

—A reading room has been opened in connection with the First Church of Christ Scientist, on Aylmer street. The church will be open in the afternoons of Monday, Wednesday and Saturday, between the hours of 2 adn 5 o'clock, and the public is cordially invited. Literature of a Christian Science nature will be provided.

—A limelight lecture was held in Holy Trinity Church, Haultain, on Monday evening last, the subject of which was "The Passion of Christ." This was ably presented by Rev. Canon Dixon of Toronto. The same lecture was also give at St. Matthew's, Buckhorn, and St. Andrew's, Young's Point. At all the places there were good congregations.

The Campbellford Despatch has the following:—"A certain young man on Bridge street has become so particularly fond of saying funny things to his lady customers that several now shun his counter rather than listen to bosh which is more insulting than witty. The jase-ax has become a public nuisance and the laughing stock of many. It's not what you say, but how you say it. A word to the "wise" is sufficient, but a "fool" may need more.

—Speaking of the recent excursion from Cobourg to Stony Lake, the Sentinal-Star says:—"The excursion under the auspices of the Methodist Sunday School on Tuesday was a very pleasant and enjoyable one. The trip was successful, all though more should have taken it in, as it is one of the most lovely outings one can take. The steamer was clean and the officers and men careful and most obliging, and all were pleased with the sail through the lakes. Those who go through these beautiful waters are most enthusiastic in the advocacy of this route as one for pleasure and pastime.

During hot weather, horses are liable to suffer from severe diarrhoea, which, if not checked, causes the animal's death. A number of animals in this district have died from this complaint. Dr. Poole, V. S., 420 Water street, Peterborough, has discovered a cure for the above, which, to prove his assertion, unless the animal recovers, he will charge nothing for his services. Owners of horses should take advantage of this offer. Telephone 459, or the above address, night or day. 12d16-2w

—On Wednesday morning six large dynamite cartridges were found lying on the street opposite Minaker & Co's store. How they came to be there is a mystery, and a greater mystery is how they escaped explosion from being run over by the many conveyances that had passed over that part of the street during the morning. They may have been dropped by some careless person, while taking them out of town; and, if so, we would advise him to take a safer method in future for conveying such dangerous explosives, and to take a back street in going out of town. If we are to ascend upwards, we don't want to go too suddenly—a little notice ahead is far better.—Cobourg Sentinal-Star.

Stricken with Paralysis.

Mrs. W. R. Sutherland, St. Andrew's, Man., writes:—"I was stricken with paralysis and lost power of the tongue and left leg. For six months I obtained no relief either by doctors' prescriptions or other medicines. My husband got me Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which has revitalized my nerves and given me full power of the paralysed parts. I am strong and well now, thanks to this great medicine."

CARLETON HOUSE POPULAR RESORT

Mr. W. E. Brooks, of Young's Point, Has Well Appointed House.

Many Guests Enjoy the Summer There—Easy of Access.

The following reference to the Carleton House summer resort at Young's Point was inadvertantly omitted from the article on Saturday in which the resorts of the county were dealt with:—

This ideal resort situated among the maples and pines, with a beautiful outlook on Clear Lake, has already attracted many summer boarders, especially Americans.

It is within easy reach of Young's Point on the Douro shore of Clear Lake, with shady grounds and fine grove. It is well furnished and conducted in a first-class manner, with especial care to service and cuisine. Water is supplied to the house by a large windmill which pumps an abundant supply for the house as well as for the lavatories and wash rooms situated in the second storey. Mr. W. E. Brooks, the proprietor, is well known to tourists in these waters, from having so successfully catered to their pleasures for may years at Young's Point. Mrs. Brooks, the hostess, conducts her house with scrupulous cleanliness and care, and her praises are sung by everyone who sits down to her table.

The fishing is nearly always good in this part of Clear Lake. Last week, two of the guests, Mr. Conely and Mr. Kinsella, of Brockport, captured the largest maskinonge reported this season. It weighed 21 3-4 lbs and was caught in Fiddler's Bay, a short distance from this house.

The guests registered at the Carleton House since July 10th are:—

J. W. Larkin, J. E. Kinsella and J. E. Conley, Brockport, N.Y.

G. H. Slem and family, Rochester.

C. H. Park and wife, Honeoa Falls, N. Y.

John D. Barber, Kingston.

CHEMONG REGATTA ON AUGUST 22ND.

A More Successful Event Than has yet been Held Anticipated.

A meeting was held on Saturday night to make arrangements for the Chemong regatta. It was decided to hold it on Tuesday, August 22nd, instead of on the 19th.

A committee was appointed, consisting of Messrs. R. M. Dennistoun, W. H. Hill and A. A. Hollingshead, who are arranging to put up a splendid programme of races. It is expected that the regatta this year will surpass even that of last year.

It was decided to give a dance at night, and Mr. Fred Roy was appointed honorary secretary.

WHO CAN BEAT THIS FISH STORY?

A Remarkable Story Told of Capture of Five Bass in the Otonabee.

Up to date the prize for the best fish story of the season must be awarded to Mr. E. M. Best, but in this case he is not the "party of the first part." It appears, however, that a gentleman from the Fifth Ward, recently purchased a fishing outfit from Mr. Best, and the same day went down the river to engage in a piscatorial pursuit. He was lucky beyond his fondest hopes, however, and instead of catching one at a time, which is generally considered pretty good fishing, he hooked five nice bass at once. It happened, in this wise: It appears that these five fish had all been foolish once before, and had been hooked by an enterprising fisherman, who had, as he caught them, run a string through their gills, the common habit of fishermen, but after he had caught the five, and had a stick on each end of the string, the whole batch had got away on him, and regaining their native element, they swam away. For how long these five bass have been disporting themselves in the waters of the Otonabee, tied together, is not known; but a few days ago the quintette got into trouble again. The first fish on the string once more saw the tempting bait, and ark foolish fish will do, bit at it. With the result that he was caught, but unfortunately his folly meant not only death to himself, but also to his four mates, for they were all pulled in.

The surprise of Mr. Thos. Mead, for that is the name of the fisherman referred to, may be imagined, when he found that he had caught a whole colony of fish, instead of one, as he supposed. Fortunately his line held and he hauled his catch in, with the result that they will never again have the satisfaction of escaping after having dared the fisherman's bait.

TELEPHONE TALKS.

TO TELEPHONE USERS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC,—

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF CANADA solicits the favor of a series of five minutes Telephone Talks with its Patrons and the General Public. We shall make these brief, because we recognize that time is valuable, and that it would not be fair or reasonable to ask you to give up, even for the important matter we desire to present, more than five minutes from a busy day.

The subject we have to discuss is one of general interest to all classes; it is of great importance both to you and to us, and we believe that if you follow this series your time will be advantageously spent.

We take this means of discussing these matters, because of the confidence we have in the justice of our position and that it will surely command the approval of fair minded Patrons.

We believe it will be generally conceded that never before in the history of Canada, has the organization, management and transactions of any Company been subjected to such a searching investigation as has the Bell Telephone Company in the proceedings of the Select Committee on Telephone Systems. The Executive of this Company promptly and respectfully complied with the commands of this Committee in the frankest possible manner, withholding nothing, concealing nothing, evading nothing. The Company, in its ready acquiescence in all demands, has, in this respect, at least, gained the commendation of the Committee.

We believe that we are justified in claiming that the Company has come through the ordeal of this investigation creditably. Although the records of the Company have been searched from its organization twenty-four years ago, not a single fact has been adduced which reflects discreditably on the integrity or the justice of the management. On the contrary, many misstatements which have been persistently made by the Company's rivals and detractors have been refuted in the clearest possible manner under oath and should now be effectually set at rest. We propose in the course of this series to refer to some of the more important of these points, as we believe that our Patrons and the Public wish to know the facts as they have been brought out by this Committee.

We shall publish these "talks" regularly on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays in this space until the series is completed.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF CANADA.

BOWMANVILLE EASY FOR THE LOCAL NINE

That 14-1 Defeat Wiped Out---Douglas Pitched a Great Game, But Errors Robbed Him of a Shut Out---A Record-Breaking Crowd in Attendance---Score 6-2 League Leaders Taken Into Camp on Saturday---Peterborough Team Now Have Good Chance to Win Out---Played Winning Ball---Notes of a Great Win.

On Saturday a good bunch of supporters with the Bowmanville baseball team, fresh from their defeat of Bill Cinnamon's Red Birds, struck town and essayed to repeat the hitter dose they administered to the locals in their home town. But in the attempt they received a trouncing in the Riverside Park, that will put a further quietus on their championship aspirations.

The Bowmanville team has been making a good record for itself this season, and out of six games played in the championship series only one had been recorded against them, which gave them the league leadership by a good margin. Their easy win from the Lindsay team the day before had inspired them with a confidence which was disastrous, both to the team and a good few of the supporters who were accompanying them for the purpose of adding to their store of worldly wealth. Those of that mind were quickly accommodated on Saturday, and they left for home sadder and wiser men.

The game on Saturday was the crucial one for the locals. If they lost it their hopes to win the pennant were blasted, but if they won it, their chances were good—and they won. Bowmanville has played one more game than the locals, and won one more, but both have lost the same number. If both teams win their remaining games, they will be tied for the championship, and if they meet on neutral ground, there is a pretty strong suspicion hereabouts that the flag will float here.

To say that the result was a surprise to the visitors would be putting it mildly. It was a veritable avalanche of surprises. To think that after defeating them by 14—1 in Bowmanville they should turn around and be defeated here, was not considered a moment by the leaders; but such was the case, and it was done by playing better ball. The locals played the better ball, and deserved to win.

Douglas was master of the situation, and but for a couple of high throws would have had a shut out to his credit. Shayne threw high to first, and the runner reached third, scoring on a sacrifice, and Connor's high throw to the plate, allowed another run.

Outside of three errors the locals played almost perfect ball, and fanned on the shoots dished up by the two opposing pitchers, who were worked in relays. Osborne started in to pitch, but was hit hard, and Beith replaced him, pitching three innings, when Osborne again went into the box, after having had a rest, but it was of no avail. The locals were simply behind to win, and nothing could stop them.

This win has put fresh courage the local team, and from now on they should win all their games.

When the game was called, a record-breaking crowd was on hand to root for the Pirates. The grand stand was packed and the crowd extended from the stand around the fence to the gate. The fat gate receipts gladdened manager "Mac's" heart, and when his team won the game his cup of joy was filled.

The visitors went first to bat and commenced operations. Martyn, who knocks out home runs, was an easy out to Douglas to first. Wallace was likewise out on a ground ball first; but Cherry singled and Strowger was safe on Williams' grounder. Connors helped the visitors by throwing high to the plate, and Cherry trotted in with the first run. Osborne could not solve "Mull's" delivery and struck out.

In the sixth Wallace opened by lifting one to the hawkeye pile in left garden for two sacks. A batting rally was now predicted for the league leaders, but it didn't come. "Mull" made a pretty pick-up of Cherry's grounder, and the runner was cut by a block. Strowger got first transportation, and Wallace purloined third. But Osborne went out, Callahan to Graham, and Wilcox was out at first, Douglas making another pretty pick-up and saving a tally.

The leaders added their second and last run in the seventh. Williams fanned, Hooper hit to third, but Stayne threw high to first and the runner went to third. Beith fanned, and Hooper scored on Martyn's hit to right. "Mull" pulled himself up and Wallace failed to connect.

The Locals started right at the first and reaped off two runs. Graham led off with a hit to right garden and was safe on Williams' drop of the throw in. Sheridan flew out to Martyn, but Shea sent one to Strowger, who let it get through and "Dubbie" went to second. Douglas was the right man on the job. He slammed one to centre and went to the middle cushion on a wild throw in, Graham and Shea crossing the pan amid great excitement. Rattray sacrificed "Mull" to third, and with Stayne at the bat another run was looked for, but Higginbotham spoiled the chance by making a pretty catch of Stayne's fly.

Another rush was chalked up in the third. Sheridan hit to third and Williams dropped the throw over. Shea hit a puzzler to left and went to Wilcox on a poor throw to head off "Cherry" at third. It was up to "Mull," but he fanned; but "Rat" sent one through Cherry and Sheridan came in, Shea going to third. But the fun was over; Stayne fanning and Quinlan flying out.

Another one was chalked up in the fifth. Sheridan filed out. Shea was out on a close decision at first, but Douglas hit to right and Rattray followed with a single to the same place. "Dubbie" ran for Douglas, and by daring base-running reached third and scored on "Rat's" single. But Rattray was nipped trying to burglarize second.

The sixth saw a still further increase in the score. Stayne slammed one to centre which Hooper found hot and dropped it. Quinlan failed to connect and Stayne was pinched at second. Callaghan hit a slow one along the third base line and went to second on a wild throw to third. Jimmy made a pretty steal of third, and scored when Connors supplied a needful hit, which fell between Martyn, Cherry and Higginbotham, each one of whom waited for the other to take it.

With two down and Connors on third, Graham flew out to Cherry and the chance to score was lost.

The last tally came in the eighth. Rattray fanned, Cherry got first up over Stayne's grounder, Quinlan sacrificed and Callaghan hit a pretty one through the pitcher's box to centre, Stayne coming in. Connors fanned.

The Game by Innings.

First.—Martyn and Wallace were easy outs to first. Cherry singled and Strowger was safe on the grounder. Cherry scored on Connors' high throw to the plate, but Osborne relieved that suspense by fanning.

Graham hit to right and was safe on Williams' muff of the throw in. Sheridan flew out to Martyn. "Dubbie" sent one through Strowger and stretched it to second. "Mull" was the right man on the job. He fanned one out to centre, and went to second 6h a high throw, Graham and Shea trotting in. The chances for more tallies were bright, but Rattray failed to connect on his bunt and Stayne flew out to left. Score, 2—1.

Second.—Wilcox singled, Williams swung his bat and "Dubbie" smoked Higginbotham's grounder across an inch of time.

Quinlan went out on the short to first base, Callaghan out to pitcher, but Connors fanned and Graham grounded out. Score, 2—1.

Third.—Martyn and Wallace never saw first this time, "Mull" dropped Cherry's easy foul and thus lost an opportunity to shorten his work. Cherry singled, but Strowger fouled out to Chris.

Sheridan hit to third and was safe on Williams' drop of the throw. Shea hit a puzzler to left and stretched it to second on a poor throw in order to catch Sheridan. Rattray hit safely through chert and Sheridan scored. With Shea on third and one out chances were bright for more tallies, but Stayne fanned and Quinlan flew out to Wilcox. Score 3—1.

Fourth.—In the fourth the visitors failed to visit Centrin. Osborne was taken out of the box, but Beith was just as easy.

Callahan fanned, Martyn made a good stop of Connors liner and Wallace caught Graham's bunt. Score 3—1.

Fifth.—Hooper flew out to Sheridan; Beith fanned, and Stayne made a good catch of Martyn's fly.

Sheridan flew out to Cherry, and Shea to centre but Mull put the team on its feet by his fine fielding. Shea ran for Douglas and purloined second and third by daring base running. Rattray singled and "Dubbie" crossed the line. "Rat" was out stealing second. Score 4—1

Sixth.—Wallace opened by landing a slashing two bagger to the dust bin in left garden. "Mull" made a pretty pick up of Cherry's hit and caught him safely at first. With Wallace on third and one out he looked for runs for the visitors, but they didn't come. Strowger and Beith fanned and the next two did not bother in on Graham.

Hooper dropped Stayne's fly. Quinlan fanned and Stayne was nipped at second. Callaghan was safe on his little hit down third base line and went to second on a wild throw to first, and made a pretty steal of third. Connors hit one to left which fell between the short stop, third baseman and left fielder, Callaghan scoring. With Connors on third Graham flew out, and another chance to score was lost. Score 5—2.

Ninth.—Stayne fumbled Hooper's grounder. Beith hit to Shea, who caught Hooper nicely at second. Martyn was safe on first and the "Rat" let a gun where taken down from all the blacks. Shea made a pretty pick up of Wallace's grounder and caught him easily at first. Quinlan retired the side by making a fine catch of Cherry's fly. Final score, 6—2.

Diamond Glints.

Shea's daring base stealing was a feature.

Wallace was always smiling in Bowmanville, but the smile came off on Saturday.

Graham played a good game at first. His stick work was also good. "Mull" put 'em over in fine style, and fielded his position well.

Wallace's hit to the saw dust pile in the sixth was a hot one.

Wilcox is still in the game.

Connor's head work was below par.

Owing to their win in Lindsay, Friday, Bowmanville is still in the lead.

Bonevear was a satisfactory umpire, his decisions were never disputed.

High throws were responsible for both Bowmanville's tallies.

BASEBALL.

To-night at the Y. M. C. A. at 8 o'clock sharp, a meeting of the Guild League Executive will be held to arrange the dates of the final games.

GALT DEFEATED BERLIN

Berlin, July 24.—Galt defeated Berlin by a score of 3 to 1, in a Canadian League game on Saturday in an interesting and well contested game. Only one hit was made off "Tebbie" Flaherty. The score by innings:—

Batteries — Flaherty and Marshall; Schilling and Gaffney.

* * * *

The following is the probable standing in the Midland League. Owing to their win in Lindsay on Friday, Bowmanville is still in the lead.

	Won	Lost	Pc.
Bowmanville	5	2	.714
Peterborough	4	2	.666
Cobourg	3	3	.500
Port Hope	3	3	.500
Oshawa	2	3	.400
Lindsay	1	6	.200

The Cobourg Sentinel Star's report of the game here Saturday, is as follows: "Peterborough defeated Cobourg at the Agricultural Park in a Midland League game by the score of 7 to 3. The second innings was a disastrous one for Cobourg, as Peterborough scored 5 runs on several hits and errors. This was the only innings in which Downs was hit at all, while Douglas was hit rather hard, but received good support."

The statement that Downs was only hit in one innings and that "Douglas was hit rather hard," is refuted by the score which follows and which gives the hits—Cobourg 7, Peterborough 11.

LACROSSE.

There is to be an excursion to the city from Oshawa on Wednesday and the Young Peterboroughs have arranged for a lacrosse match with the Oshawa shamrocks.

Chamberlain's COLIC, CHOLERA AND Diarrhoea Remedy

It has been used in nine epidemics of dysentery with perfect success.

It can always be depended upon, even in the more severe attacks of cramp colic and cholera morbus.

It is equally successful for summer diarrhoea and cholera infantum in children, and is the means of saving the lives of many children each year.

When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take.

Every man of a family should keep this remedy in his home. Buy it now. It may save life.

WHAT WILL THE PREMIER DO?

Premier Balfour Is Not Likely to Resign At Once.

REDMOND ON HIS VICTORY

Government, He Says, Is Already Dead, But Balfour Will Not Likely Resign Because Convenience of Both Parties Require an Interregnum—Picturesque Language by the Leader of the Irish Party. John Redmond's Opinion.

London, July 24.—Nobody actually knows precisely what Premier Balfour will say to the House of Commons this afternoon with reference to the defeat that the Government sustained on Thursday night. It seems to be settled, however, that the Government will not resign, but whether it will make any announcement indicative of the dissolution of Parliament this fall, is not known. There is a strong party of Unionists who believe that the general election should take place this year.

This is the view held by the tariff reformers, including the Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, and several very influential members of the Cabinet, who are ardent adherents of Mr. Chamberlain's policy are urging the Premier to advise the House to-day that a dissolution will come before the end of October. If this was not a critical time in international politics there would be an almost universal assent on the part of the Unionists to the demand for a general election before New Year's.

The conviction that it would be a risky thing to effect a change in the Ministry until the Far Eastern trouble be fully settled and the Moroccan question well out of the way, possesses many men in the Ministerial party, and their influence is being exerted against any change in the control of the foreign affairs of Great Britain. Which side will win is a matter for guesswork. Nobody can safely predict it.

John Redmond's Opinion.

London, July 24.—John Redmond, M.P., chairman of the Irish Parliamentary party, is quoted as saying:

"It seems utterly impossible to me that Balfour can do other than resign in view of all the circumstances of his defeat. Perhaps for the convenience of both parties, neither of which desires a dissolution in August or September, an arrangement may be arrived at to defer actual resignation until October; but any way you look at it Balfour's Government is dead.

"The corpse may be kept above ground for a time, but decomposition has already set in. It has met the fate of every British Government in my memory in being defeated on the Irish question.

"Just consider the dramatic series of events. A few days ago Balfour introduced his redistribution scheme, the sole object of which was to satisfy the anti-Irish feeling of his followers by reducing the Irish representation in the House of Commons by 22 members.

"He intended to rush it through with a couple of days' discussion. Then he would have introduced his redistribution bill at the next session and kept his Government alive until the autumn of 1906. By raising a crucial point of order I got a decision from the Speaker compelling Balfour to afford ample time for debating the redistribution scheme at this session.

"This was a staggering blow and he was forced to drop his scheme. Following this up the Irish party reduced the Government majority on a question directly affecting the Minister of War to such a low figure that Balfour was panic-striken. He summoned a special meeting of his party members and appealed to them to support him by their votes or, he said, he must dissolve. They pledged themselves, but within two days we have defeated them outright.

"The Irish party naturally feels intensely gratified over this result. The other day Balfour proposed to his supporters to reduce our representation Now we have destroyed his Governments. What more crushing retort could we have delivered?"

Poles Off Streets.

Stratford is negotiating with the local companies concerned to remove all electric poles from the streets.

DANGER SIGNALS.

No engineer would be mad enough to run by the flag which signaled danger. It is different with the average man or woman. They attempt constantly to run by the danger signals of Nature and that attempt costs thousands of lives every year. When the appetite becomes irregular or entirely gives out, when sleep is troubled and broken, when there is a constant feeling of dullness and languor, Nature is hoisting the danger signal. The stomach and its allied organs are failing in their work and the body is losing the nutrition on which its strength depends.

Such a condition calls for a prompt use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, purifies and enriches the blood and builds up the body with sound, solid flesh.

"I have had so much benefit from your medicines am glad to say a few words that you may use for publication," writes Mrs. J. E. Downes, Crystal Lake, Conn. "I had been troubled with a complication of diseases for over two years, but kidneys and liver bothered me most. Some of my worst ailments were headache, frequent pains around heart and under right shoulder blade. My hands and feet were cold nearly all the time, and I had such chilliness between shoulders. Some days cared but little for food; I lost flesh; felt so tired and miserable it seemed I couldn't do any housework. Took medicine from my physician, but received no benefit. Bought a bottle of Golden Medical Discovery,' and after taking it I felt so much better we determined to give it a fair trial. Appetite soon improved and gradually the disorders disappeared until now I am well."

BOMB'S VICTIMS ARE 81.

Twenty-Four Killed and Fifty-Seven Injured in Attempt to Slay the Sultan of Turkey.

Constantinople, July 24.—Three commissions are enquiring into the attempt on the life of the Sultan Friday, but they have not yet been able to find the slightest clue either to the author or the origin of the outrage. The killed include Beha Bey, tutor to the Sultan's sons. There were 24 killed and 57 injured.

The majority of the victims were coachmen, and 27 hackney coaches were blown to pieces and 55 horses killed. Eye-witnesses describe the scene after the explosion as heartrending, with men and horses lying dying around.

A hole two yards wide was made in the ground by the explosion of the bomb.

FIFTY-SIX DEAD, OTHERS DYING.

Small Leak in Boiler Caused Gunboat Bennington Disaster.

Oyster Bay, July 24.—In response to the President's telegram, Acting Secretary of the Navy Charles H. Darling yesterday telegraphed an official report of the disaster to the United States gunboat Bennington to President Roosevelt. The telegram follows:

Caused by Small Leak.

The President: Your telegram received. Accident to the Bennington caused by small leak in the boiler, which was about to be repaired when the boiler burst and was forced astern through its bulkhead, coming in contact with a second boiler, which was also forced through its bulkhead, with boilers exploding with two close explosions. There was no noise; ship filled from stem to stern with scalding steam, boot and ashes; many men blown overboard, others jumped overboard for air, many of whom were drowned. Survivors comfortably quartered in army barracks; wounded are scattered about in three hospitals; those but slightly wounded in private residences.

56 Dead, Others Dying.

Latest reports from commanding officer gives forty-five dead identified, eleven dead unidentified, forty-eight wounded, a number of whom will die; seventeen missing; total number on board 190. Capt. Drake, with surgeons and nurses, sent from Mare Island, arrived yesterday. He has been given full authority to employ doctors and purchase such medical supplies as may be necessary. Everything is being done to care for the wounded. Arrangements have been made for the burial of the dead with full military honors in the military cemetery at Fort Rosecrans to-day. Commanding officer reports that he has requested Protestant and Roman Catholic clergy to read service over the dead.

The President has directed that everything possible be done to alleviate the suffering of the injured. A general inquiry into the causes of the disaster will be made.

The Burial of the Dead.

San Diego, Cal., July 24.—Forty-seven of the United States gunboat Bennington's dead were buried yesterday in a common grave in the little military cemetery on the crest of the promontory of Loma.

FRIENDS, NOT ENEMIES.

Detective Murray's Comment on the "White Capping" Affair.

Wheatley, July 24.—After a thorough sizing up of the situation here, Detective John Murray has decided that the men who ducked and whipped Thomas Dulmage were the latter's friends and not his enemies. Moreover their intentions were very good if their execution was hopelessly bad. Their intent was to straighten him up if such a thing were possible.

"He was not much hurt," said Detective Murray, "and while such a thing is against the law and must be followed up, there was no malice. As for the stories published by P. G. Gahan of Tilbury —— Well ——," And that ended the comment.

Mysterious Disappearance.

Toronto, July 24.—John Houser, a cousin of M. Ruchet, President of the Confederacy of Switzerland, aged 51, has not been seen since July 1 by those with whom he lived at Bartonville near, Hamilton. They are anxious about him and have applied to the police here, as he left for this city on that date. There are 20,000 francs, recently sent him from Switzerland, in the Hamilton branch of the Bank of Montreal for him and it is feared he may have been murdered.

Bad Farm Fire.

Tweed, July 24.—Fire destroyed two barns and a drive house, the property of Robert Caskey, a farmer, two miles from Tweed. It is thought the fire originated, from the heating of the pulleys on hay carriers. The barns contained about 40 tons of hay. Loss about $3,000, covered by insurance.

THE Y.M.C.A. CAMP NEARING CLOSE

Eighth Annual Outing Best in Its History.

Further Details of the Incidents of Visitors' Day—Grand Finale.

Y.M.C.A. Camp, Monday July 24.

Just to-day and to-morrow and the 8th Y.M.C.A. Camp will be over. Before you hear from your scribe again, the boys will have returned to their homes in the city, all, we believe, greatly benefitted by the two weeks' outing on the historic camp site.

Friday was indeed a red letter day and the leaders were greatly honored and encouraged in that 35 visitors were entertained in camp. Mr. J. E. Knapman and family came down late in the afternoon and spent a few hours with us.

In the programme of water sports all the events were keenly contested with following results:

Single paddle race—Ed. Wood.

Double scull—300 yards—G. Hawley, W. Fortye.

Double Scull—Jump out—A. Hall, M. Nichol.

Swimming—25 yards—F. Patterson.

Swimming—50 yards—Ed. Wood.

The visitors were given a royal send off as the Stony Lake pulled out.

Saturday morning was entirely spent in baseball and was without doubt the most exciting day in the league. It brought to the triumphant Dawes team their first defeat in the hands of No. 2 team, the score being 12—4.

Ed. Wood's team suffered defeat again, but they deserve more credit than any of the others, because they still cheerfully play on in spite of the fact that they have never won a single game.

There was a lively time when Capt. Kidd's treasure was found on the south edge of the point. Hartley and Nichol struck it at once and insisted like two gold diggers for possession of the long looked for prize. The prize will be divided between them.

On Saturday afternoon the Auburn employees' picnic landed here and had dinner on the point. Many of the boys had friends with the picnic and "Huddie" did the grand for the ladies. The 57th Regiment Band came up with them and Prof. Gliddon had several selections played in honour of our camp, an attention which was recognised by the hearty three cheers given by our boys as well as three more for the excursionists.

The night boat brought the following visitors: Messrs. Harding, Morrill, Downing, Vignet, Ray Best, Will Richardson and Ross Dobbin.

Mr. Harding's coming is always looked for as he never comes empty-handed. There was a rivalry among the sections as to which tent should entertain him.

The Harbor delegation always get a good welcome as they are graduates of former camps.

To show the indication of the changes time makes, Ross Dobbin and Secretary Williamson are the only ones who were at the first camp eight years ago.

On Saturday night, the camp "Royal Irish Minstrels" held forth and presented a unique entertainment. Messrs. Might, Dormer and Hodgson were the leading characters, the latter taking the part of "Dina." He was certainly a star.

Clever hits were made at the expense of many of the boys. The musical combinations were good. Watermelon and taffy were served between times. A huge bon fire blazed on the shore near the boats.

Sunday morning broke with very rough weather, wind and rain. At 10.30 the leader conducted the service in the large tent, when a very helpful and impressive address was given by Mr. Harding.

In the afternoon the boys took a walk to Burleigh. The entire day was spent quietly, each fellow gathering strength for the grand finale of the "best camp ever."

The Scribe.

YESTERDAY IN MARK STREET CHURCH

Rev. J. G. Lewis Preached Two Eloquent Sermons.

Two eloquent sermons were preached in Mark street church yesterday by Rev. J. G. Lewis, pastor. The text for the morning sermon was taken from Matthew 4; 19—"Follow Me and I will make you fishers of men." Mr. Lewis dealt with his subject in a very forceful manner, showing how it was possible for each Christian to become a successful soul winner, also the necessary qualifications, socially and spiritually. A trio was rendered in a very effective manner by Messrs. Miller, Hooper and Ashton.

The evening subject was on "The Three Wills." The pastor taking as the basis of his remarks, I Corinthians, 4; 19, 20 21. The sermon was an eloquent exposition on what was necessary to be a successful preacher of the Gospel. The choir rendered "Seeking the Lost" in a very impressive manner, Mr. Fred Ashton taking the solo, after the sermon, "Remember Me," which was greatly appreciated. The attendance was good at both services. It is the intention of the pastor during the summer months to make the services, brief, bright and helpful.—Com.

MANY SPENT THE WEEK-END AT THE LAKES

Charming Dance at Juniper Pavilion on Saturday Evening —Many Pleasant Social Functions in Prospect for This Week—Services Yesterday Were Largely Attended —Many Personal Items of Interest.

A charming dance was held at the Juniper Pavilion on Saturday night in conclusion of a week of social pleasure, which has been greatly enjoyed. The dance was the most largely attended which has been held so far this season, and the pleasure of the evening was greatly enhanced by the presence of male quartette, who rendered several vocal selections which were much appreciated, and charmingly diversified the evening's programme. The following kindly lent their services in supplying the music: Misses Given Hall, K. Roberts, Mollie Meldrum, A. McBain and Mr. Simpson. Among those present were Miss Florence Hamilton, Miss Marley Hall, Miss A. McBain, Miss Ruby Eakins, Miss M. Meldrum, Miss Olive Bradburn, Miss Annette Collins, Miss Evelyn DeWitt (Auburn, N. Y.), Miss J. Choate, Miss Katie Roberts (Toronto), Miss Maxwell, Miss Kitney, Miss A. Ferguson, Miss Emily Wade (Rochester), Misses Esther and Lisbeth Elms and Miss Ina Thomas (Hamilton), Miss Clowes, Miss Dean (Hamilton), Miss Jeffrey, Miss Mary Hastings (Toronto), Messrs. W. H. Claxton, H. T. Strickland (Toronto) Frank Smallpiece, Frank Bradburn Gerald Rockham, Fred. Collins, Hubert McBain, Barry Thompson, E. S. Clarry, Art. Simpson, Douglas Paton Bruce Paton, J. Walker, Bert O'Brien Hubert and Jim Eakins, Harold Armstrong, Walter Robinson, Hamilton Hall, W. Edwards, R. S. Donnel Harold Walker, Graham Ferguson Frank Clowes (Toronto), F. and W Mays (Toronto), Pierce Fields (Toronto).

During the evening a number of delightful selections were rendered by the vocal quartette, which was composed of the following Lindsay young men, who are spending a week at the Victoria House, McCracken's Landing: Douglas Paton, Bruce Paton, A. Simpson, J. Walker.

An event which is being looked forward to with great interest will take place at the Juniper Pavilion on Wednesday evening, when a minstrel show which is being arranged for by a number of young men upon the lake will be put on. The general interest which is being manifested in the affair presages a large attendance.

A pleasant event took place on Saturday afternoon, when a number of the guests of the Victoria House were the guests at a delightful shore party, at Camp Satisfaction Juniper Island, of Dr. Irwin and Mr. F. C. Fast. The visitors were Mrs. W. L. Fast, Mrs. John Fast, Mr. and Mrs. Bevington, Mr. and Mrs. F. W Sterling and Miss Miller.

Among the many who went up to Stony Lake on Saturday evening were Mrs. Kirby and two children who had just arrived from British Columbia. They are spending a holiday, the guests of Mr. A. Haskill.

COMPETENT JUDGES

Beauty Doctors Endorse Herpicide.

Women who make a beauty of beautifying other women come pretty near knowing what will bring the best results. Here are letters from two concerning Herpicide:

"I can recommend Newbro's 'Herpicide,' as it stopped my hair from falling out; and as a dressing, it has no superior.

"Signed Bertha A. Trullinger, "Complexion Specialist, "20 1-2 Morrison street, Portland, Oregon."

"After using one bottle of Herpicide, my hair has stopped falling out, and my scalp is entirely free from Dandruff.

"Signed, Grace Dodge, "Beauty Doctor.

PERSONAL MENTION

LACROSSE.

On Wednesday afternoon at 3.30 on the Riverside Park, the Young Peterboroughs will play a game with the Shamrocks of Oshawa. This should be a good game as this junior team of the city are showing surprising aptitude at the National game.

BOWLING-ON-THE-GREEN.

There were two games played on Saturday evening but the score was not handed in. The following rinks are expected to play this afternoon at four o'clock sharp:—

President		Vice President
D. R. Moore	vs.	Dr. Greer
G. H. Glover	vs.	G. McClurg
W. E. Talbot	vs.	W. Johnson

The balance of the rink will play at 7.30 o'clock.

BASEBALL.

Bowmanville have certainly got together this year a fast bunch. They have lots of ginger; they skipped arbund the field like a bunch of truant schoolboys and earned their salaries by hitting the ball squarely on the nose and doing good base-running. They are sturdy and well developed, and know the game to a nicety. The team that beats them will have to travel some. Individually they are good 'uns. Wallace, their Toronto catcher, is a jolly, good-natured fellow and plays a rattling good game. He encourages his nine all the time, and gets all that is in them. Williams, the lanky boy on 1st, was tiwsys sure. One player we like to see in the game is Wilcox, on 2nd; he has been playing the game for [illegible] years, is still in it, and covers his base well. Martyn, the short man on 3rd is a daisy; his pickups and throws to 1st were good. Cherry, a new man at short, is another. In the outfield, Strowger, another old-timer, carried off honours.

Crockery and Wall Paper News

When you want either of the above lines you'll be antagonistic to your own interest if you don't inspect our stock of all the best lines in the market. Our July sale values we've put upon our stock hasten to all economists, and the grand variety calls to all buyers, even to those who want exclusive designs, because our stock is so large is the reason for price reductions that are out of place with the quality of the goods. You ought to take care of these savings. Buying your crockery here is getting value for your money. Wall papers more than generous too.

The Best Things of the Sale are Coming Along

Douglas says great as the first week was in making the Mortgage Sale a success from a money saving standpoint, the second week has been greater. We've timed the third week to be greater still, and we're right into it, and this week's economy list like this, gives the whole event the ring of genuineness that we started out to make it. Just three reasons for the success of the big sale:—1st, the goods are what you want in Quality and Style. 2nd—They are here in abundance for you just when you want them, just when you need them. 3rd—The Prices are perhaps the most attractive that have ever been placed in anybody's sale anywhere or any time in the City of Peterboro. Though it's a pleasure to us to say so you that we've not gone into the bankrupt and byways of trade to pick indifferent and questionable quality lines, odds and ends of factory clean-ups to stock up our store, around which we could throw sensational talk—but, every pair of Shoes in behind now, seasonable goods, bought and imported for our own splendid trade—goods that no matter how we slash the prices, will help us build our reputation as the people's shoe store. Make one with us this week. Let the people come—as welcome to look as to buy.

200 Pairs Women's Chocolate Oxfords, Dorothy Dodd stamped—on sale $3.50—this week..... 1.50

CARELESS USE OF FIREARMS

Mr. Thos. Waller Got Charge of Shot in His Hand.

Another Accident Reported From Otonabee—Amputation of a Finger Necessary.

Yesterday a young Englishman named Thomas Waller, employed by Mr. Hugh Fife, third line of Otonabee the day being unfavourable for farming operations, was out gunning for marmot (hedgehogs), and while sitting with his left hand on the muzzle of the gun, the piece exploded, and the charge shattered the middle finger to such an extent that Dr. Harrison, who was called, found it necessary to remove it at the metacarpal point. Another example of the results of the careless use of firearms.

TROUBLE WITH THE CITY CLOCKS

A Local Merchant Missed a Train Because They Were Wrong.

Says Two City Clocks and the G. T. R. Time Were All Different.

A local merchant has a complaint to make in respect to the regulation of the time for the city, and because the proper attention, in his opinion, is not paid to the town clocks, he missed a train yesterday. He asserts that yesterday there was a difference of three minutes between the times of the two clocks, and there was a further difference of two minutes between the time as indicated by the clocks of the town, and that of the G.T.R. He started last night to catch the 5.36 G.T.R. train for Lindsay, and, according to the city clocks, he had plenty of time to catch the train, but because the times did not agree he missed the train by one-half of a minute, and the blame, he says, lies with the city clocks, and, although it is not probable that an action for damages will have to be defended by the city, he is of the opinion that some uniform time should be observed. A clock loses its usefulness if it does not give the correct time, and the question he asks, who is supposed to see that the city clocks are set at the standard time?

DEATH OF AN OLD PETERBOROUGH BOY

Took Place in Toronto on Saturday—Funeral Here.

On Saturday the death occurred of Wallace, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Warner, of Toronto. The deceased was 21 years of age and had been a resident of Peterborough some years ago. He leaves his father and mother, two sisters, Mrs. Wm. Edwards, of Lang, and Susie at home, and several relatives here, to mourn his loss.

The funeral took place yesterday on the arrival of the C. P. R. noon train, and proceeded to the Little Lake Cemetery.

A Run of Salmon.

Vancouver World reports the run of the sockeyes is on in earnest. From the traps and from the canneries along the Fraser the same story comes of the almost complete disappearance of spring salmon, and the advance of the chieftains of the salmon family. The boats are averaging a take of 30 on the main river. On the North Arm one boat took 160 at a trip. The highest take of one boat on the main river was 188. The traps, so far, have averaged from 454, lowest, to 3,853, highest.

FATAL EXPLOSION AT BANK HEAD MINE

Three Known to Be Killed and Many Others Reported Injured—An Unconfirmed Rumor That All Who Were in the Mine at the Time Were Killed—Fearful Havoc Was Wrought.

Special to the Examiner

Banff, N. W. T., July 25 — A fearful explosion of dynamite occurred in the Bank Hill Mine, three miles east of here yesterday afternoon, causing horrible havoc to the mine, and resulting in the death of Thos. Smiley, of Ireland, David Thomas, of Wales, and John Williams, of Wales, and injury to many others. The three men killed were literally blown to pieces. The cause of the explosion is not yet known, and at this writing the particulars of the tragedy cannot be ascertained. One report says that all who were at work in the mine were killed, but this cannot be confirmed.

NAME OF DEPOSITOR AT LAST DISCOVERED

A New Development in the Mysterious Case Reported of the Finding of Roll of Money in a Fireplace by Mrs. John Londry—Later Investigation Revealed the Name of the Person Who Put the Money There and the Amount, Which is Large—Some Startling Developments Are Promised.

A new development in the extraordinary case reported exclusively in the Examiner some weeks ago, and which has created considerable interest in town since, has been reached.

The case is that of the discovery of money hid in the fireplace, by Mrs. John Londry, wife of the watchman of the Brock street crossing of the G.T.R., after she had been visited a number of times, according to her story, by a woman, apparently from the spirit world.

It appears that this figure has appeared once more, to Mrs. Londry, and on this occasion that lady was so badly frightened that she fell in a faint, and was in this condition when a milkman calling at the house found her, and he had to call in some of the neighbour women to revive her.

Since that time they have opened the fireplace again, and near where the money was found, a piece of paper was discovered, with the name of the man who put the money there, written on it, and also the amount of the money.

It may be stated that the amount was a large one, but the exact figures will not be published yet, nor the name of the person, who, according to Mr. Londry, placed the money in the place in which it was found by Mrs. Londry, and which mysteriously disappeared shortly afterwards.

This second discovery was made by Mrs. Londry and another lady, who was in the house at the time, and who assisted in removing the covering from the fireplace.

In the meantime Mr. Londry is prosecuting an investigation to find out when the person, whose name was written on the paper, lived in the house, and if there are any relatives still alive. He is very reticent about the matter at present, but promises that in the not distant future some announcement will be made which will startle the people.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION MET IN POLICE COURT

Members of the Association Were Outdone by a Plausible Confidence Man—Suspicion Was Aroused and Arrest Followed—A Three Months' Sentence Was Meted Out —Those Who Were Taken In.

Yesterday afternoon the Police Station was invaded by several members of the Ministerial Association, who whilst not of one faith were united by a bond of common sympathy.

The reverend gentlemen had been visited by a fresh looking young man with a hard luck story of how he had secured a position as book-keeper with the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Company, but his trunk was in Montreal and he had not the wherewithal to pay the express bill.

The young fellow represented himself as a hard working member of a sister church of the denomination to which the minister, on whom he called, belonged to. He had letters of recommendation from clergymen in other places which recommended the young man to the church in the town where he should find a position.

On Sunday afternoon he visited the Rector of St. John's, and as he had no money he requested Mr. Davidson to loan him a Mite to pay the express bill on his trunk which had been sent to Montreal by mistake.

He produced letters of identification which he said had been given him by a clergyman in another city. As the young man was very plausible, Mr. Davidson saw no reason why he should not advance the money which he gladly did as he was always ready to dispense charity to needy people.

The reverend gentlemen then accompanied his visitor to an hotel and succeeded in getting rooms for him.

The confidence man also paid a visit to the leader of the Black at Park Street and told his little tale to sympathetic ears. He claimed to have gotten a situation as book-keeper at Wm. Hamilton's office, and that the firm had advanced him a cheque on his boarding house. He said he had not enough money to pay the bill and left his trunk in Montreal, but had intimated that a little of the needful would be gratefully received. Rev. Mr. Brace responded to the appeal with a donation of literature relating to the Park street Church, but fortunately for himself he had no money upon his person or he would probably have been numbered among victims.

A similar tale of woe was breathed into the ears of other preachers, and sometimes with success.

Rev. Mr. Scott, of the Murray street church, was suspicious, and got into telephone communication with his brethren, and when the fake was found out a hasty informal meeting was called, and the ministers proceeded in a body to the police station to lay an information.

A description of the man was given and P. C. Adams and McGinty proceeded to the City Hotel, where they found their man, and walked him off to the police station.

The victims had an earnest talk with their undoer, and put in a plea for mercy.

The Ministerial Association had a session extraordinary at the police court to hear what was to be done. The prisoner gave his name as Thos. Mitchell, of Middlesex, England, and said he had come to Canada about two years ago, and has been around from one place to another since.

The Magistrate heard the evidence and thought that the young fellow should be given a chance to mend his ways, or he would keep on in his present course and be beyond redemption of all the ministers in the realm. A sentence of three months with hard labour in the county jail was imposed.

Amongst the clergymen "bitten," were Rev. Mr. Davidson, for $2.25 in small change; Mr. Scott, of a $2 bill; Mr. Major of $1.40; and Mr. Jolliffe, of $1. Mr. Potter gave an expletive order but as it had not been cashed he is safe. Dr. Torrance was called upon, and was given a chance to increase the membership of his church, but the doctor was in a hurry, and there was nothing doing.

Nearly all the money was found on the young man and was returned to the owners.

Mr. A. P. Peasgood appeared on behalf of the prisoner, having been engaged by the Ministerial Association to defend him, if he should decide to enter a defence.

Trying to Capture Duck.

Joseph Louden, only son of James Louden, of Ewing, was drowned while trying to capture a young duck in a small lake on the place of Col. Moore, near Edmonton. The boy could swim very well, but it is supposed that he became confused when he realized how far from shore he was. He cried for help, and a young man rushed from the house to help him, but before he could get to the swimmer the latter went down.

Lighting Plant Pays.

Eastbourne, Eng., has earned a profit of $12,000 on its electric plant for the past financial year, making provision for all charges including sinking fund and interest on purchase of the undertaking from the original company. The rates are 12 cents per unit for private lighting five cents per unit for heating and five cents per unit for motors for the first 500 units per quarter with allowances for larger supplies. Reductions are expected shortly, it having won meeting.

QUIET WEDDING AT CATHEDRAL

Nuptials of Miss Emma Briou and Mr. John Phouinard.

A quiet though pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Peter's cathedral this morning at eight o'clock, when Miss Emma Briou, daughter of Mr. Thomas Briou, of town, was united in marriage to Mr. John Phouinard.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McColl, in the presence of a number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The bridesmaid was Miss Matilda Briou, sister of the bride, while the groom was assisted by his brother, Mr. Alphonse Phouinard.

At the conclusion of the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the residence of the bride's parents. A large number of beautiful gifts received, testify to the esteem in which the contracting parties are held by a large circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Phouinard left today for a trip to St. Anne's, Quebec,

APPOINTMENT OF MR. KELLIHER.

Chief Engineer of the Grand Trunk Pacific An Irishman.

Montreal, July 25.—Mr. B. B. Kelliher has been appointed chief engineer of the Grand Trunk Pacific, with headquarters at Montreal.

Mr. Kelliher has been with the Grand Trunk Pacific since 1904 as division engineer at Winnipeg, which office he held until his recent appointment to the chief engineership. He is an Irishman, but from 1886 to 1901 had wide railway experience in the States. He, however, never took out naturalisation papers or dropped his British allegiance.

Mrs. Kyle Committed For Trial.

Ingersoll, July 25.—Mrs. Kyle was yesterday afternoon given her preliminary hearing before Police Magistrate Morrison, and was committed for trial at the fall Assises for the shooting of David McGee. No defence was entered, the only witnesses being Dr. Tait, Raymond Hutt, who loaned the revolver, and Miss Whitman, who was at the Kyle homestead on the morning of the shooting.

Hurricane Destroys Island.

Sydney, N.S.W., July 25.—News has been received here that a hurricane devastated the Marshall Islands June 30.

The Marshall Islands form a large archipelago of small islands of coral formation northeast of the Ladrone Islands, Polynesia.

Flaxseed Market Cornered.

Buffalo, July 25.—John D. Rockefellow, through the American Linseed Oil Co., has cornered the flaxseed market and has compelled the three big independent mills here to close. The price of linseed oil will be advanced 40 cents a gallon. This advance will seriously affect many industries.

Youth Arrested For Theft.

Listowel, July 25.—A young man about 17 years of age, named Ben Merrick, was arrested here yesterday afternoon by Chief Hardwick for theft in Palmerston, and handed over to Chief Darroch of Palmerston, who issued the warrant for his arrest.

Toadstools Kill Four.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 25.—Toadstools mixed with mushrooms and eaten at a birthday party has caused the death of four of the six members of the family of Joseph Franzor, a farmer who resided near Landisville, N.S.

RUSSIAN CZAR MEETS KAISER

Role of Peacemaker Attempted by German Emperor---Official Statement Issued---Conferring Monarchs Remained With Each Other Till Sma' Hours Ayont the Torai---No Details of the Conference, Which was Secret, Given Out--Komura on Chances.

St. Petersburg, July 25.—The picturesque meeting of the German and Russian Emperors in the Finland gulf, according to private advices, ended yesterday afternoon with a gala luncheon on board the German Imperial yacht Hohensollern, after which Emperor William's yacht steamed seaward, escorted for a short distance by the Russian Imperial yacht Polar Star. Then Imperial salutes were exchanged, and the Polar Star put about and returned to Peterhof, where she arrived last night. A flotilla of torpedo boats, torpedo boat destroyers and small cruisers hovered about the Imperial yacht from the time they met until they parted.

Details of Meeting Secret.

Beyond the additional fact that Emperor William paid a visit to the Polar Star Sunday night, and that subsequently Emperor Nicholas went on board the Hohensollern and remained until long after midnight in the German Emperor's cabin no further details of the meeting are yet available.

The meeting of the two monarchs naturally created intense interest in diplomatic circles. In some quarters there is a disposition to attach the deepest political significance to it, and all sorts of theories are advanced. But they are largely speculation.

Strengthens Peace.

It is officially announced that the visit was only a visit of courtesy, made by Emperor William to his brother monarch before leaving the Gulf of Bothnia, but under the circumstances the diplomats cannot believe that such a meeting was devoid of meaning to the world's political chess board.

No matter what the ultimate result may be, however, all the diplomats agree that its first effect would make for peace, as Emperor William is known to be strongly of the opinion that Emperor Nicholas should conclude peace and get his house in order.

In another quarter it was suggested that the German Emperor may have asked Emperor Nicholas to support a German prince for the throne of Norway, King Oscar having announced that he would not permit a member of the House of Bernadotte to assume the sceptre, and the only other candidate being Prince Charles of Denmark, who is married to an English princess.

Official Statement.

"At 10 o'clock in the evening of July 23, the German Imperial yacht Hohensollern dropped anchor near the anchorage of the Russian Imperial yacht Polar Star. Emperor William, accompanied by Prince Albert of Schleswig-Holstein, and his suite, was rowed to the Polar Star. Emperor William was received at the head of the ladder by Emperor Nicholas and the Grand Duke Michael, and cordial greetings were exchanged. The German Emperor reviewed the guard of honor and the yacht's crew, and the two suites were presented, after which Their Majesties retired to the salon.

"At 11 o'clock at night, Emperor Nicholas and Grand Duke Michael accompanied Emperor William to the Hohensollern, where they remained until 1.30 o'clock in the morning."

New Proposal More Liberal.

The proposals of the Government for a national assembly, as amended by the Committee of Ministers, and now submitted for the Emperor's consideration, differ essentially from the original scheme outlined by the commission, headed by M. Bouligine, Minister of the Interior. They are more liberal, and are free from vexatious complexities, placing the assembly on a more independent footing, and empowering its president to report direct to the Emperor, while the assembly may select its own officers, including its president, and discuss any matters of a legislative character, with greater freedom. Further, the commission of Ministers recommends that the assembly be authorized to examine all appointments to the different Ministeries, and to question Ministers on affairs within its jurisdiction.

Japan Desires Peace.

Chicago, July 25.—Baron Komura arrived here yesterday. He authorized this statement:

"At New York we shall meet Minister Takahira, whom we expect to have word from President Roosevelt, inviting us to call either at Oyster Bay or Washington. We desire peace, yet are not over anxious, nor are we over sanguine that the negotiations will be productive. A Japanese protectorate over Korea will open the way for Japanese immigration there and divert it from this country."

The Pennsylvania special took Baron Komura and party eastward.

Take Loans Instead of Indemnity.

Berlin, July 25.—The Lokal Anseiger yesterday says: "Russia may propose to Japan to take over all her foreign war loans in lieu of indemnity. M. Witte's interviews in Paris are connected with such a plan, and the visit of Herr Ernst Van Mendelssohn, head of Russia's principal bankers in Berlin, to Chancellor Von Buelow, is supposed to be on the same basis."

The Roughs Rule Town.

St. Petersburg, July 25.—Telegrams from Nishni, Novgorod, say that the town was for five hours Sunday in the hands of thousands of roughs who murderously attacked every respectable person they met in the streets. Numbers of persons were killed or injured, the rioters breaking into houses in pursuit of their victims.

'QUAKE OF 3 HRS. 18 MINS.

Most Violent Disturbance In Central Asia Known in Years.

Vienna, July 25.—One of the most violent earthquakes ever known was indicated by the seismographs of the hydrographic instruments at Laibach and Pola Sunday.

Between 3.55 and 4.17 a. m. the instruments showed extraordinary movements in waves, signifying an earthquake catastrophe at a distance of 6,000 kilometres (about 3,700 miles).

At 7 a. m. the instruments were still vibrating.

The distance indicated by the seismographs would locate the earthquake in Central Asia (the most probable point) or in mid-Atlantic.

Recorded in Toronto.

Toronto, July 25.—The earthquake reported yesterday was recorded on the seismograph at the Meteorological office as one of the greatest disturbances on record. The instrument shows it began suddenly at 10.12 p. m. Sunday night, which would correspond with 3.10 a. m. yesterday, Greenwich time. The quake lasted 3 hours and 18 minutes. It attained its greatest force between 10.25 and 11.15 p. m. The maximum movement was recorded at 10.45 p. m., and the swing of the boom amounted to 30 milometers.

GIRL'S LETTER TO MOTHER.

"Think of Me as Dead," as She Went Off With a Married Man.

St. Thomas, July 25.—Mrs. Mowers, who lives at Port Bruce with her 14-year-old daughter, Florence, and who attends the markets here regularly, came to the city on Saturday morning as usual and on her return home found her daughter missing and a letter from her on the table reading:

"Good-bye, mother. Think of me as one dead. Don't follow us, as it is no use. We are going to the States to get married."

The girl, Mrs. Mowers reported to the police Sunday, ran away with a man named Walter Weir, 35 years of age, who has been around Port Bruce and visited at the Mowers' home for some time. He was a married man, but Mrs. Mowers says he claims to have secured a divorce from his wife, who is at present living at Port Stanley.

The girl was seen in the city at 6 o'clock on Saturday night, and the pair are supposed to have gone to Detroit.

Spanish and French Clash.

New York, July 25.—The Spanish residents made a demonstration Sunday against France in protest, cables a Herald correspondent at Tangier, Morocco, against the sanitary measures ordered by French medical officers in inspection of the ships and port. A serious dispute between the French and Spanish legations is expected over the affair.

Trampled to Death.

Medicine Hat, July 25.—Alex Dutchman, while attempting to drive range cattle from his crops a week ago Sunday, was trampled to death, and the body was not discovered for days, when it was so badly decomposed that it was impossible to ship it to his former home in Oregon.

PREMIER BALFOUR HAD THE VOTES

But Did Not Need Them, as a Division Was Not Called—Says He Will Not Resign—Premier Takes the Position That No Ministry Should Resign Because of Such a Vote as Was Given on Thursday Last—The British General Election Not in Sight Yet—Strong Opposition.

London, July 25.—The Government has no intention of resigning in consequence of Thursday's adverse vote. This was the gist of Premier Balfour's anticipated statement in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon. Although it had been generally recognized that such would be the decision of the Premier there was feverish eagerness on all sides to hear the exact terms of his statement. The House was literally packed. Every gallery available to the peers and the public was crowded and there had not been such an attendance of members during the life of the present Parliament.

Mr. Balfour, who was heartily cheered by his supporters on rising, somewhat tried the patience of his hearers by a long disquisition on how former administrations had ignored defeats similar to that of Thursday. He declared that such incidents had never been regarded as ground for resignation or dissolution and announced that the Government did not propose either to resign or dissolve Parliament because of Thursday's occurrences.

Would Be a Grave Evil.

The Premier considered that it would be a grave evil if the tenure of Ministers was made dependent on such votes as that of Thursday. He hoped the practice would never prevail of allowing a Government united in itself and possessing the confidence of the majority of the House to abandon its post merely in consequence of such a vote.

Mr. Balfour sat down without referring to the remaining business of the session, and Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Liberal leader, immediately asked for an opportunity to discuss the Premier's statement. The Opposition, he said, did not propose to proceed with Sir Edward Grey's proposed vote of censure, which obviously was superseded by the occurrence of Thursday. They wanted to discuss the conduct of the Government regarding the events of last week.

John Redmond, the leader of the Irish Nationalists, took a similar line, and the heated tone of both leaders indicated that the Government will have to face the most determined opposition during the balance of the session. Ultimately by arrangement with Mr. Balfour, the chief Government whip, Sir Alexander Acland Hood, formerly moved the adjournment, and Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman opened the debate with a sharp attack on the Government.

No Division.

Mr. Redmond followed, and in a few fervid phrases characterized the Premier's action as contemptible. The Opposition, he declared, ought to band together and make the continued life of this Government impossible. Speaking for the Nationalists, Mr. Redmond promised the Government that they would neither ask nor give quarter, but would fight day and night so as to make short work of "this Government of shreds and patches."

The Opposition for tactical reasons deciding to abstain from a division, the debate in the House of Commons was unexpectedly ended and the Government motion for an adjournment was carried without a division.

It is estimated that had a division taken place the Government would have had a majority of from 90 to 100. Several Conservatives made their first appearance in the House this year.

INTERESTING LETTER

WRITTEN BY A NOTABLE WOMAN

Mrs. Sarah Kellogg of Denver, Color Bearer of the Woman's Relief Corps, Sends Thanks to Mrs. Pinkham.

Mrs. Sarah Kellogg

The following letter was written by Mrs. Kellogg, of 1636 Lincoln Ave., Denver, Colo., to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"For five years I was troubled with a tumor, which kept growing, causing me intense agony and great mental depression. I was unable to attend to my house work, and life became a burden to me. I was confined for days to my bed, lost my appetite, my courage and all hope.

"I could not bear to think of an operation, and in my distress I tried every remedy which I thought would be of any use to me, and reading of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to sick women decided to give it a trial. I felt so discouraged that I had little hope of recovery, and when I began to feel better, after the second week, thought it only meant temporary relief; but to my great surprise I found that I kept gaining, while the tumor lessened in size.

"The Compound continued to build up my general health and the tumor seemed to be absorbed, until, in seven months, the tumor was entirely gone and I a well woman. I am so thankful for my recovery that I ask you to publish my letter in newspapers, so other women may know of the wonderful curative powers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

When women are troubled with irregular or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhœa, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such trouble.

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Health is too valuable to risk in experiments with unknown and untried medicines or methods of treatment. Remember that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing women, and don't allow any druggist to sell you anything else in its place.

BRITAIN SUPPLANTS GERMANY.

Trade Figures With Canada and What is Proved.

London, July 25.—The Financial News correspondent quotes certain figures from the latest report of German statistical trade to show how Great Britain's imports to Canada have increased at the expense of German trade. Since the new customs regulations came into force the value of the imports fell from $12,300,000 in 1903 to $8,200,000 in 1904, whilst for the same time British imports rose from $58,900,000 to $61,800,000. The chief German falling off is in iron and foodstuffs, whilst woollens and ready-made clothing somewhat increased, and sugar has been annihilated.

CHAIRMAN WILL BE MR. PARENT.

Changes on the Transcontinental Railway Commission.

Ottawa, July 25.—Premier Parent of Quebec will be here to-day, when it is expected that arrangements will be made to appoint him Chairman of the Transcontinental Railway Commission, in the place of the late Mr. F. B. Wade.

Mr. Brunet, the Quebec commissioner, will retire in favor of Mr. Parent.

Mr. C. F. McIsaac, M.P., for Antigonish, has been mentioned as the representative of the Maritime Provinces on the commission.

Investigating the Fisheries.

Ottawa, July 25.—The Government has appointed a commission to investigate the Georgian Bay fisheries. It will comprise Prof. Prince, chairman; John Birnie, Collingwood, and James Noble, Little Current.

If you are having any trouble with your CLOSET or BATHROOM CONVENIENCES, come round and have a talk with us.

A gentleman, attracted by the range of Sanitary Closets and excellent values we are offering, invested in a new one, although he already had one that was working not badly.

The way he looked over the Closets we arranged before him for inspection showed he had been sifting the matter, and knew how to prove and disprove the claims of dealers.

The saving of health and expensive plumbing repairs, warranted the investment, he said.

LINDSAY CHEESE SOLD PRETTY HIGH

The High Water Mark of the Season was Reached.

Whole Board Sold at 10c. Yesterday—Mr. Fitzgerald Got His Choice.

(Lindsay Post.)

The Victoria County Cheese Board met this morning. Buyers Flavelle, Fitzgerald, and Brown were on hand and the salesmen had little trouble in getting a good price—one which beat Peterborough by a "mile and a half," as the saying goes. All the factories sold at 10c.

The following factories boarded the number of cheese set opposite:—

Star	115
Cameron	88
Dunsford	164
Mariposa	160
Cambray	80
Omemee	160
North Verulam	120
North Ops	75
Pine Grove	60
Bealboro	140
Bobcaygeon	240
Maple Leaf	185
Palestine	178
Red Rock	100
North Harvey	75

Mr. Fitzgerald opened the bidding at 9 5-8. Mr. Brown went 1-16 better, but Mr. Fitzgerald raised to 9 3-4, and when Flavelle raised to 9 13-16 Fitzgerald jumped to 9 7-8.

Mr. Flavelle remarked that that beat Peterborough, but raised the bid to 9 15-16. Mr. Fitzgerald evidently wanted cheese and made the hearts of the salesmen glad by raising to the 10c. notch. He waited for somebody to better it, but no go, whereupon he remarked that the Board had better adjourn till afternoon.

Mr. Fitzgerald then called Star, Dunsford, Mariposa, Cambray, North Ops, Maple Leaf, Pine Grove and offered 1-16 less for further selections, but Messrs. Flavelle and Brown both offered 10c., and Mr. Flavelle called Bobcaygeon, North Harvey, Red Rock, Palestine and North Verulam, and 1-16 less for further selections. Mr. Brown called Omemee and Cameron at 10c., and all the Board was sold.

When Women Use
DIAMOND DYES.

Each year thousands of letters come in from all parts of this vast Dominion telling of victories and successes with Diamond Dyes in the home.

The marvellous and immense sales of Diamond Dyes in Canada have induced venturers and speculators (who know nothing about the chemistry of colours) to go into the putting up of package dyes. Such dyes are adulterated and crude: the colours are muddy and blotchy, bringing ruin to the materials you try to dye.

Diamond Dyes, the choice of wise women, are the kind used when bright, full, fast and brilliant colours are wanted. No disappointment possible when you use Diamond Dyes.

Diamond Dyes are sold by all leading druggists and dealers. Refuse to accept substitutes when you ask for Diamond Dyes.

To Save a Cat.

Captain Lundy, the lighthousekeeper at the Beach, Hamilton, has a high bred Maltese kitten. The other day Kitty started off for a ramble and the captain went to look for it, and found it on the south Lake pier. Kitty on seeing him scamped away, and gave the captain a race, and ended by tumbling over into the water. The little pet was unable to save itself and was sinking, when off went his coat and boots and in he went. Kitty was saved.

Diarrhoea

MAY attack you at any time of the year, but it is more prevalent during the summer months. When this trouble attacks you, it does not pay you to experiment with untried remedies, but always procure one that has stood the test of time. Such a one is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, It has been on the market for 60 years and is considered by thousands of people as the best cure for all bowel complaints.

Mrs. Wilfrid Tomlinson, Victoria Harbor, Ont., writes: "I always keep Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in the house, knowing from past experience that it is a safe and efficient remedy in diarrhoea and kindred bowel complaints."

ANNUAL HARVEST FOR BLUEBERRIES

Keene People Started Out This Morning For Burleigh Falls.

Will be Joined at Warsaw by Another Deputation—An Annual Trip.

Special to the Examiner.

Keene, July 25.—This morning at six o'clock a.m., a large party set out for the huckleberry grounds beyond Burleigh Falls in the north-east part of Harvey township. The party consisted of fourteen persons—Messrs. Wm. Drummond, John Lang, ex-M. P.; Jas. Lang, Jas. Weir, Jas. Lang, Jr.; Peter Drummond, Miss Agnes Campbell, Miss Mary Drummond, Miss Sarah Millar and Miss Lelia Shearer. It will take four one-team vehicles to convey the members of the party and their equipage, consisting of tents, bedding, provender, etc. The journey will be directly north to Young's Point, thence to Burleigh Falls and thence by Government road to the huckleberry hunting grounds. By the way, at Burleigh Falls a similar party from Warsaw, headed by Mr. Alex. Watts, will join the Keene detachment and the united forces will affiliate during the campaign, which will last from beginning to return, about a week—one day to prepare, one day to go and one to return, two days to stay and two days to relate the adventures of the expedition and settle down to the routine of daily life.

This outing is an annual affair and is always fruitful, both in the way of adventure, social enjoyment and—huckleberries.

FOUND RICHES; DIED IN A MINE

Prospected in Every State in the West.

End of Mose Manuel, Who Discovered the Greatest Gold Producing Mine in the World.

Lead, S. D., July 21.—Mose Manuel who discovered the Homestake mine the greatest gold producer in the world, met his death in his mine, the Minnesota, in Montana, a few days ago. His premature taking off has waked up the old timers and prospectors throughout the west, and the air is rife with stories of Mose Manuel, his shrewdness, generosity, kindness and his luck.

When standing upon the site now occupied by the open cut of the great Homestake mine, Mose picked up a piece of gold-sprinkled quartz and said to his partner, "Think, this is sure a homestake," he had no idea of the immense work he (was starting. The Manuel boys, Fred and Mose, with their partner, Hank Harvey, had been prospecting in the hills for several months before they made their great find. From the first it was a wonder, because of the amount of remarkable rich ore found upon the top of the ground. Now the Homestake is famous as having worked with a profit the largest body of low gold ore in the world.

Shared His Good Luck.

But specimens too rich in the mine at first. Many a poor prospector was made thankful for the find. No man ever came to Manuel that dreary winter of '76-77 with a hard luck story that Manuel did not take him up to the Homestake and say:

"Here is the best place. Just take out all the rocks you want. It pans good, and it will get you on your feet again."

They say that no less than $400 worth of groceries were paid for that winter out of the gold from this claim from rock given away by its owners.

The Manuel boys built the first arastar mill in the hills, and in this crude way took out, it is estimated, $90,000 before the property was sold to Senator Hearst for $75,000.

Restless and Generous.

Mose Manuel, like all prospectors, was restless, and, having sold the the Homestake and a few other claims, he must be up and away. Almost every stage in the west knew that at one time or another; sometimes as a miner, sometimes as capitalist, sometimes as trapper, but always as the best, most generous of good fellows. He was a famous shot both with rifle and shotgun, and had experience in hunting every kind of game known in the west. He was left handed, but had learned to use both hands, and could shoot with one as well as the other. There is no exciting experience known to pioneer hunters and miners that Mose Manuel with perfect truthfulness could not claim as his own. His early recollections were of Indians, wild with fire water, of frightened but determined settlers making a stand against the reds on the warpath, or sleeping out in the tall grass at night, and of learning to throw up his rifle and shoot at a moment's notice.

Pioneers of the Hills.

He was one of the earliest settlers in the Black Hills country, coming here in the historic spring of '76. He lived long enough to see the place where he made his famous discovery grow from a half-fed, scattered camp to a thriving city of 10,000 people, the second city in size and importance in its state. One thing that showed the largeness of the man was the fact that though he had sold the Homestake for only $70,000, and it had since produced millions, he never regretted the sale. He thought had done well and he was more than willing that someone else should do likewise.

MANY GUESTS AT JUBILEE POINT

This Popular Resort is Busy This Season.

Some of Those Who are Registered There—A Popular Place to Spend the Week-End.

The Jubilee Point Hotel this season is proving to be even more popular than it has been in the past, and the number of guests who have been there during the few weeks of the summer season already, and those booked to come during the remainder of the season, give evidence of the fact that the results of the season will be most satisfactory.

A number of good catches of the finny tribe have been reported by those who are staying at the park, and those who have not been so fortunate have had plenty of sport trying to catch them.

The Point Hotel is proving a very popular resort to spend the week-end, and Peterborough persons in increasing numbers are getting into the habit of going down on Saturday night to spend Sunday. Among those who were there last Sunday were: Mr. J. W. Brightman, Peterborough; Mrs. J. W. Brightman and Miss W. Brightman, Peterborough; Miss Ethel Nicol, Peterborough; Miss Polly Ames, Peterborough, Mrs. W. Talbott, Peterborough; Mr. A. Duncan, Peterborough; Miss D. Duncan, Peterborough; Mr. Herb. Snowdon, Peterborough; Mr. R. H. Bradburn, Peterborough; Mr. H. Mather, Montreal; Mr. W. Mellville, Toronto.

Those who are registered at the hotel and others spending their vacation there are Miss Sadie Free, Peterboro; Miss Emma Scott, Lindsay; Miss Florence Batcher, Peterborough; Mr. A. B. Cranfield, Mr. A. B. Tovey.

Miss Bessie Weir and Miss May Callaghan, of this city, are spending two weeks at the Point.

Miss L. Wade, of Auburn, N. Y., is registered at the Point Hotel, and will remain there for a month.

NO. 8 PRIVATES HAD AN OUTING

Members of No. 2 Section Went Down the River.

On Saturday afternoon the Privates of No. 2 section of No. 8 company, enjoyed a pleasant outing down the Otonabee River, the guests of Sergt. Dodds, and Corp. Brandt, who are in charge of that section. Those who partook of their hospitality were, Pts. Staunton, Hullied, Dormer, Wyatt, Little, Harris, aPtterson and Hodgson.

They took a trip down the river, and reamined until Monday morning. That they enjoyed the outing goes without saying.

Stomach and Liver Troubles.

Mr. Alex. M. Finn, Inkerman, B.B., writes: "I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for derangements of the kidneys and liver and stomach troubles, and can certify that they did me a good deal of good. I can heartily recommend them to anyone suffering as I did."

LANG A MUCH WANTED MAN

Port Hope Forger Believed to be a "Bad 'Un."

Edward Lang, who was sent to the Central Prison from Port Hope for raising money on a bad cheque, is wanted in nearly every city and town in Ontario on similar charges. The Toronto police say his name is Fred N. Wiley and there is a warrant for him in Toronto, the particulars of which could not be ascertained this morning. He is also wanted in St. Catharines, London, Chatham, Galt and Kingston.

When he arrives at the Central Prison he will be taken to the jail, and tried in the Police Court.

Struck by Train,

Nicholas Curran, Wabash engineer, was severely injured at Thamesville, narrowly escaping death. A projection from the car of a passenger train struck him, but although badly hurt his recovery is expected.

No Soot in the "Bison" Hot Water Heater

Soot is a non-conductor of heat.

If soot coats the surface of a hot water heater, half the heat from the fire is lost, half the coal is wasted.

That is why some furnaces do not heat well, their flat surfaces and sections collect soot.

In the "Bison" hot water heater, there are no flat surfaces —there is no non-conducting blanket of soot—you get all the heat in the coal direct on the water surfaces and you get it quickly.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-west Provinces, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, or 160 acres, more or less.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him.

Homestead Duties.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector.

Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

OUR WESTERN HERITAGE.

What was probably the greatest real estate deal on record was the one that Sir John Macdonald put through in the early seventies, when he bought Western Canada from the Hudson's Bay Company for $3,000,000. To-day it is confidently expected that the west will produce one hundred million bushels of wheat, and it has become the backbone of the Dominion. Its wonderful productiveness produces millions of dollars, and in catering to its wants wealth is distributed in every town within our borders.

The experiences of the Washington journalists who have now concluded their trip will incalculably improve the value of Sir John's real estate transaction. The majority of the visitors knew little of the great west, and one of them in speaking of their journey, says:—

"You have a country there which is bound to be the granary of the continent. We are rapidly approaching the time when we will need all the wheat we produce for home consumption, and when we will have to import wheat. That wheat must come from the Canadian west, and it will be a case of where we must have it or starve. Our trip has shown us that the wheat area of America is rapidly being pushed northward, and that the possibilities of your country are illimitable. Our party represent journals with a circulation of over 50,000,000, and we have all been telling our readers of our most entertaining experiences. The result must be added interest in Canada and the effect will not be for to-day alone, but for all time to come."

The visitors were amazed at the rapid development of the country. Everywhere they saw Americans rushing in to take up land in the Territories; everywhere they found a spirit of hopefulness and enterprise which astonished them. Nowhere did they find any inclination on the part of the Americans to separate themselves or hold themselves aloof from their adopted country; rather on the other hand was it apparent that in the majority of cases the new-comers will become Canadian citizens and take part in the government of their new country. The journalists showed their appreciation of the Canadian west by purchasing town lots in the new town of Warman, near North Battleford, and refusing to part with them at 1,000 per cent. advance upon the purchase price. This town, named after the railway post-author, consisted of a depot and one hotel then the party went north. When they came back two days later it had grown to a town of several hundred houses, and the sound of the hammer was heard, practically from dawn to near midnight. In one case a settler arrived at three o'clock in the afternoon, and before night he had his shoemaker's shop constructed and open for business.

That is the spirit of the new west. It is a revelation given to us by men who had the instincts of statesmen and the enterprise of empire-builders. The pioneers in that great country staked their all and won the battle.

FROM QUEBEC TO MONCTON.

The plea which has just been made by Hon. Mr. Power in the Senate for the abandonment of the construction of the section of the National Transcontinental Railway between Quebec and Moncton, has no more force to-day than it had when it was opposed by the Opposition in the House, says the Ottawa Free Press.

The argument against the construction of this section of the line was that it would parallel the Intercolonial without producing a system that would be in a marked degree superior to it. But the reply to it is that the Intercolonial which was built for political considerations and without regard to the problem of direct and rapid transportation, would in no sense be paralleled by the new system which would serve an entirely different country, and which would furnish far more direct communication between the west and the east than is possible by the circuitous course which is taken by the present Government railway.

The question was gone into very substantially when the act was before Parliament, and the feeling of the maritime province members was overwhelmingly in favour of this section.

The government victories in those provinces were due in part at least to the prospective benefit that would result from the construction of the new railway from Levis to Moncton.

This division of the line is less immediately pressing than the prairie and Northern Ontario and Quebec sections, but it forms a part of the Government plan to provide a thoroughly efficient system from coast to coast and the reasons that would justify the abandonment of any part of a project which obtained such an overwhelming endorsement from the people would have to be very strong indeed.

I ever heard. I sometimes think 'at
I can hear him now
A-cackin' o' consentirums. "What would you do," says he,
"I—a widow an' a orphan should come a-long?" By Gee!
We couldn't guess the answer, an' so he says, "By hen,
Just take their money from 'em, an'
don't give it back again."
An' when we heard that answer we just laughed, an' laughed, an' laughed,
He called it "financerin'," but
'Twas
Just Plain
Graft.

J. K. PALMER.

Englishman Drowned.

James Hunter, an English bricklayer, the sole support of his father, who lives in England, was drowned while bathing yesterday afternoon in Winnipeg. He was a powerful swimmer, but, after uttering a cry, sank. He was taken but a few minutes later, but medical aid failed to resuscitate him.

LABOUR CONDITIONS IN PETERBOROUGH

Correspondent to the Labour Gazette Gives a Highly Satisfactory Report on the Local Conditions—All Classes of Workmen Were Employed—Prospect Good for the Future—The Industries Were Doing a Good Business—No Troubles Anticipated.

Ald. W. J. Johnston, reporting on conditions of the labour market in Peterborough during the month of June, to the Gazette, says:

There was no abatement of activity in labour during June, all classes being very busily employed, especially in the building trades.

Preparations were in progress at the Young's Point lock for deepening the channel and getting ready for a new cement dock, 200 feet long. The large Cereal Works, which were shut down for changes and repairs, were once more in active operation. The concreting of the basin above the Lift Lock has been completed; this has employed a large number of men. The Baptist and Methodist churches were undergoing a number of improvements.

Commercial activity was marked, both in imports and export business. The banks reported a good business.

There were no changes in wages or hours of labour, and no strikes or lockouts during the month.

Condition of Local Industries.

Agriculture. — The crop outlook throughout the district was reported excellent. Cheese factories were very active; 5,85 boxes were sold recently at 9 9-16 cents. Preparations were actively under way by the farmers for haying. The care of the root crop gave considerable employment.

Lumbering. — The mills were running to their utmost capacity, the demand for lumber being very active. The season's logs began to arrive, affording a better choice of dimension material.

Manufacturing. — Iron working establishments were not very active, but full staffs were maintained. A local company has undertaken the manufacture of shredded grains and vegetables, part of the Mekhrum grist mill having been fitted up for the purpose, and operations actively begun. The J. J. Turner Company, sail and tent manufacturers, were very active, doing a large export and local trade. The G. W. Green Pump Manufacturing Company was active, and the canoe companies reported a large export trade. The George Matthews pork packing establishment was very active. The Central Milling Company was busy, and the Auburn Woollen Company reported a full staff of hands and a heavy trade for the season. The Peterborough Carriage Company, a new industry, with a capital stock of $100,000, was organized for the manufacture of buggies, road carts, carriages, trucks, omnibusses, farm and delivery wagons, cutters, sleighs, etc. About 100 skilled mechanics will be employed the year around.

Mining. — Favourable conditions and outlook were reported.

Railway Construction. — The usual amount of repair work was under way with the normal staffs.

Condition of Particular Trades.

Building Trades. — The erection of a large opera house, costing between $20,000 and $30,000, was underway. Bricklayers, masons, carpenters, joiners, lathers, plasterers, fitters, stonecutters and builders' labourers were busy.

ers, painters, plumbers, gas-

Metal, engineering and shipbuilding trades.—Iron moulders were not very active, nor were coremakers. Iron workers and helpers, machinists and engineers were fairly busy, while steam engineers were quite active, as were also metal polishers and brass workers. Electrical workers and linemen were very busy, and sheet metal workers, bicycle workers, tool sharpeners and horseshoers were very active. Blacksmiths and boiler makers were fairly busy; ship workers were busy on repairs, and jewelers reported conditions dull.

Woodworking and furnishing trades.—Woodworkers, upholsterers and varnishers were very busy, carriage workers were quite active as were also pattern makers in some shops; coopers were busy and car builders were fairly busy on repair work, while gilders and wood carvers reported quiet conditions.

Printing and allied trades.—These trades were fairly well employed for the season.

Clothing trades. — Journeymen tailors, garment workers and boot and shoe workers were fairly busy.

Food and tobacco preparation.—Bakers, confectioners, butchers, meat cutters and ice handlers were very active, and cigarmakers were fairly well employed.

Leather trades.—Leather workers harness and horse collars were fairly busy, but not so active as usual at this season of the year.

Miscellaneous.—Barbers were fully employed. Broom workers were busy. Clerks and stenographers and delivery employees were fairly active, but furriers were in their slack season. Hotel, restaurant and laundry workers were all well employed.

Transport. — Railroad employees were very active, both on freight and passenger traffic. Steamboat men, street railway employees, teamsters and expressmen were very busy. Cab drivers were fairly active, but hackmen and carters found business quiet.

District Notes.

Favourable reports were received from all sections of the district. Grist and sawmills were very active and general stores did a good business. At Lakefield the cement factory continued very busy. A number of cement sidewalks were being laid at Norwood. Bricklayers throughout the district were very busy, turning out large quantities of brick. The price of farm produce remained normal, with the exception of potatoes, which rose to $1 per bag.

FALLING HAIR STOPPED.

Baldness Cured by Destroying the Parasitic Germ That Causes It.

Baldness follows falling hair, falling hair follows dandruff; and dandruff is the result of a germ digging its way into the scalp to the root of the hair where it saps the vitality of the hair. To destroy that germ is to prevent as well as cure dandruff, falling hair, and, lastly, baldness. There is only one preparation known to do that, Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new, scientific discovery. Wherever it has been tried it has proven wonderfully successful. It can't be otherwise, because it utterly destroys the dandruff germ. "You destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

JOHN MULHALL WAS THE VICTIM

A Lively Scrap at McCollum's Barn To-day.

Ben. Lebar Claims That He Hit Mulhall in Self-defence.

At noon to-day, an exciting time, while it lasted, was witnessed by the frequenters of McCollum's livery. It appears that a former resident of Peterborough, John Mulhall, and a well-known character in town came into the livery barn and asked for a horse and buggy, saying that he was not sure whether he would go to Lakefield or simply drive around town. Mr. Ben. Lebar was in charge of the barn at the time, and he prepared to hitch up the horse asked for. He had got the rig about ready when a Mr. Wm. Mofatt came into the building, and, according to Mr. Lebar's statement Mulhall, who, it appears, suddenly appeared to be intoxicated, started to abuse Mr. Mofatt. When he saw the condition in which he was in, Lebar decided that he would not allow him to take the horse and buggy, and unhitched it again. He says that he was taking the horse away when the abuse which had been showered upon Mofatt was turned on to him, and the intoxicated man wanted to fight. Lebar states that he did his best to induce Mulhall to leave the place and leave him alone, but he continued to refuse and showed such a desire to fight that he was compelled to eject him from the premises.

He came back, however, and after repeated warning that if he did not leave him alone he would hit him having proved unavailing, Lebar, to use his own words, "hit him two or three."

Mulhall was then taken to the rear of the stable, where he was found by the police, who were notified of the affair. He was bleeding freely from a cut above his eye, and from his mouth, and seemed to be in a helpless condition. The ambulance was telephoned for to take him to the hospital, for it was feared that he was badly injured, but before it arrived he showed signs of reviving, and he was taken to the police station instead.

This is the story as told the Examiner by Mr. Lebar, who justifies his action in hitting Mulhall by the assertion that he warned him repeatedly to go away and leave him alone.

THE PILGRIMAGE TO ST. ANNE'S

A large number of Peterborough people left this morning on the annual pilgrimage to Ste. Anne de Beaupre, below Quebec

The special C. P. R. train of twelve coaches, which left at noon, was filled to its utmost capacity, over one hundred people leaving town upon it. The excursion, which originated at Myrtle, was joined by large numbers at the various points along the line. The number of excursionists this year exceeds by far that of any previous year. It is conducted under the patronage of His Grace Archbishop Gauthier, of Kingston, and the direction of Rev. Father Twomey of Belleville.

The return trip will take place on Thursday, July 27th, by a special train from St. Anne's to Montreal, and Tweed, connecting with the regular trains. These arrangements will afford the pilgrims an opportunity to view the many beautiful and historic scenes in Lower Canada, between Quebec and Montreal.

A number also left by the regular Belleville G. T. R. train, which will connect at that place with the excursion on the main line. This route is a most interesting one, and affords, particularly in the Quebec section, a view of some of the most magnificent scenery upon the continent.

Among the large number who left this morning were: Miss Doris, of Keene, Mrs. John Condon, J. Hanrahan, H. Clancy, Mr. and Mrs. Galvin, Enniamore, Miss Annie Condon, Miss Gibson, Miss McCarthy, Geo. Lachaeur, Redmond Horan, Jas. Connors, Mrs. T. McGrath, Mr. and Mrs. Duranceau, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Minstocle, Mrs. L. Potvin, Mrs. F. Potvin, Mr. and Mrs. R. Gordon, Mr. O'Connor, 9 Bellwoods avenue, Toronto, Mr. Kennedy, Orillia, Jas. Connors, Mrs. McNamara, and Miss McNamara, of Buffalo, (formerly of Peterborough,) John McCabe, Miss McCabe, Lindsay, Mrs. Catchpole, Miss Feeley, Mrs. Aldrich, Miss McNicholl, Miss Mercier, Miss Talbot, Mr. Fred and Mr. Jack McFadden, Mr. J. A. McPherson, Miss Hannah Doris, Miss Lillian O'Brien, Miss Katie McGrath.

INFLUX TO THE LAKES STILL CONTINUES

Many Arrivals at Stony Lake During the Past Few Days

Recent arrivals at Glenwood are: Miss Jessie Merrifield, Miss M. McLaren, Miss Jean Forbes, Toronto; the Misses Crough, St. Catharines; Miss Maud Lamphier, Miss Myrtle Grierson, Toronto; Messrs. Charles Jackson, Herbert Bagge, Percy Manley, A. Greig, Toronto; A. E. Doherty, Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, H. Wilson, Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, of Toronto, are guests at "Claudeboye," Mr. Addison's cottage at Boschink. Mrs. Roger is Mrs. Addison's sister.

Miss James, Miss Marean, Hastings; Miss Jeffrey, and Messrs Mayes of Toronto, are spending a two weeks vacation at Kilkenny.

Mr. Hammond Hall, who has been attending S. P. S., Toronto, is spending a vacation at Mr. Richard Hall's cottage.

The Misses Reid, of Hamilton, will spend the next few weeks at Kilkenny.

Mr. Pierce Fields returned to Toronto to-day after a ten days' vacation at Stony Lake.

Mrs. Clowes, who has been a guest at Kilkenny for the past couple of weeks, returned to Toronto this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dodsworth and son, Russell, returned to their cottage, at Boschink on Saturday, after a day's shopping at Peterborough.

Mr. Acton of Toronto, passed through town to-day on his way home from the Lakes.

A large and jolly party are the guests of Fairview, of Mr. Alf. Haskill, at whose island an informal song service took place on Sunday evening, the music being supplemented by a number of delightful selections by Mr. Haskill's phonograph, which were much appreciated.

Among the many attractions at Glenwood is the art gallery, in Hog's Alley, which is in charge of Mr. Carlton of Buffalo. Silver collections are taken, the proceeds of which are devoted to the purchase of mint ju-jubes for the relief of sore throats, occasioned by the vocal contortions necessary to the enunciation of the camp yell:

Black bass, black bass, muskinonge and perch;
Glenwood! Glenwood! never in the lurch;
Jolly boys! Jolly girls! Ha! Ha! Ha!
Glenwood! Glenwood! Rah! Rah! Rah!

RUNAWAY LAST NIGHT AT CHEMONG

One of McCollum's Horses Smashed Things Up Generally.

Yesterday a man named Burtman hired a horse and runabout buggy from McCollum Bros. livery, and went to Chemong. While he was there or on the road his horse became frightened and ran away, upsetting the buggy and smashing it up considerably.

The remains were brought to the town to-day, and it will cost considerable to repair the damage.

At Oke's.

We are receiving fine raspberries, blue berries, and cherries. Would advise early buying, especially of cherries, as they will soon be done. E. A. OKE, 376 George street. Telephone, 18.

NEW PRINTING PRESS ADDED

To the Already Large Equipment of The Examiner

The rapidly expanding job printing business of the Examiner has necessitated the purchase of a new job press, which has just been installed, and added to the battery of the electric presses in the press room of this establishment, now making seven, all except one, that upon which the newspaper is printed, being devoted to job work.

The New "Optimus" Press Installed in The Examiner Press Room.

The latest addition to the press room equipment is an "Optimus" press, manufactured by the Babcock Printing Press Mfg. Company, of New York, the selling agents for which in Toronto are Messrs. Miller and Richard, through which firm the press was purchased.

This press is designed for fine commercial printing, and is particularly good on half tone work, of which this office is turning out an increasingly large quantity.

It's capacity is 3,000 impressions per hour, which is particularly fast for a job press of the dimensions of that recently installed.

Combined with the fact that it is a rapid printer is the equally great advantage that it is easily handled. With this addition to its printing facilities the Examiner will be in a better position than ever to turn out work quickly and satisfactorily.

A greatly reduced cut of the new press occupies this article.

Mr. Jas. Doughty, the erector for Messrs. Miller and Richard, has been in town during the last week superintending the erection of the press which is now in working order.

CITIZEN WANTS TO BE INFORMED

In Reference to the Signs on the Streets.

Says Some Merchants Have Not Been Compelled to Remove Them.

A prominent local business man dropped into the Examiner office this morning to protest against what he considered unfair treatment. It was in reference to the recently passed by-law, the provisions of which are that goods or signs of business places shall not be displayed or project over the sidewalk. A large number of merchants who had signs which were over the sidewalk, contrary to the by-law, were compelled to remove them. It appears, however, according to these gentlemen, that all the merchants have not been treated alike in this respect, and he says that there are right on George street today a number of these signs which are projecting over the sidewalk outside the street line, while others which were no more offensive than those have had to be removed.

He asks the Examiner to call attention to this fact and to inquire if the police had wearied in their efforts to enforce the by-law, or if they had overlooked these signs referred to, or if they had been intentionally overlooked. He points out that it is manifestly unfair to those who have had to comply with the by-law, some of them at an inconvenience to themselves, to allow others to ignore its provisions because their attention is not called to it by the police, whose duty it is to see that its provisions are carried out.

How Red Rose Tea is Grown

TEA is a native plant of Northern India. Transplanted to Ceylon it lost much of its strength and richness, but gained in fr[illegible] and delicacy. That is why Ceylon tea is not a strong tea.

That is why I blend Indian and Ceylon teas together—that is how the strength and richness, fragrance and delicacy of Red Rose Tea are secured—that is why Red Rose Tea has that "rich fruity flavor."

Chamberlain's COLIC, CHOLERA AND Diarrhoea Remedy

It has been used in nine epidemics of dysentary with perfect success.

It can always be depended upon, even in the more severe attacks of cramp colic and cholera morbus.

It is equally successful for summer diarrhoea and cholera infantum in children, and is the means of saving the lives of many children each year.

When reduced with water adds sweetness it is pleasant to take.

Every man of a family should keep this remedy in his home. Buy it now. It may save life.

COL.-SERG. MOORE MAKES MONEY

His Winnings at Bisley Total Nearly $180.

Only Three Canadians Who Made More Money Than He Did.

The trip of Col.-Sergt. Moore, of the 57th Regt., to Bisley, as a member of the Canadian team, has not been an unprofitable one for him as a perusal of the list of winnings of the team published below will show, in aggregate winnings, only three Canadians were higher than him, and his winnings represented £30 16s., or nearly $150.

For the first year on the Bisley team Sergt. Moore has made a splendid record.

The winnings of each member of the team, including divided and individual winnings, were:—

PRESIDENTS WON BY FIVE SHOTS

In the Long-Looked for Matches at Brookside Lawn.

The lawn bowlers were very busy yesterday afternoon and evening, when the match of President vs. Vice-President was played off. The President's side came out victorious by the good margin of ten shots. Some very close finishes took place, especially the game between President Moore and Vice-President Greer, the result being in doubt up to the time the very last bowl was sent down the green, when the President was laying shot close to the jack, but it was all open for the Vice-President to lift, which he did very neatly and lay the shot, winning the game by a single point.

Mr. G. H. Giroux had the honour of winning the largest margins, and it was due to his good work that the President won the match, the defeated his opponent, by 21—5, and the result was that the President's rinks won by 10 up.

It was a great afternoon's and evening's sport, and the members fully enjoyed it. The scores were as follows:—

FINAL GAMES IN GUILD LEAGUE

Have Been Arranged Between St. Andrew's and Charlotte Street.

Last night a meeting of the Guild League was held in the Y. M. C. A. Hall to arrange for the final game between Charlotte street and St. Andrew's teams for the league championship. It was decided to play home and home games, and in case each team won, to play a game on the Riverside Park.

The first game will be played on St. Andrew's grounds, and will be started on Thursday night, the remaining three innings to be played on Monday.

This series of games will undoubtedly prove the most interesting of the whole season, and in all probability there will be record crowds on hand to witness them.

BASEBALL.

Speaking of the win of the Port Hope team on Saturday, the Guide says:—

"Revenge is sweet, and we took a good dose of it on Saturday and trimmed Cobourg 4—3. It might have been more but the locals knew that the spectators liked a close game, and so they kept it just as close as possible.

The game has been eagerly looked forward to, and as usual there was considerable rivalry between the tween the two teams. As a result there was a large crowd present to witness the match, and to say that they enjoyed it is putting it mildly. Why, they were tickled to death, and they hollered until they were hoarse, ladies included. Cobourg was accompanied by quite a number of supporters, but they were very quiet.

To trim Cobourg is to a Port Hope crowd a great treat and their applause on Saturday was loud and long. And to trim Cobourg any team has to play fast ball, and Saturday's game was one of the snappiest ever witnessed on our diamond. Both teams put up a strikeout fight and the result was ever in doubt. Every man of the eighteen was on the jump all the time, and the errors were few and the good plays numerous.

The Lindsay Post has "got them" again, as witness the following article which appeared yesterday:—

Bowmanville met defeat at Peterborough Saturday by 6 to 2 in a Midland League game. The game was a good exhibition of ball, for the visitors had a day off. With men on bases they would hit out infield liners, while with none on bases they hit out two-baggers. The Bowmanville boys report bad usage at the hands of the crowd, especially after the game, when they were followed to the hotel. President Pethick should have accompanied his pets to Peterborough.

Galt defeated Berlin on Saturday, and the Reformer says of the game:

The Champs won from Berlin in Berlin on Saturday by a score of 3-1. The match was a pitcher's battle, Flaherty allowed only one scratch hit, which, with a bit of fast work by either Murray, Saunders or W. Marshall would not have been recorded. It was a fly back of second base. With this one exception Flaherty pitched perfect ball. In the ninth, after Murray allowed the first two men up to poke easy ones through him, Flaherty struck out the next three men up. Flaherty struck out 13 men.

All members of St. Andrew's Guild baseball team are asked to turn out to practice to-night at 6.45 sharp.

LACROSSE.

The following will be the line-up of the Young Peterboroughs in their game with the Young Shamrocks of Oshawa to-morrow:—Goal, Gilman; Point, Pope; Cover Point, Davis; 1st defence, McCoy; 2nd defence, Devlin; 3rd defence, Feeney; Centre, Clark; 1st home, H. Donovan; 2nd home, Saunders; 3rd home, Lynch; Outside Tucker; Inside, Gorman. Referee, E. Wasson.

The team to represent Peterborough in Bowmanville to-morrow will be:—

Goal—Boyle.
Point—Morgan.
Cover-point—Durocher.
First Defence—Maugher.
Second Defence—Donovan.
Third Defence—Main.
Centre—Ford.
Third Home—McGrath.
Second Home—Beer.
First Home—Best.
Outside Home—McCabe.
Inside Home—Glover.

This team will leave on the 8 a.m. C.P.R. train and will drive from Burketon to Bowmanville.

Scuffle Led to Death.

The sailmaster of the Norwegian barque Hugo, W. Theodore Johnsen, a Norwegian, and Andrea Parri, a seaman of the same vessel, a Chilian, got into a scuffle at the wharf where the barque lay, and both fell into the water and were drowned.

When You Buy, Buy Right.

When you buy Ozone, buy "Solution of Ozone" (the coupon kind.) It is the strongest and purest Ozone on the market. It is sold as a commercial product at reasonable rates so that you get about twice as much as other brands. Also each bottle contains a coupon which entitles you to a package of "Celery King," the well known remedy which must always be taken with Ozone.

No other brand of Ozone gives you an opportunity to get the "Celery King" free. We own "Celery King" and that is why we can give it with our Ozone.

"Solution of Ozone" (the coupon kind) contains about twice as much for your money as any other kind. It also furnishes you with "Celery King" for nothing. Insist on getting it from your druggist or write the Public Drug Co., Bridgeburg, Ont., who will see that you are supplied. Sold by W. B. Warne.

SHAMROCKS WILL PLAY LOCAL TEAM

A Good Game of Lacrosse Promised To-morrow.

A great game of lacrosse is promised for to-morrow when the Oshawa Shamrocks meet the Young Peterborough on the Riverside Park. There will be an excursion in the city from Oshawa, to-morrow, and the visitors are sure to have good support.

The Shamrocks are a speedy bunch and have all had a little experience in the game, but the local aspirants to fame will make them travel some and play the game all the time.

THE TURF.

The Belleville race meet, which takes place to-day and to-morrow, is attracting quite a number of the local lovers of the ponies, who left this morning.

Mr. George Lipsett's speedy mare, Miss Paisley, was shipped this morning and will compete in to-morrow's events. Mr. Lipsett, Mr. Bee Clancy, Mr. Brooks and a number of others, went down to-day.

• • • •

There is considerable talk among local horsemen of a matched race between Dr. Johnston's Donna Belle, and Mr. George Lipsett's Miss Paisley, which, if it materializes, should prove a highly interesting event.

• • • •

Secretary Rountree of the Turf Club, is authority for the statement that a number of interesting racing events may be arranged for Aug. 7th, the day of the home coming of the Peterborough Old Boys. It is probable that an interesting programme of sports may be put on, to which a few fast races would add a greatly increased interest.

The Prudent to Prevent Disease

A Little Care and Attention Now May Add Years of Comfort and Happiness to your Life.

Disease does not, as a rule, develop in a few days or a few weeks. When you hear of people becoming victims of Bright's Disease, or dropping dead from Heart Disease, you can depend on it that they have been ailing for months and years.

If you are on your guard against the first symptoms which tell of serious disease you can prevent the painful and fatal results.

When the back aches, when the bowels get constipated, when the liver becomes clogged and inactive, and you suffer from indigestion, you cannot afford to trust to these troubles wearing away.

A few weeks treatment with Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills will regulate and invigorate these organs and may save you years of suffering.

This means 308 shillings, or nearly $75 for each member of the team. Besides this, the individual winnings were as follows:

Individual Winnings.

Crowe, 510s; Moore, 316s; Simpson, 290s; Boult, 288s; Stuart, 207s; Elliott, 200s; Phillips, 181s; Russell, 174s; Kerr, 160s; Jones, 160s; Wilson, 140s; Eastcott, 140s; Pugh, 111s; Kelly, 105s; Forrest, 100s; Richardson, 60s; Morrice, 40s; Flowers, 20s; Brayshaw, 20s; McConnell, 0.

This is an average of 160 shillings, or $40 per man, making, with the team earnings, a grand total of 9,367 shillings. This is $2,340, or about $115 per man.

The list of winnings is not yet complete, as the results in the Peddle, Pixley, Martin's Challenge Cup, Burt, Wantage and Running Man competitions are not yet in.

English Riflemen Coming.

London, July 25.—(C. A. P.)—It is understood that it is the intention of the London Scottish, otherwise the 7th Middlesex, Regiment, to send a team to Canada to compete in the Dominion Rifle Association meeting of 1906.

Seawanhaka Cup Lifted.

Montreal, July 25.—The American challenger Manchester of the Manchester (Mass.) Yacht Club yesterday defeated the Canadian defender Alexandra in the third and final race for the Seawanhaka Cup, and thus captured the trophy for the United States by three straight wins. Yesterday's race was a beat to windward and return, four miles, sailed three times over a total distance of twelve miles. Canada thus lost the cup she has held since 1884.

"Shut your eyes, open your mouth and see what luck will bring you."

Many a woman is weak and sick, nervous and discouraged. She suffers from headache, backache and other ills. She wants to be well, but all she does is to shut her eyes and open her mouth for medicine and trust to luck for results. She "doctors" month after month, often year after year, in this same blind, haphazard fashion, and receives no permanent benefit.

Women take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with their eyes open to the fact that it cures womanly ills. It cures irregularity. It dries debilitating drains. It heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. There is no trusting to luck by those who use "Favorite Prescription."

"In the year 1896 my health was poor," writes Mrs. J. Hack, of 361 Broadway, Buffalo, N. Y. "I suffered from falling of womb, a disagreeable discharge, painful monthly periods, headache, backache and pains in the limbs. Every month was confined to bed for two or three days. Was weak, nervous and hysterical; life was a burden to myself and I made every one in the family unhappy because I was so irritable. My husband got me four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and before I had taken the first bottle I was feeling some relief. The medicine made me well and strong, free from nervousness, aches and pains, and I felt like a new woman. Before I used the 'Favorite Prescription' I had been taking another physician's medicine for nearly three months, but had received no benefit. Your medicine is certainly the best in the world."

A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Don't let a selfish seller over-persuade you to accept a substitute for these Original and Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago. Imitated but never equaled.

CATTLE MARKETS.

Cables Dull—Steady Tone for Cattle in American Markets.

London, July 24.—Cattle are quoted at 10½c to 12¼c per lb.; refrigerator beef, 9½c per lb.; sheep, 13c to 14c per lb.

TORONTO JUNCTION LIVE STOCK.

Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards were 40 carloads, composed of 790 cattle, 2 sheep and 1 calf.

Exporters.

Prices ranged from $4.37½ to $5 per cwt., and one or two loads of extra quality brought 10c to 12½c per cwt. more money. The bulk of exporters sold at $4.65 to $4.80 per cwt. It will be seen by sales reported below that there were few cattle that sold up to $5 per cwt.

Butchers.

There was a shortage of butchers' cattle, there not being nearly enough to supply the wants of the local trade. Best butchers, of which quality there were very few, sold at $4.25 to $4.50; fair to good, $4.15 to $4.35; common, $3.65 to $3.85, and rough, inferior, at $3 to $3.40 per cwt.

Hogs.

Prices were reported firm at $6.40 to $6.50 for selects.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK.

Montreal, July 24.—(Special.)—Cable advices came weak and lower, owing to increased supplies. Canadian cattle in Liverpool sold at 11c to 11½c, and sheep at 12½c, and in London cattle sold at 11c to 11¾c, and sheep at 12¾c. There has been considerable business done in ocean freight space, and little is now offering for August except from shippers who are re-letting some, and the steamship agents are asking high rates for September space. The shipments last week were 2658 cattle and 600 sheep. The receipts were 500 cattle, 300 sheep and lambs, 100 calves and 400 hogs. The tone of the market for all lines was firmer on account of the small offerings, and the good demand for the same. A few prime beeves sold at 5½c; choice at 5c to 5¼c; good at 4¾c to 4¾c; medium at 4c to 4¼c; fair at 3½c to 4c; common at 3c to 3½c, and inferior at 2½c to 3c per lb. Sheep and calves were scarce, and a considerable range in price was caused by the lifted quality of the offerings. Calves brought all the way from $2.50 to $8 each, and lambs from $3 to $4.50.

The market for live hogs was strong, and prices advanced 25c to 50c per 100 lbs. This is due to the continued small supply coming forward and the fact that the foreign markets for Canadian bacon are very strong, as cables received from Liverpool, London and Bristol on Saturday noted an advance in prices of 8s to 6s per cwt. The demand for hogs to-day from packers was keen, and sales of selected lots are made at $7.25 to $7.35 per 100 lbs., fed and watered.

VOLCANO OF OIL.

An Area of Three-Quarters of a Mile Square of Flames In Texas Oil Fields—Struck by Lightning.

Humble, Texas, July 25.—Covering an area of three-quarters of a mile square, with a great canopy of smoke covering two miles, the oil tanks of the Texas Co. boiled and bubbled under the great heat of burning oil yesterday. When the fire can be extinguished is problematical. Certainly not until it has burned all of the oil in the eleven big tanks which held 2,550,000 barrels when lightning struck them Sunday afternoon.

Five negro workmen perished. There are hundreds of homeless people, many of them only awaiting a chance to go to Houston for shelter. During the whole of the night there was a heavy downpour of rain, and this covered the ground with a sheet of water coated with a thick film of oil.

Shortly after the big tank, which was struck by lightning, began to blaze, 200 workmen with seventy-five mules were hurried to the place to throw up earthen embankments to confine the fire to the tank where it originated. Suddenly the oil gave an upheaval, bubbled and lifted a great mass of the burning fluid bodily from the tank, and the fire was communicated to three other tanks.

The burning oil caught the men and mules and hemmed them in. There was a wild scramble for safety, men dropping their scrapers and reins. Some of them mounted mules and escaped, but at least forty mules balked and were burned to death.

Oil men place the loss at 2,500,000 barrels of oil, valued at $562,500; pumping plant, damage to the tanks, mules, etc., at $25,000 more.

Surveyors Put Three Vermont Towns Across Real Boundary Line.

Newport, Vt., July 25.—The surveyors representing the United States and Canada have completed the inspection of the boundary line between the Dominion and the United States, at Richford and North Troy.

It is stated that they have made startling discoveries. These are that Richford, East Richford and Stevens Mills, which are a short distance within what has been considered the Vermont side of the border, rightfully belong to Canada, and steps will probably be taken to establish the boundaries so as to give Canada either a recompense or the territory stated.

The strip of land involved is several miles in length, and from one-half to a mile in width. It has a population of about 4,500.

Anarchists Meet In Paris.

New York, July 25.—A meeting of 100 Anarchists was held Sunday night, says a Herald despatch from Paris. French, Italian and Spanish agitators were present. Violent speeches were made, a militant program being advocated, and it is said to have been decided to proceed energetically against European rulers. The Spaniards were the most vehement, and said they were awaiting the occasion of the daily promenade of King Alfonso to make an attempt against him.

Train Accident Near Bridgeburg.

Buffalo, July 25.—An eastbound Wabash passenger train, running on the Grand Trunk tracks, left the rails three miles west of Bridgeburg at 7.30 o'clock Sunday night. There were about 80 passengers, all of whom were well shaken up, but none so badly hurt as Miss Condit. Two waiters in the dining-car were cut about the hands. One had his back hurt. Both were brought to the General Hospital in charge of a doctor from Fort Erie.

No Protest Entered.

London, July 25.—No protest has been entered against the return of Hon. Charles S. Hyman as member for London, nor will there be. Yesterday was the last day in which protest might be made.

The Oxford Chancellor Range, though built with durability and strength as the primary objects, is very handsome in appearance. The ornamentation is very plain and solid so that it is easily kept clean. The top edges and door frames are nickle-plated.

Oxford Chancellor Range

Handsome nickle ornamentation on the fire- and oven-door adds to the attractive appearance of the range.

With all its beauty of design, its greatest recommendation is its efficiency as a baker and roaster and its durability.

SPORT NOTES.

Wednesday's lacrosse game between the Young Peterboroughs and the Young Shamrocks of Oshawa promises to be a most interesting exhibition of the national game, and a large attendance is almost an assured fact. The interest in lacrosse is increasing daily to a noticeable extent. This is largely due to the excellence of the games which have taken place in town so far. These, while they have been comparatively easy wins for the locals, have all been gentlemanly exhibitions, and in fact have been all that could be desired from a spectator's point of view. The tickets for Wednesday's game, which are now on sale at the price of 10 cents, should all be taken up quickly, and it may be safely predicted that all purchasers will be treated to one of the best exhibitions seen in town in some time.

The Young Peterboroughs are a group of remarkably fast young stick-handlers who give great promise to do good things in the fastest company in the course of a very short time. They have a well-balanced team and have been steady and consistent workers since the opening of the season. They are deserving of every encouragement, not only for the excellent exhibition which they are at present capable of furnishing, but also in view of the good new material of which it may prove a developer.

The next C. L. A. game which takes place in Bowmanville on Wednesday is as yet a somewhat uncertain proposition, but it is felt that unless the Bowmanvilles have been considerably strengthened that the locals should win without undue exertion. Bowmanville is, however, a most uncertain quantity upon their own grounds and it is never easy guessing as to when they may hand out a surprise under these conditions. The fact that they defeated the Oshawas in Bowmanville is sufficient proof that they have a team which is not to be underestimated. At the time of their game here, it will be remembered, they were somewhat crippled by the absence of two good stick-handlers, who will probably add considerable strength to the line-up for Wednesday.

The Juniors had an excellent practice last night, and all appear to be in condition for Wednesday's game. Only two changes in personnel of the team will probably be made. The places of Cavenah and Crowley, who have found it impossible to go, will be taken by Fred McGrath and Donovan, both of whom may be trusted to give a good account of themselves. Stroud will accompany the team. Best will, it is thought, take a position farther out in the field than at the last game, probably at second home. His speed in the field was a factor of great value in the games in which he filled a position there. Glover and McCabe on the inside and outside homes, should be a most effective combination, and their accurate shooting should result in a good fat score.

Yachting as a sport, appears to be increasing in popularity in the Kawartha waters, and most properly so. Always a clean, healthy sport, with its full proportion of excitement, it should commend itself particularly to the sturdy Canadian youth. The race at Chemong on Saturday, will, it is hoped, be but the first of a series of interesting events of this nature. The action of Mr. E. M. Deanistoun, who has for years been one of the most enthusiastic of our local yachtsmen, in presenting for competion a handsome flag, is one worthy of the warmest commendation, and it is hoped that as the season progresses the number of entries will increase, as the competition is open to all. Those who witnessed the race on Saturday were intensely interested in it, and state that over the entire length of the course it was one of the most fascinating contests of this kind which has taken place on the local waters. The race was sailed in 14 foot dinghys. Mr. Milne Hamilton's handsome new craft appears to be all was predicted for it. It is to be hoped that the various regattas to be held during the season will make a feature of this branch of aquatic sport.

IN MEMORIAM.

And in Heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tears are shed.

THE DANGERS OF THE METROPOLIS

How a Colonial Was Relieved of His Coin.

Some of the Most Daring and Unscrupulous Criminals of the World to be Found Therein.

Special to The Examiner.

London, July 25.—In a small village in Wales lives a man who claims to have witnessed the defeat of Napoleon at Waterloo. He is 104 years old and earns a scanty living by hawking boot laces, etc. He attributes his retaining all his faculties during a long and hard life to the fact that he has been an abstainer all his life.

Hardly a day passes without our having some fresh instance of the astuteness of the criminal alien whom we welcome to our shores with open arms. And too often it is the Colonial visitor who is the victim. A few days back a merchant of Manitoba visiting London, went to the British Museum. There he met a "mining engineer" who asserted that he hailed from California. The latter introduced him to a friend, and together they took the train for the South Kensington Museum. There they noticed a letter dropped by a gentleman, and the Colonial, at their instigation picked it up and handed it to him. He was very grateful and insited on "standing" them liquors and cigars at his hotel. He said the letter was very important and invited them to read it, which they did. He said the letter just arrived here from India with a legacy of £400,000. After a few hours of conviviality he invited them to accompany him to a place of amusement where he had been the night before, and where he had lost money with women, to try and get the money back. The Colonial, however, advised him to let it go. Then he thanked them for their kindness and advice, and offered to lend them £2000 each for five years if they could prove that they were men of substance. The "mining engineer" and his friend said they could produce about £700 each. the Colonial had £8 0. He afterwards cabled to a bank in Canada, and they all four met again. The three displayed their notes and the newly found financier asked for their I.O.U's. He handed them to the "mining engineer" who offered to get them stamped and "made legal." Before leaving he handed his bundle of notes to his companion, who also collected those of the Canadian. Then the "engineer" and his friend left the room. They did not reappear, and the Canadian consulted the police to find that he had been duped—the affair was a planned one to rob him of his money. One of the trio was ultimately found and arrested.

Intending Colonial visitors to London will do well to remember that this is a city of nearly seven millions of people. Nearly twice as many people as there are in all Australia are congregated in our few square miles. Passports are unknown. No restriction is put upon visitors either on business or pleasure. British and foreign, lunatic and criminal — all can land on our shores without hindrance and without enquiry. What wonder, then, that some of the most daring and unscrupulous of the criminals of the world make a happy hunting ground of the big city of smoke.

An unusual sight greeted those who could overlook the yard at a Bow street Police Court the other day. One of the prisoners was found to be in such a filthy condition that it was quite impossible to bring him into the Court. Consequently the Magistrate, clerk, usher and officials proceeded to the yard where the prisoner was charged with begging. This is quite a feature of the night side of London life. Many thousands of man and women cannot, or will not find work. They scan the workhouses and shelters while the sunshine invites a lazy life. They sleep in the day time in the parks and open spaces, at night they wander through the streets. If they can get a hearer among the thousands of pedestrians they will draw out a piteous tale of want and destitution which helps to bring the welcome coin. Or, if in a quiet street, they come across a "gilded" youth who has dined not wisely but too well, they will not hesitate to relieve him by force of his cash and jewellery, even though assault, and perhaps manslaughter may be necessary.

But though London is full of dangers to the raw comer and to the unwary, the native finds it comparatively safe. Let one walk boldly and with confidence and he can go through the most dangerous thoroughfares and at the most dangerous times, and through the biggest crowds without molestation. Not many nights ago I had to work all through the night to catch a mail. At about two o'clock in the morning I turned out for a stroll along the Thames embankment to Westminster. Along the embankment were numberless tramps, male and female, sleeping on the seats and promenading in twos and threes. Some glanced at me as if I were intruding on their special domain. Others looked up with silly, drunken, bleary eyes; others, alas, with looks of real and genuine despair. But I walked the whole distance alone, without molestation, although I did not meet a policeman from one end of the embankment to the other.

If the criminals display ingenuity in their avocations, the detectives of the metropolis are not behindhand in imitating them. What with the silent posts of the police force and the endless disguises of the detectives, it is a marvel that so many evildoers escape. Two men the other day were suspected of receiving bets near the fish market. This is an offence in law. Two detectives disguised as fish porters kept observation, and when they had sufficient evidence, promptly arrested the illegal traders. Betting among rich people may be all very well, but these street "bookies" lay themselves out to receive bets from the poorer clerks, office boys and warhousemen, who generally lose and are sometimes induced to rob their employers in the insane attempt to make a "bit" quickly and without work.

Number of vehicles passing through a main road out of London in one day, July 2nd, cycles 4,000, motor vehicles 600, electric trams 400, horse vehicles 200.

Tramway receipts (London County Council only), week ending June 24th, £15,000.

Hospital Sunday Fund, a fund for the benefit of the London Hospitals, amount collected up to July 5th, £40,000.

Quantity of fish received at Billingsgate, one of the London fish markets, for one month, June, 18,000 tons.

Quantity of water supplied by the Water Board during May, 233,000,000 gallons to 1,000,000 houses, estimated population 6,700,000.

Amount spent on the Torrey-Alexander (American revival) Mission, £17,000. £6,000 of this was collected at the meetings, the balance is the deficit.

British exports, June, 1905, £26,000,000, increase on June, 1904, £2,000,000.

British imports, June, 1905, £43,000,000; increase on June, 1904, £360,000.

The Japan Society held a garden party in honour of their Imperial Highnesses Prince and Princess Arisugawa at the Royal Botanic Gardens. It was a smart affair and well attended. The Lyceum keeps up its reputation for a fine varied entertainment. The naval exhibition at Earl's Court is drawing large crowds. Among theatres visited good pieces and large houses were at Daly's, the Duke of York's, Vaudeville, Garrick, St. James', Lyric, Comedy, Imperial, Wyndham's, Criterion, New and King's of Hammersmith. Some very good concerts are being given in Bechstein Hall.

Escaped an Operation.

"I had itching piles for six years, and the doctors told me there was no cure for me unless an operation. Dr. Chase's Ointment completely cured me in one week. As that was six months ago, and there has been no return of the old trouble I believe no return of the old trouble I believe that the cure is a permanent one."—Mr. J. Mawer, Roden, Man.

The Best Things of the Sale are Coming Along

Douglas says great as the first week was in making the Mortgage Sale a success from a money saving standpoint, the second week has been greater. We've timed the third week to be greater still, and we're right into it, and this week's economy list like this, gives the whole event the ring of genuineness that we started out to make it. Just three reasons for the success of the big sale:—1st, the goods are what you want in Quality and Style. 2nd—They are here in abundance for you just when you want them, just when you need them. 3rd—The Prices are perhaps the most attractive that have ever been placed in anybody's sale anywhere at any time in the City of Peterborough, and it's a pleasure to us to say to you that we've not gone into the highways and byways of trade to pick indifferent and questionable quality lines, odds and ends of factory clean-ups to stock up our store—and which we could throw sensational talk—but, every pair of Shoes is bright new, seasonable goods, bought and imported for our own splendid trade—goods that no matter how we slash the prices, will help us build our reputation as the people's shoe store. Make one with us this week. Let the people come—as welcome to look as to buy.

COMPLAINT NOW TO PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

Mr. W. J. Fuller, an Engineer on the Public Works Department Staff, Sent Here to Report on the Conditions at Stony Lake in Connection With the Water Level---Personal Complaints Has Been Made by Cottagers to the Head of the Department---Engineer Will Make Complete Report on the Matter---Will Spend a Week in Investigation.

It appears that the question of the alleged flooding of the wharves and islands at Stony Lake has not been settled to the satisfaction of the summer residents there yet, and the Examiner learns that a complaint was sent to the Department of Public Works, of the Dominion Government, after the matter had been submitted first to the Department of Railways and Canals, and those advocating the lowering of the water had been given to understand that their request would not be granted to the extent asked for.

Yesterday Mr. W. J. Fuller, of Toronto, an engineer in the employ of the Department of Public Works, in its Toronto branch, arrived in the city, having been instructed by the head of the department to proceed to Peterborough and Stony Lake and report on the conditions of these two places. Mr. Fuller was interviewed at the Oriental Hotel last night by the Examiner, and stated that complaints, not in the name of the Cottagers Association, but by private individuals, had been made to the department with which he is connected, that the water at Stony Lake was kept at a height which made it injurious to the interests of that department, in that the wharves, which are under the control of that department were being damaged. Mr. Fuller was not at liberty to mention the name of the person who made the complaint, but stated that he believed the writer was one of those who owned a cottage at the lake.

His duties here are to investigate the matter fully, and impartially, and to present a report to his chief. He explains that while the water, under ordinary circumstances, is controlled by the Department of Railways and Canals, in the interests of navigation, in this case, since the wharves, which are constructed by the Department of Public Works, and maintained by that Department, it has an interest since the wharves are being flooded, and in case it can be shown that, without a greater advantage having been given to the navigation interests of the country than that represented by having the wharves well above water, the water would have to be lowered. In this case, however, it will have to be established that these wharves are really being injured.

Mr. Fuller expects that he will be engaged in his investigations during the rest of the week, and may perhaps have to spend part of next week in his work, as he is instructed to make a complete survey of the situation, and be prepared to report fully on the matter. He was not prepared, as yet, to make any statement, as to what the nature of his report would be. He had seen a number of those affected yesterday, in Peterborough, and after he returns from the Lakes he will again spend a few days here interviewing the power owners, steamboat men, etc., and will, after he has learned all the facts in connection with the matter, submit his report.

The Department of Public Works, of the Dominion, has been divided into a number of districts, the centre of one of these districts being at Toronto, and the man in charge of that branch, Mr. J. G. Sing, who, with a staff of four men, attends to the work in a district which extends on the north and west to the Rainy River District, and includes the Sault, in which section there has been considerable work done recently.

Mr. Fuller explained in an interesting manner the methods by which the public works, which are composed, practically altogether of the wharves and harbour works of the Dominion, are constructed. When a petition is presented by a member of Parliament for a new wharf or improvements to the same, it is handed over to the chief engineer, after the appropriation has been made for the work, and he in turn hands the supervision of the work over to the chief engineer in the district in which the work is to be done.

VERY SAD CASE OF DESTITUTION

English Family of Ten Were in Starving Condition.

Cared for at the Children's Aid Shelter Father Resides in Campbellford.

A particularly sad case of destitution was brought to light on Monday evening, when an English family of nine children and their mother arrived at the G. T. R. station from Port Hope, in a starving condition, having had nothing to eat since Sunday at noon.

The family, whose name is Stitson, had just arrived from England, and were on their way to Campbellford, where the father has resided since his arrival from England, about two years ago, with another son, a lad of eleven years.

The children range in age from 1 1-2 to 14 years, and accompanied by their mother, were taken to the Children's Aid Shelter, where they were fed and cared for, through the offices of Mrs. Peter Campbell the treasurer of the Children's Aid Society, and Mrs. William Lloyd, of the Salvation Army. The family were lodged for the night at the Shelter and left upon the morning train for Campbellford, where Mr. Stitson has prepared a home since his arrival in this country. One daughter, eighteen years of age, remained in England. The children were particularly bright and intelligent looking notwithstanding the discomforts and privations which they had passed through.

CONSTRUCTION OF NEW OPERA HOUSE PROCEEDING RAPIDLY

The work of the construction of the new opera house is proceeding rapidly, and will, it is expected, be completed at a date which will permit the booking of an entire season of high class performances.

The entirely inadequate facilities for the production of anything in the way of a high class theatrical performance, has for many years deprived the pleasure loving public of what they might reasonably claim in a city of Peterborough's proportions, as their just due. The necessity for no other public building has perhaps been so keenly felt. For many years the construction of a new and suitable building has been in contemplation, but but the scheme never got farther than a speculative stage, until taken up by the present promoters, through whose energy the work will be prosecuted to a speedy conclusion.

The work upon the superstructure will be commenced during the present week, the stone work of the foundation now having been practically completed.

The contract for the brick work of the building has been placed in the hands of Mr. J. J. MacPherson, and this portion of the construction will, it is expected, be concluded in about six weeks.

The Examiner to-day presents a view of the front elevation of the building, reduced from the architect's plans, which provide for a very handsome building, both as to exterior and interior, and will be a credit to Peterborough.

Red Hot Flashes Off the Wires—Canadian and Foreign Despatches.

An Investigation.

The Ontario Government has decided to have a full investigation into the Dulmage outrage committed by a so-called vigilance committee at Wheatley.

Drowned in Weeds.

Ollie Kindler, of Cleveland, Ohio, visiting Chatham, went bathing in water full of weeds. When his body was recovered it was literally entwined in the deadly grasses.

Haying at Midnight.

Owing to the bright moonlight prevailing in Sussex and Kent, England, all the week, says the London Daily Mail of the 14th, it was possible for the farmers to continue hay-making to midnight.

Waterloo's By-laws.

The ratepayers voted on the following by-laws here. Three thousand dollars for improvements to the town and fire halls, carried by a majority of five votes; $2,000 debentures for park purposes was defeated by a majority of forty-two; to combine water and light commissions, carried by a majority of fifty-six.

A Cow Did It

About 6.50 last evening a freight traion on the Midland division of the G. T. R. was wrecked about a mile east of Atherley Junction, two cows causing the wreck. One cow went under the engine. The engine was ditched and badly broken. The rails were twisted and the ties torn up. The train crew jumped and escaped injury.

Good Apple Crop.

It is stated with confidence by leading apple buyers that Colborne, Ont., alone will have from 100,000 to 125,000 barrels of apples for shipment, all the product of local growers. In addition there will be the usual large quantity sent to Colborne for storage in the warehouses, which now have a capacity for 75,000 barrels.

A Rancher's Death.

Alexander Deutchman, a wealthy farmer at Willow Creek, and former private banker in Oregon, who came here recently, was trampled to death by wild range cattle while attempting to drive them from his crop a week ago Sunday. The body has only just been discovered, and it was so decomposed that it had to be interred here. The family is still in Oregon. An inquest was held.

A Narrow Escape.

While Fred McCarthy, Pere Marquette agent at Pelton, was returning from Walkerville to his depot on a hand car late at night, he collided head on with a fast westbound freight. He was thrown to one side and escaped the wheels. It was nine o'clock the next morning before he regained consciousness. He received injuries from which it is feared that he cannot recover.

Those Bad Americans.

A correspondent writing to the Paris, Ont., Star-Transcript, from ford, says that advantage is being taken of the fine roads there by visiting American automobilists, to run at a speed that threatens life and limb. The other day an auto going forty miles an hour killed a valuable dog and caused a team to run away and smash a wagon. Farmers along the road threaten to "arm themselves with shot guns and bring some of these American gentlemen to a standstill."

Grand Falls Enterprise.

Attorney-General Pugsley of New Brunswick, when in St. John the other day, was interviewed by the Sun on the Grand Falls enterprise, which is to involve an expenditure of $11,000,000, and employ several thousand people. He expressed the hope that a start will be made before the end of the year. Pulp and paper mills are to be started and 60,000 horse power developed. The promoters are New Yorkers.

MELANCHOLY?

JAPAN DEMANDS LARGE INDEMNITY

But Japan's Peace Delegates Hope for Peace —Armies Seven Miles Apart—Baron Komura, Who Has Arrived at New York, Confident of Terms Being Made and That Within a Month the War Will be Declared at an End—Probability of Armistice—A Million Per Day.

New York, July 26.—That Japan will demand an indemnity from Russia in the negotiations for peace, and that the war will be declared at an end at the conclusion of the negotiations at Portsmouth, N. H., next month, is the belief of Baron Komura, head of the Japanese peace mission, as voiced by Almar Sato, official spokesman for the baron. The party arrived here yesterday.

Mr. Sato, in an interview last night, said: "I am confident that peace will be successfully negotiated by the appointed delegations. The Japanese will be guided by moderation, and no excessive demands will be made, but the sentiment in Japan and Russia is for peace, and in the interests of humanity and propriety there must be peace.

"The cost to Japan, however, has been great. On both sides the loss has been 570,000 men, of which Russia lost 370,000. The war is costing Japan one million dollars a day, and there is a feeling that there ought to be an indemnity."

Asked as to the probability of an armistice, Mr. Sato said that that probability would be among the first questions the plenipotentiaries would consider. Based on previous treaty negotiations, Japan will make the demands for Russia's consideration he said. The peace terms were formulated by the Emperor of Japan and his council.

Witte Is Welcomed.

Of the attitude of the Japanese plenipotentiaries toward the Russian delegates, Mr. Sato said: "We admire M. Witte and Baron Rosen. The announcement of M. Witte's appointment was more welcome to us than that of any other person could have been. We recognize him as a great statesman."

Of the future of China, Mr. Sato said: "If the central Government could work in harmony with the district or Provincial Governments, China would become a great power, but at present that seems to be impossible." Japan's attitude toward China was most friendly, and she felt that it was more or less under Japan's protection. This protection, by way of illustration, Mr. Sato said, was "not so strong over China as that of the United States over South America."

Mr. Sato emphasized the announcement made frequently before, that Japan does not seek territorial agrandisement, saying: "We want in Manchuria equal opportunity, or what Mr. Hall called "the open door."

Japan Over Populated.

Mr. Sato said Japan is over populated, and that in the opening up of Manchuria and Corea, an attractive field for immigration would be nearer home than those offered in Hawaii or this continent.

Mr. Sato said that while a desire for peace was the sentiment of Japan it was not a desire for peace at any price. "Japan is in a prosperous condition at present," he said, "and the war taxes do not fall heavily upon the people yet. There has already been subscribed $250,000,000 to a new internal loan, and our prosperity is further indicated in the success of our foreign loans."

America An Ally.

As to Japan's attitude toward America, Mr. Sato laughingly asked: "You mean the yellow peril," and then continued enthusiastically: "We are almost boyish in our enthusiasm and friendship for America. While we are friendly with China as Orientals, our greatest friends are England and America. We regard America as an ally without a treaty."

Baron Komura and his party arrived at Jersey City early yesterday from Chicago, and proceeded at once to the Waldorf Astoria, where they will be quartered until the baron's departure for Portsmouth. The baron met his colleague on the commission, Kogoro Takahira, Minister at Washington.

College Chums.

Oyster Bay, July 26.—Baron Komura, the principal peace envoy of Japan, probably will call on President Roosevelt this week at Sagamore Hill.

Both the president and Baron Komura are graduates at Harvard, and, having become personally acquainted with each other several years ago, have some personal matters in common. The call of Baron Komura on the president, if made, will be entirely informal Witte's Farewells.

Paris, July 26.—M. Witte yesterday made his parting calls on Premier Rouvier, other Government officials and the diplomatic corps, preparatory to sailing from Cherbourg for New York on the Kaiser Wilhelm de Grosse today.

Cassini Is Quoted Again.

New York, July 26.—Count Cassini, formerly Russian Ambassador at Washinton, expresses the opinion, according to The Herald's Paris correspondent, that all now depends on the Japanese, and that if their demands at the coming peace conference are reasonable peace is assured.

QUIET THREE MONTHS.

Russ and Jap Armies Make Small Weekly Lists of Killed, Wounded or Captured.

Fusan, July 26.—The past three months with both armies has been the most quiet period of the entire war. There has been no engagements at the front, the only encounters being those of reconnoitering expeditions sent out by both armies with a small total of losses.

The Russian and Japanese lines are seven miles apart. The Russians maintain a screen of cavalry outposts, some miles in front of their trenches to guard attacks. Reconnoitering forces from both sides traverse the neutral zone, frequently feeling the strength of the others at the front and making a small weekly list of killed, wounded and captured.

The fight reported on Friday was the first worthy of mention, which has occurred east of the railway. Two Russian reconnoitering forces approached the Japanese line, one about twenty miles, the other seventy miles east of the railway. The first contingent consisted of two squadrons of cavalry, the second of two battalions of infantry. Both retired after brief encounters.

Russians Loss 100.

The Japanese sustained no losses, but those of the Russians are supposed to have been nearly 100.

In the first encounter, the Russian cavalry, with its front side a thousand metres long, advanced upon the Japanese line until it came under fire, when it retired in confusion and the infantry advanced. The Japanese fired 40 rounds with a captured Russian battery, when the Russians retired, the Japanese following them for ten miles.

Enemy Dislodged.

Tokio, July 26.—An official report from the headquarters of the Japanese army in Northern Corea, says:

"On Monday, July 24, the army succeeded in dislodging the enemy from the neighborhood of Putu and Paryong and occupied a line to the orthward."

Reinforcements For Linevitch.

St. Petersburg, July 26.—Reinforcements for Gen. Linevitch are steadily being forwarded. Thirteenth army corps, the headquarters of which are at Smolensk, will leave for the front next week.

RUSSIFICATION OF POLAND.

Polish Better Classes Petition the Committee of Ministers.

St. Petersburg, July 26.—Three hundred leading representatives of the better classes in Poland to-day presented a memorandum to the committee of Ministers appealing against the policy of the Government looking to the Russification of Poland.

Riots in Caucasus.

St. Petersburg, July 26.—Disturbances resulting from strikes are reported from several places in the Caucasus. During a conflict between Cossacks and a mob in Perm the Cossacks fired, killing two and wounding many.

Strike On in Warsaw.

Warsaw, July 26.—Four thousand workmen in the Warsaw Iron Works and 5,000 in the Dombrows Steel Works struck yesterday for higher wages. The striking bakers destroyed a baker shop in Grochowska street, and in the disturbance which followed one person was killed.

FOR CHANGE OF ROUTE.

St. John Valley Said to Offer Better Grade and Trade.

Ottawa, July 26.—The New Brunswick delegation in connection with the route of the National Transcontinental Railway through the Province, met Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. W. S. Fielding and Hon. H. R. Emmerson yesterday forenoon. Senator Thompson and Mr. Carvell were the principal speakers.

A petition by F. B. Carvell, M. P., Senator Thompson, Senator Ellis, Senator Domville, Senator Wark, O. Turgeon, M. P., James Reid, M. P., and O. J. Leblanc, M. P., was presented to the Government, which set forth that the question to be decided was by which route the greatest amount of traffic could be conducted for a given amount of money. The central route was circuitous in order to obtain the necessary grades. It was lengthened for this purpose by at least forty-five miles between Grand Falls and Chipman, in excess of the actual distance between these points.

On the other hand, the St. John Valley route, which the delegation wanted the Government to adopt, offered a down-grade of two lengths of 1 per cent. going east from Grand Falls to Fredericton, and practically a level grade from thence to Moncton. The local traffic on the valley route would make it a paying investment. To secure the advantages to Canadian ports over Portland, the route which offered the least resistance to transportation, should be selected. The Premier promised to look into the whole question.

C. P. R. Conductor Fined.

Moosejaw, July 26.—Conductor S. D. McMicken of the C. P. R. was prosecuted before a magistrate here on a charge of theft of $3 in fares. He was fined $30 and $100 costs, or imprisonment for one month.

OBSTRUCTION IN BRITISH COMMONS

John Redmond Leads Obstruction in House of Commons.

STORMY SESSION TUESDAY

Mr. Balfour Has a Majority of 60, But Redmond's Action Delays For a Year Twenty-Seven Private Bills Affecting Large Public and Private Works—Closure Was Frequently Used.

London, July 26.—The members of the Opposition in the House of Commons, practically led by John Redmond, the Nationalist leader, who was the mainspring of the recent defeat of the Government, yesterday inaugurated their threatened plan of making Government business impossible, and, in pursuance of which, they managed to keep the House in stormy session until 3 o'clock this morning, compelling Premier Balfour to have constant recourse to closure as the only means of advancing business.

Supporters of the Government, warned by the recent disaster, loyally stood by Mr. Balfour, maintaining a majority in the neighborhood of 60.

One phase of Mr. Redmond's obstructionist tactics is likely to arouse great resentment.

It consisted in blocking private bills for enterprise promoted at vast expense by municipalities and commercial companies, for public works, such as railroads and tramways.

No less than 27 such bills were blocked yesterday, the effect being to delay their operation for a whole year.

Quarrel Ends Fatally.

Toronto, July 26.—As a sequence to a quarrel with his wife, William J. Poggense, aged 27, of 97 Hanbury avenue, hanged himself yesterday morning. His wife discovered the body when she returned to the house for her belongings.

DR. HUGO'S Health Tablets for Women

THEY MAKE HEALTHY WOMEN

B.N. ROBINSON & CO. COATICOOK, QUE.

A Medicine Just for Women.

It is common sense that women need different medicine than men. Their peculiar organism requires it.

Medicines, sold alike for men and women, never contain what will do a woman the most good, that is, the uterine and other female tonics. Such medicines may relieve for a little but that is all. They do not cure, because they do not reach the cause of nine-tenths of the ills of women.

Women need a remedy compounded for their special needs. Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women are such a medicine.

This is a special remedy, compounded by a specialist for a special purpose. The specialist is Dr. Hugo, of Paris, who perhaps knows more about the needs of women to-day than any other living physician. Its special purpose is to cure the ills of women and them alone. It is not for men.

Any sick or run-down woman, no matter what the cause, will positively get more benefit from one box of these tablets than from a dozen boxes or bottles of any remedy sold indiscriminately for men and women both, which does not contain the special uterine and other female tonics her system requires.

And it takes but one box to prove our statement. Improvement is noticed the first week.

JOLLY CAMP OF TORONTO LADIES

"Crusoe Club" of Toronto Have Enjoyable Time at the Lakes.

Interesting Personal News From the Land of Kawartha.

Miss Elsie Taylor, Toronto, is the guest of Miss Mollie Meldrum at "Cairnhu."

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. McWilliams came up yesterday to spend a holiday on the lake.

Miss Alice Kennedy, Burleigh, has returned home after a visit with friends at Young's Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Murts, of Rochester, are at South Beach, Clear Lake, for two weeks.

Mr. W. E. Brooks, the genial proprietor of South Beach, went round the lakes yesterday, accompanying a number of his summer guests.

Mr. Arthur Mann, who is summering at Mr. E. Shortly's cottage, was the proud capturer recently of a 15½-2 pound lunge near the head of Stony Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren and family, Lakefield, are spending a week at Mr. J. P. Strickland's cottage, "Wabuno."

Mr. Chas. Lean, Rochester, is a guest at South Beach.

Miss Bertha Mason, Toronto, is staying with her friend Miss Acton, at "Chateau du Lac."

Mr. J. P. Strickland went down the lake yesterday.

Miss Gertrude Young, Peterborough, and Mr. Leo Young, Toronto, are camping on Juniper Island for two weeks. They will soon be reinforced by new arrivals.

Mr. and Mrs. Child are stopping at Mount Julian for a few days.

Mr. S. C. Payne and family, Cleveland, are guests at the Victoria House.

The "Crusoe Club," which is composed entirely of Toronto young ladies, has been camping on Bevenley Island for the past three weeks. The following members of the club have taken a vacation there:—Misses Carrie, Bertha, and Libbie Chipman, Mabel and Audrey Evenden, Alice Hudden, Myra Hawes, Gertrude and Alice Harris, Gertrude and Jessie Herin, and Elsie Matthews. The girls report that the fishing in the neighbourhood of the island has been most promising, Miss Chapman, one of the number, having the good fortune to haul out a 20 pound "herrin" which by chance of perhaps misdirance had suddenly appeared "off" the island. Some are inclined to doubt the possibility of catching such a fish in Stony Lake, but the girls affirm the truth of the above statement and state they have had "herrin" for three meals each day since the time of this capture.

Mr. J. J. Lundy and Mr. E. A. Peck have returned home after a week's outing at Mr. R. Lundy's cottage.

A pleasing concert was given last night at the Victoria House by the male quartette who are stopping there. Among the beautifully rendered songs were the old favourites, "Way Down Yonder in the Corn Fields," "In the Evening by the Moonlight," and "Madeline." After the concert a very enjoyable dance was indulged in by a number of the guests.

Mr. C. M. Roger has returned home from the lakes.

Miss Georgina Stewart, Peterborough, is at the lake for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wasson, Warsaw, are spending a week with their daughter, Mrs. W. A. Sanderson, at Bonchink.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin came up to Headlands yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ball and niece, Miss Cowtan, Toronto, have returned home after a week's vacation at the Victoria House.

Mr. Jack Gorham came up to the lakes yesterday.

Mr. E. M. Best has returned home after a short outing at the lakes.

Miss B. Costello is the guest of Miss Gertrude Young at Juniper island camp.

Mr. F. D. Kerr came down from the lakes yesterday.

Mr. Fred Craig has returned home after spending a week at Mr. Bennet's cottage, Bonchink.

Mr. Donner and his two sons, of Pittsburg, Pa., who have been staying at the Victoria House for a time have returned home. The evening previous to their departure they were successful in getting two fine lunge, the first they had ever seen.

When You Buy, Buy Right.

When you buy Ozone, buy "Solution of Ozone" (the coupon kind.) It is the strongest and purest Ozone on the market. It is sold as a commercial product at reasonable rates so that you get about twice as much as other brands. Also each bottle contains a coupon which entitles you to a package of "Celery King," the well known remedy which must always be taken with Ozone.

No other brand of Ozone gives you an opportunity to get the "Celery King" free. We own "Celery King" and that is why we can give it with our Ozone.

"Solution of Ozone" (the coupon kind) contains about twice as much or your money as any other kind. It also furnishes you with "Celery King" for nothing. Insist on getting it from your druggist or write the Public Drug Co., Bridgeburg, Ont., who will see that you are supplied. Sold by W. B. Warne.

HOT WEATHER, NERVOUS WOMEN.

BLANCHE GREY.

MISS BLANCHE GREY, a prominent young society woman of Memphis, Tenn., in a recent letter from 174 Alabama street, says:

"To a society woman whose nervous force is often taxed to the utmost from lack of rest and irregular meals, I know of nothing which is of so much benefit as Peruna. I took it a few months ago when I felt my strength giving way, and it soon made itself manifest in giving me new strength and health."—Blanche Grey.

Peruna is without an equal as a nerve tonic and vital invigorator.

Buy a bottle of Peruna. If you do not receive all the benefits from Peruna that you expected, write to Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O.

Mr. Wm. Campbell took a round trip passage on the steamer Empress yesterday.

The "No Kix Go Club," by their geniality, have made themselves very popular among the people at the lake. Their outing is too brief to accommodate all the parties who wish to be entertained by their superior orchestra. On Monday evening the boys entertained a large audience at Fort Royal, Mr. A. L. Dunford's cottage, all of whom are profuse in their eulogy of the members of the club. Among the excellent selections given by the orchestra were "Teasing," "Coax Me," "Tipit Canoe," and a number of others from the Opera, "Babes in Toy Land," all of which were well received and heartily applauded by the assembly. After the concert delightful refreshments were served in the spacious dining hall of "Fort Royal." The club is very loud in its praise of the courtesy shown them by the host and would be very much pleased to repeat their visit there would time permit.

Mr. S. M. Sterling, Toronto, is at the Victoria House. He is a brother of Mr. F. Sterling, who has been spending the summer there.

An instrct show will be given in the Juniper Island pavilion to-night. The affair is arousing considerable interest, and will no doubt draw a large attendance.

SABBATH BREAKING IN NORTHERN WOODS

Correspondent Alleges That Hunting is Indulged In.

A correspondent from Cannicarde writes the Examiner complaining of Sunday hunting. He says there is considerable hunting done of Sunday in the northern part of Peterborough county and desires to see it stopped, and he asks the Examiner to call the attention of the proper authorities to the conditions that prevail.

MAGISTRATE WILL DEMAND A THOUSAND

Has Been Accepting a Lower Salary Than Required.

The following is an extract from the Lindsay Post, which goes to show that to economize is a hard thing for their Council:

"It is just possible that Mayor Ray's dream of a 29 mills reduced rate may be dispelled before long. We are informed that Mr. Wm. Steers, who served five years as a Police Magistrate of Lindsay at a salary of $800 per year, has "discovered" that his good-natured acceptance of that amount instead of $1,000, the salary mentioned in the statutes was ultra vires, and that in reality he was committing a wrongful act in thus divesting himself of a portion of the perquisites attached to the position. Such being the case, Mr. Steers has decided to bow to the inevitable, and has, we are informed, made a demand upon the Council for the amount of the difference—something like $1,000."

LUNACY RAMPANT IN ONTARIO

Latest Official Report Gives Interesting Facts on Subject.

Fourteen Insane Persons for Every 5,000 of the Population.

Toronto, July 27.—"It will be seen that, so far as the figures are evidence, there were in 1834 eight insane persons to every 5,000 of the population; and that in 1904 there are 14 insane persons to every 5,000 of the population. If there were little or no change in the ratio it might be assumed that there was no reliable evidence of its increase, but the increase is so great that there is only one conclusion to be arrived at, and that is, that, whatever be the cause, insanity is increasing in Ontario more rapidly than the population."

So states Mr. Christie, in his annual report, just published of Lunatic and Idiot Asylums. In the year ending September 30, 1904, the number of lunacies admitted was 870 and of idiots 43, a total of 913. During the previous year the total was 889. In the 20 years there had been admitted 16,961, an average of 893 each year. The average daily population of the asylums had increased from 2,867 in 1884 to 5,180 in 1904.

The report devotes attention to the confinement of insane persons in the jails of the province. Representations had constantly been made previously in this connection, and public opinion recognizes, continues to be emphatically pronounced against the practice. He suggests that it would not be a measure of hardship or of excessive outlay to provide a contiguous building or annex accommodation to the jail for both male and female patients committed preliminary to their removal to an asylum. In November, 1904, out of a total of 66 lunatics in jails, 31 were selected for asylum care. It is stated that the present number in jails is 34.

The revenue for the year from asylums was $106,107.49. Twenty years ago it was $46,126.66. The average daily population increased 91 per cent., and the revenue 130 per cent. The total maintenance since Confederation reaches nearly 16 millions.

York county contributes the largest number of patients, 236; Middlesex comes next with 63, and Wentworth third with 48. Housekeepers head the list of occupations, 230 patients having succumbed to the monotony of the daily round. Labourers come next, with 194, and farmers close up with 182; domestic servants are next, with 46; clerks 14 and carpenters 13.

Of mental causes of insanity, worry comes first with 76 cases, domestic troubles 43; adverse circumstances 36, fright and shock 23, love affairs 18, religious excitement 7, intemperance in drink heads the list of physical causes, with 59; overwork being next, 37. The married admitted during the year were 562; the unmarried, 496. Among the religions the Methodists lead with 224, the next Catholics following with 183.

The annual reports of the several superintendents are appended, and much interesting material is contained in the 286 pages of the report. The fact that the patients perform an immense amount of work, building, repairing, farming, gardening, and in other ways, about the institutions, is fully evident.

JOHN MULHALL PAYS A HEAVY FINE

On a Charge of Being Drunk and Disorderly Yesterday.

The only case to occupy His Worship's attention this morning was that against John Mulhall, of Lakefield, charged with being drunk and disorderly in a public place. Mulhall formerly belonged to town, and was one of the boat ball players on the Rowal team, for which he held down second base.

John was in the city yesterday and indulged too freely in the flowing bowl. He went to McCollum Bros' livery yesterday and hired a horse to drive to Lakefield. The horse was harnessed, but it was then noticed that Mulhall was under the influence, and accordingly the horse was unhitched. Mulhall now got troublesome and wanted to fight. He used some strong language, and at last got Le Bar, who was in charge of the stable, cornered. A fight ensued in which Mulhall got his right eye decorated, and his clothes in a rather dilapidated condition. During the fight Le Bar got a kick which resulted in him getting a broken rib.

The magistrate told John that his conduct had been very bad, and a fine of $5 and $4.60 costs to be paid forthwith was imposed, or 30 days in default of payment.

Mulhall said he would pay the fine in the course of an hour.

Inducements to Poultry Men.

Splendid inducements are held out to poultry breeders by the Central Canada Exhibition Association Ottawa Fair, September 8th to 15th. New regulations in the interests of poultrymen have been passed and the prize list increased. Among the new regulations is one that no person will be allowed into the building during the cooping, which will take place at 4.30 on Friday, the 15th. A selling class has also been added and the Ottawa Poultry Association is offering fifteen silver engraved spoons for competition. Those who have not yet exhibited at the Ottawa Fair, may well give it a trial this year.

St. Thomas' Street Railway.

St. Thomas was virtually forced some time ago into the purchase of its local street railway, and there were not wanting ratepayers who predicted absolute failure under municipal management. But the present situation is that the city has turned the corner with its property, and is now realizing on it, although reconstruction burdens have not yet ceased. The outlook is of the brightest, the growth of the city assuring a corresponding growth in receipts.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-west Provinces, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him.

Homestead Duties.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If the father has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector.

Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.

THE INSPECTOR'S REPORT.

The confidential report of the Inspector of Public Schools, was presented at the last meeting of the Board of Education, and it was then understood that certain extracts from the report were to be given to the press for publication. These extracts have now been submitted to the papers of the town, and the Examiner publishes them to-day. Doubtless they will make very interesting reading, particularly for those who have children attending the Public Schools of the city.

The Inspector calls attention to the fact that the school buildings possessed by the city are inadequate, and refers to the crowding in the South Central School, where, in some cases there are as many as seventy-five pupils in one room, whereas there should not be more than forty-five at the outside. The condition of the West Ward School, which is described as poor, is referred to.

A commendation of the system adopted by the Board a year ago in the school buying the books, and charging each pupil a small fee to cover the cost of the same, is embodied in this report, and the Inspector says that it has worked satisfactorily, and compliments the Board on the wisdom of the decision made by them at the time that the system was adopted. It was to be expected that such a radical change would, as a matter of course, arouse some opposition at first, but the small amount that has developed has been a pleasant surprise, both to the Inspector and to the Board.

In speaking of the conduct of the pupils, the statement is made in the report that in school, generally, the discipline is good, but the inference is, that out of school hours, the conduct of the children attending the schools, is hardly up to the mark, and the Inspector holds the opinion that the teachers might be more vigilant to note, without appearing to do so, the actions of the pupils at all times. The enrolment this year is an increase over that of last year, except for June, when, by reason of an epidemic of measles and chicken-pox, the attendance was smaller.

Speaking of that troublesome factor in every school, the truant, the inspector remarks that truancy is the result of bad management, either at home or in school, and believes that the crowded condition of the schools has considerable to do with the fact that boys have an inclination to "skip" school.

The fact that there is not, in the school buildings, a teacher's library, is regarded by the inspector as one to be regretted. His idea is that this library should include books for reference, advanced text books and more particularly standard authorities on methods in teaching, which the Board can hardly expect the teachers to purchase for themselves, but which would be of very material assistance to them in their work. The deficiency shown by pupils in arithmetic is deplored by the inspector, and he says that in this subject the results do not appear to be all commensurate with the time spent in teaching the subject. He also suggests that some instruction in music be introduced in the schools of the city, in the belief that the teaching of this subject leads to culture on the part of the one taught.

In speaking of the important question of writing, Mr. Walker refers to the revival of the slant system of writing and the discarding of the vertical, which he believes is a desirable feature. Altogether the report is one which will be read with considerable interest by the parents of school children, and all who are interested in school matters.

THE GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC.

It is estimated that the Grand Trunk Pacific will require 10,500,000 ties, nearly 500,000 tons of rails, 42,000,000 spikes, 5,000,000 bolts, 2,500,000 angle bars and fish plates, guards and tie plates also in the millions, says the Hamilton Times. It is estimated 500 locomotives, 30,000 freight cars, and 500 passenger cars will be required, besides bridge timber and steel, stations, telephones, and telegraphs, water tanks, terminal facilities, fencing, etc. That means work. Think of the figures in detail. The ties placed end to end would reach over 16,900 miles. If a man undertook to handle the 60,000,000 odd spikes, bolts, fish-plates, etc., required for the track, at the rate of one a second, working ten hours a day, the job would last about five years and four months. The building of stations, round houses, etc., will employ a small army of mechanics. The demand for locomotives and cars will try the capacity of our shops. The grading and track laying alone will mean labour for thousands. It is a vast work, and will increase by over 20 per cent. the railway mileage of Canada. Its effect on settlement and the development of our country's industries will be in proportion to its magnitude. The next twenty years will be important ones in the onward progress of the Dominion.

CONCLUSION OF Y. M. C. A. CAMP

Boys Returned to City on the Morning Train.

Last Days of the Camp Passed Off Pleasantly—Boys Look Well After Their Outing.

July 26, 1905.—The Y. M. C. A. Camp concluded to-day according to schedule, and the jolly party of boys returned to the city on the morning train, all looking well browned and hearty.

We left Sandy Point at 7.30 and came down on Stony Lake to Lakefield.

The events of the last two days of the camp only remain to be narrated here, and they were by all odds the climax of the camp festivities.

Bright and early on Monday a royal send-off was given to the visitors who came up on Saturday night.

The entire morning was spent in baseball, when the two remaining games of the league were played. The team captained by Dawe finally won. They succeeded in capturing 8 out of 9 games, losing one to Dobbin's men.

Wood's team added another to their unbroken list of defeats, taking their reverses in a manner which won them the praise of every baseball enthusiast.

Three cheers for the winners and the umpire and the demolition of the watermelon by the "Dawes" marked the close of a most successful league.

The afternoon was occupied with the field sports in which all but Huddy participated. He had an urgent call to Juniper to get a letter from the city.

Races of all kinds were indulged in, some of which produced considerable amusement. The old men's race was a tie between "Pop" and "Jim Flynn."

The biscuit race was a choker.

100 yards dash.
Class 1—Ed. Wood, F. Hall.
Class 2—W. Fortye, S. Madill.
Class 3—F. Patterson, W. English.

200 yards dash.
Ed. Wood, F. Hall.

Wheelbarrow race.
Class 1—Wallace and Dawe.
Class 2—Fortye and H. Wallis.

Three-legged race.
Wallace and Dawe.
Class 2—English Bros.

Potatoe race.
Class 1—F. Hall.
Class 2—J. English.
Class 3—F. Patterson.

Biscuit race—Geo. Martin.

Cork-screw race—A. Wood.

Monday night was spent in a most profitable way when a moot was conducted aroung the camp fire, the subject was "The Choice of an Occupation." Nearly all the boys took part in the discussion, and some very practical suggestions were given, which will no doubt be of value to the campers in after days.

A wild cat has been making the night horrible quite new to the camp and striking terror among the younger fellows. Bell went to the spring to-day and declares he saw the brute. He came back in great haste.

Tuesday, which was excursion day, was begun with the holding of the closing Bible study of the camp, which was taken by Mr. Holmes, the subject being "The Manly Man and His Demand of Self."

After an hurried breakfast, the Stony Lake was in waiting to convey the boys on the round trip of the lakes.

Several hours were spent at Burleigh locks, where took Arnott took the crowd over to the huckleberry patch, and every one revelled in berries for a couple of hours.

A snack dinner was eaten on the shore which the boys pronounced the best yet.

Dutton and several others took a trip on a log, and the captain fell in up to the neck and had to be dried out with the aid of sun and steamer.

Then all got on board again and for two hours more a delightful sail was enjoyed to Boschink, McCracken's, and other points, arriving back to camp again about 3 o'clock.

In the twilight Mr. Holmes gave an exhibition of "First aid in case of a drowning accident." The lecture was a very practical one, and information was given which every boy should know.

A mock police court followed, and provoked several hours of merriment. Bright fires blazed in front of each tent while the occupants sought to warm up for the last night of the camp of 1905.

In this our last letter we wish to thank the friends who have so kindly contributed to the camp either in treats or in other ways.

GAME COMMISSION MET YESTERDAY

Mr. W. H. Casement, of Lakefield, Attended the Meeting.

The Ontario Game Commission held a session at the Toronto City Hall, yesterday morning, at which it was expected that a number of enthusiastic hunters and fishermen would gear to suggest amendments to the game law, but only one gentleman appeared, Mr. A. C. Pratt, of Norfolk county.

Mr. Pratt suggested that the running of ducks should be prohibited; that the use of pumps and automatic guns should also be declared illegal.

Mr. Pratt was also desirous to have the running of deer by dogs and the killing of deer in the water, prohibited.

In a discussion which followed, the members of the commission took a view rather opposed to Mr. Pratt's opinions, but promised to hear further evidence on the subject.

In view of the lack of interest apparent in the meetings of the commission some discussion took place on the advisability of holding further meetings. It was eventually decided to hold meetings at Windsor, Port Arthur, North Bay and Ottawa towards the end of August.

The commissioners present were: Messrs. H. S. Osler, Toronto, chairman; S. Buchanan, Windsor, J. E. Thompson, Arnprior; and W. H. Casement, Lakefield.

DISASTROUS FIRE IN OTONABEE

Home of Major David Johnston Destroyed on Monday Night.

The home of Major David Johnston, lot 26, concession 9, Otonabee, about four miles from town, was on Monday evening completely destroyed by a conflagration which originated in a woodshed at the rear of the house.

The fire was discovered shortly after midnight by Major Johnston, who was awakened by the noise. The flames had then obtained a foothold which precluded any chance of extinguishing it, and the family, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, and three daughters, were compelled to make a hasty exit, clad only in their sleeping apparel.

The woodshed, containing a buggy and other property, was destroyed, although the barns, situated at a distance of about 150 feet, were saved.

The total loss is approximated at $3,000, the insurance being only $150, in the London Mutual. General regret is expressed at the Major's misfortune by his many friends. He is a highly esteemed officer of the 3rd dragoons, and had military equipment valued at $.00, destroyed in the blaze. The family has taken up residence on a nearby farm, which has been rented by Major Johnston.

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S QUEUE

It Hid a Luxuriant Suit of Straight and Very Dark Hair.

The Father of his Country concealed a luxuriant growth of hair beneath his queue wig. Many now wish the old fashion were in vogue, to conceal thin hair or baldness. Yet no one need have thin hair nor be bald if he cure the dandruff that causes both. Dandruff cannot be cured by scouring the scalp, because it is a germ disease and the germ has to be killed. Newbro's Herpicide kills the dandruff germ — no other hair preparation will. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect." There's no cure for dandruff but to kill the germ. Sold by leading druggists. Send ten cents in stamps for sample to the Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Ormond and Walsh, special agents.

Windsor's Weddings.

Windsor retains its reputation as a place for marriages. Clerk Listed's figures show 536 marriages for the six months ending June 30, with 170 births and 114 deaths. A good proportion of the would be married couples come from the United States side.

600 METHODISTS FROM OSHAWA

Excursion of Metcalf Street Methodist Sunday School.

Went up to Stony Lake This Morning —Some Remained in Town.

This morning a double header G.T.R. train brought about 600 passengers from Oshawa, the excursion being run by the Metcalf Street Methodist Sunday School of that progressive town. There were ten well filled coaches, many of them by children and a large number made Peterborough their destination. The majority, however, went on to Lakefield, where the "Stony Lake" was to take them on a trip around the lake, their destination being Burleigh Falls, where dinner would be served, and where they intended to stay for some hours, and afterwards a complete trip of the lake would be made.

The attractions of this region as an objective point for summer excursions have spread, and this summer has seen a greater number come here than has been the case in any previous year.

Use Lever's Dry Soap (a powder) to wash woolens and flannels,—you'll like it. 68

During hot weather, horses are liable to suffer from severe diarrhoea, which, if not checked, causes the animal's death. A number of animals in this district have died from this complaint. Dr. Poole, V. S., 420 Water street, Peterborough, has discovered a cure for the above, which, to prove his assertion, unless the animal recovers, he will charge nothing for his services. Owners of horses should take advantage of this offer. Telephone 459, or the above address, night or day. 12d16-2w

LARGE FAMILY WAS PHOTOGRAPHED

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Crowe, Dummer, and 14 Children Assembled To-day.

A family gathering of somewhat unusual proportions took place in the city to-day, when Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Crowe, of Dummer, and family of fourteen children, assembled for the purposed of being photographed.

Mr. and Mrs. Crowe, who were married 42 years ago, are in robust health notwithstanding their advanced years. The family of fourteen is constituted of nine daughters and five sons. A large group photograph was made at the Roy studio.

MR. McCLELLAND MAKES REPLY

To the Assertion That Town Clocks Are Incorrect.

Regarding the alleged trouble with the town clocks as reported in yesterday's Examiner by a local merchant, Mr. Chas. McClelland, the time-keeper of the clocks has the following to say:

That on the day in question, Monday, 25th June, his report shows that the Post Office clock was 10 seconds ahead of Standard time and the town clock 30 seconds behind Standard time. With outside clocks such as these, exposed as they are, to winds and rain, such a record as this is said to be remarkably good. So far as the alleged difference between the G.T.R. clock and the town clocks on the occasion mentioned, the caretaker has nothing to say, because he had nothing to do with the former.

POPULAR YOUNG MAN TO DEPART

Mr. W. E. Clarke, of R. Fair & Co. Staff, Will Leave on Tuesday.

The many friends in the city of Mr. M. E. Clarke, of R. Fair & Co's staff, will regret to learn of his coming departure to Chicago. Mr. Clarke has, during his residence of a year and a half here, made for himself a host of friends by his genial disposition and affable manner. He was a most valued member of Eko Camp as well as a member of other social and athletic societies. He will, after his departure on Tuesday next spend a holiday at Grand Bend on Lake Huron, before entering upon his new duties in Chicago.

To-morrow's Lacrosse Match.

The Petrborough-Oshawa lacrosse game has been postponed till 5 o'clock owing to the excursion going up the Lakes. The game takes place on Riverside Park.

Bowmanville vs. Peterborough.

The local lacrosse team left at 5 o'clock this morning by C.P.R. to Burketon. From Burketon they drove over to Bowmanville, where they are playing this afternoon. A win for the locals will give the boys the district championship.

A. O. F. HONOURS BRO. GEO. RECORD

On the Occasion of His Departure for North West.

Presented With Purse of Gold and Handsome Smoking Set.

There was a large attendance of the members of Court Stanley, Ancient Order of Foresters, at their hall last evening, the occasion being the presentation of a purse of gold to the retiring secretary, Bro. Geo. Record, who is leaving for the Northwest in a few days. After the usual business of the court, the district Chief Ranger, Bro. W. J. Johnston, took the chair and stated it was his pleasure to learn that several ladies of the sister court, Queen Alexandra 136, who were waiting outside the portal seeking admittance, had also a presentation to make to Bro. Record, he being their district Chief Companion.

The ladies of Court Alexandra then presented him wtih a beautiful smoking set.

The chairman expressed his regret at the parting with Bro. Record, the latter having been a leading worker of Court Stanley, also Queen Alexandra for a number of years. The speaker enumerated several anecdotes regarding the manner in which Bro. Record has filled his chair in the court. Bro. Record, on coming forward to the dias, was greatly affected by the kindness shown him.

He thanked the members of both courts, and said though leaving Court Stanley, it would always be in his mind, and that he would in spirit always be with them on the second and fourth Tuesdays in the month. As for the lady members of the Companion Court, he hardly knew what to say to them, not being much of a lady's man himself, though he had often been in danger of losing his heart whilst holding their chief companionship. He had felt always greatly relieved when the Companion's Court had finished their session, to escape heart whole. He was leaving Courts Stanley and Alexandra with the knowledge that whatever he had done was only in the order of his duty. Again thanking them, he withdrew to his chair. Several brothers then eulogized the work of Bro. Record, among these being Bros. Wilson, J. C. Hamilton, and Sisters Godsenough. The lady members then favoured the assembly with a musical selection, which brought the meeting to a close.

THE WHARF AT WOLFE STREET

Prospects for Early Commencement of Work.

Mr. W. J. Fuller Tells of Other Work to be Started.

The construction of the wharf at the foot of Lock street, will, in all probability, be proceeded with in the near future, at least this is the opinion expressed by Mr. W. J. Fuller, the engineer connected with the Public Works Department, who was in town yesterday on a visit of inspection of the conditions at Stony Lake. The preliminaries of the work have been taken up in the engineer's office, and the opinion is expressed by Mr. Fuller that in the near future the work will be proceeded with.

It will be remembered that some months ago, through the efforts of Mr. R. R. Hall, M.P., for West Peterborough, an amount was placed in the estimates for this work, which will prove of very decided advantage to the city, and its completion will be welcomed by all who are interested in navigation matters on the Otonabee.

Other works in this vicinity which Mr. Fuller is here in the interest of, are the construction of wharves at Bensfort, Dummitt's Landing, Rice Lake, and Crowe's Landing, Stony Lake. These works will be started at once, and will be done by day labour. The custom of the Department is to call for tenders for all work, the estimated cost of which is over $5,000, and works which cost less than that, are usually done by day labour, under the direction of a foreman, who is supposed to engage men, and carry the work on as economically as possible.

TELEPHONE TALKS.

TO TELEPHONE USERS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC,—

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF CANADA is a purely Canadian Company.

At the opening of the Parliamentary Committee statements were made by various witnesses, whose ignorance of the facts must be their only excuse, that a very considerable portion of the stock of the Company had been allotted to the American Bell Telephone Companies for patent rights which were now valueless and that the burden of paying dividends on such stock represented an annual tax of about $3.60 on every one of the Company's subscribers.

In the evidence before the Committee, both the testimony of the Officers and the complete records of the Company which were produced, proved the absolute falsity of such charges.

The facts are that with a total capital stock of $7,916,960.00 the Company's patent account stands at the inconsiderable sum of $70,000, every dollar of which represents not only full value in existing patents, but secures to the Company other important advantages to we shall refer later. For the present we merely emphasize that not one dollar of royalty or tribute is paid by the Company for patent or other rights.

With the exception of a trifling amount of stock issued to the American Company for the acquisition of valuable patent rights essential to the Company's existence at the date of organization, all of which has been written off as such patents expired, not one dollar of stock has been issued for patents.

The stock held by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company has been paid for in cash at or above par and the interest of that Company is purely that of a minority stockholder having no controlling voice in the management or policy of the Canadian Company.

Probably there is no large corporation doing business in Canada to-day of which the sentiment is so thoroughly Canadian as that of The Bell Telephone Company of Canada. It is entirely independent in its management and operations, as well as financially. The Company is officered almost exclusively by Canadians and those holding executive offices have, almost without exception, begun their business career in the service of the Company.

The list of shareholders shows that about eleven hundred persons hold stock in the Company, of whom over ninety per cent. are Canadians.

LATEST NEWS FROM OMEMEE

Funeral of the Late Mrs. Wm. Bradburn Largely Attended.

Omemee, July 26th. — There was never a more perfect season for the ripening of a grand harvest in every respect. The country looks beautiful.

If Peterborough citizens or tourists want a delightful drive let them come to Omemee.

There will be an ice cream social and raspberries on the beautiful lawn of Rev. William Johnston, Omemee, on Monday evening, July 31st. Addresses and readings will be interspersed by excellent instrumental duets by Prof. G. Norris and Mr. J. D. Thornton.

Our village fathers with a little enterprise and ambition, can make our village more attractive in many ways. Better fire protection is one of the needs of this place.

There is a good opening here now for a bandmaster, who would be willing to work at some light business.

There are many of our young men taking their departure to the Manitoba harvest fields.

There have been several new purchasers of threshing machines with "blowers" attached. Many farmers have also introduced hay loaders — all to save labour.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Wm. Bradburn, wife of Mr. W. Bradburn, merchant, was largely attended on Sunday last. She departed this life on July 21st, after a lingering illness, which was borne with Christian patience and fortitude. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Toamey. She leaves a husband, sister, and two brothers to mourn her loss.

BOWMANVILLE PLAYS LOCALS TO-MORROW

In Oshawa—An Excursion Has Been Arranged.

To-morrow the Peterborough baseball team journey to Oshawa to play a game with the much vaunted Bowmanville nine. The match is not a league game, but is to be played for a purse of $30, made up by the backers of the two teams. As great rivalry exists between the two aggregations, a hotly contested game is assured.

An excursion is being run to Oshawa and a good crowd is expected to accompany the locals.

The train leaves at one o'clock tomorrow afternoon and returns, leaving Oshawa at 6.30 or 7, reaching here about nine o'clock. This will allow about two extra hours for those willing to see the town.

DISPUTE ARISES OVER BALL GAME

Secretary of Lakefield Team Writes Regarding Game There.

A communication has been received by the Examiner from Mr. J. W. Moffatt, secretary of the Lakefield baseball club, with reference to the recent trip of the George street Guild team to that place. The article spoken of was published in the Examiner upon authority of members of the George street team, from whom it was received in good faith.

The letter is as follows:

Lakefield, July 25, 1905.

Dear Sir, — My attention has been called to an article in the Daily Examiner of July 20th. The article says that the George street baseball team came to this place to have a friendly game with the ball team here and that our team did not show up.

Permit me to state that this is not true. The Lakefield team did show up, and defeated the George street team by 16 runs to 2. The bad defeat of the George street team is the only reason that I know of for the circulation by them of such a report. I refer any person who doubts my word to Mr. J. W. Peacock, who umpired the game, or to Dr. S. J. Gibson, who kept the score. The Lakefield baseball team, do not intend to allow another team, seemingly not responsible for what they say, to take away their good name.

J. W. Moffatt,
Secretary Lakefield B. B. C.

LAWN TENNIS.

Miss Pearl Fairbairn defeated Miss Maude Dresser in the Ladies' Singles Tournament of the Nicholls Oval Tennis Club last evening, by a score of 6-2, 6-1.

BASEBALL.

Peterborough are now hot after the pennant since they are in second place. Would not be surprised if they did capture it after all, but keep your eye open for Bowmanville.—Lindsay Post.

* * *

A good game of baseball was played on the driving park last night when the Charlotte street Guild got their defeat by the Night Owls. The game was a close one all through the four innings played, through the Night Owls seemed to have the best of the play. The score was 2-1 in favour of the Night Owls. The lineup: Charlotte street Guild—Laing, McWilliams, Crowe, Roddy, A. Williams, Rhyan, Thornton, F. Roddy, Martin. The Night Owls — O'Brien, Lafave, Treanor, Adamson, Gordon, Dusty Billings, Campbell, A. Rishea. Umpire—James Murray.

LACROSSE.

The locals are playing in Bowmanville this afternoon.

AN ACCIDENT NEAR WARSAW

Mr. J. Fair, of the Bell Telephone Co., Injured.

Dr. Meacham Seriously Ill—Visitors at Warsaw—Other News.

From our Own Correspondent.

Warsaw, July 25.—Mr. T. J. Dean, of Norwood, was here on Wednesday on business.

Rev. J. E. Robeson, of Fraserville, spent a few days here last week visiting his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Wasson.

Miss Florence Snider who while visiting her sister, Mrs. O. A. Kidd, in Peterborough, was taken quite suddenly very seriously ill, has recovered and returned home on Tuesday.

Miss Lyle Calder, of Peterborough, is visiting relatives in the village.

Mr. W. McDonald, of Pittsburg, Pa., is visiting his brother, Mr. J. J. McDonald, of this place.

Miss Kelly, of Hamilton, who is visiting Miss Fitzpatrick, of Cottesloe, was renewing acquaintances here on Wednesday.

Misses Loretto and Irene Booth, of Peterborough, were the guests of their uncle Mr. John Anderson, for a few days.

Misses Clara and Madeline Foster, of Peterborough, are the guests of Miss Pearl McIntosh.

Mrs. Denyes and children of Whitby, are visiting Dr. and Mrs. Meacham.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dewitt and Miss Evelyn Dewitt, of Auburn, N.Y., are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Cheetz.

Miss E. Bradshaw, of Jersey City, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs Bradshaw, here, left on Monday for her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Dixon and family, of Oshawa, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Jory.

Mr. C. Hughes, of Peterborough, is visiting his uncle, Mr. Joseph Crowe, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. A. Tighe, of Peterborough, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jackson.

Miss Isabelle Yourex, of Meyersburg, Ont., is the guest of her cousin Miss Sarah McKee.

Mrs. Geo. Taylor, of this place, is visiting at Cobourg with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Payne.

The Summer Council will meet in the Town Hall on Saturday next, July 29th at 10.30 o'clock, a.m.

The following persons left town on Monday for Stony Lake, where they will camp for a time: Miss Fitzgerald, New York; Misses Edith, Ethel and Mary Spence, Lakefield; Miss Spence of Cottesloe; Mr. Johnston, Toronto; Mr. Ferguson, Norwood; Mr. Webster, South Dummer.

Mr. Charles James is having some improvements made at the tannery. He is having the sides sheeted with metallic siding, and a new engine house erected.

Several farmers residing in this vicinity are having wind engines erected, among whom are Messrs. F. Fitzgerald, Thomas Cooper and M. Edwards.

Mr. H. Clements is having the tower of his machine raised about 20 feet higher.

What might have been a disastrous fire had it not been for the quick action of several of the citizens occurred on Thursday, when Mrs. Albert Help's blacksmith shop caught fire on the roof from a spark. The loss was covered by insurance.

Mr. J. Fair of the construction department of the Bell Telephone Co., was seriously injured near here on Thursday last. Mr. Fair was doing some timber dressing with a hatchet, when he let the hatchet landed on his right foot. The wound was dressed by Dr. Meacham and the patient is now doing well.

Messrs. Thomas Wilson and Levi Payne went to Stony Lake on Thursday. They report an enormous crop of huckleberries but very poor fishing.

Dr. Meacham was taken ill on Friday night, and up to the time of writing shows no signs of improvement. Drs. J. E. Fraser of Lakefield and Carmichael of Peterborough, are in attendance. Appendicitis seems to be the trouble and in all probability an operation will be performed.

Escaped an Operation.

"I had itching piles for six years, and the doctors told me there was no cure for me without an operation. Dr. Chase's Ointment completely cured me in one week. As that was six months ago, and there has been no return of the old trouble I believe that the cure is a permanent one."—Mr. J. Mawer, Roden, Man.

SWEDEN CABINET MINISTERS RESIGN

King Oscar's Swedish Advisers Go Out Over Norway.

GOVERNMENT BILL REJECTED

Report of the Special Committee of the Riksdag to Deal With the Crisis Which Created the Revolution in Norway Declares Against the Bill —Committee Names Terms of Dissolution.

Stockholm, Sweden, July 26.—The Cabinet has resigned.

A special committee appointed by the Riksdag to deal with the crisis which created the revolution in Norway yesterday delivered its report. The committee declares unanimously that the Government bill cannot be adopted in the form in which it is now presented to the Riksdag, and proposes that the Riksdag shall signify its willingness to negotiate with Norway for a dissolution of the union if the newly-elected Storthing requests a repeal of the act of union, or if such request is received from Norway after the Norwegian people by a plebiscite have declared in favor of a dissolution of the union.

Terms Sweden Should Demand.

The committee recommends that in the event of a dissolution of the union Sweden should insist on the following terms:

First, the establishment of a zone on each side of the frontier separating the kingdoms within which the existing fortifications shall be razed and new fortifications may not be erected.

Second, the right of pasturing reindeer belonging to Swedish Laplanders in North Norway.

Third, that the transit trade through both countries shall be secured against unjustifiable obstruction.

Fourth, that the status of Sweden in respect to foreign powers as established by the treaty shall be clearly defined, so that Sweden shall be completely freed from responsibility for Norway to other States.

Arbitration Desirable.

The committee also regards an arbitration between Sweden and Norway as desirable, although it does not consider it an essential condition for the dissolution of the union. The committee further proposes to authorize the Government to raise a loan of $25,000,000 which can by a resolution of the Riksdag be made available for such readjustments and arrangements as may be necessitated by the new conditions. Regarding eventual negotiations with Norway the committee declares that: "Whatever may be demanded for the welfare and dignity of Sweden as a condition of the repeal of the act of union on the part of Sweden and of the recognition of Norway must be claimed and adhered to with rigor and determination."

Newspapers Await Debate.

Christiania, July 26.—Commenting on the situation in Stockholm all the newspapers prefer to await the debate in the Riksdag on the report of the special committee before considering the conditions Sweden desires to impose, but the majority inclined to the opinions that these conditions will not be acceptable to Norway.

Kaiser in Sweden.

Accepts Chairmanship of Transcontinental Railway Commission.

Montreal, July 26.—Hon. S. N. Parent, ex-Prime Minister of Quebec, was offered and accepted the Chairmanship of the National Transcontinental Railway Commission yesterday afternoon. In an interview he said that he would now have to resign not only as Mayor of the city of Quebec but as a member of the Legislature.

TO HONOR THE PREMIER.

Montreal Reformers Will Banquet Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Montreal, July 26.—The Montreal Reform Club is making arrangements to tender a banquet to Sir Wilfrid Laurier on a scale that will exceed anything of the kind yet held here. It is expected that the affair will take place about October 20.

Let go or die. That's the alternative of the shipwrecked man with the money bags. A great many people have a like alternative before them. Business men come to a point where the doctor tells them that they must "let go or die." Probably he advised a sea voyage or mountain air. There's an obstinate cough that won't be shaken off. The lungs are weak and perhaps bleeding. There is emaciation and other symptoms of disease, which if unskilfully or improperly treated terminate in consumption.

Thousands of men and women in a like condition have found complete healing by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

"It gives me pleasure to send you this testimonial so that some other poor sufferer may be saved, as I was, by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Geo. A. Thompson, of Sheldon Ave., Chatham, Ont., Canada. "I had a cough for years, expectorated a great deal, and was slowly failing. Was losing flesh every day. Lost in weight from 180 pounds down to 125. My flesh got soft and I had no strength. Did not pay anything to any one but made up my mind that the end was not far off. One day my wife was reading in the 'Common Sense Medical Adviser' about Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and I said, feel pounds more like common sense than anything else that I had heard. I at once bought a bottle of your famous remedy and before I had taken half of one bottle I felt better. Took thirteen bottles and it made a new man of me. I gained sixteen pounds and never have had a cough since. I feel splendid and give all the credit to your medicine."

Given away. The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. The book contains 1008 pages, over 700 illustrations and several colored plates. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper-bound book, or 50 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure bad blood, bad stomach and constipation and so help to cure nearly every disease of mankind. They regulate, tone up and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

London, July 25.—Cattle are quoted at 10¼c to 11¼c per lb.; refrigerator beef, 8¾c to 9c per lb.; sheep, 13c to 14c per lb.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

Receipts of live stock at the City Market since Friday last were 41 carloads, as reported by the two railways, composed of 472 cattle, 806 hogs, 712 sheep and lambs, with 120 calves. Besides the above, there were four cars Chicago cattle being fed and Exporters.

Prices were quoted as low as $3.80, and as high as $5 per cwt. H. Hunnisett bought some 1200 lbs. northwest steers at $3.80 per cwt., and Dunn Bros. bought the best load of exporters, brought in by John Sheppard of Bothwell, at $5 per cwt. The latter price would not have been paid had it not been that dealers had space to fill.

Butchers.

Best loads of butchers sold at $4.25 to $4.65; medium at $4 to $4.23; common at $3.30 to $3.75; rough and inferior at $3 to $3.25 per cwt., and not enough to supply the demand even at these prices.

Feeders and Stockers.

Several loads of stockers and feeders were offered for sale, but owing to the absence of outside buyers many of them were left on the market unsold. One load, averaging 1050 lbs., of good quality, steers that would have brought $4.50 a few weeks ago, were left unsold, the highest bid, $3.50 per cwt., being refused by the drover.

Milch Cows.

Sixteen milch cows and springers sold all the way from $30 to $54 each, but only one brought the latter price.

Veal Calves.

Moderate deliveries of veal calves sold at firm prices, at $3.50 to $5.50 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs.

Deliveries were light and prices firm at $3.75 to $4 per cwt. for export ewes; bucks, $3 to $3.25; lambs, $6.25 to $6.75 per cwt.

Hogs.

Deliveries of hogs were light, with prices firm at $6.50 per cwt. for selects and $6.25 for lights and fats.

DEATH OF MAJOR WALSH.

Former Yukon Commissioner—As Inspector of Mounted Police Induced Sitting Bull to Surrender to U.S.

Brockville, July 26.—Major J. M. Walsh died at his home here yesterday morning, after a week's illness with heart trouble.

Major Walsh was 62 years of age, being born in Prescott in 1842. In 1886 he was commissioned Lieutenant No. 2 Co. Rifles, Prescott, was appointed captain and adjutant of the 56th Battalion on its formation in 1867, and soon after raised and took command of D Squadron, 4th Hussars. At the time of the Red River expedition he was appointed ensign, but resigned. In 1872 he was gazetted brevet major, and retired from the militia retaining his rank in November, 1875.

He served throughout the Fenian Raid and again in 1870, and in 1873 was appointed inspector of the Northwest Mounted Police. In the Northwest Territories he established a reputation for great firmness and courage in dealing with the Indians and more especially in the treatment of Sitting Bull, the Sioux chief. The latter having held the American forces in check and utterly defeated General Custer, and his command had withdrawn across the Canadian frontier, where he was met by Major Walsh and several troopers and induced to surrender to the United States authorities.

Major Walsh resigned from the Mounted Police in 1883, and established the Dominion Coal, Coke and Transportation Company. The discovery of gold in the Yukon district and the consequent advent of population made it necessary for the Government to appoint a special commissioner to administer the Government in that territory. Major Walsh was selected Aug. 17, 1897, for that office, which he administered with distinguished ability for one year.

Hurled Down An Embankment.

Toronto, July 26.—After having his wagon jolted by a street car while crossing over Dundas street bridge, causing horse, wagon, driver and all to plunge through the railing at the eastern end of the bridge, turn two somersaults in the fall down a 50-foot embankment, dash through a second fence and finish on the railway tracks below, Thomas Mill, 65 years old, a sewing machine agent, of 137 Beaconsfield avenue, emerged yesterday afternoon with only his little finger sprained. The horse is a trifle nervous as a result of the accident, and the wagon lacks a dashboard.

Norwegian Ship Ashore.

Eureka, Calif., July 26.—The Norwegian steamer Tricolor, Capt. Wold, went ashore yesterday near the Cape Mendocina light. A tug arrived here last night with the entire crew of 27 persons. The steamer lies broadside on the beach among the rocks and is a total loss. Her value is estimated at $200,000.

SCRATCHED DAY AND NIGHT

Lady Suffered Tortures with Itching Scalp Humour—One Box Cuticura Ointment and One Cake of Cuticura Soap Cured Her.

WILL NEVER BE WITHOUT CUTICURA

"My scalp was covered with little pimples and I suffered tortures from the itching. I was scratching all day and night, and I could get no rest. I washed my head with hot water and Cuticura Soap and then applied the Cuticura Ointment as a dressing. One box of Cuticura Ointment and one cake of Cuticura Soap cured me. Now my head is entirely clear and my hair is growing splendidly. I have used Cuticura Soap ever since, and shall never be without it. (signed) Ada C. Smith, 209 Grand Street, Jersey City, N. J."

CUTICURA GROWS HAIR

Crusted Scalps Cleansed and Purified by Cuticura Soap,

Assisted by light dressings of Cuticura, the great skin cure. This treatment at once stops falling hair, removes crusts, scales, and dandruff, destroys hair parasites, soothes irritated, itching surfaces, stimulates the hair follicles, loosens the scalp skin, supplies the roots with energy and nourishment, and makes the hair grow upon a sweet, wholesome, healthy scalp when all else fails.

Complete external and internal treatment for every humour, from pimples to scrofula, from infancy to age, consisting of Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills, may now be had of all chemists. A single set is often sufficient to cure the most distressing cases of torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, bleeding, scaly, crusted, and pimply skin and scalp humours, eczemas, rashes, irritations, and chafings, with loss of hair, when all else has failed.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are sold throughout the world. Depots: London, 27 Charterhouse Sq.; Paris, 5 Rue de la Paix; Australia, R. Towns & Co., Sydney. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Boston, Sole Props.

SCHOOL BUILDINGS NOT IN SATISFACTORY CONDITION

Inspector Walker Says That West Ward School Has Little to Commend It—Central and East Ward Are Patches Many Interesting Features to the Annual Report—Truancy Due to Bad Management of the Pupils Either at Home or in School—Recommends the Teaching of Music in Public Schools—Results From Arithmetic Teaching Not Satisfactory—Other Features of Report.

Permission has been given for the publication of the following extracts from the Public School Inspector's confidential report which was presented to the Board of Education at its last meeting:—

1. Discipline.

The conduct of the pupils is, as heretofore, exemplary at school, and although there is, as must be expected in an enrolment of eighteen hundred or more, an odd case requiring the exercise of much patience, it is a matter for surprise that instances of such are so few.

In the department of pupils when not at school, no doubt some improvement might be made were the teachers vigilant to note, without appearing to do so, the actions of their pupils at all times, and to take advantage of the many opportunities which occur in school to endeavour to correct what may be amiss in the behaviour and conduct of their respective pupils.

It must be said, however, that for the inculcation of good manners, politeness, courtesy, self-control and such like traits of charater, the play grounds are of much greater importance than are the class-rooms, and the want of these play-grounds is a serious defect in all your schools and one which, it is hoped, the Board at no distant date will endeavour to remedy.

2. Attendance.

The enrolement for this year shows an increase over the corresponding period of last year, except for the month of June when there was a decided falling off owing to a mild epidemic of measles and chicken-pox.

The distribution of pupils among the teachers has of necessity been out of proportion for the several schools. For the past six months, this would average about as follows:

	Pupils per Teacher.
South Central	49
West Ward...	47
Central	45
North Ward	43
George Street	37
East Ward.....	36

Forty pupils per teacher would make an ideal classification and even with forty-five good results might be expected; but it is next to impossible for one teacher to satisfactorily teash fifty pupils and give to each the individual attention, instruction, and examination necessary to secure continual progress and thorough proficiency. This is particularly the case with primary grades, where each pupil requires so much assistance if school work is to be made interesting for him for it is at this period that the child's successful career at school is made or marred.

Yet it is found out of the question to keep these grades within anything like reasonable bounds, and, consequently to provide accommodation, half-prepared pupils are being promoted from time to time, with the result that the classes throughout a whole school may become so congested with pupils in all degrees of proficiency that both teacher and pupils are completely discouraged.

This is the condition to some extent in your South Central school, in some rooms of which there are fifty-four, fifty-six, and in one room—the primary—even as many as seventy-five pupils on the roll, and where, if the accommodation were available, one, if not two, more teachers could be usefully and advantageously employed.

3. Truancy.

In this connection it might not be amiss to say a word or two about that particular class of pupil—the truant—who is the source of so much worry to the teacher, and who is by turns coaxed and scolded and punished, but without avail.

Truancy is usually the result of bad management of the child at home or at school, or perhaps at both. At school a boy may have been promoted without proper preparation, or the teacher may fail to interest him in his work, and thus his studies are all monotonously dry. He finds himself falling behind his class mates. His teacher misunderstands him and he becomes the victim of undeserved nagging and fault-finding, and is at last given up as hopelessly stupid. The school to him becomes a bore, and he seeks vent elsewhere for his activities.

Smaller classes, by allowing more time to be devoted to the individual pupil, would do much to prevent truancy; but, until arrangements can be made for these, some other course must be adopted. The remedy to be effective must make the lad's life out of school even more uncomfortable than it appears to him to be at school.

4. School Buildings.

Of your school buildings, the South Central and North Ward are good, the Central and East Ward fair, and the West Ward poor.

The Central and East Ward buildings have had improvements and repairs added from time to time, but each change has left its patch until now, to make them as presentable and attractive as they should be, a thorough overhauling is required.

The West Ward building has very little to commend it. Its classrooms are altogether too small. Its halls are too narrow. It has neither cloakrooms nor play rooms. For heating, lighting and ventilation there is but the poorest provision, and its sanitation is a very general objection.

At both the East Ward and the West Ward better water-closets should be built; and as there is but one stairway in each of the buildings the second floors should be equipped with fire-escapes.

To put your buildings in a thoroughly satisfactory condition will undoubtedly necessitate considerable expense, and it is perhaps unreasonable to expect that all the work could be provided for in any one year. But it might be well for the Board to take the matter into its consideration and devise some systematic plan by which the necessary improvements could be done gradually yet efficiently. For in the education of the child the school building plays a part second only in importance to that of the teacher. Bright and cheerful dispositions, quick and active minds, neat and tidy persons cannot well be developed in dark, untidy and unattractive rooms, which are cramped crowded and cheerless.

5. Text Books.

In September last your Board adopted the system of providing the pupils with all necessary text books and supplies, for which they paid a monthly fee, in the collection of which it was anticipated that some difficulty might at the first be experienced. It therefore speaks well for the judicious consideration of the parents as well as for the tact and discretion of the teachers that such generally prompt payment was made and that so few complaints were received. The plan thus introduced will no doubt be more appreciated by those interested when they become more accustomed to it.

From the point of view of the schools it has been found advantageous:

1. In supplying a uniformly good quality of material to all pupils.

2. In providing every pupil, even those unable to pay, with a complete set of all books required.

3. In greater neatness and tidiness of pupil's work, particularly that done in the exercise books.

(4) In greater care of the text books, and in economy of other material — all damage and waste being checked by the teacher, and

(5) In facilitating the introduction or addition of new and better text-books, without having to take into consideration the expense which would otherwise be imposed upon the parents.

6. Teachers' Library.

In the matter of books, there is something yet to be done for your teachers, that is to provide a small school library for their special use. This should contain work of reference, advanced text books in every department of the school course, and more particularly standard authorities on methods in teaching. These are books which our teachers could not well be expected to purchase themselves, but which would be of material assistance in the preparation of their work, and which would enable them to improve their methods, and would, consequently, greatly benefit the pupils taught.

7. Subjects.

The results of the recent promotion examinations were as satisfactory as those of former years, and show more attention on the part of both teacher and pupil to secure uniform and regular progress throughout the school term—such progress this year being an important element in estimating the pupil's fitness for advancement.

In most of the grades there were fewer failures than heretofore in spelling and arithmetic, which would indicate a greater general proficiency in these subjects. Even yet, however, the results in arithmetic do not appear at all commensurate with the time devoted to its teachings and it is the intention to modify the course herein, so as to prescribe less work and exact greater accuracy and thoroughness.

In writing a return has been made from the vertical to the slant system, and some progress has been made in securing a greater freedom in the movement of hand and arm, with the result that better writing may be expected. Much, however, has yet to be done. Many of the teachers are too much concerned about the neatness and accuracy of the form of the letter and neglect the practice of those exercises which will eventually give ease in movement, as well as correctness of form, and thus they become teachers of drawing rather than of writing.

In a former report reference was made to the almost entire absence in the schools of any instruction in music. The culture value of the subject is beyond question, and that no provision is made for it is undoubtedly to be regretted, and it might be well to consider whether or not arrangements could be made by which the subject might be taught systematically to, at least, the Third and Fourth Book Classes.

Hard on Evangelists.

Several boats owned by Crossley and Hunter had beached on Fairhaven Island, Muskoka, which belongs to the evangelists, and Rev. W. Kettlewell, jointly, were taken up bodily in a recent storm there and carried out into the lake, and have not been seen since. The door of the Kettlewell's cottage was blown open and it took the combined strength of the inmates, three in number, to shut it and secure it. Thirty trees were torn up by the roots, but all the cottages remained uninjured.

Mr. W. Rutherford, druggist, formerly of Norwood, who has now a well established business in Nelson, B.C., has been visiting friends and renewing acquaintances here during the past month. Having enjoyed a splendid holiday at Stoney Lake and in the country homes of friends, he is preparing to return to Nelson on Friday, sun bronzed and rejuvenated by our health-laden air.

Mr. Rutherford has still numerous friends in this city who will remember him as having entered the drug business with Messrs. Ormond & Walsh, and afterwards filled an engagement with Mr. J. D. Tully. He then removed to Norwood, where he carried on a drug and stationery business of his own for a number of years. About eight years ago he removed with his family to Nelson, B. C., where he has prospered with the rapid growth of that live town. Nelson is to the Kootenay Country what Vancouver is to British Columbia, commercially speaking, and, as Mr. Rutherford puts it, as Toronto is to Ontario.

Mr. Rutherford, in addition to his drug business, finds time to devote some of his pleasantest hours to a fruit ranch, which he owns, situated 2½-3 miles from Nelson. Here he has a delightful summer home from which he rows to business every morning.

There are a number of people formerly from Peterborough living in Nelson and vicinity. Mr. William Cribbin and family, who will be remembered by many of our citizens, is working a large fruit ranch some distance out of Nelson, and is doing very well. Mrs. Jos. Langford and daughter have also been residents of Nelson for some years. Miss Langford is said to be one of the best business women in the town, filling the position of book-keeper and manager of a large mercantile concern. Mr. W. Hamilton, son of the late Hon. Robt. Hamilton, is also extensively engaged in gold mining near Nelson. The district is becoming noted as a fruit centre, many car-loads having been shipped this season to Winnipeg, etc.

Mr. Rutherford was agreeably surprised with the remarkable growth of Peterborough, and, of course, delighted with his visit to our new city.

Crockery and Wall Paper News

When you want either of the above lines you'll be antagonistic to your own interest if you don't inspect our stock of all the best lines in the market. Our July sale values we've put upon our stock beckon to all economists, and the grand variety calls to all buyers, even to those who want exclusive designs, because our stock is so large is the reason for price reductions that are out of place with the quality of the goods. You ought to take care of these savings. Buying your crockery here is getting value for your money. Wall papers more than generous too.

DROPPED DEAD IN A HAY MOW

Rev. T. J. Edmison, B. A., a Native of Peterborough County, Met Death Suddenly in Brighton—Deceased Was Formerly President of the Bay of Quinte Conference, and Was One of the Prominent Men in the Methodist Church—A Brother of Mr. Robert Edmison of Smith, and Cousin of County Police Magistrate.

"This afternoon the Rev. T. J. Edmison, B.A., dropped dead while stowing away hay in the loft."

In these brief words, dated yesterday, and despatched from Brighton, is told the story of the death of one of the many noble sons of Peterborough county. Further than the fact that he is dead, and that he died in the manner indicated, there is no information vouchsafed.

Upon hearing of his death, Mr. Robt. Edmison, of Smith, a brother of the deceased, left immediately for Brighton to arrange for the funeral, which will be held to-morrow at 2 o'clock in Brighton. It is learned that the cause of his death was heart failure. The late Mr. Edmison was a native of this county, where he was raised, and lived until he left to take up his life-work, that of preaching the Gospel, in which calling he has been very successful. He was a cousin of Mr. Geo. Edmison, K.C., County Police Magistrate, and had frequently visited in Peterborough where he was well known, and where the sad intelligence of his sudden calling off will be received with the deepest regret.

Born about 60 years ago, Mr. Edmison lived, during the early years of his life on his father's farm, but later when he developed a desire to enter upon the ministry he attended Victoria University, from which institution he graduated in arts and theology and he entered the ministry in the Methodist church, in 1868, and has since that time filled many important offices in the gift of his church.

In 1903 he was elected president of the Bay of Quinte conference, and for years was secretary of the Board of Examiners. He was one of the most highly respected of all the ministers in the conference and always took a deep interest in the work of the ministry and in the preparation of young men for that work. Some years ago he was stationed in Lakefield, going from there to Newcastle. He also preached at Wellington, and at other places in this conference. At the time of his death he was stationed at Brighton.

Up to the time of his death he was in good health, and had always been a strong, hearty man. His preaching was marked by an earnestness which, coupled with his life, which was most exemplary, was most successful, and everywhere he had added to the membership of of the churches of which he was pastor. He has always been prominent in the educational work of the church.

He leaves, besides his bereaved wife and family of six children, three boys and three girls. The oldest boy, Breckerton, is a doctor, practising at Castleton, and the second son, Alexander, a mere lad of 20, has followed his father, and is entering the ministry. He is at present a probationer, stationed on the Tyrone circuit, where he is highly respected for his manly qualities. A third son lives at home as do the three daughters, Miss Marion being the oldest, with two younger sisters.

LABOUR COUNCIL ON COLLEGIATE

Discussion on the Question Took Place Last Night.

Probably no Labour Demonstration This Year.

Last night at the meeting of the Trades and Labour Council a discussion took place on the question of the new Collegiate Institute. This discussion occupied practically the whole of the evening, and a number of views were expressed on the matter. It is apparently a live question with the bodies represented in the Council, and although no formal expression of opinion was given by the meeting last night, the representatives of the different unions were advised to bring the matter to the attention of their unions, and get them to take action by resolutions, and with the different union bodies of the town expressing opinions on it a line of concerted action could be decided upon. The opinion was expressed that the defeat of the by-law was to be deplored and no great confidence was felt in the Board.

The main object in this discussion is to get the people to understand the Institute situation better.

The question of a labour demonstration on Labour Day was not considered at last night's meeting, and it is not probable that this year will see any public labour demonstration.

The meeting last night was fairly large, and was harmonious.

BIG CROWD WENT TO OSHAWA GAME

Special Excursion Carried Good Number This Afternoon.

This afternoon the special train which carried the excursion to Oshawa, where the Peterborough baseball team play Bowmanville in a game, which will doubtless be the most interesting of the season, was well filled with a large number of excursionists who went down in the hope of seeing the local team repeat the dose of last Saturday. The teams were to be the same as those which played on Saturday.

J. SUTCLIFFE & SONS

PETERBOROUGH MAN'S SAD PLIGHT

Was Found on the Roadside in an Unconscious Condition.

Mr. McGregor Represented to be From Peterborough, Meets With Experience Madoc.

A special despatch to the Examiner from Madoc gives details of an experience which Mr. McGregor, who is represented as being a traveller, whose home is in Peterborough, but who is at present travelling for the Dominion Paper Company, of Montreal, met with recently.

It appears, according to the despatch, that Mr. McGregor was found on Tuesday night about 10.30 on the road between Ivanhoe and Madoc, in an insensible condition, with blood oozing from his mouth and nose. A horse and buggy were standing on the road near by, and at first glance it was thought that Mr. McGregor had met with foul play and that he was dead.

Cold water applied to his face, however, revived him, but to all inquiries as to how he came to be in that condition he refused to answer, stating simply that he had had a slight hemorrage, and that he was feeling all right, except that he was weak, from the loss of blood. While he was in a very weak condition, Mr. McGregor insisted on continuing on his journey, and displayed great powers of endurance.

Mr. McGregor is a native of Montreal, but for some time, it is stated, had lived in Peterborough.

NEWALL-MIDDLETON.

Quiet Wedding was Performed Yesterday Afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon a quiet wedding was performed by Rev. J. G. Lewis, B.A., pastor of Mark street Methodist Church, at the residence of Mr. Harry Castle, Mark street, when Mr. James Newall, of Peterborough, was married to Miss Eunice Middleton, of Warsaw. Mr. and Mrs. Newall will reside in Peterborough.

PAID $14,000 FOR LAKEFIELD HOTEL

Craig House Believed to Have Been Sold at That Figure.

Mr. Jas. Allen, who recently sold the Craig House in Lakefield to Messrs. Lawless & Spellman, of Peterborough, was in town this morning. His successors took formal possession of the house on Wednesday, and when he left business was booming. Last night, Mr. Allan states, that between 70 and 75 guests registered and remained over night.

A large number of Americans and Canadians from distant parts were passing through the village en route to Stony Lake, many of whom became guests at the hotel over night. They speak in complimentary terms of the satisfactory service and cuisine.

It is understood that the price paid Mr. Allan was $14,000, exclusive of the stock on hand and improvements which he had made while in possession. The whole house was overhauled and redecorated. These improvements have done much to impress transient visitors and boarders with the up-to-date comforts and convenience of the house.

Mr. Allan has not yet decided what he will next engage in, but it is not likely that he will remain long out of harness.

Messrs. Lawless & Spellman are well spoken of as practical young hotel men, and their chances are said to be good for making a first-class reputation for this fine house by the large tourist and other travel which it can command.

THE CROWDS AT JACKSON PARK

Another Good Programme Rendered by Band Last Night.

Last night saw another immense crowd at Jackson's Park, the occasion being the regular weekly band concert given by the 57th Regiment Band under Bandmaster Gillett, and a large number of persons enjoyed the ride to the park and the music rendered by the band. The programme last night was a very pleasing one, and evidences were not lacking that the listeners appreciated the music.

LAMENTED DEATH OF DR. MEACHAM

Passed Away Last Night at His Residence, Warsaw.

Demise Resulted From Appendicitis After a Short Illness—Was Prominent Member of Legislature.

After a short illness of only six days' duration, the death occurred last night, at his residence, Warsaw, of Dr. Walter William Meacham, at the age of 54 years. The end came somewhat unexpectedly, and resulted from appendicitis.

The deceased removed to Warsaw about four years ago, from Napanee, where he was for many years prominent in public life, having represented for twelve years the constituency of Lennox in the Legislature. He was prominent in the councils of the Conservative party before his retirement from the political arena. He was at that time a recognized leader in debate, and won for himself by his genial kindly disposition a host of friends on both sides of the House.

Since removing to Warsaw, the late Dr. Meacham has occupied the position of Medical Health Officer for the township of Dummer. He was a prominent member of the Methodist church.

Surviving members of the family are, besides his wife, one daughter and two sons; Mrs. Denyes of Whitby; Warren and Ray of Warsaw. Three sisters also survive him : Mrs. Stinson, of Sarnia; Mrs. Tully, of Winnipeg; and Mrs. Huffman, of Baldur, Man.

The funeral will take place on Saturday, at 11 o'clock a.m., from the family residence, to St. Mark's cemetery, Warsaw.

METAL WORKERS ELECT OFFICERS

THE ODDFELLOWS AT BOBCAYGEON

Pentypool Lodge Conducts Excursion to That Point To-day.

This morning an excursion, conducted under the auspices of Pentypool Lodge, I. O. F., was run to Bobcaygeon, starting at Norwood, and taking on passengers at the intermediate stations. A double header special train passed through this city shortly after seven o'clock. A few passengers took passage from Peterborough, and the number on the train was not large. It was expected, however, that at Pentypool there would be a large increase to the number of passengers.

At Bobcaygeon a steamer will be boarded, and a sail through a portion of the Kawartha Lakes would be enjoyed. The special train will return early to-night.

MR. J. J. ELLIOTT RETURNS HOME

After a Delightful Visit with Friends in Maine.

Mr. J. J. Elliott returned last night from a delightful three weeks' trip which was spent in a visit with friends and relatives in Maine. Mr. Elliott was a guest of his sister, Mrs. F. A. Leitch, in Skowhegan, for a week and finds it difficult to find language which will adequately describe the picturesque grandeur of the scenery in the Kennebec Valley. A visit to the historic old town of Norridgewock with its massive old trees and quaint houses was one of many very pleasant trips in the country. Lakewood was visited, and the rows on Madison Pond were most delightful.

Two weeks were spent with friends at South Portland, and with his sister, Miss Evelyn O. Elliott, in Portland. The resorts adjoining the Forest City were visited, and Mr. Elliott says the place has more attractions than any other place on the map. He was a guest during a brief stay, of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Thompson, in Montreal, and also visited Old Orchard.

Mr. Elliott made a host of friends in Maine, and they are looking forward with pleasure to a visit to be made at Christmas.

Peterborough friends are very glad to see him home again, and hope that he will decide to bring the attractions in the States here, rather than to settle there.

The United States Gas and Oil Company, of Windsor, which suspended operations in the Wheatley oil fields some time ago, have lately commenced work again, and on Monday struck a large well about two and a half miles from here, on the farm of Fred. Wright.

Holiday After 18 Years.

Middlesex County Treasurer McEvoy has held his position for eighteen years, and in all that time he has not taken, or been offered, any holidays by the County Council up till now. Yesterday Warden Piper heard the fact mentioned and immediately gave McEvoy leave of absence for as long as he should desire.

A Snake Did It.

A Lock Haven, Pa., item says Edward Yost, of Sugar Run, who raises ducks, has been losing many of his young birds lately. Thinking rats were responsible, he set a steel trap in their coop. No rats were caught, but the trap took as prisoner a three-foot copperhead snake, which is blamed for the depredation.

Crazy with the Heat.

Nathan Garfinkle, farmer, near Paterson, N. J., during the last hot spell, tied a cow and a calf to a fence and painted them green, and lowered his little boy at frequent intervals into the well "to cool him." His wife interfered and he attacked her as well as a constable who came to her help, and now Mr. Garfinkle is being hunted for all over the surrounding country.

Train Swallowed Up.

As a train in number 3 shop, Richard's colliery, Shamokin, Pa., was running to the main slope, the ground caved in and the train of ten cars and locomotive was swallowed up. The men, who had suspected what was about to happen, leaped to the ground, which had begun to tremble. As they ran the surface began sinking, but the crew gained a solid piece of ground just as the train went down.

A Woman Gambler.

Richly gowned, wearing jewelry valued at $20,000, and attended by a maid, a woman, who gave the name of Mrs. Naomi Duncombe, of Mount Vernon, was caught in a police raid on a woman's poolroom in Eighth avenue, New York, yesterday. Mrs. Naomi Duncombe-Ring is known as the richest woman in Mount Vernon, and, on account of her eccentricities and her former marriage last fall to a former circus performer, has figured often in the newspapers. Her fortune is said to be $2,000,000, and in Mount Vernon.

A Lady Pilot.

Last week, say the St. John's, Newfoundland, Herald, the bait cruiser, Neptune, while scouting for Yankees on the northeast coast, took Fishery Inspector Dawe, and Lighthouse Inspector White off to Groais Islands to select a location for a beacon. Nobody on board had ever been out to the islands before, but there was at Eagles, where she joined the cruiser, a Mrs. Garland, residing on the islands, and returning from a visit to friends in Conception Bay. She was given a passage, and on the way it was discovered that she knew all about the rocks and shoals that fringed the little harbour, so she was invited to pilot the ship in, and this she did in soldierly fashion, taking the bridge and giving her orders with confidence and composure until she put the cruiser safely within the harbour where she was bound. Passengers and crew warmly complimented her on her work.

BRITAIN MAY SEND WARSHIP

British Government to Rescue Our Sailors in Uruguay—Agnes Donahoe's Capture—Held to be Illegal Because the Uruguayan Government Had Granted the Exclusive Right to Fish in Certain Waters to a Private Company, Which Concession Was Not Communicated to Powers.

Washington, July 27.—Official advices reaching Washington fail to show any relief in the acute situation which has been developing for some time between the British and Uruguayan Governments over the imprisonment in Uruguay of the captain and crew of the Canadian fishing vessel Agnes Donahoe, for alleged poaching.

Several months ago the British Government laid before the American State Department a full statement of its side of the case, and the American Minister at Uruguay was instructed to use his good offices to assist an amicable settlement. The British Government takes the ground that, as the contract of the Uruguayan Government giving to a certain company the exclusive right to fish in certain waters was a private contract and was not communicated to or recognized by foreign Governments, the capture of a Canadian ship for fishing in those waters was illegal.

Despite strong representations, however, the Canadian captain remains in prison, and London is now considering the advisability of sending a warship down the South American coast. This step, however, will be taken only after every diplomatic method has been tried to obtain the release of the prisoners.

The London Government is not averse to a settlement of the matter by arbitration, but the Uruguayan Government has thus far refused to Japanese Troops Have At Last Invaded Siberia.

SEIZURE OF A LIGHTHOUSE

Two Explanations of the Landing at Dekastries—Russian Military Officers Declare Movement Too Far North to Affect Operations Against Vladivostock — London Says It Means Menace to Harbin.

St. Petersburg, July 27.—Despatches from Manchuria report the landing of a Japanese battalion and the seizure of a lighthouse on the Siberian coast near Dekastries, a post formerly called Alexandrovsk, 700 miles north of Vladivostock, after a preliminary shelling by torpedo boat destroyers.

Military officials here say this apparently is part of the strategy of the Japanese to prevent the escape of Russian garrisons in Sakhalin across the straits. They add that the landing is too far north to have any bearing on the main campaign or on operations against Vladivostock.

To Seize Mouth of Amur.

London, July 27.—The Japanese landing at Dekastries, which is the terminus of the only cable line connecting the mainland with the Island of Sakhalin, is regarded by the London morning newspapers as an attempt to seize the mouth of the Amur River, in order to enable the Japanese to despatch an army up that great waterway to threaten the Russian communications. Japanese gunboats and torpedo boats could thus reach Harbin and give effectual assistance to any attack on the Russian fortifications.

Army In Action.

London, July 27.—The correspondent of The Daily Telegraph at Tokio, sends a report received from Osaka, Japan, to the effect that a Japanese army of many thousand is attacking the Russian position on the Tumen river.

Not in Spirit of Defiance.

Washington, July 27.—Whether there is to be peace in the Far East or a continuance of the war will be practically decided at the first business meeting of the Washington conference, which will convene at the navy yard, Portsmouth, N. H., about August 5. Baron Komura will on that occasion communicate to M. Witte the essentials of Japan's terms for further negotiations. This, it is declared, will not be done in a spirit of defiance. If the Russian plenipotentiaries are prepared to accept these essentials, the officials here are confident that the basis will be laid for negotiations sure to lead to the signing of a treaty of Washington bringing peace in the Far East.

Why furnaces crack in Summer.

In the old fashioned hotwater heaters with wide, flat surfaces, the soot finds a splendid resting place. A scraper and brush jams soot into the interstices between the water sections. There it cakes and hardens, absorbs moisture, then it expands, and you have a cracked waterpost. If you have a "Bison" hotwater heater you won't have any furnace troubles. There are no flat soot collecting surfaces in the "Bison"—no crevices where soot can lodge; there will be no cracked waterposts, no delays, no mess, no plumbers' bills.

KLEDAMIKIDINHU HANGED.

Attempted to Cut Artery, But Did Not Cheat the Hangman.

New Westminster, B. C., July 26.—Wierdly and plaintively chanting the Lord's Prayer in Chinook, spiritually encouraged by Rev. Thomas Crosby and supported in a wavering walk by the nervous hand of Public Executioner Radcliffe, Tom Kledamikidinhu, the Hope Island Indian, convicted of the murder of a girl of his tribe, went to his death on the scaffold in the Provincial Jail yard here yesterday morning.

Monday afternoon the condemned man managed to secure a piece of broken glass and made a gash under his knee in an attempt to cut an artery. He was detected in time to prevent fatality, and weak from the loss of blood and half crazed by the terror of his approaching execution, he spent a restless night.

Redmond Yields to Remonstrance.

London, July 27.—John Redmond, the Nationalist leader, and his followers continued their obstructionist tactics of blocking private bills in the House of Commons Tuesday, but according to The Morning Post, as the result of the remonstrances which have reached them from all parts of the country representing the injustice which such tactics inflict on a large body of workingmen, have decided to withdraw all further opposition to such bills.

The Boilermakers.

Toronto, July 27.—Boiler inspection laws and the quality of steel plates for boilers were the chief topics discussed yesterday at the American Boilermakers' Association convention here yesterday. Then the officers were elected, R. Munroe, Jr., of Pittsburg, Pa., president, and among the vice-presidents and second is J. J. Main, Toronto. The association will meet at Pittsburg next year.

No Truth In It.

Toronto, July 27.—Regarding the St. Thomas despatch which stated that the C. P. R. Railway had assumed complete control over the Pere Marquette, General Superintendent Timmerman has entered a complete denial.

Hold Secret Sessions.

Stockholm, July 27.—Both Houses of the Rigsdag have held secret sessions to discuss the report, presented Tuesday, of the special committee appointed to deal with the crisis between Norway and Sweden. It is understood that the report was approved in principle.

RE, THE LORD'S DAY.

Privy Council Refuses Leave to Appeal the Case.

London, July 27.—Judgment was given yesterday by the Privy Council on the petition of the Dominion Government for leave to appeal the Lord's Day case, in which it was recently held that the major part of the Lord's Day legislation now in force in the various Provinces was beyond the powers of the Provinces. The application was refused, although Mr. Newcombe, Deputy Minister of Justice, said the matter was one of great public interest to the Dominion and the Provinces, which should know their representative jurisdictions. The court declined to hear Mr. R. U. Macpherson, who appeared for the Lord's Day Alliance, supporting the petition.

The meaning of this action, in absence of the reasons of the Privy Council in denying leave to appeal, is that the Dominion alone has the right to legislate in matters pertaining to Lord's Day observance.

Appeal Will Be Heard.

London, July 27.—(C. A. P.)—The Privy Council will hear the appeal for the Dominion Government against the judgment of Justice Anglin that the officials of the Pere Marquette Railway brought to Canada in violation of the Alien Labor law cannot be deported because of the Dominion's lack of power to do so. Yesterday morning the Privy Council granted the application of the Attorney-General of Canada for special leave to appeal the case against Cain and Gilhula. Their lordships said the Dominion must pay the respondents' costs in any event. The appeal is on a purely hypothetical case, as the court is not likely to give a decision within the statutory twelve months' period allowed for deportation.

THE Oxford Hot Water Boiler takes advantage of every known scientific point which will increase the generation and distribution of heat.

We have increased its power enormously by making the walls of the fire pot slant inwards above the fire. This gives a greater surface for the direct action of the rays of heat.

Oxford Hot Water Boiler

The first water section over the fire is double depth, with bell-shaped flues, which also increases the surface directly displayed to the action of the heat.

These are but two of the exclusive points which make the Oxford Hot Water Boiler the most economical and most efficient home-warming apparatus on the market. If you will drop us a post card, we will send you our catalogue, which explains the whole system.

THE MOSAIC SABBATH IS STILL BINDING

According to the Assertions of Rev. Washington Morse, Who Submits an Article in Answer to Statements Made in a Recent Sermon on the Subject—Quotes Scripture in Support of His Claim.

Rev. Washington Morse has submitted an article, in which he replies to some statements made in a sermon which was preached recently in one of the local churches.

The article follows:

The conclusion claimed is that Paul taught in the third chapter of second Corinthians that the moral law of God is done away with, and that the seventh day Sabbath is done away with, and is no longer binding. The inviolable premises from which this conclusion is drawn, are that the Apostle in II Cor. iii, 7, speaks of the Sabbath, and that what he refers to as being written, and engraven on stones, is the moral law, and that this has given place to something better, and is no longer binding.

II Cor. iii is the strong hold of certain expositors for a certain purpose. When a man is in the condition described in Romans v.ii, 7, and feels that he must in some way show that the seventh day Sabbath is no longer in force, but has been abolished and is done away, he flies to II Cor. iii, 7, as his first defence and stronghold for that position. Let us then look at the statement of that chapter which is claimed to support these conclusions. Paul writes: "But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be done away." There! Says the Antinomian, "you see the law was a ministration of death, and that has been done away," as according to vs. 13, it is abolished, or as stated in —but hold. We do not find that it says law once in the whole passage, nor that anything is said of the law. "But what was written and engraven on stone," and that was the law, was it not?

The passage does not say that the law was engraven and written in stones, and, besides, it does not say that that which was written and engraven in stones was done away. These anti-Sabbath conclusions find no premises to stand on yet. Well, is the Sabbath was not written and engraven on stones, and is not done away, pray what was it? Read Paul's words again: "But if the ministration of death written and engraven in stone was glorious, etc.," Now, what is a ministration? A service of a minister; the acts performed in carrying out a service, or the application of a law.

But there was no "ministration" engraven in stones. Therefore that expression "ministration of death, written and engraven in stones," taken by itself, does not mean the ten commandments. It only means the services of Moses in bringing them down to the people, and establishing that dispensation of which the ten commandment law was the germ and the centre.

As there was no ministration engraven in stones, the sentence is evidently elliptical, and doubtless, all that is said of that ministration is that it was glorious it was so glorious that Moses through the part he acted in it was so invested with the divine presence, that the skin of his face shone as he went down to minister before the people, and they were not able to look upon him, (Ex. xxxiv, 29-35,) and Paul says that that glory was to be done away; "and that is all that was done away, so far as Paul's record goes. As time passed, the light that shone from Moses' face gradually waned away, indicating that the system which he established would finally give way to something better. To this end the children of Israel could not look; that is to the giving place of this system to the more glorious ministration of the spirit. So the veil which Moses put over his face temporarily they threw over their hearts permanently, and blinded their eyes to Christ and His higher mark. But if they would once accept Christ, as He is revealed to them and the world, they would see the relative glory of the two ministrations which Paul is here contrasting—the ministration of death and the ministration of the spirit. Then the veil would be done away in Christ, for there would be no room for any doubt and obscurity that might have hovered over the situation. While they lived under types and shadows and ceremonies, they would see that the ministration of the spirit which remains excels in glory, and the other had no glory by reason of this; as the glory of the moon and stars disappears before the rising sun. That which is called in verse 7 The ministration of death,' is called in verse 9 'Ministration of condemnation.' That tells the whole story between the old and the new. He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses; Heb. X. 28. The priests acted as guides, and the witnesses and the people inflicted the penalty; Deut. XVII., 2-7. One accidentally killing another had to flee to a city of refuge to save his life; Deut. X. 5. This was the letter that killeth.

The Ministration of Condemnation; the Ministration of Death — The death penalty as it existed under the theocracy now under the ministration of the spirit, is taken from the hands of human judges and held in abeyance till the judgment. What does Christ say? "If a man hear my words and believe not, I judge him not; John XII., 17. And to the woman taken in the very act of adultery, He said: "Neither do I condemn thee"; that is to death by stoning which was still the theocratic law of the land. And the Lord disposes of all cases in this dispensation by saying, "vengeance is mine, I will repay, saith the Lord"; Rom. XII., 19. But men take advantage of this mercy and abuse it, as Solomon says: "Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil"; Eccl. VIII., 11. The ministration of death as we have seen is also called the ministration of condemnation. So the ministration of the spirit has an additional explanatory name that is "the ministration of righteousness", II. Cor., III., 9. The spirit giveth life and Paul says in verse 17, that "The Lord is that spirit." The ministration of the spirit is, therefore, the ministration of the Lord: and the Lord giveth righteousness, which is life. The ministration of the spirit is the offering of life through Christ to all who will accept Him. This, the apostle says, was his business. Mark how he speaks: "Who hath made us all be ministers of the New Testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life" verse 6. Then the New Testament has a letter that kills, as well as the Old Testament. What is this letter—that which kills the sinner? When will it be executed? In the judgment at the last day; men tell us that the penalty of the law has been done away; and therefore that shows that the law is no longer binding. But that is a wrong statement and a wrong conclusion. The penalty has not been done away; its execution is not now left with men, but is delayed to the Lord's own time. It is there, and is to come. It is that "vengeance" which the Lord says is His and declares that He will repay,—(Rom. 12—19.) The soul that sinneth it shall die, (Exe. 18—20,) is a sentence that has not been released in the least, and "the wages of sin is death," (Rom. 6—23,) is still in force; and when the settlement is made the demands of the law and the Sabbath will be met. No, the penalty is not abolished, and it is the death penalty, as at first. The ministration of the spirit which we are now under makes the difference; under this ministration provision is made whereby righteousness can be imputed to a man and sentence against an evil work be not executed speedily. Life is offered under the new covenant. These covenants occupy distinct divisions of time. "The new covenant was promised in the days of Jeremiah, Jer. 31; 31—34. Paul quotes that prophecy, and says: "In that he saith a new covenant, He hath made the first old, now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away," (Heb. 8—13.) So the first has passed away, and the new is moulded and governed by the ministration of the spirit. The things which govern our relation to God are ministered differently now, from what they were before. The warp and woof of our experience are not now condemnation and death but assurance from the new covenant which offer us righteousness and life. Were we living under the old covenant, every "transgression and disobedience" would receive here and now, a just recompense of reward, (Heb. 2—2.) But now we all with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the spirit of the Lord, (II. Cor. 3; 18.) So much more glorious is the ministration of the spirit than the ministration of death. But this is digressing. What was done away? In considering what Paul has taught in II. Cor., 3, one should keep in mind what he has taught elsewhere on the same subject. If it is said that in the passage mentioned he teaches the abolition of the Sabbath or the doing away of the law it is well to keep in mind what he has said in other places on these points, for we must not involve him in self-contradiction. This is a question of obedience to or violation of the moral law, and so affects our eternal destiny. Of the law Paul says: "Nay, I had not known sin but by the law; for I had not known lust, except the law had said, thou shalt not covet," Rom. 7; 7. He says, wherefore the law is holy and the commandment holy, and just and good, Rom. 7; 12. This agrees with his word in Rom. 5; 13. "Sin is not imputed when there is no law," and in chapter 4; 15, "For where no law is there is no transgression," and he rivets the whole subject by saying: "Do we make void the law through faith? God forbid; yea we establish the law," Rom. 3; 31. So long as sin and transgression exists in the world so long the law exists to detect and condemn them. After the Apostle had taught the Romans in this way, dare anyone charge him with turning around and teaching the Corinthians the same year the very opposite doctrine, viz., that the law has been abolished, set aside and done away in Christ? Peter speaks of some who wrest the words of Paul to their own destruction. II. Peter, 3; 16. Those who accuse him of teaching that the law has been abolished and taken out of the way, certainly wrest his words, and note the result; suppose on the strength of that they turn against the law and transgress it and then find at last that the law always has been binding, and will judge us in the last day, James, 2; 12; and that they themselves are sinners condemned beyond rescue. What will be the result? Peter says they wrest the words of Paul to their own destruction. They must receive the wages of sin and that is death. Beware then lest you trifle with the words of the sacred writers, and make them contradict themselves. Remember that Paul does not speak of the law in II. Cor. 3; 7, only incidentally, and that the only thing he says is done away is the glory of the former dispensation. The law is not entrenched upon nor its sacredness questioned, and the glory that is done away is done away only because the glory of the dispensation of the spirit is so much greater. Its more ample provisions exceed in glory and before its brightness; all lesser lights of consequence disappear.

THE FLIGHT OF THE "ANGELUS"

First Airship Ascension in the North West.

A Feature of the Lewis and Clarke Exposition.

Special to the Examiner.

Portland, Ore., July 27th.—The first air ship flight ever attempted in the great Northwest took place Tuesday, the start being made from the Lewis and Clark Exposition grounds, and it was fairly successful. Capt. T. S. Baldwin's big new airship, the Angelus was the vessel that made the ascent, Lincoln Beechey of Los Angeles being the man aboard. Capt. Baldwin spring something of a surprise upon the public, it not being generally known that he was going to try a flight with his new machine, which was constructed specially for the exposition events. Like Darius Green, he kept his secret, expecting to astartle the people. And startle them surely he did.

About three o'clock in the afternoon the thousands gathered on the exposition grounds began to hear, somewhere overhead, a peculiar buzzing, whirring sound. Looking up, they beheld the cigar-shaped Angelus rising gracefully from the aerial concourse and floating above the roofs of the fair. "It's a mighty fat cigar," said one, but nevertheless Capt. Baldwin calls it cigar-shaped. The Angelus, as the spectators noticed, is not nearly so elongated and pointed as to its gasbag as the Santos-Dumont machines, nor even as the California Arrow, Baldwin's vessel which made the only flight attended with any degree of success at St. Louis last year.

The Angelus is double the size of the California Arrow. It is 65 feet long by 20 feet wide. The gas-bag has a capacity of 16,00 cubic feet. The propeller blades are eight feet long and three wide and are operated by a seven horsepower gasoline motor. The rudder is ten feet long and six wide. It was brought here from California by Captain Baldwin to compete for the prizes offered by the Exposition.

The Angelus sailed over the grounds and out to the south, far above the city of Portland. Practically everybody in the city—and that means at this time at least 150,000 people—saw the strange creature and watched its manoeuvers, as it struggled for mastery over the upper elements. Craned necks were the rule, and the next morning cricked necks were by no means the exception. But everybody seemed intensely interested.

The craft made good time with the wind, but was not able to tack successfully, and after several efforts the aeronaut decided to make a landing without continuing his attempts to return to the exposition grounds. He landed safely south of Portland, near the Willamette River, after being up in the air for nearly two hours. He proposes to try it again when the weather is favourable, and Capt. Baldwin hopes for much better results in a gentler breeze.

Hereafter, during the Exposition period there will be airship flights two or three times a week, several types of vessels being represented. One of the latest arrivals is George Tomlinson of New York, a well-known airship experimenter. Mr. Tomlinson has a vessel of a pattern altogether different from the Angelus. He will try a flight within a few days.

Airship people all over the world show their deep interest in these experiments by the inquiries they are sending to Mayor T. S. Clarkson, who is in charge of the airship features at the exposition.

To the general public there seems to be nothing more thrilling than the sight of a frail craft swimming in the skies, with a man aboard as pilot, and an engine pulsing and puffing. Such sights will be almost everyday occurences this summer in Portland, and the men who spend their time in airship experiments prophesy great things.

Had Diarrhoea so bad he had to give up work.

HAVE YOU EVER BEEN IN THIS POSITION?

If you have not been, but ever do be, remember that Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is nature's specific for all Bowel Complaints.

It has been on the market for 60 years. Surely this is reputation enough as to its efficacy.

Mr. Henry Vell, Carthage, Ont., writes: "I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry with the best of results. Last summer I had the Diarrhoea so bad that I had to give up work. A friend of mine persuaded me to give Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry a trial, which I did, and can say that it cured me entirely. I can recommend it to all who are troubled with Diarrhoea."

Be sure and ask for Dr. Fowler's and take no substitute. All dealers sell it.

INGREASED INDEMNITY.

The general trend of public opinion seems to be in the direction of disapproval of the recent action of the House of Commons in increasing the sessional indemnity of members of Parliament from $1,500 to $2,500 per session. While this part of the action connected with the increase is sharply criticised, the action in extending pensions to ex-ministers is most severely condemned in many quarters. It is felt that unwarrantable generosity was exercised in pensioning ex-ministers. These were men as a rule amply repaid for their services while they were in office; in fact it is to be justifiably urged that many of them were more than repaid, especially some ex-ministers who might be mentioned, if regard were had to the quality and value of their services in their official capacity in relation to the highest interests of the country and the character of our public men. Most of the ex-ministers eligible for the prodigal pensions proposed have made well financially out of their positions. While it is not charged that they have profited directly at the public expense, it is known that their positions have given them a prominence and prestige that have afforded ample opportunity for monetary betterment, and in any event it is felt that in many of the cases, if not in all, the granting of a pension is not only a superogatory act, but a diversion of public funds from legitimate and useful purposes. In regard to the increased indemnity to members, there is reasonableness in almost everything but there does not seem to be any in this, for the new sum seems to be out of all reason. A large proportion of the members of parliament are not in attendance at the session half the time. While a few are constrained, either by a sense of public duty or by inclination, to be in constant attendance, a very large number of members are, so to speak, chronically absent, and only in their places when the division bell rings to permit them to record an automatic vote. Under such circumstances, it seems to be absurd that their indemnity should be almost doubled—so increased that it amounts to a salary or rather gratuity, for salary implies service. In some cases, the increase can almost be regarded as proper, for it may easily happen that paying some members $2,500 a session to be absent would be more in the interests of the country than paying them an indemnity of $1,500 on condition of constant attendance in the House. While it is proper that indemnity should be paid to members of sufficient amount to prevent them making a sacrifice by necessary neglect of business, it seems unreasonable to increase this indemnity to the proportions of a salary. The old indemnity was perhaps on the average sufficient—it might be inadequate in some cases but it was quite enough if not too much in other cases.

THE INDEMNITY GRAB.

Ottawa Journal.

The Toronto World is making loud-voiced protest against the Parliamentary salary grab, even calling for the formation of a Third Party.

The thought must occur to many that a protest in the House of Commons by Mr. W. F. Maclean, M.P., the proprietor of the World, would have been of more potency than newspaper condemnation now.

One is inclined to think that if but one single determined member of the House had in caucus told his colleagues that he refused to be a party to and would open fire in public on the proposition to increase their own sessional indemnities, the grab would not have been tried. No doubt some of the wealthier members of Parliament were restrained from taking this stand by the thought that if they did, their less well-to-do fellow-members would cast up to them the taunt that being well off themselves, they selfishly blocked the fair claims of poorer men to liberal compensation. This excuse does not apply conspicuously to Mr. Maclean, because although he has a fine property in the World, he is not probably an exceptionally wealthy man.

To be frank, the row the World is making is, under the circumstances, not impressive.

LABOUR FACTS IN THIS PROVINCE

Decrease in Strikes Since 1903 - Business Opportunities Suggested by Municipalities.

The fifth report of the Bureau of Labour was issued yesterday by Hon. Dr. Reaume, Minister of Public Works. Mr. Robert Glockling, the Secretary of the bureau, has been of much pains to provide reliable figures, and the whole report presents a very fair conception of the condition of labour interests and manufacturing industries in the Province.

The secretary has however, been seriously handicapped by the neglect, both of manufacturers and of labour organizations, to reply to the Government's request for information, and but meagre details were given by those who did reply. Only 174 manufacturers took the trouble and the labour bodies number but 227. The returns, however, afford a fair insight into the operation of the unions and the wage and labour status of the members. A directory of labour organizations in the Province is included, which fills 34 pages and appears to be very complete.

A section is devoted to business openings compiled from reports made by the clerks of nearly 300 municipalities. Several towns offer freedom from taxes and other advantages to new industries. Waterpower is to be had at Antrim, Calabogie, Dryden, Eganville, Frankford, Iroquois, Newburg, Otterville, South River, Tilsonburg, Whitevale and other places.

Several pages of remarks and suggestions from labour organizations sufficiently ventilate the views of labour men and may be worth study by the legislators. The carpenters tell how they have raised their wages by the union from 12 1-2 cents an hour in 1875 to 30 and 32 1-2 cents during the past four years. There is a general objection to assisted immigration and a demand for the eight-hour day. The engineers ask for the enforcement of an examination for certificates, and for marine engines the compulsory employment of certificated men.

Average Wages Paid.

A table of average wages indicates $12 to $15 per week as the ruling rate. The order of railway conductors at Fort William report $90; the Iron Moulders' Union, Dundas, $27.50; Brockville, St. Thomas and Smith's Falls locomotive engineers and Sarnia railway conductors $25 each. Toronto has the lowest wages, with the boot and shoe workers and plasters' labourers at $7, Smith's Falls being next with $7.69, the average of the Federal Labour Union. The highest average in Toronto is that of the marine engineers at $20.

Eight labour disputes were referred to conciliation under the act during 1904, and 54 strikes were reported, involving 171 establishments and 8,945 persons, covering an aggregate of 878 days. This is a decided reduction from the previous year, when 82 disputes occurred. The employers had the advantage in 34 settlements, the employed in 24. A compromise was reached in 28 cases; in 9 the terms were unknown, and in 6 both sides partially succeeded. A table of strikes and lockouts in Canada in 1904 with the results fills six pages, and comparative figures for Great Britain and the United States are added.

The Secretary's report of benefits paid to members by international organizations during the year shows a total (exclusive of sums paid as benefits by local unions) for death benefits, $782,383; ditto, members wives, $43,305; sick benefits, $750,-733; travelling benefits, $73,442; tool insurance, $5,873; unemployed benefits, $78,073. The membership of the American Federation of Labour is 1,676,200, a gain of 210,400 over 1903.

Cost of Living.

An interesting section is devoted to the cost of living in the United States in the years 1890 to 1902. The cost of food as a whole reached its highest in 1902, when it was 10.9 per cent. above the average of the ten years following 1890. The year of lowest prices was 1896, and the increase since then is 16.1 per cent. The estimated average cost of food per family in 1890 was $326.76. In 1902 it was $361.61. The figures were compiled from 2,567 families.

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Colour.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth loses something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Ormond & Walsh, special agents.

Mrs. Chadwick's Troubles.

Mrs. Chadwick, according to a despatch from Cleveland, Ohio, is a badly scared woman. "A rat," says the Telegram, "has appeared in her cell in the county jail, and it is making life miserable for her. It generally begins its visits about 7 o'clock in the morning, just when the prisoner is arising, and chases her. She jumps on chairs and utters screams which arouse all the prisoners and bring the deputy sheriffs to her cell. Mrs. Chadwick has appealed to Sheriff Mulhen for a trap, and he promised to buy one to-morrow.

Washington Treasury Officials Will Make Change.

Form of Dominion Bank Statement to be Followed at Washington Hereafter.

Washington, July 26.—The many bank failures which have occurred throughout the United States of late as a result of the speculative excesses of directors who have borrowed funds from their depositors' accounts, and have eventually caused the suspension of their banks, by reason of their inability, through losses in the stock market, to repay the borrowed money, are receiving the attention of the Treasury official, and in order to prevent a recurrence of the recent disastrous failures it is now proposed to copy the Canadian system of adding an item to the periodical bank statements, issued by the Government, showing clearly the aggregate amount of money loaned by each and every bank to its officers and directors, and also the amount of paper which they have indorsed in their own institutions. This system has been in use in Canada for many years, and the item mentioned is regarded as a very important feature of the monthly statemen s issued by the Dominion Government.

Such data are now conveyed to the Comptroller's office in the regular process of bank examinations. The office, however, has no power beyond the enforcement of the law, and the law has no provision as to the amount of indorsements that may be made by a bank officer on paper held by his own institution. Of course, the 10 per cent. clause limits the amount of loans to individuals, and there are other provisions that act as a restraint on unwise dealings between officers and their banks.

It is thought that what is needed now is such legal provisions as will warn the public as to conditions in banks which, although not in violation of the law, are not wise. Could these be made public by the insertion of an item showing gross liabilities of officers, people would have a valuable check upon the operations of the institution. Treasury officials think this would largely diminish the present evil.

A POLICEMAN LOST A GOOD OPPORTUNITY

To Catch a Place on Next Year's Bisley Team.

Yesterday a little dog belonging to Mr. Hamilton, of the Bank of Montreal staff, was severely injured by being run over by a street car, and the police department was called upon to put the dog out of pain.

A prominent member of the force promptly appeared on the scene with a double-barrelled shot-gun, and getting within a few feet of the victim, he sighted and fired. The arm of the law then walked off satisfied that he had done his duty. But he had hardly reached the police station when a messenger came after to tell him that he had missed the dog by a foot.

Another member of the force was immediately despatched to finish the work. He got out his revolver and pulled the trigger, but the cartridge did not explode. Investigation showed that the cartridge was defective, but this defect was soon remedied, and the dog was put out of its misery.

Thus the aforesaid member of "the finest," though he made a "hard-scrabble" for it, has lost a good chance to catch a place on next year's Bisley team, which his associate may capture.

Writing to a friend in Bowmanville, he says: "After two Sabbath days with this church and people, I have to say that my impressions are most favourable. There has been no lack of cordial welcome or of kindly expression of appreciation, and, best of all, the people are expectant of good being done. This means co-operation, and, therefore, success."—Bowmanville Statesman.

A Monster Separator.

Mr. W. L. Taylor, the enterprising manager of the Frost & Wood Agency, Water street, and general agent for farm machinery, has been successful in selling one of Case's complete steel separator, self-feeder and wind stack. This mammoth piece of machinery is said to be the first of the kind brought into Canada, and was purchased for Messrs. Reid & Wanamaker, of Otonabee.

Ever since its arrival in town it has attracted a great deal of attention on account of its monster proportions. It has a 28-inch cylinder and a 50-inch wind case. The driving-wheels are 61 inches high with 18-inch rims. The traction engine which accompanies it is of an entirely new pattern, and is rated at about 18 horse power. This outfit is manufactured in Rancine, Wisconsin. It will be on exhibition at the Frost & Wood Agency, Water street, until Saturday, where progressive threshmen may inspect it. Mr. Taylor has a customer for another of the Case separators, in wood.

WEIRD FOOT-RACE ON GEORGE ST.

Nocturnal Sporting Event Last Night Drew Large Crowd.

Butcher vs. Farmer in a Foot-Race for a $50 Wager—Excitement Was Intense.

As the witching hour of midnight approached, the town clock last night looked down upon strange doings on George street.

Probably never was such a motley crowd of human beings gathered together, and passers-by stopped to gaze in amazement at the scene which was being enacted, which was undoubtedly the strangest sporting event which has ever taken place in town.

The event was the outcome of a meeting in the rotunda of the Oriental Hotel a short time before, of a well-known local butcher and a Smith Township farmer of no mean physical proportions. The two, surrounded by a coterie of congenial spirits, engaged in a discussion upon their respective achievements in their younger days in the realm of foot-racing. The orators-in-chief, each aided and abetted by his own quota of admirers, waxed eloquent on the subject, their rounded periods and modulating tones gradually transforming themselves into the heated language of debate, till many sharp recriminations and veiled insinuations passed to and fro. The upshot was the posting of a most remarkable wager, the participants depositing their checks for $50 each with a well-known harness-maker, upon the result of a foot-race down George street from the corner of Hunter to the C. P. R. tracks, at the station. A prominent bowler was appointed as umpire.

The competitors lined up for the start and got away with a remarkable burst of speed, notwithstanding their aldermanic proportions. The crowd, which at first consisted of about half a dozen spectators, increased with almost incredible rapidity. Boarders hastily jumped from pyjamas to street attire of unconvential design, and rushed out, many very much en deshabille. In the course of five minutes several buggies, about a score of spectators, and a large number of dogs gazed upon the weird nocturnal occurrence, with bulging optics.

The runners made a beautiful sprint down the first block, at which point the butcher led by about a length, the agriculturist coming strong however. Another block was negotiated in this order, the silent midnight air being meantime rent by the puffing of the sprinters. A most unlooked for event then transpired to mar the pleasure of the assemblage. The farmer making a desperate spurt, secured a hold upon the person of his competitor, checking his wild career. The butcher, however, nothing daunted spurted and came under the (telegraph) wire at the station in a fresh condition, after the most remarkable "stunt" ever witnessed in the city. The purse was handed to the winner, and the crowd dispersed to their downy couches.

PIN WAS FOUND BY EXAMINER "AD."

An Evidence of the Value of the Examiner's Want Column.

Another proof of the value of the want colums of the Examiner was furnished to-day. Yesterday a valuable pearl pin was lost on the street and an advertisement was inserted in the Examiner and in the other papers in town, asking for its return. This morning Mr. Geo. Ball, the well-known Hunter street tailor, dropped into the Examiner to say that he had found a pin which answered the description of that advertised for at post-office corner. Upon finding it he put it in his pocket and thought nothing more of it until he happened to pick up a copy of the Examiner and noticed that a piece of jewelry had been lost. He came to the office early this morning and brought the pin, which was returned to the pleased owner this afternoon.

Another evidence of the fact that advertising in the Examiner brings results.

SCIENTISTS PIC-NIC AT JACKSON PARK

A Pleasant Afternoon Spent Enjoying the Material Realities of Life.

Yesterday afternoon a social gathering of Christian Scientists was held under the ozone-laden pine trees of Jackson Park. The ladies brought baskets which proved to be laden with the choicest fruits and delicacies from their respective homes. After enjoying an hour or two of pleasant intercourse and greeting, a large table was spread with the contents of the baskets and all sat down and partook, as one social family, of an excellent and varied bill of fare. The bright and beaming faces of those students of Mrs. Eddy's "Science and Health" was an indication of the happiness which seems to be contagious in their gatherings. The party remained to hear the band perform their excellent programme of music, and took the cars about 9 o'clock for their respective homes.

Stomach and Liver Troubles.

Mr. Alex. M. Finn, Inkerman, B.B., writes: "I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for derangements of the kidneys and liver and stomach troubles, and can certify that they did me a good deal of good. I can heartily recommend them to anyone suffering as I did."

Use Lever's Dry Soap (a powder) to wash woolens and flannels,—you'll like it. 42

—The Salvation Army Band will give several selections to-night in connection with the open air meeting at the corner of Hunter and Water streets from 7.45 to 8.45. The bands has decided to keep things interesting on the S. A. excursion to Jubilee Point next Tuesday.

—On Wednesday of last week, Col. McLean, warden of Counties, and County Councillor Masterson, inspected the Hastings bridge. One of the centre piers, the one to the north, will have to be repaired, as one of the large stones of the pier has been washed out. This had been done by the action of the water, which runs with great force against the structure, due to leaving the sluice ways, just above the pier, open.

—220 miles of pleasant sailing through delightful scenery, Saturday and Monday. Excursion under the auspices of Queen street Methodist church, Lindsay. Special train leaves Peterborough at 7.20 a.m. for Belleville, where excursionists will take the steamer Niagara for Thousand Island Park and Kingston. Fare $2.15 children half price. See bills for particulars.

—A special despatch to the Globe from Belleville describing the preparations made for Belleville's first Old Boys' Re-union, has the following reference to a Peterborough firm: "Many of the finest decorations were arranged by J. J. Turner & Sons, of Peterborough, notably the Hotel Quinte, the Corby Distillery Company's office, Mr. Corby's residence, the Balmoral Hotel, etc. Their work was much admired."

During hot weather, horses are liable to suffer from severe diarrhoea, which, if not checked, causes the animal's death. A number of animals in this district have died from this complaint. Dr. Poole, V. S., 420 Water street, Peterborough, has discovered a cure for the above, which, to prove his assertion, unless the animal recovers, he will charge nothing for his services. Owners of horses should take advantage of this offer. Telephone 459, or the above address, night or day. 12d16-2w

—Mr. J. H. McGill, of Washington, D.C., an enthusiastic Durham boy, has sent a cheque for $25 to the secretary of the Durham Old Boys' Association, Mr. T. Yellowlees, to be expended towards making the annual excursion of the Durham boys to Niagara Falls on the 31st inst., a day of great pleasure. This is Mr. McGill's second annual gift, and though he has been a resident of the United States for many years, his love for the old county and home of his boyhood has not lessened.

—To protect stock from being killed or injured by lightning many farmers practice ground wiring their wire fences. The practice is coming into more general use each year, and the ground wiring of fences is an easy matter. The plan is to put a wire down by the side of the fence post. Wrap the ground wire around each wire of the fence, have it extend into the ground at least three feet. This will require eight feet of wire for each post. Place them eight rods apart. Either galvanized or copper wire may be used. Seventy-five cents or one dollar will be sufficient to protect eighty acres of pasture land. Stock that are likely to be driven by a storm into fence corners or close to wire fences are in danger of being killed or injured by lightning. The ground wire will protect them from danger.

Failed to Swim English Channel.

Dover, Eng., July 27.—Edward Heaton of Liverpool started from here yesterday morning in an attempt to swim the channel, his intention being to land near Calais. The conditions were favorable to the accomplishment of his task. Heaton failed in his attempt. He became ill after six hours swimming, and only covered about a third of the distance.

Escaped an Operation.

"I had itching piles for six years, and the doctors told me there was no cure for me unless an operation. Dr. Chase's Ointment completely cured me in one week. As that was six months ago, and there has been no return of the old trouble I believe no return of the old trouble I believe that the cure is a permanent one."—Mr. J. Mawer, Roden, Man.

Ottawa Regiment Declined by U. S.

Boston, July 27.—Adjutant-General Stopford of Massachusetts has written a letter to Lieut.-Col. Maynard Rogers, commanding the 43rd Regiment, Duke of Cornwall's Own Rifles, Ottawa, declining his request that the regiment be permitted to enter this State under arms next month. He suggests that the armaments of the regiment be forwarded to Providence and that the command pass through Massachusetts in uniform. The occasion of the regiment's visit is to attend a celebration to be held by the British residents of Providence.

The commanding officer of the 43rd Regiment states that if yesterday's Boston despatch be true the trip will probably be cancelled, as it would be infra dig for the regiment to proceed to Provdence without arms.

Ste. Anne's Gala Day.

Quebec, July 27.—The anniversary of the feast of Ste. Anne was fittingly celebrated at the shrine of Ste. Anne de Beaupre yesterday, and the village is in gay attire. Three or four thousand people were present. An excursion from Duluth, Minn., carrying about 600 people, arrived Tuesday night.

The Food That Builds

Maybe you think of Mooney's Sodas only as a toothsome tidbit. Don't overlook their food value are made of finest Canadian wheat flour, pure butter and rich cream. There's nothing else of equal size and cost that contains so much wholesome nourishment.

Mooney's Perfection Cream Sodas

An ideal food.

All grocers have dainty dress and ship in 1 & 3 lb. packages.

MOONEY'S PERFECTION

LOCAL TEAM WON THEIR DISTRICT

The Lacrosse Team Defeated Bowmanville Yesterday.

The Score Was 6—3 and Game Was Warmly Contested.

The Peterborough Lacrosse Team are now the champions of this districts, having played four games, and won three of them.

Their last victory was achieved yesterdayat Bowmanville,when, on their own field the locals defeated that team by 6—3, in one of the hardest fought games of the season. As is evidenced by the score, the game was much closer than was that played here, when the Bowmanville team was only able to score one goal.

In yesterday's game, the Bowmanville team was considerably strengthened. Smith and Hughes, the two men who were out of the game the day the team played here, were again in harness and were a great help to the team.

The visitors, however, played better lacrosse and deserved to win. A number of the regular men on the team were unable to go, yesterday, and others were drafted in their place, and the team, as a whole played most effective lacrosse.

A feature of the game was the work of George Lynch, who, though he was minus the usual uniform, and played in regular clothes, put up a star game at third home and secured three out of the six goals.

The game was a strenuous exhibition and was characterised by close checking, some of the players returning bearing marks of the conflict. It was all taken in good part however, and good feeling exists between the two teams.

The locals will now go into the semi-final series, but have not yet been advised as to whom their next opponents will be.

Their record this season up to date has been most satisfactory, and they should give a good account of themselves in the remaining games.

OSHAWA FAILED TO PLAY GAME

Shamrocks Did not Keep Their Engagement Yesterday.

The lacrosse game, which was advertised to take place yesterday afternoon between the Shamrocks, of Oshawa, and the Young Peterboroughs, did not materialise. It appears that arrangements had been made that in return for a game which the Young Peterboroughs gave the Shamrocks in Peterborough last year, the latter should play here yesterday. The local team was to pay the visitors their expenses, and in advance, Mr. Fred. McGrath forwarded $7.50 to the team. Yesterday the players came to town with the excursion from Oshawa, but went right up the lakes, and did not stop off to play the game as was arranged.

The special train on the return trip did not reach here until 6.30, which was, of course, too late to play the game before leaving for home, and those who went to the park were disappointed.

It was through no fault of the local team that the game was not played, and those who bought tickets may produce their money on application to Mr. D. J. Devine at the G. T. R. ticket office. Mr. Fred. McGrath is trying to arrange a game with a Port Hope team, and those who held tickets for yesterday's game will be admitted to that game.

THE FIRST FINAL GAME TO-NIGHT.

To Decide the Championship of the Guild League.

Tonight at the McDonel street grounds the first of the final games for the Guild League championship, which carries with it the Examiner trophy, will be played, between Charlotte Street and St. Andrews teams, the winners of their respective districts. These games doubtless will create considerable interest, since both teams have a large following of supporters who are confident of the ability of their particular team which they happen to support to win out.

Mr. Stacey will umpire the game tonight and it is probable that there will be a good crowd on hand to see the first of the series to decide the championship.

LACROSSE.

A special despatch from Bowmanville to the Globe says of the game there yesterday:—

Peterborough crossed sticks with the home team to-day at the Drill Shed grounds. Peterborough had a strong team, and defeated the home team by the score of 6 to 3. Mr. Burt of Port Hope, being unable to referee the game, sent a substitute. Mr. T. Tuer. No doubt Mr. Tuer has not been in the business long, as he allowed everything to go, which made the game very rough in spots. This gives Peterborough the district, and here it is thought that the Electric City team, with their best team playing junior, should easily win out the championship.

* * * *

The Oshawa team arrived in the city yesterday morning, but went through to Lakefield, promising to be back in time for their game with the Young Peterboroughs. The visitors did not show up and the game was postponed until 5 o'clock. Later word was received that they could not get back until 7.30, and the game had to be declared off.

Naturally the local team feel very sore at the treatment they received. They had gone to some expense and had not received a gate to pay it off.

BASEBALL.

The team to represent St. Andrews in the game to-night with Charlotte Street on McDonel street grounds will be picked from the following:—McDonald, Swanston, Dunsford, Cameron, Dobson, Thornton, Butcher, Folley, Miller, and Patterson. All players are asked to be on hand at 6.45 sharp.

ANGLING.

The C. G. E. Angling Club will take their next outing on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock to Hale's Bridge. Rear Admiral Ray has kindly consented to place a torpedo destroyer at the disposal of the club. A jolly good time is anticipated for the boys. It is requested that each member will bring his own lunch bag, ham sandwiches preferred. Tea will be provided for those who wish it. The Commodore will give a valuable cigar case to the one who procures the most fish in weight, each barred, silver bait and conversation with Indians not allowed.

POST CARD CORRESPONDENCE

In this column will be published communications upon post cards only. It will be kept open for the use of readers, who are invited to contribute suggestions, inquiries or replies. Anything of a scurrilous personal nature will be prohibited.

Editor of the Examiner,—

Dear Sir,—I notice in the Globe a contemplation of the report of the Labour Bureau. I do not see Peterborough on the list of manufacturers with inducements to offer to manufacturers. Did our Aldermen fail to reply to the requests of the Bureau for information? Why was so good a chance of advertising neglected?

CRITIC.

July 26th, 1905.

Dear Sir,—If a man makes himself so disagreeable to his neighbours for two blocks around his house, that they unanimously vote him a public nuisance, should they not try everything in their power to have him removed? There is such a character living on a certain street. His ideas clash, and frightens the children away from the very sidewalk in front of his door, by his carelessness. He won't let a horse be tied within five feet of his grass, and he kills every bird he can catch, for fear they will eat his fruit. On last Monday, he had a respectable, inoffensive neighbour fined two dollars and costs for abusing his children. Can you suggest any way of making him live up to the Golden Rule?

JUSTICE.

Kidney Disease for Twenty Years.

Mrs. Caswell Reid, Orrville, Muskoka, Ont., writes: "For nearly twenty I was troubled with kidney disease and have recently been completely cured by using three boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I have tried a great many remedies but never seemed to get anything that did me so much good until I used these pills."

—George Valois was fined $2 and $4.60 costs this morning for being found drunk in a public place.

A GOOD YIELD NOW ASSURED

Report That Wheat Crop Will Be 32 Bushels to Acre.

Encouraging Reports are Being Received From the West.

Calgary, N.W.T., July 26.—The latest estimate of the fall wheat yield in Alberta is placed at 8,000,000 bushels. This in spite of the Federal Government report, which shows but ten thousand acres of fall wheat in the whole of Alberta. So overwhelming has become the interest of fall wheat culture that an organization is now forming in Alberta similar to the Western Canadian Immigration Association, to place in the States an office to secure publicity for the Canadian fall wheat lands.

Within the past two days general rains have fallen all over Alberta, the fall wheat harvest has commenced, and the yield is running thirty-two bushels to the acre.

No Damage in Manitoba.

Winnipeg, Man., July 26.—To-day's crop report of the Canadian Northern Railway is altogether favourable. With the hot weather and showers prevailing during the past week a splendid advance has been made, and wheat is now heading out nicely. Oats are also reported to be headed out. There is no report of damage from any source.

HORSE BACKS INTO "FLYER"

Misses Inglehart of Palermo Victims of a Level Crossing Accident Near Oakville Station — Two Other Fatal Horse Accidents — Babe Fell Out of a Window in Montreal— Other Fatalities.

Oakville, July 27.—As a result of a little recklessness and a frightened horse, a double fatality occurred here yesterday afternoon when the Misses Inglehart of Palermo were instantly killed by the International Limited of the G. T. R.

The accident occurred at the sixth line level crossing, a short distance west of the station. The ladies had been shopping in Oakville during the afternoon, and were on their way home.

As they neared the crossing they were warned by a farm hand of the approach of the flyer. The view of the track, however, was obstructed by the station and by a number of cars on the siding.

They drove ahead and managed to cross the tracks in safety. Unfortunately the horse became frightened by the noise and excitement and, stopping, backed up.

The locomotive struck the buggy and demolished it. One of the occupants was hurled about two rods; her sister not quite so far. One had her head badly mangled, the other was but little marked. The horse was not injured.

Dr. Lusk and Dr. Urquhart were summoned, but found that both women had met with instant death. The bodies were removed to the undertaker's mortuary. No inquest will be held.

The Misses Emma and Ella Inglehart were the only daughters of J. E. Inglehart of Dundas street, Palermo, one of the oldest and best known families in the County. They were about 30 years of age. Mrs. Inglehart died last fall.

Woman Hurled to Death.

Comber, July 27.—While returning from Lake St. Clair attending a church picnic, Mrs. Chris. Stevenson of Mersea Township, was thrown from her buggy in crossing the G. T. R. tracks at Stoney Point. The unfortunate woman fell under the horse's feet, and her skull was fractured, death ensuing before the arrival of a physician. The deceased was a middle-aged person, and leaves a husband and grown-up family.

Head Cut Off by Train.

Merritton, July 27.—James Mathison, lock-tender on the new canal, was found dead on the Grand Trunk tracks just east of the station here. His head was completely severed from the body.

Falls to His Death.

Owen Sound, July 27.—William Minors, an unmarried man, whose home is in Kincardine, was killed by a fall from a permanent scaffold in the oiling-room of the Grey & Bruce Cement Works. He was oiling the shafting, when in some manner he lost his footing and fell headlong to the cement floor, a distance of 16 feet.

In Changing Seats, Boat Capsized.

Buffalo, July 27.—A double drowning accident on the Welland Canal, near Montrose, Ont., occurred Tuesday night. The victims were Miss Hattie Hayden and Ernest Doane, both residents of Niagara Falls, N.Y. They were in a boat with Gertrude Dick and Chas. Bloore. An attempt was made to exchange seats, the boat being capsized.

Dynamite Disfigures Children.

Tottenham, July 27.—By the exploding of a dynamite cartridge in the hands of two children of William Courtney, near here, a boy of seven years of age, had three fingers torn off his right hand, and the other, a child of ten years, had the flesh torn from his body and arm. Both children are badly disfigured about the face, but no fatal results are anticipated.

One Man Dead, Three Dying.

Tottenham, July 27.—By the falling of trestle work on the construction of the new C. P. R. road, about three miles south of here, six cars loaded with gravel fell some ten feet and buried beneath the debris four men, three of whom were extricated, badly and probably fatally injured, and the fourth instantly killed. The dead man is a Russian; 28 years of age, and unmarried. No cause can be assigned for the accident, the structure being apparently substantially built.

Unhappy Women!

No woman can be happy when her health is undermined. No woman can have good health while she suffers from female weakness, inflammation, ulceration or any disease of the delicate womanly organs. Nervous, sleepless, fretful, suffering in body and mind, she does not live but only exists.

More than a half a million such women have found a perfect and permanent cure for their diseased condition in the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Women cured by this remedy say it is a "wonderful medicine," so perfectly does it restore them to health and comeliness.

There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription," neither does it contain opium, cocaine, nor any other harmful drug. It is in the strictest sense, an honest, temperance medicine. Its ingredients are purely vegetable, and it will agree with the most delicate constitution.

Don't be hypnotized, or over persuaded, into accepting a substitute. This medicine has a record that's worth far more than any difference in price.

Sick and ailing women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, either personally or by letter, absolutely without charge or fee, thus avoiding the unpleasant questionings, offensive examinations and obnoxious local treatments considered necessary by many local practitioners. All correspondence treated as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Write without fear and without fee to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

CHEESE MARKETS.

Woodstock, July 26.—Fifteen factories offered 2300 cheese, half of which were colored. The highest offer on the board was 10 5-16c, with no sales. On the street buyers offered 10⅜c, and in two or three cases 10 7-16c, which a few factory men accepted.

Safe Blowers at Welland.

Welland, July 27.—Early yesterday morning the safe in the Welland post-office was blown up by robbers, but they were unsuccessful in securing any booty. They covered the safe with mail bags to deaden the explosion, and Dr. H. Weller, who was upstairs in the building, did not hear it. They attempted to break into C. Ramsay's barn, and then stole a sorrel mare and democrat wagon from Mr. McQueen and left town.

Profitable Herring Curing.

Ottawa, July 27.—The Department of Marine and Fisheries has decided to continue at Yarmouth, N. S., the experiments in the Scotch method of curing herrings which have been carried out with so much success at Canso. Herring cured by this process have sold for $15 per barrel in the Boston market, as against $7 paid for Nova Scotia herring cured in the ordinary way.

THAT BOUNDARY STORY.

The Story From New York of Change Is Not Confirmed.

Ottawa, July 26.—Mr. W. F. King, Dominion Astronomer, was seen last night in regard to the story from New York that East Richford and Steven's Mills, in the State of Vermont, near the international boundary line, have been discovered to be in Canada.

Mr. King, on behalf of Canada, and Mr. D. H. Tittmann for the United States, have charge of the boundaries generally. In regard to this particular boundary line Mr. Rainboth represents Mr. King, and Mr. Bayley represents Mr. Tittmann. They were instructed to report upon the conditions of the monuments, etc., but there was no intention of changing the line in any way. The line as now located has been ratified by treaty. The line was defined in the treaty of 1842 and the monuments which were erected in 1845 are in need of repair.

Mr. King says that he has been in constant communication with Mr. Rainboth, who has not mentioned anything of this alleged discovery. The monuments at best could only be changed a few feet. To Mr. King it seemed impossible for parties to shift the line, which was correctly marked by the commissioners in 1842.

LARGELY ATTENDED.

Convention of the Union of Canadian Municipalities at Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, July 26.—The convention of the Union of Canadian Municipalities opened yesterday with a large attendance from the east, Manitoba and the Territories. Mayor Urquhart of Toronto, in the absence of Mayor Laporte of Montreal, president of the union, occupied the chair.

Mayor Thomas Sharpe welcomed the delegates to Winnipeg.

The president's address was given by Mayor Urquhart, who referred to the battle at the House of Commons over the Toronto & Hamilton Railway two years ago, in which Montreal came forward to fight for the rights of Toronto. There should be Provincial union in each Province, meeting annually, and appointing delegates to the convention of the Union of Canadian Municipalities. Provincial organization could look after legislation in Provincial Parliaments, while the Dominion union could watch the interests of municipalities in the Ottawa House.

The annual report of the secretary-treasurer was read by W. D. Lightall. The union, he said, has had a history of continued success since its formation. There are now on roll 130 members, comprising practically all the leading municipalities of Canada.

The principal event of the year had been the formation of the Dominion telephone committee, which had been the means of throwing a flood of light on the telephone situation. In Ottawa and Montreal the municipal forces were lining up for a corporation fight.

Deadly Level Crossing.

Toronto, July 26.—Again the deadly level crossing has been the cause of a tragedy. This time Michael Lanigan, aged 55, a teamster, residing at 63 Palmerston avenue, was killed while driving across the railway tracks at the foot of Spadina avenue yesterday morning. On his wagon was a heavy load of clay. When he started down the steep hill that leads to the car tracks, he saw the train coming from the east. Throwing all of his weight upon the reins, he endeavored to swerve his team and himself from the approaching death. His effort was made too late.

Fell From Movng Car.

Toronto, July 26.—Jumping from a swiftly moving car to catch his hat, which had blown off, Albert Dale of 134 Dundas street, was thrown to the pavement yesterday and sustained what may prove to be a fracture at the base of the skull. He was taken to the Emergency and left last night he had not fully regained consciousness. His condition is critical.

Autoed Too Fast and Was Fined.

Brockville, July 27.—Herbert Vance, chauffer for Douglas Ogilvie, who is summering in Brockville, was fined $5 and costs yesterday for running his machine at speed exceeding ten miles an hour through the town, contrary to the provisions of the act recently passed.

Fall Wheat in Alberta.

Winnipeg, Man., July 27.—The latest estimate of the fall wheat yield in Alberta is placed at 8,000,000. The fall wheat harvest has commenced. The yield is running thirty-two bushels to the acre.

Mr. Spencer on Duty.

THE grate of a range will get out of repair. If you let ashes accumulate in the pan until they come near the grate you are sure to burn it out or warp it. On account of the construction of ordinary ranges, repairing a grate means taking out the fire bricks and practically taking the fire-box to pieces. It is the work of a stove expert.

The Imperial Oxford Range has a patented draw-out duplex grate. By this construction the grate and frame is readily drawn out over the ash-pan without even disturbing the linings. Repairs are thus easily effected even by one without experience.

The life of the fire-box linings is thus prolonged, as they do not require to be moved to repair the grate.

This is only one of the exclusive points of the Imperial Oxford Range which make it last long and reduce the necessity and expense of repairs. Though the baking and roasting qualities of the oven are the most vitally important features of the Imperial Oxford Range, we have forgotten nothing that will make it last long and add to the ease of its operation.

Write for some of our booklets and the name of the nearest dealer who can show you an Imperial Oxford Range. 19

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-west Provinces, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him.

Homestead Duties.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector.

Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

CHARMING SOCIAL EVENT AT JUNIPER PAVILION

Minstrel Show Last Night Was a Great Success, Both Socially and Financially—Large Attendance and a Delightful Musical Programme—An American Visitor Makes Surprising Catch—Interesting Personal Items.

Juniper Island pavilion last night was the scene of a grand musicale arranged by the committee representing the Cottagers' Association. Never, perhaps, in the history of the Lakes, did a more enjoyable social event take place, and it may appropriately be said that "all waters led to the pavilion" last night. Every portion of the lake contributed its "plesides" to swell the number that converged there. Special mention must be made of Hon. Lawrence Graham, of New York, to whose activity and foresight, the greater part of the success of the affair is due. Miss Forbes, of Toronto, a guest at the Victoria House, kindly played the piano accompaniments, and assisted greatly towards the splendid outcome of the concert.

Mr. Graham occupied the chair, and announced the various numbers upon the programme in his usual happy manner.

The opening Hidden Chorus by the minstrels was rendered with beautiful ensemble effect and heartily enjoyed. The opening chorus which followed was also presented in a manner which delighted the audience. Mr. Clayton Chown contributed a turn which won well merited appreciation. The jokes and end songs by Messrs. Rogers, Walker, O'Brien and Simpson, were most mirth productive and drew from the audience an enthusiastic manifestation of its pleasure. The vocal quartette, composed of Messrs. Douglas and Bruce Paton, A. Simpson and J. Walker, who have since their arrival on Saturday, contributed so generously to the pleasure of the music-loving sojourners at Stony Lake, last night again delighted the audience. Their numbers won equal appreciation both in quartette and individual selections. The chorus which closed the first part of the programme was received with a sprightly movement in keeping with the spirit of the composition.

The mandolin and guitar duet by Misses Koch and McCabe, of Pittsburgh, opened part two of the programme, and was delightfully presented. It was greeted with hearty applause. A later number was also received.

A boxing bout between Messrs. C. Malson and F. Oliver of the Toronto Canoe Club, was an interesting exhibition of the "manly art." A duet from "Babes in Toy Land" was rendered with musicianly interpretation by the Misses Graham. A vocal solo by Miss Forbes was a charming number and was thoroughly enjoyed.

The dances last night were particularly attractive numbers. The "Highland Fling" as presented by Miss Scrieber and Mr. Thompson, were thoroughly charming exhibitions of the renowned dance. The Dutch sketch and sand dance "Susan Vandoozen" by Mr. H. Rogers was productive of much mirth. The dialect work was particularly good.

At the conclusion of the programme the chairman made the gratifying announcement that the proceeds of the concert had amounted to $25, which sum will be devoted to the Regatta and Pianola Funds. A delightful evening's entertainment closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

The members of the Stony Lake Minstrels wish to express their thanks to Messrs. J. J. Turner & Sons, and Mr. Harry Gray for their kindness in providing costumes, wigs, etc.

During the last few days the 'lunge gathered in by the fishermen have been somewhat scanty, and a great surprise always accompanies the capture of a member of this tribe. But imagine the astonishment of Dr. Erwin of "Satisfaction Camp," when he hauled in a monster snapping-turtle the other day. The doctor was on the point of bringing into the boat a fine lunge when this monster, thinking it had a better claim on the fish than he protested strongly against this act, by catching hold of 'lunge to make away with it, but the doctor being the stronger of the two, won the tug-of-war and the two prizes.

Miss Pearl Landy came up to the lakes yesterday.

Mr. H. P. Kennedy is the guest of Mr. McCarthy, near McCracken's Landing.

Dr. Morrison came up to his cottage, "Elfin Nook" last night.

Mr. Geo. Cosburne went up to Stony Lake yesterday.

Mr. Ernest Payne is at the lakes for a holiday.

Dr. Gibson, Lakefield, went down the lake yesterday morning.

Mr. T. Earle returned home yesterday.

Miss Helen Davies came up to the lake yesterday.

Mr. Bruce Hutchinson took a voyage around the lakes yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner and children, Miss Foster, Miss Cottrell and Mr. Stewart Malcolm, of Toronto, are at Glenwood.

Mr. Frank Crowes returned to Toronto, yesterday after a three weeks visit to Stony Lake. He will return on Saturday accompanied by a friend for a three weeks' trip up the Trent waters.

CLEANLINESS AND GOOD CHEESE

Farmers Must be More Scrupulous About Scrubbing.

The reports of dairy instructors are almost unanimous in stating that any defects or inferiority in cheese are due to the lack of cleanliness.

"Will the farmer ever learn to protect himself?" asks one instructor, who is almost despondent on this point. The most scrupulous cleanliness is necessary to produce the best quality of dairy product, but the farmer is frequently quite careless on this point. As the season advances, it would appear that more care is taken, for milk has been observed to keep better in July than in May or June of each year. It is supposed that the two months are spent in learning the necessity of paying more attention to the cans and other utensils.

PATENT REPORT.

Below will be found a list of Canadian patents recently secured through the agency of Messrs. Marion & Marion, Patent Attorneys, Montreal, Canada, and Washington, D. C.

Frank C. Buck, Prahran, Vict., Australia, valves and cocks.

Daniel Carpentier, Paris, France, method or process for lubricating with a continuous circulation and a partial recovery of the lubricant.

"THE DAYLIGHT STORE"

BIG SMASH IN PRICES

We know and the manufacturers know, that it is better to sell clothing at a reduction and even at a loss, than to pack it away and pay the cost of investment and run the risk of changing fashions. It is for these reasons then that we are selling our

Two-Piece Suits

at such a reduction, and two full wearing months ahead. Prices like this:—

$12.00 Suits for $9.90
$10.00 Suits for $8.90
$8.50 Suits for $6.90

These prices are genuine and are attracting widespread attention.

Our Special Sale

Also continues on our large stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's Regular Suits.

Furnishings at Special Prices

We have Boys' Blouses at 24c, were 50c
Men's Shirts at 69c, were 75c and $1.00
Also several odd lines at special prices to clear. We don't mind the loss, we can use the money but not the goods.

PREVENT DEATH OF INFANTS

Montreal Doctor Says Mothers Must be Educated.

The infant mortality in Montreal is deplorably high, in one week no fewer than 120 children succumbing to infantile diseases. Doubtless the intense heat tended to make the record bad, but as many of the children died of enteric trouble, the authorities are looking into the purity of the milk supply so important to child health. Dr. Laberge, the Medical Health Officer, thinks good work is to be done in this direction, and in providing breathing spaces for the people. He is thus quoted:

"It is not easy to evolve a scheme which will meet all our requirements in this direction. We must teach the mothers. Well, lectures are to be given you say. Very good—but many mothers cannot attend them. Pamphlets are to be circulated. Very good; but many of the mothers cannot read.

"My idea is that this work should be undertaken by ladies, who could receive special instruction, and then impart the necessary knowledge to the poor people. It would be a great philanthropic work. They would be missionaries in a noble cause, and it would be a work of honour among them."

He sketched a plan for an association to carry on this work, and suggests district physicians shall be provided for the poor, and that the municipality furnish milk free, or at a small cost, for infant feeding. In this way he thinks, great good might be accomplished.

In Hamilton, says the Times, we have a much more gratifying state of things. Infant mortality is low, sanitary surroundings, pure food, and plenty of breathing spaces contribute to healthful childhood. Our Medical Health Officer has done, and is doing good work in the way of guarding the purity of our milk supply, which is perhaps as good as any in Canada, and most parents are above the average in intelligence, so that the little ones get a chance for life. But the city is growing, and it would be well for the people to look to the future and secure plenty of park room in the newer sections. It will be a good investment.

THE DEATH RATE MOST APPALLING

Conditions on the Isthmus of Panama.

Foreign Labourers Will be Engaged—Many Difficulties to Overcome.

In view of the fact that a resident of Peterborough recently returned from Panama, the following article from the Toronto Globe will be of interest:—

The weather recently experienced is likely to create some sympathy with the workmen and officials who find the conditions of life intolerable on the construction work of the Panama Canal. President Roosevelt is impatient with the men who have given up, and compares them with those who retire to the rear in a battle and declare that things are all wrong at the front. But the memory of the frightful death rate reported during the attempt of the French engineers to carry out this work will convince the American people that the obstacles encountered are by no means imaginary. The Canal Commission has decided to put 2,000 each of Japanese, Chinese and Itpiani labourers at work to test their comparative working capacity in the zone and the applicability of the contract system to that work. The commission has announced that it will soon be ready to call for contracts for these labourers on the isthmus. These contracts will run for 900 days, subject to renewal. The labourers will be furnished by contractors, and will have to be on hand before December 1, next. The Government will furnish free hospitals and medical attendance, unfurnished quarters, fuel for cooking, and water, under a recent decision of the Attorney-General labourers will work eight hours a day.

The class of labourers going to the isthmus will not be entitled to enter the United States, because of an act of the last Congress which made the immigration laws applicable to persons coming from the canal zone to the United States. While the republic is quite able to prevent immigration from the canal zone, to exclude all possibly useful goods, and keep the business of supply to American houses, it cannot control the temperature nor the natural conditions which make sanitation impossible. There are human as well as engineering difficulties to be overcome, and the experiments to be made with labour from various sources may not show satisfactory results. There are strong railway influences opposing the construction of the canal. The present charge for transcontinental freight is based on the cost in shipment of vessels around Cape Horn. The traffic will not bear more than this charge, but freight which must be carried at greater speed can be transmitted that higher rates are levied. So accurate is this rate adjusted to the cost of vessel transportation that when a shipment is made to a point on a transcontinental line this side of the coast the charge is actually higher than if the freight were carried on the terminus. The charge to an interior point, instead of being less than that to the coast, is equal to the charge to the coast, with the return freight to its destination added. The rate to an interior point is consequently based on the freight charge to Cape Horn, and the subsequent charge from the Pacific Coast in to the destination of the goods. Evidently the canal would greatly cut down the rate of transcontinental shipments by lessening the time and cost of transportation by water. The opposition of railway interests will eventually be overcome, and American enterprise and energy should be able to surmount the natural difficulties imposed by an unhealthy climate.

PRIZE LISTS ARE NOW OUT

Many New Features for Peterborough Exhibition This Year.

Royal Canadian Dragoons Will Give Musical Ride—More Prizes Than Ever Before.

The posters and prize lists for the Peterborough Central Exhibition are now out, and the Exhibition will this year be greater and grander than ever before, with the numerous additional features which have been added. It will take place on September 25, 26 and 27.

One of the features of this year's Exhibition will be the presence of the Royal Canadian Dragoons, who will give each day a grand musical ride.

President D. Hughes Charles and the Board of Directors have spared no pains to work out the details of the Exhibition, which are complete in every respect. The Board has this year the services of Mr. K. Hardley-Wilmot, whose executive ability will be of great value in the administration of the affairs in connection with the Fair.

The prize lists have been revised and are much larger than ever before. Copies may be secured by addressing the secretary, Mr. Fred. Hall, at the Sheriff's office.

RECORD YEAR FOR WATER SERVICES

Commissioners Will Get an Increased Revenue This Year —Many New Services Are Being Placed This Summer—Work Will be Started on the Duplication of the Water Street Mains in August.

The number of water services which have been put in this year so far, justifies the statement that the record of all previous years will be exceeded before the season is over.

Ever since the frost was out of the ground, a large force of men has been employed chiefly in placing in new services and the applications for services are so numerous that it is almost impossible to keep pace with the demands.

The Commissioners, however are doing the very best they can, and the prospects are, that with the increased revenue from the new services, the surplus from that department of the public service this year will be larger than it has yet been.

Everyone who accepts a new house now wants connections with the water mains, and, it can be readily understood that even if no new connections were made except those to new dwellings, the Commissioners would have applications for a very large number.

As yet no work has been done on the new mains which will be laid on Water street north to duplicate the present main there, but the material is on the ground, and it is probable that next month will see the work started.

A new main has been laid on Benson avenue in response to applications which have been received for services from resident in that part of the city. The laying of this main will prove a great benefit to those living in that section and hydrants will also be placed there for fire protection.

The Commissioners were very fortunate in purchasing all the material early, since if it had not been procured then they would not have been able to get it now. The foundries are all so busy that they cannot accept orders for immediate delivery.

HOT WEATHER AND LOW DEATH RATE

For July This Year Deaths Have Been Few.

Less Than Half as Many as There Were in 1904—Little Sickness.

The warm weather seems to be healthy after all. The deaths for July of this year up to date are much below the normal number, and during the 28 days of this month only nine deaths have been recorded in this city as compared with 22 in 1904, or more than twice as many.

It would seem, therefore, that with all the hot weather, the health of the people is better than the average. In spite of the fact that a number of children have been ill with measles the services of the doctors have been required to a very limited extent, and the general complaint of the doctors is that there is very little sickness.

One physician stated to-day that he did not remember a July in which there was so little call for his services, and another member of the same profession made a similar statement.

The undertakers have a complaint along the same line. During this month only 16 funerals have been handled by all the undertakers, and of these, seven were out of town residents. This is a much smaller number than usual.

The generally accepted theory that the summer vacation was conducive to sickness and death seems this year to have been upset. The last two summers have been cool and the deaths numerous, while this year, with the hottest July in years, the death rate has been very low.

A Rich Haul by the Game Warden Mr. G. W. Fitzgerald.

Mr. G. W. Fitzgerald, the newly appointed game warden for Eastern Ontario, has disposed of the One hundred and thirty odd beaver skins which he seized in a shed in this city some months ago and today they were sent to Toronto where they had been sold for $600. Mr. Fitzgerald had been offered a good sum for the skins by a local firm but the department in Toronto had been offered 10 per cent. better than that which he secured here, and consequently their offer was accepted.

Mr. Fitzgerald has already made enough for the department to pay his whole year's salary, so that he is apparently proving a valuable man in the position.

But because he had done so well up to now, there is no reason to believe that his efforts will be relaxed in the future.

THOS. STENSON'S NARROW ESCAPE

Shirt Sleeve Was Wound Around Revolving Shaft

Employee in C. G. E. Company's Machine Shop Met With Close Shave Yesterday.

Thomas Stinson, an employee of the Canadian General Electric Company, in the machine shop, where he is an oiler, met with an experience which although fortunately it did not result disastrously, might easily have caused his death, or at least might have resulted in a serious accident.

Mr Stinson, who is a comparative stranger to the city, having been here only a short time, is a young man, and yesterday afternoon he was oiling a counter shaft in the machine shop, when sitting up in his chair caught in the belt, and almost before he knew what had happened, the sleeve was torn to the shoulder, and was being wound around the shaft.

Fortunately the other men in the shop saw the danger in which he was in, and shut off the power immediately and the young man was cut down. It is stated had not the shafting not been stopped just at the time that I twas, Mr. Stinson would have been seriously, if not fatally, injured, as he would have been wound around the revolving shaft.

As it was he was not injured beyond a few bruises, but the shock was such that as soon as he was released from the shafting he fell to the floor unconscious.

He is better to-day, however, and is working as usual.

IMPROVEMENTS AT MR. H. H. EDMISON'S

Handsome Drug Store Greatly Brightened by Re-decoration.

The repairs to Mr. H. H. Edmison's drug store, George street, which have been in progress for some time are now complete, and the fine roomy interior now presents a greatly improved and thoroughly modern appearance.

The interior of the store has been re-papered and painted, and this with a number of minor improvements which have been made has added wonderfully to its bright and attractive appearance.

The store has been noted in the past for its up-to-date facilities and large and varied range of stock and the improvements just completed are in keeping with the progressive policy of the proprietor.

ADVENTURES OF A TONSORSIAL ARTIST

How He Went Fishing and Caught a Cow.

A George street merchant, who occasionally follows the art of Izak Walton, set out one fine day to a brook that he knew of, where the trout were plentiful and always in good humour. The tonsorial artist indulged in a good afternoon's sport, and succeeded in landing a good bag of the finny tribe.

To carry the fish as they were would be no easy task so he proceeded to lighten his load by cleaning them. In the meantime some cows strayed down to watch the operations, and one of them seeing the split bamboo rod lying on the bank took a fancy to it, and taking hold of it set off for the farm with the enraged angler after it.

After a hot chase the rod was duly recovered and the thief chastised. But on returning to the brook there was more trouble; the other cows were busy investigating the barber's lunch. The new intruders were driven away, but the sportsman had to trek home along the long dusty road with a silent sorrow in the region of his stomach, and a mental soreness which made the road so long.

The Chemong Regatta.

The Regatta Committee of the Chemong Park Cottagers' Association have arranged for an excursion to the Sturgeon Point Regatta, on Thursday, August 3rd, by Steamer Ogemah. This will be a very enjoyable outing and a good day's sport will be provided at the Point. Boat will leave Chemong at 9.30 a.m., after the arrival of busses from Peterborough; returning will leave the Point at 5.30, arriving at Chemong about 8 p.m. Fare, return, 75 cents; from Indian Village or Oak Orchard, and return, 50 cents; from Bobcaygeon and return, 25 cents. McCollum Bros. will arrange for special busses to connect provided they receive notice from a sufficient number in advance.

HORSE AND BUGGY DISAPPEARED

Thought to Have Been Stolen Last Night.

Animal Left Standing in Front of Lipsett's Hotel About 10.30 O'clock by Lakefield Young Man.

A horse and buggy which was left for a few minutes in front of Lipsett's Hotel, 5th Ward, disappeared last night at about 10.30 o'clock, under circumstances which point strongly to a deliberate case of theft.

The animal which is a valuable mare, is a bright bay in colour, and four years old, and was hitched in a black steel tire buggy. It is the property of Greenley's Livery, Lakefield, from which place it was hired last night by a young man of that village to drive down to Peterborough. He left the horse standing before the hotel, when he entered shortly after ten o'clock, and when he came out, some ten minutes later, discovered that it had vanished. No trace has since been found of the missing horse and vehicle and there is a strong suspicion that it is a case of theft. Any information regarding it may be forwarded to the Chief of Police.

MRS. RICHARD MOWRY DIED IN TORONTO

Former Peterborough Resident Bereft of His Wife.

Word was received in town to-day of the death in Toronto this morning of the wife of Mr. Richard Mowry, who was a former resident of Peterborough. Mrs. John Weir, a sister of Mr. Mowry, went to Toronto a few days ago to nurse Mrs. Mowry, who had been seriously ill, but she gradually became worse, and passed away to-day. It is not known yet when the funeral will be.

Depew's Ward's Trouble.

Senator Chauncey M. Depew's ward was married some time ago to M. Czaikowski, who was described as the son of the "vice-roy of Lithuania." This gentleman, it appears from a Paris cable, was recently sent to jail on a criminal charge. He went to a banker in the Rue Vivienne and, stating he was shortly to come into a large heritage in Boston, and that he was a relative of the Vanderbilts, asked for a loan on his prospects, which he stated amounted to $20,000,000. He asked for a loan of $2,750. The banker thrown off his guard, at once advanced the money, but the relatives of the Vanderbilts did not return, and the law was set to work, with the result that Czaikowski was sentenced to five years in prison.

Of this number 29 are specialists in science, 23 in modern languages, and 19 classics and mathematics.

A Man's Right.

Legally and sentimentally a husband has a right to his dead wife's wedding ring, was the opinion handed down yesterday morning by Judge Morgan, Toronto. The judgment was the outcome of a pathetic case, where the deceased's mother, Mrs. Mary Murray, claimed the ring as bequeathed to her by her daughter on the latter's death bed. Mrs. Murray said that she would not give up the ring to the widower, John Miller, as ordered by the judge.

A Dumb Soldier.

Jac Moore, of Gosport, who served in South Africa, was invalided home, became dumb, and remained dumb. Last week, says the Tilsonburg Observer, his bicycle suddenly skidded, and he cried out. Surprised to hear himself speak he again tried, and found that his voice had returned, and astounded his landlady on entering the house by wishing her "good evening." He can now carry on conversation as well as before he lost the power of speech.

THE JAPANESE IN ALEXANDROVSK

Japs Capture the Chief City of Sakhalin Island Without Heavy Resistance—Japanese Captured Prisoners and Much Ammunition—Light Thrown Upon Japanese Peace Proposals by Baron Komura, Who Demands a Quartette of Necessary Things to Make His Services Effective.

Tokio, July 28.—It is announced at army headquarters that the Japanese army landed on Sakhalin Island on the morning of July 24, without meeting heavy resistance from the Russians, commenced landing in the neighborhood of Alkova, eight miles north of Alexandrovsk, and that Alexandrovsk was seized Tuesday.

The following official announcement was made yesterday afternoon: "The detachment detailed to protect the landing of the Siberian coast of Japanese troops from the Island of Sakhalin dislodged the enemy from the vicinity of Alkova July 24. The enemy's strength consisted of one battalion of infantry, besides several hundred volunteers with eight field pieces.

"Another detachment landed at Mugati and captured 40,000 tons of coal and light railway materials. Alexandrovsk was taken and entered the same evening after some resistance. At dawn July 25 the enemy holding a position east of Alexandrovsk was attacked, and our troops pressed him toward Novoe Michaelkoye, which place we completely occupied the same day. Two hundred prisoners were taken and also gun carriages, ammunition and provisions."

Forty Mile Front.

Kuanchangtsu, Manchuria, July 28.—According to reports from Corea the Japanese continue advancing along a forty mile front. Their vanguard is now about eighty miles from the mouth of the Tumen River. The Coreans estimate the strength of the Japanese at about 40,000 men. Their main force is concentrated at Kenchen.

Russians Retreat.

"Hearing of the advance of the Japanese, the Russians on Monday hastily retreated from Buryong and Fukyo, in Northern Corea."

Stopped British Ship.

Port Said, Egypt, July 28.—The Russian auxiliary cruiser Kuban stopped and examined the British steamer Fazilka (From London, July 9, for Calcutta), in the Red Sea, July 25. The Fazilka was allowed to proceed after her papers had been examined. The Kuban was formerly the Hamburg-American line steamer Auguste Victoria.

Komura's Stipulations.

Washington, July 28.—As a clearer idea is gain of Japan's peace terms, whose general character was outlined in the Associated Press despatches last night, the skepticism with which Washington receives European reports that Japan would determne the neutralization of Vladivostock is lessened.

In fact it is learned that not only is this likely to constitute one of Japan's demands, but it will be accompanied by a startling counter proposal. In effect, according to a seemingly well-informed source, Japan will propose in return for the neutralization of this last Russian port on the Pacific not to fortify Port Arthur. Should this information prove correct, it will entirely change the view which has prevailed in official circles, that the question of Vladivostock's neutralization could not reasonably be made a part of Japan's peace price.

It is pointed out that while the war has demonstrated that Port Arthur was a military blunder, nevertheless this great fortification constitutes a tremendous political influence in the Far Eastern question, and its abandonment as a stronghold is a concession of such magnitude that it is not felt Russia can refuse to meet it.

Sacrifice Only Apparent.

On the other hand, Japan's sacrifice would not be as great as seems at first glance, because her fortifiction of the Straits of Corea would offset the loss of Port Arthur as a strategic point. It is believed here that the question of Vladivostock will prove to be one of the most difficult which the conference will face, as Russia has not concealed her disinclination to permit it to enter into the negotiations. In this connection an interesting story is current in diplomatic circles regarding the selection of Baron Komura as Japan's chief plenipotentiary. According to this story Japan had hardly less trouble than did Russia in finding an official willing to undertake this delicate mission.

Baron Komura was finally induced to accept it, with the stipulation that before the conference assembled the following things should be done:

First—The flotation of a new loan in order that Japan should be prepared to continue the war in the event the effort for peace failed.

Second—The occupation of the Island of Sakhalin.

Third—An advance against Vladivostock.

The fact that the first three stipulations have been fulfilled, while advices from the front indicates the imminence of a general engagement, would indicate that the story is well founded.

Komura Meets Roosevelt.

Oyster Bay, July 28.—President Roosevelt entertained at luncheon yesterday Baron Hutaro Komura, Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Kogoro Takahira, Minister to the United States, the Japanese envoys to the Washington peace conference. Subsequently he had a long interview with them at which all phases of the approaching negotiations were considered.

Minister Takahira, speaking for both Baron Komura and himself, said that they had had a delightful and satisfactory visit, and talk with the President. Baron Komura, he said, had desired to pay his respects to President Roosevelt and on behalf of the Emperor to thank him for his efforts to bring about peace in the Far East.

Japan to Supply War Boats.

Berlin, July 28.—The National Zeitung yesterday published as an example of the Japanese influence in China the statement that Chang Chi Tung, Governor of the two Hu Provinces, has ordered from the Kawasaka works at Kobe, Japan, for use on the Yang Tse River six gunboats and four torpedo boats, the whole costing over $1,500,000.

Jews Killed in Riots.

Kishineff, July 28.—An attack on Jews in which several were killed and injured is reported to have occurred at Ruska Novska (New Russia, probably a village near Kishineff). The number of fatalities has not been established.

War Party Still Active.

St. Petersburg, July 28.—The war party is again making headway, drawing capital from Gen. Linevitch's optimistic telegrams, one of which with the Emperor's reply declaring that the misfortunes of war have not shaken his belief and devotion in the army and containing a wish that the troops may bring the war to a happy conclusion is published in all the papers.

Fresh Agrarian Disorders.

Odessa, July 28.—Serious agrarian disorders are reported to have occurred near Zhoerinka, in the Government of Kieff.

IS A REIGN OF QUACKERY

Lords' Strong Words Towards Preference Apostle.

LORD MINTO AS DEFENDER

Says Idea of Preference Fascinates Canadians—Duke of Devonshire Asked Whether Any Questions Re. Fiscal Policy Were to Be Put Before Colonial Conference When It Met — Motion Rejected.

London, July 28.—The dullness of the House of Lords was somewhat relieved when the Duke of Devonshire spoke to his motion calling attention to Mr. Chamberlain's recent utterances and expressing disapproval of any proposal to establish a general penal tariff or to give any colony a preferential tariff based on taxation of food. He asked the Ministers whether they intended to put any proposals before the Colonial conference if it met.

Before the present Government went out of office he was anxious to know whether Mr. Balfour's and Mr. Chamberlain's policies were now merged into one. If so, was it by Mr. Chamberlain retiring or Mr. Balfour advancing. He thought there was a good deal of evidence to show that Mr. Chamberlain had captured Mr. Balfour.

Mr. Chamberlain cared nothing for retaliation. His policy was one of revolution, to which Mr. Balfour had given encouragement by his silence. He was not surprised at Mr. Chamberlain's audacious claim that the Prime Minister's policy was practically the same as his own.

Lord Minto Speaks.

Lord Minto, in moving the amendment, said the Duke of Devonshire's resolution could only be taken as a cold rebuff by our kinsmen beyond the seas. The idea of preferential trade with the mother country was one which had most fascinated the politicians of Canada. It represented to them their opinion on the solution of the difficulty. Before he left the Dominion, Chambers of Commerce and other manufacturing bodies were unanimously in favor of it. They could not afford to treat this Imperial question without full acquaintance with the sentiment of the Colonies.

Lord Robertson fiercely attacked both Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Balfour. He urged the Conservative party to make it clear it was not a tool of Mr. Chamberlain, and to put an end to the reign of quackery.

Lord Goschen's View.

Lord Goschen found fault with Mr. Balfour's reticence and obscurity. He asked for a frank and unreserved declaration of the views of the Government. He believed the Colonies, before sending representatives, would prefer to know the exact policy advocated by the home Government.

Lord Lansdowne scouted the idea that the Government should pass a sentence of political outlawry on Mr. Chamberlain. They would stand by their supporters as long as their supporters stood loyally by them, even though some might go a little further than the Government did. The Government thought it would not be politic to intimate in advance that it was intended to rule out certain questions as being of a kind the conference should not be allowed to discuss.

The motion was met by moving the previous question and was lost by 171 to 57.

Dr. Ami to Report.

Ottawa, July 28.—Dr. A. H. Ami of the Geological Survey Department is engaged in the preparation of a report of the country through which the Grand Trunk Pacific will pass from Winnipeg to the Pacific coast.

Still the Same Story.

Winnipeg, July 28.—The C. P. R. crop report for the week ending July 26 was received yesterday and continues most favorable.

Nervous Women

Their Sufferings Are Usually Due to Uterine Disorders Perhaps Unsuspected

A MEDICINE THAT CURES

Can we dispute the well-known fact that Canadian women are nervous?

How often do we hear the expression, "I am so nervous, it seems as if I should fly;" or, "Don't speak to me." Little things annoy you and make you irritable; you can't sleep, you are unable to quietly and calmly perform your daily tasks or care for your children.

The relation of the nerves and generative organs in women is so close that nine-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous debility, the blues, sleeplessness and nervous irritability arise from some derangement of the organism which makes her a woman. Fits of depression or restlessness and irritability. Spirits easily affected, so that one minute she laughs, the next minute weeps. Pain in the ovaries and between the shoulders. Loss of voice; nervous dyspepsia. A tendency to cry at the least provocation. All this points to nervous prostration.

Nothing will relieve this distressing condition and prevent months of prostration and suffering so surely as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Miss Leiah Stowell, of 177 Wellington St., Kingston, Ont., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Your medicine is indeed a Godsend to suffering women, and I only wish that they all knew what it can do for them and there would be no need of their dragging out miserable lives in agony. I suffered for years with bearing-down pains, extreme nervousness and excruciating headaches, but a few bottles of your Vegetable Compound made life look new and promising to me. I am light and happy and I do not know what sickness is, and I have enjoyed the best of health now for over four years. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has sent sunshine into thousands of homes and hearts."

Will not the volumes of letters from women made strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound convince all women of its virtues? Surely you cannot wish to remain sick and weak and discouraged, exhausted each day, when you can be as easily cured as other women.

WILL NOT HURRY IT.

Privy Council Again Rules in Canada's Alien Labor Appeal.

London, July 28.—(C.A.P.—In the case of the Attorney-General of Canada vi Cain, arising from the Pere Marquette decision, Deputy Minister of Justice Newcombe, for the Dominion, made application to the Privy Council for speedy hearing of the appeal, leave for which was granted Wednesday. McKenzie, for the respondents, opposed the application. The court declined Newcombe's application, which he is open to renew in November.

In granting the leave to appeal yesterday the Privy Council stated decision was not likely to be given within 12 months.

Judgment Reserved.

London, July 28.—(C. A. P.)—The Privy Council has reserved judgment in the Kitty D. v. the King appeal.

Any Troubles In Your BATHROOM?

If you are having any trouble with your CLOSET or BATHROOM CONVENIENCES, come round and have a talk with us.

A gentleman, attracted by the range of Sanitary Closets and excellent values we are offering, invested in a new one, although he already had one that was working not badly.

The way he looked over the Closets we arranged before him for inspection showed he had been sifting the matter, and knew how to prove and disprove the claims of dealers.

The saving of health and expensive plumbing repairs, warranted the investment, he said.

How is yours working? Bring your Bathroom Troubles to us. Our Toronto Stock is what we sell in our Peterborough Branch.

Mr. W. D. Campbell, of Peterborough, who has been the guest of Mr. R. S. Skinner, returned home Tuesday.

Mr. F. Cox, of Peterborough, is camping at Mr. H. Neil's cottage at Long Point.

MAGNETIC POLE MOVES TO CANADA

Which is the More Desirable Destination for Better Immigration.

United States Gets the Poorer Class—Best Come to Canada.

The June report of the United States Immigration Department is a document of considerable interest in view of the attention that has been called to the vast increase in the inflow into the States from Europe. It reveals the fact that that increase is occurring in the least desirable of all classes of European immigration, the Italian and Hungarian nationalities. Out of a total increase over June, 1904, of 35,406, the Austro-Hungarian Empire accounts for 10,651 and the Italian peninsula and islands for 24,071, while the only other increase of any size is from Russia (including Finland,) which is more numerous by 1,289. The Italian migration is actually tripled, and the Austro-Hungarian is nearly doubled. Greece and Turkey show small increases, and the better classes of immigrants, the Danes, Germans, Norwegians (65% of a falling off) and Swedes show actual reductions. The total from the British Isles is nearly stationary, and there are more English and Scotch and fewer Irish. The immigration from British North America has almost disappeared, being 25 this June against 127 a year ago. One regrets, however, to notice that 1,000 more persons emigrated to the United States from the West Indies—just twice as many as in June, 1904.

June is the maximum and typical month for arrivals at the great American passenger ports, and these figures constitute a safe index of the character of the present influx to the United States. Austro-Hungary, Russia and Italy constitute 80,000 out of the total of 112,000 admitted during the month. The extraordinary increase in Italians is probably destined rather largely for Canada, for there is as much railroad work in sight in this country as in the United States; in either event it has little promise of permanent settlement, for the Italian labourer nearly always goes home in the long run with the proceeds of his labour, finding America the better place to get money and Italy to spend it. The Russians will certainly not go home, and may ultimately make good citizens, but at the best they are city dwellers, and of poor amalgamating qualities.

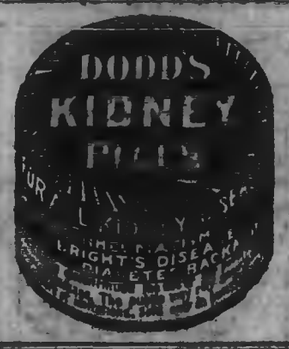
Compared with immigration to Canada, with its rapid increases in the most desirable classes of European nationalities, and its very considerable contribution from the American people itself, this is not at all a brilliant showing, and we have reason for concluding that the magnetic pole of attraction of high-class immigration has definitely shifted its position across to the Canadian boundary.—Montreal Herald.

A POINTER WORTH HAVING.

The merits of Ozone are well known, but in buying it one must be sure to get the purest form. Also, Ozone should always be taken along with "Celery King" the famous tonic laxative. The purest form in which Ozone is put up is "Solution of Ozone" (the coupon kind) and each bottle of this brand contains a coupon entitling you to a package of "Celery King" free.

No other firm in the world can give "Celery King" with Ozone. We give because our Ozone thus brings the highest results. In addition, you get just about twice as much "Solution of Ozone" for your money as of other kinds, and you also get it in the purest and most concentrated form. You also get "Celery King" free, instead of having to buy it which you would need to do in order to have full benefit from the use of Ozone.

Your druggist should have "Solution of Ozone" (the coupon kind.) If not, write to the Public Drug Co. Bridgeburg. Sold by W. B. Warne.



BLAMED IT ON ON M. MARCONI

Cornish Fishermen Wanted Wireless Station Abolished.

Claimed That Its Presence Was Responsible for Violent Storms.

Not long ago the wiseheads of England had a great laugh. The fisherfolk of Cornwall in England sent a petition to the Government. They demanded the abolition of the Marconi wireless telegraphy station at Poldhu. Their reason for so doing was on account of the frequency and violence of the storms which have beset their coast since the installation of Marconi's plant.

The press of England jeered, and people asked each other what they thought of the fishermen's petition. Punch used it as a peg upon which to hang many a witticism, and it served as a topic of conversation and amusement at many a dinner party in high society.

"Simple and uneducated" were the terms used in condescending pity to describe a body of people who could draw up so preposterous a petition.

Yet there are some things in heaven and earth to-day which are hidden from the wise and prudent, but which simple observation reveals to babes. The fishermen knew nothing of the vast powers of electricity, about which their betters know so much—and yet so little. But they knew the weather had changed materially, especially in the summer time when they expected it to be calm. They knew also that Marconi had erected his plant, which is to be seen towering skywards as so many tall columns, and is visible for miles as one walks the Cornish cliffs. In their minds these two facts operated as cause and effect.

One is accustomed to hear of changes in the weather, and to say it is not as it was in the days of one's youth.

At the same time it is a fact, universally admitted, that the weather has been more boisterous all over the world of late. All points of the compass have suffered alike, whether it be Canada or England or far Japan.

Students of prophecy revel in the fact, and in fine religious frenzy point to storms and wars as presaging a speedy end to the world.

Perhaps after all, and very probably, too, the simple and uneducated fishermen are wiser in their generation than the students of prophecy.

Everyone knows how intimately electricity and strong winds are connected.

The percussion caused by a cannon will discharge rain clouds, and these in turn cool the atmosphere and, in time of heat, produce strong local winds.

Similarly is the electricity of the air affected. The writer has seen a storm, several miles distant, discharged by the electrical power used for wireless telegraphy on board a man-of-war. Orders are always given to have the apparatus disconnected when there is any electrical disturbance of the atmosphere, as otherwise there is always danger of the instruments being spoiled.

If the small voltage such as is stored in a ship can so affect the weather, who shall say what effect the hidden force which lies in the most powerful installation in the world will have upon nature?

Day by day fresh plant is being erected in every part of the world, and from world's end to world's end, power is answering upon power, regardless of the vaster unknown powers of nature. Can we doubt she will have revenge and punish man who is so insolently stealing some of her forces, and who dares to use them even though he knows not whence they come nor whither they are going?

Some day perhaps we shall see a new conference of the powers, meeting at the Hague, not to discuss arbitration, but to make and ratify a formal agreement to abolish all over the world, wireless telegraphy, as a danger to the universe, productive of storms which lead to the loss of life at sea, and of famine, due to the ruin of crops on land.

Then will the simple, uneducated fisherfolk of Cornwall, prove to the world once more, that "wisdom is justified of all her children."

DECEASED HAD DAUGHTERS HERE

The Late Alexander Harkness Who Died in Cavan.

Other News From Mount Pleasant—Personal Items of Interest.

Special to The Examiner.

Mount Pleasant, July 28th.—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mills, of Reboro, are visiting at Mr. F. Gardiner's and other friends in the village before leaving for Haliburton, where Mr. Mills has engaged to teach the school for the ensuing year. He likes the location of the village so much that he has purchased a house and lot.

Great improvements are being made in the village and surrounding locality under the supervision of Mr. T. J. Clithroe, of the city of Peterborough, painter and paperhanger.

Farmers are having fine weather for haying.

Mr. J. J. Sadler was in the village on business this week.

Again the Township of Cavan is called upon to bear to the last resting place of the dead, one of its oldest and most respected citizens in the person of Alex. Harkness, who departed this life on Sunday last. Deceased was born in the County of Glengary eighty-five years ago, and when quite young joined the throng of land seekers west and located in Cavan, near Cavanville, where he hewed his home out of the bush and where he lived for nearly three-quarters of a century, beloved by all who knew him. His wife was called to her long home some eight years before him. Deceased was a prominent member of the Anglican church; a Reformer in politics and most liberal and kindly in all his dealings with the community. Three sons, Teasdale, William, and Thomas, and six daughters, Mrs. English, Peterborough; Mrs. Bigelow and Mrs. Simson, Cavan; Mrs. Bradburn, Peterborough; Mrs. Johnston, Minedosa, Man., and Mrs. Simon, Otonabee, are the descendants of the deceased, who mourn his departure, though his days and years were full indeed. The funeral took place on Tuesday to St. John's Cemetery, Venerable Archdeacon Allen, who has been his pastor for over half a century, being present to utter a tender word of sympathy at the bier of perhaps his oldest parishioner. Rev. W. C. Allen was also present, and a very large gathering of sympathizing friends.

LAWS OF THE TRADES UNIONS

No Excuse for Officer of Union Who Threatens Men.

Important Decision in Case Handed out by Mr. Justice Teetzel.

Union by-laws and regulations afford no excuse or protection to an officer of a union who, in pursuance of them, goes into premises where union men are working, and by threats and persuasion, induces them to quit work. An officer so doing can be restrained by injunction, and is liable for the damages the action causes to the contractor whose men he intimidates.

This is the decision of Mr. Justice Teetzel in a Berlin case, and in reaching it he follows the reasoning of the House of Lords in the Glamorgan Coal Company's case.

A. G. Branch, a contractor, of Preston, is the plaintiff, and the trouble arose over the brickwork on a house being built in Berlin for Mr. Levi Hagey. The foundation was laid by non-union labour and by the regulations of the Bricklayers' and Masons' Union, its members were bound, under heavy penalties, not to lay union bricks on a non-union foundation. Both Branch and his men were ignorant of the important fact that the foundation had been laid by the unionists, and the stones themselves gave no hint, so it came as a surprise when George Roth, secretary of the union, came on the premises and ordered the men to quit. They did quit and Branch sued for damages.

He gets $50 damages by the decision of Mr. Justice Teetzel and a perpetual injunction restraining Roth from interfering in the future.

The trouble took place two years ago and the decision was held pending the conclusion of the Glamorgan case referred to. Fortunately Mr. Hagey was able to get his house finished without waiting the judgment.

The main feature of the case as decided is the decision of Mr. Justice Teetzel that malice is not a necessary element in the charge in order to make the union official liable. He may act in the best of good faith, but still be is not justified in interfering between a contractor and the men in his employ.

THE CARE OF THE INSANE.

Recently some physicians have been advocating the addition of a department to general hospitals for the temporary or "first aid" treatment of acute lunacy on the grounds that prospects of cure at that stage under prompt and proper treatment are greatly improved, with a resultant decrease of insanity. This is no doubt a well-intended proposition, but impracticable. The first stage of insanity is generally its violent stage, and there is grave objection to disturbing the quiet and rest of patients with physical ailments, as would be done by the proximity of insane patients.

We have no reason to believe that there is any considerable increase of insanity in proportion to the population, and the means for care of the existing cases seems to be reasonably adequate, that is, with proper classification and distribution. There are in the several asylums of Ontario probably as many as 500 senile insane, who are not really insane, but in the doting stage of old age, who could in many cases be cared for at home, or better, in county houses of refuge, and are at present, in fact, occupying places in our asylums of the really insane, now housed in jail, as if criminals. There are, perhaps, 150 epileptics in our asylums who cannot properly be classed as insane, merely in need of special hospital treatment and segregation. The late Provincial Secretary laid the foundation of an institution for epileptics, and the plan carried out will make the provision for this class, which their special form of affliction demands. With the completion of the asylum buildings at Penetanguishene accommodation will be provided for 500 or 600 additional. There are at present in the asylums of the Province a considerable number of patients of large means, their estates being administered in trust. If a portion of the means of these patients were employed in the erection of cottages for their occupation in connection with some of our existing institutions, these subjects could be kept there. These cottages need not be expensive, and it seems the project could be easily carried out, thus relieving the congestion in the asylums proper, with the advantage of the services of the asylum medical staff. The idea seems easily practicable.

With, as remarked, proper classification and distribution of our insane population, reasonably ample accommodation is provided for some years, and a study of the situation and the application of rational methods in the general direction indicated would yield more satisfactory results.

John D. Rockefeller, the Standard Oil Billionaire, is represented as represented as writhing under the merciless exposure of his conscienceless and illegal methods by Ida M. Tarbell, in the July and August McClure's. Possibly it was with the idea of easing his suffering under the lash of this clever and well informed writer that he engineered the corner in flaxseed, by which on an investment of eight or ten millions he is said to have made a profit of twenty millions. The incidental closing of a number of factories, throwing out of employployment several hundred men, with the consequent suffering entailed on their wives and families, apparently made no difference. Compared with some of the results that have followed in acquisition of vast wealth —to which, if half of what Miss Tarbell has told of him is true, he has neither moral nor legal right — such trivial matters as the misery or poverty of a few hundred or a few thousand fellow creatures may easily be overlooked. If perchance they are thought of for a moment, a donation of a million or two to a university and a hypocritical speech at a prayer meeting ought surely to square the account. But will there not come a day of reckoning? Will it not some day dawn upon the people of the United States that there is grave danger in a system which has made Rockefeller and his associates possible, and is it not to be feared that in the process of altering that system some of the men who have used it to their own selfish advantage may get mixed up in the machinery and get crushed? Gifts to higher education and talks to Bible classes and young people's societies will not count for much when an aroused public sentiment is crystallized into action. — Hamilton Herald.

Our American cousins boast loudly and stridently of their liberty, and the incomparable superiority of their free "institutions," but the people are in the grip of a tyranny as far-reaching and odious as that which enslaves the Russian population. A footpad who holds up a free American citizen, may be arrested and punished, but the millionaire robber "holds up" the people on the same principle as that of Sterne's ecclesiastical curse—they are "held up" in eating, in drinking, in sleeping, in waking, in lying down, or rising up. So far, the trust concocting millionaire, has escaped judgment at the hands of human justice, but the good Lord's day of reckoning none can escape. The robber barons of old sought to make their peace with God by endowing a monastery or building a church. The United States' banditti seek the same end by contributing a part of their national steallings to a mission fund, or leading a Bible class at a prayer meeting.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

When the Conservative party was in Opposition at Toronto, it demanded, reminds the Brantford Expositor, that the Pettypiece railway taxation bill should be adopted bolus bolus, in fact without having been considered. Last session, with the responsibility of office upon their shoulders, the new Conservative ministers failed to adopt any such course, and now we find Attorney-General Foy declining to say whether or not the Government will sustain the report of the Pettypiece commission, which runs along similar lines. And yet Mr. Whitney tells the people that his party will carry out in office the pledges made by it while in Opposition!

OSHAWA POLICE OUT FOR A TIME

Night Constable Howarth Got Into Trouble.

Was Fined $5 for Assault, and Discharged From His Position.

Night Constable Howorth had a big time Tuesday night, says the Oshawa Vindicator. He set out for the lake to attend the Church of England Sunday school picnic. When he got as far as the Brook House, Cedardale, he stepped off the car to indulge in a little refreshment. How much he refreshed himself can only be judged from the sequel. At any rate he never reached the lake that night. There are rumours to the effect that when he had taken a few he hopped all who wanted a tussle, and wrestle anybody and everybody. His high balls he issued a challenge to finally arranged a fight down near the railway bridge with one of the gang. When they got him down there the whole gang appears to have piled on Howorth, and pounded him to their hearts' content. Not only this, but some of the vicious brutes appear to have cannibalistic tendencies, for they chewed his arms. The whole night's revelry is said to pretty well illustrate the character of the Brook house as it is at present conducted. When Howorth finally emerged from the sylvan shades of Cedardale he presented a battered spectacle in the pale moonlight. His face was all jammed and his body seriously bruised. He made his way up town somehow and to his boarding place at Mrs. Sandham's. He had a latch key and when he entered the house he got mixed as to the bedrooms, entering Mrs. Sandham's room.

She tried to show him that he was in the wrong room, but could not get him to understand anything, so she called her son, and he went after Chief Constable Crawford, who locked Howorth up till morning. On Wednesday afternoon Howorth appeared before Police Magistrate Murray and made no attempt to deny any offence charged against him. Mrs. Sandham did not wish to press any serious charge, so he was convicted of common assault, and fined $5 and costs. His worse penalty is the loss of his position, from which he was at once suspended by Mayor Fowke, Constable W. T. Stevens being again placed on duty until the council meets to formally appoint a successor. We are sorry for Mr. Howorth, whose prospects here were very bright, but the day has gone by when a constable in this town can expect to engage in barroom revelry.

THE MICROSCOPE

Proves That Parasites Cause Hair Loss.

Nine-tenths of the diseases of the scalp and hair are caused by parasitic germs. The importance of this discovery by Professor Unna, of the Charity Hospital, Hamburg, Germany, can not be overestimated. It explains why ordinary hair preparations, even of the most expensive character fail to cure dandruff; because they do not, and they can not kill the dandruff germ. The only preparation in the world that positively destroys the dandruff parasites that burrow up the scalp into scales called scurf or dandruff, is Newbro's Herpicide. In addition to its destroying the dandruff germ Herpicide is also a delightful hair dressing. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. DEATH OF MRS. GEORGE WILSON

Wife of Editor of Port Hope Guide Died Yesterday.

Mr. Wilson Very Ill Himself—A Highly Respected Lady.

(Port Hope Guide.)

The announcement of the death of Mrs. Geo. Wilson, wife of the senior editor of the Guide will come as a great shock to many of our readers.

Mrs. Wilson, though ill, has been about until Saturday last, when upon returning from an errand down street she was suddenly overtaken with faintness and fell to the ground. Sympathetic onlookers lifted her and placed her comfortably, telephoned this office and ordered a cab. She was removed to her home and given every care. Dr. Powers made careful examination and found the hip injured.

Changes for the worse came very rapidly, and the doctor, nurse and friends were surprised when she survived over Tuesday night. The end came very peacefully on Wednesday evening. She passed away absolutely without pain—simply fell asleep. Mrs. Striker, her sister, and Mrs. (Dr.) Greenwood, of Sutton, were with her at the last.

On account of the very serious illness of Mr. Wilson it was thought advisable to keep the knowledge of the illness and death of Mrs. Wilson from him, and for this reason there will not be a funeral service here, but interment will take place at Greenwood Cemetery, Pieton, where remains of the father, mother and other members of the family rest.

A WARNING TO ALL YOUNG MEN

To Keep Awake When They Call on Young Ladies.

Here's a Man Sued for Breach of Promise—Says He Must Have Done it in His Sleep.

Bordeaux, Wyo., July 26—If Miss Katherine Rippin, a pretty young school teacer, can execute her threat to sue Simon Brandt for breach of promise, Brandt will go into court and defend the suit on the ground that to his knowledge he never made a proposal of marriage to Miss Rippin, and that if he did propose to her he did it when he was asleep, and therefore is to be held neither to a moral nor legal accountability.

The suit promises to be one of the most singular and interesting ones of its kind in the history of jurisprudence in the West.

Brandt is a rachman, well to do, good looking, intelligent, and one of the best horsemen in the region.

Miss Rippin has secured legal advice and the case will soon come to trial. Miss Rippin will testify that Brandt made a proposal of marriage to her, and that she promised to marry him, one night last winter, when he called on her and sat up with her until after midnight.

Brandt will admit that he spent the evening in question with Miss Rippin and sat up with her until after midnight. But he will deny that he ever consciously made a proposal of marriage to her. He will seek to show by witnesses that ever since he was a boy he has been addicted to the strange habit of talking, walking and doing many other things in his sleep, and that what he said and did in his sleep he never was able to recall after he awoke.

They will testify that they have known him suddenly to fall into a sleep or a mental state resembling sleep, when sitting up in his hear, and then in his sleep to carry on an apparently rational conversation, and then to wake up wholly unconscious of, and utterly unable to recall a word that he had said.

TELEPHONE TALKS.

TO TELEPHONE USERS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC.—

The impression has gone abroad that THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF CANADA is required to purchase its equipment from American manufacturers at high prices, and that subscribers are paying for this in their rates. There is absolutely no foundation for this.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF CANADA, is one of the large manufacturing concerns of the country and is also one of the largest employers of Canadian labor. Practically everything that goes into the construction of a modern telephone system is produced in the factories owned and controlled by the Company. The prices charged the Company are fixed by competition with the largest electrical concerns on the Continent. That the prices are reasonable and the articles of the highest merit is demonstrated by the fact that nearly fifty per cent. of the output of these factories is sold to other Canadian consumers in competition with producers in the United States and Europe. At the present time the Company's factories are being doubled in size and capacity to keep pace with the demand.

The Bell Telephone Company employs in its various interests about 5,000 people and pays out in salaries alone $1,742,152.00 per annum.

These are facts of which the public is perhaps not aware, but which will, no doubt, interest all Canadians.

GAME WAS WON AND LOST IN TWO INNINGS

In First Two Innings of Game at Oshawa Yesterday Nine Runs Were Scored Off Douglas—Quinlan Replaced Him and Only One Run Crossed the Plate—Matched Game Results Disastrously for the Local Team—Bowmanville Defeated Them by 10-3 Yesterday.

Yesterday the matched baseball match between the Peterborough and Bowmanville teams, arranged on Saturday, was played—and—won by Bowmanville by a score of 10—3, in what proved to be the most unsatisfactory game of the season.

The rivalry between these two teams this season has been strong, both believing that it was a little the better organization; and this condition came to a head on Saturday, when, in a league game, the locals trimmed the Bowmanville team by 6—2 here, after having been defeated by 10—1 in Bowmanville.

The supporters of the latter team were not satisfied, however, and threw out a challenge, which was accepted, to play a game on neutral ground, to decide which was the better team.

The game has been played, and it has been decided that the Bowmanville bunch can at least win games, but there are many of those who saw the game who have doubts as to whether the better team won, and in view of certain events, it would seem that there are good reasons for their doubts.

Douglas, who has all season pitched good ball, and who proved a puzzle to the Bowmanville batters on Saturday here, was hit for nine runs in the first two innings of the game yesterday. He was taken out of the box and Quinlan was substituted, and only one run was scored off him. Stayne was taken out of the game by Manager McEwan, and Douglas played the third bag. That Douglas, who on Saturday, was able to almost shut out the Bowmanville team, should have shown such a complete reversal yesterday, is a fact which many will find it hard to comprehend.

The special train chartered to carry the excursion to Oshawa, was crowded, about 175 going from here. There was also a big crowd at the grounds at Oshawa, the gate receipts amounting to $175.

In the first two innings every man on the opposing nine faced him once in each innings. Hits were made, four were passed, one man hit, and a wild pitch chalked up for him and no less than nine runs were put over. Quinlan was put in the box in the third and pitched good ball for seven innings, but the team could not overcome the great lead and the game was lost. "Bubbie" Shea was in the game all the time, his stick work being especially good, getting a two and a three bagger. For Bowmanville Douglas pitched a fair game, the hits made off him were rather scattered and chances for scoring were few.

The trouble began with the first man up. Martyn hit to third and was safe on Stayne's error. Wallace was hit, Cherry sacrificed, Stowger got free transportation, and the "To Let" signs were taken down from all the bases. Osborne hit a long first and was safe, Osborne scoring on Graham's high throw to Rattray. Wallace came in with another tally on a pass ball, but Wilcox fanned. Williams was not wanting, and hit through to centre which Connors returned to the plate in fine style. Hooper was passed, but Higginbotham put an end to the slaughter by going out, short to first.

The Bowmanville team commenced the slaughter again in the second. Martyn sauntered, Wallace fouled out to catcher, Stowger hit a grounder to Stayne who threw wild to first and the runner was safe, Martyn going to third. Osborne failed to connect but Wilcox singled to left and stole second. Williams walked, and Wilcox scored on a poor throw to plate. Shea dropped Hooper's gather hard fly, and another run was chalked up. Rattray let the throw in get past him and another tally was registered. Higginbotham again ended the innings by fouling out to Graham.

In the third Douglas was taken out of the box and Quinlan substituted. Stayne was taken out of the game and Douglas was put on third. Quinlan pitched a great game and only one run was scored on him and even it might have been saved by a little sharper fielding. Bowmanville made their last tally in the sixth. Cherry fanned, but Stowger hit a hot one to second and was safe on Shea's error. Pilling muffed Osborne's easy fly and Wilcox singled to right scoring Stowger. Williams was out at first and Hooper fanned.

The locals failed to even up in their half. Graham started the ball, Sheridan fanned, but Shea brought the supporters to their senses by his slashing three-bagger to centre. With one gone and a man on third, another run was a certainty, but it did not come. Douglas walked, Rattray drew out to left and Stayne was out on an easy grounder.

In the second they had a further chance to increase their score. Pilling singled, Connors fanned, and Graham stole second, going to third on Cherry's muff. Callaghan was passed and stole second. But Graham flew out to Osborne and Sheridan grounded out.

A single tally was registered in the third. Shea opened with a two-bagger to left, but Douglas was out at first on a close decision. Rattray let to third but was out at first, Shea scored. Quinlan grounded out.

There was nothing doing until the seventh. Higginbotham made a good catch of Connor's fly Callaghan lifted a pretty one over second, Graham walked, but was nipped purloining second. Sheridan was safe on fine to second and looked to be an easy out trying to steal, but he bumped into Cherry who dropped the ball and the runner was safe. Callaghan scored on the play. Shea was looked to for a double, but he flew out to first and the chance to score was lost.

By innings:—
Peterborough ... ... 1010000100— 3

Summary.—Three base hits, Shea. Two base hits, Shea, Stowger, Sheridge hits, Douglas, Rattray, Cherry. Bases on balls, off Osborne, 3; Douglas 4; Quinlan, 3. Hit by pitcher, by Douglas, 1; Quinlan, 1. Wild pitch, Douglas. Struck out, by Douglas 2; Quinlan, 7; Osborne, 3. Left on bases, Bowmanville, 6; Peterborough, 7. Time, 2.10. Umpire, Rosspear.

It was no fault of Shea's that the game was lost.

Stayne's throwing to the bases was away off.

Bowmanville pulled together all the time.

Osborne pitched a steady game, and received good support.

Quinlan was in good form, and had he pitched from the first there would have been another story.

"Bubbie" had his eye on the sphere all the time. He is credited with a double and a triple.

Peterborough is good for Bowmanville yet.

A PROCESSION IN BOWMANVILLE

Victorious Team Was Welcomed Home Last Night.

A special despatch from Bowmanville to the Globe telling of the return last night says:—

The citizens turned out en masse tonight to welcome home the members of the baseball team, because of their great victory over the Peterborough team on the athletic grounds, Oshawa, this afternoon for a purse of $200 and gate receipts. The home team was met at the station at 10.30 p.m., by a monster torchlight procession, headed by the Durham Rubber Co. band and the Dominion Organ & Piano Co. band, and escorted up town, where they were cheered lustily by the throngs that lined the streets as they marched to the square, where they received a hearty welcome. Cheers were given for Manager W. J. Sandall, Pitcher Cecil Osborne and Catcher Wallace.

CHARMING PICNIC AT JACKSON PARK

Young People of St. John's Church Spend Delightful Evening.

The Young People's Association and the Girl's Guild of St. John's church held a delightful picnic last night at Jackson Park. The affair, which was of an informal nature, was one of the most enjoyable of the many events of the kind held at the Park during the present season. About fifty young people were in attendance.

Delightful refreshments were served by the ladies, after which short impromptu addresses were delivered by the Rector, Rev. J. C. Davidson, and Messrs. Jas. S. Hall, J. Pattie, Chas. Reid.

The party then adjourned to the residence of Mr. Thomas Hawson, Edgecomb street, where they were charmingly entertained by the Misses Dawson. A delightful social time was spent indoors and music during the remainder of the evening.

MAUD KESWICK WINS AT DETROIT

Former Peterborough Horse Won First Place in 2:18 Class.

Made Mile in 2:08—A Tribute to the Quality of Local Horses.

Detroit, July 28.—Perfect weather and track conditions saw some great racing at the third day of the Grand Circuit meeting on the Gregg Point track. Lecanda registered the fastest pacing heat, and Sadie Mac the second fastest trotting heat of the year, and there was a fall of before they will not soon forget. With But three in it the 2.04 pace proved to be the betting feature of the week.

Maud Keswick won the first and third heats of the 2.06 pace, and James Butler's Bolivar was scored. Maud Keswick was an unheard of Canadian mare until she drove Walter Direct out at Windsor, and is a great pacer. Davis James, of Gallagher fame, has her, and may have another champion. She was favourite, as was also Sadie Mac in her race. The summary:—

2.18 class, pacing, purse $1,500.

Bolivar, b.g., by Whalen (W. (De Ryer)	2	1	2
